Applications are invited from qualified individuals who are interested in being considered for a position as a per course instructor teaching Psychology 4251: Selected Topics in Learning and Motivation II in Fall semester 2021 at the St. John's campus. The course time will be scheduled in consultation with the Department Head. The Calendar description of the course is:

Selected Topics in Learning and Motivation II is an intensive examination of a specific topic in learning and motivation.

Required qualifications: (1) a demonstrated knowledge of psychology and of the specific topics noted in the course description; (2) an M.Sc. in psychology; and (3) demonstrated experience conducting research in psychology at the Masters (or equivalent) level are required. Preference will be given first to applicants who have previously taught Psychology 4251 on the St. John's campus, and secondarily to applicants who have previous experience teaching the equivalent of Psychology 4251 elsewhere.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names of three references in electronic form to: Psychology.Head@mun.ca

If electronic submission is not possible, applicants may send the information to:
