Applications are invited from qualified individuals who are interested in being considered for a position as a per course instructor teaching Psychology 2800 Drugs and Behaviour in Winter semester 2019 on the St. John's campus. The course is scheduled for Slot 18 TR 10.30-11.45. The Calendar description is:

Drugs and Behaviour is an examination of the neurophysiology of drug action, the measurable effect of drugs on experimentally controlled behaviour, and a survey of information available on common self-administered drugs and their immediate and long-term effects.

Required qualifications: (1) A demonstrated knowledge of psychology, behavioural neuroscience, neurophysiology, and the specific topics noted in the course description; (2) an M.Sc. in behavioural neuroscience or psychology; (3) evidence of effective teaching; and (4) demonstrated experience conducting research in this area at the Masters level are required. Preference will be given first to applicants who have previously taught Psychology 2800 on the St. John's campus, and secondarily to applicants who have previous experience teaching the equivalent of Psychology 2800 elsewhere.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names of three references in electronic form to: Psychsecretary@mun.ca

If electronic submission is not possible, applicants may send the information to:

Head, Department of Psychology
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, NL
A1B 3X9

The deadline for receipt of complete applications is 4:00 PM, 18 October, 2018.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities
