Applications are invited from qualified individuals who are interested in being considered for a position as a per course instructor teaching Psychology 4451 Selected Topics in Cognition II in Winter semester 2019 on the St. John's campus. The course is scheduled for T 12.30-15.00, although this may change. The Calendar description is:

4451 Selected Topics in Cognition II

(same as the former PSYC 4401) is an intensive examination of a specific topic in cognition.

Required qualifications: (1) A demonstrated knowledge of psychology and of the specific topics noted in the course description; (2) a Ph.D. in psychology; and (3) demonstrated experience conducting research in this area are required. Preference will be given first to applicants who have previously taught Psychology 4451 on the St. John's campus, and secondarily to applicants who have previous experience teaching the equivalent of Psychology 4451 elsewhere.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names of three references in electronic form to: Psychsecretary@mun.ca

If electronic submission is not possible, applicants may send the information to:

Head, Department of Psychology
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, NL
A1B 3X9

The deadline for receipt of complete applications is 4:00 PM, 17 October, 2018.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities
