

Adjunct-Appointment to the Department of Psychology

Criteria for Appointment:

Adjunct-appointment involves the establishment of a formal relationship with the academic programs of the Department of Psychology. Appointments are made without rank, “Adjunct Professor” being a generic designation for all persons in this category.

Adjunct-appointments are governed by Article 23 of the collective agreement(<https://munfa.ca/wp/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/MUN-MUNFA-CA-2023-Article-23.pdf>) In addition, adjunct faculty have the right to attend Faculty Meetings as a non-voting member as approved by the Department of Psychology.

Candidates for adjunct-appointment are persons outside the university with an established or on-going contribution to the research and teaching programs of the department.

Participation of adjunct-appointees in the academic programs of the department includes (but is not limited to) teaching or team teaching of undergraduate or graduate courses; and supervision of honours students or graduate students as supervisor, co-supervisor, or committee member. Research collaboration alone does not ordinarily constitute sufficient grounds for appointment to adjunct-status.

Application for Appointment:

Candidates seeking adjunct-appointment to the Department of Psychology must provide the Head of the Department with the following:

1. A current curriculum vitae
2. A letter indicating past/current contributions to the Department of Psychology
3. A letter of support from a faculty member of the Department
4. A letter of support from the applicants Director or Head of Department, as appropriate

Review and Renewal of Appointment:

Adjunct appointees are expected to maintain an active involvement with the Department of Psychology/ Appointments are for three years and shall be reviewed at the end of that time. A candidate seeking renewal for their appointment shall provide the Head of the Department of Psychology with the following:

1. A description of their association with the Department of Psychology during the previous period of appointment, including membership on supervisory committees, so-supervision of students, invited lectures and seminars, joint research, and other scholarly activity.
2. A current curriculum vitae
3. A letter indicating of current or potential contributions to the Department of Psychology
4. A letter of support from a faculty member of the Department
5. A letter of support from the applicants Director or Head of Department, as appropriate