Become. . .

At Memorial University of Newfoundland we are equipping students from more than 40 countries to be 21st century explorers. We are challenging them to explore ideas and places, to develop their talents and abilities, to address issues head on and to set ambitious life goals. For our part, we are committed to helping them realize their diverse aspirations – through

- innovative programs and learning environments on four campuses that offer the freedom to explore and experience the world around us
- engaging and committed faculty and staff, many recognized internationally in their fields
- research across many disciplines focused on expanding our understanding of our world and solving its problems
- a legacy of 60,000 alumni, who are explorers, problem solvers and inspirational examples of the transformational power of a Memorial University of Newfoundland education
