Your place to become

Explore your ingenuity. Discover your creativity. Make those around you stand up and take note - you are here to challenge commonness, to transform your world and ours. We set the stage for you, here at the edge of North America.

Memorial University of Newfoundland. A place where innovative programs set on four campuses encourages you to become an explorer. Where some of the world's most challenging faculty work with you to step beyond the ordinary. And where you'll discover that this is the place where people and ideas become.
