1 The Memorial University of Newfoundland Code

The attention of all members of the University community is drawn to the section of the University Calendar titled The Memorial University of Newfoundland Code, which articulates the University’s commitment to maintaining the highest standards of academic integrity.

2 Student Code of Conduct

Memorial University of Newfoundland expects that students will conduct themselves in compliance with University Regulations and Policies, Departmental Policies, and Federal, Provincial and Municipal laws, as well as codes of ethics that govern students who are members of regulated professions. The Student Code of Conduct outlines the behaviors which the University considers to be non-academic misconduct offenses, and the range of remedies and/or penalties which may be imposed. Academic misconduct is outlined in UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Academic Misconduct in the University Calendar.

For more information about the Student Code of Conduct, see www.mun.ca/student/sscm/conduct/.

3 School Description

The school of Music at Memorial University of Newfoundland is the largest and most comprehensive university school of music in Atlantic Canada. Four-year undergraduate programs are offered in performance, musicologies and composition. Students interested in music education have two options: the conjoint degrees of Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Music Education (B.Mus./B.Mus.Ed.), offered in collaboration with Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Faculty of Education, which can be completed in five years; and the four-year Comprehensive Major, which prepares them to apply for admission to the Bachelor of Music Education as a second degree. For students not ready to specialize, a Bachelor of Music (B.Mus.) in General Musical Studies with or without a Minor provides a flexible degree option. The School of Music’s faculty comprise a diverse group of performers and scholars from across North America and Europe who are as dedicated to the highest standard of teaching as they are to their own professional careers. Access to professional training is provided through the conjoint degree option. 3.1 Health Statement

Music study and music making are activities that demand great mental and physical energy and coordination. For this reason, students are strongly encouraged to maintain a healthy lifestyle, getting adequate rest, proper nutrition, and exercise, and avoiding practices that could be detrimental to good health and well-being.
4 Description of Programs
All courses in the School of Music are designated by the abbreviation MUS.

4.1 Bachelor of Music
The School offers a four-year Bachelor of Music with Majors in:

4.1.1 Composition
This Major is recommended for students who plan to compose or to teach composition.

4.1.2 Comprehensive
This major is recommended for students planning to apply for admission to the Bachelor of Music Education as a Second Degree.

4.1.3 General Musical Studies
This Major is recommended for students seeking a broad knowledge of music that will prepare them for a variety of career and advanced study options. Students have the option of including a Minor in a discipline other than Music.

4.1.4 Musicologies
This Major is recommended for students interested in research in music and/or media professions. A variety of approaches to music scholarship are addressed, including music history, ethnomusicology, and popular music studies.

4.1.5 Performance
This Major is recommended for students planning to pursue a career as a solo performer, orchestral or band player, university-based musician or private teacher.

4.1.6 Joint Major in Performance and Musicologies
This Major is recommended for students who have both advanced performance skills and an interest in music research. Students who are planning careers in specialized performance, music editing or as university-based musicians are encouraged to consider this Major.

4.1.7 Major in Performance with a Minor in Composition
This Major is recommended for students who have both advanced performance skills and an interest in music theory and composition. Students who are planning careers in performance, music editing, conducting, arranging, composing or as university-based musicians are encouraged to consider this program.

4.2 Five Year Bachelor of Music Conjoint with Bachelor of Music Education
This degree program is offered jointly with the Faculty of Education, and is recommended for candidates planning to pursue a career in Music Education.

4.3 Interdisciplinary Minor in Music and Culture
This Minor is available to students in the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Commerce (Cooperative), Bachelor of Recreation, Bachelor of Recreation (Honours), Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative), and Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative) (Honours).

4.4 Minor in Music History
This Minor is available to students in the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Commerce (Cooperative), Bachelor of Recreation, Bachelor of Recreation (Honours), Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative), and Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative) (Honours).

4.5 Honours Degree
An honours degree signifies superior academic achievement. The Bachelor of Music (Honours) is available to candidates in the Performance, Composition, Musicologies, General Musical Studies, and Comprehensive Majors, candidates in the Joint Major in Performance and Musicologies, and candidates in the Major in Performance with a Minor in Composition. To be considered for an Honours Degree, the student must so indicate on the prescribed "Application for Graduation" form. This form may be obtained on-line at the Memorial Self Service at www3.mun.ca/admit/twbkwbs.P_WWWLogin. Additional information is available from the Office of the Registrar at www.mun.ca/regoff/graduation/apply_grad.php. For further information on honours degrees see Bachelor of Music (Honours).

5 Admission/Readmission Regulations for the School of Music
In addition to meeting the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS, students must meet the Admission/Readmission Regulations for the School of Music.

5.1 General Information
1. Entry to the School of Music is competitive and by audition only.
2. Admission or readmission to the University does not necessarily constitute admission or readmission to any program.
3. As part of the regular admissions quota, one seat per year is available in the Bachelor of Music program for applicants of First Nations/Aboriginal ancestry who have met the minimum academic and performance requirements for admission to the program. Applicants must provide documentation of First Nations/Aboriginal ancestry. Applicants may also, if they wish, submit a letter of request at the time of application.
5.2 Application Forms and Deadlines
1. Admission to the Bachelor of Music degree is normally possible in the Fall semester only. The application deadline for admission to the Fall semester is January 15.
2. Transfer students may be considered for admission in the Winter semester if they have the prerequisites to enter a sufficient number of music courses in that semester. The application deadline for admission to the Winter semester is September 30.
3. Students who have withdrawn from the music degree program may apply to be readmitted in either the Fall or Winter semester.
4. The application for admission or readmission to programs offered by the School of Music is submitted online; current and returning Memorial University of Newfoundland applicants should apply using the Admissions menu within Memorial Self-Service at www5.mun.ca/admit/twbkwibs_P_WWWLogin. Applicants who are new to Memorial University of Newfoundland should follow the application instructions at www.mun.ca/undergrad/apply.

5.3 Admission/Readmission Requirements to the Bachelor of Music Degree Program
1. All applicants are required to audition to the satisfaction of the School on the instrument that they have chosen as their Principal Applied Study in their degree program.
   a. The School offers instruction in voice, piano, organ, flute, clarinet, saxophone, oboe, bassoon, trumpet, horn, euphonium, trombone, tuba, percussion, guitar, violin, viola, cello and double bass. Audition requirements for each instrument may be obtained from the School of Music General Office or online at www.mun.ca/music.
   b. Auditions are normally held in early March. Dates and locations of upcoming auditions are available from the School of Music General Office or online at www.mun.ca/music/programs.
   c. Late auditions may be held if space is available. Students auditioning late are normally not eligible for School of Music entrance scholarships.
   d. Transfer students and students seeking readmission to the music degree program must audition to determine their placement in applied study courses. The level of audition should be equivalent to the jury requirements for the prerequisite of the course to which they are seeking admission. Jury requirements are available from the Office of the School of Music or through the School of Music website at www.mun.ca/music.
   e. Transfer credit is not normally awarded for Music 4095, Music 4140 and Principal Applied Study courses.
2. All applicants are also required to take the following admission and placement tests:
   a. Placement Test in Theory and Musicianship: This test in basic rudiments, aural perception, and simple four-part harmony will be administered during the entrance audition period.
   b. Singsinging Test: This short test is administered individually.
   c. Piano Proficiency Test: This test assesses students' basic keyboard skills. Successful completion of the test is a prerequisite to required second-year core program courses. Students are advised to contact the School of Music regarding scheduling of the test and for information about private remedial piano instruction.
   d. Writing Test: This test is administered during the entrance audition period. It is intended to assess students' writing skills and their capacity to articulate ideas about music.
3. The School will notify applicants in writing when a decision has been made regarding admission.

5.4 Major
1. With the exception of the Comprehensive Major, candidates normally declare their intended Major area of study in their fourth semester in the Bachelor of Music program.
2. A candidate may not change his/her Major without the written permission of the Dean. In cases where permission is granted, the candidate shall be required to fulfill all requirements for the new Major. However, in the case where a student's Major changes from Performance to one of the other Majors, the Principal Applied Study courses successfully completed under the Performance Major may be used to satisfy the requirements for Principal Applied Study in the new Major, with any additional credit hours being used as Music electives in the new Major.
3. Candidates shall choose one of the following areas for their Major:

5.4.1 Composition
Students interested in the Composition Major are strongly encouraged to take Music 3100 in their second year. Candidates for this Major must apply in writing to the Dean by February 15th in the semester during which they are registered for Music 2108, submitting up to three of their own compositions by the end of that semester. Candidates will be interviewed by a panel of composition faculty. Admission to this Major will be based on the candidate's: 1) submitted compositions, 2) interview, 3) achievement in Music 1107, 1108, 1700, 2107, 2108, 3100 and any other elective courses in music theory and composition, 4) general academic achievement, and 5) potential for a career and/or graduate work in composition.

5.4.2 Comprehensive
Candidates planning to apply for admission to the Conjoint degrees (Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Music Education) should first declare the Comprehensive Major by the end of their second semester in the Bachelor of Music program in order to take the necessary prerequisite courses for admission to the Conjoint degrees program. Students planning to apply for admission to the Bachelor of Music Education as a second degree may wait until their fourth semester to declare this Major. Please note that completion of this degree does not guarantee admission to the Faculty of Education.

5.4.3 General Musical Studies
Candidates for the General Musical Studies Major need not submit an application. All candidates who have not been admitted to another Major by the end of their fourth semester in the Bachelor of Music program will automatically be admitted to the General Musical Studies Major. Students have the option of including a Minor in a discipline other than Music, in which case they must meet all prerequisites and requirements for the Minor. The subject of the candidate's Minor shall be that declared by the candidate on the Change of Academic Program Form, which is available at www.mun.ca/regoff/registration/Declare_Change_Academic_Program.pdf or in person at the Office of the Registrar.
5.4.4 Musicologies
Candidates for this Major must apply in writing to the Dean by February 15th in the semester during which they are registered for Music 2006, submitting up to three pieces of relevant work by the end of classes in that semester, including essays or analyses written either in the context of academic course work or independently. Candidates will be interviewed by a panel of faculty in this discipline. Admission to this Major will be based on the candidate’s: 1) submitted work, 2) interview, 3) achievement in Music 1005, 1006, 2005, 2006 and any electives in musicologies, as well as English, Critical Reading and Writing (CRW) courses, and/or former Research/Writing (R/W) courses, 4) general academic achievement, and 5) potential for a career and/or graduate work in musicology, ethnomusicology, journalism or a related field.

5.4.5 Performance
Candidates for this Major must apply in writing to the Dean by February 15th in the semester during which they are registered for Music 240B. Candidates are required to audition for this program. Where possible, the jury examination for Music 240B will be considered as the audition for admission to the Performance Major, although in some cases the audition may require repertoire beyond the level and amount prepared for the jury examination. Admission to this Major will be based on the candidate’s: 1) performance on the audition and achievement in Music 140A/B and 240A/B, 2) general academic achievement, and 3) potential for a career and/or graduate work in performance.

5.4.6 Joint Major in Music Performance and Musicologies
Candidates for the Joint Major must apply in writing to the Dean by February 15th in the semester during which they are registered for Music 240B. Candidates for admission to the Joint Major must fulfill the requirements for admission to both the Performance and Musicologies Majors.

5.4.7 Major in Music Performance with a Minor in Composition
Candidates for this Major must apply in writing to the Dean by February 15th in the semester during which they are registered for Music 240B. Candidates must fulfill the requirements for admission to both the Performance and Composition Majors.

5.4.8 Bachelor of Music Conjoint with Bachelor of Music Education
This program is offered with the Faculty of Education, and is recommended for candidates planning to pursue a career in Music Education. Candidates for the Conjoint Degrees program must meet the Faculty of Education’s admission requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education Conjoint Degree program. Applications must be submitted to the Faculty of Education by January 15 for admission to the following Fall semester.

5.5 Admission Requirements to Minor Programs
1. The Interdisciplinary Minor in Music and Culture and Minor in Music History are available to students in the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Commerce (Cooperative), Bachelor of Recreation, Bachelor of Recreation (Honours), Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative), and Bachelor of Recreation (Cooperative) (Honours). Students wishing to complete either of these minors must declare so on the Change of Academic Program Form, which is available at www.mun.ca/regoff/registration/Declare_Change_Academic_Program.pdf or in person at the Office of the Registrar.
2. Students wishing to be considered for admission to the Minor in Music History must also meet the prerequisites for Music 1107 and 1117.

6 Bachelor of Music Degree Regulations
Students admitted or readmitted to the School of Music before Fall 2012 must follow the regulations outlined in the 2012-2013 University Calendar under Bachelor of Music Degree Regulations, Transition to New Bachelor of Music Degree Program. In addition Table 1 Substitutions for Music Courses Required Under Previous Regulations lists the courses that students following the regulations of an earlier Calendar may substitute for required courses that are no longer offered. Table 2 Substitution of Former Courses For Courses in This Calendar lists the former courses that may be substituted for courses required under this Calendar which were not offered before Fall 2012. Both Tables may be found at www.mun.ca/music/current/crse_subs.php.

6.1 Program Regulations
1. Students admitted to the Bachelor of Music program may register for a maximum of 18 credit hours per semester without written permission from the Dean.
2. A student may not repeat for credit a Principal Applied Study course that s/he has already successfully completed, unless the student has the written permission of the Dean.
3. Active participation in School of Music ensembles is an integral part of a music student’s education. One must be present at rehearsals and performances to have participated in the learning experience. Furthermore, the success of the ensemble as a whole is dependent upon the regular attendance and participation of all of its members. Accordingly, attendance will be required in the following courses: Music 2611-2620, Music 263A/B, 265A/B, 3009, and Music 3500, and Music 3511-3518.

The Bachelor of Music (Honours) will be awarded to candidates in the Performance, Composition, Musicologies, General Musical Studies, and Comprehensive Majors, candidates in the Joint Major in Performance and Musicologies, and candidates in the Major in Performance with a Minor in Composition who:
1. are graduating with First Class standing;
2. meet all the graduation requirements in the Bachelor of Music Degree Regulations for their Major; and
3. have attained a minimum average of 82% in all Music courses included in the degree.
7 Academic Standards and Continuance in the Bachelor of Music

1. The passing grade in Music 345A/B and Music 445A/B is 50%. However, students must attain a minimum final grade of 75% in both the course and the recital in order to continue in, or graduate with, the Major in Performance.
   a. Students who pass Music 345A/B but do not attain a grade of at least 75% in both the course and the recital will be unable to register for Music 445A and will be automatically registered in the General Musical Studies Major unless they request, and are granted admission to, another Major.
   b. Students who pass Music 445A/B but do not attain a grade of at least 75% on both the course and the recital, but who meet all other requirements for the Performance Major, will be eligible to graduate with a major in General Musical Studies.

2. With the exception of those who have completed Music 440B or 445B, students who are not registered for a Principal Applied Study course or Education 403X at the end of the regular registration period will be deemed to have withdrawn from the Bachelor of Music degree program.

3. A student who withdraws from a Principal Applied Study course at any time in the semester shall have his/her eligibility to continue in the degree program reviewed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. The Committee shall determine whether or not the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn.

4. A student whose average in Music courses falls below 65% in any semester will be placed on probation.

5. A student who is on probation will be returned to clear standing if s/he achieves an average above 65% in music courses taken during the probation semester.

6. A student will be required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Music degree program if a) the student's average in music courses falls below 65% in each of two consecutive semesters of registration in the program, or b) the student's average in music courses falls below 65% in any three semesters of registration in the program, or c) the student fails any music course more than once, or d) the student has been unable to complete two consecutive semesters or three non-consecutive semesters of applied music studies (Music 140A/B, 240A/B, 340A/B, 440A/B, 345A/B, 445A/B).

7. Students who have withdrawn from the Bachelor of Music degree program and wish to re-enter the program must re-apply in competition. A student re-entering the program may be readmitted on probation if the Admissions Committee so recommends.

8. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Music degree program may apply for readmission after a minimum of two semesters have elapsed following the withdrawal.

9. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Music degree program twice are ineligible for further readmission.

10. Students who have withdrawn from the Bachelor of Music degree program may apply to be readmitted in either the Fall or Winter semester.

9 Graduation

Upon meeting the qualifications for any of the programs of the School of Music a student must apply by the appropriate deadline date to graduate on the prescribed “Application for Graduation” form. This form may be obtained on-line at the Memorial Self Service at www3.mun.ca/admit/hwbkwbisPastWWWLogin. Additional information is available from the Office of the Registrar.

10 Waiver of School Regulations

Every student has the right to request waiver of School regulations. Students wishing waiver of University academic regulations should refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Waiver of Regulations.

1. The School reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any School regulation in its application to individual students where merit and equity warrant in the judgment of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School.
2. Waiver of a School course prerequisite or co-requisite may be granted by the Dean.
3. All other requests for waiver of a School regulation must be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School for consideration. Requested and/or other documentation to substantiate the request must be provided.
4. Any waiver granted does not reduce the total number of credit hours required for the degree.

11 Appeal of Decisions

Any student whose request for waiver of School regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Decisions.
