Logging into IBM SkillsBuild

Which email address should I use to log in?

You should have received an email from SkillsBuild when you were registered to the platform. Wherever you received that welcome email is the email address that you must use. If you didn't receive an email, reach out to your SkillsBuild partner.

The organization you are a part of has started your registration process, they used the email you've provided them. You should have received an invitation email from sbuser@us.ibm.com, the subject line is "Welcome to IBM SkillsBuild for Job Seekers!". Finish your registration by clicking in the "go to IBM SkillsBuild" button.
