

“ENGAGING ISLANDS: 2018 RETI SYMPOSIUM” – AGENDA (DRAFT)

RETI: Réseau d'Excellence des Territoires Insulaires (Island Universities Network)

Friday, November 23 - Tuesday, November 28, 2018

St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada

(Host: Memorial University of Newfoundland)

Day 1 - Friday, November 23 (Marine Institute - 155 Ridge Road)

5:30 - 6:30 pm	Opening reception (Graduate Student Lounge)
6:35 - 7:20 pm	Marine Institute Tour Stage 1
	Group A	Group B
	Bridge Simulator (Centre for Marine Simulation (CMSI))	Flume Tank (Centre for Sustainable Aquatic Resources (CSAR))
7:20 - 8:10 pm	Marine Institute Tour Stage 2
	Group A	Group B
	Flume Tank (Centre for Sustainable Aquatic Resources (CSAR))	Bridge Simulator (Centre for Marine Simulation (CMSI))
8:10 - 9:00 pm	Reception continues (Discussion, networking)

Day 2 - Saturday, November 24 (Signal Hill Campus - 100 Signal Hill Road)

8:30 - 9:00 am	(B2007) Breakfast and welcome, Rob Greenwood, Executive Director, Office of Public Engagement, MUN, Message from Dr. Clive Mulholland, President of RETI
9:00 - 10:30 am	(B2007) Live recording of Rural Routes podcast episode with a panel discussion on role of island universities: Moderator: Dr. Rob Greenwood. Panel: Mr. Craig Pollett, Dr. Mathieu Graziani, Dr. Linda Stewart, Dr. Carmen Rubio-Armendariz, and Dr. Robert Gilmore.
10:30 - 10:45	Coffee break (Atrium)
10:45am - 2:45 pm	Presidents' Session (B2007A), lunch included at 12:30	Priority setting discussion (students and faculty) (B2007, lunch included at 12:30)
	Presidents' Discussion	Student discussion on priorities for the island universities and the network
	Governance committee, membership committee, finance
2:45 - 3:20 pm	Coffee break (Atrium)
3:20 - 3:30pm	Presidents photo and participants photo
3:30 - 4:00 pm	(B2007) Town Hall: Report back on student and faculty priority for RETI network
4:00 - 4:05	Housekeeping
5:30 - 7:30 pm	President's Reception (at Memorial University President's residence)

Day 3 - Sunday, November 25 (Signal Hill Campus - 100 Signal Hill Road)

8:30 - 9:30 am	(B2007) Breakfast
9:30 am - 11:15 pm	RETI priorities	Island School
	(B1003) Internationalization	(B2007B) Island literature, folklore, and language (Chair: Dr. Michelle Porter)
	(B2007A) Research	9:30 - 9:50 Christelle Moretti: The teen's relationship through social networks with the motivation of linguistic repertory
	(B1004) TBD Strategic priority	9:55-10:15 Davia Benedetti: Ethnoscenological practices in Corsica have has statement of identity: their process of creation and spectacularisation
		10:20 - 11:40 Moriaki Miyahira: Difference and factor of Numerical values of extinction crisis of folk ritual in each village in Nishihara-Town, Okinawa Prefecture, Japan – Aiming to build the intangible cultural property red data book
11:15-11:30	Break	11:45 - 12:05 Nicolas Sorba: The Corsican language between identity reponse and developpement perspective
11:30 - 12:15	(B2007) Plenary priorities discussion
12:15 - 1:45 pm	(B2007) Lunch and Keynote
	(B2007) Keynote: Dr. Paul Snelgrove - Marine Biodiversity and the Health of Planet Ocean
2:00 - 3:30 pm	Island School	(B2007) Island literature, folklore, and language (Chair: Dr. Michelle Porter)
	(B2007B) Ocean Science and Technology (Chair: Sheila Downer)
2:00 - 2:20	Yuzuru Ikeda: How do we study "mind" of cephalopods? An example for biological approach at the island university in the Ryukyu Archipelago, Japan	Dominique Verdoni: Heritage and territory: a founding link of peoples called "without History". The Corsican example.
2:25 - 2:45	Sumire Kawashima and Yuzuru Ikeda: Behavioral study on visual and tactical learning, a fundamental base for cross modal recognition, in tropical octopuses	Erick Miceli: Orators and Rhetoric through the Corsican Eighteenth-Century Revolution (1729-1769)
2:50 - 3:10	Yuma Sakurai and Yuzuru Ikeda: Anatomical study by use of micro-CT on brain structure of cephalopod	Panel: Conchúr Ó Giollagáin, Nicolas Sorba, Mathieu Graziani, Davia Benedetti: Social and cultural challenges for minority linguistic groups in late modernity
3:15 - 3:35	Ritsuki Kawabata and Yuzuru Ikeda: Behavioral study on signal transmission among school mates in the oval squid Sepioteuthis lessoniana
3:35 - 3:45 pm	Coffee break (Atrium)
3:45 - 5:20	Island School

“ENGAGING ISLANDS: 2018 RETI SYMPOSIUM” – AGENDA (DRAFT)

	(B2007B) People, mobility, and internationalization of island spaces (Chair: Sonja Knutson)	(B2007) Resilience and governance on islands (Chair: Dr. Rob Greenwood)
3:45-4:05	Ayano Ginoza: Gendering in the “Asiatic Pacific Theater” and Transnationalizing a Women’s Demilitarization Movement	Fleur Ward: Digital Governance: the Scottish SNIs
4:10-4:30	James Randall: Perceptions of Islanders Living “Away”: Repatriation on Prince Edward Island	Sébastien Quenot: Can Corsica become an island of Europe and Mediterranean sea?
4:35 - 4:55	Christopher A. Williams: Between a past-present liminality: Accounting for the ‘anti-globalizing’ effects of Jamaica and Jamaicans on the national[ist] collective Caymanian consciousness	Yoko Fujita: Establishment of Regional Science for Small Islands -Okinawa as a hot spot of island issues-

Day 4 - Monday, November 26 (Field Trip: Holyrood, Brigus, Spaniard’s Bay, and Carbonear)

8-8:15	Board bus at ALT Hotel (125 Water Street)
8:15 - 9:30 am	Trip to Holyrood
9:30 - 10:45 am	Holyrood Presentation: Community-University collaboration success story (Town of Holyrood, MI)
10:45 - 11:55 pm	Bus from Holyrood to Carbonear (includes stops in Brigus, Spaniard's Bay)
11:55 - 1:00 pm	Lunch at the Stone Jug
1:00 - 2:30 pm	Public Engagement Session - “Small-Island Tourism – Economic Value & Trends in Newfoundland Context” (Dr. Mark Stoddard, Jane Severs, and Jerry Byrne)
2:30 - 3:00 pm	Culture’ Break (stroll the street, visit coffee shop, gallery across the street)
3:00 - 4:15 pm	Bus from Carbonear to Alt Hotel (75min via TCH)
	Free evening

Day 5 - Tuesday, November 27 (Signal Hill Campus - 100 Signal Hill Road)

9 - 12:00 pm	Island School
	(B2007A) People, mobility, and internationalization of island spaces (Chair: Bojan Fürst)	(B2007B) Island tourism – a part of a healthy economy (Chair: Rebecca Cohoe)
9:00 - 9:20	Amy Jones: Thriving Regions Partnership Process	Joanne Watson: Is the Isle of Skye too full?
9:25-9:45	François Santoni: The place of Corsica in the Mediterranean strategic game : 5th - 2nd century B.C.	Blair Winsor: The Fogo Island Inn: The place-based tensions and paradox of a tourism oriented social enterprise
9:50 - 10:10	Michelle Porter: “I didn’t think I’d ever be back:” Narrating home in NL	Deborah Beal: The Ethics of Ecotourism in the Caribbean
10:15 - 10:30	Coffee break (Atrium)
	(B2007A) Resilience and governance on islands (Chair: Bojan Fürst)	(B2007B) Island tourism – a part of a healthy economy (Chair: Rebecca Cohoe)
10:30 - 10:50	Tom Cooper: Why is Critical Infrastructure Important to Island Communities?	Jamie Skidmore (PechaKucha style): A Mermaid meets a Fish Tale: The Isle aux Morts Theatre Festival
10:55 - 11:15	Jeff Webb: Revisiting the Fogo Process: Memorial University’s experimentation in media as a tool for public engagement	Mélanie Erostate: Ensuring the conservation of coastal groundwater dependent ecosystems to guarantee the future sustainability of island tourism
11:20 - 11:40	Jack Daly: Coastal Communities in Transition: A Governability Assessment	Antoinette Gayle and Donna A. Minott: Jamaican coffee (Coffea arabica var. typica) grown at different altitudes: a comparison of caffeine and cup quality
11:45 - 12:05	Leanna Butters: Exploring the impacts of Fly-in/fly-out Commuting in Deer Lake, Newfoundland and Labrador: Implications for Community Sustainability
12:10 - 13:30 pm	(B2007) Lunch, What we learned, Closing remarks

Day 6 - Wednesday, November 28 (Flex Day/Sightseeing)

--	--