

Ethics Scenario # 4

Protection of Confidential Information

ANSWER

---

This answer is “no” for both of these questions.

The direct video and interview information should only be shared with members of the Ergo-Team who have signed the Ergo-Team Confidentiality Agreement and who understand what the employee has consented to. Individuals outside the project should not have access to this information because this is not what the volunteer has consented to.