

TERMS OF REFERENCE: DISABILITY INCLUSION GROUP (DIG-MUN)

Originally formed in response to a suggestion made during the CRWDP-sponsored Roundtable on Inclusion in November 2015, Memorial's Disability inclusion Group is a group of volunteers from Memorial University and some key outside government and community organizations that seeks to:

- 1) encourage dialogue around issues relating to disability inclusion at Memorial University for faculty, staff, and students;
- 2) identify opportunities to improve disability inclusion policies and practices at Memorial University; and
- 3) work toward the development of a Disability Studies curriculum for Memorial students in order to enhance inclusion capacity among future employers and employees in NL.