

SEXUAL HARASSMENT OFFICE EDUCATION EVENTS Fall 2022

Sexual Harassment Office and Key Concepts
faculty and staff

Wednesday, September 28th
3-4 p.m.
Room ED 3048

This session provides a comprehensive overview of the role of the Sexual Harassment Office, Memorial's policy and procedures, resources available, consent and bystander concepts. It is designed to increase awareness and support the prevention of sexual violence.

Please register through Eventbrite or by emailing shoffice@mun.ca.

Sexual Harassment Office and Key Concepts
students

Thursday, September 29th
11 a.m.-12 p.m.
VIRTUAL via Webex

This virtual session provides a comprehensive overview of the role of the Sexual Harassment Office, Memorial's policy and procedures, resources available, consent and bystander concepts. It is designed to increase awareness and support the prevention of sexual violence.

Click HERE to register.

Bringing in the Bystander
faculty and staff

Wednesday, October 19th
1:30-4 p.m. AND
Thursday, October 20th
9:30 a.m.-12 p.m.
Room EN 1001 (19), EN 1004 (20)

This is an evidence-based intervention adapted for Memorial. It is designed to create a community of shared responsibility to prevent sexual violence and provide guidance on how to safely intervene.

Workshop Objectives:

- Participants will understand the concept of bystander intervention
- Participants will be able to identify a continuum of inappropriate sexual behaviour
- Participants will understand their role in bystander intervention and make a commitment to intervene in the case of sexual violence before, during, and after an incident
- Participants will understand their own barriers to bystander intervention and learn techniques to overcome them
- Participants will develop skills to intervene as a bystander

The first session is designed to introduce participants to the notion of bystander responsibility and help them recognize inappropriate behaviour that requires intervention, whereas the second focuses more on how to intervene.

This program covers topics that are very sensitive and can be disturbing for some.

Please register through Eventbrite or by emailing shoffice@mun.ca.

Bringing in the Bystander students

Thursday, October 27th
9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. and 1-3:30 p.m.
Room EN 1004

This is an evidence-based intervention adapted for Memorial. It is designed to create a community of shared responsibility to prevent sexual violence and provide guidance on how to safely intervene.

Workshop Objectives:

- Participants will understand the concept of bystander intervention
- Participants will be able to identify a continuum of inappropriate sexual behaviour
- Participants will understand their role in bystander intervention and make a commitment to intervene in the case of sexual violence before, during, and after an incident
- Participants will understand their own barriers to bystander intervention and learn techniques to overcome them
- Participants will develop skills to intervene as a bystander

The first session is designed to introduce participants to the notion of bystander responsibility and help them recognize inappropriate behaviour that requires intervention, whereas the second focuses more on how to intervene.

This program covers topics that are very sensitive and can be disturbing for some.

Please register through Eventbrite or by emailing shoffice@mun.ca.

First Responder faculty and staff

Wednesday, October 5th
10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.
Room EN 1001

This session provides an understanding of a trauma-informed response and clarity of your role as a first responder. Responding to sexual violence disclosures can be challenging and anyone can be in the position of being a first responder.

Please be advised that there is sensitive material in this session that requires participants to reflect on their own attitudes and values.

Please register through Eventbrite or by emailing shoffice@mun.ca.

First Responder students

Wednesday, October 5th
2-3:30 p.m.
Room EN 1001

This session provides an understanding of a trauma-informed response and clarity of your role as a first responder. Responding to sexual violence disclosures can be challenging and anyone can be in the position of being a first responder.

Please be advised that there is sensitive material in this session that requires participants to reflect on their own attitudes and values.

Please register through Eventbrite or by emailing shoffice@mun.ca.
