Intercultural Learning Program Facilitator

Job Description: The Intercultural Learning Facilitator will report to the Internationalization Office director. The successful candidate be responsible for the following tasks:

- Assist with developing an Intercultural Learning module designed to increase the understanding and skills of those that interact with newcomers in the Province, including both public and private sector.
- Engage in recruitment of stakeholder participants to the program.
- Organize 10 sessions from Fall 2021 – Winter 2022 for participants.
- Support participants with post-session mentoring.
- Assist with development of pre-and post-surveys.
- Assist with the final report on the program (due March 31, 2022)

Job Requirements:

- Demonstrated experience with cross-cultural communication
- Demonstrated understanding of newcomer challenges
- Demonstrated understanding of pedagogy for intercultural learning
- Excellent organizational skills
- Ability and willingness to work remotely
- Ability to work independently & with a team
- Experience working with newcomer populations (international students, foreign workers, spouses and families of newcomer students/workers)
- Experience and confidence in delivering public sessions.
- Lived experience as a newcomer to Canada an asset

Eligibility: Registered MUNL graduate students are eligible for this position.

Rate of pay: $22.22/hour Hours: 6 hours/week

Dates: Start ASAP until end of Winter 2022 semester

To apply, please send a cover letter & resume to Sonja Knutson, director, Internationalization Office at sknutson@mun.ca. Closing date for applications is Sept 17, 2021.

Employment is subject to the terms and conditions of the TAUMUN collective agreement. The collective agreement can be viewed online at: