Graduate Assistant Position in the Department of Anthropology for Winter 2023

The Department of Anthropology invites applications for a Graduate Assistant (GA) position for the Winter 2023 semester (January 4 to May 1 2023). The position will entail 90 hours of teaching and research support for Dr. Sandrine Jean. The duties of this position include monitoring course email, helping to manage online discussion groups, grading and the development of pedagogical material. The GA will also help with research-related activities as per instructed by the supervisor.

The position requires a strong background in the social sciences, with a preference for those who have advanced training in Sociocultural Anthropology.

Applications can be submitted by e-mail and should include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and the names of two references.

Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Lincoln Addison
Associate Professor and Head of Department of Anthropology
Memorial University
E-mail: laddison@mun.ca

Applicants should cc Valarie James, Administrative Secretary in the Department of Anthropology (vjames@mun.ca) in their email.

Employment is subject to the terms and conditions of the MUN-TAUMUN collective agreement.

Applications will be received until December 5, 2022.