Intercultural Learning Program Facilitator

Job Description: The Intercultural Learning Facilitator will report to the intercultural training team. The successful candidate be responsible for the following tasks:

- Assist with developing an Intercultural Learning module designed to increase the understanding and skills of those that interact with newcomers in the Province, including both public and private sector.
- Engage in recruitment of stakeholder participants to the program.
- Organize 10 sessions from Fall 2022 – Winter 2023 for participants.
- Support participants with scheduling and tracking post-session mentoring.
- Assist with development, administration and interpretation of pre-and post-surveys.
- Assist with the final report on the program (due March 31, 2023)

Job Requirements:

- Demonstrated experience with cross-cultural communication
- Demonstrated understanding of newcomer challenges
- Demonstrated understanding of pedagogy for intercultural learning
- Excellent organizational skills
- Microsoft Office Skills: Intermediate to Advance
- Comfortable with using WebEx and Zoom
- Ability and willingness to work remotely
- Ability to work independently & with a team
- Experience working with newcomer populations (international students, foreign workers, spouses and families of newcomer students/workers)
- Experience and confidence in delivering public sessions
- Lived experience as a newcomer to Canada an asset

Eligibility: Registered MUNL graduate students are eligible for this position.

Rate of pay: $22.22/hour Hours: 6 hours/week

Dates: Start September 2022 until end of Winter 2023 semester

To apply, please send a cover letter & resume to international@mun.ca. Closing date for applications is August 8th, 2022 at 5pm (Newfoundland time).

Employment is subject to the terms and conditions of the TAUMUN collective agreement. The collective agreement can be viewed online at: https://www.mun.ca/taumun/collective_agreement/TAUMUN_CA_2019.pdf