1.1 Awards Administered By the School of Graduate Studies

Information on all graduate awards listed below can be obtained from the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean, Graduate Studies.

Affinity NL (Ottawa) Scholarship

This scholarship is made possible by the fund raising efforts of the Ottawa Affinity Newfoundland and Labrador group and is valued at a portion of the income on the investment according to Memorial University of Newfoundland's Awards Program Spending Policy. Based on scholarship standing (academic excellence), it will be awarded in an alternating fashion to a first year undergraduate student (entering their second year) and then a first-year graduate student (entering the first year of either a Master's or Ph.D. program). The student must be from a rural community in Newfoundland and Labrador, express an interest in returning to work in rural Newfoundland, and be registered for full-time studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Rural is defined as outside St. John's and Corner Brook as determined by the Centre for Institutional Analysis and Planning, or an equivalent University or Government body. When awarded to an undergraduate student, the Scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarship, Bursaries and Awards. When awarded to a graduate student, it will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

Hira & Kamal Ahuja International Graduate Fellowship

The Hira & Kamal Ahuja International Graduate Fellowship, valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, has been established by Hira Ahuja, a former faculty member in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. The Fellowship will be awarded to three full-time international graduate students enrolled in the thesis-based program in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. The fellowship will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence. Preference will be given to students who have served the East Indian community in Canada, through volunteer work. The Fellowships will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science.

F.A. Aldrich Graduate Award

The F.A. Aldrich Graduate Award has been established in memory of the first Dean of Graduate Studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Up to three annual awards of $2,000.00 may be made. Awards will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies to alumni of Memorial University of Newfoundland who are in the first year of a full-time graduate program and will be based on academic merit, and need only if all other things are equal. If the application is based on need, please make a case.

Alumni and Friends of Women's Varsity Volleyball Award

This award was established through the efforts of the coaching staff of women's volleyball and through the generous support of the alumni and friends of the varsity women's volleyball team. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a student-athlete who is a member of the women's varsity volleyball team. If there is more than one suitable candidate, excellence in competition and training may be used as a determining factor. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. The award will be granted either by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards or by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Director of the Division of Varsity Athletics.

Dr. Cater W. and Martha Andrews Memorial Graduate Scholarship in Biology

This scholarship was established by former students, friends and family of the late Dr. C.W. Andrews and his wife Martha (Hill) Andrews. Dr. Andrews, a fisheries biologist, was a professor and Head of the Biology Department at Memorial University College on Parade Street and the present Memorial University of Newfoundland for more than twenty-nine years before his death, at age 61, in 1978. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time student pursuing graduate work at Memorial University of Newfoundland in marine and/or freshwater biology. Exceptional industry and interest in the field, together with academic standing, will be taken into account. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Biology.

Apu Akbar Memorial Award

This award was established to honor the memory of Apu Akbar by Apu's sister, Shyamoli Akbar, and members of her family. Apu was a great researcher and was continuing his doctoral studies in the subject of Deconstructing the Process of Innovation at Memorial University of Newfoundland. In addition to his research, Apu carried the persona of a wonderfully kind, honest and benevolent person, who navigated his life with devotion to his family and his beloved motherland. Colleagues, students, friends and family alike will remember him for different reasons, but everyone will remember him as someone who always lived to ensure that everyone whose life he touched was cared for and loved. Apu Akbar was reported missing from Kavanagh's Lane in Flatrock, Newfoundland from November 7, 2018. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, the award will be granted annually to any international student in their third or fourth year of any PhD program at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Preference will be given to a student from Bangladesh and financial need will be used as the deciding factor. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by the University. In the event there is no eligible candidate from Bangladesh in a given year, second preference will be given to an international student who meets the remaining criteria for the award. The award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

Athletics Northeast (ANE) Running Club Award

Recipients must have clear academic standing, with preference for individuals who have demonstrated leadership, commitment and dedication to the cross-country program while endeavoring to maximize their running potential. Preference will be given to undergraduate students, though graduate students may be considered if no eligible undergraduate candidate is identified. The awards are valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, if funds allow there will be one award for a male and one award for a female student. The award in the case of an undergraduate student will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards or in the case of a graduate student will be granted by the Dean of Graduate Studies, based on the recommendation of the Athletics Director, School of Human Kinetics and Recreation.

Atlantic Credit Unions Graduate Award in Business

This award was established by a generous donation from the Atlantic Credit Unions (Community, Eagle River, Eastern Edge, Hamilton Sound, Leading Edge, Public Service, Reddy Kilowatt and Venture Credit Unions). Atlantic Central provides support to charitable and community programs in alignment with the values of our members throughout Atlantic Canada. Atlantic credit unions have been investing in programs and services across the Atlantic region since 2000, and are proud to support Memorial University of Newfoundland. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, the award will be granted annually to a full-time student enrolled in a graduate program in the Faculty of Business Administration with a preference to those showing a demonstrated interest in social entrepreneurship. Recipients must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration. Eligible students should submit to their Faculty a one-page letter of application, a curriculum vitae and two letters of recommendation (one of which should be from the student's direct academic supervisor). The award will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the respective Deans of the Faculty of Science and the Faculty of Education.

Biochemistry Graduate Teaching Assistant Excellence Award

This award was established by faculty members in the Department of Biochemistry in appreciation for the work of the graduate teaching assistants. Valued at $400 each, two awards will be granted annually to full-time graduate teaching assistants in the Department of Biochemistry at Memorial University of Newfoundland who demonstrate excellent effort and achievement in their teaching assistant duties. The award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean, Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Biochemistry.

BMO Financial Group Graduate Scholarship in the Faculty of Business Administration

The BMO Financial Group Graduate Scholarship in the Faculty of Business Administration was created through the generous support of the Bank of Montreal through Dare To: The Campaign for Memorial University, and is valued at a portion of the income on the endowment. The scholarship is available to any full-time student enrolled in a Ph.D. program in the Faculty of Business Administration who meets the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by the University. One or more scholarships may be awarded annually and eligibility will be based on academic standing. It will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

William H. and Bertha Baird Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at the annual interest on the endowment, has been established by Mrs. Edna Baird-Stephenson in memory of her parents. It will be awarded to a full time graduate student at either the Master's or doctoral level. Eligible candidates should be residents of the province, or should have been resident in the province for at least three years prior to entering the program, excluding time spent at post-secondary institutions. The award, based on academic excellence, will be made by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

Dr. James Barnes MBA Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the combined giving of faculty members, students, family and friends to acknowledge Dr. Barnes' retirement in 2009 and to honour his contributions to the Faculty of Business Administration. Dr. Barnes joined Memorial University of Newfoundland's faculty in 1968. He served as director of the School of Business Administration and Commerce, and was appointed the first Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration in 1981. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student with scholarship standing who has left full-time employment to enter the M.B.A. program. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship. It will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Barrowman Biochemistry Graduate Travel Awards

These awards are established by the generous donations of family and friends of the late Dr. Jim Barrowman to honor his contributions to research and graduate students at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Dr. James Barrowman was recruited to Memorial University of Newfoundland in 1975 as associate professor of gastroenterology and gastrointestinal physiology, was promoted to professor in 1979 and, in 1981, took on the role of the first assistant dean for Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine). The income from this endowment will be used to provide a number of awards to graduate students registered in the Department of Biochemistry, so that they may present their research at relevant scientific conferences. Preference will be given to full-time students, but part-time students will also be considered. The awards will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Biochemistry.

Barrowman Community Health Graduate Travel Awards

These awards are established by the generous donations of family and friends of the late Dr. Jim Barrowman to honor his contributions to research and graduate students at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Dr. James Barrowman was recruited to Memorial University of Newfoundland in 1975 as associate professor of gastroenterology and gastrointestinal physiology, was promoted to professor in 1979 and, in 1981, took on the role of the first assistant dean for Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine). The income from this endowment will be used to provide a number of awards to graduate students pursuing a research program in the Division of Community Health and Humanities, so that they may present their research at relevant scientific conferences. Recipients will have demonstrated high academic standing and research potential. The awards will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Associate Dean, Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine.

Baskanderi Award in Anti-Racism

This award was established through a generous gift from Aatif Baskanderi, an engineer and social development advocate who focuses on the intersection of technology and social impact driven by a passion for disruptive business models for social good. He also has a social enterprise, Salaam B'y, based on a documentary about his life growing up as a Muslim Newfoundlander coupled with education initiatives to develop more welcoming communities to foster innovation. Valued at $1,000 annually the award will be granted to a graduate student (full-time or part-time) who focuses their research or scholarly work on the intersection of anti-racism in any subject-area at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Preference will be given to students from equity-seeking groups, particularly Indigenous groups, or students who have served equity-seeking groups through volunteer work. An individual can only receive the award once per graduate studies program. They can be eligible to receive the award again if they complete their program and start another graduate programs (e.g. do a second masters degree). The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by the University. The award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

The Gordon J. Bastow Scholarship

This scholarship was established by a generous donation from the Estate of Marjorie Bastow in memory of her husband, Gordon Bastow, who predeceased her. Gordon was one of several members of his family who participated in several choirs, both church and community based. The family had three generations of service in the Choir of the Anglican Cathedral beginning with Gordon's father, Hugh. Gordon also sang in the Choir of the Anglican Cathedral beginning with Gordon's father, Hugh. Gordon also sang in the choir at All Saints Anglican Church in Foxtrap, only stopping six months before his death at age 90 in 2011. He also sang in several community choirs including the old Memorial University Glee Club under the direction of Ignatius Rumbolt. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time Bachelor of Music student beyond first year, who is majoring in vocal studies and has demonstrated commitment to choral music. Nominations for the scholarship should come from School of Music Voice instructors, and be accompanied by a statement describing the special nature of the student's commitment to choral music. If no suitable candidate can be identified, the scholarship may be awarded to a full-time Master of Music student involved in a choral conducting program, who has demonstrated a commitment to choral music, with preference given to a voice student. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, School of Music. In a case where it is awarded to a graduate student, it will be awarded by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, School of Music.

Bautista Graduate Bursary in Medicine

This bursary was established by Dr. Michael Bautista MD, FRCPC, a graduate of Memorial University of Newfoundland's Faculty of Medicine in 1981. Valued at $1,000, the bursary will be awarded annually to a full-time or part-time graduate student at the Faculty of Medicine on the basis of financial need and academic excellence. To be eligible, students must have completed at least two semesters of study in a Master's program. The recipient must have demonstrated financial need as well as meet the minimum academic requirements for a bursary as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. The bursary will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine.

George and Mary Behm Award

The George and Mary Behm Award, established by Dr. David Behm, is valued at $500. It will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student enrolled in the Masters of Kinesiology program who has the highest average in the first four master's courses of the M.Sc. Kinesiology program. The award will be made by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, School of Human Kinetics and Recreation. It will be presented at the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation Awards Ceremony in November.

Dr. Detlef Beiger Neuroscience Award

This award was established by a generous donation from Dr. David Marsh. Dr. Beiger had a long and distinguished career as a researcher making a significant contribution to the development of neuroscience and pharmacology research at Memorial University. His research interests and contributions have spanned the breadth of neuroscience and pharmacology, from neuroanatomy to understanding the neuronal networks and neurotransmitter interactions involved in the control of swallowing. His intellectual rigour and passion for excellence have been an inspiration to graduate students and colleagues in the Faculty of Medicine for over 40 years. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a neuroscience graduate student based on academic performance, public presentation of research, and community engagement. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate studies, Faculty of Medicine.

The James Beresford and Ross Young MBA Bursary

This bursary was established by a generous donation from Vic and Eileen Young (Beresford) in memory of their fathers, James Beresford and Ross Young. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time Master of Business Administration (MBA) student in the Faculty of Business Administration who has demonstrated financial need and is not in receipt of another scholarship, bursary or award at the time of the awarding of this bursary. The recipient must have demonstrated financial need and preference will be given to those who have an established record of active community involvement and/or volunteer work. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a bursary as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This bursary is renewable for one year and subject to the aforementioned criteria. It will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Tom Best Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established to honour the memory of Tom Best through generous gifts from his wife, Lynn Best, his five daughters, the Petty Harbour Fisherman's Co-operative Society and countless community members who have been positively impacted by Tom's leadership in the fisheries. Tom Best was a fiercely proud inshore fish harvester who dedicated his life's work to advocating for sustainable fisheries and communities. Chair of the Petty Harbour Fishermen's Committee and founding President of the Petty Harbour Fishermen's Co-operative, Tom also served on multiple local and national committees related to the fishing industry. Privileged to support others around the globe in their quest for sustainable fisheries and co-operative development, in 2012, he was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee medal. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, the scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time student from Newfoundland and Labrador studying in the School of Fisheries at the Fisheries and Marine Institute. First priority is a student enrolled in the Master of Marine Studies (Fisheries Resource Management). Second priority is a student enrolled in the Master of Science in Fisheries Science (Fisheries Science and Technology) whose research is focused on sustainability, resource development or a line of research to enhance fisheries outreach or education in rural NL. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Marine Institute Scholarship Committee. This scholarship requires applicants to complete an application form.

Dean M. Ian Bowmer Graduate Travel Award in Medicine

This award is made possible through the generous contribution of funds by Dr. M. Ian Bowmer, former Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at Memorial University of Newfoundland, as well as contributions by faculty and staff, to endow a graduate travel award in his name. This endowment will provide an annual award, valued at a portion of the income from the endowment, to a full-time graduate student pursuing a research program at the Masters or Doctoral level in the Faculty of Medicine, assisting the presentation of the student's research at a conference. The award will be competitive and based on an abstract or paper to be presented at the meeting. The award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Associate Dean, Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine. Application forms are available from, and should be submitted to, the Faculty of Medicine, Office of Research and Graduate Studies.

Dr. Kate Bride Memorial Conference Travel Award

This award was established by family, friends and students of Dr. Kate Bride (1968-2013) out of a deep and abiding love for her. Kate was an alumni member of Memorial University of Newfoundland's Graduate Program in Education, an instructor in Women's Studies and Education, and a full-time graduate student. Her dissertation, "Learning to Love Again: Loss, Self-Study, Pedagogy, and Women's Studies", is a passionate exploration of teaching and learning in the aftermath of loss. We remember Kate Bride as a strong and kind woman with a loving soul, a fabulous teacher and a wonderful friend to many. She fell in love with Memorial University of Newfoundland and Newfoundland and Labrador during her graduate work and the award is being created in memory of this love. It will help students to travel to conferences for years to come. We will always remember with love and gratitude the time that Dr. Kate Bride travelled alongside us. Valued at a portion of the income on the investment, it will be granted annually to a full-time graduate student in the Faculty of Education who is in need of funding to travel to an education-related conference and/or to present a research paper. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Education.

Dr. Ian A. Brookes Graduate Field Research and Travel Award in Geography

This award has been established through a generous bequest from Dr. Ian A. Brookes, much of whose research, beginning in 1963, focused on the geomorphology of Newfoundland, and who was a Visiting Associate Professor in the Department of Geography at MUN in 1981. The Award, valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, will create an annual amount from which individuals or teams of full-time graduate students (Masters and Doctoral) may apply for allotments to support field research as part of their degree requirements. In cases in which a student conducts field research that is attached to the research work of a faculty member or another graduate student (of Memorial or another institution), funds granted shall be applied only to the expenses incurred by the grantee, not to the expenses normally charged to a faculty member's (or other graduate student's) research grant. Thus, in cases where travel, accommodation, food, is shared, and where other sources of research support are lacking, a reasonable fraction of the total expenses incurred during the field research may be covered under the allowable expenses of the award. If the yearly funds available for field research are greater than the demand in a given year, the surplus funds may be used to support travel costs for full-time graduate students to attend conferences and/or to present research findings. It will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies upon recommendation from the Head, Department of Geography.

Dr. Joe Brown Graduate Research Award in Aquatic Ecology and Aquaculture

This award was established to commemorate the life and work of Dr. Joe Brown through initial contributions by his family, friends, colleagues and students. As a Professor (Research) at the Ocean Sciences Centre from 1984 to 2005, Joe established a unique reputation both for his scholarly work in the areas of behavioural ecology of fishes and cold-water aquaculture and for his radiant, passionate sense of humour, humanity and empathy, particularly concerning students. The award in support of research activities will be normally available annually to a full-time graduate student in the second or subsequent year of study in the areas of aquatic ecology or aquaculture, and is valued at a portion of the income from the endowment. Given on the basis of scholarly merit and quality of research, the award will be made by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies upon recommendation from the Director of the Ocean Sciences Centre.

David Buchan Graduate Research Award in Folklore

The Research Award is established in memory of Dr. David Buchan, a leading international ballad scholar, faculty member in the Department of Folklore from 1979 to 1994, and the first Memorial University of Newfoundland Research Professor. Administered by the School of Graduate Studies, two awards of $500 will normally be given each year to fund costs related to national/international travel for the accomplishment of, or the presentation of, folklore research by students in the graduate program in folklore at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The awards, given on the basis of scholarly merit combined with the quality of a research proposal or conference paper abstract, will be made by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies upon recommendation from the Head of the Department of Folklore, who will be advised by the Department of Folklore's Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Committee.

Buchans Scholarship Fund of ASARCO Incorporated

ASARCO Incorporated has established a scholarship fund, the annual interest on which will provide for students enrolled in the Department of Earth Sciences, Memorial University of Newfoundland, either a scholarship for post-graduate study and research, valued at $5000.00; or two scholarships for undergraduate study, valued at $500.00 each. The latter scholarships will be available only when no suitable candidate can be found for the former. In order to qualify for these awards, students must be native-born Newfoundlanders or graduates of Newfoundland high schools. In the case of the graduate scholarship, the award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences; in the case of the undergraduate scholarships, by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences. Should no candidates be available in any year, the awards may be held over.

Maurice J. Burke Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at a portion of income on the investment, was established by the family of the late Maurice Burke. Mr. Burke served in the Provincial Department of Education in the Teacher Certification Division for thirty-five years. He was also a columnist and author with a personal and professional interest in Newfoundland culture and folklore celebrating the uniqueness of Newfoundland outport life. It will be awarded alternately to a full-time graduate or undergraduate student in the Department of Folklore on the basis of scholarship standing. In the case of undergraduates it will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of graduates it will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases the scholarship will be awarded on the basis of a recommendation from the Head, Department of Folklore.

Dr. Alfred T.H. Burness Graduate Award in Medicine

The award is established by the generous donations of family and friends of the late Dr. Alf Burness to commemorate the thoughtful and patient graduate supervision and kindness provided by Dr. Burness (Division of Basic Sciences, Medicine 1976 – 1991) to graduate students in the Faculty of Medicine. The award is intended to encourage graduate students to produce work of outstanding quality. The award will be given annually to a full-time graduate student pursuing a research program at the Masters level in the Faculty of Medicine who has successfully completed three semesters of the program. Selection will be based on course work, research, and other related accomplishments. Candidates must apply in writing, including a statement of eligibility as well as details of their area of research and progress, i.e. publications, presentations, other awards, etc. Each application must be supported by a reference from the candidate's supervisor verifying the candidate's area of research and progress to date. Applications should be submitted to, the Faculty of Medicine, Office of Research and Graduate Studies. The award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of a Committee including the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine) and the Graduate Program Coordinators (Medicine).

Erin Bursey Memorial Leadership Award

This award was established by family and friends in memory of Erin Bursey, a Memorial University of Newfoundland student and women's volleyball athlete who exhibited exceptional leadership skills, academic excellence and passion for her sport. Valued at a portion of the income on the investment, this award will aid student-athletes in their pursuit of post-secondary study. Recipients will be recognized for their outstanding leadership, commitment to their sport and role as ambassador in the community. Eligible candidates must meet the CIS requirements and regulations regarding athletic financial awards. The award will be open to all student-athletes, undergraduate or graduate, who are current members of a varsity team at Memorial University of Newfoundland and have a minimum of clear academic standing (as defined by the University). The award will be granted based on the recommendation of the Director of Athletics. For undergraduate students, the award will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. For graduate students, it will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Faculty of Business Administration Associates' Scholarship Fund

This fund was established through the contributions of members of the Associates' Program of the Faculty of Business Administration. The fund will provide scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students in the Faculty. Awards will be made on the basis of academic standing but such factors as financial need and contribution to the Faculty may be taken into account. In the case of the undergraduate program, the scholarships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration. In the case of the graduate program, the scholarships will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Business Administration.

Charles Butler Graduate Scholarships

These scholarships were established by a generous donation from Mr. Charles Butler of Pembroke, Ontario. Mr. Butler has been a long-time friend of Memorial University of Newfoundland and of Newfoundland and Labrador, supporting the University's activities in the Ottawa region for many years. Two scholarships, valued at $2,500 each, will be awarded annually to full-time students enrolled in any year and any program of graduate study at Memorial University of Newfoundland. After graduating from Memorial University with a Bachelor of Science degree, Peggy discovered her true passion was in finance, a field she worked in all her life. Peggy's attentive and meticulous approach to all things financial resulted in a lifelong career that took her from St. John's to Montreal to Canada's Northern reaches, doing a job she loved. Valued at $1,000, the scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student enrolled in any Masters program within the Faculty of Business Administration. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University. The scholarship will be awarded by the Associate Vice-President and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Valerie Finney Graduate Entrance Scholarship in English

This scholarship, established in honour of Ms. Valerie Finney, was created by her brother Mr. Steve Finney. From the time she was a little girl, Valerie always had a way with words and would often write poems or narratives to celebrate special occasions with her family and friends, her sea cadet corps or at work. Having graduated from Memorial University with an English degree, Valerie has a strong attachment to the Dept. of English and feels that strong writing skills are key to success. Valued at $1,000, the scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student starting a Master's program in the Department of English, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. The scholarship will be awarded by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of English.

Richard and Nancy Flynn Bursary

This bursary is made possible through a generous donation by Richard and Nancy Flynn. Both originally from Stephenville Crossing on the west coast of Newfoundland, Nancy trained as a nursing assistant at Western Memorial Hospital in Corner Brook while Richard [Bachelor of Commerce Honours (Co-operative) '82] worked in the trades industry before enrolling in the Faculty of Business Administration at Memorial University of Newfoundland as a mature student. After graduation, Ricard embarked on a successful business career including progressively senior roles in the aviation industry and attributes much of his career success to his education at Memorial University. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, one or more bursaries will be awarded annually to students enrolled in any program in the Faculty of Business Administration who graduated from a high school in Newfoundland and Labrador. Recipients must have demonstrated financial need as well as meet the minimum academic requirements for a bursary as defined by Memorial University. If the recipient is an undergraduate student, they must be a mature student as defined by the University. The bursary will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards or the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration. If, in any given year, a student in the Faculty of Business Administration cannot be identified, the bursary will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards to any Memorial University undergraduate student as per all of the aforementioned criteria.

Florence Fox Memorial Graduate Scholarship

This scholarship was established by William Fox to honour his wife, Florence Fox. Florence was committed to Newfoundland and she set a high standard for the value of hard work. Her inspirational courageous spirit was undaunted while she bravely endured the dreaded, mobility- depriving affliction, Parkinson's Disease. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment and open to Canadian citizens, it will be awarded to a full time masters or PhD student doing research in the area of mobility and accessibility for those with physical disabilities, with a preference to research in the area of Parkinson's Disease. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies.

J. Bruce and Helen H. French Graduate Scholarship in Physics

This scholarship valued at the annual accrued interest on an initial endowment, will be awarded to a female student at any level of a graduate program in physics on the basis of excellence in both course work and research. If, in a particular year, a qualified female student is not available, the scholarship may be awarded to a male student who meets the other conditions. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Physics.

The Fry Family Foundation Graduate Student Leadership Award at the Fisheries and Marine Institute

This graduate student leadership award was established by the Fry Family Foundation, and builds on the foundation's existing commitment to advancing and rewarding student leadership at the Marine Institute. The foundation is dedicated to building stronger communities and developing future talent for Newfoundland and Labrador. The Fry Family Foundation Graduate Student Leadership Award at the Fisheries and Marine Institute will be granted annually to one graduate student enrolled in a graduate program at the Fisheries and Marine Institute. The successful applicant must demonstrate outstanding leadership throughout the course of his/her career and Marine Institute studies, through academic work, professional work placements (if applicable), and community involvement. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as outlined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Marine Institute Scholarship Committee. Applicants must complete The Fry Family Foundation Graduate Student Leadership Awards at the Fisheries and Marine Institute Application.

Peter and Janet Gardiner Award for Small Business and Entrepreneurship

This fund was initially established from contributions to the University's Anniversary Fund to commemorate the memory of Peter Gardiner, and subsequently further supported by Peter and Janet's children in memory of their parents. Peter was a former Director of Memorial University of Newfoundland's then School of Business and a local entrepreneur. Janet was the Province's first female chartered accountant (1956), served on the Advisory Board of the Faculty of Business Administration, and was the first woman to chair Memorial University of Newfoundland's Board of Regents from 1991-1997. This award is valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, normally $5,000.00 annually, and will recognize student creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship as evidenced by a student's genuine interest in small business and entrepreneurship through the established or the intention to establish a new venture. Students in any program of study (graduate or undergraduate) are eligible. To apply for the Peter and Janet Gardiner Award for Small Business and Entrepreneurship, students are to provide a written report or plan describing their venture. Award finalists will then be asked to make an oral presentation to the Award Selection Committee. The Award Selection Committee will consist of faculty members from the Faculty of Business Administration and the business community at large. In the case of undergraduate students, the awards will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards acting on the recommendation of this panel. In the case of graduate students the awards will be made by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Committee on Graduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration.

Peter and Janet Gardiner Award for International Study

This fund was initially established from contributions to the University's Anniversary Fund to commemorate the memory of Peter Gardiner, and subsequently further supported by Peter and Janet's children in memory of their parents. #### Kenneth Hickey Award in Ocean Sensing

This award was established by Rolanda Ryan, in loving memory of her husband, Kenneth Hickey. A life-long learner, Ken was a registered student at Memorial University of Newfoundland for over three decades, passing away just prior to completing his PhD in Electrical Engineering. Ken's primary focus was on oceanographic radar engineering, in keeping with his deep love and respect for the Atlantic Ocean that surrounds his home province. Ken was a very gentle, kind-hearted, charismatic man, with a tremendous sense of humor, who is loved and missed by all who had the privilege of sharing time with him. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science who is focusing their work on ocean sensing. Academic excellence is not a deciding factor but students must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. Preference, where possible, will be given to students who have an interest in remote ocean sensing and who have demonstrated financial need. If there is no eligible full-time candidate, the award can be granted to a part-time student. It will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

Shawn C. Hillier Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the parents of Shaun C. Hillier who, at the time of his sudden passing, was a graduate student in the Faculty of Science at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Shaun was near completion of his Master of Science degree program in Scientific Computing (Mathematics). Though he enjoyed his course work, it was through his work towards his thesis that he found the most excitement and satisfaction. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time student who has completed an M.Sc. thesis in Scientific Computing or Mathematics and Statistics with a strong scientific computing component. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland and be recommended by the thesis supervisor. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and the Chair of the Scientific Computing Program.

The Irshad Khan Scholarship, established by Dr. Faisal Khan in memory of his father, is valued at $1,000. It will be awarded annually to a full-time engineering graduate student at either the masters or doctoral level who has excelled in the area of Safety and Risk Engineering. It will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

Dr. William J. Kirwin Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established by a generous donation from the estate of Dr. William James Kirwin. Dr. Kirwin devoted his life at Memorial, between 1960 and 2012, to the study and preservation of the language record, primarily English, spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student whose area of study is the English language of Newfoundland and Labrador. To be eligible, applicants must have scholarship standing. If no suitable candidate can be found in a given year, the scholarship may be withheld or awarded to a student studying one of Newfoundland and Labrador's non-English languages. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Laurence and Gladys Sweeney Fund Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Ireland Fund of Canada through funds originally donated from Laurence Kent Sweeney. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a graduate student in any discipline attending Memorial University of Newfoundland from County Donegal, Ireland. If, in any given year, there is no such student then the funds may be awarded to a graduate student in any discipline at Memorial University to undertake study and/or research within County Donegal, Ireland. In either case the recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies.

Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Research Awards for Students of Memorial University

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador annually offers up to seven Legal Research Awards valued at $750 each to students at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The Awards are for outstanding research papers on one or more legal issues or topics treated in a legal context in a 2000 level course or beyond in any discipline at the undergraduate level and in any graduate course for students at the graduate level. A first year course is not eligible with the sole exception of LWSO 1000: Law, Democracy and Social Justice. Preference will be given for one of the seven awards to an undergraduate student in their first year of studies who is currently enrolled in, or has completed, the first year introductory course LWSO 1000 at the time their paper is submitted for consideration. The papers submitted by, and with endorsement of, a course professor or lecturer will be judged initially by the Dean, Director, or Department Head who will make a recommendation to a special selection committee comprised of appointees of Memorial University of Newfoundland and the Law Foundation. Undergraduate students will receive a minimum of two awards and graduate students will receive one or more of the seven awards available annually. In the case of undergraduate students the awards will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of graduate students the awards will be made by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases they will act upon the new recommendation of the Foundation's Selection Committee.

LGL Limited Scholarship in Marine Science

This scholarship, valued at $1,000.00, was established by LGL Limited. It will be awarded annually to a student in the Faculty of Science who is following a program of studies related to Marine Science. The successful candidate will be either a fourth year undergraduate student doing an honours program or a graduate student. Wherever possible, preference will be given to a student from a fishing family, but other students will be considered. In the case of undergraduate students the scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing. In the case of graduate students the scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases it will be based upon a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Science.

Dr. Jon Lien Memorial Recruitment Scholarship

This recruitment scholarship was established to commemorate the life and work of Dr. Jon Lien, C.M., O.N.L., through contributions by his friends, colleagues, students, and family. As a result of his work at Memorial University of Newfoundland (1968-1996) Dr. Lien became an international leader in marine conservation and animal behavior. His pioneering methods to release entrapped whales from fishing gear – including the development of acoustic alarms to warn whales away from such entrapments – earned him unequalled respect with both fishermen and scientists around the globe. His work brought talented students to Memorial University of Newfoundland, empowering them by demanding excellence and maximum commitment while strongly believing in their potential. A substantial contribution to the scholarship was provided by the family and friends of Dr. Deane Renouf, a student of Jon's, who passed away in 1993. In the spirit of collaboration that Jon held dear, this scholarship will honour the memories of both mentor and student. Dr. Renouf was instrumental in establishing the Cognitive and Behavioral Ecology program at Memorial University of Newfoundland and was a noted marine mammal ecologist in her own right. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, this scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time entering graduate student undertaking studies in marine animal behavior, marine conservation, coastal community revitalization or a current fishery challenge and may be renewable for a maximum of two years at the discretion of the Dean of Science. If the student does not accept the offer to study at Memorial University of Newfoundland, the scholarship will be awarded to the next ranked candidate. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Science.

Noah Curtis Godwin Lloyd Student Award

The Noah Curtis Godwin Lloyd Student Award was established by the family of baby Noah Lloyd who was born on April 6, 2008 and died two days later of septicemia from a small bowel volvulus. Valued at a portion of the interest on the endowment, this award in Noah's memory will be granted to a student in the Faculty of Medicine who is planning a career in a primary healthcare discipline, who has succeeded through hard work and perseverance, and displays humility and gentleness of character in approaching work and life. It will be granted annually on a rotating basis between undergraduate students and graduate students. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as determined by the Faculty of Medicine, Memorial University of Newfoundland. When awarded to an undergraduate student it will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Medicine. When awarded to a graduate student it will be awarded by the Dean, Research & Graduate Studies (Medicine). Application forms and further information are available from the Student Affairs Office, Faculty of Medicine.

The Dr. Leonard Lye Graduate Award for Volunteer and Community Service

This award was established by a generous donation from Dr. Leonard Lye, retired Associate Dean (Graduate Studies), Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. The intention of the donor is to recognize and foster community volunteer activities by graduate students. The amount of the award will be $1,000 per year. The recipient must be enrolled as a full-time graduate student, meet the academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland and demonstrate an ongoing volunteer commitment (more than two years) to a community group external to Memorial. The award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean, Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland on the recommendation from the Awards and Medals Committee.

Peter Mackey Memorial Graduate Scholarship

This scholarship was established by a generous donation from the Graduate Students' Union of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Peter Mackey was a gifted scholar and musician, graduate of Memorial University of Newfoundland [BA '05, MPhil (Humanities) '09], and doctoral candidate at York University, who researched and advocated strongly for the rights of students with disabilities. At the age of 17, Peter became a quadriplegic as a result of a motor vehicle accident. This scholarship was created as a testament to the commitment and passion that Peter displayed in his years of research in the area of critical disability studies. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually based on academic performance to a full-time graduate student with a disability. Eligible students can be taking a reduced course load as an accommodation for their disability(s). If no suitable candidate is available in any given year, multiple scholarships can be distributed in the following years. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies.

Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards 2021-2022

Dr. Alan G. Macpherson Graduate Research Award in Historical and Cultural Geography

This award was established by a generous donation from Dr. Alan G. Macpherson. Application forms are available at the Department of Geography.

Dr. Joyce C. Macpherson Graduate Research Award in Physical Geography

This award was established by a generous donation from Dr. Joyce C. Macpherson. Dr. Macpherson studied physical geography at the University of London (B.Sc. 1950; MSc 1956) and McGill University (Ph.D. 1966) and was an active member of the Department of Geography at Memorial University of Newfoundland from 1966-1994. She made major contributions to knowledge of the postglacial climate and vegetation of Newfoundland. She is a Fellow of the Royal Canadian Geographical Society and currently holds the position of Professor Emerita. Valued at a minimum of $2000 it will be granted annually to a full-time graduate student in the Department of Geography, with preference to a student of Physical Geography, to support fieldwork expenses, conference expenses, or other research expenditures. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Geography in consultation with the Geography Scholarship Committee. Application forms are available at the Department of Geography.

Marco Group Bursary in Social Enterprise and Entrepreneurship

This bursary was established by Marco Group, one of the largest Atlantic Canadian based general contractors. Valued at $10,000 annually, the bursary will be awarded to a full-time student entering the Master of Business Administration in Social Enterprise and Entrepreneurship program at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The recipient must demonstrate financial need as well as meet the academic requirements for a bursary. The bursary will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Maritime History Internship

This fund, jointly sponsored by the Canadian Nautical Research Society and the School of Graduate Studies, is designated to support a graduate student in history to train as an editorial intern with the journal The Northerner Mariner/Le Marin du nord. It will be awarded on the basis of academic standing to a graduate student pursuing studies in the area of maritime history. The award will normally be made to an entering student, but may be made to a student already enrolled in the graduate program. Valued at $12,000.00 per year, it will be paid over a period of three successive academic semesters and may be renewed. Masters students may be renewed for one additional year and doctoral students may be renewed for up to two additional years. The internship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the editors of The Northerner Mariner/Le Marin du nord and the Department of History.

Dr. Ingeborg Marshall Award for Beothuk Studies

This award was established by Dr. Ingeborg Marshall, ONL. Dr. Marshall is a renowned expert on the history and ethnography of the Newfoundland Beothuk. She has published six books and 19 academic papers, and presented 11 papers in regional and national venues. Her landmark volume, "A History and Ethnography of the Beothuk" (1996) is now in its third printing. Prior to that she wrote "The Red Ochre People" (1978) which was adopted for the grades 5 and 6 school curriculum, and through which many people have their founding knowledge of the Beothuk. She has also been an adviser to The Rooms on the Beothuk section of their permanent exhibition and has written articles for the Memorial University Heritage website. As part of her legacy she has decided to offer this award in order to encourage a new generation of scholars to pursue research into the Beothuk. Valued at $10,000 annually, the award will be granted to a full-time or part-time student specifically studying the Beothuk, who is enrolled in a thesis based Masters or Ph.D. graduate program in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Part-time students are to provide a statement from their supervisor demonstrating they have completed about 25% of their research and are ready to start their thesis. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by the University. The award will be renewable for one additional year, provided the recipient maintains award standing and continues their studies on the Beothuk, for a total award of $20,000 per student. Recipients may apply during any year of their program (noting that if they apply in their last year of study, they will only be eligible for one year of the award). An application is required for this award, and is available through the office of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences or the School of Graduate Studies. A committee will review applications and make a recommendation to the Dean, Humanities and Social Sciences. The award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Edgar Raymond Martin Memorial Scholarship in Music

This scholarship, valued at the annual interest on the endowment, has been established by Mrs. Helen MacLeod in memory of her brother Edgar Martin. Edgar completed a Bachelor of Science at McGill University, Montreal in 1942 and died later that year while returning to St. John's aboard the S.S. Caribou which was torpedoed, causing the loss of 137 lives. Edgar was 19 years old and had a profound love for classical music. In his memory, this scholarship will be awarded to a full time graduate student in the School of Music. It will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies based on a recommendation from the Dean, School of Music.

James and Muriel Martin Award in Music

The James and Muriel Martin Award was established through a generous gift to the School of Music by Mrs. Helen MacLeod, on behalf of her parents. James and Muriel Martin, lifelong residents of St. John's, Newfoundland, were enthusiastic participants in the local music scene in the early half of the twentieth century. The award, valued at a portion of the income on the investment, will be given annually to a full-time graduate student (MA or PhD) enrolled in the ethnomusicology program, with preference to a student whose focus is on the research, collection or preservation of music in Newfoundland and Labrador. It will be granted by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, School of Music.

MBA in Social Enterprise and Entrepreneurship Bursaries

This bursary program was established by a generous anonymous donation to Memorial University of Newfoundland. Valued at $10,000 for Canadian recipients or $12,500 for international recipients, the bursaries will be awarded annually to students enrolled in the MBA in Social Enterprise and Entrepreneurship program of the Faculty of Business Administration, with the proportion of Canadian versus international bursaries awarded to be at the discretion of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration. The recipients must meet the minimum academic requirements for a graduate bursary as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. These bursaries will be granted by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Margaret D. McLean Doctoral Entrance Scholarship

The scholarship was established from a generous gift from the Estate of Margaret D. McLean, the second Director of the School of Nursing. Valued at a portion of income on the investment, the scholarship is awarded to a student enrolled full-time in the doctoral program at the School of Nursing. Preference will be given to a graduate of a Bachelor of Nursing Program of Memorial University of Newfoundland. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon recommendation of the Dean, School of Nursing.

Master of Gender Studies Graduate Travel Award

Funded through generous contributions to the Department of Gender Studies, this award is available bi-annually (one time in each of the Fall and Spring semesters) to full-time or part-time students enrolled in the two-year Master of Gender Studies program. This award is established to assist with travel to scholarly conferences for the purpose of presenting academic papers and/or posters. Successful applicants must be enrolled in the first two years of the Master of Gender Studies program and must submit the following criteria, with a copy of the Graduate Student Request for Travel Assistance form, to the Department of Gender Studies: acceptance of a paper/poster presentation, written support of co-supervisors, relevance to the students' program of study and the estimated cost of travel. Students must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award and are eligible to receive this award one time only during the enrolment in the two-year Master of Gender Studies program. The deadlines for submission are December 1st and May 1st for the Fall and Spring semesters respectively. Successful applicants are eligible to receive up to $100 for travel within North America and up to $200 for travel outside of North America. It will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies based on the recommendation of the Graduate Coordinator who will be advised by the Graduate Studies Advisory Committee.

Medical Graduate Students' Society Graduate Travel Award in Medicine

This award was established through continuing support from the Medical Graduate Students' Society. Valued at $250, it will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student pursuing a research program at the Masters or Doctoral level in the Faculty of Medicine to assist in the presentation of the student's research at a conference. The award will be competitive and based on an abstract or paper to be presented at the meeting. Preference will be given to students attending their first conference. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate Studies and the Graduate Awards Committee of the Faculty of Medicine.

Medical Graduate Students' Society Scholar and Community Involvement Award

The Medical Graduate Students' Society of the Faculty of Medicine wishes to support graduate students in medicine through two annually funded awards. The awards will be given in the Fall of each year to full-time current graduate level students in the Faculty of Medicine, one to a Master's student and one to a Ph.D. student. Candidates must apply in writing providing a statement of eligibility as well as details of their area of research and progress, a CV and a written paragraph about the candidate's community involvement and participation in extracurricular activities must also be included. The Award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of a Committee including the Assistant Dean, Graduate Studies (Medicine) and the Graduate Program Coordinators (Medicine).

Medical School Essay Graduate Student Award

The Medical School Essay Award is supported by the K.B. Roberts Scholarship Fund, which was established in appreciation of the contribution made to the Faculty of Medicine by Dr. Kenneth Roberts. The award, valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, will be awarded annually to any graduate medical student registered full-time in the current academic year following a competition in the form of an original essay or short monograph pertaining to any aspect of medicine or the medical sciences. The essay, not exceeding 5,000 words, should include an interpretative element that indicates the importance and relevance to Medicine, Health and Society. Should there be two essays that are of very high caliber but one is obviously the better provision may be made for an honourable mention award of lesser value. Submission deadline is July 31, in any given year, to the Office of Student Affairs HSC Room 2713. The award is made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean's Advisory Committee on Awards, Bursaries and Scholarships in the Faculty of Medicine.

Memorial Indigenous Music Award

Valued at $500 per year, the Memorial Indigenous Music Award will be granted annually to a student of indigenous status enrolled in their first year of study in the School of Music at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by the University. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated financial need. If no suitable undergraduate candidate is available, the award may, at the discretion of the Dean of the School of Music, be granted to a graduate student who meets the award criteria. This award will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards or the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of the School of Music.

Gordon Mertz Memorial Fellowship in Physical Oceanography

This fund was established as a memorial for Dr. Gordon Mertz by his family. Dr. Mertz was a Physical Oceanographer at the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Centre of the Department of Fisheries and Oceans. Interest from the fund will be used to provide a fellowship which will be awarded annually on the basis of academic excellence to a full-time graduate student working in an area of Physical Oceanography with applications in Fisheries Oceanography or Marine Ecology. The fellowship will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography.

Dr. Thomas Michalak Graduate Award in Medicine

This award was established as a result of donations from laboratory alumni, staff, friends, and family of Dr. Thomas I. Michalak. Dr. Michalak (MD, PhD) is one of the world's foremost experts in the field of viral hepatitis and liver disease. His ground breaking discoveries have changed fundamental concepts about the nature of hepatitis B and C virus infections. His work has had a direct impact on the safety of blood supply, organ transplantation, and our understanding of the silent persistence of these viruses. He has been recognized with the Canada Research Chair (Tier 1) in Viral Hepatitis/Immunology, which was the first senior Canada Research Chair at the Memorial University, and with the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal for outstanding contributions in the fight against liver disease. Professor Michalak was inducted as a fellow of the Canadian Academy of Health Sciences for his outstanding advancements to health research and elected to fellowship of the American Association for the Study of Liver Diseases for significant contributions to the science and practice of hepatobiliary diseases. Dr. Michalak considers thoughtful, fundamental research that advances our understanding, diagnosis and treatment of life-threatening diseases, as well as the education of committed young scientists who are advancing translational medical research, as the responsibility and privilege given to medical scientists by society. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a doctoral student in the Division of BioMedical Sciences during the final year of their PhD program. The award recognizes leadership in biomedical research, combined with a desire to continue in their research beyond graduate school. The doctoral student must have successfully passed their written and oral comprehensive exam, is researching an original idea that will have a positive impact on the community, and has demonstrated innovative, high quality biomedical research that will improve human health and quality of life. This award will be granted by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine.

The Steven M. Millan Memorial Scholarship Endowment Fund

This scholarship was established by a generous donation from the family of the late Steven Malcolm Millan. The intention of the Donor was and is to develop and maintain strong academic and professional ties, and to promote cooperation between Memorial University of Newfoundland and University College Dublin, in the field of Geosciences, to further the research goals of the respective Earth Sciences Departments, and to assist students in the broadening of their horizons. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded on an annual basis, alternating between Memorial University and University College Dublin, Ireland. The scholarship is intended to facilitate travel for a graduate student from one university to pursue their research at the other university. The recipient must meet the academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland (clear academic standing and be full-time graduate students). This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland on the recommendation of the Steven M. Millan Scholarship Committee.

Miller Graduate Scholarship in Geophysics and Physical Oceanography

This scholarship was established by Hugh Miller. Valued at $2,000, the scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time graduate student, in any year of their program, who is studying Geophysics or Physical Oceanography at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Preference will be given to a student who completed their undergraduate degree at Memorial University. In the event there is no student pursuing any of the before mentioned graduate disciplines, the scholarship may be awarded to a student pursuing full-time graduate studies in Physics or Applied Mathematics, with preference given to a student who completed their undergraduate degree at Memorial University. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by the University. The scholarship will be awarded by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean, Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Science.

Lorraine Morgan Dean's Award for Service to Humanity and Pursuit of Social Justice

Thanks to a generous gift from a passionate friend of Memorial University of Newfoundland, Lorraine Morgan, a fund has been created to support the important work of students in the School of Social Work. Through this fund, Lorraine hopes to acknowledge the struggles of the most vulnerable people in our community and to provide Social Workers with more resources to support those that deserve a voice. Valued at $1,000 a year, it will be awarded annually to one or more deserving graduate or undergraduate Social Work students who embody Lorraine's passion for helping those in need. Eligible students must be: travelling to complete their practicum, delivering educational opportunities or participating in an educational experience; participating in or hosting educational outreach opportunities in the community; working with a non-profit agency for their practicum; or participating in a similar opportunity as determined by the Dean of the School of Social Work. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. In the case of an undergraduate student the award will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of a graduate student, the award will be granted by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In either case it will be awarded on the basis of a recommendation from the Dean, School of Social Work.

W.F. Morneau Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at the interest on the initial endowment will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration to a Newfoundland student who has been granted direct entry on a full-time basis to Term 3 of the Master of Business Administration Program and who has exhibited a high level of ambition. Financial need may also be taken into consideration when awarding this scholarship.

Shree Mulay Community Health Graduate Student Award

This graduate student award is established through the generous support of Dr. Shree Mulay, Associate Dean and Professor, Division of Community Health and Humanities, Faculty of Medicine. It is created to help students who wish to be full-time in the Community Health Programs meeting the funding requirements of the Office of Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine. One graduate research scholarship will be given annually to incoming thesis graduate students with a declared interest in pursuing full-time studies who do not have adequate funding (by way of scholarship, fellowship, or faculty research monies) to qualify for full-time status. These funds may be used alone or in conjunction with other student awards or partial supervisory funding to meet the full-time funding requirement of the Office of Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine). During the year of the award, it is expected that the student and supervisor will seek external funding to support the research program. Normally a student will be eligible to receive the scholarship only once during her or his program. There will be one competition per year, coinciding with the Winter semester selection process. All incoming candidates accepted for the M.Sc. and Ph.D. programs in the Division of Community Health and Humanities (CHH) will be considered for the award in accordance with the terms and conditions described above. The graduate program committee of CHH will make recommendations to Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine). The award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean of Graduate Studies (Medicine).

The Janet Murphy Goodridge Legacy Award

This award was established by the Murphy Goodridge family as well as friends and colleagues of The Baby-Friendly Council of Newfoundland and Labrador to honor the memory and contributions of Janet Murphy Goodridge to the field of maternal and infant health. Janet dedicated her life to advocating for women and children, recognizing the importance of reducing health inequalities. She valued inter-professional practice and partnerships across diverse sectors. Her vision was for Newfoundland and Labrador to be a province where breastfeeding is the norm. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, the award will be granted annually to a graduate student in any field or discipline completing research in maternal or infant health, so that they may present their research at an appropriate conference. Preference will be given to students pursuing breastfeeding research. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This award will be granted by the Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

Neil Murray Graduate Research Award in Folklore

The Research Award, sponsored by the Newfoundland and Labrador Arts Council, is established to commemorate the energy of Neil Murray in his encouragement and promotion of our provincial folk music traditions. Open to students currently registered in the graduate program in folklore at Memorial University of Newfoundland, two awards of $250, or one of $500, will normally be given each year. These awards are designed to fund costs related to the accomplishment of, or the presentation of, research on the traditional performing arts in Newfoundland, including song, dance, drama, or narrative and/or the cultural traditions of the Newfoundland fishery. The awards, given on the basis of demonstrated academic merit and a research proposal or conference paper abstract demonstrating original, creative and innovative thought, will be made by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Folklore, who will be advised by the Selection Committee. Applications should be directed to the head, Department of Folklore. The deadline for application is March 1st each year.

National Scholarship in Ocean Studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland

The federal Department of Fisheries and Oceans (DFO) has helped to establish The National Scholarship in Ocean Studies to be awarded to an outstanding Ph.D. candidate in an aspect of ocean studies which may include: chemistry, biochemistry, biology, physics, earth sciences, geography, economics or engineering. The award valued at $18,000 per annum for a maximum of three successive years may be held in conjunction with other major awards. The award is made only on the basis of academic excellence and the successful candidate must exhibit and maintain first-class standing. Guidelines and applications for the scholarship are available from the School of Graduate Studies. Final selection of the candidate will be made by a committee which reports to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies. A one-time grant of up to $2,000 may be made in support of travel to appropriate conferences where the student is presenting research findings. Deadlines for applications will be July 1 in any one year when the scholarship is available, and application should be made on appropriate forms available from the School of Graduate Studies.

Dr. Angus J. Neary Genetics Scholarship

This scholarship was established by a generous bequest from Dr. Angus J. Neary, a kind and attentive doctor, a learned and brilliant surgeon. Dr. Neary believed in the importance of seeing patients as whole people and he nurtured the patient-practitioner relationship to offer personalized, collaborative care. He was curious about people, their life and their circumstances and integrated that knowledge in their plans for care. Dr. Neary was also a consummate scholar with an endless thirst for learning about medicine and people, remaining current in his field even years after his retirement from the profession. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually on the basis of academic achievement to a full-time graduate student studying genetics in either the M.Sc. or Ph.D. degree program of the Faculty of Medicine at Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean of Research and Graduate Studies, Faculty of Medicine.

Newfoundland and Labrador Neurotrauma Initiative Award

This award, valued at a portion of the income on the investment, is made possible by a generous endowment from the Newfoundland and Labrador Neurotrauma Initiative Program, a partnership between the Rick Hansen Man in Motion Foundation, the Canadian Paraplegic Association, the Brain Injury Association and the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador. The award will be available on an annually rotating basis between undergraduate and graduate students, with first preference given to a student who has been identified with a brain or spinal cord injury. For undergraduate students an application is required which is available at the Scholarships and Awards Office website at www.mun.ca/scholarships. Graduate Students are required to apply specifically to the School of Graduate Studies, Room IIC 2012, Bruneau Centre for Research and Innovation, (709) 864-2600. If no candidate is available with a brain or spinal cord injury, preference will be given to a student who is studying in any field related to neurotrauma. If it is not awarded at the level of study (i.e. graduate/undergraduate) on rotation in a given year, it may be awarded to a student studying at the other level for that year. In the case of undergraduates, the award will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of graduates it will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee. This award is open to part-time or full-time students with clear academic standing.

Newfoundland St. Andrew's Society Scholarship

This scholarship is the result of a gift from the Newfoundland St. Andrew's Society to Memorial University of Newfoundland. Valued at a portion of the interest on an endowment, the Scholarship will be awarded to a student from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences whose studies and accomplishments most closely support the aims of the Newfoundland St. Andrew's Society; to foster and encourage the love of Scotland, its history, literature, music and national games in a Newfoundland context. In the case of undergraduate students the scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing. In the case of graduate students the scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases it will be awarded on the basis of a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Elizabeth A. Newlands Memorial Scholarship in Social Work

The Jacqueline Sheppard and Randell Pardy Innovation Award

The Jacqueline Sheppard and Randell Pardy Innovation Award, was established through a generous donation by Ms. Jacqueline Sheppard BA'77 (the "donor") to Memorial University of Newfoundland, in memory of her late husband Randell Pardy BSc'77. Randell and Jacqueline enjoyed their undergraduate days at Memorial University and have always respected the important role Memorial University played in shaping their aspirations and successes in life. While Randell personified the genuine curious mind and admired all learning and education in the broadest sense, he particularly came to value and wished to support applied science. They both have witnessed the immense power of science and innovation in shaping the world, and have always believed it is fundamental to the economy of the Province and to the prosperity and quality of life of all Newfoundlanders and Labradorians. Randell wished for Memorial to be a leader in scientific innovation and this gift endeavours to honour his wishes. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, the Award is designed to encourage and foster increased levels of scientific innovation at the doctoral program level, with the goal of enriching and diversifying the economy of Newfoundland and Labrador and beyond. To be eligible, candidates must be full-time doctoral candidates whose research is of a scientific nature and who have complete their comprehensive exams but not yet completed their thesis research. Applications are encouraged from graduate students in any of Memorial's faculties, schools or campuses. Students must complete an application that includes a 1-2 page description of how their research will go beyond knowledge generation to also include an innovation that may lead to commercialization of the outcomes of their research. The application process will be administered by the Office of the Vice-President (Research) and applications will be due by June 1 of each year. Applications will be reviewed by an Award Committee comprised of representatives from the Office of Vice-President (Research), the School of Graduate Studies and the academic units associated with the individuals who apply for the Award. The Award will be presented by the Vice-President (Research), or delegate, based on the Award Committee's recommendation.
