

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Field Education Coordinator

Competition ID: F99959-2023-226

We acknowledge that the lands on which Memorial University's campuses are situated are in the traditional territories of diverse Indigenous groups, and we acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of the Beothuk, Mi'kmaq, Innu, and Inuit of this province.

Memorial University's School of Social Work invites applications for a 0.4 FTE Field Education Coordinator (FEC) term appointment. The successful applicant will share the responsibilities of social work students' field education with the other FECs. Duties include developing and coordinating field practica opportunities; matching students with field practica; monitoring and evaluating students according to field practica requirements; developing and teaching field instruction courses; and providing field instruction to students. Occasional travel may be required.

Memorial's School of Social Work is committed to the University's core values, including its special obligation to all the peoples of Newfoundland and Labrador. The School values diversity, social justice, and academic integrity. The BSW programs prepare students for ethical, competent, innovative, and effective generalist practice in urban, rural, and remote communities. The MSW program is focused on creative approaches to critical thinking for leadership in diverse social work practice. Field practica may be offered in rural and urban communities within the province, across Canada, and internationally.

Qualifications: Candidates will be expected to have a Master's degree in Social Work with a minimum of five years in professional social work practice and experience in administration, direct practice, field instruction, field education, and training/course delivery. Familiarity with the Newfoundland and Labrador social work communities and knowledge of local Indigenous peoples and cultures is an asset. Registration with the NLCSW is a requirement of the position.

Please note that this term position is part-time (.4 FTE). The successful applicant will be expected to agree to flexible work hours in order to facilitate the requirements of the position.

Candidates are invited to submit applications in one PDF document via email to the Dean, c/o decanal assistant Lisa Muise, at decanalassistswk@mun.ca.

Applications should include:

- A letter which outlines relevant experience and compatibility for the position, with particular emphasis on relationship-building, communication, organizational mediation and negotiation, and innovation;
- A current curriculum vitae;
- Up to three samples of professional or scholarly writing; and
- Names and contact information of three current references.

The closing date to apply is December 1, 2023. The successful candidate is expected to start the appointment on January 3, 2024.

This term appointment is from January 3, 2024 to March 31, 2026.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity, diversity, inclusion and anti-racism, and encourages applications from all qualified candidates, including: women; people of any sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression; Indigenous Peoples; visible minorities, and racialized people; and people with disabilities. All applicants are invited to identify themselves as a member of an equity-deserving group(s) as appropriate. Applicants cannot be considered as a member of an equity-deserving group(s) unless they complete an employment equity survey. Memorial is committed to providing an inclusive learning and work environment. If there is anything we can do to ensure your full participation during the application process please contact equity@mun.ca directly and we will work with you to make appropriate arrangements.

Salary is in accordance with the MUNFA Collective Agreement.
