Step 5:

At the bottom of this pop-up window, select “Blundon Centre Services” to launch the Clockwork Web Portal (website):

The screenshot shows a web portal interface with a white pop-up window in the center. The pop-up window contains the following text and buttons:

- Get Navigate: To book an appointment with an academic advisor or career advisor, download the new Navigate mobile app or access the desktop version. Navigate connects you to the online and in-person resources you need to get things done at university. Get one-stop personalized information, discover supportive resources on campus and track dates and deadlines.
- My MUNLife: My MUNLife is your portal to the Co-Curricular Record, Co-Operative Education job competition, services provided by Career Development including employment opportunities, career advising appointments, and events.
- Residence Services: Click the button for important information for students living on campus.
- Internationalization Office: Click the button for important information for international students.
- Blundon Centre Services: ClockWork is software aimed at meeting the needs of students using the services of the Glenn Roy Blundon Centre (Student Life). It is designed to simplify and centralize the booking of tests and exams. If you are not currently registered at the Blundon Centre, you can find our contact information at www.mun.ca/blundon. Currently registered students can access ClockWork by clicking the button below.

The background of the pop-up window shows a blurred view of the web portal, including sections for Memorial Self-Service, Graduate Studies, and a search bar.

Step 6:

You are now on your personalized Clockwork dashboard. From this webpage, choose “Request Accommodation Letter” to launch the Accommodations portal:

The screenshot shows the Clockwork Online Student Access dashboard. At the top left is the Memorial University logo. Below it is a "Main menu" button. The main heading is "Welcome to Accessibility Services (Blundon Centre)". There are three main navigation options, each with an icon and a label:

- Schedule a test or exam: Represented by a blue icon of a document with a pencil.
- My calendar: Represented by a blue icon of a calendar.
- Request Accommodation Letter: Represented by a blue icon of an envelope with a hand pointing to it.

At the bottom center, it says "ClockWork Online Student Access".

Step 7:

From the Accommodations main page, select "Accommodations" tab:

Step 8:

On this "Request Accommodations" page, you will see:

- 1 A list of all your registered courses for the current semester
- 2 The status of your accommodation request
- 3 The request button
- 4 After you submit the request, an option will appear for you to download a copy of your Letter of Accommodation (some students print these off for their own records, or share them with instructors)

Step 9:

At the top of this website, you will choose:

- A. The accommodations you wish to avail of, and
- B. The courses in which you need certain accommodations.

All of your approved accommodations will populate on the left side of the page, as shown below.
