At Memorial University of Newfoundland we are equipping students from more than 40 countries to be 21st century explorers. We are challenging them to explore ideas and places, to develop their talents and abilities, to address issues head on and to set ambitious life goals. For our part, we are committed to helping them realize their diverse aspirations – through

- innovative programs and learning environments on four campuses that offer the freedom to explore and experience the world around us
- engaging and committed faculty and staff, many recognized internationally in their fields
- research across many disciplines focused on expanding our understanding of our world and solving its problems
- a legacy of 65,000 alumni, who are explorers, problem solvers and inspirational examples of the transformational power of a Memorial University of Newfoundland education

1  Note

The contents of this calendar set forth the intentions of the University at the time of publication, with respect to the matters contained therein. THE UNIVERSITY EXPRESSLY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO DEViate FROM WHAT APPEARS IN THE CALENDAR, including both the content and scheduling therein, in whole or in part, and including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the right to revise the content of, and to cancel, defer, reschedule or suspend, in whole or in part, the scheduling of particular periods of instruction, courses, or programs, and the academic program of the University, and to alter, accelerate or defer fees and charges, and to do any or all of the above either in order to serve what the University considers to be the best interests of the academic or student community of the University itself, or because of any circumstance or occurrence, whether occurring by or through the wilful act or negligence of the University, its agents, servants and employees, or otherwise and whether or not beyond the reasonable or other control of the University, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as a result of circumstances or occurrences including financial resources, natural catastrophe or disaster, the health, safety and well-being of the employees or students of the University, labour disagreements or disputes, slow-downs, work-stoppages, and strikes. THE UNIVERSITY DOES NOT ACCEPT, AND HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS, ANY OR ALL RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY to any person, persons or group, for any loss, injury, damages or adverse effect, either direct or indirect, consequential or otherwise, arising out of any one or more of such deviations. The University hereby disclaims liability to any person who may suffer loss as a result of reliance upon any information contained in this calendar.

Each and every of the subsequent provisions contained in this Calendar, and the relationship, both legal and otherwise, between the University, and its students, is expressly subject to and governed by the above provisions.

The Office of the Registrar will assist students with any questions or problems which might arise concerning the interpretation of academic regulations. It is, however, the responsibility of students to see that their academic programs meet the University’s regulations in all respects.

2  Glossary of Terms Used in This Calendar

In this calendar “Grenfell College” refers to Sir Wilfred Grenfell College and “Marine Institute” refers to the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland. “University”, when capitalized, refers to Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Academic standing:
  is an enrolment status normally determined each semester by a regular evaluation procedure used to assess whether or not students are meeting the standards prescribed for continuing in the University and/or their programs.

Academic unit:
  refers to a centre, department, division, faculty, program or school, other than an administrative unit, as the context requires.

Academic year:
  runs from September 1 to August 31.

Accelerated course: is a course that is offered in a shorter time frame than a semester or session.

Administrative unit:
  refers to an office, division or centre, other than an academic unit, as listed in the Administrative Offices of the University section of the Calendar.

Appeal: is the challenge of, or the request for review of, a judgment regarding the application of regulations.

Assignment: is an evaluative exercise including but not limited to assigned work, term papers and projects.

Certificate:
  is an academic designation awarded for the completion of a specified program of study which is of shorter duration than a degree or diploma.

Challenge for credit:
  is the request for consideration of academic credit resulting from experience or knowledge gained elsewhere for which transfer credit cannot be awarded.

Co-requisite course: is a course which may be taken concurrently with or successfully completed prior to the course for which it is required.

Course: is a unit of work in a particular subject normally extending over one semester or session, the completion of which normally carries credit toward the fulfilment of the requirements of certain degrees, diplomas or certificates.

Course number:
  courses are designated by four characters. The first character signifies the level of the course. Where all four characters are numeric, the last three are used by academic units to indicate various information such as course sequence and area of study. Where the last character is alphabetic, the letter:
  A identifies a linked course. No credits or points are given until the “B” part is completed.
  C identifies an English course that does not carry credit towards a degree, diploma or certificate.
  F identifies a foundation course that is intended to remedy a specific academic weakness and does not carry credit towards a degree, diploma or certificate.
  W identifies a course in either a work term in a co-operative program or a special project in certain of the professional schools and faculties and may or may not be assigned credit hours.
  X identifies a course which represents an entire semester’s work and carries 15 credit hours.

Courses offered outside of the normal time frame:
  are those with different start and/or end dates than those of the semester or session.

Credit hour:
  is the measure used to reflect the relative weight of a given course toward the fulfilment of appropriate degree, diploma, certificate, major, minor, or other program requirements. A weight of 1 credit hour normally means that the course meets for lectures one hour per week for the duration of a semester or two hours per week for the duration of a session. Unless otherwise indicated, a course normally has a credit value of 3 credit hours.
Credit-restricted courses:
are courses which are closely related but not equivalent. Credit is limited to one of the credit-restricted courses. Normally, credit-restricted courses cannot be substituted, one for the other, to satisfy program requirements.

Cross-listed courses: are courses which are listed under two or more academic units and which can be taken for credit from one unit only. Cross-listed courses can be substituted, one for the other, to satisfy program requirements.

Degree: is an academic designation awarded for the completion of a specified program of study which is of longer duration than a diploma or certificate.

Diploma:
is an academic designation awarded for the completion of a specified program of study which is of shorter duration than a degree and longer duration than a certificate.

Distance education course: is a university course designed for people who wish to study outside a traditional university setting. Instructors and students are separated by time and/or space. Distance education courses include correspondence, teleconference and world wide web courses.

Equivalent courses: are those which are determined to be equal for credit determination, although the subject area or course number will differ. These are normally identified with the phrase “Same as”.

Examination: is an evaluative exercise including but not limited to tests, quizzes or mid-terms, final or supplementary examinations.

Foundation course: is a course intended to remedy a specific academic weakness and is identified by the letter “F” as the last character of the course number. A foundation course does not carry credit towards a degree, diploma or certificate.

GPA: is the abbreviation for grade point average.

Head of academic unit:
includes but is not limited to co-ordinator, dean, department head, director, principal, or equivalent.

Inactive courses:
are courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year.

Lecturing period: is a designated period of lectures within a semester or session as defined by the University Diary.

Linked course: is a course comprising two components and is normally identified by the letter “A” or “B” as the last character of the course number. No credits or points are given until the “B” part is completed.

Major:
is a subject or field of study which a student normally specializes in during the course of degree studies.

Minor:
is a subject or field of study which a student normally pursues secondary to a major during the course of degree studies.

Prerequisite course: is a course which must be successfully completed prior to commencing the course for which it is required.

Program:
is a series of courses, the successful completion of which, if all requirements are met, qualifies the candidate for a degree, diploma or certificate.

Registration: is the process of selecting, enrolling in, and being assessed fees for courses.

Registration period:
is in any semester, the period extending from the first day of registration to two weeks following the first day of lectures, as stated in the University Diary. In any session, it is the period extending from the first day of registration to one week following the first day of lectures, as stated in the University Diary.

Repeatable course: is a course that may be taken for credit in several semesters to a maximum number of credit hours. All such courses shall have specified both the number of credit hours assigned per semester and the maximum number of credit hours to be awarded.

Semester:
is a period of approximately fourteen consecutive weeks during which there are at least twelve weeks of lecture. Normally the Fall Semester commences in early September, the Winter Semester in early January, and the Spring Semester in early May.

Session:
is a period of approximately seven consecutive weeks in the Spring Semester during which there are at least six weeks of lecture. The first half of Spring Semester is designated as Intersession; the second half of Spring Semester is designated as Summer Session.

Student-Web/Student Self-Service: is a suite of e-business student services including registration and the provision of personalized student information.

Transcript: is the complete and unabridged report of a student’s academic record.

Transfer credit:
is academic credit granted for work completed at an institution other than Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Waiver: is the permission granted by the appropriate authority for exemption from a particular program requirement and/or a particular university regulation.

Memorial University of Newfoundland is the only university in Newfoundland and Labrador. It has campuses in St. John's and in Corner Brook, as well as Harlow, England.

6.1 The Beginning
Memorial University College was established as a memorial to the Newfoundlanders who had lost their lives on active service during the First World War; it was later rededicated to also encompass the province's war dead of the Second World War. The College opened its doors on the old Parade grounds in St. John's to a total student body of 55 on September 15, 1925.

6.2 University Status
The elevation of the College to the full status of a university was one of the priorities of the first post-Confederation Government. At the initial session of our Provincial House of Assembly, July 13, 1949, the intention of the Government of the day was conveyed by the then Lieutenant-Governor, the Honourable Sir Albert Walsh, in these words from the Speech from the Throne:

“It is considered that Newfoundland should have her own degree-conferring University and you will be invited to consider legislation which would confer upon the Memorial University College the status of a university. It is planned to widen and improve the functions, and thus increase the public usefulness of this institution created originally in honour of our illustrious dead of the First World War.”

Royal assent was given the Bill creating The Memorial University of Newfoundland on August 13, 1949, exactly one month to the day from the opening of the House. The Board of Regents and the Senate were inaugurated in May 1950, and the first Convocation of the University was held on June 3, 1950, when the first degrees were awarded.

6.3 A Period of Expansion
With university status, Memorial University of Newfoundland entered a period of rapid growth that was to continue into the 70s. In 1949-1950, there was a student body of 307 in the new University; in the academic year 1961-1962, when the University moved to its present campus, the student enrolment had reached 1,745 full-time and 192 part-time. Ten years later, 1971-1972, the student population, including full- and part-time students on degree programs, was 10,980.

Meanwhile, there were equally dramatic changes in the variety and extent of available academic programs. In the early years of the University, there were two Faculties (Arts and Science, and Education). While the academic structure was quite similar in 1961, when the University moved to the present campus, areas of instruction, course offerings and degrees awarded had all increased. Today, the University offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degree programs through six Faculties - Arts, Science, Education, Medicine, Engineering and Business Administration; and six Schools - Graduate Studies, Nursing, Human Kinetics and Recreation, Social Work, Music and Pharmacy; and also offers degree programs in Fine Arts. Student enrolment in 2005-06 totalled 17,509. Further information regarding enrolment statistics can be found in the Fact Book at www.mun.ca/cla/ip/fact_book.php.

In 1975, the University established a campus in Corner Brook. The College was re-named the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College in 1979 honouring the memory of the medical missionary who pioneered medicine in Northern Newfoundland and along the coast of Labrador. Since its opening, Grenfell College has progressed from a junior college offering first- and second-year courses to providing entire degrees in the areas of arts, fine arts, science, and nursing. The first degrees, in the disciplines of theatre and visual arts, were introduced in 1988. Most recently, Grenfell College has introduced degree programs in tourism studies and a Bachelor of Education Program (Primary/Elementary) fast-track option. The College currently offers degree programs in 14 disciplines. For more information see www.swgc.mun.ca.

In 1992 the Marine Institute joined the University, becoming the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Founded in 1964, the Marine Institute offers a range of certificate, diploma and degree programs in fisheries and marine technology and is involved in research and technology transfer. For more information see www.mi.mun.ca.

Memorial University of Newfoundland's faculty and students actively participate in research and development. This University is one of the most important research facilities in Atlantic Canada and has developed numerous research programs and facilities that are among the most advanced in the world. For a complete listing of research facilities see www.mun.ca/research/units.

6.4 The Campuses

6.4.1 St. John's
The St. John's campus covers a total area of approximately 220 acres. It is divided by Prince Philip Drive, a four-lane arterial road that runs east to west across the campus. To the south, the boundary is Elizabeth Avenue; to the north, Long Pond and Kelly's Farm. The western boundary follows Westerland Road, west along Prince Philip Drive and north along Wicklow Street; on the east, the campus is bounded by Higgin's Line and adjoins the St. John's Arts & Culture Centre property on Allandale Road.

On the campus to the south of Prince Philip Drive are the Arts and Administration, Science, Chemistry-Physics, Education (G.A.
Hickman), Mathematics (Henrietta Harvey), Physical Education, Biotechnology, Facilities Management and Music (M.O. Morgan) buildings; as well as the Queen Elizabeth II Library, Inco Innovation Centre, Paton College residence complex, Burton's Pond Apartments, Campus Childcare Inc., and a number of smaller buildings. The Works recreation complex was opened in 2002, comprising the Aquarena, Field House and other sports and recreation facilities on campus. Spanning Prince Philip Drive is the Smallwood Centre, containing student services and student union operations, as well as recreation and dining facilities.

North of Prince Philip Drive are the Health Sciences Centre incorporating the Faculty of Medicine, the School of Nursing, the School of Pharmacy, and the General Hospital Corporation; the Engineering (S.J. Carew), the Alexander Murray, the Faculty of Business Administration, and the C-CORE (Captain Robert A. Bartlett) buildings, St. John's College, Coughlan College, Queen's College, Spencer Hall, and the Fisheries and Marine Institute on Ridge Road. The National Research Council's Institute for Ocean Technology is also located on the north side of the campus. Slightly further north is the Memorial University of Newfoundland Botanical Garden. The Ocean Sciences Centre is located to the west at Logy Bay.

The Fisheries and Marine Institute is headquartered on Ridge Road in St. John's, and is Canada's leading centre of education, training, applied research and technology transfer for the ocean industries. As part of Memorial University of Newfoundland, Marine Institute offers degrees, advanced diplomas, diplomas of technology, certificates in such fields as marine transportation, food and water quality, naval architecture, aquaculture, coastal zone management and marine environmental.

For general enquires, specific enquires about academic programs offered at Harlow should be directed to the appropriate Dean/Director/Principal or Dr. G. Gardner, Associate Vice President (Academic), Office of the Associate Vice-President (Academic), Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7, or by telephone at (709) 737-8411, or by fax at (709) 737-6978.

General enquiries about the Harlow Campus should be directed in writing to Ms. Sandra Wright, General Manager, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Harlow Campus, The Maltings, St. John's Walk, Market Street, Harlow, Essex CM17 OAJ, UK., or by telephone at 011 44 1279 455900, or by fax at 011 44 1279 455999, or by e-mail at wright@hcampus.inty.net.
Up to date information on the Harlow Campus and academic programs is available at www.mun.ca/harlow.

6.5 Objectives of the University

The objectives of Memorial University of Newfoundland are: to develop in the province an institution of higher learning deserving of respect for the quality of its academic standards and of its research; to establish new programs to meet the expanding needs of the province; and to provide the means whereby the University may reach out to all the people.

In 1994 the University adopted a mission statement:

Memorial University is committed to excellence in teaching, research and scholarship, and service to the general public.

Memorial University recognizes a special obligation to educate the citizens of Newfoundland and Labrador, to undertake research on the challenges this province faces and to share its expertise with the community.

This mission is at the core of this University's plans for its programs, campuses and activities at home and abroad. To learn more about the University's evolving plans and priorities, see www.mun.ca/strategicplanning/.

6.10 University Constitution

The Constitution of the University is embodied in an Act of the House of Assembly of Newfoundland entitled An Act Respecting the Memorial University of Newfoundland, Chap. 231, Revised Statutes of Newfoundland (as amended). The Act delineates the authority and the functions of the University and its parts, as follows:

There shall be a university which shall be called the Memorial University of Newfoundland, consisting of a Chancellor, Convocation, Board of Regents, Senate, Faculty Councils and the Faculties and which shall be a body politic and corporate. No other university having corporate powers capable of being exercised within Newfoundland shall be known by the same name, nor shall any other university have power to grant degrees.

The University shall have full power and authority from time to time and at all times to establish and maintain such faculties, colleges, schools, institutions, departments, chairs and courses as to the Board of Regents may seem meet, and to give instructions and training; to grant degrees, including honorary degrees, diplomas and certificates of proficiency; to provide facilities for the prosecution of original research in every branch of knowledge and learning and to conduct and carry on such research work; and generally, to promote and carry on the work of a university in all its branches.

6.10.1 The Board of Regents

The management, administration and control of the property, revenue, business and affairs of the University are vested in a Board of Regents, consisting of:

1. three ex-officio members
   a. the Chancellor of the University
   b. the President of the University
   c. the Vice-President of the University who is the Pro Vice-Chancellor;
2. six members elected by the Alumni Association of the University;
3. seventeen members appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council; and
4. four members appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council being full-time students of the University who
   a. meet the requirements set out in the regulations, and
   b. are recommended to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council by the board following the recommendation to the board of one candidate each from the following student unions:
   i. the Memorial University of Newfoundland Students' Union, ii. the Graduate Students' Union,
   iii. the Marine Institute Students' Union, and
   iv. the Grenfell College Student Union.

6.10.2 The Senate
Matters of an academic character are in general charge of the Senate of the University, consisting of the following:
1. The Chancellor of the University;
2. ex-officio members who shall be
   a. the President of the University, who shall be the chairman thereof,
   b. the Vice-President (Academic) of the University, who shall be the deputy chairman thereof,
   c. the Deputy Minister of Education or a representative of the Deputy Minister,
   d. the Principal of the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College,
   e. the Deans of the Faculties of the University,
   f. the Dean of Graduate Studies,
   g. the University Librarian,
   h. the University Registrar, and
   i. such other persons holding office within the University or in any of the colleges or institutions affiliated with the University chosen in such number and manner as may be approved by the Board;
3. such members from the academic staff of the Faculties and Professional Schools of the University, exclusive of any person who is a member by virtue of paragraph 2., elected in such number and manner as may be approved by the Board; but the number elected under this paragraph shall be not less than twice the number of members named or chosen under paragraph 2.; and
4. thirteen members from the students in attendance at the University, including at least one student from the Marine Institute, one graduate student and one student from Sir Wilfred Grenfell College with all members to be chosen in a manner approved by the Board.

6.10.3 Convocation
Convocation of the University, as provided in the Act, is composed of the Chancellor, the President, the Senate, the Board of Regents, all persons who are graduates of the Memorial University College, all persons holding academic appointments with the University whose names are added to the roll of the Convocation by the Registrar of the University from time to time upon instructions from the President, and all persons who have become graduates of the University. The functions of Convocation are chiefly elective, but it may also consider all questions affecting the well being and prosperity of the University and make representations from time to time on such questions to the Senate, which shall consider the same and return to the Convocation its conclusions thereon.

6.10.4 Affiliation
The Act provides that, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, the University may affiliate with any college or institution established in the province for the promotion of Arts and Science, or for instruction in Law, Medicine, Nursing, Education, Engineering, Agriculture or in any other useful branch of learning, and to dissolve any such affiliation. The institution which has become affiliated with the University under this provision is Queen's College, St. John's.

6.11 Queen's College

6.11.1 Faculty of Theology

6.13 The University Library

The University Library consists of the Queen Elizabeth II Library, the Health Sciences Library, and the Dr. C.R. Barrett Library, Fisheries and Marine Institute, all in St. John's, and the Ferriss Hodgett Library in Corner Brook. These four units together have a collection equivalent to 2.5 million volumes and more than 26,000 current journal subscriptions. This collection serves as the major information resource for the University as well as the province. All units of the library system may be used by all students, faculty and staff, as well as the community at large.

6.13.1 Queen Elizabeth II Library

The Queen Elizabeth II Library was opened for service in January 1982. It is an impressive structure of 200,000 square feet on five levels. It has a seating capacity of 2,000 and can hold 1.6 million physical volumes. The Information Services Division, located on the main floor (second level), provides assistance to people wishing to make use of the library's resources and services. This division provides reference and computer-assisted bibliographic search services. Library tours and individual or group instruction in the use of the library and its resources may be arranged for students through this division. Information Services is part of the Commons, located on the Library's main floor. The Commons is a partnership between Computing and Communications, the Queen Elizabeth II Library, and the Writing Centre. The Commons provides access to print, electronic, and technology resources with the support and expertise needed to help users in the use of these resources. The wall space in the Commons is called First Space and is used to highlight the work of the fine arts students of Memorial University of Newfoundland. The Government Documents Section contains a depository collection of Canadian government documents together with an extensive collection of material from the United States and other countries and international organizations. The Lending Services Division provides interlibrary loan and services to off-campus students as well as maintaining the stacks in the library. The Library's Centre for Newfoundland Studies collects all published material pertaining to Newfoundland and Labrador, as well as manuscript materials. The Music Resource Centre, located in the School of Music, contains scores, sound recordings, and listening equipment.

6.13.2 Health Sciences Library

The Health Sciences Library is located on the ground floor of the Health Sciences Centre on the north campus of the University. It is a designated Canadian MEDLINE Centre which provides access to computer-assisted searches of the world's biomedical literature on demand in support of clinical, teaching, and research interests. The Health Sciences Library has a collection of over 40,000 books on medicine, nursing, dentistry, pharmacy and allied health subjects and subscribes to more than 1700 paper and electronic journals. It maintains an audio-visual collection of over 1500 titles, which includes videotapes, slides, microfiche/film and audio cassettes.

6.13.3 Dr. C.R. Barrett Library

The Dr. C.R. Barrett Library is located on the main floor of the Fisheries and Marine Institute. It offers a comprehensive range of library and audio-visual services to students, faculty, and staff at the Fisheries and Marine Institute, the College of North Atlantic Engineering Technology Centre and to the Newfoundland and Labrador marine industries. The library collection supports study and research in fisheries and aquaculture, marine engineering, nautical science, and the aquatic environment. The collection also includes significant holdings in engineering.

Library holdings include 50,000 books and technical reports, 400 current magazine and newspaper subscriptions, print and electronic reference sources, 1,400 films and videos, maps and pamphlets. The collection includes 4,500 ship drawings.
6.13.4 Ferriss Hodgett Library

The Ferriss Hodgett Library is located on levels 2 and 3 of the Library & Computing Building, Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, Corner Brook campus, with seating for 203 users and includes group study rooms, audio-visual and computer carrels. The Library holds over 100,000 books and 450 current subscriptions, along with collections of audio-visual materials, government documents, microforms, periodicals, and access to many e-journals.

A full range of public services is available including reference assistance, orientation tours and interlibrary loans, as well as access to electronic information resources, Internet, spreadsheet, word processing, and presentation software.

7 Student Affairs and Services

The Dean of Student Affairs and Services is the senior person responsible for the coordination and implementation of support services for students and serves as a liaison between the student body and university administration. The primary goal of the Dean is to promote a welcoming and supportive environment so that students are able to maximize their opportunities for learning and personal development. The Dean provides leadership and direction so that students’ educational experiences are enriched by the provision of programs that respond to their intellectual, emotional, occupational, financial, personal, physical and social needs. The Dean is administratively responsible for the divisions of Career Development and Experiential Learning, Counselling, Student Health Service, Student Success Programs, University Bookstore, and Housing, Food and Conference Services. 7.6 Counselling Centre

The primary function of the Counselling Centre is to help students develop their personal capabilities. Through individualized personal counselling and a wide range of programs, students are encouraged and helped to develop their own unique resources and thereby promote personal growth and intellectual development. The Centre also serves as a training centre for advanced students in a number of helping professions. Services will be offered free of charge to students in three basic areas.

7.6.1 Learning Enhancement Programs

Through a number of short groups and structured activities, students may actively enhance their learning capabilities. Most of the learning programs offered train participants to employ a number of organizational techniques to comprehend and, later, to recall important concepts. Specific programs offered through the Centre apply these ideas to the areas of Speed Reading and Comprehension, Organizing Ideas for Term Papers and Essays, and Oral Communication.

7.6.2 UCC 2020: Applied Cognitive and Affective Learning Strategies for Undergraduate Students

An introduction to cognitive and affective learning strategies and techniques with an emphasis on the application of these techniques in the students' own learning repertoires together with an overview of relevant research from cognitive psychology and related fields. Topics covered will include information processing, memory, forgetting, problem solving, metacognition; general and specific learning strategies, learning styles, and affective strategies (3 credit hours).

7.6.3 Individual and Group Counselling for Other Personal Concerns

In addition to individualized personal counselling, the Centre offers specialized group and/or training programs. For many students the fear of testing, fear of asserting one's self and continued mental and physical stress can lead to poor academic performance or personal problems. These, and other such difficulties, can be dealt with on either an individual or group basis, depending upon the student's needs. The Counselling Centre routinely offers a variety of groups: Assertiveness Training, Developing Healthy Relationships, Mood Management, Test Anxiety, and others on demand.

7.6.4 Psycho-Educational Testing

A psycho-educational assessment program is offered on a fee-for-service basis for students seeking academic accommodations. The Counselling Centre is located in the Smallwood Centre, and is open 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (4:30 p.m. in the summer), Monday through Friday. All services are free of charge to students and appointments can be made in person at UC5000, or by telephone to (709) 737-8874, or email at counselc@mun.ca, or by visiting the website at www.mun.ca/counselling/home/psychoed.php.

7.6.5 Glenn Roy Blundon Centre

The Blundon Centre coordinates on-campus services for students with disabilities and those with short-term illnesses and injuries. Services and accommodations include: assistance arranging alternative accommodations for tests and exams (medical or psychoeducational documentation is required), access to adaptive technology and software, orientation of new students, in-servicing of faculty and staff regarding disability issues and special accommodations, note-taking assistance (NCR paper), provision of keys to wheelchair elevators and lifts on campus, and a liaising network between students, faculty, staff, and community groups. Copies of the Campus Physical Accessibility Guide and Partnerships to Access Learning: a resource guide for students with disabilities, faculty and service providers are available. The Glenn Roy Blundon Centre is located at UC4007. For further information contact the Blundon Centre at (709) 737-2156 (Voice), (709) 737-4763 (TTY), email at blundon@mun.ca, or the website at www.mun.ca/blundon/about/index.php.

7.6.6 Campus Ministries

The Campus Ministries is currently comprised of chaplains representing the Anglican, United, Salvation Army, Pentecostal and Roman Catholic denominations. Campus Ministries attempts to provide resources, guidance and support for members of the university community. The chaplaincy also seeks to bring a faith dimension to contemporary issues such as peace, justice, technology and science. The chaplains offer individual pastoral counselling as well as joint programs including weekly workshops, discussion groups, social activities and worship opportunities. Schedules of events are available from the chaplains or through the website at www.mun.ca/student/campusmin. Campus Ministries is located at UC5002.

7.6.7 Wellness Programs

Wellness Programs co-ordinate a broad range of health and wellness services for the student community. Our main mission is to raise awareness to the many self-care skills needed for all. Our programs consist of the peer helper program and the many other outreach events organized by this office. Located in the Counselling Centre, wellness education works with in collaboration with various campus and community organizations to help facilitate wellness promotion at the University.

Inquiries may be made in-person at UC5002A, by telephone to (709) 737-2659, or through the website at www.mun.ca/student/healthy/.

8. Educational materials on health issues
9. MCP information and application forms
10. Vaccinations

7.7.2 Medical Records
All students' medical records are strictly confidential. No information is released without the request and written consent of the student.

7.7.3 New Students
Students are encouraged to bring a copy of their medical records to the Student Health Centre. This is especially important for students who:
1. have chronic or recurrent illness, e.g. asthma, diabetes, inflammatory bowel disease, seizure disorders;
2. require refills of prescription drugs;
3. have a physical disability, e.g. cerebral palsy, spina bifida, visual or hearing impairment; or
4. have a history of mental illness.

7.7.4 Payment
The University will bill the appropriate paying agency for the eligible medical services received at the Student Health Service.

7.7.5 Newfoundland and Labrador Students
MCP cards are required.

7.7.6 Students From Other Canadian Provinces
Students from other Canadian provinces are required to bring their provincial medicare cards.

7.7.7 International Students
International students are automatically enrolled in the mandatory emergency medical insurance plan. International students may opt in their dependents. A personal medical card will be issued by the International Student Advising Office and must be presented by the student each time medical or hospital services are required. The student must also sign a claim form for each medical or hospital service rendered.
MCP cards are required for International students that are MCP eligible and should be presented first in the event of medical care. Please contact the International Student Advising Office for further information.

7.7.8 Medicals
"Medicals" (pre-employment, SCUBA, driver's licence, life insurance, etc.) are not covered by insurance plans and must be paid for by the student.

7.8 The Students' Union
The Memorial University of Newfoundland Students' Union Act (1968) incorporated the Students' Union (MUNSU) as the official students' union representing undergraduate students at the University's St. John's campus.
The Students' Union provides a range of advocacy work to improve the lives of its members and increase accessibility of post-secondary education. It lobbies all levels of government and other decision-making bodies and organizes campaigns around these and other issues which are important to the membership. It also provides services to improve the quality of student life: the Copy Centre, the Attic (Used Bookstore and Postal Service), Health and Dental Insurance, Safe Drive / WalkSafe, the Student Handbook/Dayplanner, Breezeway Bar, CHMR-FM radio, and others. The cost of services are partially funded by Students' Union fees paid by each undergraduate students upon registration. The Students' Union also operates over a 100 student clubs and societies organized around a wide range of academic and extracurricular interests. MUNSU assists students on an individual basis to resolve student aid as well as academic-based problems and appeals. Through the offices of the Director of Advocacy, problems with appeals, assessments, repayment, and general complaints in these areas are addressed.
The Students' Union offers free legal services to students during a semester and a legal aid supervisor is available for appointment. These sessions are not considered extended legal counsel. Students who have more serious issues may be referred to the MUNSU lawyer, for one free consultation, per issue, per semester.
7.9 Students' Union Fee
All full-time and part-time undergraduate and graduate students of the University pay compulsory fees to their respective students' unions (MUNSU or GSU) and all students, upon registration, automatically become members of either MUNSU, the undergraduate students' union, or GSU, the graduate students' union.

7.10 The Graduate Students' Union
The Graduate Students' Union (GSU) at Memorial University of Newfoundland is an organization run for graduate students by graduate students. Founded in 1967, the GSU is one of Canada's oldest independently incorporated graduate student governments. Every graduate student at the University becomes a member of the GSU upon registration. Presently, the graduate student body consists of over 2000 full and part-time students, thereby comprising approximately 10% of the total student population at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The Graduate Students' Union has two main functions: 1) to represent and protect the interests of the graduate students at all levels of university governance, and 2) to help enhance the quality of graduate student life at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Graduate students are represented on university committees regularly attend. The Board meets once a month to assist the Executive in guiding the development and direction of the organization. The Board meetings also give students a chance to raise concerns from their individual departments and in return, to receive advice or suggestions on problem solving. These meetings are the main line of communication between the Executive officers and the graduate student population at the University. It is for this reason, that the GSU needs an active and interested Board of Directors. Graduate students who are interested in getting involved are always welcome, and should speak to their department representative, or contact the GSU office.

The Graduate Students' Union is located in Feild Hall on the north side of campus. Operated by the GSU, Feild Hall is comprised of four floors: the top two floors for a graduate student residence, one floor for departmental graduate student offices and GSU offices, and the ground floor for Bitters - Restaurant and Lounge, the pub owned and operated by the GSU.

The Graduate Students’ Union general office is located on the second floor of Feild Hall in room GH 2007. Office hours are posted outside the office door, on the answering service, and the website. You can reach the GSU by phone (709) 737-4395, by fax at (709) 737-3395, by email gsu@gsumun.ca, or by writing to Graduate Students’ Union, Feild Hall, GH2007, 216 Prince Philip Drive, St. John’s, NL, A1B 3RS. Further information about the GSU can be obtained from the website at www.gsumun.ca.

7.11 Canadian Forces University Training Plans
Selected students may qualify for financial assistance through these Canadian Forces University Training Plans: the Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP), the Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP-Coop), the Dental Officer Training Plan (DOTP), the Medical Officer Training Plan (MOTP), and the Reserve Entry Scheme Officer (RESO). Full details may be obtained in writing to the Canadian Forces Recruiting Centre Detachment St. John’s, Sir Humphrey Gilbert Building, 165 Duckworth Street, St. John’s, NL or the Canadian Forces Recruiting Centre Detachment Corner Brook, CIBC Building, 9 Main Street, Suite 203, Corner Brook, NL.

7.12 Firearms On Campus
Students are reminded that firearms (including air-rires, air-guns and sling shots) may not be brought into, or used in, any part of the University except the rifle range.

7.13 Housing, Food and Conference Services
It is the responsibility of each student to locate accommodation on or off the Campus. Accommodation on campus is available at Paton College and Burton's Pond Apartments. All residents of on-campus housing must abide by the rules and regulations as set out by Housing, Food and Conference Services. Applications for Paton College and Burton's Pond are assigned on a first come - first served basis. The processing fee is non-refundable. Further information and applications about on-campus accommodations may be obtained through the website at www.munhousing.ca, or by email to housing@mun.ca, or by telephone to (709) 737-7590/91/92, or in writing to the Housing, Food and Conference Services, Room 309 Hatcher House, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador A1B 3P7.

7.13.1 Paton College
Paton College is a residential complex located at the eastern end of Memorial University of Newfoundland's St. John's campus. This complex, which houses approximately 980 students in ten dormitories, offers both single gender and co-ed living. Offers of rooms at Paton College are conditional on students being accepted and registered at Memorial University of Newfoundland or the Fisheries and Marine Institute. Students who are not accepted to the University must notify the Student Housing Office of their intention to cancel accommodations immediately upon notification from the University. All accommodations at Paton College are on a room and board basis. Occupancy of rooms extends from the day before registration until 12:00 noon the day after the last regularly scheduled undergraduate examination. Residence fees cover the period of a particular semester only. Those residents who have an academic requirement to be in residence between semesters may be provided with room accommodation if space is available and approved by Housing, Food and Conference Services. An additional charge for such accommodation will be applied to the student's account.

Housing, Food and Conference Services reserves the right to deny accommodation outside the normal semester period if space is needed for other purposes. All new registrants entering Paton College will be required to sign an eight month lease for the Fall and Winter semesters. All students in Paton College are required to purchase a 10, 14 or 19 meal plan. Meal tickets are valid from the breakfast meal on the day following the first day of Paton College registration. The ticket expires with the evening meal on the day of University's last regularly scheduled examination. Refunds will not be issued to students for room accommodations and/or meal tickets.
7.13.2 Burton's Pond Apartments

Burton's Pond Apartments is a residential complex located at the eastern end of Memorial University of Newfoundland's St. John's campus. This complex houses approximately 512 single students in four apartment buildings: Cabot Court, Cartier Court, Gilbert Court, and Guy Court. Fifteen two-bedroom family units are contained in Baltimore Court, and there is a service building - Corte Real Court - containing a computer room, a laundry centre, and students' mailboxes which are accessible to residents 24 hours a day. Each apartment unit in the four single students buildings is occupied by four students, each of whom has a private bedroom and share the kitchen, living room and bathroom. All registrants entering Burton's Pond Apartments will be required to sign an eight month lease for the Fall and Winter Semesters.

7.13.3 Off-Campus Housing

Housing, Food and Conference Services also offers a method to find off-campus housing in and around the St. John's area. Off-Campus Housing (OCH) provides information, enhanced web resources and programming to students of Memorial University of Newfoundland who secure off-campus housing through their website. The objective is to help make the work of finding and securing housing easier for students and landlords. Housing, Food and Conference Services personnel will conduct site visits, review the rental properties using the Off-Campus Housing Amenity Checklist, and update the web site information. These listings are provided for information only; they are not endorsed in any way by Memorial University of Newfoundland or Housing, Food and Conference Services. The University does not take any responsibility for these accommodations. Further information may be obtained on the website at www.munhousing.ca/och, or by to email och@mun.ca, or telephone to (709) 737-3765.

8 Dentistry, Physiotherapy, and Occupational Therapy

8.1 General Information

Because admission requirements vary significantly in different institutions and from one health science to another (e.g., Dentistry, Dental Hygiene, Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy), interested students are advised to plan carefully and early.

The Career Planning Centre, located in the University Centre in room UC4002, can provide advice to, or in some instances, arrange for students to contact other sources of more detailed information. The Centre maintains considerable information on careers in the various health fields, including guides and university calendars outlining where the programs of study are available and their entrance requirements. Interested students should consult these materials as early as possible, preferably before the Orientation Week interview and first-year registration.

8.2 Dentistry

After having consulted the Career Planning Centre, students who require further advice about dentistry prerequisites should consult Dr. Faye Murrin, Department of Biology in room S4109, who has agreed to act as the faculty advisor for pre-dental students.

8.3 Physiotherapy

Physiotherapy career information is available at the Career Planning Centre. Students requiring additional assistance or advice may arrange an appointment with Janet O'Dea.

Ms. O'Dea has been designated by Memorial University of Newfoundland as a liaison person with Dalhousie University, School of Physiotherapy and as a source of advice concerning other Physiotherapy Programs in Canada. Further information may be obtained by writing Janet O'Dea, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Room 2765, Health Sciences Centre, St. John's, NL A1B 3V6, or by telephone to (709) 777-7080, or through the website at www.med.mun.ca/OTP/.

8.4 Occupational Therapy

Students interested in pursuing a career in Occupational Therapy may arrange an appointment with Brenda Head, who has been designated by Memorial University of Newfoundland as a liaison person for the School of Occupational Therapy at Dalhousie University. Further information may be obtained by writing Ms. Brenda Head, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Room 2765, Health Science Centre, St. John's, NL A1B 3V6, or by telephone to (709) 777-7105.

9 Distance Education and Learning Technologies

Director

Associate Director, Learning Technologies and Media Design

Wells, R., B.Sc.(Hons.), M.Ed., Memorial

Manager, Finance and Administration

Langdon, J., B.Comm.(Co-op), Memorial, CGA

Manager, Instructional Development Office

Administrative Staff

Mahon, P., Secretary

Porter, C., Administrative Staff Specialist

Distance Education and Learning Technologies (DELT) is responsible for the design, development and delivery of credit courses and degree programs via distance; advancement and support of e-learning throughout the University; and support for students and faculty in the use and application of technologies for effective teaching and learning. Through its activities DELT connects students across the province, the country and the world that have limited educational opportunities due to time and location. It also works to enhance, promote and support an e-learning vision throughout the institution. DELT strives to provide faculties and departments with the e-learning expertise and knowledge needed to progress the University's mandate in expanding and improving its on-line education delivery. A Memorandum of Understanding with the Department of Education's Centre for Distance Learning and Innovation (CDLI), who deliver distance education to K-12 students, allows DELT to share knowledge and information and prepare for the incoming university student.
9.1 Distance Education

Distance Education and Learning Technologies (DELT) offers approximately 300 courses – half of which are web-based – to approximately 14,000 course registrants annually. Courses are available in 26 disciplines in 10 faculties and schools with complete undergraduate and graduate degrees available via distance including bachelors’ degrees in business (Bachelor of Business Administration), maritime studies (Bachelor of Maritime Studies), nursing (Bachelor of Nursing (Post RN)), and technology (Bachelor of Technology); Masters’ degrees are offered in education (Master of Education (Information Technology), Master of Education (Post-Secondary)) and nursing (Master of Nursing). Courses are delivered mainly via the Internet, however, some courses include print materials (i.e. manual, readings, textbooks), CD/Video/DVD programs and web conferencing sessions.

9.2 Student Service and Delivery

DELT’s Student Service and Delivery model utilizes a 1-1-1 approach; one response to one inquiry by one staff representative. This model incorporates a hands-on approach with a self-service website which provides the self-directed distance student with access to relevant and important information during off-peak hours. This system effectively places specific information, such as course materials, in the hands of students thereby reducing wait times and allowing for effective communications with students on specific matters.

Further information on distance education programs may be obtained by telephone to (709) 737-8700, or toll free to (866) 435-1396, or by fax to (709) 737-6783, or through the website at www.distance.mun.ca.

9.3 Course Development (Design, Development and Delivery)

DELT combines the expertise of specialists including Instructional Designers, Multi-media specialists, Video Producers, Publications Specialists, etc. to work closely with academic units and professors to develop, manage and deliver the University's distance education programs in a manner conducive to instruction via distance. All functions encourage and support innovative teaching practices through the application of instructional technologies in both on-campus teaching and distance education. Within this function, DELT provides a wide range of professional media development, production, post-production, and distribution services. Video services include broadcast-quality studio and mobile facilities, and production services such as digital cameras, AVID non-linear editing, digitization, international standards conversion, tape and DVD production, distribution and the Internet. Multimedia specialties include print layout and design, illustration, television graphics and animation, 3D visualization, and web design. Technical staff offer consultation, design, installation and maintenance services for multimedia teaching facilities. Classroom Support Services provides multimedia and audiovisual support for teaching on-campus as well as the design of smart classrooms and/or the implementation of technologies in the classroom.

Further information on media production services may be obtained by telephone to (709) 737-7575 or by fax to (709) 737-4635.

9.4 Instructional Development Office

The Instructional Development Office provides support to the University’s faculty members and graduate students in the enhancement of their teaching knowledge and skills. The Office espouses a collaborative, responsive, and pragmatic approach to developing services and programs related to teaching and learning.

Among the services provided are professional development workshops and seminars, programs for the teaching development of graduate students, and individual and small group consultations. Support is given for awards applications and other activities and initiatives that recognize the importance of university teaching. A resource centre offers a collection of books, journals, newsletters, and video programs about instruction.

Further information on instructional development services may be obtained by telephone to (709) 737-3028, or by fax to (709) 737-4635, or by e-mail to instrdev@mun.ca.

10 Special Divisions and Separately Incorporated Entities

10.1 Anthropology and Archaeology Unit

Members
Deal, M., Anthropology and Archaeology, Chair
Brown, S.C., Anthropology and Archaeology
Gaulton, B., Anthropology and Archaeology
Jerkic, S.M., Anthropology and Archaeology, Honorary Research Professor Pocius, G.L., Folklore
Pope, P., Anthropology and Archaeology
Rankin, L., Anthropology and Archaeology
Renouf, P., Anthropology and Archaeology, Canada Research Chair, North Atlantic Archaeology Tuck, J.A., Anthropology and Archaeology, Professor Emeritus
Whitridge, P., Anthropology and Archaeology
Noseworthy, G., Curator of Collections
Mathias, C., Conservator
Wells, P., CRC Research Assistant

The Archaeology Unit was established in 1978 as a unit of the Faculty of Arts within the former Department of Anthropology. It provides an administrative structure in which the teaching and research programs in archaeology can be strengthened by the formal participation of scholars in cognate departments. It has the following aims:

1. to bring together those scholars interested in archaeology as a means of understanding the past;
2. to create a program of study providing a thorough understanding of the techniques of archaeology, the various theoretical perspectives to which archaeology may contribute, and a knowledge of other disciplines which may contribute to our understanding of the past;
3. to co-ordinate and conduct archaeological research, both prehistoric and historical;
4. to establish laboratory facilities and to employ personnel for the conservation of artifacts; and
5. to maintain liaison with relevant public agencies and private organizations.
10.2 Canadian Centre for Fisheries Innovation (CCFI)

Located at the Fisheries and Marine Institute, the Canadian Centre for Fisheries Innovation is owned by Memorial University of Newfoundland and supported by the Atlantic Innovation Fund. The Centre provides scientific research and technology services to the fishing industry in Atlantic Canada. Working closely with the faculty and staff of the region's universities and technical institutes, the Centre provides expert assistance in the areas of aquaculture, harvesting and processing, with the aim of enhancing the industry's productivity and profitability. CCFI's activities also include resource conservation research, equipment development and marine biotechnology. The Centre's services are available to anyone in the fishery or aquaculture industry who wishes to overcome obstacles or meet opportunities through science and technology.

CCFI is an organization structured to meet the needs of the industry quickly and efficiently. The Industrial Liaison Officers collaborate directly with clients to develop and execute industrially relevant research and development projects.

Mandate

The organization works with industry clients to identify needs. It then collaborates with the scientific and technological faculty and staff of the universities and technical colleges of Atlantic Canada to devise solutions to meet those needs. CCFI works to ensure that the initiatives are organized, on time and directed to address the specific needs of the industry clients. The Centre also funds these projects, when required.

The Centre's research and development undertakings cover all areas of importance to the fishery and aquaculture industry:

1. Environmentally Sustainable Harvesting
2. Food Safety Systems
3. Utilization of Fish Waste
4. Resource assessment and surveys
5. Improved and More Efficient Fishing Platforms
6. Human Resource/Technology Applications
7. Alternative Fish and Shellfish Species for Aquaculture
8. Efficiency and Profitability in Aquaculture
9. Resolving Environmental Issues in Aquaculture

With strong representation from industry, the Board of Directors oversees the direction and mandate of the Centre to ensure that its work is always relevant to the needs of the fishery.

C-CORE is a Canadian corporation providing innovative engineering solutions to national and international clients. Its dynamic team of over 60 engineering and business experts provide advanced technology solutions to production issues and market challenges encountered in primarily the nature resource sectors including offshore oil and gas production and transportation, gas transmission (onland pipelines) and mining. International and national government clients also use the services of C-CORE to address security, sustainability and safety issues related to their regulatory and operating needs.

In business since 1975, C-CORE's specialized engineering services are focussed on technology adaptation and integration, design recommendations and engineering analyses. Project teams are assembled based on client need and draw upon the corporation's core expertise in:

- Intelligent Sensors
- Geospatial Systems
- Ice Engineering
- Geotechnical Engineering

Many complex projects require a multi-faceted solution where this expertise is combined for a complete, end-to-end solution.
From the corporation's headquarters on Memorial University of Newfoundland's Campus in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador staff work with an international network of partners, often through alliances, to ensure the best solutions for clients. C-CORE's focus is applied research and operational exploitation of advanced technologies to increase efficiency and safety while reducing costs. C-CORE's in house facilities include an Acutronic 680-2 centrifuge machine, a full scale buried pipeline modelling facility, mechanical, electrical, and soils laboratories to support its research and development activities, and excellent computing capabilities including the connection to a high speed network. C-CORE works in close collaboration with Memorial University of Newfoundland, in particular the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and offers many opportunities for graduate and undergraduate students to work on industry relevant projects and for its employees to pursue higher education.

10.4 Centre for Collaborative Health Professional Education
Curran, V., Ph.D., Co-Director
Sharpe, D.B., Ph.D., Co-Director
The Centre was established in September 1999 by the Directors of the Schools of Nursing, Pharmacy, Social Work and the Deans of the Faculties of Education and Medicine. The Deans and Directors comprise the Centre's Governing Council.

The mission of the Centre is to improve the education of social workers, pharmacists, nurses, physicians and other health professionals throughout the year.

The Centre collaborates with the P.J. Gardiner Institute for Enterprise and Entrepreneurship to allow for further information may be obtained by contacting the Centre in writing to the Centre for Collaborative Health Professional Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Health Sciences Centre H2901, St. John's, NL Canada, A1B 3V6, or by telephone to (709) 777-6912, or by fax to (709) 777-6576, or through the website at www.mun.ca/cibs.

10.5 Centre for Earth Resources Research (CERR)
For a complete listing see Research Units in the Faculty of Science section of the University Calendar.

10.6 Centre for International Business Studies (CIBS)
Vaughan, S., Director
Vacant, International Program Officer
Vacant, International Internship Officer
The Centre for International Business Studies was established in 1994 by the Faculty of Business Administration to help provincial businesses enter the international marketplace. The Centre also facilitates international exchanges for students and faculty and provides them with the opportunity to research issues in international business and trade.

The Centre works with local businesses to enhance their effectiveness within the international business community by matching skills and programs within the Faculty of Business Administration with a company's needs.

The Centre conducts international student and faculty exchanges which allow participants to gain experience in foreign business practices and develop international contacts. The faculty's list of international exchange sites currently includes universities in Belgium, China, the Czech Republic, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Scotland, and Sweden.

The Centre also facilitates internships for recent graduates. International in scope, the internships allow recent graduates to gain experience with provincial companies that wish to expand their business on an international level. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Centre by telephone to (709) 737-2086 or through the website at www.mun.ca/cibs.

10.7 Centre for Management Development (CMD)
Morrissey, B., Director, CMD
Costello, S., Associate Director, Business Development
Gardiner, S., Associate Director, Finance and Administration
Arscott, S., Program Developer
Collins, J., Client Relationship Co-ordinator
Miller, C., Office Administrator
Ryan, T., Client Service Specialist
The CMD was established within the Faculty of Business Administration at Memorial University of Newfoundland in 1980. Its mission is to facilitate excellence in managerial development by working with organizations to determine their specific needs, and to arrange for the delivery of products or programs which best meet these needs.

The CMD acts as an intermediary between the client and the available sources of managerial development expertise. The focus of our efforts, and our principal responsibility, is the monitoring and maintenance of quality throughout the managerial development process from design through delivery and follow-up. We do not maintain our own permanent program delivery staff.

The CMD works with a variety of organizational clients from both the private and public sectors, including professional and industry associations, and not-for profit agencies and groups. In addition, it continues to offer a range of professional development programs throughout the year.

The Centre for Management Development collaborates with the P.J. Gardiner Institute for Enterprise and Entrepreneurship to allow for greater efficiency in operations and an enhanced ability to deliver management and entrepreneurial initiatives in the local, national and international arena.

The CMD's state-of-the-art facilities are located on the fourth floor of the Faculty of Business Administration building at the University and include various styles of classrooms, work areas, dining facilities, and a participant lounge. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Centre by telephone at (709) 737-7977, or by fax to (709) 737-7999, or through the website at www.mun.ca/cmd, or by e-mail to billm@mun.ca, jcollins@mun.ca, sarscott@mun.ca, susang@mun.ca, or scostell@mun.ca.
10.8 Centre for Material Culture Studies

Hiller, Dr. J.K., History
Lovelace, Dr. M., Folklorn
Mannion, Dr. M., Geography
Tuck, Dr. J. A., Anthropology and Archaeology

Director
Pocius, Dr. G.L., Folklore

The Centre for Material Culture Studies was established in 1988 to initiate, promote, and sponsor research on material culture within both the University and the general community. The Centre acts as a multidisciplinary forum for Memorial University of Newfoundland faculty members as well as visiting researchers from other institutions, including government agencies. The Centre houses a research library and a wide range of visual and documentary resources relating to material culture.

10.9 Fisheries Conservation Group

Head
Rose, G.A., B.Sc. Guelph, M.Sc. Laurentian, Ph.D. McGill; Cross appointed with Department of Biology

Chief Technician
Fudge, S.B., B.Sc. Memorial

Research Associate

The Fisheries Conservation Group is an academic unit initially created at Memorial University of Newfoundland in 1996 as an NSERC Industrial Research Chair to develop an independent fisheries research program to complement Government programs and provide an integrative focus for fisheries research at the University. The Group now conducts research and training in fisheries science and conservation, with students in the M.Sc. and Ph.D. programs in biology and behavioural ecology, the M.M.Sc. program in marine science and fisheries, and the M.Env.Sc. program in environmental sciences.

The Fisheries Conservation Group works independently with both the Provincial Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture and the Federal Department of Fisheries and Oceans in conducting research on the Newfoundland and Labrador fisheries. The Group also undertakes extensive international collaborations with marine research groups around the world, and has trained scientists now working in more than 10 countries.

A focus of the Group is the use of high-technology in the study of marine ecosystems and the conservation of fisheries, with a focus on acoustics, telemetry, and GIS applications. More information can be garnered on the group at http://fishcons.mi.mun.ca.

Honorary Research Associate (Language and Folklorn) Widdowson, J.D.A.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklorn and Language Archive was a joint creation of the Departments of Folklorn and English. It was set up to coordinate diverse research in Newfoundland and Labrador studies undertaken in both Departments, to facilitate the mutual use of common material, to organize it for research and publication, and to make a permanent documented record for future generations. The Folklorn and Language Archive is an integral part of the teaching and research activities of the Department of Folklorn on both the graduate and undergraduate levels.

The Archive comprises extensive collections of Newfoundland and Labrador folksongs and music, folk narratives of many kinds, oral history, folklorn customs, beliefs and practices, childlorn, and descriptions of material culture. It has special collections of the Newfoundland and Labrador vocabulary, proverbs and riddles, and collections towards a linguistic atlas. The materials have been collected by a variety of means: by questionnaires, by student contributions in manuscript, by extensive field work.

The Archive is housed in the G.A. Hickman Building. Associated with it is a recording room, with facilities for copying audiovisual recordings. The specially excerpted collection in language is housed in the English Language Research Centre of the Department of English. French language and folklorn materials from the province are housed in the Centre d’Etudes Franco-Terreneuvienes in the Department of Folklorn. Each Department has a working library associated with the archival material.

10.11 Genesis Group Inc.

King, D.J., President and CEO

GENESIS Group Inc. is a separately incorporated entity of Memorial University of Newfoundland and is governed by a board of directors representing industry, academia, and government. It serves the whole university community and facilitates the linkage to the business community. The Genesis Group is located on the third floor of the Inco Innovation Centre. The Genesis Research division, as its primary goal, identifies and commercializes promising technologies arising from research at the University. Areas of expertise include Biotechnology and Medicine, Physical Sciences and Engineering and Information Technology and Communications. Key industrial sectors include the mining and oil and gas industries. In addition to its central role of transferring technology to the private sector, the research group assists the province’s small and medium-size businesses to access the vast physical and human resources of the University. Genesis Research focuses on new technologies, processes, and services and seeks to enhance, improve, and/or diversify an existing industry's capability. The Genesis Centre division is a support network to help knowledge-based businesses/entrepreneurs create high-growth enterprises. The Centre mobilizes the province's business community and a network of world class mentors to help the entrepreneurs develop comprehensive business plans, raise equity capital and secure global market access. Genesis Bio-labs, located on Mt. Scio Road, is a wet lab facility to support start-ups in the biotechnology sector. Genesis Innovation Works, located on the second floor of the Inco Innovation Centre, is a prototype development centre and an on-campus collaborative research facility for university/industry partnership initiatives.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Genesis Group Inc. by telephone at (709) 737-4527, or through the website at www.genesis.mun.ca/.

The Health Research Unit was established in 1991 as a unit of the Faculty of Medicine within the Division of Community Health. It makes available the professional skills, expertise and information resources of the Division to other faculty, government departments, non-government agencies and organizations, and the community.

The purpose of the Health Research Unit is to improve the health of the Newfoundland and Labrador community-at-large through research focused on the prevention of disease and the protection and promotion of health.

Research Themes
1. Measurement of health status in community/workforce populations;
2. Assessment of the health care system;
3. Development and management of health information systems;
4. Design and analysis of health surveys and audits; and
5. Evaluation of health and social programs.

The Health Research Unit may be contact by telephone at (709) 777-8385 or through the website at www.med.mun.ca/hru/.

10.13 Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER)

Executive Committee
Tremblay, Dr. R., Dean of Arts - Virtute Officii
Loomis, Dr. C., Vice-President (Research) - Virtute Officii
Feehan, Dr. J., Director
Byrne, Dr. P., Department of English
Cullum, Dr. L., Department of Sociology
Dunn, Dr. C., Department of Political Science
Hillier, Dr. J., Department of History
Hiscock, Dr. P., Department of Folk lore
Jamieson, Dr. S., Department of French and Spanish
Rankin, Dr. L., Department of Anthropology and Archaeology
Riggs, Mr. B., QELL Library

Administrative Staff
Harding, M., Administrative Staff Specialist
Brown, S., Secretary

Purpose And Mandate
The purpose of the Institute shall be to undertake, sponsor, and publish research within such disciplines and in such parts of the world as are deemed of relevance to Newfoundland and Labrador. Without limiting the generality of the above, research pertaining directly to social and economic development in Newfoundland and Labrador shall be of special importance.

Organization
The Institute is an integral part of, and not an autonomous appendage, of the University. It is so organized that all its officers serve the University in other capacities and it is ultimately responsible to the President and Board of Regents of the University. The management of its affairs is vested in an Executive Committee, while the day-to-day responsibilities are in the hands of the Director. Since September 2006, the Executive Committee has also served as the Board of Directors of the J.R. Smallwood Foundation for Newfoundland and Labrador Studies.
Fellowships
In general, ISER fellowships function to supplement and stimulate research interests of faculty and graduate students working within the research mandate of ISER. Terms and conditions of ISER fellowships may be obtained in writing to ISER, Institute of Social and Economic Research, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, A1C 5S7, or by telephone to (709) 737-8156, or by email to iser@mun.ca, or through the website at www.mun.ca/iser.

ISER Books
The Institute publishes research falling within the ISER mandate - more than 90 titles to date. Many of the books originate in research undertaken by ISER itself. Some notable ISER books, however, have originated outside the Institute. Authors are invited to submit completed manuscripts that fall within ISER's mandate. Further information may be obtained in writing to ISER Books, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, A1C 5S7, or by telephone to (709) 737-3453, or my email to iser-books@mun.ca, or through the website at www.mun.ca/iser.

10.14 International Centre
Dickinson, Dr. A.B., Acting Executive Director/International Liaison Officer
Clarke, C., International Projects Administrator/Office Manager

Purpose And Mandate
The International Centre is in general concerned with:
1. coordinating and promoting the University's global endeavour, including international exchanges and development projects;
2. promoting internationalization of the University's teaching and research mandate by providing a formal institutional link with the University's faculties and academic units;
3. developing and managing international projects and investigating funding sources, with particular reference to development assistance;
4. providing program information and advice to faculty and staff and act as the central contact with the Canadian International Development Agency and other similar bodies; and

10.15 The J.R. Smallwood Foundation for Newfoundland and Labrador Studies

Board of Directors
Tremblay, Dr. R., Dean of Arts - Virtute Officii
Loomis, Dr. C., Vice-President (Research) - Virtute Officii
Feehan, Dr. J., Director
Byrne, Dr. P., Department of English
Cullum, Dr. L., Department of Sociology
Dunn, Dr. C., Department of Political Science
Hiller, Dr. J., Department of History
Hiscock, Dr. P., Department of Folklore
Jamieson, Dr. S., Department of French and Spanish
Rankin, Dr. L., Department of Anthropology and Archaeology
Riggs, Mr. B., QEIili Library

Administrative Staff
Harding, M., Administrative Staff Specialist
Brownne, S., Secretary

Purpose And Mandate
The Smallwood Foundation was established with funds transferred in trust from the J.R. Smallwood Heritage Foundation. The Foundation administers the income from such funds for the promotion and support of research focusing on Newfoundland and Labrador. The board supports research proposals in the humanities and social sciences from both inside and outside the university community.

Organization
Effective September 1, 2006, the Executive Committee of ISER also serves as the Board of Directors of the J.R. Smallwood Foundation. In accordance with its mandate, the board awards grants to individual scholars and organizations which have clearly defined objectives and which serve to develop the academic understanding and general appreciation of the province's society, history and culture. Full details of grant categories and application procedures are available on the Foundation's web site at www.mun.ca/smallwood/

Further information may be obtained in writing to The Director, J.R. Smallwood Foundation for Newfoundland and Labrador Studies, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1B 3X9.

10.16 Labrador Institute
Chauk, Dr. K., Director
Sparkes, Dr. R., Labrador Associate
Dickers, B., Administrative Staff Specialist
MacDonald, M., Program Co-ordinator
Nuotio Flynn, L., Manager, Labrador West

Purpose And Mandate
The Labrador Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland was established by the University to stimulate, coordinate, and support major University projects and programs designed to promote the well-being of the people of Labrador and to expand the Labrador knowledge base. Its location in Happy Valley-Goose Bay affords it a perspective on regional and aboriginal needs and issues that direct the operations of the Institute. The Institute identifies opportunities in research where the capabilities of the University may enhance our knowledge of Labrador and address concerns of the community, and puts forward educational needs for continuing human resource and cultural development.

The Institute is the main contact point for the University in Labrador and maintains communications with aboriginal and community groups and the Faculties and Schools of the University to ensure that there is a timely response to research and educational opportunities.
The Institute facilitates and coordinates the activity of personnel at the University as they undertake cultural, research, and educational activities. It partners with Faculties and Schools to solicit funds for research and the delivery of educational programs, and with other social, cultural and educational institutions in Labrador. A Labrador based archive provides a reference collection of publications on Labrador and other northern regions for public use.

The Labrador Institute works with the Office of Research which acts as the agent within the University to receive and disburse Northern Scientific Training Program grants received from the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development. The Institute also serves as the University's representative on the Association of Canadian Universities of Northern Studies and supports the University's membership in the University of the Arctic.

The Institute is not a regulatory body but it is available to advise on the normal process of grant applications by individuals. The Institute recommends that notice or copies of such applications be filed with the Institute to obviate duplication of effort within the University. It also maintains and administers an invaluable archival collection of Labrador materials. It is the Institute's intent to collect and disseminate all pertinent copies of research conducted by or through the University.

Organization

The Director of the Institute reports to the Vice-President (Academic).

The Research Advisory Committee, comprised of faculty members who are engaged in research in Labrador, maintain communications between the Institute and the Faculties and Schools. It advises on research and educational projects and priorities.

The Advisory Board, comprised of Labrador residents, has both geographic and aboriginal representation appointed by the Vice-President (Academic). The Board provides direct input from the community and offers advice on how the University can serve the needs of Labrador.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Institute in writing to the Labrador Institute, P.O. Box 490, Station B, Happy Valley-Goose Bay, NL, A0P 1E0, or by telephone to (709) 896-6210, or by fax to (709) 896-2970.

10.17 Maritime History Archive

Chair, Board of Directors

Handcock, Dr. W.G. [Retired]

Board Members

Fischer, Prof. L., Department of History
Hart, A. [Retired]
Staveley, Dr. M., Department of Geography [Retired]
Burton, Dr. V., Department of History
Wareham, H., Archivist

In 1986 the Maritime History Archive was established as a separate unit within the Faculty of Arts as a result of reorganization of the Maritime History Group. Its functions include the acquisition, organization, and preservation of materials relating to the history of sea-based activities and societies, with a special emphasis on the North Atlantic Basin.

Since the mid-1970’s the Public Record Office, London, England has transferred 22,000 ft. of original documentation in the series “Agreements on Account of Crew” for the period of 1863-1938, 1951-1976 to the Maritime History Archive. These documents represent an incomparable source for the study of the movements and manning of British Empire vessels throughout the world. Combined with collections relating to fisheries, commerce, and other sea-based activities, the crew agreements have made the Maritime History Archive an internationally known resource centre for the study of maritime history.

The Archive is housed in the Mathematics Building and is open to the public Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m to 4:00 p.m. A research service (for a fee) to undertake small research projects and answer queries pertaining to its subject area is also available.

10.18 The Maritime Studies Research Unit (MSRU)

Chair

Pope, P.E., Anthropology and Archaeology and History

Members

Baker, M., Records Management
Burton, V., History
Cadigan, B., History
Dickinson, A.B., International Program
Fischer, L., History
Hiller, J., History
Janzen, O., History; Sir Wilfred Grenfell College
Sanger, C., Geography
Walsh, V., Maritime History Archive
Wareham, H., Maritime History Archive

The MSRU is a research unit within the Faculty of Arts, whose purpose is to foster interdisciplinary research on maritime studies, understood as the interpretation of human behaviour in marine and coastal environments, in the past and to the present day. The Unit furthers this objective with workshops, colloquia, publications, and research projects and by providing advice and support to other units within the University. Membership in the MSRU is open to faculty and staff of Memorial University of Newfoundland with research interests in maritime studies. Other scholars with parallel interests, including graduate students in the University’s Faculty of Arts, are eligible for associate membership. Currently, the MSRU has associate members in Canada, England, Nigeria, Scotland and the United States.

10.19 Memorial University of Newfoundland Botanical Garden

Cooper, J., Gift Shop Manager
Walsh, T.G., Nursery Manager
Memorial University of Newfoundland Botanical Garden, Mount Scio Road, comprises ten acres of cultivated gardens and 100 acres of natural habitat that includes the 14-acre Oxen Pond. The main objectives are to undertake and provide opportunities for biological, ecological, and horticultural education and research for the University, the general public, school children and other organized groups while stimulating public interest and enjoyment of the Newfoundland and Labrador flora, fauna and environment.

An interpretative program is designed to provide information on native plants, animals, and horticulture to community groups and the general public, including a curriculum based school program. A field centre houses indoor displays, a library, a tea room, and a lecture room. Numerous interpreted nature trails are maintained through a variety of natural habitats. Cultivated areas include the rock garden, peat beds, woodland beds, cottage garden, heritage garden, wildlife garden, shade garden, vegetable garden, and herbaceous border.

Research activities include rare plant conservation, site restoration, invasive species, non-timber forest products, medicinal and ornamental plant research and development.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Botanical Garden is available for university classes and research year-round. It is open to the public daily from May through November.

10.20 Newfoundland and Labrador Centre for Applied Health Research (NLCAHR)

Director: Dr. Stephen Bornstein

The Newfoundland and Labrador Centre for Applied Health Research was established in September 1999 with core funding from the province’s Department of Health and Community Services, Memorial University of Newfoundland and the Health Care Corporation of St. John’s. NLCAHR’s mission is to contribute to the effectiveness of the health and community service system of Newfoundland and Labrador and to the physical, social, psychological health and well-being of the province’s population by supporting the development and the use of applied health research in this province.

The Centre’s mandate is to increase the capacity of researchers in Newfoundland and Labrador to carry out high-quality research on health matters with a relevance to public policy and clinical decision-making; to increase the amount of high-quality applied health research undertaken on issues identified by the Centre’s major partners and stakeholders as having high priority to the province’s health system and to the health and well-being of its population; and to foster more effective use of research evidence in the province’s health and community services system.

The Centre fosters and supports inter-disciplinary collaboration and serves as a bridge between researchers and decision-makers in government, the provincial health-care system, and community organizations. The Centre funds health research through annual peer-reviewed research grant competitions; funds research training by awarding fellowships at the master’s, doctoral, and postdoctoral levels; and runs a number of other programs to encourage and support applied health researchers in Newfoundland and Labrador.

The research supported by the Centre is broad in scope and includes research in the areas of health services delivery and evaluation, health economics and policy, healthcare utilization and systems, community and population health, health-related social sciences, and applied clinical research focussing on the process of delivering care rather than therapeutics or diagnostics.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Centre in writing to the Newfoundland and Labrador Centre for Applied Health Research, Suite 300, 95 Bonaventure Avenue, St. John’s, NL, A1B 2X9, or telephone to (709) 777-6993, or fax to (709) 777-6734, or e-mail nlcahr@mun.ca, or through the website at www.nlcahr.mun.ca.

The Newfoundland Quarterly, a journal established in 1901, focuses on the arts, culture, history, industry and people of Newfoundland and Labrador. This journal is published by the Newfoundland Quarterly Foundation Board, a not-for-profit charitable foundation. Owned by Memorial University of Newfoundland, the Newfoundland Quarterly features contributions from the province’s top writers and visual artists as well as writings by our most prominent people. Many contributors have a presence on the national and international stage. The Newfoundland Quarterly can be contacted by telephone at (709) 737-2426, or email nfq@mun.ca, or through the website at www.newfoundlandquarterly.ca.
10.22 Ocean Engineering Research Centre (OERC)

Administration
Qiu, W., B.Eng., M.A.Sc. Dalhousie University, Ph.D. Dalhousie, P.Eng., Associate Professor, Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering; Acting Director

Engineering Technologist
Gosse, J.

Scope And Objectives
The Ocean Engineering Research Centre (OERC) is an integral part of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science at Memorial University of Newfoundland and has contributed to the success of the Faculty's research and academic programs.

The overall goal of the OERC is to generate research activity that has high potential for impact. The OERC draws upon faculty expertise and its relationships with industry, other research institutes, and branches of government to create networks of people who share common goals. The scope of applied research and consulting activities carried out by members of the OERC is broad, including ocean engineering related to the offshore, marine transportation, and fishing industries. In addition to faculty experience, the OERC operates a 58 metre long towing tank with wave generation capabilities.

Organization
The St. John's marine research community is vibrant and collaborative. Within the University the Centre maintains ties with C-CORE (by joint appointments of faculty and collaborative projects), with the Ocean Science Centre and the Fisheries and Marine Institute. Similar ties are maintained with the Institute for Ocean Technology (IOT) of the National Research Council, which is located adjacent to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science on the University campus. The Centre collaborates with and serves various small and large private sector firms with ocean engineering interests. The Centre works with Oceanic Consulting Corporation to provide marine performance evaluation services to the world's oceans industries. An alliance between the University, NRC and Marineering Limited of St. John's, Oceanic uses the ocean engineering capabilities and facilities of the University and NRC to support clients and projects around the world.

10.23 Ocean Sciences Centre
For a complete listing, see Research Units in the Faculty of Science section of the University Calendar.

10.24 P.J. Gardiner Institute for Enterprise and Entrepreneurship
Memorial University of Newfoundland's P.J. Gardiner Institute (the Gardiner Institute) was the first centre of small business support to be established within a Canadian university. The objective of the Institute is to be the leading entrepreneurship institute in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador and a contributor to innovative frameworks for entrepreneurship education and support worldwide.

The Gardiner Institute collaborates with the Centre for Management Development (CMD) allowing for greater efficiency in operations and an enhanced ability to deliver management and entrepreneurial initiatives in the local, national and international arena.

The fees and charges indicated herein are as of the date of printing. The University reserves the right to make changes to the regulations, fees and charges listed below. Any questions concerning fees and charges for the Cashier's Office in St. John's should be directed in writing to the Cashier's Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Arts and Administration Building, A1023, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7, or by e-mail to cashiers@mun.ca, or by telephone to (709) 737-8228, or through the website at www.mun.ca/finance/Welcome/. Any questions concerning fees and charges for the Bursar's Office in Corner Brook should be directed in writing to the Bursar's Office, Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, University Drive, Corner Brook, NL, A2H 6P9, or by telephone to (709) 637-6286, or through the website at www.swgc.mun.ca/bursar/Pages/default.aspx.

1.1 Information Governing Payment of Fees and Charges

1.1.1 General Regulations

1. Tuition fees, residence fees, student union fees and health/dental insurance are due once a student registers regardless of the method of registration, and must be paid by the fee deadline to avoid a late payment penalty.

2. Students who are using a scholarship, bursary, Canada Student Loan, or other award for the payment of fees may be permitted to have their tuition fees outstanding until they have received the award or Canada Student Loan.

1.1.2 Methods of Payment

1. Cash/Debit card: must be paid in person at the Cashier's Office in St. John's or the Bursar's Office in Corner Brook.

2. Cheque: may be mailed, or delivered in person, to the Cashier's Office in St. John's or Bursar's Office in Corner Brook, or placed in the night deposit slot at the Cashier's Office in St. John's. A dishonoured charge will be made for each cheque tendered to the University and not honoured by the bank. A student with a dishonoured cheque record must pay fees by cash, certified cheque or money order.
   - Dishonoured cheque charge: $25

3. Credit card: Visa and MasterCard are the only accepted cards. Payment using this method should be done via the web at www.mun.ca.

4. Payroll deductions: graduate students receiving funding through the University payroll system may elect to pay their tuition and other charges by payroll deduction. The policy and form for payroll deductions are available at the School of Graduate Studies, the Cashier's Office, and at www.mun.ca.

5. Student Aid: students paying fees from a Canada Student Loan will have the amount owing signed out automatically from their loans.

6. Telephone and on-line banking: information on the use of telephone or on-line banking systems can be obtained from local branches of banks.

7. Tuition voucher: students receiving a tuition voucher must present the tuition voucher and pay the balance of their fees to the Cashier's Office by the published deadlines to avoid being assessed a late payment fee.

1.1.3 Penalties for Noncompliance with Payment of Fees and Charges

1. Students who, without approval, pay their fees later than the deadlines specified in the University Diary will be assessed a late payment fee.
   - Late payment fee (assessed by the Director of Financial and Administrative Services): Maximum of $75

2. Students who have not paid all fees or arranged for fee payment with the Director of Financial and Administrative Services prior to the first day of lectures, as stated in the University Diary, may have their registration cancelled at the discretion of the University. Such students will then be required to reregister after all fees are paid and after the first day of lectures, as stated in the University Diary, but no later than the end of the regular registration period.

3. Outstanding accounts, including accounts outstanding pending the receipt of a scholarship, bursary, or similar award, must be paid in full by cash, money order, or certified cheque. Students with outstanding accounts will:
   - be ineligible to register for courses for a subsequent semester;
   - not be permitted into residence;
   - not be issued an academic transcript;
   - not be awarded a degree, diploma or certificate.

4. Accounts outstanding on the last day of examinations in a semester/session will be charged interest at the prime interest rate plus two percent per annum. Such interest will apply effective the first day of lectures in that semester.

1.2 Application and Admission Fees

Unless otherwise noted, these application and admission fees are non-refundable.

1.2.1 Undergraduate Students

1. University Calendar fee: a University Calendar will be supplied free to undergraduate students newly admitted to the University.
   - University Calendar fee for others: $5

2. General Application Processing Fee: this fee is payable with each application for admission or readmission to the University.
   - Undergraduate students who have never attended a post-secondary institution or who have previously attended Memorial, excluding medical students: $40
   - Undergraduate students who have attended a post-secondary institution outside of Newfoundland or who are non-Canadian applicants, excluding medical students: $80
   - Medical students: $75

3. Fees in addition to General Application Processing Fee
   - Challenge for credit is charged at one half of the fee associated with the credit hour value of each course.
4. Admission Fees in addition to General Application Processing Fee
   - Bachelor of Technology: $300
   - Bachelor of Maritime Studies: $300
5. Application Fee in addition to General Application Processing Fee
   - School of Pharmacy: $75
6. Penalties for Noncompliance with Payment of Application and Admission Fees
7. Late fees: all late fees are payable when assessed.
   - Late application fee
     Up to one week after deadline: $30
     Each subsequent week to final date for receipt of applications: $10

1.2.2 Graduate Students
1. Application Processing Fee: payable with each application for admission to the University.
   - Application Processing Fee: $40

1.3 Tuition and Related Fees

1.3.1 Undergraduate Students (other than Medical Students)
1. Unless otherwise specified, tuition fees are charged according to the credit hour value associated with the registered course(s). Courses are 3 credit hours unless otherwise indicated.
2. For the purposes of calculating tuition:
   - the credit hour value of each of the A and B components of a linked course shall be equivalent to one half of the credit hour value of the B component (see Glossary of Terms Used in the Calendar);
   - the credit hour value of F courses and non-degree courses (i.e. certificate programs) shall be three; and
   - the credit hour value of courses with "W" in the final position of the course number, excluding co-operative education work terms, shall be three.
3. Fees for citizens of Canada and permanent residents
   - Fee per credit hour: $85
   - Co-operative education work terms: $323
   - Maritime Studies/Technology Management 4100 and Maritime Studies/Technology Management 4200: $1,154
   - Computer Science 3700 (per semester): $154
4. Fees for international students
   - Fee per credit hour: $323.00
   - Co-operative education work terms
     Students entering September 2003: $1,020
     Students entering prior to September 2003: $840
   - Maritime Studies/Technology Management 4100 and Maritime Studies/Technology Management 4200: $1,868
   - Computer Science 3700 (per semester): $533.32
5. Tuition refunds based on withdrawal from course(s)
   - Students dropping courses within two weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester will not be liable for tuition fees for those courses. Students dropping courses after that time will receive tuition fee refunds on a prorated basis. Any student who drops a course from two weeks to three weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester shall have 50% of the tuition refunded. Any student who drops a course from three weeks to four weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester shall have 25% of the tuition refunded. No tuition will be refunded for courses dropped after five weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester. For the actual dates relating to these refunds, see the University Diary.
   - In the case of sessions, accelerated courses and courses offered outside of the normal time frame of a semester or session, the tuition refund drop periods will be prorated accordingly.

1.3.2 Undergraduate Students (Medical Students)
1. Fees for citizens of Canada and permanent residents
   - Annual tuition fee (September 1 - $3,125, January 1 - $3,125): $6,250
2. Fees for international students
   - Annual tuition fee: $30,000

1.3.3 Graduate Students
1. Fees are payable at the time of registration. All graduate students must be registered in each semester of the three-semester academic year throughout the period of their program until all academic requirements for the degree have been met and they have been deemed eligible to graduate by the School of Graduate Studies. Final dates in each semester for notification of completion of academic requirements, in order to be deregistered from Graduate Registration 9000/Medicine 9900 without incurring liability for continuance fees, are included in the University Diary.
2. There is a minimum fee for all graduate degrees. The amount of this fee for both Canadian and international students will depend on the semester fees in effect during his or her period of registration. Semester fees are subject to review at least annually. They are:

3. M.D.-Ph.D program:
   - M.D. component - standard M.D. fees for four years
   - Ph.D. component - standard Ph.D. fees plus continuance fees, if required, during the active Ph.D. component

4. At the time of first registration, each master's candidate must select a payment plan. The fee payable in the first and subsequent semesters will depend upon the payment plan selected. Once selected, the payment plan will remain in effect for the duration of the student's period of registration, and cannot be changed. Payment Plan C is available for selected programs only.

5. A student who completes his or her program in a period of time shorter than that covered by the selected payment plan will, in his or her final semester be required to pay the difference between the product of the semester fee in effect in that final semester and the number of times which a fee should have been paid in accordance with the payment plan selected, and the actual amount paid.

6. A student whose program extends beyond the period covered by the selected payment plan will be assessed the appropriate program continuance fee for each additional semester of registration. Continuance fees will be charged until the program is complete.

7. The program continuance fees per semester for citizens of Canada and permanent residents entering prior to September 2004 are:
   - Masters candidate: $334
   - Graduate Diploma candidate: $162
   - Doctor of Philosophy candidate: $570

8. The program continuance fees per semester for citizens of Canada and permanent residents, and international students entering September 2004 are:
   - Masters candidate 8.15% of the total program fee for Plan A
   - Graduate Diploma candidate 8.15% of the total program fee
   - Doctor of Philosophy candidate 8.15% of the total program fee

   - Masters candidate: $434
   - Graduate Diploma candidate: $210
   - Doctor of Philosophy candidate: $741

10. The semester fees listed above cover only the courses (if any) prescribed for the program by the academic unit and approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies. A student taking courses which are not part of the approved program must pay for them separately in accordance with the fee schedule for undergraduate courses.

11. A graduate student who is permitted by the Dean of Graduate Studies to transfer from a diploma program to an allied master's program or from a master's program to a Ph.D. program before the former is completed will be required to pay the difference between the fees for the two programs, based on the semester fee in effect during each semester of the new program. This additional payment shall be made over the duration of the remaining semesters for which program fees are owed, or over three additional semesters, whichever is greater.

12. A graduate student who wishes to withdraw from his or her graduate program must inform the Dean of Graduate Studies, in writing, within three weeks after the first day of lectures in the semester. Failure to do so will result in the student being held responsible for the fees due to the end of that semester. Administrative fee for approved retroactive requests for leave of absence or withdrawal from program: $25

13. Where a thesis is required by a particular degree or program, a fee will be charged to cover the cost of binding two copies of the thesis.

1.7.4 Damages or Destruction to University Property
1. Unwarranted damages or destruction to University property will be charged to the responsible party or parties, and are payable when assessed.

1.8 Appeal of Fees and Charges Regulations

Appeal of Fees and Charges Regulations apply to Undergraduate Students (other than Medical Students), 5. only. It is intended to recognize and be sensitive to students who experience devastating, unforeseen and/or catastrophic events during the semester and therefore withdraw from a course or courses. Students are permitted to appeal for refund of tuition associated with dropped course(s) only, not for refund of incidental fees including, but not limited, to medical/dental coverage, MUNSU fees, recreation fees, etc.

1.8.1 Responsibilities in the Tuition Refund Appeals Process
The University has established financial regulations, procedures and deadlines through its governing bodies for the guidance of students. Students are expected to take into account their personal and academic circumstances, in order to meet university financial regulations, procedures, and to satisfy financial requirements and deadlines.

1.8.1.1 Students’ Responsibilities in the Tuition Refund Appeals Process
It is incumbent upon students to:
- be aware of and adhere to all financial regulations, requirements and published deadlines, especially the refund schedule published in the University Diary;
- familiarize themselves with published tuition refund appeals procedures;
- submit tuition refund appeals and all supporting documentation no later than one month after the official release of grades for the semester of the dropped course(s); and
- provide appropriate authenticating materials.

1.8.1.2 The University’s Responsibilities in the Tuition Refund Appeals Process
It is incumbent upon the University to:
- make available to students advice and guidance regarding options, deadlines, required documentation, and tuition refund appeal route by way of written notification, the University website, personal appointment or other forms of communication;
- direct students to the appropriate office for information on tuition refund appeals;
- attend to tuition refund appeals efficiently and ensure parties receive fair, consistent and ethical treatment;
- supply students with reasons for decisions to deny a tuition refund appeal; and
- maintain parties’ right to confidentiality.

1.8.2 Guidelines for the Tuition Refund Appeals Process
1. Transparency should guide all steps of the tuition refund appeal process. In the case of an appeal, the parties should have access to all documents submitted.
2. The principles of fairness should be applied in appeal procedures and decisions.
3. Information submitted in support of an appeal will be kept confidential.
1.8.3 General Information and Procedures for Tuition Refund Appeals

1. A tuition refund appeal must be filed no later than one month after the official release of grades for the semester of the dropped course(s).
2. Any tuition refund appeal should be made in writing, by the student, clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed to the Committee Coordinator, Tuition Refund Appeals Committee, c/o The Cashier’s Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL A1C 5S7.
3. Successfully dropping a course academically does not guarantee that a tuition refund appeal will be successful. Academic difficulty in a course and/or missing a published refund deadline is not sufficient grounds for an appeal.
4. For assistance in the tuition refund appeals process, students are advised to consult with the Committee Coordinator.
5. In preparing an appeal a student may consult advisors or facilitators. Such advisors or facilitators may include a faculty advisor, staff advisor, a counselor, a representative from the Memorial University of Newfoundland Students’ Union (MUNSU) or other individual who is willing to undertake the role of student advisor or facilitator.
6. The Tuition Refund Appeals Committee may decide to deny or uphold an appeal. If it upholds an appeal, the Committee may prorate the tuition refund depending upon the student’s length of participation in the course(s) and other factors.
7. The decision of the Tuition Refund Appeals Committee is final.

1.8.4 Information Required for Medical Certificates

Please refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate). Information Required for Medical Certificates.

2 Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate)

2.1 Admission/Readmission Information

This section applies to all undergraduate applicants except those applying to the Faculty of Medicine. Applicants seeking admission to the Faculty of Medicine should refer to the Faculty of Medicine regulations for information.

Applicants seeking admission to a particular faculty or school may be required to submit a supplementary faculty or school application in addition to the application for admission/readmission and should refer to appropriate faculty or school regulations for procedures, deadlines, admission requirements and further information.

1. Applications for admission/readmission should be submitted by the deadline dates listed in the University Diary. Applications received later or post-marked later than the stated deadline dates will be processed as time and resources permit. Application forms and other information may be obtained by contacting the University in writing to the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL A1C 5S7, or by e-mail at admissions@mun.ca or through the website at www.mun.ca.

2. Each application must be accompanied by a $40.00 application processing fee. An additional application processing fee of $40.00 is required from non-Canadian applicants or applicants transferring from post-secondary institutions outside of Newfoundland and Labrador. Neither fee is refundable nor will it be credited to the applicant's financial account under any circumstances. Information regarding other fees and charges is specified under Fees and Charges.

3. Applicants who have previously attended Memorial University of Newfoundland and have not registered for courses for the past two consecutive semesters (Fall, Winter, Spring) are required to submit a new Application for Admission/Readmission together with the $40.00 application processing fee.

4. The admission criteria required of each category of applicant is specified under Categories of Applicants, Admission Criteria and Required Documentation.

5. Admission to some courses, programs and/or the University may be limited by the University when it deems the facilities and resources available to it are not adequate to provide for additional students. Consequently possession of the minimum requirements does not guarantee that an applicant will be granted admission to a course, a program and/or the University.

6. The University may set its own matriculation examinations either in separate subjects or in all those required for matriculation, and may refuse admission to any applicant failing to attain a satisfactory standard in these examinations.

7. The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant.

8. Applicants may be required to provide medical evidence of their fitness to pursue university studies.

2.2 English Language Proficiency Requirements

Since English is the primary language of instruction at this University, all applicants seeking admission to Memorial University of Newfoundland must possess an adequate knowledge of written and spoken English as a prerequisite to admission. Regardless of country of origin or citizenship status, applicants will be required to provide proof of proficiency in the English language based on one of the following forms.

2.2.1 English Language Secondary Institution

Applicants are required to have successfully completed the equivalent of three years of full-time instruction in an English language secondary institution as recognized by Memorial University of Newfoundland including successful completion of appropriate course(s) in English at the Grade XII or equivalent level. English as a Second Language (ESL) courses are not acceptable for meeting this requirement.

2.2.2 English Language Post-Secondary Institution

Applicants who have attended a recognized post-secondary institution where English is the language of instruction must have successfully completed the equivalent of 30 credit hours. These 30 credit hours must include 6 transferable credit hours in English courses. For information on transfer credit refer to Transfer Credit.

Applicants may be required to write a placement test in English language prior to the commencement of classes to determine the appropriate course in English for which they should register. For further information, refer to the section of this Calendar describing the Faculty of Arts' English as a Second Language programs.

2.2.8 International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

A minimum overall band score of 6.5, with at least band 6 in each of Writing and Reading. The official results of the IELTS must be forwarded to Memorial University of Newfoundland directly from the appropriate testing authority.

Information regarding the IELTS may be obtained from the IELTS Subject Officer, University of Cambridge Local, Examinations Syndicate, 1 Hills Road, Cambridge, CB1 2EU, U.K. or via www.ielts.org./

Applicants will be required to write a placement test in English language prior to the commencement of classes to determine the appropriate course in English for which they should register. For further information refer to English Language and Mathematics Placement Tests.

2.2.9 Other

Other forms of proof of English language proficiency, acceptable to the University Committee on Admissions, may be considered.

Applicants will be required to write a placement test in English language prior to the commencement of classes to determine the appropriate course in English for which they should register. For further information refer to English Language and Mathematics Placement Tests.

2.3 Categories of Applicants, Admission Criteria and Other Information

The categories of applicants applying for admission/readmission as well as the admission criteria and other related information are listed below. Before a final admissions decision can be reached all required documents must be received. All documents must be official and be forwarded directly to the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar from the appropriate institution(s) or source(s). Photocopied documents are not acceptable unless duly certified.
2.3.1 Applicants Who Have Followed the High School Curriculum of Newfoundland and Labrador

2.3.1.1 Admission Criteria

The courses below are courses designed for students who intend to seek post-secondary education at the University or other institutions whose programs demand levels of proficiency equivalent to those required by the University. Applicants shall have completed Graduation Requirements for high school as set down by the Department of Education and obtained credits in the following subjects with an overall average of not less than 70% compiled from the grades received in those courses at the 3000 level.

- English: English 3201 (2 credits); or the former combination of Language 3101 (1 credit) and one of Thematic Literature 3201 (2 credits) or Literary Heritage 3202 (2 credits).
- Academic or Advanced Mathematics: One of Mathematics 2200, 2201, 2204, or 2205 and one of Mathematics 3200, 3201, 3204, or 3205 (valued at 2 credits each).
- Laboratory Science: Four credits in Laboratory Science (i.e. Biology, Chemistry, Earth Systems, Physics), including at least two credits at the 3000 level chosen from one of Biology 3201, Chemistry 3202, Earth Systems 3209, or Physics 3204 (valued at two credits each). The remaining two credits may be selected from 2000-level courses in the above-noted subject areas or from Science 1206.
- Social Science/Modern or Classical Language: Two credits at the 3000 level in a Social Science area or in a Modern or Classical Language.
- Electives: Two credits at the 3000 level in elective courses chosen from the subjects above or from additional courses approved by the Department of Education for offering at the 3000 level for certificate purposes.

2.3.1.2 Other Information

- Early Final Acceptance: Applicants in their final year of high school who have achieved a minimum overall average of not less than 85% in select 2000 level courses in the core subjects of English, Mathematics and Laboratory Science may be granted final admission prior to the release of final high school results. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Provisional Acceptance: Applicants in their final year of high school who are not eligible for Early Final Acceptance, but who have completed or who are completing a slate of courses which meets the course requirements specified in Applicants Who Have Followed the High School Curriculum of Newfoundland and Labrador. may be granted provisional acceptance prior to the writing of final examinations. This provisional acceptance will remain valid until the final examination results are released by the appropriate authorities at which time a final determination of each applicant's admission status will be made. Provisionally accepted applicants who meet all requirements will be granted a final acceptance, whereas applicants who fail to meet all requirements will have their provisional acceptance revoked. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Advanced Placement: Applicants completing Advanced Placement courses through the Advanced Placement Program offered by the College board should also refer to Transfer Credit Advanced Placement (AP).
- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

2.3.2 Applicants Who Have Followed the High School Curricula of Other Provinces of Canada

2.3.2.1 Admission Criteria

- Applicants from other provinces of Canada are required to have successfully completed Grade XII in the University Preparatory Program (in the case of Quebec students, Secondary V Certificate) with a passing mark in each of the following Grade XII academic or advanced-level subjects and an overall average of not less than 70% compiled from the grades received in the courses selected:
  - English
  - Mathematics
  - Laboratory Science (1 of Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Geology or Physics)
  - Social Science/Modern Classical Language
  - Elective

For further information concerning specific provinces, applicants may contact the University by writing to the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7, or by e-mail at admissions@mun.ca or through the website at www.mun.ca.

2.3.2.2 Other Information

- Early Final Acceptance: Applicants in their final year of high school who have achieved a minimum overall average of not less than 85% in select Grade 11 courses in the core subjects of English, Mathematics and Laboratory Science may be granted final admission prior to the release of final high school results. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Provisional Acceptance: Applicants in their final year of high school who are not eligible for Early Final Acceptance, but who have completed, or who are completing, a slate of courses which meets the course requirements specified in Applicants Who Have Followed the High School Curriculum of Other Provinces of Canada may be granted provisional acceptance prior to the writing of final examinations. This provisional acceptance will remain valid until the final examination results are released by the appropriate authorities at which time a final determination of each applicant's admission status will be made. Provisionally accepted applicants who meet all requirements will be granted a final acceptance, whereas applicants who fail to meet all requirements will have their provisional acceptance revoked. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Advanced Placement: Applicants completing Advanced Placement courses through the Advanced Placement Program offered by the College board should refer to Transfer Credit Advanced Placement (AP).
- Applicants seeking credit for enriched High School Grade XII courses or Ontario Grade XIII/OAC courses should refer to [Transfer Credit Enriched Courses and Ontario Grade XIII/OAC].
- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.
2.3.3 Applicants For Concurrent Studies

2.3.3.1 Admission Criteria

- Applicants in or about to enter their final year of high school with a superior academic record (i.e. normally an overall average of 85% or above) may apply to enrol in university courses (excluding distance education courses). The applicant for concurrent studies must be enrolled in a high school and completing a slate of courses that meets the course requirements for admission to the University as specified in Applicants Who Have Followed the High School Curriculum of Newfoundland and Labrador.
- Applicants will be required to submit a letter requesting enrolment in a specific course; an official high school transcript; and a letter from the high school principal or guidance counsellor clearly recommending admission for concurrent studies.
- Applicants must submit a completed application for admission/readmission together with the appropriate fee. For further information refer to Fees and Charges.
- An applicant for concurrent studies wishing to enrol in courses at the St. John's campus will be permitted to do so based on the recommendation of the University Committee on Admissions. Applicants wishing to enrol in courses at the Corner Brook campus will be permitted to do so based on the recommendation of the Special Admissions Committee at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Eligibility to enrol is limited to one semester but may be renewed on the recommendation of the relevant committee.
- Enrolment for concurrent studies students will normally be limited to three credit hours in a given semester. Fees and deadlines are the same as for regularly admitted students. University credit will be awarded after successful completion of the course(s) and successful completion of the requirements for admission to the University.

2.3.3.2 Other Information

- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

- Applicants for mature student status will be required to submit proof of age; two letters of reference from persons competent to assess the candidate's ability to proceed with university studies; a letter from the applicant outlining the grounds for requesting special consideration; and high school marks and marks from post-secondary institutions, if applicable.
- Applicants will be required to submit a completed application for admission/readmission together with the appropriate fee. For further information refer to Fees and Charges.
- Applicants for mature student status may be required to show through an interview that they possess the potential to proceed with university studies.
- Since admission as a mature student is not on the grounds of age alone, the University Committee on Admissions reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant.

2.3.5.2 Other Information

- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

2.3.6 Applicants Who Are Senior Citizens

2.3.6.1 Admission Criteria

- An applicant, 60 years of age or older within one month after the beginning of the semester/session to which admission is being sought, may be admitted to the University as a senior citizen, upon submission of a birth certificate or other proof of age.
2.3.7 Applicants From Other Countries

Applicants from other countries not listed below may contact the University by writing to the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7, or by e-mail at admissions@mun.ca or through the website at www.mun.ca for further information.

2.3.7.1 United Kingdom - Admission Criteria

- Applicants from the United Kingdom are required to have the General Certificate of Education or the Scottish Leaving Certificate of Education with a minimum of "Ordinary" or "Lower-Level" passes in five subjects acceptable to the University Committee on Admissions.
- Applicants completing the "Higher Level" subjects of the Scottish Leaving Certificate and applicants completing the "Advanced Level" subjects of the General Certificate of Education should refer to Transfer Credit.
- Also refer to 2.3.7.4, Other Information.

2.3.7.2 Hong Kong, Malaysia, West Indies and West Africa - Admission Criteria

- Applicants from Hong Kong, Malaysia, West Indies and West Africa are required to have the General Certificate of Education with passes in five academic subjects at the "Ordinary Level" acceptable to the University Committee on Admissions.
- Applicants completing the "Advanced Level" subjects of the General Certificate of Education should refer to Transfer Credit.
- Also refer to 2.3.7.4, Other Information.

2.3.7.3 United States - Admission Criteria

- Applicants from the United States must have completed a High School University Preparatory Program (Grade XII) with a passing mark in the appropriate Grade XII course in each of the five areas listed below with an overall average of not less than 70% in the courses selected.
  - English
  - Mathematics
  - Laboratory Science (1 of Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Geology or Physics)
  - Social Science/Modern Classical Language
  - Elective
- Also refer to 2.3.7.4, Other Information.

2.3.7.4 Other Information

- Early Final Acceptance: Subject to satisfying University's English Language Proficiency requirements, applicants from other countries in their final year of high school with a minimum overall average of not less than 85% or equivalent in select courses in the core subjects of English, Mathematics and Laboratory Science, may be granted final admission prior to the release of final high school results. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Provisional Acceptance: Applicants in their final year of high school who are not eligible for Early Final Acceptance consideration but who have completed, or who are completing a set of courses which meets the course requirements as specified under Applicants From Other Countries may be granted provisional acceptance prior to the writing of final examinations. This provisional acceptance will remain valid until the final examination results are released by the appropriate authorities at which time a final determination of each applicant's admission status will be made. Provisionally accepted applicants who meet all requirements will have their provisional acceptance revoked. This does not preclude the application of selective admission criteria for particular faculty/school programs.
- Applicants from other countries should submit official matriculation certificates at least two months prior to the commencement of the semester to which they are seeking admission. Certificates in a language other than English or French should be accompanied by notarized English translations.
- Applicants from other countries may be required to submit with their application, a statement of satisfactory financial resources.
- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

2.3.8 Applicants Transferring From Other Recognized Universities or Colleges

2.3.8.1 Admission Criteria

- The admission of applicants from other recognized universities or colleges will be subject to the regulations for Admission/Readmission to the University in addition to General Academic Regulations, Regulations for Continuance and Readmission. In order to allow sufficient time for assessment of possible transfer credit, applicants should refer to Transfer Credit for information on the transfer credit application and evaluation process and requirements.

2.3.8.2 Other Information

- An application is not considered complete until these documents have been received.
- Applicants transferring from other universities or colleges should also see Transfer Credit.
- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

2.3.9 Applicants Who Are Requesting Special Admission

Where circumstances warrant, applicants not meeting the regulations for Admission/Readmission to the University may be admitted...
2.3.9.1 Admission Criteria

- Applicants must submit a completed application for admission/readmission together with the appropriate fee. For further information refer to Fees and Charges.
- Applicants must submit a letter to the Committee outlining the grounds for requesting special consideration and provide a letter from a school principal, guidance counsellor, employer or other responsible person substantiating those grounds.
- In order to allow sufficient time for reasonable and consistent consideration of special cases, supporting letters must be received at least one week prior to the beginning of the semester to which admission is being sought.

2.3.9.2 Other Information

- English Language Proficiency Requirements will apply to all applicants.

2.4 English Language and Mathematics Placement Tests

In addition to the following, more detailed information regarding the English language and Mathematics placement tests is available from the Department of English Language and Literature and the Department of Mathematics and Statistics respectively.

2.4.1 English Language Placement Test

1. With the exception of applicants who demonstrate English language proficiency under the regulations, English Language Proficiency Requirements, English Language Secondary Institution and English Language Post-Secondary Institution, all other applicants will be required to write a placement test in English language. This test must be taken prior to the commencement of classes to determine the appropriate English course for which an applicant should register. For further information concerning English language proficiency requirements refer to English Language Proficiency Requirements.

2. Students whose performance in the placement test in English language indicates that appropriate placement is in English 102F will be required to register in, and successfully complete English 102F before registering in higher level courses in English.

2.4.2 Mathematics Placement Test

1. Applicants intending to register for the first time in any 1000 level mathematics course must submit a score for either an Advanced Placement Calculus Examination or other standardized tests acceptable to the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

2. Students whose score in the Advanced Placement Calculus examination or other standardized test is not acceptable to the Department of Mathematics and Statistics will be required to register in a mathematics course determined by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

2.5 Transfer Credit

Applicants wishing to be considered for advanced standing or transfer credit must submit, in addition to the Application for Admission/Readmission, an Application for Transfer Credit Evaluation which can be obtained from the Office of the Registrar.

Official transcript(s) and calendar descriptions and/or outlines of courses claimed for credit are also required and should be sent directly to Memorial University of Newfoundland from the institution attended.

In order to allow sufficient time for evaluation, these documents should be received at least two months prior to the commencement of the registration period for the semester to which the applicant is seeking admission. It is the student's responsibility to provide the pertinent documents, and until they are received, the Office of the Registrar is unable to commence an evaluation or to advise students of their standing at this University.

When transfer credit is awarded for work completed at another institution, only equivalent Memorial University of Newfoundland course(s) and credit(s) are recorded on the Memorial University of Newfoundland transcript. Grades received from other institutions are not recorded nor included in averages.

Applicants who have not received the results of a transfer credit evaluation prior to the assigned registration time for the semester in which they propose to begin studies should contact the Admissions Office for further assistance.

Outlined below are the various categories for which transfer credit may be considered.

2.5.1 Advanced Placement (AP)

- Memorial University of Newfoundland may recognize for transfer credit certain courses completed through the Advanced Placement Program offered by the College Board. Award of credit for AP courses will be subject to the achievement of a minimum grade of 3 in each subject claimed for credit (in certain subjects a minimum grade of 4 may be required).
- Award of credit for AP courses will be subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate University academic unit and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.5.2 Enriched Courses And Ontario Grade XIII/OAC

- Certain Grade XII enriched courses and certain Ontario Grade XIII/OAC subjects may be recognized for introductory (normally first year) credits, where applicable, provided that the subjects claimed for credit are recommended as equivalent to Memorial University of Newfoundland courses by the relevant University academic unit(s). In addition, the applicant must have obtained an overall average in these courses of not less than 65% with a passing grade in each subject claimed for credit. Applicants who have not obtained the overall average requirement of 65% in these courses will be required to have obtained a mark of not less than 65% in individual subjects claimed for credit.
- Award of credit for Grade XII enriched and Ontario Grade XIII/OAC courses will be subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate University academic unit(s) and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.
2.5.3 Advanced Or Higher Levels
- The "Advanced Level" subjects of the General Certificate of Education will generally be accepted for credit to a maximum of 12 credit hours in each subject provided that a minimum grade of 'D' in each subject claimed for credit has been obtained.
- The "Higher Level" subjects of the Scottish Leaving Certificate will generally be accepted for credit at the first year level.
- Award of credit will be subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate academic unit(s) and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.5.4 International Baccalaureate Diploma
- Memorial University of Newfoundland will consider for transfer credit the "Higher Level" subjects and certain "Standard" or "Subsidiary" level subjects, provided that the subjects claimed for credit are recommended as equivalent to Memorial University of Newfoundland courses by the relevant University academic unit(s), and the candidate has achieved a minimum grade of 4 in individual subjects claimed for credit. In certain subjects a minimum grade of 5 may be required.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.5.5 Member Institutions of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC)
- All university-level course work completed by transfer students during the first two years of university study taken at universities/colleges that are ordinary members of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) will be recognized for transfer credit. In the first instance, the evaluation of such course work for appropriate credit will be conducted by University academic units. In instances where appropriate credit cannot be granted by academic units or where no University academic unit exists at this University for the evaluation of particular transfer credits, the Office of the Registrar will award the appropriate unspecified credits in an unspecified discipline.
- Applicants who have completed course work beyond the first two years of university study may be considered for further transfer credit subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate academic unit(s) and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified, unspecified or in an unspecified discipline, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.5.6 Other Universities, Colleges and Institutes
- Memorial University of Newfoundland may recognize for transfer credit certain courses offered by the College of the North Atlantic, the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland, and certain other community colleges, technical institutes, institutes and CEGEPS.
- Memorial University of Newfoundland may recognize for transfer credit certain courses offered by other recognized universities or university colleges.
- Award of credit will be subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate academic unit(s) and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.5.7 Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Exams
- Memorial University of Newfoundland may recognize for transfer credit certain courses completed through the Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Examinations. These examinations will generally be accepted for credit to a maximum of 12 credit hours for each 2 unit course and 6 credit hours for each 1 unit course.
- Credit will be considered on an individual basis and award of credit will be subject to evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate University academic unit(s) and University Regulations.
- The applicability of all transfer credits, whether specified or unspecified, is subject to appropriate program regulations.
- Information regarding course equivalencies can be obtained from the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar.

2.6 Challenge for Credit
Memorial University of Newfoundland recognizes that some students may have achieved competence in certain subject areas through experience gained elsewhere. This experience, which may warrant consideration for academic credit at the undergraduate level, may consist of courses taken at "non-university" institutions or skills acquired from work or learning outside the university. It should be noted that challenge for credit is not offered for Work Terms or Internships.

Since course challenge is not offered by all academic units nor for all courses within a unit, students are advised to consult with the appropriate academic unit to determine whether or not a particular course is offered for challenge.

Where challenge for credit is offered, it is available under the following conditions:

1. Challenge for credit is available only to those students who have applied for admission or who are currently registered at the University.
2. Applications to challenge for credit are available only at the Office of the Registrar. Completed applications must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar and must receive approval from the head of the academic unit offering the course(s). The academic unit may require documentary material from the student and/or an interview before making its decision whether or not to accept the challenge. The academic unit involved will be responsible for deciding the academic level and appropriate method of evaluation, which may consist of a variety of possible modes of evaluation including written, practical and oral.
3. A student who has applied for transfer credit evaluation may not apply to challenge for credit until the transfer credit evaluation has been completed.
4. Memorial University of Newfoundland will consider for credit courses that have been granted credit through a challenge for credit process by another recognized university or college. Award of credit will be subject to University Regulations and evaluation and recommendation by the appropriate academic unit(s).
5. For the purpose of satisfying the regulations residence requirements for a first degree and residence requirements for a second degree under General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), a successful challenge for credit shall be considered the equivalent of a transfer credit and shall be recorded on the transcript as a pass (PAS). Challenge grades are not included in averages. For further information refer to Residence Requirements for a First Degree and Residence Requirements for a Second Degree

6. The appropriate fee must be paid at the time of application. For further information refer to Fees and Charges. If the application is accepted for consideration, the fee is not refundable nor is the student permitted to withdraw the challenge.

3 Academic Advising

During their period of study at the University, students are expected to make some very important academic decisions, the consequences of which can significantly affect the course of their academic careers. While the responsibility for making these decisions rests with students individually, they are not expected to make such decisions without access to sound academic advice.

Students need advice on matters such as course selection, registration, dropping/adding course registrations, selecting/changing an academic program, entrance requirements for degree programs and interpretation of university regulations. It is especially true that students in the early stages of their degree program should seek academic advice.

Students who are considering enrolling at the University or who are in their first year of study at the University or who have not declared an academic program can obtain academic advice from the following sources: those students attending the St. John's Campus should contact the Academic Advising Centre, Office of the Registrar, located in the Science Building room SN 4053, at (709) 737-8801; those students attending the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College campus should contact the Senior College Academic Adviser at the Office of the Registrar, located in the Arts and Science Building room AS 270, at (709) 637-6298.

Students who have declared their major or have been accepted to a School or Faculty can obtain academic advice from a faculty adviser assigned by their School/Faculty/Department. Students should contact the head of the relevant academic unit to be assigned a faculty adviser.

Students are also encouraged to approach their professors for academic advice or for referral to the appropriate source of advice.

While it is the responsibility of students to see that their academic programs meet regulations in all respects, academic advice is provided as a service of the University.

4 General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate)

Memorial University of Newfoundland is governed by the principles of fairness, academic integrity and the timely provision of information and by regulations whose purpose is to ensure fair and equitable treatment for the entire University community. Some regulations deal with the normal workings of the University (continuance, registration deadlines, etc.) and pertain to all undergraduate students. Other regulations, however, especially those concerned with classification of degrees and academic conduct, apply to certain students in certain specific situations.

The Office of the Registrar will assist students with any questions or problems which arise concerning the interpretation of regulations. It is, however, the responsibility of the student to see that his or her program meets University regulations in all respects. Every student has the right to request waiver of General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate). In addition, every student has the right to appeal decisions resulting from a request for waiver of General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate). For further information refer to Waiver of Regulations and Appeal of Regulations.

Descriptions and regulations for individual programs can be found in the appropriate academic-unit section of this Calendar. The terminology is explained in the Glossary of Terms Used in This Calendar.

4.1 Classification of Students

1. Full-time students:
   a. Students who have been admitted to this University and who are registered for the duration of any semester in at least 9 credit hours or at least 5 credit hours in a session are deemed full-time students.
   b. Notwithstanding the above and the regulations governing the Marine Institute technology diploma programs, students who have been accepted as pre-Bachelor of Technology or pre-Bachelor of Maritime Studies are deemed full-time students if they are registered for either: three non-degree courses and a minimum of 3 degree credit hours, or two non-degree courses and a minimum of 6 degree credit hours.
   c. Students who are registered for the duration of any semester in a co-operative education work term, the internship required of the Computer Industry Internship Option (CIIO), or the studentship required of the School of Pharmacy will be deemed full-time students.
   d. Provided he or she has been admitted to the University, the President of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Student Union (MUNSU) shall be deemed, for the purpose of membership on University committees, the Senate and the Board of Regents, to be a full-time student during his or her tenure, to a maximum of one term, while President of the Union.

2. Part-time students are students who have been admitted to the University and who are registered for fewer than 9 credit hours in any semester or fewer than 5 credit hours in any session.

3. First-year students are students who have earned fewer than 18 credit hours.

4. Second-year students are students who have earned from 18 to 47 credit hours inclusive.

5. Third-Year Students are students who have earned from 48 to 77 credit hours inclusive.

6. Fourth-Year Students are students who have earned from 78 to 107 credit hours inclusive.

7. Fifth-Year Students are students who have earned not fewer than 108 credit hours.

4.2 Degree and Departmental Regulations

Every student seeking a bachelor's degree shall comply with all the course requirements governing the award of that degree.

4.2.1 Year of Degree and Departmental Regulations - Faculty of Arts and Faculty of Science

1. A student completing a degree program in the Faculty of Arts or in the Faculty of Science will normally follow the departmental regulations in effect in the academic year in which the student first completes a course(s) at Memorial University of Newfoundland. However, the student may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during the student's tenure in a program.
2. In the case of departmental regulations for a major or minor, a student will normally follow regulations in effect in the academic year in which the student first completes a course in that subject at the 2000 level or above which may be applied to the major or minor program respectively. However, the student may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during the student's tenure in a program.

4.2.2 Year of Degree and Departmental Regulations - All Other Faculties and Schools
1. A student registered in any faculty or school, other than the Faculty of Arts or the Faculty of Science, will normally follow regulations in effect in the academic year in which the student first completes a course(s) in that faculty or school following formal admission to that program. However, the student may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during the student's tenure in a program.
2. A student in the Faculty of Business Administration, Faculty of Education, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, School of Nursing, or Faculty of Medicine who fails to obtain promotion or is not registered for full-time studies for one or more semesters and is readmitted to full-time studies in the faculty or school will normally follow regulations in effect at the time of readmission.
3. A student in the School of Music who is required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Music degree program for academic reasons, or who has withdrawn from the principal applied study course will normally follow regulations in effect at the time the student is readmitted to the School. However, the student may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during the student's tenure in a program.

4.2.3 Further Credentials
1. Students may obtain more than one undergraduate degree at this University but not in the same major subject. Students are also encouraged to consider proceeding to more advanced studies at the honours or graduate level.
2. A student will not be awarded the same bachelor's degree more than once by this University (e.g., if a student has been awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree from this University the student will not be awarded a second Bachelor of Arts degree from this University).
3. A student who has completed a Bachelor's degree from this University may complete the requirements for another major or minor. A notation indicating the completion of the requirements for the additional major or minor will be included on the student's academic record.
4. For further information refer to Residence Requirements - Second Degree.

4.2.4 Time Limits
1. Notwithstanding these regulations, the University may place limits on the time permitted to complete a program under any given set of regulations. In addition, detailed scheduling of courses and/or practical experience, e.g., work terms, internships, field placements, may be changed as the University deems appropriate or necessary.

4.3 Residence Requirements

4.3.1 General Information
1. Residence requirements are met by attendance at classes on a campus and/or by the number of credit hours completed at this University.

4.3.2 First Degree
1. For a first bachelor's degree students shall have completed a minimum of 24 credit hours through attendance at classes on the campus of a recognized university or university college. Distance education courses may be used to satisfy the requirements of this clause only for the degrees of Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours), Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Commerce (Honours), Bachelor of Maritime Studies, Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) and Bachelor of Technology.
2. Students shall complete at this University the last 30 credit hours required for the degree. There are exceptions to this requirement as follows:
   - Where special circumstances warrant, and only if at least half the courses required for the degree are completed at this University, the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies may permit students to complete, at another recognized institution, not more than 15 of those 30 credit hours or equivalent required for the degree. The courses which comprise those credit hours must be approved by the appropriate academic unit.
   - Courses taken at universities and/or colleges which are included in formal institutional exchange agreements with this University are not subject to the requirements of this clause.
   - Courses taken at Francophone universities, as required under specific degree program regulations, are not subject to the requirements of this clause.
3. Students who have taken courses in the subject of their major at another university are required to complete at least 12 credit hours in that subject at this University.

4.3.3 Second Degree
A student who has already completed a bachelor's degree may undertake a second bachelor's degree, but not in the same major, subject to the condition outlined below:
1. Every student for a second bachelor's degree shall complete at least 30 credit hours at this University beyond those required for the first degree. These credit hours must be applicable to the degree sought. Students who have completed a first degree at this University may be permitted to take at another university up to 6 of the 30 credit hours required in this clause.

4.4 Registration

4.4.1 General Information
1. Students register using the Student Web/Self-Service at www.mun.ca/regoff/
2. No student may register after the end of the registration period. In the case of accelerated courses and courses offered outside the normal time frame of a semester or session the registration period will be prorated with respect to all associated deadlines.
3. The University reserves the right to require a student to withdraw without academic prejudice from a course, courses, or program in which the student is improperly registered.

4.4.2 Student Responsibility
1. Students are strongly encouraged to seek academic advice before registering.
2. The responsibility for taking all steps necessary for registering and ensuring that a student's registration is appropriate, correct, and proper rests solely with the student. The University will make every effort, through its various academic counselling and advising services, to ensure that students are informed of the suitability and accuracy of their registrations.
3. Students must register for courses at or after the assigned registration time and before the end of the registration period as defined in the University Diary.

4.4.3 Registration Priority
1. The University uses a registration priority system that assigns the date and time that students register. Priority for registration is determined by a combination of three factors: closeness to graduation (i.e., number of credit hours completed); a student's academic achievement (i.e., GPA), and a student's program of study (i.e., degree, major, minor).
2. Academic units may reserve spaces in course sections for students in a particular degree, major, minor, or the like.
3. For further information on registration priority consult the publication Undergraduate Registration Procedures.

4.4.4 Adding Courses
4.4.4.1 General Information
- Specific deadlines for adding courses in any semester or session are stated in the University Diary. In the case of sessions, accelerated courses, and courses offered outside the normal time frame of a semester or session, deadlines for adding courses will be prorated accordingly.
- No course will be considered to have been added until the Registrar has received official notification and certified the add.
- Attending classes or informing an instructor of the intent to add a course does not constitute an official adding of a course.
- Only under special circumstances may a course(s) be added after the end of the registration period. For information contact the Office of the Registrar.
- Before the end of the registration period a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, change the course(s) for which he or she was originally registered by adding and/or dropping a course(s).

4.4.5 Course Weight/Course Load
Course load is the sum of course weights. In a session the course load is double. For the purposes of determining course load, each course is weighted with the credit hour value associated with that course, unless otherwise specified as follows:
- The course weight of each of the A and B components of a linked course shall be equivalent to one half of the credit hour value of the B component.
- The course weight of courses with C or F as the last character shall be three.
- The course weight of courses with W as the last character will vary according to individual program requirements.
1. Semester Course Load: The normal course load in a semester shall be 15 credit hours, except where academic regulations require more than that number. No student shall register for more than 15 credit hours or more credit hours than required by degree regulations in a semester except with the written permission of the dean, director, principal, or executive director of the student's faculty, school, college or institute.
2. Session Course Load: The normal course load in a session shall be 6 credit hours. No student shall register for more than 6 credit hours in a session except with the written permission of the dean, director, principal, or executive director of the student's faculty, school, college or institute.

4.4.6 Dropping Courses
4.4.6.1 General Information
- Specific deadlines for dropping courses in any semester or session are stated in the University Diary. In the case of sessions, accelerated courses, and courses offered outside the normal time frame of a semester or session, deadlines for dropping courses without academic prejudice will be prorated accordingly.
- No course will be considered to have been dropped until the Registrar has received official notification and certified the drop.
- Ceasing to attend classes, or informing an instructor of the intent to drop a course, does not constitute an official dropping of a course.
- A student who drops all courses in any given semester will be considered to have withdrawn from the University for that semester. A student who has withdrawn from the University, before the start of classes in any semester, is deemed to be not registered for that semester. For information regarding applying for readmission to the University refer to Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate).
- In the event that a student drops a co-requisite course, the student will be required to drop the course for which that course is a co-requisite.
- Before the end of the registration period a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, change the course(s) for which he or she was originally registered by adding and/or dropping a course(s).

4.4.6.2 Dropping Courses Without Academic Prejudice
- Until the end of the second week following the first day of lectures in any semester, a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, drop a course without academic prejudice. A course dropped under these circumstances will not be entered on the student's record.
- From the beginning of the third week to the end of the seventh week following the first day of lectures in any semester, a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, drop a course without academic prejudice. A grade of DR will be assigned in these circumstances and will be entered on the student's record.
From the beginning of the eighth week following the first day of lectures in any semester to the last day to add courses in the following semester, a student who is prevented from completing the requirements of a course by illness, bereavement, or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated in writing, may withdraw from the University without academic prejudice. This may occur only with the approval of both the course instructor and the head of the academic unit of the student’s program or in the case of students who have not declared a program, the head of the academic unit of the course in question. A grade of DR will be assigned in these circumstances and will be entered on the student’s record.

4.4.6.3 Dropping Courses With Academic Prejudice

Students dropping courses except under the provisions outlined under Dropping Courses Without Academic Prejudice will have the letter grade of DRF and a numeric grade of 0% entered on his or her record for each course dropped.

4.4.6.4 Work Terms

Students registered for a co-operative education work term should refer to the appropriate academic-unit section of this calendar with respect to regulations regarding work terms.

4.4.6.5 Tuition Fee Implications

- A student who drops a course within two weeks following the first day of lecture in any semester will not be liable for tuition fees for that course. Tuition fee refunds for dropping courses after that period will be prorated in accordance with Fees and Charges - Tuition Refunds Based on Withdrawal from Course(s).
- In the case of sessions, accelerated courses, and courses offered outside the normal time frame of a semester or session, deadlines for dropping courses without financial liability will be prorated accordingly.

4.4.7 Withdrawing from the University

4.4.7.1 General Information

- A student who drops all courses in any given semester will be considered to have withdrawn from the University for that semester. A student who has withdrawn from the University, before the start of classes in any semester, is deemed to be not registered for that semester. For information regarding applying for readmission to the University refer to Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate).
- A withdrawal is not official until the Registrar has received official notification and certified the changes.
- Ceasing to attend classes, or informing an instructor of the intent to drop a course, does not constitute an official withdrawal.

4.4.7.2 Withdrawing from the University Without Academic Prejudice

- Until the end of the second week following the first day of lectures in any semester as stated in the University Diary, a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, withdraw from the University without academic prejudice. Courses dropped under these circumstances will not be entered on the student’s record.
- From the beginning of the third week to the end of the seventh week following the first day of lectures in any semester as stated in the University Diary, a student may, upon formal notification to the Registrar, withdraw from the University without academic prejudice. The letter grade DR will be assigned to all courses in these circumstances.
- From the beginning of the eighth week following the first day of lectures in any semester to the last day to add courses in the following semester as stated in the University Diary, a student who is prevented from completing the semester by illness, bereavement, or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated in writing, may withdraw from the University without academic prejudice. This may occur only with the approval of the dean, director, principal, or executive director of the student’s faculty, school, college or institute and upon formal notification to the Registrar. The letter grade DR will be assigned to all courses in these circumstances.
- In the case of sessions, accelerated courses, and courses offered outside the normal time frame of a semester or session, deadlines for withdrawing from the University will be prorated accordingly.
- Students who withdraw from the University for medical reasons for one or more semesters may not be permitted to re-enter unless they can provide medical evidence, satisfactory to the Director of Student Health Service, of fitness to pursue studies.

4.4.7.3 Withdrawing from the University With Academic Prejudice

Any student withdrawing from the University except under the provisions outlined under Withdrawing from the University Without Academic Prejudice will have the letter grade DRF and a numeric grade of 0% entered on his or her record for each course withdrawal.

4.4.7.4 Work Terms

Students registered for a co-operative education work term should refer to the appropriate academic-unit section of this calendar with respect to regulations governing withdrawing from work terms.

4.4.8 Auditing of Courses

1. Individuals auditing courses must have met the University’s admission or readmission requirements as stated in Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate).
2. In order to audit any course, an individual must receive permission from the instructor in that course and the head of the academic unit in which the course is offered. Permission cannot be given until the number of registrations is known. Factors to be considered shall include class size, impact on students registered for credit, and other matters judged relevant by the academic unit.
3. Individuals auditing courses must limit their participation to that deemed appropriate by the instructor.
4. Auditors are not permitted to write formal examinations or have their work formally assessed.
5. Audited courses will not be considered as meeting prerequisites, admission, or course requirements for any undergraduate programs, nor will audited courses be listed on the individual’s transcript of University studies.

4.5 Attendance

1. Attendance regulations must be approved by the Senate and will be allowed only in cases where the academic unit has demonstrated that attendance is necessary for safety reasons, for teaching practical skills, or for attaining other clearly specified objectives. This may include an attendance regulation that may, by itself, cause a student who contravenes the regulation to fail or be dropped from a course.

2. The course where an attendance regulation is to be enforced must have the statement “attendance required” included in the calendar description.

4.6 Evaluation

4.6.1 Method of Evaluation

1. The method of evaluation in any course shall be determined by the academic unit subject to all University regulations.

4.6.2 Informing Students of the Method of Evaluation

1. The method of evaluation and required prerequisites or co-requisites shall be made known to students before the end of the first week of lectures in any semester or session.

2. This information shall be in typewritten or computer-generated format and shall be provided in paper form to the students present in each class during the first week of lectures. In the case of Web-based courses, this information may be provided electronically.

3. The following shall be included in the explanation of the method of evaluation:
   - the allocation of marks for all parts of the evaluation, e.g., assignments, laboratory projects, presentations, tests, mid-term examinations, final examinations;
   - the approximate dates of all parts of the method of evaluation that will take place in class, e.g., tests, mid-term examinations, presentations, and assignments; and
   - the dates on which all parts of the evaluation to be completed out of class are due.

4. When it is determined that there will be a common final examination for day and evening sections of a course, students must be so informed in the explanation of the method of evaluation for the course and prior to the end of the registration period.

4.6.3 Changing the Method of Evaluation

1. The explanation of the method of evaluation, as made available to the class in the first week of lectures, shall be changed only if:
   - exceptional circumstances warrant the change; and
   - the head of the academic unit approves the proposed change; and
   - accommodation is made for students who demonstrate to the faculty member that they are disadvantaged by the change.

4.6.4 Good Writing Skills

1. Regardless of the method of evaluation, good writing skills are required for effective communication. Students are, therefore, expected to demonstrate proficiency in logical organization, clarity of expression and grammatical correctness in their writing. For further information refer to Grading - Good Writing.

4.6.5 Completing a Course

1. When it is prescribed that students, once registered, must complete a particular course, it is understood that they shall, when required, attend lectures given in the course, perform laboratory projects, and exercises that may be assigned and any other written or oral exercises prescribed, write or otherwise answer tests and examinations given in the course throughout the semester or session, including any final examinations, and shall obtain an overall passing grade in the course in accordance with the prescribed evaluation procedures.

4.7 Examinations

4.7.1 Scheduling of Examinations

1. No laboratory examinations totaling more than one laboratory period in length shall be given in any laboratory course in any week during a lecturing period in any semester or session. Such examinations shall be administered in the laboratory time period assigned for that course section. The application of this clause in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and the Faculty of Medicine is subject to interpretation by the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. The Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies may grant a waiver of this clause for laboratory examinations in individual courses in a given term upon recommendation of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. Such waivers will be considered only if it can be shown that such laboratory examinations do not conflict with regularly scheduled sessions of another course for any student involved.

2. Any other examinations shall not extend beyond the class period assigned to that course section in any week during a lecturing period in any semester or session. The application of this clause in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and the Faculty of Medicine is subject to interpretation by the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. The Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies may grant a waiver of this clause for examinations in individual courses in a given term upon recommendation of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. Such waivers will be considered only if it can be shown that such examinations do not conflict with regularly scheduled sessions of another course for any student involved.

3. During the last two weeks of the lecturing period in any semester or the last week of the lecturing period in any session, no examinations or assignments, whether in-class or take home, shall be administered or assigned. However, assignments of which students have been notified under Evaluation may be submitted and oral and laboratory examinations may be administered. Courses taught outside the regular time-frame are exempt from the application of this regulation. The appropriate faculty or school undergraduate studies committee may, upon the recommendation of the head of an academic unit, grant a waiver of this clause with the proviso that the total value of all examinations or assignments thereby permitted in a course shall not exceed 20% of the final mark in that course. Such waivers will be considered only in exceptional circumstances or in the case of particular courses where it can be shown that the nature of the course determines the need for evaluation during the normally prohibited period. In the latter case, students must be notified of the method of evaluation in accordance with Evaluation. At the end of each semester, the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies must be notified of waivers granted.

4. No examinations of any nature shall be held between the last day of lectures and the start of the formal examination period in any semester or session. The application of this clause to the Faculty of Education (with respect to accelerated courses), the Faculty of Medicine, the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation (with respect to accelerated courses and courses offered outside the normal time frame during the Spring semester) and the School of Nursing is subject to interpretation by the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies.

5. In the event of an officially declared emergency which results in the cancellation or interruption of in-class examinations or tests previously scheduled and notified to be held in the final class period of the third last week of lectures of a semester or the second last week of lectures of a session, teaching units may reschedule such examinations or tests in the next regularly scheduled class or as early as possible in the second last week of lectures of a semester or the last week of lectures of a session. In no circumstances can the rescheduled examinations or tests be held in the last week of lectures of a semester.

4.7.2 Scheduling of Final Examinations
1. Final examinations, if any, whether of the normal two-hour duration or longer, shall be held in each course at the end of the semester during which it was given in accordance with the schedule of examinations published by the Office of the Registrar. The application of this clause to the Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) and all degree programs offered by the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation is subject to interpretation by the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies.

2. Normally, course sections offered during the day will have their final examinations, if any, scheduled in the day, and course sections offered in the evening will have their final examinations, if any, scheduled in the evening. When a student is unable for good reason to write a final examination scheduled outside the provisions of this clause, the student will be entitled to write a deferred examination. For further information refer to Exemptions From Final Examinations and Procedures for Applying to Write Deferred Examinations.

3. When an academic unit determines that there will be a common final examination for day and evening sections of a course, students must be so informed in the explanation of the method of evaluation for the course and prior to the end of the registration period.

4. Where possible, academic units should inform the Office of the Registrar when they submit their class schedules if it is anticipated that a common final examination will be required for day and evening sections of a course, so that this information can be publicized in the class schedule for the appropriate semester. Academic units should indicate whether the examination is to be held during the day or the evening.

4.7.3 Exemptions From Final Examinations and Procedures for Applying to Write Deferred Examinations
1. A student who is prevented from writing a final examination by illness or bereavement or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated in writing, may apply, with supporting documents, to have the course graded or have the final examination deferred. This application must be made within one week of the original date of the examination to the head of the appropriate academic unit.

2. The decision regarding the request of the student to have a course graded or have the final examination deferred, including information on the appeals route open to the student in the case of a negative decision, must be communicated in writing to the student and to the Registrar within one week of the receipt of the student's complete application. For further information refer to Appeal of Regulations.

3. In those cases where the academic unit accepts the extenuating circumstances the student may be permitted to write a deferred examination or, with the consent of both the academic unit and the student, the grade submitted may be based on term work alone. An interim grade of ABS will be assigned by the academic unit in the case of a student granted a deferred examination. This grade will be replaced by the final grade which must be received by the Registrar within one week following the start of classes in the next academic semester or session.

4. A student who is prevented from writing a deferred examination by illness, bereavement, or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated in writing, may apply, with supporting documents, to the head of the appropriate academic unit to have the deferred examination further deferred. This application must be submitted within one week of the scheduled date of the deferred examination. The examination will be postponed to a time not later than the last date for examinations in the semester following that in which the student was enrolled in the course.

4.7.4 Access to Final Examination Scripts
1. A student has a right to see his or her final examination script. However, the script is the property of the University and the University retains full possession and control of the script at all times. This regulation upholds the authority and judgement of the examiner in evaluation.

2. To access a final examination script, a student must make a written request to the head of the academic unit in which a course is offered. This request is subject to the following conditions:
   - Any such request must be made following release of examination results for the semester in which the course was taken and within one month of the official release of grades by the University.
   - The final examination script must be viewed in the presence of the course instructor or other person delegated by the head of the academic unit. Both the instructor and the student have the right to be accompanied by a registered student or a member of the faculty or staff of the University.
   - The final examination script must not be taken away or tampered with in any way.

4.7.5 Rereading of Final Examination Scripts
1. A student may apply to have a final examination script reread whether or not he or she has obtained a passing grade in that course.

2. A student who wishes to have a final examination script reread must make application in writing to the Office of the Registrar within one month of the official release of grades by the University. When a rereading is requested, the University will make every reasonable attempt to have the rereading conducted by a faculty member(s) other than the original marker(s). Students are advised to refer to relevant academic units for policies and procedures governing re-reads of examinations.

3. An appropriate fee per course must be paid at the time of application. For further information refer to Fees and Charges - Reread of Final Examination Fee. If the final numeric grade is raised after rereading, the fee is refunded. If the final numeric grade is unchanged or lowered, the fee is forfeited.

4.8 Grading

4.8.1 Letter Grades, Numeric Grades and Points Per Credit Hour
The academic standing of each student will be based upon the course(s) for which he or she was registered as of seven weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester. The final evaluation submitted to the Registrar shall consist of one of the following letter grades with the appropriate numeric grade and points awarded for each credit hour as follows:

4.8.2 Descriptions of Letter Grades

- “A” indicates excellent performance with clear evidence of:
  - comprehensive knowledge of the subject matter and principles treated in the course,
  - a high degree of originality and independence of thought,
  - a superior ability to organize and analyse ideas, and
  - an outstanding ability to communicate.

- “B” indicates good performance with evidence of:
  - substantial knowledge of the subject matter,
  - a moderate degree of originality and independence of thought,
  - a good ability to organize and analyse ideas, and
  - an ability to communicate clearly and fluently.

- “C” indicates satisfactory performance with evidence of:
  - an acceptable grasp of the subject matter,
  - some ability to organize and analyse ideas, and
  - an ability to communicate adequately.

- “D” indicates minimally acceptable performance with evidence of:
  - rudimentary knowledge of the subject matter,
  - some evidence that organizational and analytical skills have been developed, but with significant weaknesses in some areas, and
  - a significant weakness in the ability to communicate.

- “F” indicates failing performance with evidence of:
  - an inadequate knowledge of the subject matter,
  - failure to complete required work,
  - an inability to organize and analyse ideas, and
  - an inability to communicate.

4.8.3 Good Writing

1. Students at all university levels should have reasonably sophisticated and effective communication skills and are expected to demonstrate proficiency in logical organization, clarity of expression and grammatical correctness. Good writing is expected of students in all courses. Upon graduation students should be capable of expressing complicated ideas clearly and concisely and should be able to develop arguments in a logical manner. When, in the judgement of the instructor, a student persistently fails to display a reasonable standard of writing, the instructor may consider this when assigning a final grade.

2. Good writing is characterized by the following qualities:

   - Content
     - critical insight and freshness of thought,
     - clear and penetrating ideas,
     - perceptive, pure grasp of subject,
     - intelligent use of primary and secondary sources, and
     - a sense of completeness about the handling of the topic.

   - Organization
     - effective introduction and conclusion,
     - main idea is clear and logical development follows,
     - smooth transitions, and
     - good use of details.

   - Style
     - appropriate, accurate, precise and idiomatic diction, and
     - sentences varied in kind, length and effect.
2. Students on the dean's, director's, and principal's lists will be selected based on the following minimum criteria:

4.9.2 Procedure and Criteria

1. At the end of the Winter semester, academic units will nominate students to the appropriate list based on academic performance in

4.9.1 General Information

1. Students in their final semester or session before graduation, who have been absent from a final examination where one has been

4.8.7 Aegrotat Status

1. Students in their final semester or session before graduation, who have been absent from a final examination where one has been

4.8.6 Calculation of Averages

Only courses evaluated using final grades with associated numeric grades and points are included in the calculation of all averages. In calculating current averages the grades obtained in the A part of linked courses shall be included, while the grades obtained in foundation courses and work terms shall be excluded. Credit received as a result of transfer credit and challenge for credit are not

4.8.4 Linked Course

1. A linked course is a course comprising two components and is normally identified by the letter "A" or "B" as the last character of the course number. No credits or points are assigned to the "A" part of a linked course. No credits or points are given until the "B" part is completed. Credits and points will be awarded upon successful completion of the B part and will be attributed to the B part only.

4.8.5 Incomplete Grades

1. A student who, for extenuating circumstances, is unable to complete the requirements of a course may, with the approval of the appropriate academic unit, be granted a letter grade of incomplete (INC) in the course. This grade shall be valid for only one week following the start of classes in the next academic semester or session as stated in the University Diary. In the event that a numeric grade has not been received by the Registrar by this deadline the INC shall be changed to the letter grade F with a numeric grade 0%.

2. Students unable to complete the requirements of a course by the end of one week following the start of classes in the next academic semester or session as stated in the University Diary, may be permitted an extension of time not exceeding the end of the semester following that in which the INC was given. Such an extension may be granted by the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies, on the recommendation of the academic unit. In special circumstances, students registered for a Social Work Internship may be given an extension not exceeding two semesters. Students registered in one of HKR 2210, 2220, 3210, 3220, 4210 or 4220 may be given an extension not exceeding three semesters, by the Academic Council of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation.

4.6.9 Dean's, Director's, and Principal's List

4.9.1 General Information

Memorial University of Newfoundland acknowledges the academic success of its students in various ways. One of these is by naming students to the appropriate dean's, director's, or principal's list. Annually, every academic unit will name to its list a maximum of 10% of its students, selected on the basis of academic performance in the nominating period.

4.9.2 Procedure and Criteria

1. At the end of the Winter semester, academic units will nominate students to the appropriate list based on academic performance in the three preceding semesters, Spring, Fall, and Winter.

2. Students on the dean's, director's, and principal's lists will be selected based on the following minimum criteria:

• The student must have obtained a grade point average of at least 3.5 in the credit hours completed in the preceding Spring, Fall, and Winter semesters.

• The student must have attended full-time in at least two of the three preceding semesters.

• The student must have successfully completed at least 27 credit hours over the preceding Spring, Fall, and Winter semesters, although an academic unit may require that the 27 credit hours be completed in any two of the three preceding semesters.

• In consideration of specific program requirements, individual academic units may include students who have successfully completed, over the three preceding semesters, a course load other than 27 credit hours, but which is consistent with the course
3. A notation will be placed on the student's transcript indicating that the student has been named to the dean's, director's, or principal's list.

4.10 Continuance and Readmission

These regulations will be applied at the end of each semester to any student who is registered in a course load of at least 9 credit hours on the last day for adding courses in a semester or session, including a student who later drops courses and changes status to that of a part-time student.

4.10.1 Eligibility for Continuance

4.10.1.1 Academic Criteria for Continuance in the University

At the end of each semester, in order to be eligible for continuance in the University, a student is required either:
- to obtain a current average of 50% in the courses for which he or she is registered on the last day for dropping courses without academic prejudice, or
- to have obtained a cumulative average of at least 55%.

4.10.1.2 Academic Criteria for Continuance in Programs of Study

- Most academic units have separate promotion or advancement criteria for continuation of students in specific programs of study. Students are advised to check the regulations of the appropriate academic unit for details. The appropriate committee on undergraduate studies may, at any time, require a student to withdraw for academic reasons.

4.10.1.3 Other

- These regulations notwithstanding, the continuance of any student at this University is subject to all University regulations.

4.10.2 Academic Warning

1. Any student who, for the first time, fails to meet the requirements outlined under Eligibility for Continuance - Academic Criteria for Continuance in the University will be given an academic warning.

2. Certain conditions may be set for students who have been given an academic warning. Any conditions will be set by the head of the appropriate academic unit and will be administered in conjunction with the Registrar. These conditions may include, but are not limited to the following:
   - restrictions on course load,
   - enrollment in courses designed to improve academic competence,
   - involvement with programs designed to enhance success in university studies, such as those which teach time management, study, or similar skills,
   - regular meetings with a faculty advisor.

4.10.3 Ineligibility for Readmission

1. Any student who has previously been given an academic warning and who again fails to meet the requirements, as outlined under Eligibility for Continuance - Academic Criteria for Continuance in the University, at this or another recognized university or college, will not be eligible for readmission to the following two semesters.

2. Any student who has previously been given an academic warning and who fails, for the second time, to meet the requirements, as outlined under Eligibility for Continuance - Academic Criteria for Continuance in the University, at this or another recognized university or college, will not be eligible for readmission to the following three semesters. To be considered for readmission after this period, the student will need the recommendation of the head of the appropriate academic unit, or, in the case of a student with an undeclared program of study, a senior faculty advisor.

3. Any student who fails, for the third time, to meet the requirements, as outlined under Eligibility for Continuance - Academic Criteria for Continuance in the University, at this or another recognized university or college, will be considered for readmission only on appeal following a period of withdrawal of at least six semesters. This appeal will be considered by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies only on the recommendation of the head of the appropriate academic unit, or in the case of a student with an undeclared program of study, a senior faculty advisor.

4. Certain conditions may be set for students who are readmitted after a period of ineligibility. These conditions are outlined under Academic Warning.

5. Academic units reserve the right to deny readmission where a student has been determined to have engaged in unprofessional conduct. The code of ethics of the appropriate profession will serve as the guidelines when making this determination. However, should there not be an appropriate code of ethics, the following standard will apply: unprofessional conduct is that conduct which involves a breach of the duties required by professional ethics.

6. The University reserves the right to deny a student readmission where, in the opinion of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies, following appropriate professional consultation, there is a reasonable likelihood that the student's health or behaviour could endanger the lives, health, or safety of other persons on-campus or off-campus where such a location pertains to University studies.

7. The University reserves the right to deny a student readmission where, in the opinion of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies, following appropriate professional consultation, there is a reasonable likelihood that the student's health or behaviour could endanger the lives, health, or safety of other persons on-campus or off-campus where such a location pertains to University studies.

8. If the University denies a student readmission, the student must be advised of the nature of the case, must be provided with an opportunity to answer the case, and must be advised of the right to appeal before the penalty imposed takes effect. For information regarding the appeal procedure refer to Appeal of Regulations.

4.11 Academic Misconduct

4.11.1 Principles

Within the University community there is a collective responsibility to maintain a high level of scholarly integrity. Students are expected to adhere to those principles which constitute proper academic conduct. Academic misconduct cannot be condoned or even appear to be condoned. Students have the responsibility to know which actions, as described under Academic Offences, could be construed as dishonest or improper. Students are reminded that for further guidance on proper scholarly behaviour they should seek advice from their instructors and faculty advisors.

4.11.2 General Information

1. These procedures shall apply to all academic offences relating to undergraduate studies involving, but not limited to, those students who either have been or who are enrolled at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Notification of an allegation of academic misconduct will be forwarded to the last known mailing address of the student as noted on the files at the Office of the Registrar. The University reserves the right to implement action under these procedures where an allegation has been made against a student but where reasonable efforts to contact the student are unsuccessful.

2. A student who wishes to attend classes, laboratories or other educational activities while an investigation under these procedures is being carried out, can do so only with the written permission of the academic unit concerned. This provision excludes students charged with an offence under the Code of Disciplinary Procedures for Students. For information regarding the Code of Disciplinary Procedures for Students contact the Office of Student Affairs and Services.

3. While a student can continue in a program of studies, if eligible, while an investigation under these procedures is being carried out, the University does not accept liability for any consequences to the student's progress. However, the University may take these consequences into account, as appropriate and to the extent feasible, in cases where charges are dropped or the student is not found guilty. The consequences arising from an investigation and any negative decision rendered may include retroactive effect on grades or promotion within a program.

4.11.3 General Procedure

1. When a member of the University community (faculty, staff, student) has grounds for belief that an academic offence has been committed, that person shall report the matter without delay to the head of the appropriate academic or administrative unit. There should then be an attempt between the parties concerned to resolve minor offences. Only if resolution proves impossible, or one party is dissatisfied with the resolution, should the head of the academic or administrative unit become further involved.

2. If, in the judgment of the head of the academic or administrative unit, the offence warrants resolution through informal procedures, the individuals involved will be advised to attempt to resolve the matter through Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences. In the event that no resolution is possible through informal procedures between the individual parties, the head of the academic or administrative unit will institute formal proceedings.

3. If, in the judgement of the head of the academic or administrative unit, the alleged offence against University regulations is such as to warrant resolution through formal procedures, the head of the academic or administrative unit will refer the matter to the chair of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies, and Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences will be implemented.

4. In all cases, it is the responsibility of the academic or administrative unit to ensure that fairness and impartiality are achieved in the treatment of students.

4.11.4 Academic Offences

1. In the following section the plural shall be deemed to include the singular.

2. Academic offences shall be deemed to include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

   • Cheating on examinations or any other tests, theses, assignments, work term reports, projects or internship reports: includes copying from another student’s work or allowing another student to copy from one’s own work; consulting with any unauthorized person during an examination or test; using unauthorized aids; or knowingly recording or reporting false empirical or statistical data. The work referred to includes examinations, theses, assignments, work term reports, projects, internship reports, or any other tests which are to be used in judging the student’s performance in a course or program of study, or on any special tests which the University may offer.

   • Impersonating another student or allowing oneself to be impersonated: includes the imitation of a student or the entrance into an arrangement with another person to be impersonated for the purposes of taking examinations or tests or carrying out laboratory or other assignments.

   • Plagiarism: is the act of presenting the ideas or works of another as one’s own. This applies to all material such as essays, laboratory reports, work term reports, design projects, seminar presentations, statistical data, computer programs and research results. The properly acknowledged use of sources is an accepted and important part of scholarship. Use of such material without acknowledgement is contrary to accepted norms of academic behaviour. Information regarding acceptable writing practices is available through the Writing Centre.

   • Theft of examination papers or other material: includes obtaining by any improper means examination papers, tests, or any other such material.

   • Use and/or distribution of stolen material: includes the use of material which the student knows to have been improperly obtained and/or the distribution of such material.

   • Submitting false information: includes falsifying academic forms or records, submitting false credentials, medical or other certificates, or making a false, misleading or incomplete declaration to the University.

   • Submitting work for one course or work term which has been or is being submitted for another course or work term at this or any other institution without express permission to do so: includes the presentation of an essay, report or assignment to satisfy some or all of the requirements of a course when that essay, report, or assignment has been previously submitted or is concurrently being submitted for another course without the express permission of the professor(s) involved.

4.11.5 Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences

4.11.5.1 General Information

These procedures will not be applied to cases involving alleged offences on final examinations. Alleged offences on final examinations are governed by the Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences.

4.11.5.2 Explanation of Procedures

If, upon receiving a report of an alleged academic offence, the head of the academic or administrative unit decides that an attempt should be made to resolve the matter informally the following procedures shall apply:

   • The head of the appropriate academic or administrative unit shall request a meeting with the accuser and the accused and at the meeting the head shall state the allegation, review the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences including the range of applicable penalties, and arrange a second meeting between the accuser and the accused only.

- At the second meeting the accuser and accused shall endeavour to obtain a mutually satisfactory resolution of the matter.
- The accuser and accused shall report jointly to the head of the academic or administrative unit on the result of their second meeting.
- If the report is of a resolution which the head of the academic or administrative unit considers to be fair and equitable the matter shall be considered closed. If the head of the academic or administrative unit considers the reported resolution to be unfair and/or inequitable he or she will endeavour to obtain an alternative satisfactory resolution directly with the parties.
- Should all reasonable efforts to obtain an informal resolution fail, the head of the academic or administrative unit will refer the case to the chair of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies and shall inform the accuser and the accused accordingly. From this stage onward Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences will apply.

A student may request, during the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, that his or her case be referred to the chair of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies, and thereafter the Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences will apply.

4.11.5.3 Failure to Appear or Respond

- If at any stage of the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, the accused fails to appear or to respond to a charge, without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification of an allegation, action may be taken on the charge in the absence of the accused.
- If at any stage of the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, the accused fails to appear at a scheduled hearing to defend an allegation, without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification by the head of the academic or administrative unit, the action will be dismissed.

4.11.5.4 Penalties in the Case of Informal Resolution

A student who has been found guilty of an academic offence will be subject to a penalty or penalties commensurate with the offence. Some cases may warrant more than one penalty for the same offence, and previous academic misconduct will be taken into account in determining penalties. The range of penalties and their determination are:

- Reprimand: will be in the nature of a warning by the head of the academic or administrative unit or the appropriate committee to the student that the student’s behaviour has been unacceptable to the University.
- Reduction of grade: will apply to an examination, test, or assignment to which an offence is relevant, and will be decided by the head of the academic or administrative unit.

4.11.6 Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences

4.11.6.1 General Information

If the matter cannot be resolved following the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, or if, in the opinion of the head of the appropriate academic or administrative unit, the allegation involves a major breach of University regulations, or in the case of alleged offences on final examinations, the following Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences shall apply.

4.11.6.2 Explanation of Procedures

- If the head of the academic or administrative unit (in the case of departmentalized faculties, the head in consultation with the dean) is satisfied that the student has a serious allegation to answer, that person shall inform the student in writing of the nature of the allegation against him or her. In addition, the head of the academic or administrative unit shall report to the chair of the appropriate faculty committee on undergraduate studies who will interview separately the accuser, the accused and relevant witnesses. At these interviews the chair of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies, the accuser, the accused and relevant witnesses all have the right to be accompanied by a registered student or a member of the faculty or staff of the University. The Memorial University of Newfoundland Student Union (MUNSU) and the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Council of the Students’ Union (SWGCSU) will provide students with information on their legal rights.

- Upon completion of these interviews, the faculty chair shall submit a written report of all findings to the Secretary, Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies, c/o Office of the Registrar.

- The Secretary of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies shall present this report to both the accuser and accused for perusal and comment. Once in receipt of this report, the accuser and accused shall have two weeks in which to submit to the Secretary, Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies any additional comments on the report that the person wishes to be considered in the deliberations of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

- The Secretaries of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies shall present to the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies for decision all information received from the chair of the appropriate Committee on Undergraduate Studies as well as comments from the accuser and accused. The chair who submitted the written report shall remain at the meeting held to consider the case to answer questions raised by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies and to provide information pertinent to the case, but shall be absent from the voting process.

- The Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies shall take appropriate action in accordance with Penalties in the Case of Formal Resolution.

4.11.6.3 Failure to Appear or Respond

- If at any stage of the Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, the accused fails to appear or to respond to a charge, without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification of an allegation, action may be taken on the charge in the absence of the accused.
- If at any stage of the Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, the accuser fails to appear at a scheduled hearing to defend an allegation, without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification by the head of the academic or administrative unit, the action will be dismissed.

4.11.6.4 Penalties in the Case of Formal Resolution

A student who has been found guilty of an academic offence will be subject to a penalty or penalties commensurate with the offence. Some cases may warrant more than one penalty for the same offence, and previous academic misconduct will be taken into account in determining penalties. Enforcement of penalties resulting from Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences will include the range of applicable penalties, and arrange a second meeting between the accuser and the accused only.
be overseen by the Registrar. The range of penalties and their determination is:

- Reprimand: shall be in the nature of a warning by the head of the academic or administrative unit or the appropriate committee to the student that the student's behaviour has been unacceptable to the University.
- Reduction of grade: will apply to an examination, test, or assignment to which an offence is relevant, and will be decided by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon the recommendation of the appropriate academic or administrative unit.
- Probation: the period of probation will be determined by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies. The impact of being placed on probation is that the commission of any further academic offence during the period of probation may lead to suspension or expulsion.
- Suspension: will apply to a course, department, faculty, school, or the University. The period of suspension will be determined by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies and shall not exceed six consecutive semesters.
- Expulsion: the recommendation for expulsion from the University will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies to the President of the University for a final decision. Prior to the President's decision, the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies will notify the accused, in writing, of the recommendation for expulsion from the University. The accused will be allowed a period of two weeks following the date of release of such notification to lodge an appeal before the President's final decision concerning expulsion from the University. Any such appeal should be made in writing to the Executive Committee of Senate, c/o the Office of the Registrar.

4.11.7 Transcript Entries Related to Penalties

1. Transcript entries shall relate to the penalty(ies) imposed as follows:

4.11.8 Disposition of Documentation

1. The disposition of documents relating to allegations under these procedures shall be as follows:

- In cases where the allegation was decided either "not proven" or "unfounded" none of the documentation shall be retained.
- In the case of a resolution effected through the Procedures for Informal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, all documentation shall be retained in the office of the head of the academic or administrative unit.
- In the case of a resolution effected through the Procedures for Formal Resolution of Alleged Academic Offences, all documentation shall be forwarded to and retained in the Office of the Registrar.

4.12 Graduation

4.12.1 Application for Graduation - Degrees, Diplomas and Certificates

Students in their graduating year must apply to the Registrar to be admitted to a degree or to be awarded a diploma or certificate. Application must be made on the prescribed form which is available from the Office of the Registrar and on Student Web/Self-Service at www.mun.ca/regoff/. The deadlines for application are listed in the University Diary for the Spring and Fall convocations.

1. No student can be awarded a degree, diploma or certificate unless and until an average of at least 2 points has been obtained on the total number of credit hours required for such degree, diploma or certificate. The degree of Doctor of Medicine is not included in this requirement since all courses comprising the degree are graded on a PAS or FAL basis.

2. It is the duty of the Registrar to certify to the Senate, where appropriate, that students for degrees, diplomas and certificates have met all the regulations and requirements of the University.

4.12.2 Classification of General Degrees

1. General degrees are awarded as "Classified", "Unclassified" or are not classified, in compliance with such regulations as may be required by the academic unit(s) offering the program(s). Refer to the degree regulations of the academic units for further information.

2. General degrees are awarded in three classes based on the system for granting points set forth in Grading - Letter Grades, Numeric Grades and Points per Credit Hour, and determined as follows:

   - A student who obtains an average of 3.5 points or better on the total number of credit hours required for the degree shall be awarded the degree with First-Class Standing and provided that all other degree requirements are met.
   - A student who fails to obtain First-Class Standing but who obtains an average of 2.75 points or better on the total number of credit hours required for the degree shall be awarded the degree with Second-Class Standing provided that all other degree requirements are met.
   - All other students will be awarded the degree with Third-Class Standing, provided that they obtain an average of 2 points or better on the total number of credit hours required for the degree and provided that all other degree requirements are met.

3. When a student obtains credit for more credit hours than are required for the degree, his or her total degree points shall include only those received for the credit hours required. In eliminating from the total points those received for credit hours beyond the requirements of the degree, the credit hour(s) for which the student receives the fewest points shall be disregarded, provided that no credit hour is disregarded that is a requisite for the degree.

4. Where a student receives more than one classified bachelor's degree, the class of each degree will be determined independently by applying the scheme set forth in Classification of General Degrees and provided that in determining the points total for each degree only those credit hours may be counted which are applicable towards the degree concerned.

5. A student who has been granted credit for courses completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland before the introduction of the point system, and/or one who has been given credit for courses completed at another university, will have the class of his or her degree determined by applying the scheme set forth in Classification of General Degrees in proportion to the total of required credit hours completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland since the introduction of the point system.

6. An Unclassified degree will be awarded a student who has completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland, fewer than one-half of the credit hours required for the degree, or fewer than one-half of the required credit hours since the introduction of the point system. All students shall, however, obtain an average of 2 points or better on the total number of the credit hours required for the degree taken at this University since the introduction of the point system.

7. The following degrees are not classified: Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary), Bachelor of Engineering, Bachelor of Maritime Studies, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Post-Secondary Education (as a second degree), Bachelor of Special Education, Bachelor of Technology, Doctor of Medicine, and all degrees offered by the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation.

4.12.3 Classification of Honours Degrees
1. Honours degrees may be classified or not classified in compliance with such regulations as may be required by the academic unit offering the program. Refer to the appropriate degree regulations of the academic units for further information.

2. A student who has been granted credit for courses completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland before the introduction of the point system, and/or one who has been given credit for courses completed at another university, will have the class of his or her honours degree determined in proportion to the total number of required credit hours completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland since the introduction of the point system.

3. An honours degree awarded a student who has completed at Memorial University of Newfoundland, fewer than one-half of the credit hours required for the degree, or fewer than one-half of the required credit hours since the introduction of the point system, may be Unclassified or not classified.

4.12.4 Diplomas and Certificates
1. Diplomas and certificates are not classified.

4.13 Waiver of Regulations
1. All undergraduate regulations notwithstanding, the University reserves the right, in special circumstances, to modify, alter or waive any regulation in its application to individual students where, in the judgement of the head of the appropriate academic unit or committee, merit and equity so warrant. Requests for waivers should be directed as follows:
   - Course Prerequisites or Co-requisites: the head of the academic unit of the course(s) in question.
   - Departmental Regulations: the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies upon the recommendation of the head of the appropriate department.
   - Faculty or School Regulations: the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. Such waivers shall not reduce the total number of credit hours required for a minor, major, certificate, diploma, or degree program.
   - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate): the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies on the recommendation of the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies. Such waivers shall not reduce the total number of credit hours required for a minor, major, certificate, diploma, or degree program.
   - Scholarships, Bursaries, Awards, Medals and Prizes Regulations: the Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the appropriate academic unit.

2. Any student whose request for waiver of regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For information regarding the appeal procedure refer to Appeal of Regulations - Appeal Procedures.

4.14 Appeal of Regulations
4.14.1 General Information
1. Every student has the right to appeal decisions resulting from the application of University regulations.

2. Appeals will be considered in the case of illness, bereavement or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated.

3. For assistance in the appeals process, students are advised to consult with the Office of the Registrar.

4. In preparing an appeal a student may consult advisors or facilitators. Such advisors or facilitators may include a faculty advisor, a counsellor, a representative from the Memorial University of Newfoundland Student Union (MUNSU) or faculty who have made themselves familiar with the appeals process and who are willing to undertake the role of student advisor or facilitator.

5. Appeals are made before specific committees that exist at the University to provide an objective review of cases. The appeals process is designed to assist students at critical points in their university career, not to intimidate them. Refer also to Appeal Procedures for information concerning where appeals should be directed.

6. While the University makes provision for students to appeal regulations, the academic, financial or other consequences of the appeals process rests with the students.

7. A student whose appeal is denied will be advised in the letter of denial of the next avenue of appeal that may be taken. Should a student’s appeal be denied by the Senate, the student will be advised that within the University no further appeal is possible.

4.14.2 Appeal Procedures
1. The responsibility for making an appeal before the appropriate committee of the University rests with the student.

2. A student who is ineligible to officially register for courses but who wishes to attend classes, laboratories or other educational activities while an appeal is in progress can do so only with the written permission of the academic unit concerned. This provision excludes students charged with an offence under the Code of Disciplinary Procedures for Students.

3. Any student whose request for waiver of regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. Any such appeal should be made in writing clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed as follows:
   - Course prerequisites or co-requisites: to the appropriate committee on undergraduate studies.
4.14.3 Information Required in Letters of Appeal
1. All appeals must be made in writing clearly stating the basis for the appeal and must be directed to the appropriate University committee.
2. Reasons for initiating an appeal, including medical problems, bereavement and/or other acceptable cause, must be stated in the letter of appeal.
3. Students must present independent evidence to corroborate statements made in the letter of appeal. Preferably, this evidence will come from a professional, such as a physician, a counsellor, or a professor. However letters from other knowledgeable parties may be acceptable.
4. In cases where an appeal is made on medical grounds, medical notes must be sufficiently specific to allow appropriate consideration of the student's case. The note must also clearly state that, in the opinion of the physician, the problem was serious enough to have interfered with the student's work. Students should refer to the policy respecting Information Required for Medical Certificates for more complete information.
5. Students claiming bereavement as grounds must provide proof of death and evidence of a close personal relationship between themselves and the deceased.
6. Confidentiality: The committees to which appeals are made do require substantial information about the reasons for the appeal in order to make their decisions. However, the committees also recognize the student's rights to confidentiality. With this in mind, a student may discuss the reasons for his or her appeal with a University or College counsellor, who, with the student's permission and provided sufficient reasons exist, may then write a letter to the appropriate committee confirming that there were sufficient grounds for an appeal without disclosing the special personal and confidential details of the case.

4.14.4 Information Required for Medical Certificates
1. Students who request permission to drop courses, to withdraw from University studies, to have examinations deferred or to obtain other waivers of University, departmental or course regulations based on medical grounds are required by the University to produce a note from a physician in support of their request. Such notes must be sufficiently specific to allow a proper consideration of the student's case. The University requires that all medical notes must be on letterhead, must be signed by the physician, must confirm the specific dates on which the student visited the physician and should include details on the following:
   • the degree to which the illness (or treatment, in the case of medication, for example) is likely to have affected the student's ability to study, attend classes, or sit examinations.
   • the length of time over which the student's abilities were likely hampered by the medical condition (e.g., recurring and severe back pain over a two-month period would likely have a more adverse effect on studies than a single episode of back pain requiring bed rest for a week).
   • the fitness of the student to resume studies (it is in the student's best interest not to return to studies prematurely).
2. Confidentiality: The University respects the confidentiality of all material contained in medical notes. Physicians are strongly advised to retain a copy of the medical note in case the medical note needs to be verified or reissued at a later date.

5 Non-Academic Regulations

5.1 Discipline
The President may use all means deemed necessary for maintaining discipline. Students found guilty of misbehaviour may be suspended or fined on the authority of the President, or expelled from the University by the President on the authority of the Board of Regents. (See the Discipline Code.)

5.1.1 Traffic and Parking Regulations On Campus
Students, employees, service personnel, and other persons having a direct association with the University, Health Sciences Centre, or the Fisheries and Marine Institute wishing to park a vehicle in a designated area on campus must obtain a parking permit. Traffic and parking regulations on campus are enforced by Campus Enforcement and Patrol assisted by the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary.
Application forms for vehicle parking permits, copies of the Traffic and Parking Rules and Regulations, and other information pertaining to traffic and parking on campus, are available at the Campus Enforcement and Patrol Office, Facilities Management Building, or the Health Sciences Centre, Room H2720, or the Fisheries and Marine Institute, Room C2210.

1 Faculty Description
The Faculty of Arts offers a wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs in the social sciences and the humanities, offering excellence in both teaching and research. These degree programs examine culture, thought, prehistory and history, human interactions and the social and natural forces that constantly transform our society. An Arts education can provide incomparable advantages. Students gain the critical thinking, analytical and communication skills needed to succeed and adapt in a changing world. This can lead to exciting, productive careers. One of Memorial University of Newfoundland’s largest and most diverse units, the Faculty of Arts is a place where you can study what fascinates you, and pursue a program that suits your aspirations for learning and career. At the University Timetable. Students who have registered for a Limited Enrolment Course must confirm their registration either (1) by attending at least one of the first three hours of lectures in the course (and the first meeting of any laboratory section of the course, if appropriate); or (2) by notifying the department in writing within the first five university working days of the semester. Students who do not confirm their registration may be dropped from the course on the recommendation of the Head of Department.

2 Limited Enrolment Courses
Certain course offerings in the Faculty of Arts will be identified as being Limited Enrolment Courses and will be clearly identified as such in the University Timetable. Students who have registered for a Limited Enrolment Course must confirm their registration either (1) by attending at least one of the first three hours of lectures in the course (and the first meeting of any laboratory section of the course, if appropriate); or (2) by notifying the department in writing within the first five university working days of the semester. Students who do not confirm their registration may be dropped from the course on the recommendation of the Head of Department.

3 Degree Regulations
In these regulations, all references to Heads of Departments and Program Supervisors are to be read as “Head of Department or delegate” and “Program Supervisor or delegate”.

3.1 Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts
Students completing a degree program in the Faculty of Arts will normally follow the degree regulations in effect in the academic year in which they first entered Memorial University of Newfoundland. This is determined by the year of the student number. However, students may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during their tenure in the program.

1. Degree Components
The General Degree of Bachelor of Arts consists of the following components:
a. courses from a set of Core Requirements, some of which may also satisfy requirements of the Major and Minor programs
b. an approved concentration of courses known as the Major program
c. an approved concentration of courses known as the Minor program
d. elective courses

A candidate for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts must complete a minimum of 120 credit hours in courses subject to the following regulations.

2. Core Requirements
All candidates must complete the following Core Requirements. Courses satisfying Core Requirements may also be used to satisfy requirements of Major and Minor programs, subject to Notes 1., 2. and 3. below:

a. English Requirement. Six credit hours in courses in English at the first-year level.

b. Second Language Requirement. Six credit hours in courses in a single language other than English, or demonstration of equivalent competency in a second language.

c. Humanities/Science Requirement. Six credit hours in courses chosen from the Science list below.

d. Humanities Requirement. Twelve credit hours in courses in at least two disciplines chosen from the Humanities List below. These courses are exclusive of the minimum requirements for English and a second language as stated in a. and b. above.

e. Social Sciences Requirement. Twelve credit hours in courses in at least two disciplines chosen from the Social Sciences List below.

Students who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree shall refer to the entry Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) immediately following these regulations.

f. Research/Writing Requirement. Completion of 6 credit hours in courses in Social Sciences or Humanities which are designated research/writing courses will satisfy Clause 2. f. and may concurrently satisfy 6 credit hours from Clause 2. d. and/or 2. e. above.

Students are strongly advised to complete the Core Requirements within the first 60 credit hours of the undergraduate program.

Notes:
1. To satisfy the minimum Core Requirements, students shall take no more than 9 credit hours in courses from any one discipline.

2. Students may apply up to 9 credit hours of the Core Requirements towards the Major program and up to 9 credit hours of the Core Requirements towards the Minor program.

3. Specific Core Requirements may also be satisfied by the demonstration of equivalent competency in accordance with UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), e.g., advanced standing, challenge for credit, etc.

Distribution of Humanities, Social Science, and Science:

Social Science: Anthropology, Archaeology, Economics, Environmental Studies 1000 and 2000, Folklore, Geography, History, Linguistics, Political Science, Sociology, Law & Society 2000, Women’s Studies 2000

Science: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Sciences, Economics 2010 and 2020, Engineering, Environmental Science, Geography, Mathematics and Statistics, Physics, Psychology, Science 1000, 1150, 1151, 3000, 3001

*Where a department offers two distinct disciplines, students who major and minor in that department can apply up to 18 credit hours from the Major and Minor to satisfy Core Requirements. For example, a student doing a German Major and a Russian Minor may complete 18 credit hours applicable to core requirements in courses in the Department of German and Russian; 9 credit hours in German to fulfill the second language requirement as well as 3 of the required 12 credit hours in a humanities discipline. The remaining 9 credit hours in Humanities could be fulfilled by Russian courses done for the Minor.

All non-laboratory Geography courses are designated Social Science courses. All Geography courses with laboratories are designated Science courses. The three-course limit in one department for meeting Core Requirements will apply.

Where a department or program is listed in both the Humanities and Social Science Lists, the three-course limit in one department for meeting Core Requirements will apply.

3. The Major Program
A candidate shall complete an approved concentration of courses to be known as the Major program, consisting of not fewer than 36 nor more than 45 credit hours taken in a subject listed in Clause 3. a. or 3. b. below.

a. Major programs are available in the following subjects and are administered by departments: Anthropology, Archaeology, Classics, Computer Science, Economics, English Language and Literature, Folklore, French, Geography, German, History, Linguistics, Mathematics and Statistics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religious Studies, Russian, Sociology, Spanish, Women's Studies.

b. Major programs are available in the following subjects which, because of their interdepartmental character, will each be administered jointly by the participating departments through a Program Supervisor. These programs shall require not fewer than 36 nor more than 54 credit hours for the Major.

i. Drama and Music

ii. Canadian Studies

iii. Medieval Studies

iv. Sociology/Anthropology

c. A candidate who has completed courses in the area of the Major at another university is required to complete at least 12 credit hours in that subject at this University.

d. A candidate must follow the regulations for the Major programs as set forth in the appropriate section of the Calendar.

e. The Head of the Department or Program Supervisor of the Major program will advise the candidate on the selection of courses in the Major.

f. In Departments which offer programs leading to both a degree of Bachelor of Arts and a degree of Bachelor of Science, candidates are free to choose the degree program they wish to follow and may change from one to the other; however, they may not obtain both degrees in the same Major subject.

4. The Minor Program
A candidate shall complete an approved concentration of courses to be known as the Minor program, consisting of at least 24 credit hours taken in a subject other than that of the Major chosen either from Clause 3.a. above or from the Minor programs listed below.
a. A candidate must follow the regulations for the Minor program as set forth in the appropriate section of the Calendar.
b. The Head of the Department or Program Supervisor of the Minor program will advise the candidate on the selection of courses in the Minor.
c. A candidate who has completed courses in the area of the Minor at another university is required to complete at least 6 credit hours in that subject at this University.
d. A Minor program in Business Administration is available to candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree. This program is governed by regulations which are detailed under the Calendar entry for the Faculty of Business Administration.
e. A Minor in Music History is available to students who meet the prerequisites for Music 1107 and 1127. This program is governed by regulations which are detailed under the Calendar entry for the School of Music.
f. A Minor in Music and Culture is available in the School of Music. This program is governed by regulations which are detailed under the Calendar entry for the School of Music.
g. Minor programs are available in the Faculty of Science. These programs are governed by regulations which are detailed under the Faculty of Science Calendar entries for each department.
h. Up to 12 credit hours in courses offered by a single department as part of a multidisciplinary program may be used to satisfy the requirements for the Minor, provided they are in accordance with the regulations governing that Minor.
i. Multidisciplinary Minor programs are available in Aboriginal Studies, European Studies, Film Studies, Law and Society, Medieval Studies, Newfoundland Studies, Russian Studies, and Women's Studies. In addition, a Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Minor program is available. These programs are governed by regulations which are detailed under the Calendar entries for Aboriginal Studies, European Studies, Film Studies, Law and Society, Medieval Studies, Newfoundland Studies, Russian Studies, Sociology/Anthropology, and Women's Studies.
j. As an alternative to a Minor, a candidate may complete a second Major program and must follow all General and Departmental or Program Regulations for this Major program.

Notes:

- Departmental regulations are not intended to debar students from completing more than the minimum required credit hours in the subjects of their Major and Minor.

5. Electives
In accordance with Regulations 2., 3. and 4. above, candidates must complete a minimum of 78 credit hours in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts. Courses in Computer Science, Mathematics and Statistics, and Psychology may be applied to this requirement.

The remaining 42 credit hours (for a total of 120 credit hours required for the degree) will be electives; these may be chosen from offerings in Arts, Science, Business and Music (History and Theory only). Candidates may include as open electives up to 15 of these 42 credit hours in any subject area, with the exception of courses which are clearly practical or professional:

- Outdoor Pursuits or Expeditions in Environmental Studies
- Internships, Student Teaching or Practicum in Education
- Activity and Coaching courses in Human Kinetics and Recreation
- Applied Music or Ensemble Techniques in Music
- Nursing Practice or Clinical Practicum in Nursing
- Clinical Clerkship in Pharmacy
- Field Placements in Social Work
- Master Classes in Fine Arts (Theatre)
- Studio Courses in Fine Arts (Visual)

3.2 Admission to Programs in the Faculty of Arts

Note: These regulations shall also apply to multidisciplinary and interdepartmental programs. In such cases, the student should contact the Program Coordinator or supervisor.

Declaration of the Bachelor of Arts as a degree program may be made at the time of application to the University or by means of the Change of Academic Program Form following admission to the University.

Students who intend to complete a degree in the Faculty of Arts must also declare their Major and their Minor (or second Major) chosen according to Regulations 3., and 4. above. In most cases, this declaration may be made at the time of application to the University or, following admission to the University, by means of the Declaration/Change of Academic Program Form, which must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar.

Students are encouraged to declare their Major and their Minor (or second Major) no later than the semester in which they next attend the University following completion of 18 credit hours in courses applicable to their program(s).

Students are strongly advised to consult with departments or program coordinators or supervisors before making a declaration to the department or program of their intended Major or Minor.

In the case of programs with authorized admission requirements which go beyond the general admission requirements of the University, students should make formal application to the department, coordinator or supervisor after completion of the program's admission requirements.

3.3 Graduation Requirements
In order to graduate with the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts, a candidate shall obtain:

1. An average of 60% or higher on the minimum number of courses prescribed for the Major program, excluding 1000-level courses, and
2. An average of 60% or higher on the minimum number of courses prescribed for the Minor program, excluding 1000-level courses, and
3. An average of 2.0 points or higher per credit hour on the courses in Arts disciplines as indicated in Clause 3.a. above.

Notes:

1. In the context of this regulation, any student attaining a grade of 55% or less in any course beyond the 1000-level in the Major or Minor is required to seek the advice of the appropriate department(s) at the beginning of the next semester to ensure that adequate progress is being maintained.
2. The minimum number of courses prescribed shall be understood to include any specific courses prescribed in the regulations of any department but excluding any 1000-level courses listed.
3.4 Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts

A program is offered leading to the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts. An Honours degree requires, over and above the requirements of the General degree, a concentration at an advanced level in an approved field, consisting of a subject or subjects of specialization and/or related subjects, and a high quality of work throughout the program. An Honours degree is of distinct advantage to candidates who plan advanced work or careers in their chosen fields and also to those who have a clear commitment to some special field of study. An Honours degree with first or second class standing is, in many cases, a prerequisite for admission to a graduate program.

Students completing a degree program in the Faculty of Arts will normally follow the degree regulations in effect in the academic year in which they first entered Memorial University of Newfoundland. This is determined by the year of the student number. However, students may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during their tenure in the program.

1. Admission and Registration

a. Admission to Honours programs is competitive and limited, depending upon available resources. Candidates should consult the criteria established for the program in question. To be considered for admission to an Honours program, a candidate shall submit an “Application for Admission to the Honours Program” form to the Registrar. The application must be approved by the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor of the Subject of Specialization before the candidate can be admitted to the program.

Note: A candidate who wishes to enter an Honours program is strongly advised to consult the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor at the earliest possible date, as it may not be possible to complete the requirements for the degree in the normal time if the decision to embark on the program is delayed beyond the end of the second year.

b. Students who have been awarded the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts may convert it to an Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts by applying to the department of specialization and the Registrar and, upon approval of such application by the Department, completing the requirements for the Honours degree as set forth in the regulations.

c. Upon entering the program, the candidate shall be assigned a Faculty Advisor by the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor. The Faculty Advisor will be responsible for advising the candidate and the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor with respect to the candidate's program of studies.

2. Subjects of Specialization

Subjects which may be chosen as Subjects of Specialization for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts are the following:

a. Those administered by Departments through the Head of the Department: Anthropology, Archaeology, Classics, Computer Science, Economics, English Language and Literature, Folklore, French, Geography, German, History, Linguistics, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religious Studies, Sociology, Spanish (at present, only for Joint Honours).

b. Those which, because of their interdepartmental character, are administered by two or more Departments through a Program Supervisor: see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program. (No other programs yet approved.)

c. Joint Honours Programs: A candidate may undertake a program of Joint Honours in two Subjects of Specialization (see Regulation 3. c. ii.).

3. Course Requirements

Candidates for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts shall complete a program of studies which shall consist of not fewer than 120 credit hours subject to the following regulations:

a. All candidates are required to complete the Core Requirements as detailed in the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts. These include:

   i. English Requirement
   ii. Second Language Requirement
   iii. Numeracy/Science Requirement
   iv. Humanities Requirement
   v. Social Science Requirement
   vi. Research/Writing Requirement

b. All candidates must also

   i. Pass a general comprehensive examination in a Subject of Specialization. This examination may be written, oral, or a combination of both. The comprehensive examination shall count as 3 credit hours in the Subject of Specialization; and/or
   ii. Submit an Honours essay on an approved topic which, at the discretion of the Head of the Department or the Program Supervisor, may be followed by an oral examination thereon. Normally, the Honours essay will count as 3 credit hours in the Subject of Specialization, or as 6 credit hours in the case of linked (A/B) honours essays (please consult departmental regulations).

A copy of the Honours essay must be submitted to the University Library upon completion. All Honours essays in the University Library shall be available for unrestricted consultation by students and faculty except under very exceptional circumstances which must be approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Copyright remains with the author. A signed release form must accompany an essay or dissertation when it is submitted to the University Library.

Note: The semester in which the candidate sits for the comprehensive examination, and/or the semester in which the Honours essay is to be submitted, may be decided by the candidate after consultation with the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor.

C. Further courses shall be chosen either

   i. In consultation with the Faculty Advisor and with the approval of the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor of the Subject of Specialization, but in such a way that the candidate’s program shall include not fewer than 60 credit hours in courses applicable to the Subject of Specialization, including the comprehensive examination and/or the Honours essay, at least 36 of which must be at the 3000 level or above, and not fewer than 24 credit hours in a Minor subject or program according to the Departmental or Program Regulations covering that Minor, and the total number of credit hours which may be applied to the degree is not fewer than 120;
   or
   ii. In consultation with the Faculty Advisors and with the approval of the Head of the Department or Program Supervisor of the Subject of Specialization, but in such a way that the candidate’s program shall include not fewer than 60 credit hours in courses applicable to the Subject of Specialization, including the comprehensive examination and/or the Honours essay, at least 36 of which must be at the 3000 level or above, and not fewer than 36 credit hours in a Major subject or program according to the Departmental or Program Regulations covering that Major, and the total number of credit hours which may be applied to the degree is not fewer than 120.

iii. In consultation with the Faculty Advisors and with the approval of the Heads of the Departments or Program Supervisors of two Subjects of Specialization (Joint Honours), but in such a way that the candidate's program shall include not fewer than 42 and not more than 51 credit hours in courses approved for each of the Subjects of Specialization, including the comprehensive examination and/or the Honours essay, of which at least 27 shall be at the 3000 level or above in each of the Subjects of Specialization, and the total number of credit hours which may be applied to the degree is not fewer than 120.

iv. In the case of Joint Honours, the candidate may choose the Subject of Specialization for the Honours essay and/or comprehensive examination.

v. Other courses to make up the total of 120 credit hours may be chosen from any subjects listed under 2.a. with Canadian, Medieval, Russian and Women's Studies added to the list of subjects and from courses listed under and in accordance with Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts, Clause 5. Electives.

4. Departmental Regulations
Candidates for Honours degrees shall also comply with such additional requirements of the appropriate Department(s) as are approved by the Senate and printed in the Calendar.

5. Academic Standing

In order to graduate with an Honours degree, a candidate shall obtain:

a. a grade of 70% or better, OR an average of 75% or higher in the minimum number of courses [including the required courses in the Honours subject(s) prescribed by the Department (or, in the case of Joint Honours, Departments) concerned, excluding 1000-level courses. A grade of 70% or better must be obtained in the Honours essay and/or comprehensive examinations; and

b. an average of at least 2.75 points on the total number of credit hours in the courses required for the degree. (See General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Classification of General Degrees.)

Note: Students who wish to fulfil the requirements of Clause 5. a. above using repeated or substituted courses must obtain approval of the Head of the Department and the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. The Honours essay and/or comprehensive examinations may not be repeated or substituted.

6. Classification of Degrees

a. If a candidate's general average is 3.25 points or better per credit hour in required courses and his/her average is 3.5 points or better per credit hour in the courses in the Honours subject (excluding 1000-level courses), the candidate shall be awarded an Honours degree with First Class standing.

b. If a candidate fulfills the conditions of Regulation 5. above but not of Regulation 6. a., the candidate shall be awarded an Honours degree with Second Class standing.

c. No classification will be given to the degree awarded a candidate who has completed (i) fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University, or (ii) who has completed fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University since 1959. All candidates for such degrees shall, however, fulfill the condition of clause 5. on the courses taken at this University since September 1959 in order to qualify for the degree.

d. A declared candidate for an Honours degree who fails to attain the academic standing specified in clause 5. above, but fulfills the academic requirements for a General degree shall be awarded a General degree, the classification of which shall be determined in accordance with General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Classification of General Degrees.

3.5 Regulations Governing Co-operative Education Program

See Department of Economics

3.6 Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)

Students registered in a program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree* will not be required to comply with clauses 2. d. and 2. e. of the Core Requirements for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts. This adjustment of the core requirements will be permitted only for students who are graduating with the Bachelor of Arts degree and the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree at the same convocation. In order to meet all of the requirements of both degree programs at the same time, students who are completing the joint degrees are strongly advised to follow the Suggested Program of Studies outlined below, to take account of the accompanying advisory notes, and to seek advice from the department or program of their Major in order to ensure that their proposed program is possible within the constraints of course scheduling and prerequisites.

*See General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Residence Requirements, Second Degree.

Suggested Program of Studies: Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Prior to admission to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program

For the joint degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative), students must successfully complete a minimum of 150 credit hours in courses applicable to the degrees. To be eligible for admission to Term 1 of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program, an applicant must have successfully completed 30 credit hours with an overall average of at least 65% on the courses comprising those credit hours. The 30 credit hours must comprise:

1. Six credit hours in English courses; It is strongly recommended that students complete English 1110 as one of these English courses.

2. Either Mathematics 1090 and 1000 or Mathematics 1000 and 3 credit hours in a second language or in the subject of the intended Major program;

3. Economics 2010 and 2020;

4. Business 1000;

5. Nine additional credit hours in non-Business courses. It is strongly recommended that these 9 credit hours include courses in a second language and courses in the subject of the intended Major program as the Bachelor of Arts degree requires 6 credit hours in the same second language.

Following admission to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program, the curriculum is as set out in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum (Completed Jointly With The Degree of Bachelor of Arts) Table.

Please refer to the calendar entry for the Faculty of Business Administration for complete course descriptions and regulations for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree.

Notes: 1. The degree of Bachelor of Arts requires completion of a Major program, a Minor program, a set of Core Requirements, and elective courses, totalling at least 78 credit hours in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts (or Computer Science, Mathematics and Statistics, and Psychology). When the degree of Bachelor of Arts is completed jointly with the degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative):
   a. Minor program requirements are satisfied by Business courses specified in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum (Completed Jointly With The Degree of Bachelor of Arts) Table above.
   b. Core requirements for English and Numeracy/Science are satisfied by courses completed for admission to Term 1 or during Terms 1 or 2 of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree.
   c. It is recommended that the Core Requirement for 6 credit hours in courses in a second language be completed prior to admission to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree program.
   d. Core requirements for 6 credit hours in research/writing courses may be satisfied by including two such courses within the 78 credit hours in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts. Please consult the Undergraduate Registration Procedures booklet to determine research/writing course offerings in any given semester.
   e. Major requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts may be satisfied in 36 to 45 credit hours, depending on the department or program chosen. Students are strongly recommended to seek advice from the department or program of their Major to ensure that their proposed degree program is possible within the constraints of course scheduling and prerequisites.
2. Students are advised that, in order to complete the joint degrees within the minimum 150 credit hours, they should be prepared to complete at least three of the courses required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts as opportunities arise and as courses are offered. Following Term 2 of the program for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree, these courses may be completed during the Spring semester between Terms 2 and 3, or during any of the Spring Work Terms (for example, in the evening or by distance), or as sixth courses during any of Terms 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 (following submission of a course-load waiver).
3. To meet the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative), not fewer than 15 and not more than 30 credit hours in elective courses must be chosen from Business courses (including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration). Students intending to complete the joint degrees in the minimum number of credit hours should ensure that at least 78 of these credit hours are completed in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts (or Psychology, Mathematics and Statistics, and Computer Science). Careful planning, particularly in the selection of elective courses as well as in the sequence of Major program courses, is therefore recommended to ensure timely completion of the joint degrees.

4 Diploma Programs Offered in the Faculty of Arts

4.1 Objectives

Diploma programs are of distinct advantage to candidates who wish to complement their studies in one or more fields of specialization with a program that will help them relate their knowledge to growing sectors of the economy and to areas of increasing social concern. These programs assume and build upon the theoretical knowledge acquired in the completion of an undergraduate degree and will assist in easing the transition of graduates to the workplace.
4.2 Components
Courses satisfying the Honours, Major, Minor and elective components of an undergraduate degree may also be used to satisfy the requirements of a diploma program.

Diploma programs consist of between 24 and 36 credit hours in courses as specified in individual programs, including a field component of 6 credit hours in an approved instructional field placement and/or instructional field courses.

The purpose of the field component of the program is to provide students with an opportunity for practical and instructional field-oriented experiences as a means of broadening and reinforcing the other courses taken in the diploma program. The instructional field component may take a number of forms, depending on the nature of individual programs. Without limiting the generality of the definition, the instructional field component typically includes observation of and instruction in practical techniques and methods and their application, as well as the maintenance and submission of documentation and reports appropriate to the area of study.

Instructional field placements and instructional field courses may not normally be repeated.

4.3 Admission to Diploma Programs
Students seeking information about specific diploma programs should contact the diploma program coordinator, the Office of the Dean of Arts, or the Office of the Registrar.

1. Admission to all diploma programs is competitive and limited, depending upon available resources. For additional requirements stipulated by individual diploma programs, see the appropriate Calendar entry below.

2. All applications for admission or readmission must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar. A complete application package includes an application to the University (for those who have not attended Memorial University of Newfoundland in the two preceding semesters), an application to the Diploma Program and any other required documentation.

3. Applicants for admission to diploma programs must apply by completing the appropriate form available from the Office of the Registrar.

4.4 Graduation Requirements
1. To be eligible for the award of a diploma, a student must have obtained an overall average of 60% or higher in the courses prescribed for that program.

2. A minimum of 9 credit hours in courses prescribed for the diploma program must be completed at this University.

4.5 Diploma in Applied Ethics
Program Co-ordinator: Dr. P. Trnka, Department of Philosophy.

The Diploma helps to prepare students for the ethical challenges of various professions and for work as ethical consultants and analysts in government and private institutions (e.g., hospitals, businesses, environmental agencies).

4.5.1 Admission Requirements
Admission to the Diploma program is limited and competitive. Applicants with a B.A. or B.Sc. in hand and senior undergraduates will be preferred. Experience working in the health care or environmental sectors is an asset. Students interested in applying to the program should contact the Program Co-ordinator. Formal application is made through the Office of the Registrar.

4.5.2 Program of Study
The Diploma consists of 24 credit hours, including an Instructional Field Placement. A concentration in either bioethics, mental health ethics, or environmental ethics is required: courses toward a concentration must be chosen with the approval of the Program Co-ordinator.

4.5.3 Course List
Philosophy 2230
Philosophy 2802 or Philosophy 2803 or Philosophy 2809
One advanced (3000 or 4000 level) course in ethics or philosophy of law, approved by the Co-ordinator
Philosophy 4900 or 4300-4310
Philosophy 5000
Two additional, elective courses, approved by the Co-ordinator.

4.6 Diploma in Creative Writing Program Co-ordinator: Dr. L. Mathews, Department of English Language and Literature

4.6.1 Program Description
The Diploma aims to develop students’ skills in writing in a variety of genres conventionally described as “creative,” such as fiction, poetry, drama, and creative non-fiction. It will also offer students the opportunity to take, as options, courses that provide a background in contemporary literature in these genres.

The eight course, 24 credit hour program will comprise at least five and as many as eight creative writing courses in at least three and as many as four genres. The overall aim of the program is to help students produce work that merits publication. To this end, the focus of the creative writing courses will be on the composition, critiquing, and editing of the students’ own work, and, in both the creative writing and contemporary literature courses, on analysing examples of excellent contemporary writing.

4.6.2 Admission Requirements
As has traditionally been the case, students will compete for admission to individual Creative Writing courses via the portfolio system. The Diploma will be earned by accretion.

4.6.3 Program of Study
Students are required to complete a minimum of 24 credit hours of course work, including at least 15 credit hours from the following:
English 3900, English 3901, English 3902, English 3903, English 4910, English 4911, English 4912, and English 4913
The remaining courses must be taken from:
1. additional courses from the above list
2. one or more special topics courses in Creative Writing (English 4920-4930)
3. one or more of English 3100, 3155, 3156, 3158, 3160, 3161, 3171, 3172, 3173, 4080, 4270, 4302, 4822
4. one or more courses from the Diploma in Professional Writing

4.7 Diploma in English as a Second Language Program Co-ordinator: J. Benger, Department of English Language and Literature
This program prepares students for positions in private language schools and community colleges in Canada and overseas, working primarily with adults whose first language is not English. The Diploma combines expertise from the Department of English Language and Literature, the Department of Linguistics, and the Faculty of Education. The required courses provide a solid understanding of the characteristics and needs of adult ESL learners.

4.7.1 Admission Requirements
Admission to the Diploma Program in ESL is limited and competitive. A high level of English language proficiency is required. Students are advised to notify the program coordinator of their intention to apply for admission into this program. Formal application is made through the Office of the Registrar, normally in the second semester of the student's second year of study.

4.7.2 Program of Study
Students are required to complete a minimum of 27 credit hours of course work, including: 15 credit hours in language courses in English and/or Linguistics, 6 credit hours of Education studies, 6 credit hours of instructional field placement (Practicum). This practicum will acquaint students through observation and practice with Teaching English as a Second Language to adult learners.

4.7.3 Course List
Education 2222
Education 4950
English 2390
English 3650
English 5100
English/Linguistics 3105
Linguistics 2104
Linguistics 3155

4.8 Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences
Program Co-ordinator: Dr. R. Devillers, Department of Geography
The Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences is of interest to students from a broad range of backgrounds. It is a valuable complement to social and natural sciences programs such as anthropology, biology, computer sciences, earth sciences, history, economics, engineering, health and medicine, physical oceanography, environmental sciences and environmental studies. The fields of remote sensing, geographic information systems (GIS) and cartography provide the most effective methods of gathering, managing, analysing and representing geographic information. Remote sensing images provide a resourceful information to observe and study the cultural and physical landscapes. Examples of remote sensing applications include the monitoring of spatial changes, environmental quality evaluation, natural resources exploration, assessment and monitoring, and archaeological site assessment. Geographic information systems enable the compilation, organization and processing of spatial (maps) and non-spatial (text, statistics, graphs) data. Socio-economic, political and environmental management decision-making is supported by the results of GIS analyses and modelling. Cartography involves the compilation, organization and visual representation of spatial information. A variety of geographical information can effectively be communicated through cartography.

4.8.1 Admission Requirements
Admission to the Diploma in Geographical Information Sciences is limited and competitive. Students are advised to notify the program coordinator of their intention to apply for admission into this program. Students who wish to enter this program must apply through the Office of the Registrar by April 1 for Fall semester registration and by October 15 for Winter semester registration.
To be considered for admission to the Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences, students will normally have completed 24 credit hours, including the courses listed in 1., 2., and 3., with an overall average of at least 65%.
1. Geography 1050 or one 1000-level course in applicant's Bachelor's Major program.
2. Mathematics 1000 or equivalent.
3. Two 1000- or 2000-level core courses in student's Bachelor's Major program, excluding the courses listed in 1. and 2. above.
Students who fulfill the eligibility requirements compete for a limited number of available spaces. Selection is based on academic performance.

4.8.2 Continuation Requirements
To be considered for the field placement courses Geography 4290 and 4919, the candidates for the Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences will normally have completed at least seven courses required for the program, with an overall average of 65%.

4.8.3 Program of Study
Students are required to complete a minimum of 30 credit hours of courses as listed below.
Note: The course Mathematics 2050 is a prerequisite to some of the fourth year courses required for the diploma.

4.8.4 Course List
Computer Science 1710
4.9 Diploma in Heritage Resources

Program Co-ordinator: Dr. G. Pocius, Department of Folklore

Building on the student's academic grounding in anthropology/archaeology, folklore, history, geography, and other relevant disciplines, the program offers training in object documentation, identification, conservation, and display. Required courses give students both an awareness of the broad range of heritage resources - including objects, sites, landscapes, documents - and specific skills to deal with public perceptions of objects and artifacts. The program also includes a course in tourism management. Elective courses enable students to pursue their particular disciplinary interests.

The Diploma in Heritage Resources helps prepare students to work in the expanding heritage sector in Newfoundland or elsewhere. Students with this diploma will be better able to compete for positions in museums and historic sites and for employment with heritage consultants, and to participate in contracts involving heritage policy and planning, all part of the increasing regional and global importance of cultural tourism. The diploma in Heritage Resources will also be an advantage to students wishing to study heritage or cultural resources management at the graduate level.

This diploma program draws on the expertise of the Archaeology Unit, the Centre for Material Culture Studies, and individual faculty members in various departments and faculties.

4.9.1 Admission Requirements

Admission to the Diploma in Heritage Resources program is limited and competitive. Students are advised to notify the Program Co-ordinator of their intention to apply for admission into this diploma program. Formal application is made through the Office of the Registrar, normally in the second semester of the student's second year of study.

4.9.2 Program of Study

Students are required to complete a minimum of 30 credit hours of course work, including 6 credit hours in instructional field courses, from the lists of required and elective courses below, with:

1. at least 15 credit hours from the 'Required Courses' listed below, which must include 3 credit hours in a field course in Cultural Resources Management and at least 12 credit hours chosen from Material Culture, Archaeological Conservation, Collections Management, Introduction to Museums & Historic Sites and Tourism Management.
2. at least 12 credit hours from the Elective Courses listed below, chosen to include at least 3 credit hours in a course designated as an instructional field course. Instructional field-oriented courses will deal with a wide array of artifact-related research in historic sites/museums. These instructional field courses will be advertised by the Program Co-ordinator.

4.10 Diploma in Performance and Communications Media

Program Co-ordinator: J. Smith, Department of English Language and Literature

Memorial University of Newfoundland offers a specialized Diploma Program in Performance and Communications Media. This Diploma draws on the expertise of the Drama Specialization, Department of English, Distant Education and Learning Technologies (DELT), and CBC Television. Students receive an introduction to multi-media in the area of dramatic arts and video techniques. Students will be introduced to the wide applications of stage and video craft through a program of project-oriented courses. Required courses give students specific skills in stage and video craft and enable students to specialize in their own particular practical area of interest.
The Diploma in Performance and Communications Media prepares students to work in the cultural industries in Newfoundland (or other parts of North America). Students with this unique training are better able to work across existing media.

4.10.1 Admissions

Academic Requirements: Applicants for the Diploma program must satisfy the general admission requirements of the University.

Auditions: In addition to meeting the general requirements of the University for admission to diploma programs, applicants for the Diploma in Performance and Communications Media must undergo an audition/interview to the satisfaction of the Program Co-ordinator.
Enrolment in the Diploma in Performance and Communications Media is limited and competitive. Students are advised to notify the Program Co-ordinator in their first year if they intend to apply for this Diploma. Formal application normally takes place in the second semester of second year.

4.10.2 Program of Study

1. Students must complete a minimum 18 credit hours of course work in the following required courses with an overall average in these courses of at least 65%; English 3350, English 3351, English 3816, English 4400, English 4401, and English 4402.

2. Students must also complete 6 credit hours in English 5000 - Instructional Field Placement. Admission to this instructional field placement course is by application to the Program Co-ordinator, normally at least three months before the beginning of the placement, and is limited to students who at the time of admission have completed the six courses listed above with an overall average of at least 65% and who already hold a first degree or are in their final year of a degree program as confirmed by the Office of the Registrar.

4.11 Diploma in Police Studies

Program Co-ordinator: A. Morris, Department of Sociology

The Diploma Program in Police Studies is offered to students who are recruit cadets of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary. The program provides recruit cadets with academic and experiential learning components of a degree program relevant to their future work as police officers.

4.11.1 Admission Requirements

Admission to the diploma program is limited and competitive. Applicants for the Diploma program must be recruit cadets in the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary who satisfy the general admission requirements of the University, and at the time of admission must have completed 6 credit hours in English, Psychology 1000 and 1001, and Sociology 2000.

4.11.2 Continuation Requirements

Students dismissed as recruit cadets by the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary will be required to withdraw from the Diploma in Police Studies.

4.11.3 Program of Study

Following admission to the diploma program and until completion of all diploma program requirements, students must normally carry a course load of 15 credit hours in each of the Fall and Winter semesters. Students must complete a total of 36 credit hours in the following required courses:

4.11.4 Course List

Required Courses
Political Science 3521
Political Science 3720
Psychology 2150
Psychology 2260
Psychology 3640
Social Work 3310
Sociology 3290
Sociology 3306
Sociology 3395
Sociology 4212
Police Studies 2000
Police Studies 5000

2000 Introduction to Policing in Canada is an introduction to Policing in Canada: This course will examine the concept of policing, its organization and operation. It will provide an overview of the history and development of policing in Canada, with a focus on Newfoundland and Labrador. It will discuss the various roles and responsibilities of the police in society. It will explore the issue of police decision making, the exercise of police powers and the use of discretion by police officers. Several other issues related to policing will be discussed including police recruitment and training, professional role of the police, stress on the job, policing in a diverse society, etc.
Prerequisites: Completion of a minimum of 30 university credit hours or acceptance into the Diploma in Police Studies program.

5000 Instructional Field Placement in Police Studies (6 credit hours) is a one-semester course offered in the Spring Semester, following completion of ten courses specified for the diploma program, designed to integrate knowledge acquired in coursework with the training curriculum provided by the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary to its recruit cadets. In consultation with the course instructor, students will prepare and submit a reflective report linking their observation of and instruction in the practical techniques and methods of police work with the broad range of knowledge acquired in other courses taken in the diploma program. Enrolment in this course is restricted to students admitted to the Diploma Program in Police Studies and who remain in good standing as recruit cadets of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary.
Prerequisites/Co-requisites: Completion of two semesters of course work in the Diploma Program in Police Studies.

In order to maintain the mandatory course load of 15 credit hours in each of the Fall and Winter semesters, students who have previously completed one or more of the required courses will select courses from the alternate list below, or other appropriate courses as recommended by the Program Co-ordinator.

Alternate Courses
Anthropology 2414
4.12 Diploma in Professional Writing
Program Co-ordinator: J. Guthrie, Department of English Language and Literature

4.12.1 Program Description
The Diploma in Professional Writing (DPW) aims to develop students’ skills in writing non-fiction prose such as newspaper and radio journalism, reviews, reports, feature articles, and creative nonfiction. Students take 6 courses, 18 credit hours, in which they are introduced to non-fiction writing as a process (identifying issues, drafting, revising, editing); they investigate reading and writing as gendered practices; they develop journalistic pieces for print or radio; they review books, performances, and movies; they practice strategies for reading, revising, and editing documents; and they take a course of their choice (in creative writing or satire).

The 6 credit hour field placement is completed in a professional situation, e.g., a division of the University, an arts organization, government, the media. Students also attend seminars on professional writing and submit written reflections on their work experience.

4.12.2 Admission Requirements
Applicants to the Diploma in Professional Writing should include a letter of application, a transcript (if the applicant is a student or a graduate of a university program), and a portfolio of work. Admission to the diploma is limited. The following are eligible to apply:
1. students taking a Bachelor of Arts or another degree program;
2. graduates of a Bachelor of Arts or another degree program; and
3. individuals without a degree who wish to develop skills in writing and editing. Such applicants must meet the prerequisite requirements for the Diploma in Professional Writing courses.

4.12.3 Program of Study
Students are required to complete a minimum of 24 credit hours of course work, including:
1. One of English 2010 or English 2020
2. English 3910, English 3920, English 3817 and English 4914
3. One of English 3001, English 3900, English 3901, English 3902, English 3903, English 4910, English 4911, English 4912 or English 4913
4. English 5200

Further information regarding the Diploma in Professional Writing may be obtained at www.mun.ca/english/diplomas/professional.php.

5 Waiver of Regulations for Undergraduate Students
Regulations involving course prerequisites or co-requisites, departmental regulations, and faculty regulations may be waived where circumstances so warrant. The routing of requests for such waivers and the procedure for appealing unfavourable decisions are outlined in the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

6 Harlow Campus Semester
This is an integrated interdisciplinary Arts program offered each Fall semester at the Harlow Campus, England. The content of the program changes each Fall, depending upon the departments involved. Credits for the program equal 15 credit hours, with the allocation of credits to departments changing each Fall. Students wishing to enrol in a Harlow semester must have completed at least 48 credit hours at the university level, and satisfy any prerequisites which may be required. Enrolment is competitive. The relevant admission criteria, as well as other information, may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Arts.

7 Programs, Regulations, and Course Descriptions

7.1 Aboriginal Studies
Program Co-ordinator: Dr. D. Wharram, Department of Linguistics

Note: The normal departmental prerequisites are applicable, but Department Heads may waive course prerequisites in cases where alternate preparation can be demonstrated.

7.2 Anthropology and Archaeology

All students who major in Anthropology and Archaeology will be assisted by a faculty advisor who will help them in planning their academic programs. For this purpose, it is essential that students register with the Department at an early stage of their studies.

7.2.1 General Degree

1. First Courses
   - Archaeology 1030 and Anthropology 1031 or an equivalent course or courses are required of all students wishing to concentrate in anthropology or archaeology.
   - The following courses, cross-listed with the Department of Sociology and identified by the designation “S/A”, are also taught at the introductory level: 2200, 2210, 2220, 2230, 2240, 2260, 2270, 2280 and 2350. These courses can be taken as first courses or may be taken following a departmental introductory course.

2. Major Options
   - The Department of Anthropology and Archaeology offers undergraduate programs concentrating in a) Social/Cultural Anthropology; b) Archaeology/Physical Anthropology; and c) Interdisciplinary Studies in Sociology and Anthropology.
   - The student majoring in Anthropology or Archaeology must meet the requirements listed under General Degree Regulations, Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Under these regulations, a minimum of 36 credit hours in Anthropology and/or Archaeology are required. Specific regulations for each option follow:
     a. Social/Cultural Anthropology. Students wishing to concentrate in this option must take Archaeology 1030 and Anthropology 1031; 6 credit hours in Anthropology courses at the 2000-level chosen from 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413; 6 credit hours from Social/Cultural Anthropology offerings at the 4000-level, of which one must be 4410 or 4412; the remaining 18 credit hours are to be chosen from any of the Anthropology or Sociology/Anthropology (S/A) 3000- or 4000-level offerings. Students should note that the completion of Anthropology 1031 and one 2000-level Anthropology course is a prerequisite for all Anthropology 3000-level courses; and that two Anthropology courses at the 2000-level or above are prerequisites for all Anthropology 4000-level courses.
     b. Archaeology/Physical Anthropology. Students wishing to concentrate in this option must take Archaeology 1030 and Anthropology 1031, Archaeology 2430 and 2480; 12 credit hours in Archaeology courses at the 3000-level; 9 credit hours in Archaeology courses at the 4000-level which must include Archaeology 4182 and 4411; 6 additional credit hours in Archaeology courses at the 3000 or 4000 level. Students are encouraged to take appropriate course offerings in Anthropology. Students should note that Archaeology 2430 is a prerequisite for all 3000 and 4000 level courses in Physical Anthropology and that Archaeology 2480 is a prerequisite for all 3000 and 4000 level courses in Archaeology.
     c. Interdisciplinary (S/A) option. Students wishing to concentrate in this option must take at least 24 credit hours in S/A courses, plus a minimum of 12 credit hours in courses selected from the offerings of the Anthropology and Archaeology Department or the Sociology Department or both. Specific requirements are detailed under the Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program.

3. Minor Options
   - A minor in Anthropology or Archaeology or Sociology/Anthropology may be achieved by completing any one of three sets of courses:
     a. Social and Cultural Anthropology: 1030, 1031; 6 credit hours in courses at the 2000 level chosen from 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413; and 12 credit hours chosen from Anthropology and Archaeology offerings at the 3000 level or above, including at least 3 credit hours in a course at the 4000 level.
b. Anthropology and Physical Anthropology: 1030, 1031; 2430 and 2480; 3 credit hours in an Anthropology/Physical Anthropology course at the 4000 level; and 12 credit hours in other Anthropology and Archaeology courses, at least 9 credit hours of which shall be from among Anthropology/Physical Anthropology offerings.

c. Sociology/Anthropology ("S/A"): see the regulations listed under the Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program.

Note: Students completing a major or minor in Anthropology, Archaeology or Sociology cannot elect to major or minor in the S/A program. In addition, students completing a major or minor in one program in the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology cannot elect to complete a second major or minor in this Department.

7.2.2 Honours Degree

1. Admission: As per existing regulations.
2. Students intending an Honours program are required to complete 60 credit hours following the requirements in Major Options above, but in addition must include 4995-Honours Essay, or 4996-Comprehensive Examination. Students must also meet requirements of General Regulations for Honours Degrees, and Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

7.2.3 Regulations for Joint Honours, Anthropology or Archaeology and Another Major Subject

1. Candidates must fulfil the requirements of the General Regulations for Honours Degrees.
2. Candidates must complete:
   a. Anthropology 1030 and Anthropology 1031;
   b. Six credit hours in courses chosen from Anthropology 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413, Archaeology 2430 and 2480;
   c. Fifteen credit hours in Anthropology or Archaeology courses at the 3000 level, chosen in consultation with a supervisor;
   d. Fifteen credit hours in Anthropology or Archaeology courses at the 4000 level, with a grade of "B" or better. These must include 4410 and one of 4000, 4411 and 4412.

7.2.4 Course Descriptions - Anthropology

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Students should note that credit may not be obtained for an Anthropology course if, prior to 2007, the student received credit for that course when it was designated as an Anthropology course.

S/A course descriptions may be found in this Calendar under the Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program.

Anthropology courses are designated by ANTH.

1031 Introduction to Social and Cultural Anthropology: is a general introduction to Anthropology emphasizing different forms of society and culture. Cultures within and outside the Western tradition will be examined, ranging from small-scale to more complex pre-industrial societies. Credit may not be obtained for both ANTH 1031 and the former ANTH 1000 or 2000.

2200 Communities (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program)

2240 Canadian Society and Culture (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program)

2260 War and Aggression (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program)

2270 Families (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program)

2280 The City (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program)

2300 Newfoundland Folklore (same as Folklore 2300)

2350 Religious Institutions (S/A) (see Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program) Cross-listed with Religious Studies 2350

2410 Classics in Social and Cultural Anthropology is an examination of selected milestone monographs, ground-breaking studies for subdisciplinary specialties, and major syntheses. This course qualifies as a Research/ Writing course.

2411 Anthropologists in the Field is based on the fact that anthropologists base many of their ideas on experiences they have while living in other cultures. This course examines the human relationships through which anthropologists explore cultures and how in turn these relationships affect the anthropologists, and the development of their discipline. This course qualifies as a Research/Writing course.

2412 Threatened Peoples is an examination of key social and cultural factors involved in the global extinction of small-scale societies; the intrusive influences that jeopardize small-scale societies, such as disease, economic and military incursion; the role of international non-governmental agencies in aid of threatened peoples; and the role of the anthropologist in this human crisis.

2413 Modern World Cultures is an examination of significant studies of 20th century populations and their implications for understanding the human condition.

2414 Regional Studies: North American Indians and Inuit is a survey course dealing with the various tribal and band societies of North America, with special emphasis on the northern portion. The student will be introduced to the cultural history and language distribution of the area along with an examination of the major regional divisions. Several societies will be studied in more detail as case studies in the ethnographic analysis of specific cultural situations. The course will also deal with the effect on these cultures, through the historic period, of European trade, conquest, and settlement, again with special emphasis on the Canadian region.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for 2414 and the former 3281.

2500 Folk Literature (same as Folklore 2500)

3050 Ecology and Culture - inactive course.

3053 Anthropology of Religion - inactive course.

3054 Play and Culture is an examination of the phenomenon of play in a variety of human cultures, and in such forms of activity as religion, politics, festival, speech, performance, and artistic creation. Principal themes are the functional role of play in social relations, and the meaningful role of play in social thought.

3058 Urban Anthropology is an examination of anthropological studies of urban populations and population segments, such as ethnic groups and categories, occupations, neighbourhoods, etc.

3060 The Idea of Culture - inactive course.

3061 Culture and Social Inequality examines the role of culture in mediating different forms of social inequality, exploring the idea that culture is not only a way of life but also a way of managing power between unequals, from individuals to social classes. Readings in the course concentrate on cultural techniques of social control.

3062 Anthropology in Social Policy-making - inactive course.

3063 Ethnicity and Culture - inactive course.

3064 Anthropology and the Study of Social Problems - inactive course.

3082 Bandits, Rebels, and Revolutions examines types of social conflict specific to different kinds of class-based society, including social banditry, primitive rebellions, and peasant revolts. More generally, social conflict is used to explore the variety of ways that pre-industrial societies have been made part of the modern world economy.
3083 Cultural Crises and the Environment is an examination of social and cultural aspects of dilemmas in the use of renewable and non-renewable resources such as animals, arable land, forests, fisheries, air, water, fossil fuel, and nuclear energy. Special attention to Third World and marginal populations.

7.2.5 Course Descriptions - Archaeology/Physical Anthropology

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Students should note that credit may not be obtained for an Archaeology course if, prior to 2007, the student received credit for that course when it was designated as an Anthropology course.

Archaeology courses are designated by ARCH.

1030 Introduction to Archaeology and Physical Anthropology is a broad overview of Archaeology and Physical Anthropology introducing the concepts of human biological and cultural evolution and the methods and techniques by which these are investigated. The course is designed to provide the basis for further study in the disciplines.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both ARCH 1030 and the former Anthropology 1000 or 2000.

2430 Physical Anthropology: The Human Animal investigates the human animal as it is and as we developed through time. Students will discover how the study of fossil remains, living and extinct primates, and the applications of the principles of genetics, adaptation and variation of human evolution help to provide an understanding of how biology and culture have interacted to produce modern humans.
Prerequisite: ARCH 1030.

2480 Archaeology: Discovering our Past is an introduction to archaeological techniques, methodology and theory. Lectures cover the development of the discipline, techniques of survey and excavation, methods of analysis and the interpretation of prehistory.
Prerequisite: ARCH 1030.

2481 Ancient Civilizations of the Americas is a survey course introducing the archaeology and ethnohistory of various pre-contact civilizations of North, Central and South America. Archeological Evidence will be used to explore the rise of civilizations in the Americas and particular civilizations will be examined and compared based on ideology, economy and administration.
Prerequisite/Co-requisite: ARCH 1030

2490 Human Origins - inactive course.

2491 Popular Archaeology is a course on how human history is reconstructed from archaeological remains. Methods and techniques of archaeology are illustrated through discussion of archaeological research currently in progress, both in Newfoundland and Labrador and elsewhere in the world.

Note: This course may not be used for credit toward a major or minor concentration in Anthropology/Physical Anthropology.

2492 Forensic Anthropology is an examination of procedures and techniques used by physical anthropologists and archaeologists to obtain data from skeletal remains. Law enforcement and medical authorities evidence concerning the identification of human remains and the cause, time and manner of death.

3020 What is Human? discusses how humans have long considered themselves unique. Through readings, discussions and presentations, this seminar will explore exactly how distinctive humans are in their physical, behavioral, and intellectual traits and whether there is, in fact, something which sets us apart from all other creatures.

3040 The Human Skeleton reflects genetic, environmental and cultural influence. This course, emphasizing identification of individual bones in the skeleton, techniques for obtaining size and shape differences in individual bones and the entire skeleton, estimation of group numbers and death rates, and diagnosis of disease and other abnormal conditions, provides a means of assessing all of these influences on past human populations.

3290 Newfoundland and Labrador Prehistory is a seminar and reading course on the culture history of Newfoundland and Labrador from about 9,000 years ago until the time of European settlement. Particular attention will be paid to the interactions among the several ethnic and cultural groups upon whose history this course focusses.

3500 Prehistory of Africa, Asia and Europe I examines the early stages of cultural evolution in the Old World. Topics include: earliest human origins in Africa; the dispersal of humans throughout the Old World; the appearance of modern-type humans during the last ice age.

3505 Prehistory of Africa, Asia and Europe II is a survey of the more recent stages of human cultural evolution in the Old World. Topics include: comparisons of modern-type hunter-gatherers of the last ice age; the domestication of plants and animals in early farming communities.
Prerequisites: ARCH 2480 and ARCH 3500.

3515 Prehistory of Mesoamerica (same as History 3515) discusses the Spanish explorers arriving in Mesoamerica i.e., Mexico and Guatemala of today, and how they discovered rich and complex civilizations that had developed almost entirely of European or Asian influence. This course traces the development of Mesoamerican civilizations from their known origins to the point at which growth was terminated by Spanish intervention.

3520 The Early Ethnohistory of North America’s Native People (same as History 3520) examines the North American native response to early European contact and initial settlement. Particular attention will be paid to cultural change resulting from the adoption of European goods, participation in the fur trade, the introduction of European disease, and the adaptation to a permanent European presence.

3525 The Later Ethnohistory of North America’s Native People (same as History 3525) examines Indian and Inuit cultural history of the 18th and 19th centuries, including the fur trade, resistance and accommodation to European expansion, the movement of native peoples, demographic changes, and population shifts. Special emphasis will be placed on the ethnohistory of the native peoples of what is now Canada and northern United States.

3561 Ethnoarchaeology - inactive course.

3580 Bronze Age Archaeology of the Eastern Mediterranean - inactive course.

3582 Historical Archaeology (same as History 3530) will introduce students to historical archaeology, with special reference to the North Atlantic. Archaeology from 1000 to 1900 AD. The archaeology of specific historic sites including Newfoundland sites, will be examined in order to raise theoretical issues and to give practical examples of methodology. Students will be introduced to the methodological challenges of palaeography, analysis of historic maps, survey, excavation and analysis of complex sites, data interpretation, and the development of Mesoamerican civilizations from their known origins to the time of European settlement.

3584 Historical Anthropology (same as Anthropology 3584 and History 3535) will explore selected issues in historical anthropology, with special reference to the Mediterranean and North Atlantic worlds. Students will read specific case studies in order to explore the theoretical issues raised by the analyst. Students will understand past cultures in order to give practical examples of methodology. Students will be introduced to the textual analysis of myth and legal records and to the interpretation of images and to the analysis of patterns in material culture. The course will consider specific current interpretive issues, particularly the rise of individualism, the consumer revolution and the cultural construction of gender.

3585-3586 Practicum in Archaeology offers students practical introductions to archaeological fieldwork (3585) and laboratory techniques (3586). These courses provide instruction and experience in site mapping, sampling strategies, the recovery and conservation of archaeological materials (i.e., artifacts and ecofacts) and the cleaning, cataloging and cultural interpretation of artifacts and features. The students will also receive an introduction to archaeological research concerning prehistoric and/or historic cultures of a selected region.

3587 Archaeological Conservation: Method and Theory is an introduction to principles and techniques for the preservation of archaeological materials, with an emphasis on conservation in the field.
Prerequisite: ARCH 2480 or equivalent.

3588 Arctic Prehistory will have lectures and discussion cover cultural developments in the Canadian Arctic, Greenland, and Alaska from the time of initial human occupation to the historic period, with particular emphasis on the eastern Canadian Arctic. Culture history is presented in the context of theoretical and methodological issues and emphasis is placed on cultural interpretations to changing environments.

3589 Art, Architecture and Medieval Life (same as Medieval Studies 3001, History 3020, Folklore 3001) is an examination of the development of the visual and architectural culture and of the ways in which they mirror various aspects of life in the Middle Ages. This course will include a discussion of art and architecture in the countryside, in the town, in the castle, in the cathedral and in the cloister.
Note: It is recommended, but not obligatory, that students should have successfully completed one of the following courses: ARCH 2480, Folklore 1000 or 2000, History 2320/Medieval Studies 2001, History 2330/Medieval Studies 2002, Medieval Studies 2000.

3590 Hunter-Gatherer Studies (same as Anthropology 3590) examines past and present hunting and gathering societies from various areas of the world, both from an ethnographic and an archaeological perspective.
Prerequisites: ARCH1030 and ARCH 1031.

3591 Collections Management (same as Folklore 3591) will introduce students to the problems of collections storage with respect to both historical and recent artifacts and the physical and legal constraints governing materials and artifact access. Students will become familiar with the materials encountered in archaeological and ethnographic collections. The storage of specific historic and prehistoric collections from Newfoundland and Labrador will be examined with the purpose of providing practical examples of methodology.

Prerequisite: ARCH 2480 or equivalent.

3710 Museums and Historic Sites (same as Folklore 3700) is an introduction to museums and historic sites, their work, and their role in societies past and present. Various types of museums and historic sites will be discussed using local, national and international examples, looking at their collections and exhibitions policies. Practical issues will also be discussed; these include museum exhibit display techniques, public programming, virtual museums, and the museum profession.

3800 Fieldwork in Vernacular Architecture: Drawings and Photography
3850 Material Culture (see Folklore 3850).
3860 Vernacular Architecture (see Folklore 3860 and History 3860).

4015 Cultural Resource Management (same as Folklore 4015 and Geography 4015) is a study of cultural resource management: the definition and recognition of cultural resources, the application of policy in managing cultural resources, and the identification and consideration of contemporary issues in cultural resource management.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of seminar per week.

4041 Palaeopathology looks at disease, diet, genetics, accidents and maternal health factors as contributors to variations in the human skeleton. In this course these factors are diagnosed from bones, and aspects of the culture, health, economy and environment of the skeletal individuals are examined.
Prerequisites: ARCH 2430 and ARCH 3040.

4042 Recent Developments in the Study of Human Evolution - inactive course.

4050-4059 Special Projects in Physical Anthropology includes directed reading, seminars and lab analysis of various skeletal collections. Topics to be covered may include primate behaviour, forensic anthropology, and various aspects of human evolution.

4150 Environmental Change and Quaternary Geography (same as Geography 4150) examines methods of reconstructing Quaternary environments, effects of Quaternary environmental changes on landform, with special reference to North America, development and characteristics of glacial and non-glacial climates.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: Geography 3110, 3150 or permission of Head of Department.

4151 Paleoethnobotany is a combined directed readings/laboratory course on paleoethnobotany. Paleoethnobotany concerns the recovery and analysis of archaeological plant remains as a basis for understanding human and plant interactions in the archaeological record. This course focuses on recent palaeobotanical research in northeastern North America.
Prerequisites: ARCH 2480 and the permission of the instructor.

4160-4169 Special Projects in Archaeology are courses which may be offered from time to time as demand arises. They may involve readings, seminars and actual analysis of archaeological collections on, for example: The Neolithic of Western Asia; The Rise of Civilization in Western Asia; Scandinavian Prehistory; Palaeoethnobotany; and Technology and Material Culture.
Prerequisite: ARCH 2480.

4170 Settlement and Subsistence Studies in Archaeology - inactive course.

4182 History of Archaeology is an intensive study of the emergence and maturation of archaeology as a discipline within the social sciences, particularly in Western Europe and North America, during the 19th and 20th centuries.

4190-4199 Selected Topics in Archaeology and Prehistory is a seminar course focussing on recent theoretical and methodological developments in archaeological research.
Prerequisite: ARCH 2480 or equivalent.

4411 Theory and Method in Archaeology and Prehistory is a seminar course focussing on recent theoretical and methodological developments in archaeological research.
Prerequisite: ARCH 2480 and ARCH 4182.

4500 Special Topic in Historical Archaeology is a consideration of current developments in methods, techniques, and theory in Historical Archaeology.
Prerequisite: ARCH 2480 or permission of instructor.

4995 Honours Essay is required as part of the Honours program.

4. The normal departmental prerequisites are applicable, but Department Heads may waive course prerequisites in the Canadian Studies area for Canadian Studies Majors when alternate preparation can be demonstrated.

7.4.1 Course Descriptions

Canadian Studies courses are designated by CNST.

4000 Interdisciplinary Seminar in Canadian Studies will expose students to the interdisciplinary approach to the study of Canada through a series of lectures and discussions conducted by members of departments represented on the Canadian Studies Major Program Co-ordinating Committee and
7.5 Classics

7.5.1 Programs and Regulations
Programs of the Department of Classics are designed to acquaint students with the ancient Greek and Roman cultures from which Western Civilization has developed. The Department endeavours to instruct with and utilize the full range of evidence available, including texts in Greek and Latin as well as material culture. Furthermore, it is understood that a degree of access can often be achieved by studying antiquity through translated sources. The Department therefore is committed to offering a wide range of courses and programs designed to explore the many aspects of the discipline.

7.5.2 General Degree

7.5.2.1 Major in Classics
Candidates for a Major in Classics are advised to choose their program in consultation with the Department. The major program consists of a minimum of 39 credit hours in Classics courses in accordance with the following:

A selection of films will be studied and extensive reference will be made to the ancient evidence which informs them. The ancient world's impact on modern Western society will be considered together with the film industry's recasting of the ancient world in response to modern social and historical developments.

3710-3729 Special Topics in Classics (available only as part of the Harlow campus semester)

4000 Seminar in Greek History and Society - inactive course.

4010 Seminar in Roman History and Society is a seminar in Roman History and Society.

4020 Seminar in Greek Literature and Culture is a seminar in Greek Literature and Culture.

4030 Seminar in Roman Literature and Culture is a seminar in Roman Literature and Culture.

4100-4109 Special Topics in Greek and Roman Studies will have topics announced by the Department and may include field studies in topography, Greek and Roman art and architecture, archaeology, and related areas, to be held in the Mediterranean and other regions of Greco-Roman influence. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.

4999 Honours Essay is a requirement of the Honours program.

7.6 Computer Science

For Departmental Regulations and Course Descriptions, see Faculty of Science section of the Calendar.

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department of Computer Science:

1. Major in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
2. Honours in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
3. Honours in Computer Science (Software Engineering) (B.Sc. only)
4. Computer Internship Option (CIIO) (B.Sc. and B.Sc. Honours only)
5. Minor in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
6. Applied Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
7. Computer Science/Statistics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
8. Computer Science/Pure Mathematics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
9. Computer Science/Geography Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
10. Computer Science/Physics Joint Major
11. Computer Science/Pure Mathematics Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
12. Computer Science/Statistics Joint Honours
13. Computer Science/Geography Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
14. Computer Science/Physics Joint Honours
15. Joint Degree of Bachelor of Science with a Major in Computer Science and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)
16. Computer Science/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. Only)
7.7 Drama and Music

1. a. This is an Interdisciplinary Major Program in Drama and Music offered to candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree, under paragraph 3. b. of the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts.
   b. Since the program is interdisciplinary, it is administered by an interdepartmental committee (The Drama and Music Co-ordinating Committee). The Program Supervisor will advise students upon the selection of courses in the Major.

2. To qualify as a Major in Drama and Music, students must complete a minimum of 54 credit hours as follows:
   a. Department of English-Drama Courses
      Students must complete at least 27 credit hours in English, as follows:
      i. Six credit hours in English at the 1000 level, preferably including 1102
      ii. 2002, 3350, 3351, 4400, 4401
      iii. Three additional credit hours in English at the 2000 level
      iv. Three credit hours in courses chosen from 3021, 3022, 3156, 3171, 3181, 3200, 3201, 3260, 3302, 4302.
   b. School of Music - Music Courses
      i. Students must complete at least 27 credit hours in Music, as follows:
         Music 1107, 1108, 1117, 1118, 1127 or 1137, and 1128 or 1138
         Music 2107 and 2117
         Music 2311
         Music 2103 or Music 3007
         Two credit hours of conducted ensemble.
      ii. Further courses in music theory and/or music history may be chosen as Arts electives.
      iii. Course prerequisites stipulated in the course descriptions must be met. In particular, note the prerequisites for Music 1107 and 1127.
      iv. Most music courses are not offered every semester, and some are offered only in alternate years.

7.8 Economics

The following programs are available in the Department:
1. Major in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)
2. Honours in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)
3. Honours in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.)
4. Minor in Economics
5. Joint Programs (B.Sc. Only)
6. Joint Program (Co-operative) (B.Sc. Only)
7. Major in Economics (Co-operative) (B.A. or B.Sc.)

7.8.1 Admission Regulations (B.Sc.)

Students are normally admitted to the B.Sc. Program upon successful completion of 30 credit hours which must include:
1. Six credit hours in English courses
2. Six credit hours in Mathematics courses

7.8.2 Major in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)

1. Students may Major in Economics as part of either a B.A. or a B.Sc program. See the General Regulations for the B.A. and B.Sc. Degrees as appropriate.
2. Economics 2010 and 2020 are prerequisites for all other Economics courses except Economics 2070.
3. Economics 2550, 3000 and 3010 are prerequisites for all 4000-level courses.
4. Candidates shall consult with the Head of the Department or delegate when choosing courses for a Major in Economics.
5. Mathematics 1000 or its equivalent is the prerequisite for Economics 3000, 3010, and 3550.
6. B.A. candidates who undertake a Major in Economics shall complete Statistics 2500 and at least 39 credit hours in courses in Economics of which:
   a. 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3001, 3010 and 3550 are obligatory.
   b. Eighteen credit hours shall be chosen from among the various Economics courses in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, and will include at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 4000-level.
   c. Candidates may, with the approval of the Head of the Department or delegate, substitute Statistics 2510 for Statistics 2500.
7. B.A. candidates majoring in Economics shall complete a minor of 24 credit hours in one other approved subject, or a second Major in accordance with General Regulations. It is recommended that the Minor or second Major be chosen from the following subjects: Business, Mathematics, Political Science, Statistics, Computer Science, History, Geography, Philosophy, Sociology, or Anthropology.
8. B.Sc. candidates who undertake a Major in Economics shall complete at least 42 credit hours in courses in Economics of which:
   a. 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3001, and 3010 are obligatory
   b. Six credit hours shall be chosen from either 3550 and 3551, OR 4550 and 4551
   c. Eighteen credit hours shall be chosen from among the various Economics courses in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, and will include at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 4000-level.
9. B.Sc. candidates must complete credits from other Science disciplines as follows:
   a. Mathematics 1000, 1001, and 2050
   b. Statistics 2510, or its equivalent, and an additional 3 credit hours of Statistics
7.8.3 Honours in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)

1. See the General Regulations for the B.A. and B.Sc. (Honours) Degrees.
2. All candidates shall consult with the Head of the Department or delegate when choosing courses for an Honours program.
3. All candidates shall complete all non-Economics courses required of B.A. or B.Sc. Majors, and at least 60 credit hours in courses in Economics, of which 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3001, 3011, 3550, 3551, 4550 and 4551 shall be chosen.
4. Twenty-four credit hours in electives in Economics shall be chosen in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, including at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 4000-level. In addition, all Economics Honours candidates are required to write an essay.

7.8.4 Minor in Economics

1. Economics 2010, 2020, 3000, and 3010 are obligatory.
2. Twelve credit hours in Economics electives shall be chosen in consultation with the Head of the Department or Delegate.
3. Course prerequisites stipulated in the General Degree regulations and in the course descriptions shall apply to a Minor in Economics.

7.8.5 Joint Programs

Programs for Joint Majors in Economics and Computer Science, Pure Mathematics, Applied Mathematics or Statistics, and a Joint Major in Statistics and Economics (Co-operative) are found under the heading Joint Programs in the entry for the Faculty of Science.

Students who wish to take a Joint Major in Economics and Computer Science, Mathematics or Statistics must arrange their program in consultation with the heads of the respective departments and comply with the General Regulations for the Majors Degrees.

7.8.6 Major in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.)

Economics Co-operative Education Option (ECEO)

This Economics Program is available to full-time Economics majors (B.A. and B.Sc.) only.

The ECEO provides an excellent mutual opportunity for students and employers. Qualified students will obtain rewarding employment experience in fields related to Economics for several months of continuous duration. Students will learn valuable practical skills in an employment situation during their course of study. Furthermore, paid employment will help to defray the cost of their education. The timing of the Work Terms and the structure of the ECEO generally are such that employers stand to gain from the acquired employable skills of economists in training. The objectives of the Work Term component of the ECEO are embodied in the Work Term descriptions below. The descriptions serve to guide the student and the employer toward achieving these objectives.

1. Admission Requirements
   a. Admission is competitive and selective. Therefore, prospective students are encouraged to consider an alternate degree program in the event that they are not accepted into the Co-operative program.
   b. Applicants should note that it is possible to enter Term 1 only in the Fall semester commencing in September of each academic year. Application forms are available in the Department of Economics. The deadline for applications for admission to Term 1 is March 1.
   c. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission is overall academic achievement. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.
   d. To be eligible for admission to Term 1 an applicant must have successfully completed a minimum of 30 credit hours with an overall average of at least 65% as follows: All applicants must have completed Economics 2010 and 2020; at least 6 credit hours in English*; Mathematics 1000; and 15 credit hours chosen from courses in the Faculties of Arts or Science. B.Sc. applicants must have completed Mathematics 1001.

   "It is recommended that students complete English 1110 as one of these English courses.

   It is also advised that B.A. students choose courses which can satisfy the requirements for the Core Program (see Arts Degree Regulations for these requirements), including courses in a second language.

   e. Students may apply for admission to Advanced Standing.
   f. Transfer students from other universities will be placed in that term of the program judged to be appropriate considering equivalent credits, as determined by the Department.

2. Program of Study
   a. Promotion from each of Terms 1 through 6 requires a passing grade in all specified required courses and an overall average of at least 60% in all courses including electives. A student who fails a required course or fails to maintain the overall average of 60% will not be promoted to the next term and will be required to withdraw from the program. The student in question may apply for readmission in a subsequent year after passing the specified required course(s) previously failed, or re-establishing the 60% average.
   b. In addition to the 30 credit hours required for admission, students are required to complete the six academic terms in the ECEO program for a total of 120 credit hours. Students must complete three Work Terms which follow Academic Terms 2, 4, and 5.
   c. Courses shall normally be taken in academic terms or “blocks” in the sequenced course load and order as set out in the table Major in Economics (Co-operative Option) B.A. Academic Course Program or in the table Major in Economics (Co-operative Option) B.Sc. Academic Course Program. Unspecified credits may be used to fulfill elective requirements only.

   d. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) Classification of Students notwithstanding, students do not require special permission to register for courses while on work terms if the courses are in addition to the prescribed program.

3. Work Term Placement
   a. General management of the work terms in the ECEO is the responsibility of the Co-operative Education Services Centre (CESC). It is responsible for assisting potential employers to become involved in the program, organizing competitions for Work Term employment, arranging student-employer interviews and facilities, data base management, and for the continual development of employment opportunities. The program co-ordinator (hereafter referred to as co-ordinator) is an Academic Staff member who will work with the department to counsel students, visit students on their work assignments and evaluate the work term.

b. Work placement is not guaranteed but every effort is made to ensure that appropriate employment is made available. In the case of students who are required to withdraw from the program, the CES has no responsibility for placement until they have been re-admitted to the program.

c. A student who applies for admission to the co-op program gives permission to the University to provide a copy of the applicant’s resume, university transcript and work term evaluations to potential employers.

d. A student who has been accepted to the ECEO program may obtain his/her own work term placement outside the competition. Such employment positions must be confirmed by the employer, and must be approved by the co-ordinator.

e. Students are expected to submit, within a month from starting a Work Term, a plan of the intended work term.

f. Salaries paid to co-operative students are determined by employers based on their internal wage structures, and tend to increase as the student progresses through the program and assumes more responsibility. However, students should not expect the income from work terms to make them completely self-supporting.

4. Registration and Evaluation of Performance

b. Student performance evaluations are to be completed by the employer and returned to the co-ordinator. The Work Term evaluations shall consist of two components:

i. On-the-job Student Performance:
   - Job performance shall be assessed by the co-ordinator in consultation with the department using information gathered during the Work Term and input from the employer towards the end of the Work Term. Formal written documentation from the employer shall be sought. Evaluation of the job performance will result in one of the following classifications: OUTSTANDING, ABOVE EXPECTATIONS, SATISFACTORY, MARGINAL PASS, FAIL.

ii. The Work Report:
   - Students are required to submit a Work Term report to the co-ordinator on the first day of final exams.
   - Work Term reports shall be evaluated by a faculty member and the co-ordinator.
   - If an employer designates a report to be of a confidential nature, both employer and the co-ordinator must agree as to the methods to protect the confidentiality of such a report before the report may be accepted for evaluation.
   - Reports must contain original work related to the Work Term placement. The topic must relate to the work experience and will be chosen by the student in consultation with the employer. The topic must be approved by the co-ordinator or a faculty member of the Department of Economics.

Evaluation of the work term will result in one of the following classifications: OUTSTANDING, ABOVE EXPECTATIONS, SATISFACTORY, MARGINAL PASS, FAIL.

The evaluation of the job performance and the work term report are recorded separately on the transcript. Overall evaluation of the work term will result in one of the following final grades being awarded:

- Pass with Distinction: Indicates OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE in both the work report and the job performance.
- Pass: Indicates that PERFORMANCE MEETS EXPECTATIONS in both the work report and the job performance.
- Fail: Indicates FAILING PERFORMANCE in the work report or the job performance.

For promotion from the Work Term, a student must obtain at least a Pass. Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) of the University. The grades awarded for each work term will be noted on the transcript of the student.

c. If a student fails to achieve the Work Term standards specified above the student will be required to withdraw from the program. Such a student may reapply to the program after a lapse of two semesters, at which time the student will be required to repeat the Work Term with satisfactory performance before being admitted to any further academic term in the Faculty. A given work term may be repeated only once, and not more than two work terms may be repeated in the entire program.

d. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission to the program not later than the deadline date specified in Clause b. of the Admission section 1. above.

e. A student who withdraws from a Work Term without acceptable cause subsequent to a job placement will be required to withdraw permanently from the Co-operative education program. Students who drop a Work Term without prior approval from both the co-ordinator and the Head of the Department of Economics, or who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, or conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their discharge from the job will normally be awarded a failed grade for the Work Term in question. Permission to drop a Work Term does not constitute a waiver of degree requirements, and students who have obtained such permission must complete an approved Work Term in lieu of the one dropped.

7.8.7 Honours in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.)

1. Admission Requirements

   See Major in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.) Economics Co-operative Education Option (ECEO) and the General Regulations for the B.A. and B.Sc. (Honours) Degrees.

2. Program of Study

   a. See the General Regulations for the B.A. and B.Sc. (Honours) Degrees.

   b. All candidates shall consult with the Head of the Department or delegate when choosing courses for an Honours program.

   c. All candidates shall complete all non-Economics courses required of B.A. or B.Sc. Majors, and at least 60 credit hours in Economics, of which 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3001, 3010, 3011, 3550, 3551, 4120, 4550 and 4551 shall be chosen.

   d. Twenty-one credit hours in electives in Economics shall be chosen in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, including at least 6 credit hours in courses at the 4000-level. In addition, all Economics Honours candidates are required to write an essay.

   e. Promotion from each of Terms 1 through 6 requires a grade of 70% in all specified required courses and an overall average of at least 70% in all courses including electives. A student who fails a required course or fails to maintain an overall average of 70% will not be promoted to the next term and will be required to withdraw from the program. The student in question may be eligible from readmission in the subsequent year after passing the specified required course(s) previously failed, or re-establishing the 70% average. See also UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Regulations for the Honours Degree.

f. In addition to the 30 credit hours required for admission, students are required to complete the six academic terms in the ECEO program for a total of 120 credit hours. Students must complete three Work Terms, which follow Academic Terms 2, 4 and 5.

g. Courses shall normally be taken in academic terms or "blocks" in the sequenced course load and order set out in the table Honours in Economics (Co-operative Option) B.A. Academic Course Program or in the table Honours in Economics (Co-operative Option) B.Sc. Academic Course Program. Unspecified credits may be used to fulfill elective requirements only.

h. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate). Classification of Students notwithstanding, students do not require special permission to register for courses while on work terms if the courses are in addition to the prescribed program.

3. Work Term Placement
See Major in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.) Economics Co-operative Education Option (ECEO).

4. Registration and Evaluation of Performance
See Major in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.) Economics Co-operative Education Option (ECEO).

Notes: 1. Courses specified for admission to and completion of the ECEO only partially satisfy the Core Requirements for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Additional Core Requirements are 6 credit hours in the same second language, 3 credit hours in a Social Science course (other than Economics). 12 credit hours in Humanities courses, as well as 6 credit hours in research/writing courses (which may be met within the major and minor programs and/or in courses completed for the Social Science and Humanities requirements). These additional requirements should be completed before and following admission to Term 1 as part of the Minor program and elective components of the degree. Students are reminded that careful planning is necessary to ensure that all Core and minor requirements are satisfied.

2. A minor is required for a B.A. degree in Economics.

Notes:
1. Elective courses should be chosen with reference to the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science, since courses specified for admission to and completion of the ECEO only partially satisfy these regulations. In particular note that (i) at least 78 credit hours (26 courses) in Science subjects are required and that (ii) at least 3 credit hours in an additional Science subject other than Mathematics/Statistics, Economics and Computer Science must be included in these Science courses.
2. The Statistics and Computer Science elective courses may both be taken in either Term 4 or 5.

Notes:
1. Another 1000-level Computer Science course may be substituted for Computer Science 1700 with the approval of the Department Head.
2. Elective courses should be chosen with reference to the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, since courses specified for admission to and completion of the ECEO only partially satisfy these regulations. In particular note that (i) at least 90 credit hours in Science subjects are required and that (ii) at least three credit hours in an additional Science subject other than Mathematics/Statistics, Economics, and Computer Science must be included in these Science courses.
3. Twenty-one credit hours in electives in Economics shall be chosen in consultation with the Head of Department or delegate, including at least 6 credit hours in courses at the 4000-level. In addition, all Economics Honours candidates are required to write an essay.
4. The Statistics and Computer Science elective courses may both be taken in either Term 4 or 5.

7.8.8 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Economics 2010 and 2020 are prerequisites for all advanced courses in Economics. Either course may be taken for semester credit by those intending to complete only 3 credit hours in Economics.

Economics courses are designated by ECON.

2015 Introduction to Microeconomics II - inactive course.

2020 Introduction to Macroeconomics covers national income accounting, aggregate income analysis, money, banking and foreign trade.

2070 The Structure and Problems of the Newfoundland Economy - inactive course.

2550 Economic Statistics and Data Analysis is an analysis of economic statistics and the use of economic data. A course designed to introduce students to the task of economic data collection, description, analysis and interpretation. Emphasis will be on interpretation and analysis of data using computer software programs.

Prequisite: Statistics 2500 or equivalent.

3000 Intermediate Micro Theory I is the basic microeconomic theory course; consumer demand, indifference curve analysis, theory of production and cost, factor substitution, and the theory of the firm under perfect competition and monopoly.

3001 Intermediate Micro Theory II is a continuation of basic microeconomic theory; the theory of imperfect competition, theory of factor pricing under various market structures, general equilibrium and welfare economics.

Prequisite: ECON 3000.

3010 Intermediate Macro Theory I is aggregate analysis including consumer, investment, government and international sectors, the role of money, determinants of aggregate supply, and the effects of autonomous behavioural changes and fiscal and monetary policies on unemployment, price levels and the balance of payments.

3011 Intermediate Macro Theory II is a consideration of modern theories of macroeconomics, dynamics, empirical evidence and simulation of the national economy. Emphasis on the availability and effectiveness of government policy instruments.

Prequisite: ECON 3010.

3030 International Economics - Issues and Problems in a Canadian Context is an intermediate course in international economics. The course examines issues of comparative advantage, the structure and policy issues of the Canadian economy, and the institutional aspects of international commerce.

3070 The Structure and Problems of the Newfoundland Economy - inactive course.

3080 Natural Resource and Environmental Economics is an introduction to environmental economics, covering the analysis of economic analysis to renewable and nonrenewable natural resource industries such as the fishery, forestry, and mining. Emphasis is given to the criteria for optimal resource use and the corresponding implications for public policy. Issues of environmental resource management and pollution control will also be covered.

3140 Economic Analysis in Health Care - inactive course.

3150 Money and Banking examines the operation of the money and banking systems, with special emphasis on Canadian problems. Monetary theory will be treated in relation to income theory and foreign trade.

4551 Econometrics II covers further problems in econometric theory and technique: multicollinearity, autocorrelation, nonlinear estimation, and the identification and estimation of systems of equations. Published empirical research will be discussed and each student will be expected to perform an original empirical study. Prerequisite: ECON 4550.

4999 Honours Essay is required as part of the Honours program.

7.8.8.1 Work Term Descriptions

The following Work Terms are a requirement of the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science Co-operative Education Option only.

299W Work Term I follows the successful completion of Academic Term 2. For most students, it represents their first work experience in a professional environment and as such represents their first opportunity to evaluate their choice of pursuing a career in Economics. Students are expected to learn, develop and practice the high standards of behaviour and performance normally expected in the work environment. (A detailed description of each job is normally posted during the job competition.)

As one component of the Work Term, the student is required to complete a work report. The work report, as a minimum requirement should:

1. include a description of the project including the objectives, goals and duties of the student. It should also include a history of student's activities and accomplishments with the employer.

2. analyse an issue/problem related to the student's work environment.

3. demonstrate an understanding of the structure of a professional report, and show reasonable competence in written communication and presentation skills. (Students should consult the evaluation form provided in the placement package.)

Late reports will not be graded unless prior permission for a late report has been given by the co-ordinator.

Note: Seminars on professional development, conducted by the CESC, are presented during Academic Term 2 to introduce and prepare the student for participation in the subsequent work terms. Topics may include, among others, work term evaluation, work report writing, career planning, employment seeking skills, resume preparation, self-employment ethics and professional concepts, behavioral requirements in the work place, assertiveness in the work place and industrial safety.

399W Work Term II follows the successful completion of Academic Term 4. Students are expected to further develop and expand their knowledge and work-related skills and should be able to accept increased responsibility and challenge. In addition, students are expected to demonstrate an ability to deal with increasingly complex work-related concepts and problems. The Work Report, as a minimum requirement should:

1. include a description of the project including the objectives, goals and duties of the student. It should also include a history of student's activities and accomplishments with the employer.

2. analyse an issue/problem related to the student's work environment and demonstrate an understanding of practical application of concepts relative to the student's academic background.

3. demonstrate competence in creating a professional report, and

4. show competence in written communication and presentation skills.

Late reports will not be graded unless prior permission for a late report has been given by the co-ordinator.

499W Work Term III follows the successful completion of Academic Term 5. Students should have sufficient academic grounding and work experience to contribute in a positive manner to the problem-solving and management processes needed and practiced in the work environment. Students should become better acquainted with their discipline of study, should observe and appreciate the attitudes, responsibilities, and ethics normally expected of professionals and should exercise greater independence and responsibility in their assigned work functions.

The Work Report should reflect the growing professional development of the student and, as a minimum requirement, will:

1. include a description of the project including the objectives, goals and duties of the student. It should also include a history of student's activities and accomplishments with the employer.

2. demonstrate an increased ability to analyse a significant issue/problem relevant to the student's experience in the work environment.

3. demonstrate a high level of competence in producing a professional report, and

4. show a high level of competence in written communication and presentation skills.

Late reports will not be graded unless prior permission for a late report has been given by the co-ordinator.

7.9. General Degree

7.9.1 General Degree

1. One of English 1000, 1050, 1080, the former 1100 and one of English 1001, 1051, 1101, 1102, 1103, 1110 are prerequisites for all other courses. In the case of students whose first language is not English and who take 1020 or 1030, that course and one of English 1000, 1001, 1021, 1050, 1051, 1080, 1101, 1102, 1103 or the former 1100 are prerequisites for all other courses.

2. Students who choose English as their Major must include 36 credit hours in courses in the subject, including:
Faculty of Arts 2008-2009

1. Courses will be chosen in consultation with the Head of Department.

2. Students who choose to complete an Honours in English must complete 60 credit hours in the subject, including:
   a. English 2000 and 2001;
   b. English 2390;
   c. English 3200 or 3201;

7.10 English as a Second Language Programs

The English as a Second Language office, affiliated with the Department of English Language and Literature, and under the auspices of the Faculty of Arts, offers year-round programs for adult students wishing to improve their English language skills and learn about Canadian culture. These include:

1. A five-week intensive English Language Summer School program;
2. English language preparation for students enrolled in graduate programs such as the Master’s in Business Administration and Master’s of Engineering;
3. Tutorials, workshops, and conversation programs for current Memorial University of Newfoundland students in undergraduate and graduate degree programs;
4. Custom-designed language and culture programs for schools, universities, or businesses. These can be developed on contract and are either for general learning purposes or to suit the needs of specific disciplines or professions; and
5. Twelve-week non-credit Intensive English Programs which are offered year-round on a semesterized basis.

Information regarding the above services is available from the Director of English as a Second Language programs at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Information regarding the Intensive English Programs is provided below.

A Diploma in teaching English as a Second Language is also offered through the Faculty of Arts. Information regarding that program can be found under the Faculty of Arts in this Calendar.

7.10.1 Intensive English Program

Memorial University of Newfoundland’s full-time, non-credit Intensive English Program (IEP) is designed to improve English language skills for academic, professional and personal purposes. Reading, writing, speaking and listening skills are covered, and workshops on culture and social activities promoting integration with the local community also form part of the program.

The IEP is offered at intermediate to advanced levels in each of the Fall, Winter, and Spring terms. The program consists of two required courses: English as a Second Language 011F, Core Intensive English, and English as a Second Language 012F, Speaking, Listening, and Culture. Students admitted to the IEP must normally register for both courses each semester.

Students wishing to complete the Intensive English Program in preparation for admission to Memorial University of Newfoundland as undergraduate degree students may apply for this program at the same time as they apply for admission to undergraduate studies. Subject to General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate), governing admission for undergraduate studies, and the regulations in place for undergraduate specific programs, students may be provisionally admitted for studies at an undergraduate level in an upcoming term if they are currently enrolled in the Intensive English Program. The General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate), governing Admission/Readmission to this University, also contained in this Calendar, should be reviewed carefully by students as well.

Final admission for provisionally admitted students will be subject to successful completion of the Intensive English Program with an acceptable score on the Canadian Academic English Language (CAEL) Assessment. The CAEL Assessment is administered as part of the Intensive English Program at the end of each semester. Students enrolled in the Intensive English Program may be considered for enrolment in the Intensive English Bridge Program under the conditions described as the Admission requirements for that program. Students at any level in the program may take the CAEL Assessment at the end of the semester. The number of semesters of Intensive English study required to achieve a student’s desired level of proficiency will vary according to his or her initial proficiency level and individual progress rate.

7.10.1.1 Admission Requirements
Applicants to the Intensive English Program:
1. must be at least 18 years old, and
2. must hold a valid high school diploma, and
3. should have an elementary level of English proficiency.

Applications for the Intensive English Program must be submitted directly in writing to Director, English as a Second Language Programs, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL, A1B 3X9, Canada.

7.10.1.2 Program Requirements
1. Full participation is an essential part of the language learning process in this program. For this reason regular attendance is required. No more than 10% of instructional days may be missed without documented reasons that are acceptable to the Director of English as a Second Language programs. Students who fail to meet the minimum attendance requirements may not be permitted to re-enroll in the IEP in the following semester.
2. Evaluation of students may include, but not be limited to, any or all of the following: projects, assignments, quizzes, oral presentations, and class participation.

7.10.2 Intensive English Bridge Program
The Intensive English Bridge Program (IEBP) is intended for applicants to Memorial University of Newfoundland who have been provisionally admitted as undergraduate students and who are students in the advanced level of the Intensive English Program (IEP). It requires ten to fifteen hours of classroom language instruction in reading, writing, grammar, and listening. The emphasis is on English for Academic Purposes. Students in this program may register for an undergraduate credit course concurrently, in consultation with the Director of English as a Second Language Programs.

7.10.2.1 Admission
Candidates for the Intensive English Bridge Program must have:
1. been provisionally accepted to undergraduate studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland;
2. achieved an average of Band 40 in the CAEL with a Writing sub-score of at least 40, a paper-based TOEFL score of 520, a computer-based TOEFL score of 190, an iBT TOEFL score of 68, or an IELTS score of 5.5 with no sub-score less than 5; and
3. achieved a grade of “C” or better with a satisfactory attendance level (80%) in both ENSG 011F and ENSG 012F if enrolled in the Intensive English program in the previous semester.

A student may be considered as a candidate for the Intensive Bridge Program under the following conditions:

7.10.2.2 Program Requirements
1. Students admitted to the Intensive English Bridge Program must register for the course English as a Second Language 011F.
2. Students in this program may normally register for no more than one credit course, chosen in consultation with the director or coordinator of the English as a Second Language Program.
3. Students may register in the Intensive English Bridge Program for a maximum of two semesters.
4. Full participation is an essential part of the language learning process in this program. For this reason regular attendance is required. No more than 10% of instructional days may be missed without documented reasons that are acceptable to the Director of English as a Second Language programs. Students who fail to meet the minimum attendance requirements may not be permitted to re-enroll in the IEBP in the following semester.

7.10.3 Course Descriptions
011F Core Intensive English Program covers reading through a variety of types of texts, vocabulary development, writing development, and academic listening and note-taking skills. Students will be placed into appropriate sections following a placement test.

012F Speaking, Listening, and Culture includes development of speaking and listening abilities through a wide variety of tasks and communicative activities, including discussions, debates, conversation, role-plays, and presentations. Listening activities promote comprehension of rapid conversational English, while discussion topics enrich students’ understanding of Canadian culture. Students will be placed into appropriate sections following a placement test.

Notes:
1. Students should consult the European Studies Program Co-ordinator on the applicability of special topics and other courses not listed above to the European Studies Minor program. In particular, courses taught at the Harlow Campus by other academic units and dealing with the broad themes of the program may be applicable to the Minor in European Studies. Such courses may be offered by Grenfell College, the Faculty of Business Administration, the Faculty of Science, the School of Music, and other faculties and schools.
2. The suffix -097 indicates course sections offered at the Harlow Campus by various academic units.
3. Courses in the series 3710 to 3729 indicate courses which form part of programs offered by the Faculty of Arts only at the Harlow Campus.
4. Up to 6 credit hours in the discipline of a student’s major programs may count towards the minor, but these shall be in addition to the minimum course requirements for the major.
5. Normal prerequisites, policies on the waiver of prerequisites and credit restrictions in the respective departments will apply.

2000 Europe in the 20th Century (same as History 2350 and Political Science 2350) examines social, economic, and political changes from 1918 to the present including the collapse of monarchies, the emergence of mass politics, fascism and totalitarianism, World War II, postwar reconstruction and the welfare state, European integration, and Europe in the postwar economic and political order. The course will examine Britain, France, Germany, and Italy, and particularly the European Union. Special attention will be paid to the demise of class politics and the impact of postwar affluence.

3000-3030 Special Topics in European Studies will be a reflection on modern Europe through the study of one or more of the following: film, comparative literature, art, architecture, music, etc.

7.12 Film Studies
Program Co-ordinator: Dr. F.H. White, Associate Dean (Research and Graduate)
The Minor in Film Studies is an interdisciplinary program. It consists of a complement of core courses that is supported by elective courses in cognate disciplines. The objective of the program is to teach students to think historically, theoretically and analytically about film within the broad context of humanistic studies.

7.12.1 Minor in Film Studies
1. Students who choose the Minor in Film Studies must complete at least 24 credit hours, including:
   a. English 2850 and 2851;
b. 18 credit hours selected from the Film Studies Course List below;

c. a maximum of 6 credit hours at the 1000 level; and

d. a minimum of 6 credit hours at the 3000 level or higher

Note: Not more than 3 credit hours in courses in the student's Major Program may also be used to satisfy the requirements of the minor in Film Studies.

7.13 Folklore

The study of Folklore deals with oral literature and traditional culture. Students study both the form and function of various kinds of Folklore. They also examine the influence of oral tradition upon written literatures.

A student benefits by coming to the study of Folklore with a strong concentration in one of the affiliated fields, such as English or other modern literature, Classics, Linguistics, Sociology and Anthropology, Geography, History, Psychology, or Religious Studies. Students should note that certain specialized areas of Folklore call for training in Biology.

7.13.1 General Degree

A student interested in Folklore is advised to take several courses in Anthropology and Archaeology and at least an introductory course in language and dialect. Other courses should be complementary to the area of special interest. A student whose major interest is Newfoundland Folklore should have, for example, courses in Newfoundland Geography and Newfoundland History; and courses in the History and Geography of Ireland and England would be desirable. One interested primarily in Canadian Folklore would do well also to study the Geography, History and Literature of Canada. Such combinations of reinforcing courses in History, Geography, Literature, etc., can be varied according to the student's needs and goals.

Folklore 1000 (or 2000) is the prerequisite for all other courses in Folklore, except 1050, 1060 and those courses cross-listed with other Departments.

7.13.2 Major in Folklore

A student registered to major in Folklore must take a minimum of 36 credit hours in courses as follows:

1. Fifteen required credit hours: 1000 (or 2000), 2100, 2300, 2401, 2500;
2. Six credit hours from Group A - Folk Literature Genres: 3100, 3200, 3250, 3300, 3450, 3612, 3618, 4810;
3. Six credit hours from Group B - Folklife Genres: 3001, 3591, 3606, 3700, 3820, 3830, 3850, 3860, 4460;
4. Six credit hours from Group C - Topics: not more than 3 of which can be taken from courses at the 1000 level: 1050, 1060, 3460, 3591, 3618, 3700, 3800, 3900, 3910, 3920, 3930, 3940, 3950, 4015, 4440, 4480;
5. Three credit hours from Group D - Regions: 2230, 4300, 4310, 4320, 4350, 4360, 4370, 4400, 4410, 4420.

Students who declare a major in Folklore should have completed Folklore 1000 (or 2000); it is recommended that students intending to major in Folklore take Folklore 2100 as early in their programs as possible.

All students who major in Folklore will be assisted by a faculty advisor who will help them in planning their academic program. Consequently, it is essential that students consult with the Department at an early stage in their studies.

7.13.3 Minor in Folklore

A student declaring a minor in Folklore must take a minimum of 24 credit hours including:

1. Fifteen required credit hours: 1000 (or 2000), 2100, 2300, 2401, 2500;
2. Nine additional credit hours in Folklore - not more than 3 of which can be taken from courses at the 1000 level.

Students who declare a minor in Folklore should have completed Folklore 1000 (or 2000); it is recommended that students intending to minor in Folklore take Folklore 2100 as early in their programs as possible.

7.13.4 Honours Degree in Folklore

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. An Honours candidate in Folklore must complete a minimum of 60 credit hours, including the 36 as prescribed for the Major in Folklore. The remaining courses will normally include one of the following options:

1. Folklore 400X
2. Folklore 4998
3. Folklore 4999
7.13.5 Joint Honours Degree in Folklore and Another Major Discipline

See General Regulations for Honours Degrees. A minimum of 84 credit hours in the two subjects selected, with the approval of the Heads of both Departments, is required.

Of the credit hours required in the two subjects selected, not fewer than 42, and not more than 51, must come from each discipline. The candidate may choose the discipline in which to complete the Honours Essay or the Comprehensive Examination. If the student chooses the 400X option, the Folklore component will consist of the major in Folklore plus 400X, for a maximum of 51 credit hours in Folklore. Students are advised to choose an option as soon as possible after declaring the second subject of the Joint Honours degree.

7.13.6 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Folklore courses are designated by FOLK.

1000 Introduction to Folklore will discuss the role that tradition plays in communication, art and society through an examination of folklore materials from Newfoundland and the English-speaking world. Readings and "listening" will emphasize the use of folklore in context, e.g., the proverb in speech and the folksong in childrearing. Students will be urged to analyse the traditions in their own lives through special assignments. A student may not receive credit for both FOLK 1000 and 2000.

1050 Folklore Studies - inactive course.

1060 Folklore and Culture - inactive course.

2000 Introduction to Folklore - inactive course.

2100 Folklore Research Methods - An Introduction is designed to provide the basic introduction to the research resources, tools and methods regularly employed in the field of Folklore. On the one hand, the course will examine what types of Library and Archive resources can be useful to the folklorist and, on the other hand, it will explore how folklorists in fieldwork situations should handle people, and how they can capture for posterity a record of the interviews that they have conducted and the events that they have observed. This course qualifies as a Research/Writing course.

Note: It is strongly recommended that majors and minors take this course before taking 3000 and 4000 level courses.

2230 Newfoundland Society and Culture (same as Sociology/Anthropology 2300) is an examination of the various types of folklore: tale, song, rhyme, riddle, proverb, belief, custom, childlore and others, with stress on their function in the Newfoundland community. It includes collection and analysis of materials from the students' home communities, supplemented by data from the M.U.N. Folklore and Language Archive. Prerequisites: FOLK 1000 or 2000, or Anthropology 1031.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 2300 and the former FOLK 3420.

2401 Folklife Studies is an examination of the traditional cultures of Europe and North America with special reference to Newfoundland. A selection of the following areas will be covered: settlement patterns, architecture, work and leisure patterns in the folk community, calendar customs, rites of passage, folk religion, folk medicine, language and folk culture, folk costume, foodways and folk art.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 2401 and the former FOLK 3500.

2500 Folk Literature (same as Anthropology 2500) is an examination of the major genres of folk literature: folklore, folk poetry and song, folk drama, and the traditional generic forms within folk speech. An introduction to the textual, comparative and contextual methods of analysis. The literature will be international in scope. Prerequisites: FOLK 1000 or 2000, or Anthropology 1031.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 2500 and any of the former FOLK 3400, English 3400, Sociology/Anthropology 3400.

3001 Art, Architecture and Medieval Life (same as Medieval Studies 3001, History 3020, Archaeology 3589) is an examination of the development of medieval art and architecture and of the ways in which they mirror various aspects of life in the Middle Ages. This course will include a discussion of art and architecture in the countryside, in the town, in the castle, in the cathedral and in the cloister.

Note: It is recommended, but not obligatory, that students should have successfully completed one of the following courses: Archaeology 2490, FOLK 1000 or 2000, History 2320/Medieval Studies 2001, History 2320/Medieval Studies 2320, Medieval Studies 2320, Medieval Studies 2000.

3100 Folktales is a study of oral fictional folk narrative, including animal tale, Märchen, jest, formula tale and related forms. Special attention to European and American texts and scholarship. Extensive reading, oral and written reports. Collecting of Newfoundland texts will be encouraged.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 3100 and the former FOLK 4200.

3200 Folksong (same as Music 3017) is an introduction to the full range of traditional verse, song and music. Stress primarily on the songs of Canada, the British Isles and the United States, with attention to Newfoundland parallels. Examination of traditional vocal and instrumental styles as well as verse forms. Some reference to non-Western musical traditions. A knowledge of music is not a prerequisite.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 3200/Music 3017 and the former FOLK 2430.

3250 The Ballad is an examination of one of the major genres of international folk literature. Concerns include a taxonomic exploration of the sub-genres (tragic, comic, romantic, belief, historical, religious, riddling, and medieval minstrelsy ballads), and such topics as transmission, function, context, and aesthetics. The history of research in the area of folk drama will be examined along with related methodological and theoretical issues.

3300 Folk Drama is a survey of the main forms of traditional drama found in Great Britain and North America with reference to related European and non-western traditions. The origins, history and regional variations of these forms will be considered together with questions of social function, performance and aesthetics. The history of research in the area of folk drama will be examined along with related methodological and theoretical issues.

3450 Language and Play is an examination of such forms as the rhyme, riddle, proverb and proverbial saying, game, etc. Emphasis on problems of function and classification. Material will be chiefly from the British and North American traditions. Collecting will be encouraged.

3460 Folklore and Literature (same as English 3460) will examine the interrelationships among folklore forms and literary genres, the influence of oral traditions on written literatures, and consider the theoretical issues raised by these interrelationships. The primary emphasis will be on the interpretation of literature from the perspective of folk tradition. Extensive reading, oral and written reports will be required.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK/English 3460 and the former FOLK/English 4450.

3591 Collections Management (same as Anthropology 3591) will introduce students to the problems of collections storage with respect to environment, materials and artifact access. Students will become familiar with the materials encountered in archaeological and ethnographic collections. The storage of specific historic and prehistoric collections from Newfoundland and Labrador will be examined with the purpose of providing practical examples of methodology.

3601-3640 (Excluding 3606, 3612 and 3618) Special Topic in Folklore will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.

3606 Folklore and the Supernatural attempts to understand the nature of surviving and declining tradition by examining patterns of belief and the features of supernatural folklore. The course focuses on the phenomenological features of supernatural traditions, explaining frameworks and their internal logic; means of developing and maintaining belief; functions and structures of belief traditions; and relationships between genres of belief. The general approach of this course is ethnographic, focussing on the ethnography of belief systems.

3612 Urban Legend provides an introduction to the study of one of the most rapidly expanding and exciting areas of folklore in the modern world. The course will look at the main features of the urban legend and the topics they cover. Examination is also made as to how, when, where and why stories of this type are used, including their incorporation into television programs, films and literature.

3618 Jazz and Blues: The Roots of Popular Music (same as Music 3618) is an overview of blues and jazz as traditional musical forms. Lectures and listening will illustrate the development of regional music cultures and generic styles. To better understand the shift of blues and jazz from regional to global performance contexts, the course will examine the effects of changing transnational media, from predominantly sensory media through contemporary media technologies. A term paper concerning musical style will entail library research and aural analysis.

3700 Museums and Historic Sites (same as Anthropology 3700) is an introduction to museums and historic sites, their work, and their role in societies past and present. Various types of museums and historic sites will be discussed using local, national and international examples, looking at their collections and exhibitions policies. Practical issues will also be discussed; these include museum exhibit display techniques, public programming, virtual museums, and the museum profession.

3710-3729 Special Topics in Folklore is available only as part of the Harlow Campus Semester.

3800 Fieldwork in Vernacular Architecture: Drawings and Photography - in active course.

3820 Folk Custom provides an introduction to the study of the forms of British, European, and North American folk custom. Issues for discussion will include the diffusion, functions, maintenance and invention of calendar, seasonal, occupational, and life-cycle customs. As such, we will review much of the scholarship which has shifted folkloristic attention from the origins of customs to the analysis of custom as symbolic behaviour. Current work on the study of custom has examined, for example, the legitimation of class, gender, and political custom, the trajectory of metaphor in festival, and the symbolic statement of social obligations through life-cycle ritual. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 3820 and the former FOLK 3600.

3830 Foodways as a term embraces a variety of traditions which focus on dietary practices as well as the preparation and allocation of food. As an introduction to foodways, the course will begin by looking at a variety of regional foods. In addition, both historical and contemporary approaches to the supply, storage, preparation and serving of food will be considered. In fact, we will look at foodways from both producers' and consumer's perspectives, at the whole range of cookery and food habits - from the acquisition of raw materials to the allocation of portions.

3850 Material Culture (same as Archaeology 3850) is an examination of various interpretive theories of objects as cultural products. Problems of defining the artifact will be discussed, as well as the strengths and limitations of the various approaches in historical and ethnographic research. Questions discussed include form, design, decoration, diffusion, and the role of the creator of the object. Besides folkloristic work on material culture, a variety of interdisciplinary approaches will be considered. Emphasis will be on the material folk culture of Newfoundland and its European antecedents.

3860 Vernacular Architecture (same as Archaeology 3860 and History 3860) is a historical survey of vernacular architectural forms in various regions of North America, with attention to Newfoundland materials. Issues discussed include the relationship of house form and function, the concepts of antecedents, diffusion, innovation and evolution of building forms and technologies, and the siting of buildings in the landscape. Dwelling houses, outbuildings, churches and industrial vernacular architecture will be included.

3900 Newfoundland Vernacular Furnishings is an introduction to the furnishings of the Newfoundland domestic interior, involving case studies from public and private collections. The focus of the course will be on furniture, looking at both urban and outport forms. The cultural context of typical furnishings will be discussed, as well as details of furniture form and construction. While furnishing will be emphasized, other objects of domestic material culture may be included: glass, ceramics, metalware and textiles.

3910 Occupational Folklore includes readings, lectures, and directed fieldwork aimed at identifying, documenting, and examining the role of tradition in contemporary occupational groups and work settings. Interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives on the nature of work and the characteristics of occupational groups will be examined. Major topics of study will include work techniques, the uses of verbal and non-verbal codes, alienation, defensive behaviour, and labour lore.

3920 Folklore and Education - in active course.

3930 Folklore and Popular Culture is an examination of the transitional processes involved in the development of folk societies to mass cultures with special focus to folklore and the products of popular culture. In addition, sensory and technological media theories will be scrutinized and evaluated in conjunction with cultural comparisons of the qualities and functions of: folklife, disc recordings and the radio, folktales, television melodrama and popular film; folk art and popular "techo"-art" forms. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 3930 and the former FOLK 2400.

3940 Folklore in Medieval Society - in active course.

3950 Women and Traditional Culture is an introduction to the ways in which women shape and/or are shaped by traditional culture. Readings and lectures will explore roles and contributions of women as folklore collectors, examine representations of women in folklore forms, and analyse women's creation of their own traditions.

4015 Cultural Resource Management (same as Archaeology 4015 and Geography 4015) is a study of cultural resource management: the definition and recognition of cultural resources, the application of policy in managing cultural resources, and the identification and consideration of contemporary issues in cultural resource management. This course will have three hours of lecture and three hours of seminar per week.

4100 History and Memory (same as History 4100) is a course which recognizes that memory is not one of the natural parts of ourselves, nor is remembering a way of connecting with a single reference point in a social reality outside ourselves. These things are socially determined. Starting here, this course is designed to have students reflect on what they know about the past and how they know about it. The class will examine how individual and social memory works, concentrating on particular historical contexts.

4240 Folklore of Canada is an examination of a variety of Canadian folklore from historical, geographical and cultural perspectives. Emphasis will be placed upon the application of theories of Canadian culture to folklore studies. Questions of the role of folklore and folklife with respect to identity, ethnicity, multiculturalism, national literature, regionalism and similar issues will be considered.

4310 Studies in Newfoundland Folklore studies rural and urban Newfoundland with specific reference to a culture in transition. Folklore is examined as one of the channels through which a people maintain, change and adapt various cultural patterns. The course will include field trips when feasible. Prerequisite: FOLK 2300. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 4310 and the former FOLK 3421.

4320 Folklore of the United States - in active course.

4350 Folklore of the British Isles - in active course.

4360 Traditional Culture of Scotland - in active course.

4370 Culture and Traditions of Ireland - in active course.

4400 Traditional Culture of French-Newfoundlanders - in active course.

4410 Folklore of France - in active course.

4420 French Folklore in the New World (same as French 4420) is an examination of the directions taken in the collection and study of the folklore of the French in the New World. The French presence will be placed in a historic-geographic context, in order to trace, through the individuals and processes associated with French folklore, the kinds of folklore studied and the differing theoretical and methodological stances adopted. Note: It is recommended, but not obligatory, that students should have successfully completed FOLK 1000 or 2000.

4460 Folk Religion (same as Religious Studies 4460) is an examination of folk responses to organized religion, surveying the religious forms and interpretations, not specifically delineated by Theology. Areas of focus include: folk religious concepts of space and time; religion and healing; witchcraft and the devil; religious folk art and music; religious verbal art; the role and power of the holy person; the saints system; and community social activities sponsored by the church. A discussion of some current popular religious movements will also be included. Attention will be given to material in the MUN Folklore and Language Archive, and research based on field observations is encouraged. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both FOLK 4460 and the former FOLK 4240.

4480 Folklore and Oral History (same as History 4480) is a seminar which deals with the uses of oral sources, particularly those which have a traditional dimension, for the study of history. It will discuss the methods developed by Vansina, Dorson and others for evaluating the historical meaning of oral traditions in literate and non-literate cultures. The uses of oral testimony in the study of traditional modes of life and work such as fishing and farming will be considered. The use of oral traditions in the study of social and political history will also be discussed.

4500-4520 Special Topic in Folklore will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.

4600-4615 Special Research in Folklore will be determined by the Department.

4700-4715 Directed Reading Course will be offered as determined by the Department.

4810 Documents Management (same as History 4810) is an introduction to the management of records and documents, both official and private.

480X Folklore in the Community Context is a 15 credit hour program of work open only to Honours students in Folklore. Students will collect traditional material and analyse folkloric behaviour in a community setting. Each student will live and conduct field research in a designated community in Newfoundland (or in one of the other Atlantic Provinces) for a minimum period of ten weeks. Before leaving for the community, the choice of which must be approved by the Department, the student will be assigned a supervisor by the Department, and in consultation with the supervisor the student will develop a proposed fieldwork project. The student will present reports to the supervisor during and upon the completion of the period of fieldwork. All original field data will be deposited in the MUN Folklore and Language Archive.
Included in the 400X program is the Honours dissertation for which three of the fifteen credit hours is awarded and which must be completed before the course is concluded. The dissertation must be a well-organized presentation and analysis of field data, including collestanea, descriptions of folkloric behaviour, and the biographies of major informants secured by interviews.

4998 Honours Comprehensive Examination may be written or oral, or a combination of both (3 credit hours).

4999 Honours Essay (3 credit hours) is required as part of the Honours program.

7.14 French and Spanish
The Department of French and Spanish offers the following programs:
1. French Major
2. French Minor
3. Honours Degree in French

5. Frecker program in French Immersion
6. Canadian Third Year In Nice
7. Spanish Major
8. Spanish Minor

7.14.1 French Major Program
Students who choose French as their Major must complete at least 42 credit hours in French, including:
1. 2100 and 2101 OR 2159 and 2160
2. 2300
3. 2601 and 2602
4. 3100 and 3101
5. At least two of 3500, 3501, 3502, 3503, 3504 or 3506
6. At least 6 credit hours at the 4000 level

Notes:
1. No more than 6 credit hours at the 1000 level may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Major in French.
2. No more than 12 transfer credit hours may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Major in French.
3. By the time of their graduation, all students majoring in French must have spent at least four weeks at an approved Francophone institution in a French-speaking area or have acquired equivalent work experience in a Francophone environment.
4. It is strongly recommended that students in the Major program complete Classics 1120.

7.14.2 French Minor Program
Students who choose French as their Minor must complete at least 24 credit hours in French, including:
1. 2100 and 2101 OR 2159 and 2160
2. 3100 OR 3101

Notes:
1. No more than 6 credit hours at the 1000 level may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Minor in French.
2. No more than 6 transfer credit hours may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Minor in French.

7.14.3 Honours Degree in French
In addition to the following regulations students are advised to see the General Regulations for Honours Degrees.
An Honours degree in French shall consist of at least 60 credit hours in French, including:
1. 2100 and 2101 or 2159 and 2160
2. 2300
3. 2601 and 2602
4. 3100 and 3101
5. At least two of 3500, 3501, 3502, 3503, 3504 or 3506
6. A minimum of 21 credit hours at the 4000 level, including French 4900 and 4999.

Notes:
1. Classics 1120 may be substituted for 3 credit hours in French.
2. By the time of their graduation, all students majoring in French must have spent at least two semesters at an approved Francophone institution in a French-speaking area or have acquired equivalent work experience in a Francophone environment.
3. No more than 24 transfer credit hours may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Honours program in French.

7.14.4 Joint Honours
French may be combined with any other subject approved in the General Regulations to form a Joint Honours program. Candidates will establish their program in consultation with the Heads of the Departments of their chosen Honours subjects.
The Joint Honours program in French shall include at least 51 credit hours in French, including the same requirements as the French Major with the exception of a minimum of 15 credit hours at the 4000 level.

Notes:
1. Classics 1120 may be substituted for 3 credit hours in French.
2. By the time of their graduation, all students completing the Joint Honours program in French must have spent at least two semesters at an approved Francophone institution in a French-speaking area or have acquired equivalent work experience in a Francophone environment.
3. No more than 18 transfer credit hours may be used to fulfill the minimum requirements of the Joint Honours program in French.

7.14.5 Transfer Credit for Language Courses
Students who successfully complete French language immersion programs offered by recognized universities and colleges in Canada and elsewhere may apply to have their courses evaluated for equivalent Memorial University of Newfoundland credit. To do so, they must follow such procedures as may be specified by the Office of the Registrar; they may also be required to sit a placement test administered by the Department of French and Spanish. The result achieved on this placement test will influence any determination of the number and level of transfer credits to be awarded.
Students intending to participate in the Summer Language Bursary Program or the Student Fellowship Programs are particularly advised to consult the Head of the Department of French and Spanish before leaving Memorial University of Newfoundland. All students intending to request transfer of credit are strongly advised to obtain a Letter of Permission from the Office of the Registrar before registering for any course of study offered by another institution.

Notes:
1. In any event, no more than 9 transfer credit hours in French at the first-year level, and 18 at the second-year level, may be granted to any student.
2. See specific program regulations for restrictions placed on the maximum number of transfer credit hours applicable to the Minor, Major, Honours and Joint Honours programs.

7.14.6 Special Examinations in French Language

The Department of French and Spanish offers to students the opportunity to sit a Special Examination of Linguistic Competence in French and a Special Examination of Linguistic Excellence in French. These written and oral examinations, held each year during the Winter semester, are intended to permit public recognition of superior proficiency in the French language by means of an entry on students' academic records. Any student registered in a Memorial University of Newfoundland degree program may sit the annual examinations, but successful results will become final only on graduation from a degree program. The standard of attainment required to pass the Special Examination of Linguistic Competence in French will be approximately equivalent to that of a high 'B' in French 4100 or 4101; that for the Special Examination of Linguistic Excellence in French is equivalent to high standing at a more advanced level.

7.14.7 Supplementary Examinations

Students registered for French 1500, 1501, and 1502 whose overall final mark is less than 50% but no lower than 45F may write a supplementary examination subject to the following regulations:

1. Students will be admissible to the supplementary examination only if the average of all other components of the final mark is at least 50%.
2. The supplementary examination will normally be identical to the deferred examination, if any, administered in the same course for that semester and will in any case be written at the time of administration of deferred examinations and will be similar in content and level of difficulty to the final examination originally written.
3. Students who are eligible to sit the supplementary examination must apply to the department within one week following the release of final grades by the Office of the Registrar.
4. Students who pass the supplementary examination will receive a new final grade calculated according to the same method and weighting as the original, but with the mark on the supplementary examination replacing that given for the original written final examination. This new final grade, if higher than the original, will replace the original grade on the student's transcript, subject to the condition that the final mark will not exceed the student's pro-rated term mark. The student's transcript will indicate that the course result was earned as the result of a supplementary examination.
5. A student may write a supplementary examination for any one registration in a course only once; if the course result following the supplementary examination is a fail then the course must be repeated in order to obtain credit.
6. Students taking these courses through the College of the North Atlantic who successfully pass a supplementary examination will receive Memorial University of Newfoundland credit for the course.

7.14.8 Frecker Program

The Frecker Program is a one-semester immersion program offered by Memorial University of Newfoundland in St-Pierre. Students who successfully complete this program will receive 15-credit hours in French as specified in Note 3. below. All students will board with French families and will participate in extra-curricular activities designed to take full advantage of the French milieu.

Notes:
1. The minimum prerequisites for admission to the program are successful completion of French 1502 and permission of the Head of the Department following written application. Admission to the program will be on a competitive basis and will depend on marks obtained in French courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland and on instructors' recommendations.
2. The cost of room and board is partially subsidized by the Federal Government Bursary Program in the case of residents of Newfoundland and Labrador. (A limited number of non-bursary students may be admitted to the program.)
3. Students who are admitted to this program will register for French 2100, 2101, 2300, 2900, and 2601 or 2602.

7.14.9 Canadian Third Year in Nice Program

Memorial University of Newfoundland is a member of a consortium of Canadian universities which offer the Canadian Third Year in Nice Program. This program enables students to spend a full academic year studying at the Université de Nice-Sophia Antipolis in the South of France. Canadian students participating in this program are accompanied by a faculty member from one of the Canadian universities participating in the program. This person teaches two of the five courses which students complete each semester in Nice, the other three being chosen from the offerings of the Université de Nice. Specific Memorial University of Newfoundland credits are awarded for successful completion of the courses taught by the Canadian coordinator and a block of unspecified transfer credits are awarded for the courses offered by the Université de Nice.

All courses completed under this program will be offered outside the normal time frame for courses offered at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Fall Semester courses will be completed between October and January each year, Winter Semester courses between February and May. This is the time frame of Sessions I and II at the Université de Nice-Sophia Antipolis.

COURSES

Session I (Fall Semester):
3102 French Language Studies at Nice (I)
Prerequisite: French 2101 or permission of the Head of the Department

Notes:
1. The above-mentioned courses are offered only at the Université de Nice-Sophia Antipolis in France.
2. French 3102/3103 can be substituted for French 3100/3101 for the purposes of French program requirements and as course prerequisites.
3. Students should consult the Head of the Department regarding course selection.
Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

French courses are designated by FREN.

Notes:
1. The Department of French and Spanish offers three consecutive credit courses in French language at the first-year university level, offering a complete overview of basic oral and written French. New students may choose to register initially in FREN 1500 or 1501; a diagnostic test is offered to assist students with initial course selection or to confirm that initial course selection is appropriate. Students with a limited background in French should register for FREN 1500 and continue with 1501. Students with a strong background in high-school French should bypass 1500 and begin their university study with 1501, especially if they intend to proceed beyond the first-year level. Very well-prepared students may apply to the Department for permission to enter 1502 directly. Bypassing one or more of these courses may enable students to include a larger number of advanced electives in their degree program, FREN 1500, 1501 and 1502 require three hours of instruction per week and two additional hours of language laboratory work or conversation class, or both.
2. Students may not register concurrently for more than one of FREN 1500, 1501 and 1502 except with the permission of the Head of the Department.
3. FREN 2159 and 2160 are courses designed for former French immersion students as well as others with exceptional backgrounds in French, and are intended as an alternative to the 1500, 1501, 1502, 2100, 2101 sequence.
4. Students who have successfully completed one or more credit courses in French language will not subsequently be permitted to receive credit for courses not previously completed and judged by the Department to be of a lower level than those already completed. Students returning to the study of French after an absence should consult the Department for current information on these restrictions before registering. Students who wish to return to a previously completed course to improve their standing may do so only with the permission of the Head of the Department.
5. Students wishing to enrol in courses at the 4000-level must have completed at least FREN 3100 or 3101 and such additional prerequisites as may be specified (see individual calendar entries for details).

4501 Modernism in Spanish-American Literature - inactive course.

4502 Modern Spanish-American Drama - inactive course.

4503 Contemporary Spanish-American Poetry - inactive course.

4700 Oral and Written Spanish Composition I - inactive course.

4701 Oral and Written Spanish Composition II - inactive course.

4800 Directed Reading Course in Spanish - inactive course.

7.14.12 Italian

7.14.12.1 Course List

1000 Elementary Italian I is for beginners in Italian. Introduction to the fundamentals of Italian grammar, with particular attention to the acquisition of basic skills in oral and written communication.

Lectures: Four hours per week.

Laboratory: One hour per week.

1001 Elementary Italian II is a continuation of Elementary Italian I.

Lectures: Four hours per week.

Laboratory: One hour per week.

Prerequisite: Italian 1000.
2000 Italian Language and Culture (Intermediate Level) I covers work in reading, oral comprehension, speaking and writing. Lectures and Language Laboratory.
Prerequisite: Italian 1001

2001 Italian Language and Culture (Intermediate Level) II covers work in reading, oral comprehension, speaking and writing. Lectures and Language Laboratory.
Prerequisite: Italian 2000

7.15 Geography

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department of Geography:
1. Major in Geography (B.A. or B.Sc.)
2. Honours in Geography (B.A. or B.Sc.)
3. Minor in Geography
4. Joint Programs
5. Focus Area in Geography
6. Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences

7.15.1 Major in Geography (B.A. or B.Sc.)

1. Students may complete a Major in Geography as part of either a B.A. or B.Sc. program. See the General Regulations for the B.A. and B.Sc. degrees as appropriate.

2. All students who major in Geography shall consult with their assigned faculty advisor, or the Head of the Department, who will help them in planning their academic program. For this purpose, it is essential that students declare their major at an early stage of their studies.

3. The Major in Geography consists of 45 credit hours in Geography courses including:
   a. 1050, or 1000 & 1001, or 1010 & 1011;
   b. 2001, 2102, 2195, 2226, 2302, 2425;
   c. 3222, 3226;
   d. Nine credit hours from courses at the 3000-level;
   e. At least 9 credit hours chosen from courses at the 4000-level;
   f. Further credit hours in courses at the 3000-level or above, to fulfill the required 45 credit hours in Geography courses.

4. B.Sc. candidates must complete 15 credit hours in science courses outside Geography at the 2000-level or above.

7.15.2 Honours in Geography (B.A. or B.Sc.)

1. Students intending to take an Honours degree in Geography must apply for entry to the Honours program through the Office of the Registrar.

2. Students accepted in the Honours program must:
   a. Comply with the General Regulations for the Honours Degree of B.A. or B.Sc. as appropriate.
   b. Arrange their program in consultation with the Head of the Department.

3. For the Honours Degree, a candidate will be required to have completed at least 60 credit hours in courses in Geography, including:
   a. Forty-five credit hours in courses as listed under Major in Geography.
   b. Geography 3230, 4990 and 4999.
   c. Six additional credit hours at the 4000-level.

7.15.3 Minor in Geography

The Minor in Geography consists of 24 credit hours in Geography courses, including:
1. 1050, 2001, 2102, 2195, 2302, 2425; and 6 credit hours in electives taken from Geography courses at the 3000- or 4000-level, or
2. 1000 and 1001, or 1010 and 1011; 2001, 2102, 2195, 2302, 2425; and 3 credit hours in electives taken from Geography courses at the 3000- or 4000-level.

7.15.4 Joint Programs

Regulations for the Joint Honours in Computer Science and Geography, Joint Honours in Geography/Earth Sciences, and Joint Major in Computer Science and Geography are found under the heading Joint Programs in the entry for the Faculty of Science.

Students who wish to take a Joint Major or a Joint Honours in Geography and another subject must arrange their program in consultation with the heads of the Departments concerned, and comply with the General Regulations of the appropriate Faculty.

7.15.5 Focus Area in Geography - Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary)

The focus area in Geography is applicable only to the Bachelor of Education Primary/Elementary degree programs offered by the Faculty of Education. Please see Focus Areas under the Faculty of Education for program details.

7.15.6 Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences

Information regarding the Diploma Program in Geographic Information Sciences may be found under the heading Diploma Programs Offered in the Faculty of Arts.

7.15.7 General Prerequisites and Credit Restrictions

1. Mathematics 1000, or equivalent, is a prerequisite for Geography 3110, 3120, 3140, 3150, 3250, 3260;
2. It is strongly recommended that all 2000-level core courses be completed before registration in 3000-level courses. All 2000-level core courses must normally be completed prior to registration in a 4000-level course.
3. It is strongly recommended that Geography 3222 and 3226 be completed before registration in 4000-level courses.

4. Credit may not be obtained for 1050 and any one of 1000, 1001, 1010, or 1011.

7.15.8 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Specific prerequisites for courses may be waived only with permission of the instructor and the Head of Department.

Geography courses are designated by GEOG.

1050 Introduction to the Principles and Practice of Geography focuses on five areas in geography which continue through courses in others years of the geography program: physical, cultural, economic, resources, and geographic information sciences. The lectures are linked to assignments, which provide both experience in the application of geographical skills and develop insight into the presence of geography at both the local and global scales. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for GEOG 1050 and any of 1000, 1001, the former 1010, or the former 1011.

2001 Cultural Geography is an introduction to the study of culture in geography, including both the historical factors and the contemporary impact of cultural processes on landscapes to contemporary scholarship and themes of recent importance. These include the relationship between nature and culture: imperialism and colonialism; place, identity, and power; and global cultures of commodities, media, and tourism.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001.

2102 Physical Geography: The Global Perspective is a study of form, process, and change in natural systems at and near the surface of Earth, viewed as human environment. Emphasis is on global and regional scales in the systemic study of climate, water, landforms and vegetation. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for GEOG 2102 and the former 2100 or 2101.

2105 Canada's Natural Environments and Landscapes examines the characteristics and development of the natural environments and landscapes of each of the major regions of Canada. The diversity of natural environments is illustrated through discussion of the climatic, hydrological, biogeographical, and geomorphic processes responsible for shaping the land. The impact of both gradual and rapid (catastrophic) changes on local, national, and global scales will be emphasized.

Notes: 1. This course is complementary to GEOG 3405; students are encouraged to take both.
2. Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 2105 and the former 3100.

2195 Introduction to Geographic Information Science is an introduction to the fields of cartography, remote sensing, and geographic information systems (GIS). Emphasis is on the understanding and appreciation of maps and map-like images.

Prerequisites: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001.

2226 Field Methods I is designed to introduce students to the practice of geography in the field. Field techniques will focus on the observation, identification, and collection of primary data. This course provides a basis for further study of advanced geography courses.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or permission of the instructor.

Note: This course is a one credit hour course.

2290 Historical Geography of Newfoundland is an examination of the spatial development of settlement in Newfoundland from the period of early European contacts to the present century. Themes include the impact of European domination, the regional background of European migrations, the regional growth of population and the spread of settlement as manifested on the cultural landscape. This course also serves as an option in the Newfoundland Studies Minor program.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 2290 and the former 3290.

2302 Issues in Economic Geography covers basic issues and ideas in economic geography. The development of a regional economy will be related to underlying economic, cultural and physical factors.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001.

2425 Natural Resources is an introduction to the concepts of natural resources, environment and conservation: the nature and distribution of natural resources; methods of use, allocation and development of natural resources and the role of various physical, social, economic, political and technological factors influencing decision-making about resources.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 2425 and 3325.

2495 Regional Geography of Labrador is a holistic study of the Geography of Labrador, including the terrain, geology, Quaternary history, climate, vegetation, and fauna; the cultural geography of Labrador, including Innu, Inuit, Métis, and Settler people and communities; economic activities in Labrador, and the interaction of the Labrador economy within Newfoundland, Canada, and the world.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001.

3000 Population Geography is the geography of population distributions with special emphasis given to the population dynamics expressed in fertility, mortality and migration; techniques for analysis of vital statistics; world population problems; contrasting population policies of various countries.

Prerequisite: GEOG 2001.

3010 The Evolution of Urban Form (formerly 2010) examines the origin and evolution of the city in Western civilization, paying particular attention to the social, political, and economic processes which have been instrumental in transforming its physical fabric.

3110 Physical Geography of the Watershed - inactive course.

3120 Climatology is an analysis of the energy and moisture budgets and circulation of the atmosphere at the macro-scale, together with an examination of resulting climate characteristics for selected world regions. This course is designed to provide experience in instrument and field techniques in the Fall Semester of their third year. The course will be held off campus and students will experience the field research process from the initial observation of a site through research and analysis to completion of a written report.

Prerequisite: GEOG 2102; Mathematics 1000.

3140 Biogeography is the application of ecological concepts to the study of the spatial variations in the distribution of plants and vegetation. Laboratory work emphasizes terrestrial flora of Newfoundland.

Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3150 and the former Earth Sciences 3700.

3150 Geomorphology is a study of the relationships between geomorphic processes and landforms. Practical work will involve collection of data and samples in the field and analytical laboratory techniques.

Prerequisites: GEOG 2102; Earth Sciences 2900; Mathematics 1000.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3150 and the former Earth Sciences 3700.

3202 Introduction to Cartography is an introduction to the field of cartography and its different components, including: projections, generalization, cartographic design, data classification, topographic and thematic mapping. Laboratory exercises will utilize Geographic Information Systems software.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisite: GEOG 2195 or permission of instructor.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3202 and the former GEOG 2200.

3210 History of Map Making is an examination of the major characteristics of the evolution of the art and science of map-making from the earliest time to the present. Emphasis is on the development and application of theory and method in the cartographic process.

3222 Research Design and Quantitative Methods in Geography is an introduction to principles of research design, and to the use of quantitative techniques. This course provides students with a basic understanding of data collection, entry, and analysis and presentation skills most commonly used by geographers.

Practical, computer-based exercises are an essential part of the course.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisite: GEOG 1050, or the former 1011, or 1001 and at least 9 credit hours from GEOG 2001, 2102, 2195, 2302, 2425.

Note: It is strongly recommended that this course be completed before registration in a 4000-level geography course. Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3222 and the former GEOG 2220, and Statistics 2500 or 2510.

3226 Field Methods II is designed to provide students with field experience at a more advanced level, building on GEOG 2226. In this course, the students will experience the field research process from the initial observation of a site through research and analysis to completion of a written report.

Prerequisite: GEOG 2226.

Note: This is a two credit hour course.

3230 Field Course will normally be taken by Geography Majors just prior to the Fall Semester of their third year. The course will be held off campus and is designed to provide experience in instrument and field techniques in physical, economic and cultural Geography.

3250 Introduction to Remote Sensing is an introduction to digital image analysis. It will include many aspects of pre-processing and processing of airborne and satellite imagery.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: GEOG 2195; Mathematics 1000.

3250 Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS) introduces the principles of GIS as they relate to spatial data input, structures, management, integration, analysis and output. Laboratory exercises permit students to use GIS software and explore how it can be applied to a wide variety of disciplines and real world issues.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2195; Mathematics 1000.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3260 and the former GEOG 4251.

3303 Location Theory is the theoretical basis of the study of economic geography of movement of people, goods and ideas, as well as theories of land-use, facility location and the development of agglomerations are examined.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2302.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for 3303 and the former 2300, 2301, 2303.

3320 Fisheries Geography - inactive course.

3340 Techniques of Regional Analysis - inactive course.

3350 Geographical Aspects of Regional Planning and Development - inactive course.

3405 Canada is a study of the regional geography of Canada, with emphasis on social, economic and political characteristics. The course is a core course in the Canadian Studies Major program. This course is complementary to GEOG 2105; students are encouraged to take both.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2001, 2102 and 2302; or 6 credit hours in courses for the Major in Canadian Studies; or permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3405 and the former GEOG 2400.

3425 Geographical Analysis of Resources is the geographic study of contemporary North American issues in resources and their management. Emphasis is placed on air, water and ground resources, energy resources, and coastal zone resources. A number of substantive areas in resource analysis will be considered, including resource appraisal, land-use planning, and environmental impact assessment.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2425 or equivalent.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 3425 and the former 4400.

3510 Geography of the Seas is an introductory course in marine science and management treating the world's oceans as a geographic unit. The course covers basic physical, geological and biological ideas, forest, land and marine resources, energy resources, and coastal zone resources. A number of substantive areas in resource analysis will be considered, including resource appraisal, land-use planning, and environmental impact assessment.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2102, 2425 or permission of instructor.

3610 Cultural Landscape is an investigation of a principal subject of study in cultural geography: the human imprint on the land. The course will include a detailed consideration of the origin of landscape studies in geography; newer approaches emphasizing visual and representational aspects of landscapes; and several diverse case studies, historical and contemporary, concerned with strategies over time.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2001.

3620 Migration and Colonization is a study of population movements associated with colonization and frontier development.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2001.

3701 Urban Geography is an examination of the evolution, structure and dynamics of cities and urban systems.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2302.

3710-3729 Special Topics in Geography (available only as part of the Harlow Campus Semester) will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.

3800 Political Geography is a geographic study of political ideas and processes. The course will consist of a historical discussion of the origins and trajectory of geopolitics, from the beginning of the 20th century to contemporary times. Key themes in political geography, including strategy and state, federalism, decentralization and rationalism, global technologies, and environmental security will be discussed.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2001.

3900-3909 Special Topics in Geography will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.
Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.

3990-3999 Special Topics in Geography will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.
Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.

4010 Cultural Geography is concepts and methods in the study of cultural geography.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2001 and at least one of 2290, 3000, 3010, 3610, 3620, 3800.

4015 Cultural Resource Management (same as Anthropology 4015 and Folklore 4015) is a study of cultural resource management: the definition and recognition of cultural resources, the application of policy in managing cultural resources, and the identification and consideration of contemporary issues in cultural resource management.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of seminar per week.

4120 Applied Climatology (formerly 3121) - inactive course.

4141 Glacial Environments - inactive course.

4150 Environmental Change and Quaternary Geography (same as Geography 4150) covers methods of reconstructing Quaternary environments; effects of Quaternary environmental change on landforms, with special reference to North America; development and characteristics of periglacial and non-glacial climates.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: Six credit hours in physical geology or in geological courses at the 3000-level; or permission of Head of Department.

4190 Coastal Geomorphology is an advanced course in geomorphology of coastal regions in all climate zones. Covers reflective and dissipative beaches, barrier sand dunes, deltas, tidal flats, estuaries, reefs, bedrock and karst shorelines, ice-dominated shorelines, and influence of climate change and sea level change on coastal environments.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: GEOG 3150 or permission of instructor.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 4190 and the former GEOG 4180.

4202 Advanced Cartography will provide students with advanced knowledge in computer-based cartography required to produce final geographic datasets and maps. Laboratory exercises will utilize Geographic Information Systems software.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: GEOG 3202 or permission of instructor.

4220 Advanced Quantitative Methods - inactive course.

4250 Environmental Image Analysis is an introduction to techniques applied to various environmental problems. Techniques include selection of the system for data acquisition (airborne or satellite imagery), planning of a ground truth survey, and of data processing. Applications to high and low density urban areas, agricultural, forestry, coastal zone, oceanic, and environmental monitoring.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisite: GEOG 3250.

4261 Advanced Methods in Geographic Information Systems (GIS) explores the nature and use of advanced GIS algorithms, discrete and continuous data structures, computational methods and analysis of error for the purpose of analysing and modelling spatial patterns and processes. Laboratory exercises will permit students to use GIS software to explore as well as develop problem solving and modelling skills for a wide variety of real world applications.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: GEOG 3260; Mathematics 2050; Computer Science 1710; (or equivalent, with permission of instructor and the Head of Department).

4290 Geographic Information Sciences Practicum is practical experience with the geographic information sciences fields of cartography, remote sensing or geographical information systems. Students will serve as interns in government, institutional or private agencies, or in non-profit organizations.
Six hours per week or a total of 72 hours of research or laboratory work.
Prerequisites/Co-requisites: GEOG 4202, 4250, 4261, and to be enrolled in the Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences.

4300 Fisheries Seminar I - inactive course.

4320 Regional Development Seminar is preparation of papers on various aspects of development, their presentation and discussion.
Prerequisite: GEOG 3303.

4405 Outdoor Recreational Resources and Planning is an introduction to the major themes and techniques in the study of outdoor recreation. A theoretical framework will provide a base for the evaluation of the complex issues involved in managing a physical resource for recreational purposes. North American examples will be emphasized.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisite: GEOG 2425 or 3325.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both GEOG 4405 and GEOG 4909.

4410 Research Seminar in Resources offers the opportunity to undertake advanced work in a number of resource sectors such as energy, fisheries, forests, lands, air and water. The emphasis will be on learning through experience. Students will be expected to initiate and complete suitable research projects in close consultation with faculty involved.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2425 or 3325.

4600 Historical Geography is a study of concepts and methods in historical geography. The field concerned with geographies of the past and their relation to the present. Themes will include the history of geography as a discipline, particularly its relevance to individual, state and national power; changing relationships between humans and the natural environment; and histories of the social construction of human identity.
Prerequisites: GEOG 2001 and at least one of 2290, 3000, 3010, 3610, 3620, 3800.

4640 Historical Geography of Canada (formerly 3240) explains the geographical dimensions of Canada, past and present, in terms of spatial origins and processes of geographical change in the population, economy and landscape of the country. Themes will include; changing perceptions of the environment; the historical demography of immigration and initial settlement; the reconstruction of past regional geographies; the sequent occupancy of particular regions; the human alteration of the natural landscape.

Prerequisites: GEOG 2001 and at least one of 2290, 3000, 3010, 3610, 3620, 3800; or 12 credit hours in core courses for the Major in Canadian Studies.

4650 Conservation in Biology and Geography (same as Biology 4650) is an examination of how biological and geographical principles can be applied to conserving biological diversity in the natural world under conditions of exploitation and habitat loss. Special emphasis will be given to relevant provincial examples.

Three hours of lecture per week and 3 hours of seminar/discussion group per week.

Prerequisites: 30 credit hours in either Biology or Geography and permission of the course co-ordinator.

4700 Seminar in Advanced Urban Geography will provide senior students with the opportunity to immerse themselves in the analysis of a small number of problems related to contemporary urban structure and growth.

Prerequisite: GEOG 3701.

4900-4918 Special Topics in Geography will have topics to be offered announced by the Department of Geography.

7.16 German and Russian Language and Literature

7.16.1 German

7.16.1.1 General Degree

All candidates who did not matriculate in German will begin their study with Elementary German 1 (1000) or equivalent.

7.16.1.2 German Language and Literature Major Program

Candidates majoring in German must comply with the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) and arrange their program in consultation with the Head of the Department. Students majoring in German may choose from three streams: literature, cultural studies, or business and commerce streams. The choice of stream will determine the courses required for a major. It is highly desirable that, during their course of study, all students majoring in German spend at least one semester of study in a German-speaking country.

Major Streams

1. Literature Stream

Candidates majoring in German (Literature stream) will normally be required to complete a minimum of 36 credit hours in German including at least 24 credit hours in the following courses or their equivalents: 1000, 1001, 2010, 2011, 3010, 3011, 3900 and 3901. Exceptional students may be extended an invitation to participate in a graduate level seminar.

Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department of Geography.

4919 Integrative Practicum in Geographic Information Sciences is an applied or research project integrating aspects of cartography, geographical information systems and remote sensing. Students will have access to the GISciences Research Laboratory to complete their project. This is the capstone course for the students registered in the Geographic Information Sciences diploma program. It will involve the knowledge and experiences acquired over the years in the program.

Six hours per week or a total of 72 hours of individual research or laboratory work.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites: GEOG 4202, 4250, 4261, and to be enrolled in the Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences.

4990 Nature of Geography is an examination of the major philosophical issues in the nature of geography and recent changes in geographical method. Particular emphasis will be placed on the implications of the quantitative, systems, behavioural and ecological approaches in geography, the use of models, the place of theory and the study of process in geography. This course is primarily intended for Honours students.

4999 Dissertation Honours Degree is required of the Honours degree.

2. Cultural Studies Stream

Candidates majoring in German (Cultural Studies stream) will normally be required to complete a minimum of 36 credit hours in German, including at least 24 credit hours in the following courses or their equivalents: 1000, 1001, 2010, 2011, 3010, 3011, 3900, 3901. Exceptional students may be extended an invitation to participate in a graduate level seminar.

7.16.1.3 German Language and Literature Minor Program

A Minor in German will consist of a minimum of 24 credit hours. Students must obtain credit for: 1000, 1001 (or their equivalents), 2010, 2011, 2900, 2901.

7.16.1.4 German Studies Minor Program

A Minor in German Studies is offered as a special program of an interdisciplinary nature, consisting of a minimum of 24 credit hours in courses as follows:

1. Eighteen credit hours in German, including: 1000; 1001 (or their equivalents); 2010 and 2011; 2900; 2901.
2. Six credit hours taken in either additional courses in German and/or from cognate courses offered by other departments, such as History 3370, 3380, Philosophy 3850, 3851, 3860, to be chosen through prior consultation with the Head of the Department.

Note: German 2030, 2031, 2900, 2901, 2910, 3000-3001, 3005, 3902, 3911, 3912, 3913, 3914, 3915 and the Special Topics courses in German Studies may not be used as part of the Faculty of Arts requirements for 6 credit hours in a second language.

7.16.1.5 Honours Degree

Candidates wishing to take an Honours degree in German must arrange their program in consultation with the Head of the Department. 3525 The Later Ethnohistory of North America’s Native Peoples (same as Archaeology 3525) examines Indian and Inuit cultural history of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, including the fur trade, resistance and accommodation to European expansion, the emergence of revitalization movements, demographic changes, and population shifts. Special emphasis will be placed on the ethnohistory of the native peoples of what is now Canada and northern United States.

3530 Historical Archaeology (same as Archaeology 3582) will introduce students to historical archaeology, with special reference to the North Atlantic, 1000 to 1900 AD. The archaeology of specific historic sites, including Newfoundland sites, will be examined in order to raise theoretical issues and to give practical examples of methodology. Students will be introduced to the methodological challenges of palaeography, analysis of historic maps, survey, excavation and analysis of complex sites, underwater archaeology, documentary archaeology, material culture and subsistence studies, interpretation, conservation and cultural resource management. The course will consider theoretical approaches including historical anthropology, ethnohistory, world systems and consumer studies.

3535 Historical Anthropology (same as Archaeology 3584) will explore selected issues in historical anthropology, with special reference to the Mediterranean and North Atlantic worlds. Students will read specific case studies in order to explore the theoretical issues raised by the attempt to understand historically-documented past cultures. In order to give practical examples of methodology classes will analyse primary source material. Students will be introduced to the textual analysis of myth and legal records, to the interpretation of images and to the analysis of patterns in material culture. The course will consider specific current interpretive issues, particularly the rise of individualism, the consumer revolution and the cultural construction of gender.

3540 History of China - inactive course.

3545 History of Modern Japan - inactive course.

3550 History of India - inactive course.

3555 Methods and Materials in Historical Archaeology (same as Archaeology 3555) is a combination lecture and laboratory course designed to acquaint students with the analysis of artifacts and other evidence from historical archaeological sites. It is ordinarily intended to follow Archaeology 3480, Field and Laboratory Techniques in Archaeology.

3560 A History of Human Rights - inactive course.

3570 The Modern Middle East is an examination of the peoples and states of the Middle East and their interaction with each other and with the great powers since the mid-nineteenth century.

3580 South Africa Since 1815 - inactive course.

3585 Tropical Africa Since 1800 - inactive course.

3600 Industrial Revolutions of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries - inactive course.

3610 International Economic History of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries - inactive course.

3620 Canadian Economic History to the End of the Nineteenth Century - inactive course.

3630 Canadian Economic History in the Twentieth Century - inactive course.

3650 Canadian Business History - inactive course.

3660 The Scientific Revolution - inactive course.

3685 History of Western Medicine introduces students to the major topics and themes with which historians of medicine are currently engaged. These include the nature of doctor-patient relationships, perceptions of the body, professionalization, patterns of disease, and the development of European public health movements. The course traces the practice of medicine from ancient Greece to European expansion, although the primary focus will be on the period from the eighteenth to the early twentieth century.

3675 Navies and Societies Since 1650 is an examination of the rise of modern navies since 1650 that places navies and naval decisions within broader national and international political, economic and social contexts.

3680 North Atlantic Seafaring to 1850 - inactive course.

3690 North Atlantic Seafaring from 1850 - inactive course.

3700 Art History: The Italian Renaissance - inactive course.

3701 Art History: The Renaissance Outside Italy (same as Visual Arts 3701) examines the Renaissance outside Italy from the late fourteenth century and the international style through the sixteenth century.

3710-3729 Special Topics in British History are available only as part of the Harlow Campus Semester. 3740-3750 Studies in Modern Social and Intellectual History are selected studies in the history of modern ideas and society. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

3760 Women in Western Society and Culture I - inactive course.

3770 Women in Western Society and Culture II are selected themes in the history of women in the modern period with a focus on cultural attitudes toward women, demographic trends affecting women, the impact of changing economic roles, and the development of feminism.

3785 The European Family: The Age of Faith to the Welfare State focuses on the family in Europe from the middle ages to the early twentieth century. Topics examined will include: family structure, kinship, demography, sexuality, gender relations, child-rearing, attitudes towards the elderly and care of them, and the place of the family in the larger community.

3800-3830 (Excluding 3822) Contemporary Problems in Historical Perspective is an analysis of developments leading to a contemporary issue or problem selected each year or semester. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

3840 Historical Methods is an introduction to the methods and practices of history in the modern era. This course is compulsory for Majors and Honours students, including those intending to apply for graduate studies.

3850 Vernacular Architecture - inactive course.

3870 An Introduction to the History of Western Architecture Since the Renaissance - inactive course.

3899 Quantitative Approach in Historical Writing - inactive course.

4000-4010 Special Topics in Ancient and Medieval History are specialized studies in Ancient and Medieval history. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4100 History and Memory (same as Folklore 4100) is a course which recognizes that memory is not one of the natural parts of ourselves, nor is remembering a way of connecting with a single reference point in a social reality outside ourselves. These things are socially determined. Starting here, this course is designed to have students reflect on what they know about the past and how they know about it. The class will examine how individual and social memory works, concentrating on particular historical examples.

4110-4130 Special Topics in North Atlantic History are specialized studies in the history of the North Atlantic. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4120-4229 (Excluding 4214) Special Topics in North American History are specialized studies in the history of North America. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4230 Special Topics in Newfoundland History I are specialized studies in the history of Newfoundland to the mid-nineteenth century.

4231 Special Topics in Newfoundland History II are specialized studies in the history of Newfoundland since the mid-nineteenth century.

4232 Special Topics in Newfoundland History III - inactive course.

4240-4260 Special Topics in Canadian History are specialized studies in Canadian history. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4310-4330 Special Topics in European History are specialized studies in the history of Europe. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4360-4380 Special Topics in European History are available only as part of the Harlow Campus semester.

4410-4430 Historical Problems are specialized studies in historical problems. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4480 Folklore and Oral History (same as Folklore 4480) is a seminar course which deals with the uses of oral (and aural) sources, particularly those which have a traditional dimension, for the study of history. It will discuss the methods developed by Vansina, Dorson and others for evaluating the historical meaning of oral traditions in literate and non-literate cultures. The use of oral traditions in the study of traditional modes of life and work such as fishing and farming will be considered. The use of oral traditions in the study of social and political history will also be discussed.
4520-4529 Special Topics in Economic and Mercantile History are specialized studies in Economic and Mercantile history. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4560-4570 (Excluding 4568) Special Topics in Social and Intellectual History are specialized studies in Social and Intellectual history. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4670-4689 Special Topics in Maritime History are specialized studies in Maritime history. Aspects to be studied will be announced in the History Department brochure.

4730 Art History: Modern Art I Precursors to Modernism (same as Visual Arts 4730) is an examination of the cultural, social, and political forces which, from 1750 to 1850, were to have a major impact on modernity and later modern art.

Prerequisites: Six credit hours in art history or permission of the chair of the Visual Arts Program.

4731 Art History: Modern Art II Early Modernism (same as Visual Arts 4731) is an examination of the various cultural and social forces between 1850 and 1914 which shaped the rise of the Modern movement.

Prerequisites: Six credit hours in art history or permission of the chair of the Visual Arts Program.

4800 Historiography is an introduction to the major historians and historiographical traditions of the West. This course is for Honours students and other selected students, including those intending to apply for graduate studies.

7.18 Law and Society

Program Co-ordinator: Dr. T. Johnson, Faculty of Education

The program listed below is an interdisciplinary program intended to encourage students to examine different facets of law and its role in society. It is neither a pre-law program nor one offering a certificate or qualification in legal studies. The minor program and courses will acquaint and confront students with different aspects of the history, philosophical basis, and role of law in modern society. The minor includes both courses which deal explicitly with law (e.g., Canadian Constitutional Law, International Law, History of Law, Criminal Justice), and courses in social and political theory and the role of law and its norms in diverse settings (e.g., S/A 3240 Regional Studies: Contemporary Native Peoples of Canada). Law and Society 2000 and Law and Society 4000 are intended to integrate the material and provide a common foundation at both the beginning and the end of the program.

As is the case in any interdisciplinary program, it will be up to the students to ensure that they have the necessary prerequisites to complete the program. For purposes of entry into the courses offered by participating departments, heads will be asked to treat these students on the same basis as their own majors.

7.18.1 Regulations

A minor program in Law and Society will consist of a minimum of 36 credit hours in courses selected according to the stipulations below:

1. Candidates for the minor must complete a minimum of 30 university credit hours including Law and Society 2000 before applying for the program. The prerequisite for Law and Society 2000 is completion of at least 18 university credit hours.

2. Candidates should apply in writing to the Law and Society Committee through the Program Co-ordinator.

3. In addition to Law and Society 2000 and Law and Society 4000, students must complete 18 credit hours, with a maximum of 6 credit hours in courses from each participating department. At least 12 of the 18 credit hours must be completed in courses numbered 3000 or higher.

   Archaeology * 2492
   History 4232 (the former 4214), 4810
   Philosophy 4350, 4360
   Political Science 2710, 3210, 3521, 3720, 4200
   Russian 3910
   Law and Society 4900, 4901-4909

   * indicates cross-listed courses

   The normal departmental prerequisites are applicable, but Department Heads may waive course prerequisites in cases where alternate preparation can be demonstrated.

   4. Law and Society 4000 is compulsory. Before registering for this course students must complete 18 of the 24 credit hours required for the minor, including Law and Society 2000. In exceptional circumstances, the Program Co-ordinator may waive this prerequisite.

   5. Students majoring in one of the participating disciplines may not use courses counted toward their major to fulfill the Law and Society minor requirements; however, up to 6 additional credit hours from their major subject area, listed in 3 above, may be used to fulfill the requirements of the minor.

   6. Up to 6 credit hours in Special Topics courses in Law and Society may be used to fulfill the requirements of the minor under regulation 3 above.

7.18.2 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Program Co-ordinator.

Law and Society courses are designated by LWSO.

2000 Law and Society is an introduction to law in Canadian society and the role which it has played in societies past and present.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 18 university credit hours.

3010-3019 Special Topics in Law and Society will have topics to be studied announced by the Program Co-ordinator.

3200 Women and the Law in Newfoundland History (same as History 3200) examines how legal reforms addressed or challenged the values of the 7.19 Linguistics Programs and Regulations

7.19.1 General Degree

The general degree requires 12 courses, 36 credit hours.

1. Many courses formerly offered by the Department of Linguistics have been renumbered or renamed. Students who have taken Linguistics courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland may not obtain credit for renumbered or renamed courses which the student has already taken. Students should consult with an advisor in the Department of Linguistics to ensure that they are taking the appropriate courses.

2. Prerequisites may be waived in special cases by the Head of the Department.

3. Students majoring in Linguistics must complete 36 credit hours in Linguistics, which must include the six courses numbered Linguistics 1103/2103, 1104/2104, 3000, 3100, 3201, 3500, plus 18 credit hours in courses chosen from Linguistics 1100/2100, 2060, 1105/2105, 2210, 3104, 3105, 3150, 3155, 3210, 3212, 1105/2105, 2210, 3104, 3105, 3150, 3155, 3210, 3212, 3950-3960, 4010-4091, 4050-4059, 4010-4091, 4050-4059, 4100, 4110, 4150, 4151, 4201, 4210, 4500, 4700, 4750-4754, 4900-4901, 4950-4960. Of these 18 credit hours, 9 must be at the 4000 level.

Notes: 1. Students intending to pursue graduate work in Linguistics should include Linguistics 3500, 4201, and at least one of 4100 and 4110 in their programs.

2. In planning a Major, students are required to consult with an advisor in the Department of Linguistics to ensure that their proposed program is possible within the constraints of course scheduling and prerequisites.

7.19.2 Honours Major

The honours major requires 120 courses, 60 credit hours and the joint honours requires 16 courses, 48 credit hours.

1. See General Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honours).

2. An Honours degree in Linguistics must include 60 credit hours in Linguistics courses of which the following are required: Linguistics 1103/2103, 1104/2104, 2210, 3000, 3100, 3104, 3201, 3500, 3850, 4100 (or 4110), 4201, 4999, and at least one of Linguistics 4010-4091, 4150, 4210, 4500, 4700, 4950-4960. Students should choose courses in consultation with their Honours Essay supervisor, to ensure that the needs and interests of the individual candidate are met, and to take into account the availability of courses which the department is able to offer. The Honours or Joint Honours student must also meet a language requirement of 6 credit hours or the equivalent in a second language. Under very special circumstances the Head of the Department may prescribe 6 credit hours in advanced courses in English dialectology in place of the above second language requirement.

3. Linguistics may also be combined with another subject or subjects to constitute a Joint Honours degree. The required courses listed above for the Honours degree, except for Linguistics 4999, will also be required for any Joint Honours degree in Linguistics. A total of 48 credit hours in Linguistics, which may include Linguistics 4999, is required for Joint Honours in Linguistics. Students should consult their Department of Linguistics advisor to ensure that they select courses which complement their other Honours Subject of Specialization.

7.19.3 Minor Programs

1. The General Minor requires 8 courses, 24 credit hours. The following courses are required:
   a. Linguistics 1103/2103 and 1104/2104
   b. Any 2 courses from the following list: Linguistics 3000, 3100, 3104, 3201, 3500, 3850
   c. An additional 4 courses selected from: Linguistics 1100/2100, 1105/2105, 2060, 2210, 3105, 3150, 3155, 3210, 3212, 3220, 3310, 3950-3960, 4010-4091, 4050-4054, 4055-4059, 4100, 4110, 4150, 4151, 4201, 4210, 4210, 4500, 4700, 4750-4754, 4900-4901, 4950-4960.

2. The Focus area in Linguistics for Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) requires a minimum of 6 courses, 18 credit hours in Linguistics. The program is as follows:
   a. Linguistics 1100/2100, 1103/2103, 1104/2104, 2210, and 6 credit hours in courses chosen from Linguistics 3000, 3100, 3104, 3105, 3150, 3155, 3201, 3212, 3500, 3850.
   b. Students are urged to include more than the minimum number of linguistics-related courses in their program.

7.19.4 Course Descriptions

Linguistics courses are designated by LING.

1100 Language and Communication is a general and non-technical introduction to linguistic concepts which are important for understanding the nature of language, its change and its function for communication. Topics include: languages as structured systems; the systematicity of language change; the classification of languages into families and their geographical distribution; language, the brain, and language disorders; the acquisition of language; and human vs animal communication. (Intended for first-year students.)

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1100 and 2100.

1103 Introduction to Linguistics: Morphology and Syntax is an introduction to the study of the meaningful components of words and sentences. This course will demonstrate the principles by which parts of words are organized into larger units (inflectional morphology and word-formation), and by which words pattern into phrases and sentences (syntax). Synchronic and diachronic data from English and several other languages will be analysed to illustrate how language is structured.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1103 and 2103.
1104 Introduction to Linguistics: Phonetics and Phonology is an introduction to the sounds of speech, their description (phonetics), organization (phonology), and interactions with morphology (morphophonology). The sounds of speech are described in terms of the phonetic and phonological properties of sound. The course will also provide an introduction to the study of the phonetics of Newfoundland and Labrador. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1104 and 2104.

1105 The Wonder of Words is an introduction to the structure of words. This course will provide an introduction to the study of the sounds of speech, their description (phonetics), organization (phonology), and interactions with morphology (morphophonology). The sounds of speech are described in terms of the phonetic and phonological properties of sound. The course will also provide an introduction to the study of the phonetics of Newfoundland and Labrador. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1105 and 2105.

1530 Reading and Writing in Innu-aimun I is intended for fluent speakers of Innu-aimun who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1530 and the former LING 1030.

1531 Reading and Writing in Innu-aimun II requires students to continue reading texts of increasing difficulty and continue to improve their ability to spell Innu-aimun. This course will provide an introduction to the study of the sounds of speech, their description (phonetics), organization (phonology), and interactions with morphology (morphophonology). The sounds of speech are described in terms of the phonetic and phonological properties of sound. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1531 and the former LING 1031.

2020 Introduction to the Structure of Inuitut II is an introduction to the linguistic properties of Inuitut. Topics include: the Eskimo-Aleut language family, and the current distribution of dialects; the history of Inuktitut writing systems; inflectional morphology of nouns and verbs; basic derivational morphology; and discussion of how linguistics relates to applied areas, such as interpreting/translating and language teaching.

This course is intended for fluent speakers of Inuktitut who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is not normally offered at the St. John's campus.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 1530 and the former LING 1030.

2021 Introduction to the Structure of Inuitut II is a continuation of Linguistics 2020, dealing with the phonological and morphological structures of Inuitut, with a further survey of elements of syntax, semantics, and dialects. This course is intended for fluent speakers of Inuitut who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is not normally offered at the St. John's campus.

2022 Issues in Oral Inuitut reviews issues of oral Inuitut. Topics included will be the primary role of oral language in communication, language, acquisition and language maintenance. The nature and significance of the Inuitut oral tradition will also be discussed. Different types of oral language will be examined, e.g., stories, newscasts, conversation. Students will study how oral language is used within modern Labrador society and whether language attitudes are reflected in this use. Students will also consider how best to teach oral Inuitut and different ways to test for oral proficiency. This course is intended for fluent speakers of Inuitut who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is not normally offered at the St. John's campus.

Prerequisites: LING 2020.

2023 Reading and Writing in Inuitut reviews issues of written Inuitut. Topics covered will be the role of literacy in modern Labrador, the history of writing in Inuitut, and the Labrador Inuit Standardized Writing System. These topics will be discussed in detail in the context of teaching Inuitut to children. The course will provide an introduction to the study of the sounds of speech, their description (phonetics), organization (phonology), and interactions with morphology (morphophonology). This course is intended for fluent speakers of Inuitut who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is not normally offered at the St. John's campus.

Prerequisites: LING 2020 and LING 2022.

2025 Introduction to Inuitut I introduces students to Inuitut (Eskimo). Students will develop a working knowledge of basic vocabulary and grammar, as well as a number of linguistic concepts that will enable them to consult a wide range of reference books. A strong emphasis will be placed on oral skills. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

2026 Introduction to Inuitut II is a continuation of LING 2025. Students will learn further vocabulary and grammar of the language. They will also be required to submit a project based on their own investigation of some aspect of the grammar of the language, based on either reference books or fieldwork. A strong emphasis will be placed on oral skills. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2025 and LING 2026.

2030 Introduction to Innu-aimun (Montagnais/Naskapi) I is an introduction to the phonology and grammar of the language. Prerequisite: None, except for students working towards the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.), who are required to have previously taken the former LING 1030, and LING 1031. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

2031 Introduction to Innu-aimun (Montagnais/Naskapi) II is a further examination of the grammar of Innu-aimun, including verb paradigms and word formation. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2030 and LING 2031.

2040 Introduction to Mi'kmaq I - inactive course.

2041 Introduction to Mi'kmaq II - inactive course.

2060 Aboriginal Languages of Eastern Canada is an overview of the languages of Eastern Canada. Prerequisites: Students must be fluent speakers of Innu-aimun who are planning to complete the Diploma in Native and Northern Education (T.E.P.L.). This course is not normally offered at the St. John's campus.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2060 and the former LING 2060.

2100 Language and Communication is a general and non-technical introduction to linguistic concepts which are important for understanding the nature of language, its change and its function for communication. Topics include: languages as structured systems; the systematics of language change; the classification of languages into families and their geographical distribution; language, the brain, and language disorders; the acquisition of language, and human and animal communication.

Notes: 1. Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2100 and 2100. (Intended for students beyond first year.)
2. This course may qualify as a Research/Writing course. Consult each semester's Undergraduate Registration Procedures booklet for the R/W designation.

2103 Introduction to Linguistics: Morphology and Syntax is an introduction to the study of the meaningful components of words and sentences. This course will demonstrate the principles by which parts of words are organized into larger units (inflectional morphology and word-formation), and by which words pattern into phrases and sentences (syntax). Synchronic and diachronic data from English and several other languages will be analysed to illustrate how these principles are structured.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2103 and 2103.

2104 Introduction to Linguistics: Phonetics and Phonology is an introduction to the sounds of speech, their description (phonetics), organization (phonology), and interactions with morphology (morphophonology). The patterns and regularities of language will be demonstrated through analysis of synchronic and diachronic data selected from English and other languages.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2104 and 2104.

2105 The Wonder of Words is an introduction to the structure of words. This course presents methods of linguistic analysis through an in-depth study of English word origins. The French, Latin, and Greek origins of technical and scientific words are studied, together with the ways that these words may change in structure, sound, and meaning. The course will also provide an introduction to etymology, to writing systems and transliteration, and to the use of dictionaries.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2105 and the former 1101, and for both LING 1105 and 2105.

2210 Language in Newfoundland and Labrador: An Introduction to Linguistic Variation is a general, non-technical introduction to the linguistic and sociolinguistic features of Newfoundland and Labrador. Topics covered include the concept of variation within language, both regional and social; the chief causes of such variation, and some of its societal and educational consequences; a survey of the language families of Eastern Canada: Eskimo-Aleut (Inuitut) and Algonquian (Innu-aimun, Mi'kmaq, Maliseet-Pasmaquoddy and Brethuk) and Iroquoian (Mohawk) with respect to both linguistic structure and current vitality. The history of language suppression and revitalization efforts, within the context of the larger issues of minority language attrition and maintenance. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

2301 Introduction to Innu-aimun (Montagnais/Naskapi) II is a further examination of the grammar of Innu-aimun, including verb paradigms and word formation. This course is intended for students who want to learn an Aboriginal language spoken in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 2300 and 2101. (Intended for students beyond first year.)

2400 History of the English Language from 1500 - inactive course.

2401 History of the English Language from 1500 to Modern Times - inactive course.

2700-2720 Special Topics in Linguistics: Introduction to Uncommonly Taught Languages including the following:
2700 Introduction to Irish Gaelic I is an introduction to Irish Gaelic I.
2701 Introduction to Irish Gaelic II is an introduction to Irish Gaelic II.
2702 Introduction to Japanese I is an introduction to Japanese I.
2703 Introduction to Japanese II is an introduction to Japanese II.
Prerequisite: LING 2702.
2704 Introduction to Japanese III is an introduction to Japanese III.
Prerequisite: LING 2703.
2705 Introduction to Japanese IV is an introduction to Japanese IV.
Prerequisite: LING 2704.
2706 Introduction to Japanese V is an introduction to Japanese V.
Prerequisite: LING 2705.
3000 Morphological Analysis studies the meaningful parts from which words are built by using restricted data from a variety of languages. Practical work on selected languages will illustrate the wide range of notions which acquire formal expression in grammatical systems. Although previous knowledge of the languages to be discussed is not necessary, an important aspect of the course will be practical experience in analysing phenomena which are foreign to English. Discussion of languages taught at this University will be balanced with analysis of limited data sets from more exotic languages. Comparison of the means by which smaller units are organized into words will make possible an elementary typology of the world's languages.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104.
3100 Generative Syntax is an introduction to the syntactic theory developed by Chomsky, focussing on three essential notions: linguistic competence, universal grammar and linguistic parameters.
Prerequisite: LING 1103/2103.
3104 Phonetics builds on the introduction to phonetics given in 1104/2104, and deals with the wide range of sounds that are used in human languages. On the practical side, the student will systematically learn to identify, symbolize and pronounce a large number of sounds. The theoretical work will deal with numerous aspects of the articularatory, acoustic and perceptual features of speech sounds. This involves the close examination of data from foreign languages chosen to illustrate the fact that languages differ widely in their selection and organization of speech sounds. It also involves study of selected regional differences in the pronunciation of English.
Prerequisite: LING 1104/2104.
3105 Issues in the Acquisition of English and the Adult Learner (same as English 3105) focuses on selected issues in the grammatical, lexical, and pragmatic aspects of adult-learner English. Techniques of contrastive analysis, error analysis, performance analysis, and discourse analysis of corpora from adult English learners are presented and practised.
Prerequisites: English 2390, 3650; LING 1104/2104; Education 2222; English 2100 is recommended.
3150 Bilingualism: Linguistic, Cognitive and Educational Aspects - inactive course.
3155 Introduction to Language Acquisition will examine a number of critical issues in the first and second language acquisition of syntax and phonology. Current generative approaches to first and second language acquisition will be covered, which will be exemplified with data from different languages. An introduction to phonological and syntactic speech disorders will also be covered.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104.
3201 Generative Phonology will present the basic terms, concepts, and methods of Generative Phonology. Theoretical constructs surveyed will include distinctive feature theory and syllable structure. These constructs will be exemplified using phenomena observed in natural languages, including allomorphy, allomorphs, processes such as assimilation and neutralization. Students will also be introduced to recent, constraint-based theories of phonology.
Prerequisites: LING 2104/2104.
3210 Language Variation and Change will provide a thorough grounding in the methods and theory underlying current approaches to language variation and change.
Prerequisites: LING 2210, or third-year standing, or permission of the instructor.
3212 Language and Gender is a survey of language and gender issues, including (i) the representation of males and females in English and other languages; (ii) stereotypes associated with male and female speech; and (iii) sex differences in language production.
Prerequisite: LING 2210 or Women's Studies 2000 are recommended.
3220 Linguistics and Law - inactive course.
3302 History of the French Language (same as French 3302) is an examination of the historico-philological and morphological structure of French. Data from regional and non-standard varieties contrasted with data from standard French: formal rules to deal with observed regularities. Interactions of phonology and morphology in phenomena such as liaison. Derivational and inflectional morphology. Research articles on one or more of the topics dealt with in the course will be assigned as readings, and a written report in French based on one or more of the articles is to be submitted as part of the term work. This course will normally be taught in French.
Note: Students who have not completed French 2300 are strongly advised to complete at least 3 credit hours in French courses at the 2000 level before attempting LING 3310.
Prerequisite: French 2300 or permission of the instructor.
3311 Introduction to General Linguistics: Aspects of French Linguistic Theory (same as French 3311) is a practical examination of the French verbal system, with a thorough exposition of the systems of aspect, voice, tense and mood. The fundamental concepts of linguistics will form the framework for the languages; the grammatical and phonological description and its relationship to underlying and surface entities; language as activity and the generation of surface elements from underlying subsystems. This course will normally be taught in French.
Prerequisite: A Linguistics course or French 2100 or 2159.
3500 Historical Linguistics will focus on: Genetic relationships between languages; the comparative method; language change found in phonetics; phonology, morphology and syntax; lexical and semantic change; the role of language and dialect contact; comparative and internal reconstruction; the typological and genetic classification of languages.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104.
3580 Semantics is an introduction to the study of linguistic meaning. Word-and sentence-level semantics, grammatical meaning, pragmatics, and logical aspects of meaning.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 is required; LING 3000 and 3100 are recommended.
3590-3595 (excluding 3951) Special Topics in linguistics will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.
Note: 4010-4091 will focus on the linguistic structure of certain languages, and are designed to provide senior students with the opportunity of being exposed to a substantial part of the grammar of a language other than those regularly offered in the Faculty of Arts. One course in this series will be offered each year, subject to availability of instructor.
4020 Introduction to Irish Gaelic II is an introduction to Irish Gaelic II.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104, or the permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.
4050-4055 Linguistic Structure of a North American Aboriginal Language could study the following languages: Cree, Inuit (Inuktitut), Innu-aimun (Montagnais/Naskapi), etc.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104, or the permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.
4055-4059 Linguistic Structure of an Uncommonly Taught Language could study the following languages: Fijian, Modern Arabic, Classical and Vedic Sanskrit, or other exotic languages.
Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103 and 1104/2104, or the permission of the instructor and the Head of the Department.
Note: Except where an exemption is supplied by the Head of the Department, a student may not obtain credit for more than one course in the LING 4050-4054 series. Students may not obtain credit for any of the previously offered LING 4010, 4011, 4020, 4021, 4026, 4030, 4031, 4040, 4041 in addition to a course in the LING 4050-4054 series.
4100 Morphosyntactic Analysis is an analysis of a wide range of linguistic data in morphology and syntax. The course will focus on essential linguistic concepts in more than one theoretical framework, and on the nature of linguistic evidence. (Usually offered in alternate years).
Prerequisites: LING 3000 and 3100.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both LING 4100 and the former 4001.
4110 Selected Topics in Generative Grammar examines a particular topic or set of related topics which are selected by the instructor and which are important in contemporary generative theory. Readings will normally come from the primary literature. This course is usually offered in alternate years.
Prerequisite: LING 3100.
4150 Language Acquisition II provides an evaluation of the theoretical aspects of first and second language acquisition. Theories about the role of linguistic principles, learnability and the role of linguistic input are discussed, in light of research on the acquisition of English and other languages.
Prerequisite: LING 3155.
4151 Advanced Topics in Phonological Acquisition will address current empirical and theoretical issues pertaining to the first language acquisition of phonology. From an empirical perspective, we will look at developmental patterns as well as variation or lack thereof among and between learners, within and across languages. From a theoretical perspective, we will address how theoretical frameworks can, and at times cannot, account for the variation observed. Taking a universalist approach as a starting point, we will address how the language input provided by different languages can influence the learner’s analysis of the phonology of this language during the course of acquisition. This influence will be both addressed in terms of grammatical learning and from the perspective of production patterns observed in the data. Prerequisite: LING 4150.

4201 Phonological Theory will familiarize students with current issues in phonological theory. Issues such as phonology in the lexicon, segmental and prosodic representations, the analysis of stress and tonal systems, as well as a comprehensive introduction to constraint-based approaches to phonology will be covered. Students will further develop their ability to analyse phonological data. (Normally offered every year in Winter semester). Prerequisite: LING 3201.

4210 Sociolinguistics studies the detailed patterns of variation found in any given speech community, and factors which co-vary with them; the various theoretical models proposed to account for such variability. As their major assignment, students will complete a carefully restricted sociolinguistic project. (Usually offered in alternate years). Prerequisites: LING 1103/2103, 2210 and 3104.

4301 French Dialects, Patois and Argots - inactive course.

4310 The French Language in Canada - inactive course.

4350 General Romance Linguistics - inactive course.

4400 Historical and Comparative Linguistics - inactive course.

4403 Etymology: History of English Words - inactive course.

4420 English Dialectology I - inactive course.

4421 English Dialectology II - inactive course.

4500 Introduction to Field Methods is data collection and organization for an unfamiliar language in a simulated field situation, including methods of elicitation, data filing, preliminary analysis, and hypothesis formation and testing. In this course, you will learn to apply theoretical concepts from all major Linguistics subdisciplines, including phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, and historical linguistics. (Usually offered in alternate years). Prerequisites: LING 3000, 3100, 3104, and 3201.

4700 Experimental Phonetics examines some empirical methods of studying the different stages of ‘the speech chain’ which links speaker to hearer, with special emphasis on the acoustic and perceptual stages. The source-plus-filter theory of speech production. A survey of the range of natural articulations and their acoustic effects. Some competing theories of speech perception. Acoustic versus perceptual bases for phonological features. Prerequisite: LING 3104, or permission of the Head of Department.

4750 Selected Topics in Phonology will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. This course introduces students to more advanced topics in core linguistic disciplines. Prerequisite: LING 4201.

4751 Selected Topics in Morpho-Syntax will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. This course introduces students to more advanced topics in core linguistic disciplines. Prerequisites: LING 4100 or LING 4110.

4752 Selected Topics in Semantics will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. This course introduces students to more advanced topics in core linguistic disciplines. Prerequisites: LING 4100 or 4110.

4753 Selected Topics in Acquisition will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. This course introduces students to more advanced topics in core linguistic disciplines. Prerequisites: LING 4150 or 4151.

4754 Selected Topics in Linguistic Variation will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. This course introduces students to more advanced topics in core linguistic disciplines. Prerequisites: LING 4150 or 4151.

4900 and 4901 Independent Study are courses that are open to advanced students wishing to do individual research in consultation with an advisor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

4950-4960 Special Topics in Linguistics will have topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

4999 Honours Essay is required as part of the honours program.

7.20 Mathematics and Statistics

For Departmental Regulations and Course Descriptions, see Faculty of Science section of the Calendar.

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics:

1. Major in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. only)
2. Major in Pure Mathematics
3. Major in Statistics
4. Honours in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. only)
5. Honours in Pure Mathematics
6. Honours in Statistics
7. Minor in Mathematics
8. Minor in Statistics
9. Pure Mathematics/Statistics Joint Honours
10. Applied Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
11. Applied Mathematics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
12. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
13. Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
14. Pure Mathematics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
15. Statistics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
16. Statistics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
17. Joint Major in Statistics and Economics (Co-operative) (B.Sc. only)
18. Applied Mathematics/Chemistry Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
19. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
20. Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
21. Statistics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
22. Statistics/Biology Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)

7.21 Medieval Studies

Program Supervisor: Dr. W. Schipper, Department of English

A multi-disciplinary program in Medieval Studies is offered for candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts; it may be taken only as a second Major program in conjunction with a disciplinary Major, or as a Minor program.

The objective of the program is the integrated study through core courses of a historical and cultural period, the Middle Ages, here defined as the period between Antiquity and the Modern Age. Such an approach, coordinating the methods and subjects of several disciplines, mirrors the pluralistic and interreligious framework of the age and provides context for the study of a student's first Major.

7.21.1 Major Program

Students majoring in Medieval Studies shall discuss their program with the Program Supervisor or delegate. Students electing Medieval Studies as their second Major shall complete a minimum of 36 credit hours in courses which shall include the following:

2. Six credit hours from Medieval Studies 3000, 3001, 3002, 3003, 3004, 3005 and 3006.
3. Six credit hours in courses at the 4000 level chosen from either Medieval Studies 4000-4020 or List A.
5. An additional 12 credit hours in courses either from the Course List or on List A below normally to include at least 6 credit hours taken in courses at the 3000 level or above. Additional courses may be chosen in consultation with the Program Supervisor.
6. No more than 6 credit hours in courses counted for a student's first major may be counted towards the Major in Medieval Studies.

7.21.2 Minor Program

Students pursuing a minor in Medieval Studies shall discuss their program with the Program Supervisor or delegate. Students electing Medieval Studies as a Minor shall complete a minimum of 24 credit hours in courses which shall include the following:

2. Six credit hours from Medieval Studies 3000, 3001, 3002, 3003, 3004, 3005 and 3006.
3. Three credit hours in courses at the 4000 level chosen from either Medieval Studies 4000-4020 or List A.
4. An additional 9 credit hours in courses either from the Course List or on List A below, normally to include at least 3 credit hours taken in courses at the 3000 level or above. Additional courses may be chosen in consultation with the Program Supervisor.
5. No more than 3 credit hours in courses counted for a student's major may be counted towards the Minor in Medieval Studies.

7.21.3 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Medieval Studies courses are designated by MST. Courses with the same title are available at both the Harlow Campus and the St. John's Campus in the Winter and Spring, respectively, and at the Harlow Campus Semester. Courses with numbers 3710-3729 Special Topics in Medieval Studies are seminars on such general, interdisciplinary or comparative subjects as, e.g., Popular Culture in the Middle Ages, The Medieval Stage, The Medieval Court, The Religious Orders, Women in Medieval Society, Medieval Universities, Scholasticism, Dante's Divine Comedy, Medieval Historiography, Arthurian Romance, Jewish Medieval Communities, Muslim Art and Architecture and The Byzantine World. Prerequisite: MST 3000 or 3001 or permission of the instructor.

3005 Medieval Latin - inactive course.

3006 Women Writers in the Middle Ages (same as Women's Studies 3001 and English 3006) will study selections from the considerable corpus of women's writings in the Medieval period, as well as issues which affected women's writing. All selections will be read in English translation. Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of MST 3006, Women's Studies 3001 and the former MST 335.1.

3710-3729 Special Topics in Medieval Studies is available only as part of the Harlow Campus Semester.

4000-4020 Special Topics in Medieval Studies are seminars on such general, interdisciplinary or comparative subjects as, e.g., Popular Culture in the Middle Ages, The Medieval Stage, The Medieval Court, The Religious Orders, Women in Medieval Society, Medieval Universities, Scholasticism, Dante's Divine Comedy, Medieval Historiography, Arthurian Romance, Jewish Medieval Communities, Muslim Art and Architecture and The Byzantine World. Prerequisite: MST 3000 or 3001 or permission of the instructor.

2001 Medieval Europe to 1050 (same as History 2320) is a survey of the economic, social, political and cultural developments of the early Middle Ages.

2002 Medieval Europe, 1050 to the Reformation (same as History 2330) is a survey of the economic, social, political and cultural developments of Europe in the high and late Middle Ages.

3000 Medieval Books (same as English 3002, History 3000, Religious Studies 3000) is an examination of the development and role of the manuscript book during the Middle Ages. Topics covered will include book production and dissemination, authors, scribes and audiences, and various kinds of books (e.g. glossed Bibles, anthologies, books of hours, etc.) and their uses. Prerequisite: MST 2000, 2001 or 2002 or permission of the instructor. Note: MST 3000 may be substituted for a Greek and Roman Studies course in both the Classics degree programs (Honours, Joint Honours and general degree) and the Greek and Roman Studies degree programs (Honours, Joint Honours and general degree).

3001 Art, Architecture and Medieval Life (same as History 3020, Archaeology 3589, Folklore 3001) is an examination of the development of medieval art and architecture and of the ways in which they mirror various aspects of life in the Middle Ages. The course will include a discussion of art and architecture in the countryside, in the town, in the castle, in the cathedral and in the cloister. Prerequisite: MST 2000, 2001 or 2002 or permission of the instructor. Note: It is recommended, but not obligatory, that students should have successfully completed one of the following courses: Archaeology 2480, Folklore 1000 or 2000, History 2320, /MST 2001, History 2330, /MST 2002, MST 2000.

3002 Folklore in Medieval Society - inactive course.

3003 Christian Thought in the Middle Ages (same as Religious Studies 3560) is a study of the development of Christianity in the West from the eleventh century to the eve of the Reformation, through an examination of its principal thinkers and the most significant societal forces and events: the crusades, the universities, monasticism, religious dissent, and mysticism.

3004 Medieval Philosophy - inactive course.
Not all these courses may be offered each year; students should check with departments with regard to availability and prerequisites.

7.22 Newfoundland Studies

Program Supervisor: Dr. H. Rollmann

A multi-disciplinary Minor program in Newfoundland Studies is offered to candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree. The objective of the program is the study of Newfoundland society and culture through a variety of disciplinary approaches rather than the concentration upon a single discipline. This Minor program is an alternative to a Minor offered by a single department. Since the program draws upon courses in several departments, it is administered by an interdepartmental committee. The Program Supervisor will advise students upon the selection of courses in the Minor.

7.22.1 Minor Program

1. To qualify for a Minor in Newfoundland Studies, a student shall complete a total of 24 credit hours in courses as follows:
   a. Fifteen credit hours in courses on the following list and from at least four different Departments.
      - Archaeology 3850 (same as Folklore 3850), 3860 (same as Archaeology 3860 and History 3860)
      - Economics 2070, 3070
      - Education 3571
      - English 3155
      - Folklore 2230 (same as S/A 2230), 2300, 3850 (same as Archaeology 3850) and 3860 (same as Archaeology 3860 and History 3860)
      - Geography 2290, 2495
      - History 3110, 3120, 3200 (same as Law and Society 3200), 3860 (same as Archaeology 3860 and Folklore 3860)
      - Law and Society 3200 (same as History 3200)
Linguistics 2210
Music 2021, 2022, 2023 (a maximum of 3 credit hours)
Political Science 3780
Religious Studies 3900, 3901
Sociology/Archaeology 2220, 2230 (same as Folklore 2230)

Note: Religious Studies 3900/3901 deal with different periods and topics. Students can register in 3901 without having taken 3900.

b. Nine additional credit hours in courses chosen from the above list and/or from the following, including at least 3 credit hours chosen from courses at the 4000 level:
   Anthropology 4280
   Folklore 4310, 4400
   French 4400 (same as Folklore 4400)
   History 4230, 4231
   Linguistics 4220
   Political Science 4731
   Sociology 4240

Note: Students should consult the Program Supervisor on the applicability of special topics and other courses that have a high level of Newfoundland and/or Labrador content. The Program Supervisor can then seek permission for the inclusion of such courses in the student's minor program.

c. Prerequisites: Normal departmental prerequisites will be required as laid down by the various Departments.

2. Up to 6 credit hours in courses counted for a student's Major Department may count towards the Minor, but these shall be in addition to the minimum course requirements for the Major.

7.23 Philosophy

7.23.1 General

Philosophy courses may be taken singly as general arts electives or as part of a Minor, Major, Honours or multidisciplinary program. Normally, Philosophy 1200/2200 is a prerequisite for all philosophy courses at the 3000 level and above, though all courses are open to any student as electives with the permission of the Head of Department. Philosophy 1600 is not required for further courses in philosophy, but is of particular value to students interested in the Social Sciences and Humanities.

7.23.2 Minor Program

The minor program in Philosophy consists of a minimum of 24 credit hours in courses which must be chosen in accordance with the following requirements:
1. Philosophy 1200 or 2200, Philosophy 2210 or 2220, Philosophy 2230 or 3400, Philosophy 2701 or 2702
2. A major author course i.e. one of 3730, 3740, 3800, 3840, 3850
3. An additional 9 credit hours in Philosophy courses

Notes:
1. Students declaring a Minor in Philosophy may choose to have a program advisor by mutual agreement with a member of the Philosophy Department.
2. Of the courses numbered 1001, 1003, 1600 and those numbered 2800-2810, not more than two may be counted towards the Minor.

7.23.3 Major Program

The major program in Philosophy consists of a minimum of 36 credit hours in courses chosen in accordance with the following requirements:
1. Philosophy 1200 or 2200, Philosophy 2210, Philosophy 2220, Philosophy 2230 or 3400, Philosophy 2701 or 2702, Philosophy 3730 or 3740, Philosophy 3800 or 3840 or 3850, Philosophy 3910 or 3920 or 3940
2. One course in the 4700-4790 series
3. One course in the 4800-4890 series
4. An additional 6 credit hours in Philosophy courses

Notes:
1. Students declaring a major in Philosophy must choose a program advisor in consultation with the Head of the Department and the faculty member concerned.
2. Of the courses numbered 1001, 1003, 1600 and those numbered 2800-2810, not more than two may be counted towards the Major.

7.23.4 Honours Program

The full Honours program requires a minimum of 60 credit hours in Philosophy courses; Joint Honours requires a minimum of 45 credit hours in Philosophy courses. These must include:
1. Philosophy 1200 or 2200, Philosophy 2210, Philosophy 2220, Philosophy 2230 or 3400, Philosophy 2701 or 2702, Philosophy 3730 or 3740, Philosophy 3800 or 3840 or 3850, Philosophy 3910, Philosophy 3920 or 3940
2. One course in the 4700-4790 series
3. One course in the 4800-4890 series
4. An additional 3 credit hours in courses at the 4000 level
5. Either Philosophy 4998 or 4999
6. Candidates for Joint Honours must choose 4998*
7. Candidates for full Honours may take 4999 only with permission of the Department.
8. Other Philosophy courses to a total of 60 credit hours for Full Honours, 45 credit hours for Joint Honours.

* Candidates for Joint Honours who elect to fulfill the honours requirement in the other discipline are not required to take the Comprehensive Examination. (See General Regulations for the Honours degree of Bachelor of Arts)

7.23.5 Course Descriptions

courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Some sections of Philosophy 1200, 1600, 2200, and 2800-2810 may qualify as Research/Writing courses for the B.A. Core requirements. Consult each semester's Registration Booklet for the R/W designation.

Philosophy courses are designated by PHIL.

1100 Critical Thinking aims to impart critical analytic skills: i.e., the ability to recognize good and bad arguments, to explain why a particular argument is good or bad, and a general understanding of why a good argument ought to persuade and a bad argument ought not to persuade.

1200 Introduction to Philosophy is a general introduction to the study of Philosophy both as a contemporary intellectual discipline and as a body of knowledge. The course covers the main divisions, fundamental questions and essential terminology of Philosophy through a reading of classical texts. (It is a required course for further courses in Philosophy programs. It is intended for students in first year who have completed one semester of university education).

1600 Philosophy of Human Nature is an approach to philosophical thinking by way of analysis and critique of theories of human nature, classical and modern, and the world views associated with them.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PHIL 1600 and the former PHIL 1001.

2200 Introduction to Philosophy is the same as PHIL 1200 but offered to students beyond first year.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PHIL 1200 and 2200.

7.24 Political Science

7.24.1 Organization of Courses

Political Science courses are divided into four levels to assist students in making an orderly progression in their study of various fields within the discipline.

1. Political Science 1000, 1010, and 1020 are basic courses introducing students to the study of politics. Political Science 1000 and 1010 place particular emphasis on Canadian Politics, while Political Science 1020 stresses international issues. Any two of these courses are recommended to students interested in knowledge and skills useful for understanding politics and government and the context in which political decisions are made.

2. Courses at the 2000 level are designed to introduce the student to the Major areas within the discipline of Political Science: Political Theory (x0xx), (x1xx); International Politics (x2xx); Comparative Politics (x3xx), (x4xx); Political Behaviour (x5xx); and Canadian Politics (x7xx). These courses raise questions, survey substantive knowledge, and introduce methodological approaches useful to students going on to more advanced courses in these fields. Taken together these courses serve as a foundation for a Major program in Political Science. Individually, they are open to all students interested in exploring specific aspects of Political Science.

3. 3000-level courses deal with a wide range of topics in depth, and assume some previous knowledge of appropriate areas of Political Science or related disciplines.

4. 4000-level courses are advanced seminars, either bringing together several approaches or fields of knowledge within the discipline, or focussing on specific problems.

7.24.2 Prerequisites

1. No prerequisites will apply to Political Science courses unless specified. Students, however, are encouraged to ensure that they have adequate preparation for courses in which they intend to register.

2. Since Political Science 2710 and one of Political Science 2200 or 2300 are required for all majors, and 2710 is required for minors, it is strongly recommended that these courses be taken no later than in a student’s second year.

3. Students should complete at least 6 credit hours in courses with the initial digit ‘2’ before registering in a course with the initial digit ‘3’.

4. Students should complete at least 6 credit hours in courses with the initial digit ‘3’ before registering in a course with the initial digit ‘4’.

5. Students are strongly encouraged to consult with their faculty advisor prior to registration in each semester.

7.24.3 Requirements for General Degree

1. To qualify for a B.A. degree with a Major in Political Science, a student must, in addition to meeting the general requirements, complete at least 42 credit hours in courses offered by the Department, including:

   a. Political Science 1000, 1010, or 1020 are recommended as first courses for any student interested in majoring in Political Science. No more than two of these courses may be counted toward the 42 credit hours in Political Science required for a Major.

   b. Students must complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in courses at the 2000-level including Political Science 2710 and 2711, and Political Science 2200 or 2300; and

   c. a minimum of 24 credit hours in courses numbered 3000 or above including at least 6 credit hours in courses at the 4000 level.

   Note: First year history courses provide an important foundation for students majoring in Political Science. The Department recommends that majors and prospective majors take introductory history courses in their first year of study.

2. A Minor program in Business Administration is available for Political Science majors. For details, see the regulations for the Faculty of Business Administration.
7.24.4 Honours Program

An Honours degree may be required for admission to post-graduate programs in Political Science, and may be useful preparation for law and other professional fields. Students considering an Honours program are encouraged to apply to the Department early, preferably during their third or forth terms. Students are admitted to the Political Science Honours Program in accordance with University and Faculty of Arts Honours Degree regulations. To qualify for the B.A.(Hons.) Degree in Political Science, a student must complete at least 60 credit hours in courses offered by the Department.

1. Political Science 1000, 1010, or 1020, are recommended as first courses for any student majoring in Political Science. No more than two of these courses may be counted toward the 60 credit hours in Political Science required for an Honours degree.
2. Students must complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in courses at the 2000-level including Political Science 2010 or 2500, Political Science 2710 and 2711, and Political Science 2200 or 2300;
3. Political Science 3010, 3011 and 3100 and
4. At least 15 credit hours in courses numbered 4000 and above, including Political Science 4950 and Political Science 4951 (Honours Essay I and II).

Students must follow the Guidelines Governing Honours Essays provided in Political Science 4950 and available from the Head of the Department.

7.24.5 Requirements for Minors

To qualify for a Minor in Political Science, a student must complete at least 24 credit hours in courses offered by the Department.

1. Political Science 1000, 1010, or 1020 are recommended as first courses for any student interested in completing a minor in Political Science. No more than two of these courses may be counted toward the 24 credit hours in Political Science required for a Minor.
2. Students must complete Political Science 2710 and at least one of Political Science 2000, 2010, 2200, 2300, or 2500; and
3. At least 12 credit hours in courses numbered 3000 or above including at least 3 credit hours in courses at the 4000 level.

7.24.6 Faculty Advising

Students who intend to Major or Minor in Political Science must inform the Head of the Department. Each Major student is assigned a Faculty Advisor, who is responsible for planning with the student an overall program, and for approving a course program for each term. The Department stresses the importance of regular consultation between student and Faculty Advisor as the most effective way to assure a rational and relevant academic program within the broad outlines of the University and Departmental regulations.

7.24.7 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the current academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Political Science courses are designated by POSC.

7.27 Sociology

7.27.1 Programs in Sociology

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:

1. Major or Honours in Sociology
2. Joint Honours in Sociology and Another Major Subject
3. Major or Honours in Sociology/Anthropology
4. Minor in Sociology
5. Minor in Sociology/Anthropology

7.27.2 Admission to Honours Program
Admission to the Honours program in the Department of Sociology is competitive and selective. Students who wish to enter this program must submit an "Application for Admission to Honours Program" form to the Department.

To be accepted into the Honours program, a student must not only meet the criteria laid out in the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts, but must normally have obtained a cumulative average of at least 75% in 18 credit hours in courses in Sociology which must include Sociology 3040 and 3150.

7.27.3 General Information and Prerequisites
Credit is not given for both Sociology 1000 and 2000. Sociology 1000 (or the former 2000) and 6 additional credit hours in Sociology courses at the 2000-level are prerequisites for all 3000-level courses in Sociology. Sociology 3040, Sociology 3150 and 3 additional credit hours in Sociology courses at the 3000-level are prerequisites for all 4000-level courses in Sociology.

7.27.4 Major
Major Options.
A student majoring in the Department may elect one of two options: 1. Sociology; 2. Interdisciplinary Studies in Sociology and Anthropology. The interdisciplinary option is for students whose major interests lie in areas which overlap departmental boundaries. An interdisciplinary curriculum of courses is available. These courses are recommended for: a) students who are interested in an interdisciplinary Sociology/Anthropology Major; b) students majoring in either Sociology or Anthropology, wishing to broaden their disciplinary perspective; c) students in other fields interested in exploring, from an interdisciplinary perspective, specific problem areas in the Social Sciences. The courses in this option are clearly indicated by the designation S/A before the course number. All students must meet the requirements listed under General Degree Regulations, Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Under these regulations a minimum of 36 credit hours in Sociology courses are required with appropriate added selections from other departments.

Specific regulations for each option are:
1. Sociology Option: Students wishing to Major in Sociology must complete Sociology 1000 (or the former 2000), Sociology 3040, Sociology 3150, Sociology 3160, and at least 6 credit hours in Sociology at the 4000 level from the courses listed in the Table below. No more than an additional 6 credit hours in courses below the 3000-level may be counted toward the Major. The remaining courses, for the minimum of 36 credit hours required for the Major, may be selected from any Sociology and S/A offerings at the 3000 and 4000 levels.
2. Interdisciplinary (S/A) Option: Students wishing to Major in this option must complete at least 24 credit hours in S/A couredetailises, plus a minimum of 12 credit hours in courses selected from offerings in Sociology, Anthropology, or S/A. Specific requirements are under the Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program.

7.27.5 Minor
Minor Option.
A Minor in Sociology requires completion of Sociology 1000 or 2000, Sociology 3040, 3150, at least 3 credit hours from Sociology courses at the 4000 level, listed in the Table below, and 12 credit hours in other Sociology or S/A courses.

Note: Students majoring in either Anthropology or Sociology cannot elect to Minor in the S/A Program. Likewise, S/A Majors cannot elect either Anthropology or Sociology as a Minor.

7.28 Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Studies Program

Program Supervisor: Dr. S. Riggins, Department of Sociology

7.28.1 General

The Sociology/Anthropology Interdepartmental Program is for students whose Major interests lie in areas which overlap departmental boundaries. It was originally (1973-80) a program option within both the Anthropology and Sociology Departments. The purpose of the program is to provide for a systematic study of human society through accessible works of Sociology and Anthropology which are not narrowly limited to one discipline. Courses are topical, regional or integrative in character, and a balanced plan of study will include some of each type, with the integrative courses scheduled to follow and draw together lessons of the others. The program has both Major and Minor components, the details of which are given below. In constructing their individual study plans, students should consult the Program Supervisor wherever questions arise as to the optimum sequence or suitability of particular courses. S/A program courses are also part of the Sociology and Anthropology department listings, and may be taken by students in these and other departments, providing they have the appropriate prerequisites or permission of the instructor.

7.28.2 Prerequisites

S/A courses at the 2000 level have no prerequisites. For courses at the 3000 or 4000 level students must have taken 6 credit hours in S/A courses at the 2000 level. For prerequisites for all Sociology and Anthropology courses other than S/A courses see the Sociology or Anthropology departmental regulations. In addition, some courses may have other specific prerequisites, as noted in this calendar, or as set out in the course description. These may, however, be waived at the discretion of the Program Supervisor or delegate for students who can demonstrate they have equivalent or alternate preparation for the course. If there is any question about this students should, in the first instance, consult the instructor.

7.28.3 S/A Major Program

A major in the S/A program must complete at least 36 credit hours, consisting of 24 credit hours in S/A courses, plus a minimum of 12 additional credit hours (see below).

The 24 credit hours in S/A must include the following:

1. Nine credit hours in introductory courses, including:
   a. At least 6 credit hours in S/A courses at the 2000 level;
   b. Three credit hours in courses chosen from Sociology 1000, Sociology 2000, Sociology 2250, Anthropology 1031, or an additional 2000 level S/A course.

   Note: Ideally, the 9 credit hours in courses at the introductory level should be taken before work on the 3000 level is begun; however, one introductory course may be taken concurrent to work at the 3000 level.

2. S/A 3600, followed by S/A 4000.
3. An additional 3 credit hours from S/A courses at the 4000 level.
4. Six additional credit hours in S/A courses at the 3000 or 4000 level, to complete the 24 S/A credit hours requirement.

The 12 additional credit hours shall be completed from any Sociology, Anthropology or S/A courses, in any combination, at least 6 credit hours of which must be taken in courses at the 3000 or 4000 levels.

7.28.4 S/A Minor Program

A Minor in Sociology/Anthropology requires completion of 24 credit hours in S/A courses, as follows:

1. at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 2000 level
2. at least 15 credit hours in courses at the 3000 and 4000 level, including S/A 3600 and S/A 4000.
Students will normally complete at least 6 credit hours in courses at the 2000-level before proceeding to the 3000 and 4000 levels.

7.28.5 Honours Program
To be accepted into the Honours Program, a student must submit an "Application for Admission to Honours Program" form to the S/A Program Supervisor. A successful applicant will not only meet the criteria laid out in the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts, but also have a proposal accepted for an honours essay research topic, for which the student has identified a faculty member who has indicated willingness to act as supervisor.

Honours students are required to complete at least 60 credit hours of S/A, Anthropology and Sociology courses, including all courses required for the Major in Sociology/Anthropology, of which at least 39 credit hours must be in S/A courses. The courses must include either S/A 4990 or 4991 and must meet the requirements outlined in the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

7.28.6 Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Notes:
1. Normal prerequisites and waiver policies in the respective departments will apply.
2. Some courses may not be offered on a regular basis. Consult the appropriate department for scheduling information.

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Women's Studies courses are designated by WSTD.

1000 Introduction to Women's Studies considers women, women's studies and feminisms as areas of exploration from historical, cross-cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives. The aim of this course is to provide a critical framework for thinking about questions relating to gender and other forms of social difference.

Note: Students can receive credit for only one of Women's Studies 1000 and the former Women's Studies 2000.

2001 Women and Science - inactive course.

2005 Identities and Difference examines feminist scholarship about the construction of identities and difference in cultural discourses, representation and institutions. Prerequisite: WSTD 1000

3000 Feminist Approaches to Research Methods addresses the question 'what is feminist research?' It familiarizes students with basic tools and research skills for feminist enquiry. As a requirement of this course, students may be asked to design and carry out a research project. Prerequisite: WSTD 1000 3001 Women Writers in the Middle Ages (same as Medieval Studies 3006 and English 3906) will study selections from the considerable corpus of women's writings in the Medieval period, as well as issues which affected women's writing. All selections will be read in English translation.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for more than one of WSTD 3001, Medieval Studies 3006, and the former Medieval Studies 3351.

3002-3020 (Excluding 3004, 3005 and 3009) Special Topics in Women's Studies will have topics announced by the Department.

3100 Women and Health uses an interdisciplinary perspective and will explore selected issues relating to women and their health. The material covered will help students acquire a better appreciation and understanding of some of the determinants of women's health, gender bias in health care and research, the portrayal of women's health in the popular press, and women as patients. A primary emphasis of the course will be to teach students the skills to carry out gender-based analyses of the health literature and health organizations. Prerequisite: WSTD 1000. WSTD 2005 is recommended.

4000 Contemporary Feminist Issues is an interdisciplinary seminar in Women's Studies that identifies emerging debates in contemporary feminism and analyses complex and contentious issues and how they intersect and disrupt social constructions of gender. Three hour seminar per week. Prerequisites: Students must normally have completed WSTD 3000 and 15 credit hours in other courses applicable to the Women's Studies Major and Minor programs before taking Women's Studies 4000. WSTD 3005 is recommended. In exceptional cases, students without these prerequisites may be accepted, with the approval of the instructor of WSTD 4000 and the Head of the Department.

4005 Feminist Praxis examines, in considerable depth and detail, connections between feminist theories and feminist activism for social and political change. It examines how women's activism is mobilized in different historical, cultural and national contexts. Prerequisite: Students must normally have completed WSTD 3005 and 15 credit hours in other courses applicable to the Women's Studies Major and Minor programs before taking WSTD 4005. In exceptional cases, students without these prerequisites may be accepted, with the approval of the instructor of WSTD 4005 and the Head of the Department.

4107 Women and Technological Change - inactive course.

1 Philosophy of the Business Administration Programs

The Business Administration Programs are designed to provide students with a liberal business education and to prepare students for a creative role in business. The objectives of the program are to provide the graduate with:

1. a working knowledge of the functional areas of an organization,
2. a capacity for self development,
3. a high level of communication skills,
4. the ability to identify and analyse problems and opportunities and collect the relevant data pertinent to these,
5. a sensitivity to human interrelationships,
6. an awareness of subtle interplay of influence, persuasion and power in organizations,
7. an ability to recognize and respond to change,
8. an ability to apply skills to a variety of situations,
9. a sensitivity to the social, cultural and governmental environment.

The program leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) is set up to provide the student with a combination of academic terms or semesters and full-time work terms in the business environment. These work terms are arranged with the full cooperation of business firms and government enterprises and are supervised. They are designed to provide the student with the opportunity to weld theory and practice and to provide a broader preparation for a work career.

The business environment is becoming ever more complex. The program, therefore, recognizes that it is not enough to give the student theoretical and technical training only. By being exposed, as early as possible, to the environment in which he/she will eventually work, the student will be better able to appreciate that most work is accomplished and goals are achieved by working with and through people operating in a social and organizational setting. Such exposure will also aid the students in defining their own career interests and objectives.

The program leading to the Diploma in Business Administration and the Degree of Bachelor of Commerce is specifically designed to meet the needs of individuals who hold full- or part-time employment and who wish to complement their work experience with theoretical and practical training in business administration. The program provides such individuals with an opportunity to develop the abilities and to acquire the tools needed to deal with a changing work environment.

The program leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration permits students to combine core studies in the management area with interests in other fields. To that end, students who are enrolled in this program may complete a minor in the faculties of Arts or Science, the School of Music (or other areas with permission) or one of the minors offered at the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

Additional information regarding the Faculty of Business Administration is available at www.business.mun.ca/home/.

2 Programs in Business Administration

The following undergraduate programs are available:
1. Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)
2. Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) (Honours)
3. Bachelor of Commerce
4. Bachelor of Commerce (Honours)
5. Diploma in Business Administration
6. Bachelor of Business Administration
7. Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours)
8. International Bachelor of Business Administration (iBBA)
9. International Bachelor of Business Administration (iBBA) (Honours)
10. Minor in Business Administration

2.1 Graduate Studies

A program leading to the M.B.A. degree is described in the School of Graduate Studies section of the University calendar.

3 Regulations for Business Minor

1. Students who are completing degrees in the Faculties of Arts and/or Science, or certain degrees in the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, may complete a minor in Business Administration.
2. Students who wish to undertake the Business minor program must have completed a minimum of ten courses. Application is made in the space provided on the Change of Academic Program Form, which must then be approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration, or delegate. Admission into the minor program is selective: at the time of application a student must have a cumulative average of at least 65%.
3. A minor in Business Administration shall consist of 24 credit hours comprising the following courses: Business 1000, 1101, 1201, 2301, 4000, 4500, and two courses chosen from Business 1600, 2101, 2201, 3101, 3320, 3700, and 4320.
4. Course prerequisites to all Business courses shall apply to a Business minor. Students should note, for example, that the prerequisites for Business 4500 are Business 1101, Statistics 2500 and Economics 2010. It should be noted that some courses are not offered every semester.

4 General Notes

1. The Office of the Registrar and the Faculty of Business Administration will assist students with any questions or problems which might arise concerning the interpretation of academic regulations. It is, however, the responsibility of students to see that their academic programs meet the University's regulations in all respects.
2. No student shall obtain more than one undergraduate degree from the Faculty of Business Administration.
3. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies, Faculty of Business Administration, may recommend that transfer credit for certain Business courses be awarded on the basis of successful completion of professional courses that lead to a professional designation (e.g. C.A., C.G.A., C.M.A.). Applications for transfer credit should be made through the Office of the Registrar.
4. The Faculty of Business Administration may approve that credit for certain Business courses successfully completed through Memorial University of Newfoundland's former Extension Services Division be granted upon application to the Registrar for transfer credit evaluation.

5 Appeals Procedures

All of the regulations for business programs 1. to 10. are subject to appeal. Appeals must be made in writing to the Chairperson, Committee on Undergraduate Studies, Faculty of Business Administration and must clearly outline the grounds for the appeal.

6 Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)

6.1 Admission Modes and Requirements

6.1.1 Direct Entry (for High School Students)

Students may apply for admission into first year of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program (Terms A/B) directly from high
6.1.2 Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students)

1. Students may apply for admission with Advanced Standing into terms beyond Terms A/B up to and including Term 4. Students applying for admission to a term beyond Terms A/B must have completed all of the courses required in the program up to that term, including the courses required in Terms A/B, with grades high enough to have met promotion requirements. Students applying for admission with advanced standing must complete and submit to the Office of the Registrar the Application For Admission to the Faculty of Business Administration, normally on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program.

2. Admission with Advanced Standing is competitive and selective. Prospective students are therefore encouraged to consider an alternate degree program in the event that they are not accepted into the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program.

3. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission with advanced standing is overall academic achievement. Selection, therefore, will be based on a student's overall academic performance. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.

6.1.3 Transfers From Other Post-Secondary Institutions

1. Students who are transferring from other universities must apply for admission to the University on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program, to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of transfer credits. Subject to items 2. and 3. under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above, transfer students from other universities will be placed in that Term of the program judged by the Admissions Committee of the Faculty to be appropriate considering equivalent credits. Regardless of the Term into which they are admitted, transfer students must complete a minimum of two work terms.

2. Subject to items 2. and 3. under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above, graduates of a three-year community college business diploma program may be considered for admission into Term 3. Space for Term 3 admissions is limited and competitive and admission decisions will be based on overall academic performance. Specific course requirements will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission.

6.2 The Curriculum

1. Every candidate shall complete nine academic terms in the Co-operative Program and shall normally be required to complete three work terms. The 141 academic credit hours are distributed as follows: 30 credit hours over the course of Terms A/B, 18 credit hours in each of Terms 1 and 2, and 15 credit hours in each of Terms 3 through 7.

2. Students who have been admitted to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program must complete courses in academic terms or "blocks" in the sequence, order and course load as set out in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum Table. Exceptions to this prescribed order, including specified course load, must have the approval of the Admissions Committee or of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty.

3. By the end of the Winter semester of their first year, Terms A/B students must have successfully completed the following 30 credit hours:
   a. Six credit hours in English courses - It is strongly recommended that students complete English 1110 as one of these English courses.
   b. Mathematics 1000;
   c. Economics 2010 and 2020;
   d. Business 1000;
   e. Twelve additional credit hours in non-Business courses, at least 9 credit hours of which must be in courses chosen from the Faculties of Arts and/or Science* and/or the School of Music.

* Students who wish to complete the joint degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) [see entry immediately following The Curriculum below] are strongly advised to include courses in a second language and courses in the subject of the intended Major program. Students who wish to complete the joint degrees of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) and Bachelor of Science in Computer Science [see entry immediately following Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) and Bachelor of Arts below] must complete Computer Science 1710, 3 more credit hours in Mathematics and are strongly advised to complete 3 additional credit hours in Science electives.

4. The usual curriculum of courses and work terms beyond the 30 credit hours required in Terms A/B is as follows:
   a. Computer Science 2801
   b. Statistics 2500
   c. Economics 3150
   d. Fifty-one credit hours in core Business Administration courses
   e. Thirty credit hours in elective Business Administration courses, including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration
   f. Twenty-one credit hours in non-Business courses, at least 15 of which must be in courses chosen from the Faculties of Arts and/ or Science and/or the School of Music.
   g. Three work terms of four months duration each.

Unspecified credits may not be used to fulfill the requirements outlined in a., b., c., d., and g. above.

5. Notwithstanding clauses 2. and 4. and bullet three of UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Classification of Students, students do not require special permission to register for courses while on work terms if the courses are in addition to the prescribed program.

6. The need for a specific course(s) or work term requirement may be waived by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty for students who apply for exemption from the course(s) or work term requirement in question.

Note: Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) of the University.

* Of the 51 credit hours in elective courses required in the program from Terms 1 through 7, 30 must be chosen from Business courses (including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration) and 21 must be non-Business courses. Of the 21 credit hours in non-Business electives, at least 15 must be chosen from the Faculties of Arts and/or Science and/or the School of Music.

6.3 Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) and Bachelor of Arts

Any student who is admitted into the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program may simultaneously complete the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts program. Under those circumstances, regulations for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program will be relaxed as follows: Notwithstanding clauses 4. e. and 4. f. of The Curriculum above, students in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Arts degree will be permitted to make the following adjustments to those clauses:

1. clause 4. e. - no fewer than 15 credit hours, but no more than 30 credit hours, in Business electives, including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration.
2. clause 4. f. - no fewer than 21 credit hours, but no more than 36 credit hours, in elective courses chosen from the Faculty of Arts.

These adjustments to the normal curriculum will only be permitted for students who are graduating with the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree and the Bachelor of Arts degree at the same convocation. In order to meet all of the requirements of both degree Programs at the same time, students who are completing the joint degrees are strongly advised to follow the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum (Completed jointly with the Bachelor of Arts) Table.

Notes:
1. The Bachelor of Arts requires completion of a Major program, a Minor program, a set of Core Requirements, and elective courses, totalling at least 78 credit hours in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts (or Computer Science, Mathematics and Statistics, and Psychology). When the Bachelor of Arts is completed jointly with the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative):
   a. Minor program requirements are satisfied by Business courses specified in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum Table above.
   b. Core requirements for English and Numeracy/Science are satisfied by courses completed in Terms A/B or during Terms 1 or 2 of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree.
   c. It is recommended that the Core Requirement for 6 credit hours in courses in a second language be completed in Terms A/B of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree program.
   d. Core requirements for 6 credit hours in research/writing courses may be satisfied by including two such courses within the 78 credit hours in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts. Please consult the Undergraduate Registration Procedures booklet to determine research/writing course offerings in any given semester.
   e. Major requirements for the Bachelor of Arts may be satisfied in 36 to 45 credit hours, depending on the department or program chosen. Students are strongly recommended to seek advice from the department or program of their Major to ensure that their proposed degree program is possible within the constraints of course scheduling and prerequisites.
2. Students are advised that, in order to complete the joint degrees within the minimum 150 credit hours, they must complete at least three of the courses required for the Bachelor of Arts as opportunities arise and as courses are offered. Following Term 2 of the program for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree, these courses may be completed during the Spring semester between Terms 2 and 3, or during any of the three Work Terms (for example, in the evening or by distance), or as sixth courses during any of Terms 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 (following submission of a course load waiver).
3. To meet the requirements for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative), not fewer than 15 and not more than 30 credit hours in elective courses must be chosen from Business courses (including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration). Students intending to complete the joint degrees in the minimum number of 150 credit hours should ensure that at least 78 of these credit hours are completed in courses offered by departments within the Faculty of Arts (or Psychology, Mathematics and Statistics, and Computer Science). Careful planning, particularly in the selection of elective courses as well as in the sequence of Major program courses, is therefore recommended to ensure timely completion of the joint degrees.
6.4 Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) and Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

Any student who is admitted into the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program may simultaneously complete the requirements for a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science degree. Under those circumstances, regulations for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program will be relaxed as follows. Notwithstanding clauses 4. a., e. and f. of The Curriculum above, students in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science degree will be permitted to make the following adjustments to those clauses:

1. clause 4. a. - Computer Science 2801 will not be required.
2. clause 4. e. - no fewer than 15 credit hours, but no more than 30 credit hours, in Business electives, including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration.
3. clause 4. f. - no fewer than 21 credit hours, but no more than 36 credit hours, in elective courses chosen from the Faculty of Science.

These adjustments to the normal curriculum will only be permitted for students who are graduating with the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree and the Bachelor of Science degree at the same convocation. In order to meet all of the requirement of both degree Programs at the same time, students who are completing the joint degrees are strongly advised to follow the table, Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum (Completed jointly with the Bachelor of Science with a Major in Computer Science).

Notes:

1. Students are advised that, in order to complete the joint degrees within the minimum 150 credit hours, they must complete at least three of the courses required for the B.Sc. degree as opportunities arise, and as courses are offered. Following Term Two of the program for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree, these courses may be completed during the Spring between Terms 2 and 3, or during any of the three Work Terms (for example, in the evening or by distance), or during Terms 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 (following submission of a course-load waiver).
2. To meet the requirements for the Joint Degree in the minimum number of 150 credit hours, careful planning, particularly in the selection of elective courses, is recommended to ensure timely completion. Also note that, in order to meet the Science general regulations, students must have completed courses in at least four areas of Science.
3. Six credit hours must be Business electives and 6 credit hours must be Science electives.
6.5 Minor or Cognate From Another Academic Unit

1. A student enrolled in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program may, using all of the non-Business electives required in the curriculum, complete a minor within the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science, the School of Music, or offered at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Regulations for the minor are given under the Calendar entries for the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science, and the School of Music, and under the calendar entry for Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

2. A student enrolled in the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program may pursue a minor (or equivalent) in other non-business academic units (where minor program exist) with i) permission of that academic unit and ii) permission of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration.

6.6 Examination and Advancement

1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies in accordance with the promotion requirements outlined in Clauses 2., 3., and 8. below.

2. Students in Terms A/B will be considered for promotion to Term 1 at the end of the Winter semester of their first year. At that time, for promotion from Terms A/B, students must have successfully completed the 30 credit hours prescribed in 3. of The Curriculum above, with an overall average on those 30 credit hours of at least 65%. Students who do not satisfy these requirements will be required to withdraw from the program and will not be promoted to Term 1.

Students who have been required to withdraw following Terms A/B may be considered for readmission to the program in accordance with the entry under Admission Modes and Requirements above, with the heading Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial Students).

A required withdrawal for failure to meet the promotion requirements from Terms A/B will not be reflected on a student's transcript.

3. For promotion from each of Terms 1 through 7, the requirements are the achievement of a passing grade in at least 12 credit hours and an overall average of at least 60% in those courses required in each academic term.

Students in an academic term who do not maintain the appropriate course load as outlined in Clause 2. of The Curriculum, with the approval of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, will be required to withdraw from the program and will not be promoted.

Students completing Terms 1 through 7 who fail to achieve these standards will be required to withdraw from the program. A required withdrawal from any of Terms 1 through 7 will be reflected on a student's transcript.

Students who have been required to withdraw following any one of Terms 1 through 7 may be considered for readmission after the lapse of two semesters, at which time they will normally be required to repeat the term which they failed, unless, in the opinion of the Admissions Committee, Faculty of Business Administration, a more meaningful course of study would be appropriate.

In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission to the program not later than the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they wish to recommence their program.

4. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration may promote a student notwithstanding promotion requirements listed in Clause 3. above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, and in the case of a student thought likely to succeed in future terms.

5. The dates for starting and finishing each work term are shown in the University Diary.

Successful completion of the work term requirements is a prerequisite to graduation.

6. A competition for work term employment is organized by Business Co-operative Education.

By entering the competition, students give permission for Business Co-operative Education to supply their university transcripts to potential employers.

7. A work report is a report approved by Business Co-operative Education must be submitted for each work term. This report must be approved by the employer and submitted to Business Co-operative Education on or before the deadline scheduled by Business Co-operative Education. Evidence of the student's ability to gather material relating to the report, analyse it effectively, and present it in a clear, logical and concise form, will be required in the report. Late reports will not be graded unless prior permission for a late report has been given by Business Co-operative Education.

8. The overall evaluation of the work term is the responsibility of Business Co-operative Education. The work term shall consist of two components:

Student performance as evaluated by a co-ordinator, given input from the employer, and a work report graded by a co-ordinator or a member of faculty.

Evaluation of the work term will result in the assignment of one of the following final grades:

a. Pass with Distinction: Indicates EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE in both the work report and work performance. The student is commended for his/her outstanding performance in each of the required components; pass with distinction has been awarded to each of the work report and work performance.

b. Pass: Indicates that PERFORMANCE MEETS EXPECTATIONS in both the work report and work performance. The student fully meets the requirements of a passing work report and completely satisfactory work term performance.

c. Fail: Indicates Failing Performance in the work report and/or the work performance.

If a student fails to achieve the standards outlined above, the student will be required to withdraw from the program and may be considered for readmission after the lapse of two semesters, at which time the student will be required to complete a further work term with satisfactory performance before being admitted to any further academic term in the Faculty.

9. A student who has been required to withdraw from the program as a result of failing to meet the requirements of either two academic terms or two work terms will not be eligible for readmission to the program.

10. Students are not permitted to drop work terms without prior approval of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon the recommendation of Business Co-operative Education. Students who drop a work term without permission, or who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, or who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their discharge from the job, will normally be awarded a failed grade for that work term. Permission to drop a work term does not constitute a waiver of degree requirements, and students who have obtained such permission must complete an approved work term in lieu of the one dropped.

Note: Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) of the University.
6.7 Academic Course Program (Following Promotion From Terms A/B to Term 1)
For the curriculum for academic terms following promotion from Terms A/B, please refer to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Curriculum table.

6.8 Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)
An Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) signifies superior academic achievement.
1. To be considered for an Honours Degree, the candidates must so indicate on the prescribed application for graduation form.
2. Candidates for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) shall comply with all regulations governing the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative).
3. A candidate shall:
   a. maintain at least a 75% average and an average of at least 3.5 points on the courses which comprise the 84 credit hours in Business (including non-Business concentration program courses) as specified in The Curriculum, and
   b. maintain an average of at least 3.25 points on the courses which comprise the total number of credit hours required for the degree, and
   c. achieve a passing grade in each of the courses which comprise the 84 credit hours in Business.
4. A declared candidate for an Honours Degree who fails to fulfill the conditions of Clause 3. but fulfills the requirements for a General Co-operative Degree shall be awarded the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative).
5. A student who has been required to withdraw from the program as a result of failing to meet the requirements for promotion from academic Terms 1 through 7 or from Work Terms 1, 2, or 3 will not be eligible for an Honours Degree.
6. Candidates are not permitted to repeat or substitute courses for the purpose of meeting the academic standing specified in Clause 3.

7 Business Co-operative Education
General management of the work terms in the Co-operative Program is the responsibility of Business Co-operative Education. Through its co-ordinators, it is responsible for assisting potential employers to become involved in the program, for the continual development of employment opportunities, for arranging student-employer interviews, for counselling of students, for visiting students on their work assignments and for the evaluation of the work term.

Students and employers choose each other through the job competition process. Job advertisements are posted and students may apply for up to twelve positions. Employers interview students, and both the students and employers express their preferences for one another.

Students are then placed by Business Co-operative Education to reflect expressed preferences. Placement is not guaranteed but every effort is made to ensure that appropriate employment is made available. In the case of students who are required to withdraw from the program, Business Co-operative Education has no responsibility for placement until they have been readmitted to the program.

Salaries paid to co-operative students are determined by employers based upon their internal wage structures, and tend to increase as the student progresses through the program and assumes more responsibility. However, students should not expect the income from work terms to make them completely self-supporting.

Students in the Co-operative Program give permission to prospective employers, in the course of the placement process, to have access to their records, which contain their academic marks and their work term evaluations. After accepting a position, students may not withdraw from a specific job situation unless prior permission is obtained from the Dean or his delegate.

8 Regulations for the Diploma in Business Administration
1. To be considered for admission to the Diploma Program in Business Administration, applicants must normally have satisfied the following requirements:
   a. Successful completion of 15 academic credit hours as follows:
      i. Six credit hours in English;
      ii. Mathematics 1000;
      iii. Business 1000;
      iv. Three credit hours chosen from courses in the Faculties of Arts and/or Science and/or the School of Music.
   Only students with an overall average of at least 60% in the courses comprising the 15 credit hours required will be considered for admission to the program.
   Overall academic performance is an important criterion in reaching decisions on applications for admission, and will be considered, in addition to the average on the five courses required for admission, in the selection process. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.
   b. At least five years of full-time work experience, or equivalent, that is deemed acceptable by the Admissions Committee of the Faculty of Business Administration.
   In the case where students have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Program, the Admissions Committee of the Faculty may consider this circumstance as grounds to deny admission.

2. To be eligible for the Diploma in Business Administration, a student must:
   a. have been admitted to the Diploma Program;
   b. successfully complete the following 45 credit hours in addition to the 15 credit hours required for admission (a total of 60 credit hours):
      i. Economics 2010 and 2020;
      ii. Statistics 2500 or equivalent;
      iii. Computer Science 2801;
      iv. Business 1101, 1201, 1600, 2301, 2401, 4000, and 4500;
      v. Four of the following, one of which must either Business 3320 or 4320: Business 2000, 2101, 2201, 3320, 3401, 3700, 4320, and 4401.
      c. Achieve an overall average of at least 60% in the courses which comprise the 45 credit hours specified in clause 2. b. A student facilitating the requirement will be required to repeat a course(s) to raise the overall average to the minimum acceptable level.

d. Successfully complete a comprehensive case analysis with report (Business 450W).

e. Students planning to pursue their Bachelor of Business Administration or their Bachelor of Commerce (General) (see regulations for the general degrees of Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Commerce) are encouraged to note the prerequisites for 7000 (Organizational Strategy) and to plan their courses so that they have completed the prerequisites prior to the semester in which they plan to take 7000.

3. a. Every candidate for the Diploma in Business Administration will be required to complete at least 30 credit hours at this University. The courses comprising these credit hours must be applicable to the Diploma in Business Administration.

b. Every candidate for the Diploma in Business Administration, who has completed a Bachelor’s degree at this University or another recognized university or university college, will be required to complete at least 30 credit hours at this University beyond those required for that degree. The courses comprising these credit hours must be applicable to the Diploma in Business Administration.

4. The requirement for a specific course(s) may be waived by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies for students who apply for exemption from the course(s) in question. However, such exemptions may not be used to reduce the number of credit hours required for the Diploma.

Note: Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) of the University.

8.1 Continuation
1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies in accordance with the continuation requirements outlined in 2. below.

2. Students must qualify for continuation after each term of study. For continuation, students must have an overall average of 60% over their last ten courses taken. In the event that a student has more courses than needed in the earliest term used, the courses with the highest grades in that term will be used.

3. Students who fail to achieve the standards outlined in 2. above normally will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission after a lapse of two semesters. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission.

4. Students who are required to withdraw a second time are not eligible for readmission into their program.

5. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration may allow a student to continue who fails to achieve the standards outlined in 2. above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

9 Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce

9.1 Admission
1. Students will be admitted to the Bachelor of Commerce degree program only after the successful completion of the requirements listed in Clauses 1. and 2. of the Regulations for the Diploma in Business Administration. Please refer to the Diploma Regulations which immediately precede these regulations.

2. Graduates of a three-year community college business diploma program may be considered for admission directly into the Bachelor of Commerce degree program. The admission requirements of the Diploma in Business Administration with respect to work experience outlined in clause 1. b. will apply. Applicants should note that admission is competitive and limited and is based on overall academic performance. To be eligible for the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce such students will be required to complete a minimum of 45 credit hours from diploma and degree courses beyond those used towards their college diploma. Specific course requirements will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission.

3. Notwithstanding Clause 1. above, the Admissions Committee of the Faculty of Business Administration may admit students who fail to meet the admission requirements. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Admissions Committee, and in the case of the student thought likely to succeed in future terms.

9.2 Curriculum
1. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Commerce shall successfully complete a minimum of 60 credit hours in addition to the 60 credit hours required for the Diploma in Business Administration. The 60 credit hours shall comprise:

   a. The remaining four courses from the following list which were not completed for the Diploma in Business Administration:
      Business 2000, 2101, 2201, 3320, 3401, 3700, 4320, and 4401;
   b. Business 5301, Business 7000*, and Economics 3150;
   c. Thirty credit hours in Business electives, including non-Business courses prescribed for a concentration;
   d. Nine credit hours in non-Business electives, at least 6 credit hours of which must be chosen from courses in the faculties of Arts and/or Science and/or the School of Music.

*Students are encouraged to note the prerequisites for 7000 (Organizational Strategy) and to plan their courses so that they have completed the prerequisites prior to the semester in which they plan to take 7000.

An overall average of at least 60% must be achieved in the twenty courses listed above. A student failing to meet this requirement will be required to repeat a course(s) to raise the overall average to the minimum acceptable level.

2. All candidates, as an academic requirement of the degree, must successfully complete an approved research paper or a comprehensive case analysis with report (Business 750W). This requirement is in addition to the comprehensive case analysis report (Business 450W) required for the Diploma in Business Administration.

3. The requirements for a specific course(s) may be waived by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies for students who apply for exemption from the course(s) in question. However, such exemptions may not be used to reduce the number of credit hours required for the Degree.

Note: Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) of the University.
9.3 Continuation

1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies in accordance with the continuation requirements outlined in 2. below.
2. Students must qualify for continuation after each term of study. For continuation, students must have an overall average of 60% over their last ten courses taken. In the event that a student has more courses than needed in the earliest term used, the courses with the highest grades in that term will be used.
3. Students who fail to achieve the standards outlined in 2. above normally will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission after a lapse of two semesters. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission.
4. Students who are required to withdraw a second time are not eligible for readmission into their program.
5. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration may allow a student to continue who fails to achieve the standards outlined in 2. above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

9.4 Regulations for Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce

An Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce signifies superior academic achievement.

1. To be considered for an Honours Degree, the candidates must so indicate on the University’s prescribed application for graduation form.
2. Candidates for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Commerce shall
   a. comply with all regulations governing the Diploma in Business Administration and the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce, and
   b. maintain at least a 75% average and an average of at least 3.5 points on the courses which comprise the 84 credit hours in Business (including non-Business option program courses but excluding Business 450W and Business 750W) required for the diploma and the degree, and
   c. maintain an average of at least 3.25 points on the courses which comprise the total number of credit hours required for the diploma and the degree.
3. Candidates are not permitted to repeat or substitute courses for the purpose of meeting the academic standing specified in Clause 2.
4. A declared candidate for an Honours Degree who fails to fulfill the conditions of Clause 2. but fulfills the requirements for a General Degree shall be awarded the General Degree of Bachelor of Commerce.

9.5 Commerce Concentrations

A student may choose to follow a general degree program, or to concentrate in one of the areas outlined below. In either case, students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours in Business electives. A concentration provides the student with the opportunity of broadening knowledge and understanding of one of the following areas. Particular attention should be paid to necessary prerequisites when scheduling courses.

9.5.1 Accounting

Students electing an Accounting concentration should complete the following courses:
1. Business 3101, Business 5160, Business 6100, and Business 6110
2. and any five of the following: Business 5000, Business 5500, Business 6120, Business 6130, Business 7110, Business 7120, Business 7150, or Business 7160. Those students intending to pursue the C.A., C.M.A., or C.G.A. designations should consult the appropriate body to determine those courses which would be most beneficial to them.

9.5.2 Marketing

Students electing a Marketing concentration should complete the following courses:
1. Statistics 2501, Business 5200, Business 6200, and Business 7230
2. and any five of the following: Business 6210, Business 6220, Business 6230, Business 7210, Business 7240, or Business 7250

9.5.3 Human Resources and Labour Relations

Students electing the Human Resources and Labour Relations concentration should complete the following courses:
2. and any two of the following: Business 6301, Business 7320, or Business 7321

9.5.4 Finance

Students electing a Finance concentration should complete the following courses:
2. and any three of the following courses: Mathematics 2090, Economics 3000, Economics 3010, Economics 3030, Economics 4025, Economics 4026, Business 5530, Business 6100, Business 6110, or Business 7150

9.5.5 Small Business/Entrepreneurship

Students electing a Small Business/Entrepreneurship concentration should complete the following courses:
1. Business 5600, Business 6200, Business 6600, Business 6610, Business 7600, Business 7610, and one of Philosophy 2800-2810
2. and any two of the following: Business 6120, Business 7210, or Business 7240

9.5.6 Information Systems

Students electing an Information Systems concentration should complete the following courses:
1. Students may apply for admission with Advanced Standing into the BBA program beyond Terms A/B. Students applying for admission beyond Terms A/B must have completed all of the courses required in Terms A/B with grades high enough to have met continuation requirements. Students applying for admission with advanced standing must complete and submit to the Office of the Registrar the Application For Admission to the Faculty of Business Administration, normally on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program.

2. Admission with Advanced Standing is competitive and selective. Prospective students are therefore encouraged to consider an alternate degree program in the event that they are not accepted into the BBA program.

3. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission with advanced standing is overall academic achievement. Selection, therefore, will be based on a student's overall academic performance. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.

4. In the case where an applicant has been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Program, the Admissions Committee of the Faculty may consider this circumstance as grounds to deny admission.

10.1.3 Transfers From Other Post-Secondary Institutions

1. Students who are transferring from other universities must apply for admission to the University on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program, to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of transfer credits. The acceptance of transfer students into the BBA program is subject to the same conditions outlined under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above.

2. Subject to items 2. and 3. under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above, graduates of a three year community college business diploma program may also be considered for admission with advanced standing into the BBA program. To be eligible for the General Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration such students will be required to complete a minimum of 45 credit hours beyond those used towards their college diploma. Specific course requirements will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission.

10.2 The Curriculum

1. The BBA program requires a total of 120 credit hours.

2. By the end of the Spring semester of their first year, Terms A/B students must have successfully completed the following 30 credit hours:
   a. Six credit hours in English courses. It is strongly recommended that students complete English 1110 as one of these English courses.
   b. Mathematics 1000;
   c. Economics 2010 and 2020;
   d. Business 1000;
   e. Twelve additional credit hours in non-Business courses, at least 9 credit hours of which must be in courses chosen from the Faculties of Arts and/or Science and/or the School of Music.

3. In addition to the Terms A/B requirements, the curriculum shall consist of the successful completion of:
   a. Sixty credit hours consisting of: Computer Science 2801, Statistics 2500, Economics 3150, Business courses 1101, 1201, 1600, 2000, 2101, 2201, 2301, 2401, 3320, 3401, 3700, 4000, 4320, 4401, 4500, 5301, and 7000.
   b. Students are encouraged to note the prerequisites for 7000 (Organizational Strategy) and to plan their courses so that they have completed the prerequisites prior to the semester in which they plan to take 7000.
   c. Thirty other credit hours, of which not more than 9 credit hours may be from courses in the Faculty of Business Administration.

4. For graduation, a student must be enrolled in the BBA program, and have obtained a minimum average of 60% on the program courses.

10.3 Minor or Cognate From Another Academic Unit

1. A student enrolled in the BBA program may complete a minor within the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science, the School of Music, or from Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Regulations for the minor are given under the Calendar entries for the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science, the School of Music, and Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

2. A student enrolled in the BBA program may pursue a minor (or equivalent) in other non-business academic units (where minor programs exist) with i) permission of that academic unit and ii) permission of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration.

10.4 Continuation
1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies in accordance with the continuation requirements outlined in 2. and 3. below.
2. Students in Terms A/B will be considered for continuation in the BBA program at the end of the Spring semester of their first year. At that time, for continuation after Terms A/B, students must have successfully completed the 30 credit hours prescribed in 2. of The Curriculum above, with an overall average of those 30 credit hours of at least 65%. Students who do not satisfy these requirements will be required to withdraw from the program.

Students who have been required to withdraw following Terms A/B may be considered for readmission to the program in accordance with the entry under Admission Modes and Requirements above, with the heading Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students).

A required withdrawal for failure to meet the continuation requirements from Terms A/B will not be reflected on a student's transcript.
3. Following Terms A/B, BBA students must qualify for continuation after each term of study. For continuation, students must have an overall average of 60% over their last ten courses taken. In the event that a student has more courses than needed in the earliest term used, the courses with the highest grades in that term will be used.

Students who fail to achieve these standards will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission after a lapse of two semesters. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission.

A required withdrawal for failure to meet continuation requirements in terms following Terms A/B will be reflected on a student's transcript.
4. Students beyond Terms A/B who are required to withdraw a second time are not eligible for readmission into their program.
5. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration may allow a student to continue who fails to achieve the standards outlined in 3. above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

10.5 Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration
An Honours degree of Bachelor of Business Administration signifies superior academic achievement.
1. To be considered for an Honours degree, the candidates must so indicate on the University's official "Application for Degree" form.
2. Candidates for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration shall:
   a. comply with all regulations governing the General Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration, and
   b. achieve at least a 75% numerical average and a grade point average of 3.5.
3. Candidates are not permitted to repeat or substitute courses for the purpose of meeting the academic standing specified in Clause 2.
4. A declared candidate for an Honours degree who fails to fulfil the conditions of Clause 2. but fulfils the requirements for a General degree shall be awarded the General Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration.

11 Regulations for the General Degree of International Bachelor of Business Administration (iBBA)

11.1 General Regulations
1. The iBBA program requires a total of 120 credit hours.
2. The program includes a compulsory one-semester approved program of full-time study at an overseas location. Students must normally have completed at least 72 credit hours of the program and no more than 96 credit hours of the program prior to commencement of the study abroad program.
3. The overall program must have a coherent global and regional content. In order to achieve this coherency students shall nominate a global region (e.g. Asia, Europe, Latin America) as a focus area within their program. The choice of region will affect both the choice of non-business courses and the choice of location and content of the study abroad program (see Global and Regional Content below).

11.2 Admission Requirements
1. Normally, admission is offered for the Fall Term. The deadline for admission (or readmission) is March 1. Students applying for admission to the iBBA must submit the Application For Admission to the Faculty of Business Administration to the Office of the Registrar on or before this deadline. Where circumstances permit, applications will be considered for the Winter and Spring Terms. The deadlines for admission (or readmission) are October 1 for Winter, and February 1 for Spring.
2. Students who are seeking admission for the Fall Semester normally must have completed all the courses required for admission by the end of the Winter Semester.
3. Applications received after the deadline will be considered only if a space is available in the program.
4. Eligibility: To be eligible for Admission to the iBBA program an applicant must have successfully completed the Pre-iBBA program (see Curriculum, clause 1, below) with an average on those courses of at least 65% or better, or the equivalent at another recognized post-secondary institution. Students who are transferring from other universities must apply for admission to the University on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program, to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of transfer credits.
5. Admission is competitive and selective. Therefore, prospective students are encouraged to consider an alternate degree program in the event that they are not accepted into the International Bachelor of Business Administration program.
6. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission is overall academic achievement. Selection, therefore will be based on a student's overall academic performance in addition to the average on the 30 credit hours required for admission. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.
7. In the case where an applicant has been required to withdraw from one of the Faculty's other Undergraduate programs, the Admissions Committee of the Faculty may consider this circumstance as grounds to deny admission.

11.3 The Curriculum

1. The iBBA program includes the following 30 credit hours that comprise the Pre-iBBA program:
   a. Six credit hours in English courses - It is strongly recommended that students complete English 1110 as one of these English courses.
   b. Mathematics 1000;
   c. Economics 2010 and 2020;
   d. Business 1000;
   e. Political Science 2200;
   f. Nine additional credit hours in non-Business courses, at least 6 credit hours of which must be in courses chosen from the Faculties of Arts and/or Science and/or the School of Music. It is strongly recommended that students take into account the Global and Regional Content requirement outlined below when choosing these additional 9 credit hours of study.

2. In addition to the Pre-iBBA program requirements, the curriculum shall consist of the successful completion of:
   a. Thirty-nine credit hours consisting of: Statistics 2500 and Business courses 1101, 1201, 2000, 2101, 2301, 2401, 3401, 3701, 4000, 4320, 4500, and 7000.
   b. Fifteen credit hours of international business related courses, which must include:
      Economics 3030 and Business 7302
      and any three from:
      Business 6311, Business 7240, Business 6012, Business 6550, Business 6040, Economics 4030*, or Political Science 3250
      Any other approved course with an international focus.
      *Students need to satisfy the pre-requisites for Economics 4030 specified in the University Calendar.
   c. Twelve further credit hours in non-business courses. Students should take into account Clause 1., Non-business elective courses, under Global and Regional Content requirement below when choosing these additional 12 credit hours of study.
   d. Twelve credits hours in an approved study abroad program. The program must meet Clause 2., Location and content of study abroad program, under the Global and Regional Content requirements below.
   e. The remaining 12 credit hours are electives. It is recommended that students choose their elective courses so that their overall program contains at least one group of four or five courses within a chosen functional area or specialization or minor.

3. For graduation, a student must be enrolled in the iBBA program, and have completed the 120 credit hours required with a minimum average of 65% on the program courses.

11.4 Global and Regional Content

Courses chosen to meet the above requirements must have a coherent global and regional content. In order to achieve this coherency, students shall nominate a global region (e.g. Asia, Europe, Latin America) as a focus area within their program. The choice of region will affect the choice of non-business elective courses as well as the choice of location and content of the study abroad program.

1. Non-business elective courses
   a. Non-business elective courses must include the following 9 non-language credit hours:
      i. At least 3 further credit hours with a global and/or comparative international perspective
      ii. At least 6 credit hours with a chosen regional perspective

   In the Selected Arts Courses With Global, Comparative International or Regional Content Table below an illustrative list has been provided, indicating a range of courses available at Memorial University of Newfoundland that offer a global or regional perspective. The latter may include languages, regional studies and other cross-cultural courses as well as approved courses in Economics.

   b. Study of a foreign language relevant to the chosen region, commencing in the Pre-iBBA program, is highly recommended. Students selecting a regional perspective and planning to undertake their study abroad program where English is not the main language must complete 6 credit hours of the relevant language prior to undertaking study abroad.

2. Location and content of study abroad program
   a. The approved study abroad program must be taken at a location consistent with the chosen region of focus. This will usually be at one of Memorial University of Newfoundland’s exchange partner universities but may involve participation in Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Harlow Program, or similar. Students are encouraged to carry a full 15 credit hour load while abroad but must follow a program of at least 12 credit hours or equivalent.

   b. To ensure that students obtain regional perspectives and skills not available at Memorial University of Newfoundland an approved program must include:
      i. at foreign language locations, at least 3 credit hours of study of a regional language.
      ii. at all locations, at least 6 credit hours with a specific regional content
      iii. at locations in Britain, Ireland, the US, Australia and New Zealand, at least 9 credit hours with a specific regional content.

   For the study abroad program, courses regarded as having specific regional content would include languages, regional studies and other cross-cultural courses as well as approved courses in Economics and Business.

   c. Subject to these requirements there is no additional restriction as to the proportion of business or non-business courses studied abroad. For example, an approved study abroad program may contain courses entirely of an ‘Arts’ nature. It is also possible to select courses that have no exact equivalent at Memorial University of Newfoundland and must be counted as unspecified credit.

   Courses studied abroad may be approved as counting toward any of the Curriculum course requirements listed above, but no course may count towards meeting two such requirements.

11.5 Minor From Faculty of Arts

A student enrolled in the iBBA program may both meet the requirements of the degree and be able to complete a minor within the Faculty of Arts. Regulations for the minor are given under the Calendar entries for the Faculty of Arts.

11.6 Continuation

1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies in accordance with the continuation requirements outlined in 2. and 3. below.

2. Following entry to the program, iBBA students must qualify for continuation after each term of study. For continuation, students must have an overall average of 65% over their last ten courses taken. In the event that a student has more courses than needed in the earliest term used, the courses with the highest grades in that term will be used.

Students who fail to achieve these standards will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission after a lapse of two semesters. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission.

A required withdrawal for failure to meet continuation requirements in the iBBA program will be reflected on a student’s transcript.

3. Students who are required to withdraw from the program a second time are not eligible for readmission into their program.

4. The Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Business Administration may allow a student to continue who fails to achieve the standards outlined in 2. above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

11.7 Regulations for the Honours Degree of International Bachelor of Business Administration

An Honours degree of Bachelor of International Business Administration signifies superior academic achievement.

1. To be considered for an Honours degree, the candidates must so indicate on the University’s official “Application for Degree” form.

2. Candidates for the Honours Degree of International Bachelor of Business Administration shall:
   a. comply with all regulations governing the General Degree of International Bachelor of Business Administration, and
   b. achieve at least a 75% numerical average and a grade point average of 3.5 on the 120 credit hours completed for the degree.

3. Candidates are not permitted to repeat or substitute courses for the purpose of meeting the academic standing specified in Clause 2.

4. A declared candidate for an Honours degree who fails to fulfill the conditions of Clause 2 but fulfills the requirements for a General degree shall be awarded the General Degree of International Bachelor of Business Administration.

12.4 Work Term Descriptions

The following work terms are a requirement of the Bachelor of Commerce Co-operative program only.

The objectives of the Work Term component of the Business Administration Co-operative Program are embodied in the Work Term descriptions below. The descriptions serve to guide the student and employer toward achieving these objectives and to guide Business Co-operative Education and the Faculty of Business Administration in monitoring and evaluating each student's progress.

399W Work Term 1 follows the successful completion of Academic Term 3. For most students, it represents their first professional work experience in a business environment and, as such represents their first opportunity to evaluate their choice of pursuing a career in business administration. Students are expected to learn, develop and practice the high standards of behaviour and performance normally expected in the work environment. (A detailed description of each job is normally posted during the job competition.)

As one component of the work term, the student is required to complete a work report. The work report, site evaluation report, should address an issue/problem related to the student's work environment, demonstrate an understanding of the structure of a professional report, and

4. show reasonable competency in written communication and presentation skills. (Students should consult the evaluation form provided in the placement package.)

Note: Seminars on professional development, conducted by Business Co-operative Education, are presented during Academic Term 3 to introduce and prepare the student for participation in the subsequent work terms. Topics may include, among others, work term evaluation, work report writing, career planning, employment seeking skills, resume preparation, self-employment, ethics and professional concepts, behavioural requirements in the work place, assertiveness in the work place and industrial safety.

499W Work Term 2 follows the successful completion of Academic Term 4. Students are expected to further develop and expand their knowledge and work related skills and should be able to accept increased responsibility and challenge. In addition, students are expected to demonstrate an ability to deal with increasingly complex work-related concepts and problems. Students should conscientiously assess the various business opportunities relative to their individual interests.

The Work Report, as a minimum requirement should:

1. analyse an issue/problem related to the student's work environment and demonstrate an understanding of business concepts relative to the student's academic background,

2. demonstrate competence in creating a professional report, and

3. show competence in written communication and presentation skills. (Students should consult the evaluation form provided in the placement package.)
business managers and should exercise greater independence and responsibility in their assigned work functions.

The Work Report should reflect the growing professional development of the student and, as a minimum requirement, will
1. demonstrate an ability to analyse a significant business issue/problem related to the student's experience in the work environment,
2. demonstrate a high level of competence in producing a professional report, and
3. show a high level of competence in written communication and presentation skills.

12.5 Comprehensive Case Analysis Descriptions

The following courses of study are academic requirements of the Diploma in Business Administration and Bachelor of Commerce Programs only and do not carry academic credit.

450W Business Methods in Practice I is a non-credit course in which each student will undertake an analysis of an assigned case. A written report is mandatory. Evidence of the student's understanding of various business methods and the ability to gather material relating to the report, analyse it effectively, and present it in a clear, logical and concise form, will be required in the report.

1.1 Mission Statement for the Faculty of Education

The Faculty of Education of Memorial University of Newfoundland, under the terms of THE MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY ACT, accepts as its primary responsibility the professional preparation of those who will give leadership in education. The responsibility includes the professional preparation of teachers, administrators and specialists who will work in elementary, intermediate, and secondary schools and post-secondary institutions. The work of the Faculty incorporates undergraduate and graduate studies and continuing education. The mandate includes specialized research for the improvement of pedagogical practice, and broadly based research for the advancement of knowledge. The Faculty initiates and responds to change through a wide range of programs and a variety of field services. It seeks to prepare educators who will have a reasoned philosophy of education, an appreciation of what knowledge is of most worth, a genuine love of learning, and the ability to think critically. It strives to prepare educators who have an understanding of the past, a plan for the present, and a vision for the future.

Additional information regarding the Faculty of Education is available at www.mun.ca/educ/home/.

1.4 Student Responsibility Clause
The Office of Undergraduate Student Services, Faculty of Education, will assist students with questions or problems which may arise concerning their programs. It is, however, the responsibility of students to see that their academic programs meet the Faculty of Education and the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

1.5 Teacher Certification
Teacher Certification is a Provincial responsibility. Students are advised to contact Teacher Certification and Records, Department of Education, P.O. Box 8700, St. John's, NL, A1B 4J6, for advice regarding Teacher Certification Regulations.

1.6 Admission
Note: It is possible that individuals who have been convicted of a crime against a person may not be accepted into a school for any activities which are required under the Faculty of Education degree and diploma regulations.

1. Admission to programs within the Faculty of Education is limited, selective and highly competitive. Meeting minimum admission requirements does not guarantee acceptance to a program. The Faculty reserves the right to limit the number of spaces available in each program. When the number of eligible applicants exceeds the number of spaces available in a particular program, preference may be given to students who are permanent residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

2. Applicants for admission to a program within the Faculty of Education must submit the appropriate completed Faculty application form, and if applicable a form for admission/readmission to the University. Application forms and transcripts from institutions other than Memorial University of Newfoundland must be sent to the Office of the Registrar in accordance with the deadlines specified for each program in the Application Deadline Dates table. Letters of reference and personal statement as required by the application form must be forwarded directly to the Faculty of Education Undergraduate Admissions Office. Students who must apply for admission/readmission to the University must also submit the General Application for Admission/Readmission to the Office of the Registrar within the deadlines specified in the University Diary.

3. Admission to programs within the Faculty of Education is determined by a Selections Committee and is based on the criteria listed for each degree/diploma program. Applicants who are completing courses at this or another institution and for whom final and complete transcripts are not yet available may be granted provisional acceptance to the program to which they are applying pending the receipt of final transcripts. This provisional acceptance will remain valid until final transcripts are received. Deadline for receipt of final transcripts is June 15th. Provisionally accepted applicants may be granted a final acceptance upon review of the final transcript by the Selections Committee. The Faculty reserves the right to deny admission to a candidate who, in the opinion of the Selections Committee, is deemed unsuitable for admission to a program.

4. Students who have been admitted to a program in the Faculty of Education requiring a teaching internship are advised that they may be assigned to any Provincial school district and are responsible for all travel and accommodation costs associated therewith.

5. Students who have been admitted to a particular degree program offered by the Faculty of Education and who wish to change to another degree program within the Faculty must submit a new Faculty application form to the Office of the Registrar that will be... considered in competition with all other students.

6. In special circumstances, the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, on recommendation from the Admissions Committee may, at its discretion, consider an applicant or group of applicants as an exception to the requirements.

7. Students who decline an offer of admission to the Faculty of Education, withdraw from the program, or who do not register for courses during the academic year in which admission is granted must, if they wish to be subsequently considered for admission, submit a new application in competition with other applicants.

8. An unsuccessful applicant has the right to appeal against the decision of the Admissions Committee not to offer him/her a place, if it is felt by the applicant that the decision was reached on grounds other than those specified in the admission requirements listed in the Faculty of Education section of the Calendar. The appeal should be made in writing within twenty-one days of the notification of the decision and should be directed to the Dean of Education. The letter should state clearly and fully the grounds for the appeal. If the Dean of Education, in consultation with the Registrar, judges the grounds to be sufficient, the formal appeals mechanism will be initiated. Normally, appeals will only be considered in the case of procedural error and/or receipt of new information that is relevant to the application. Students are advised to refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations section of the University Calendar.

1.7 Regulations for Readmission and Advancement

These regulations apply to all programs except the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program, Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree, Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary), and the Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) Conjoint with the Diploma in Technology Education which have separate readmission and advancement regulations.

1. Following admission to a program of the Faculty of Education, all full-time students must obtain a semester average of at least 65% in order to remain in clear standing in the Faculty.

2. These regulations will be applied to part-time students only after they have completed 12 consecutive credit hours on a part-time basis.

3. Students who fail to obtain a semester average of 65% but who are eligible for readmission under UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) will be placed on probation in the Faculty. Probationary students who fail to obtain a 65% average during the next semester in which they complete courses will be required to withdraw from the Faculty.

4. Students completing the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary), Bachelor of Music Conjoint with Bachelor of Music Education, or the Bachelor of Music Education as a Second Degree who attain a grade of FAL (fail) in their internship will either:

a. be required to withdraw from the program; or
b. with the recommendation of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services, Faculty of Education, repeat the internship in another school setting.

4. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty of Education may, after a lapse of at least two semesters, apply for readmission to the Faculty. Students who are readmitted under this Clause will be considered probationary and must meet requirements stated in Clause 2. above.

5. Students who are required to withdraw from the Faculty of Education will be placed on probation in the Faculty. Probationary students who fail to obtain a 65% average during the next semester in which they complete courses will be required to withdraw from the Faculty.

6. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty on two occasions will be ineligible for future readmission.

7. Notwithstanding Clauses 1. through 4., the Committee on Undergraduate Studies on recommendation from the Admissions Committee reserves the right to require students to withdraw from the Faculty at any time if, in the opinion of the Committee, they are deemed unsuitable for continued attendance in the programs.

8. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty may register only in those Education courses listed as applicable for non-Education students.

9. In exceptional circumstances, the Committee on Undergraduate Studies may waive the Readmission and Advancement regulations for the Faculty of Education as stated above.

1.8 Regulations for Readmission and Advancement for the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program, Bachelor of Education as a Second Degree, Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary), and Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) Conjoint With the Diploma in Technology Education

1. Students must successfully complete all courses, attain an overall semester average of at least 65%, and a grade of PAS (pass) in the internship. Students failing to meet any of the above criteria will be required to withdraw from the program.

2. Notwithstanding Clause 1., the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, on recommendation from the Admissions Committee, reserves the right to require students to withdraw from the Faculty at any time if, in the opinion of the Committee, they are deemed unsuitable for continued attendance in the programs.

3. In exceptional circumstances, waiver of these regulations may be granted by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, Faculty of Education, on advice of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services.

1.9 Registration in Education Courses (Non-Education Students)

Registration in Education courses is normally restricted to those students who have been admitted to a degree or diploma program in the Faculty of Education. Students in first year or students in other Faculties or Schools who have completed not fewer than 24 credit hours may register for the following courses in Education without acceptance to a program:

Education 2040, Education 2800, Education 2801, Education 2803, Education 3210, Education 3211, Education 3560, Education 3565, Education 3570, Education 3571, Education 3590, and Education 3660

Such students are advised to consult degree regulations governing their particular degree program to determine which, if any, of the above courses can be applied to their degree program. The above notwithstanding, students needing Education courses for the Provincial Post Secondary Instructors Certificate may, with the permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services, be allowed to register for the required courses.
1.10 Registration in Education Courses (Teacher Certification Upgrading)

Students having completed a degree program in Education or equivalent who wish to register in Education courses for certification upgrading purposes should contact the Office of Undergraduate Student Services at least two weeks in advance of registration for permission/procedure.

1.11 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary)

The Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) degree program is designed to prepare teachers for kindergarten through grade six. The program is available both as a First Degree and as a Second Degree.

1.11.1 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree

The Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree is a 150 credit hour program. All students will attend full time during the Professional Year which involves both a specific set of courses and a field experience. The Professional Year is followed by a one semester teaching internship and a subsequent semester of study intended to allow students to build on strengths and remedy weaknesses that may have become apparent during the internship. Basic computer keyboarding skills will be expected during the first semester of this program.

The Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree is offered in two delivery formats:

1. Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Integrated Delivery Program
2. Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program

Refer to the Application Deadline Dates table for application deadlines.

1.11.1.1 Admission

1. Applications for admission for both Integrated and Consecutive Delivery are considered together. Consideration will be given to the courses for which students are registered at the time of assessment of applications. Applicants for Integrated Delivery who have completed all requirements for admission by the end of the Spring semester of the year that admission is being sought will be considered as time and resources permit.

2. To be considered for admission, students must have successfully completed 60 credit hours as outlined in Clauses a. - h. below with a cumulative average of at least 65% or an average of at least 65% on the last attempted 30 credit hours. Students applying to the Consecutive delivery option must have completed a total of 78 credit hours including a completed Focus Area. The 60 credit hours are:
   a. twelve credit hours in English including at least 6 credit hours at the 2000 level or above - ESL courses cannot be used to satisfy this requirement;
   b. six credit hours in Mathematics or 3 credit hours in Calculus;
   c. six credit hours in Psychology;
   d. Science 1150 and 1151; or 9 credit hours from 3 separate Science areas. The science areas are: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Environmental Science, or Physics; or a Focus Area in Science;
   e. six credit hours chosen in any combination from Anthropology, Archaeology, Economics, Folklore, Geography, History, Linguistics, Political Science, Religious Studies, Sociology;
   f. six credit hours in French (recommended) or 6 credit hours in a single language other than English, or demonstration of equivalent competency in a second language;
   g. fifteen credit hours as part of a Focus Area; and
   h. additional credit hours from areas other than Education.

3. In assessing applications to the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree program, consideration will be given to student's:
   a. overall academic performance; and
   b. personal statement and references as outlined on the application to the Faculty.

1.11.1.2 Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree

1. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree will be required to complete a minimum of 150 credit hours in accordance with Table 1 or Table 2 below. Including the courses required for admission and completion of the focus area, a minimum of 75 of these credit hours will be in non-Education courses. Students:
   a. will normally follow the appropriate Program Plan as outlined below;
   b. must enrol full-time during the Professional Year; and
   c. may enrol in the Internship only after successful completion of the Professional Year.

Students will normally complete the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree in the academic terms, sequence and course load as set out in either Table 1, Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Integrated Delivery Program Plan or in Table 2, Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program Plan.
1.11.1.3 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Integrated Delivery Program Plan

To complete the 150 credit hour Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Integrated Delivery Program, students must have 75 credit hours from areas other than Education, including a completed focus area, plus the 75 credit hours in Education specified in Table 1. Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Integrated Delivery Program Plan.

1.11.1.4 French Immersion Option

The French Immersion Option is only available in the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Integrated Delivery Program.

In addition to meeting the Admission Requirements for the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Degree Program, students applying for this option must have French as a Focus Area. Admitted students will spend the two semesters of the Professional year in a French milieu.

These students must meet all requirements for the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Integrated Delivery Program except as modified in Clauses 1.-3. below:

Students must successfully complete:

1. prior to the beginning of the Professional Year
   a. at least 27 credit hours in French, including French 3100 and 3101,
   b. either high school French Immersion including Francais 3202 or at least one semester of study in a French milieu,
2. the Professional Year in a French milieu, including the equivalent of Education 4155 and Education 3050, and
3. the internship in a French Immersion setting.

Students who are interested in the French Immersion Option should contact the Office of Undergraduate Student Services, Faculty of Education, at their earliest opportunity.
1.11.1.5 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program Plan

To complete the 150 credit hour Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Consecutive Delivery Program students must have at least 75 credit hours from areas other than Education and the 69 credit hours in Education specified in Table 2 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program Plan. The additional 6 credit hours required for the degree may be either Education or non Education credits.

1.11.2 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree
The Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree is a 72 credit hour program. It is intended for candidates who have completed an appropriate Bachelor’s degree.

1.11.2.1 Admission
1. Refer to the Application Deadline Dates table for application deadlines. Consideration will be given to the courses for which students are registered at the time of assessment of applications. Students attending institutions other than Memorial University of Newfoundland must supply transcripts indicating Fall semester grades by February 1.
2. To be considered for admission to the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree program, individuals must have:
   a. been awarded a Bachelor’s Degree, or approved (prior to program startup) for the award of a Bachelor’s Degree from a university recognized by Memorial University of Newfoundland;
   b. achieved a cumulative average of at least 65% or an average of at least 65% on the last attempted 30 credit hours;
   c. completed a minimum of:
      i. six credit hours in English - ESL courses cannot be used to satisfy this requirement;
      ii. six credit hours in Mathematics or 3 credit hours in Calculus;
      iii. six credit hours in Psychology;
      iv. Science 1150 and 1151 or 6 credit hours in science in any combination to be chosen from: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Environmental Science and Physics;

      vii. the equivalent of a completed focus area as per the Faculty of Education Focus Areas or the completion of a major or minor within the initial Bachelor’s degree program in a subject area classified as a focus area.
   Note: It is recommended that students have 9 credit hours in science.
3. In assessing applications to the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree program, consideration will be given to the following:
   a. overall academic performance; and
   b. personal statement and references as outlined on the application to the Faculty.

1.11.2.2 Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree
1. In addition to meeting these regulations, students must also meet UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Second Degree.
2. To obtain the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a Second Degree, students will be required to complete a minimum of 72 credit hours. The 72 credit hours are the same as those outlined in Table 2 Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) as a First Degree Consecutive Delivery Program Plan.
3. Students will normally attend full-time and complete the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) Second Degree program in the academic terms, sequence, and course load as set out in Table 2.

1.11.3 Waiver Guidelines for Education 401X
1. Education 401X may, in special circumstances and upon individual request, be waived by the Office of Undergraduate Student Services in accordance with the guidelines listed below. Students requesting waiver should apply in writing and submit evidence of the following:

a. Permanent certification and tenure.

b. A minimum of five years teaching experience (or equivalent) in an environment appropriate to the degree sought.

c. Recommendation from an individual in an administrative position i.e. School Principal or Superintendent, attesting to the satisfactory quality of the teaching experience.

2. Students whose requests for waiver of the internship are approved must substitute in it place 15 appropriate credit hours in Education. These replacement credit hours will be determined by the Office of the Undergraduate Student Services on an individual basis and must be approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

1.12 Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary)

The Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) is a second degree program designed to prepare Intermediate and Secondary School teachers. All students attend full-time and should graduate in one calendar year. The program is designed to provide students with an early field experience, a sequenced set of courses prior to a full semester internship and a range of courses after the internship designed so that students can reflect on their school experiences and make further connections between theory and practice.

1.12.1 Admission

1. Refer to the Application Deadline Dates table for application deadlines. Consideration will be given to the courses for which students are registered at the time of application. Applicants who will have completed all requirements for admission by the end of the Spring semester of the year that admission is being sought will be considered as time and resources permit. Students attending institutions other than Memorial University of Newfoundland must supply transcripts indicating Winter semester grades no later than June 15.

2. To be considered for admission to the Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) Degree Program, individuals must have:

   a. been awarded a Bachelor’s Degree from a university recognized by Memorial University of Newfoundland;

   b. i. completed 36 credit hours in a subject listed under Academic Disciplines in Clause 3. below (Religious Studies, Business Studies and Newfoundland Studies cannot be used to satisfy the 36 credit hour requirement), and

      ii. completed 24 credit hours in a subject listed under Academic Disciplines in Clause 3. below but different from that in b. i., and

   c. achieved an overall average of at least 65% in each of the sets of courses in b. i. and b. ii.

3. Academic Disciplines are deemed to be the disciplines on the following list. Courses from other disciplines deemed by the Admissions Committee to be equivalent to courses in any of the listed Academic Disciplines will be acceptable.

*In order to be considered for admission within this Academic Discipline, students must have completed courses in the following areas: Anatomy, Physiology, Motor Learning, Kinesiology, Evaluation and Testing in Physical Education, Primary/Elementary Physical Education Curriculum and Teaching, Issues and Trends in HPERS and a minimum of 6 activities.

Students who use General Science as an Academic Discipline may use courses from these separate science disciplines in any combination, but must complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in each separate science discipline used.

Students who use Business Studies as an academic discipline must have at least a minor in Business Administration.

Notes:

1. When calculating averages in the first and second teachable areas, no more than two 1000-level courses in each of the first and second teachable areas will normally be used.

2. A limited number of program spaces are allocated to each discipline. Students who are admitted with a particular Academic Discipline and who wish to change to a different Academic Discipline must obtain permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services. Such changes may not be possible in particular areas.

3. Applicants are advised that admission to the program on the basis of academic disciplines is dependent on sufficient numbers of students to warrant the offering of applicable methodology courses in those disciplines in any given year.

4. Candidates who are registered in their final semester of their first Bachelor’s Degree program during the Winter semester must have satisfied the academic requirements set out in Clause 2. above upon completion of their first degree program.

5. In assessing applications to the Bachelor of Education (Intermediate/Secondary) Program, consideration will be given to the following:

   a. average in each of the two academic disciplines;

   b. overall academic performance; and

   c. personal statement and references as outlined on the application to the Faculty.

6. Because of the structured, sequential nature of this program, students must attend full-time. Students who drop any course which is part of the program will be dropped from the entire program.

7. Students who have been admitted to the program but choose not to attend in the Fall semester of their year of admission will lose their admission status. Such a student may reapply for admission at a later date, and must submit a new application which will be considered in competition with those of all other applicants.

3710 Group Instruction in Post-Secondary Education (PS) is an in-depth study of various methods of group instruction; planning and presenting demonstration teaching units; practice in techniques of group instruction.
PR: ED 2710 and ED 2730

3720 Individualized Instruction in Post-Secondary Education (PS) is a study of the various systems of individualized instruction; the theoretical basis for individualizing courses, individual differences, organizing individualized courses, selection and development of materials; management of individual student progress.
PR: ED 2710 and ED 2730

3730 Curriculum and Instructional Development in Post-Secondary Education (PS) examines the social, cultural, philosophical, and economic forces influencing changes in Post-Secondary curriculum and instructional methods. Study of current Post-Secondary Education curriculum designs, problems and trends; methods of gathering curriculum information; procedures for revising and evaluating a curriculum.
PR: ED 2710 and ED 2730

3750 Intermediate Design and Materials Processing Technology (ISI) is a continuation of theory and practice of teaching technical skills and design processes developed in Education 2750. Topics elaborate on computer design and problem solving with application of advanced construction techniques.

3751 Intermediate Communications and Power Technology (ISI) is a continuation of theory and practice of technical skills in communications, power and energy developed in Education 2751. Topics include energy sources, control systems, graphic communication processes and electronic communications.

3755 Teaching Technology Education in the Primary/Elementary Classroom (PE) - inactive course

3801 Educational Media I (A,PS) introduces students to audio visual communications with emphasis on equipment operation and basic local production of instructional materials; and the application of computers to education. A two-hour laboratory period will be arranged after the first class period.
CR: ED 3480, ED 3484, ED 4480, the former ED 4905

3802 Educational Media II (PE) - inactive course

3807 Learning Resources, Curriculum and Instruction (PE, ME) - inactive course

3815 Practicum in Kodaly I (PE) - inactive course

3915 Practicum in Kodaly II (PE) - inactive course

3920 Instrumental Teaching Methods (ME) examines current pedagogical practices, procedures and materials for teaching brass, woodwinds, and percussion in band and orchestra settings.
Note: Includes a 2 hour twice weekly laboratory component (MUN Lab Band and Orchestra) designed to provide practical teaching experience and methodology in both band and orchestral settings.

3940 Mathematics in Primary and Elementary Grades (PE, ME) is a general overview of aspects of teaching Mathematics in the primary and elementary grades. Theories of child development as they relate to Mathematics teaching, characteristics of Mathematics topics in primary and elementary grades, and the implications for teaching will be the major topics to be discussed in this course.
CR: the former ED 2340, the former ED 2310, the former ED 2320 3941 Diagnosing and Directing Learning in Primary and Elementary Mathematics (PE, T, SE) is a study of aspects of diagnosis and remediation in primary and elementary Mathematics, and of the basis for constructing and applying diagnostic techniques. An examination, development, and application of a variety of manipulative aids to be used in the teaching of Mathematics in the primary and elementary grades.

PR: ED 3940

3942 Mathematics Teaching in Small Primary and Elementary Schools

402X Internship in Music Education (ME) (equivalent to 15 credit hours in Education) is a one-semester internship in one or more schools to permit student teaching experiences in choral, classroom and instrumental teaching situations in the primary, elementary and intermediate/secondary schools. AR: Attendance is mandatory. With respect to holidays, interns follow the schedule of the school and not that of the University. OR: students may not be placed in their first district of choice and may be assigned to another Provincial school district

404X Internship in Native and Northern Education (NPE,NS) (equivalent to 15 credit hours in Education) is a one-semester internship in a school setting that will enable students to become directly involved in the teaching learning process through observation and practice. Activities during the semester will involve seminars to assist students in the assessment of teaching methodologies most appropriate for the curriculum in Native schools. Student placement will be in a school setting depending upon the program route which students have followed. AR: Attendance is mandatory. With respect to holidays, interns follow the schedule of the school and not that of the University. OR: students may not be placed in their first district of choice and may be assigned to another Provincial school district

405X Internship in the Intermediate/Secondary School (ISISI) (equivalent to 15 credit hours in Education) is an extended practicum which is school based. The purpose of the internship is to provide opportunities for Interns to observe and then develop effective teaching practices and to become reflective practitioners. The responsibility for the professional development and evaluation of the Intern is shared between a classroom teacher and a University Supervisor. AR: Attendance is mandatory. With respect to holidays, interns follow the schedule of the school and not that of the University. OR: students may not be placed in their first district of choice and may be assigned to another Provincial school district

4120 The Teaching of Art in the Intermediate and Secondary School (ISISI,ME) examines current philosophies and methodologies in teaching art. Topics include curriculum implementation, organization and management, evaluation, safety, and advocacy.

4121 Teaching Theatre Arts in the Intermediate and Secondary School (ISISI,ME) examines the place of Theatre Arts in the intermediate and secondary school; the relationship between Theatre Arts and Drama in Education; and the most appropriate methods for the effective teaching of Theatre Arts.

4142 The Teaching of English Language and Literature in the Intermediate and Secondary School I (ISISI,ME) applies the principles of teaching the teaching of English language and literature. Topics that will be considered include the nature and structure of language and literature programs, text analysis, the writing of non-fiction prose, media literacy, and oracy.

4144 Advanced English Teaching Methodology (ISISI) builds upon the experiences gained in the internship, this course examines the reading and writing workshop approach to the study of English language and literature. PR: ED 4142 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4151 Advanced French Methodology (ISISI,NS), is an in-depth analysis of the nature and purpose of the French program. Topics include a brief overview of the history of French teaching methodologies, an introduction to the research literature, an evaluation of techniques, and a consideration of issues facing the teaching of French. PR: ED 4154 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4154 The Teaching of French in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS, ISL, ME) gives an introduction to the nature and purpose of French programs at the Intermediate and Secondary school levels. Topics include: an overview of the characteristics and aims of French programs including Core French and French Immersion. The course will explore basic principles, techniques, strategies, and practices relating to teaching French as a second language, as well as characteristics of second-language lesson planning.
4155 Introduction to Teaching in French Immersion in the Primary and Elementary Grades (PE,ME) is a brief overview of the development of French Immersion programs; aims and objectives of French Immersion education; evaluation of the extent to which objectives and materials can reflect those of the regular English classroom; analysis of differences between teaching in the French Immersion classroom and the core French, the French mother tongue, and English; general teaching strategies appropriate to the level of French language development in the immersion setting.

CR: this course will be conducted in French

4161 The Teaching of Mathematics in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS,ISI,ME,NS) applies the principles of effective teaching to the teaching and learning of mathematics. Topics include the purpose of mathematics, theories of learning mathematics, and lesson planning and evaluation.

4163 Advanced Mathematics Methodology (IS,ISI,NS) builds upon the principles of effective teaching and the teaching of mathematics to address specific issues related to the teaching and learning of mathematics in the Intermediate and Secondary school.

CR: the former ED 4160
PR: ED 4161 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4172 Advanced Science Education Methodology (IS,ISI) builds upon the principles of effective teaching and subject-specific methods courses, examines the experiences gained in the internship, and introduces significant and advanced ideas related to science teaching.

PR: ED 4174 or ED 4175 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4174 The Teaching of Intermediate/Secondary School Science (IS,ISI) is a laboratory course which will examine curricular and teaching issues generic to science teaching in intermediate and secondary schools. Choice of teaching examples will be made in order to stress situations most likely to be encountered by beginning science teachers. Differentiation of assignments will be based on the science discipline background of individual students. Students will carry out laboratory work in intermediate science and in a teachable area in which they were admitted.

CR: the former ED 4170, the former ED 4171, the former ED 4270, the former ED 4271

4175 Foundations of Intermediate/Secondary Science Education (IS) is a laboratory course which will examine major positions on the growth of knowledge in science, the history of ideas in science, scientific misconceptions, the application of these ideas to science teaching. Science teachers will become familiar with the foundation of science philosophy and with the fundamental ideas that will be the focus of this course. Students will carry out laboratory work in a second teachable area in which they were admitted.

CO: ED 4174

4180 The Teaching of Social Studies in the Intermediate and Secondary School I (IS,ISI,ME,NS) applies the principles of effective teaching to the teaching and learning of Social Studies. Topics include the nature and purpose of social studies education, specific teaching strategies, the examination of the selection and use of learning resources for the Social Studies, unit planning, development, and evaluation.

CR: the former ED 3220, the former ED 4902

4181 The Teaching of Social Studies in the Intermediate and Secondary School II (IS,ISI) examines the teaching of specific disciplines in Social Studies. Topics include the nature of the particular discipline, intermediate and secondary school courses in the discipline, and teaching strategies appropriate to the discipline.

CO: ED 4180

4182 Advanced Social Studies Methodology (IS,ISI) analyses students' experiences in the internship, examines recent research in the teaching of social studies, considers alternative approaches to the teaching and learning of social studies, and explores current issues in the field.

PR: ED 4180 or ED 4181 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4190 The Teaching of Physical Education in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS,ISI,ME) is a laboratory course that applies the principles of effective teaching to the teaching and learning of physical education. Topics include the nature and purpose of physical education, an examination of the physical education curriculum, an analysis of quality daily physical education, approaches to teaching physical education, and evaluation of progress in physical education.

LH: two hours per week supervised practice teaching on-campus and in a school setting 4203 The Teaching of Religious Education in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS,ME) applies the principles of effective teaching to the teaching and learning of Religious Education. Topics include formulating objectives, examining theories of faith and moral development, selecting and using resources, and evaluating learning.

4204 Advanced Religious Education Methodology (IS) builds upon the principles of effective teaching and religious education to address further the major historical issues and contemporary theories. Topics include a reflection on the internship experience, an examination of the theories of religious education, and an analysis of the foundations of religious education.

PR: ED 4203 (or permission of the Office of Undergraduate Student Services)

4205 Religious Education in Primary and Elementary Grades (PE,ME) is an introductory study of aims and objectives, subject matter, curriculum materials, teaching methods, learning experiences, and evaluation for Religious Education courses.

CR: the former ED 2080

4220 The Teaching of Inuitutt I (T,NPE,NS) explores a variety of teaching techniques and materials developed to assist in the teaching of Innuittuq in Native schools. Problems associated with second-language teaching will be explored.

PR: 9 credit hours in Innuittuq

4221 The Teaching of Innuittuq II (T,NPE,NS) is a continued exploration of teaching techniques and material development for the teaching of Innuittuq with emphasis on linguistic difficulties encountered in Native schools by children whose first language is English.

PR: ED 4220

4230 The Teaching of Innuaimuq I (T,NPE,NS) explores a variety of teaching techniques and materials developed to assist in the teaching of Innuaimuq in Native schools.

PR: 9 credit hours in Innuaimuq

4231 The Teaching of Innuaimuq II (T,NPE,NS) explores a variety of teaching techniques and material development for the teaching of Innuaimuq. Linguistic difficulties encountered by students whose first language is not Innuaimuq.

PR: ED 4230

4240 An Introduction to the Exceptional Learner (IS,ISI,ME,PE) is an introduction to the nature of exceptionality in the student. Topics include an examination of special needs resulting from exceptionally, approaches to meeting the special needs, issues of exceptionality, and a consideration of selected categories of exceptionality.

CR: the former ED 3220, the former ED 4902

4242 Identification and Remediation of Learning Difficulties (IS,ISI,PE) examines the identification processes and remediation techniques for students with learning difficulties. Topics include the identification of learning difficulties, the process of program planning, and the application of teaching and learning strategies to specific subject areas.

PR: Education 4240 or the former 3220 or 3230

4250 and 4251 Institute for Teaching French in Immersion Programmes Courses (PE) - inative course.

4252 and 4253 Institute in the Teaching of Social Studies in French Immersion Courses (PE) - inactive course.

4254 and 4255 Institute in the Teaching of Mathematics in French Immersion Courses (PE) - inactive course.

4260 The Nature of Adolescence (IS,ISI,ME) examines the nature of the adolescent. Topics include an introduction to development theories, an examination of the considerations for teaching and learning, and an analysis of the issues and concerns of the classroom teacher.

4261 Human Learning Theories and Their Application to the Instructional Process (IS,ISI) - inactive course

4275 Environmental Education Across the Curriculum (IS,ISI) examines various international and Canadian initiatives, models, curricula, and programs in environmental education and explores effective methods of developing environmental awareness through the various content areas of elementary, intermediate and secondary education.

4300 Curriculum and Instruction in Native and Northern Schools I (T,ME,PE) reviews the principles of and techniques for curriculum development. Adaptation or reformulation of these will be made in the light of the needs and desires of Native peoples. Critical analysis will be made of curriculum resources presently in use. Instructional materials will be prepared and produced with emphasis on printed materials relevant to the experiential background of the Indian and Inuit child.

4331 Curriculum and Instruction in Native and Northern Schools II (PE,ME,NS) is an in-depth examination of innovations in curriculum and instruction in Native communities within Canada. Emphasis will be placed on projects in curriculum planning and the development of instructional material, to be conducted in conjunction with school personnel already in the field. This course would serve as a valuable resource to school systems involved in curriculum planning and instructional development.

4340 Literature for Young Adults (IS,ISI) is designed to explore literature for young adults and its integration into the content areas. Topics include an... examination of the nature of literature for young adults, the literary genres, research on the reading interests of young adults, issues treated in young adult literature, and an historical overview of available young adult literature.

4350 Reading in the Content Areas (IS,ISI) examines the nature of specific content areas such as history, biology, and mathematics. Topics include the role of the teacher in the teaching of content in different areas, evaluating vocabulary, grammar, usage and text structure for instruction, and analysing the variety of strategies for reading, writing and studying.

4352 Language Across the Curriculum (IS,ISI) - inactive course

4354 Writing in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS,ISI) analyses the relationship between writing and teaching. Topics include an examination of the role of the teacher in the teaching of writing, the role of the student in the teaching of writing, the composing process, and the evaluation of writing.

4356 Learning Through Drama (IS,ISI) introduces drama as a valuable teaching and learning strategy. Topics include an examination of the foundations, values, and assumptions of drama as an effective means of curriculum implementation in subjects such as English, Social Studies, and Science.

4361 Teaching and the Contemporary Classroom (IS,ISI) is an introduction to the institutional and social context of teaching. Topics include the role of school in society, the organization and administration of schools, the dynamics of classroom culture, and school observation.

4362 Sociological Perspectives on Teaching and Learning (PE,ME) is an introduction to the institutional and social issues associated with education as poverty, child abuse, gender, ethnicity, and changes in society and their implications for the nature and process of schooling. A study of social dimensions of education, including the content of education and the organization of teaching and learning. An analysis of students' experiences in the classroom with regard to the above and other aspects of education the students might identify.

CR: the former ED 4360
PR: completion of the Professional Year

4370 History of Education (PE,ME) - inactive course

4381 Perspectives on Schooling (IS,ISI) examines educational theory and practice within the context of sociological, historical, and philosophical perspectives on schooling. Topics include the purpose of education, the formation of knowledge, and an analysis of issues such as equality of opportunity, and educational reform and change.

4382 Critical Thinking and Knowledge in Education (IS,ISI) examines various conceptions of the nature of critical thinking and its role in the acquisition, justification, and production of disciplinary knowledge. Topics include the nature of critical thinking, the uses of language in reasoning and communication, criteria and principles of reasoning within the various disciplines, methods and strategies of problem-solving, negotiation, and decision-making, and the teaching and assessment of critical thinking.

4383 Philosophy of Teaching and Learning (PE,ME) examines a number of central philosophical concepts, assumptions and issues involved in the pursuit of teaching and learning in the schools. The aim of the course is to provide students with an understanding of the distinctive character of philosophical analysis as a reflective and critical practice that intends to promote professional excellence and personal well-being.

CR: the former ED 4380
PR: completion of the Professional Year

4420 Legal and Moral Issues in Education (IS,ISI,PE) examines educational law and sources of conventional morality for the purpose of clarifying individual stances on legal and moral issues. Topics include the nature of philosophical bases of law and morality in education, the legal foundations of the Canadian education system; the legal and moral rights and responsibilities of teachers and students, and teacher liability.

4440 Teaching and Learning Mathematics in the Junior High School Years (PE) - inactive course

4450 Practicum in Adult Education (A) are on-the-job supervised activities designed to have the student implement the theory and principles of Adult Education.

4480 Learning Resources in the Intermediate and Secondary School (IS,ISI) - inactive course.

4505 Life Skills and Transition Planning for Adolescents with Cognitive Challenges (SE) will focus upon the application of educational practices relevant to the successful employment and community adjustment of mildly and moderately disabled adolescents and young adults. Senior special education programs and materials directed toward personal life-skills development and work-study experience in both open-community and protected work situations will be reviewed.

4510 Inclusive Practices for Children with Mild Cognitive Challenges (SE) gives consideration to: the establishment of objectives; selection, development and review of materials; the use of various instructional procedures; and the provision of appropriate experiences for the education of children with mild mental disabilities at the primary, elementary and senior levels.

CR: ED 3610
PR: ED 3610

4515 Inclusive Practices for Children with Moderate Cognitive Challenges (SE) will consider objectives, the development of programs, and the use of various instructional procedures for the education of children with moderate mental disabilities. Emphasis will be given to the development of skills necessary for participation in the home and community as well as in the classroom setting.

CR: ED 3610
PR: ED 3610

4520 Psychoeducational Interventions for Behaviour Problems of Children and Adolescents (SE) will examine programs and strategies for children with behavior disabilities. These will include: counselling skills, case conferences, structured learning environments and therapeutic programs for specific behavior problems. In addition, consideration will be given to articulation with mental health specialists and procedures to develop readiness for return to regular instructional programs.

CR: ED 3620
PR: ED 3620

4530 Inclusive Practices for Children with Learning Disabilities (SE) is an examination of individual and classroom remedial techniques developed for the amelioration of specific learning disabilities.

CR: ED 3630
PR: ED 3630

4540 Identification and Remediation of Speech/language Disorders in Children (SE) will provide theoretically sound and research based methods for identification and remediation of speech and language concerns of children and adolescents. Topics include: typical language development; nature of developmental concerns for both speech (articulation, voice and fluency) and language (receptive and expressive and phonetic awareness); social use of language; and augmentative communication. Particular focus will be placed on current interventions/strategies and program/models.

CR: ED 4242, ED 4240, the former ED 3220, ED 3230 or equivalent.

4541 Communication for the Deaf (PE,SE) is an introductory course in communication strategies employed with the Deaf and Hearing Impaired. Language acquisition by individuals with normal hearing and individuals with impaired hearing will be explored and contrasted through an analysis of a number of theoretical models. A laboratory experience in one of the various sign systems will be required. Students will be expected to perform a project that demonstrates an understanding of the implications of a sign language system for effective communication. Emphasis will be given to special communication strategies for the hearing impaired, and to the development of a skill in practical usage of American Sign Language and Finger Spelling. The primary emphasis will be on manual systems of communication common to the deaf, as well as those systems in use as supplementary instructional methods at Schools for the Deaf.

PR: acceptance to the Special Education Degree program or permission of the Instructor 4543 Language and Deafness (PE,SE) presents a broad overview of the effects of hearing impairment on individuals. Emphasis is on the effects of impaired linguistic environments; the cognitive, social, and emotional development of hearing impaired children and adults; the use and adaptation of assessment procedures; and the administration, organization, and delivery of instructional programs.

PR: ED 4242, ED 4240, the former ED 3220, ED 3230 or equivalent.

4580 Intermediate and Secondary Education and Culture (IS,ISI) examines the nature of culture and its relationship to education. Topics include the process of cultural transmission through education, the significance of student culture in schooling, the influence of culture on curriculum decision-making, and cross-cultural ideology and practice in intermediate and secondary education.

4600 Educational Research (PE,IS,ISI) - inactive course

4610 The Nature and Management of Stress (PE,IS,ISI) studies the nature of stress as it is manifested in the teacher and the teaching profession, and provides approaches to coping effectively with the factors which are related to that stress. Topics include the nature of the human stress response, causes and symptoms of stress (personal and professional), self-assessment techniques, and a selection of approaches... available to cope with the stress typically related to the roles and expectations of teaching.

4700 Student Teaching in Post-Secondary Education (PS) applies theories of education in the learning situation; observation and demonstration of lessons; seminars in teaching techniques.
PR: ED 2710, ED 2720, ED 2730, ED 2801, ED 3280, and ED 3801, or equivalent teaching experience and permission of the course instructor 4710 Seminar in Post-Secondary Education (PS) identifies, analyses, and discusses major issues, practices and problems in Post-Secondary Education in Newfoundland and Canada.

PR: ED 2710, ED 2720, and ED 2730

4730 Educational Programs and Practices in Industry and Labour (PS) is a study of the various Post-Secondary Education programs operated either wholly by industry and labour or jointly with educational institutions; apprenticeship, work experience and study programs, co-operative education, training-in-industry, training on-the-job, supervisory training, management development.
PR: ED 2710, ED 2720, and ED 2730

4750 Integrated Materials and Production Processes (ISI) examines theory and practice in selected advanced technical skills in materials processes applied in conjunction with mechanical and fluid power and their practical applications in the modern technology education laboratory setting. Topics include integrated design, digital and fluidic control, robotics systems, and computer assisted machine applications.

4751 Advanced Communications Systems (ISI) examines theory and practice of selected advanced technical skills in communications technology as they apply to the modern technology education laboratory. Topics include development and utilization of computer networks; satellite, and various transmission technology found in communication processes.

4752 Technology Education, Specialized (ISI) examines theory and practice involving selected technical skills and their practical application in the technology education laboratory. Topics include the applications and use of more advanced technological systems and processes and their integration into the school curriculum of Newfoundland and Labrador.
OR: A modular approach will be used for each of the 21 technical skills credit hours. Students who can demonstrate competency in a particular module will be allowed to substitute another module in its place. Students must select the substitute module in consultation with the Office of Undergraduate Student Services.

4760-4780 Advanced Specialized Post-Secondary Education Technologies (PS) examines the theory and practice of selected advanced specialized Post-Secondary Education technical skills and their application to the laboratory, workshop and business office. Emphasis will be placed on innovative and emerging techniques in selected areas of business, industry, and the service occupations.

4830 Music Education Seminar (ME) is detailed examination of the foundations of Music education common to all levels and types of school Music. Topics include curriculum development, evaluation, psychology and philosophy of Music education and the Music teacher’s administrative responsibilities.

4835 Orchestra Methods (ME) - inactive course.

5 Institutes in Education

The Faculty of Education offers a number of Institutes in Education. These are intended primarily to provide opportunity for teachers to gain knowledge of new approaches to the teaching of existing school programs and to gain insight into aspects of new programs as they are introduced in the school system. These Institutes normally carry 6 or 9 credit hours. Students who enrol in Institutes of six weeks duration or less will not normally be permitted to register for any other courses. Additional information on Institutes may be obtained from the Faculty of Education. Not all Institutes are offered every semester or summer. Students wishing to enrol in Institutes should contact the Office of Undergraduate Student Services.

4840 Advanced Band Methods (ME) - inactive course.
4845 Pre-School Music Education (ME) - inactive course.
4850 Advanced Primary School Music Methods (ME) - inactive course.
4855 Advanced Elementary School Music Methods (ME) - inactive course.
4860 Advanced Secondary School Music Methods (ME) - inactive course.

4901 Effective Teaching Strategies for Multi-grade/Multi-age Classrooms (PE,IS,ISI) begins with a critical examination of traditional approaches to multi-grading. The main focus of the course will be to introduce teachers to the potential of adopting a multi-grade approach in small schools which have of necessity grouped children of more than one age group and grade level together for instruction. This course will also examine the implications of implementing a philosophy of multi-grade pedagogy in the primary, elementary and intermediate grades (K-9).

4943 Computing Technology in Mathematics Education in the Primary and Elementary Grades (PE) will explore the impact of computing technology on Mathematics curriculum and instruction. Topics will include the role of computers and calculators in developing mathematical concepts, computational skills and mathematical problem-solving processes; the use of computer animation and simulation to enhance Mathematics instruction; and, the evaluation and adoption of commercially developed software for Mathematics instruction. An in-depth look at LOGO and available CAL materials will be included.
PR: ED 3940

4944 Computing Technology in Mathematics Education in the Secondary Grades will explore the role of the computer as a provider of learning experiences in the high school Mathematics curriculum. The focus of the course will be on CAL in Mathematics and will investigate drill and practice, tutoring, simulation, animation, and demonstration. The role of the computer in communication and testing in Mathematics will be included.
PR: ED 4161

4945 Computers in Education (IS) examines the use of computer-based technology across the curriculum. Topics include an introduction to hardware and operating systems, learning through computers, use and evaluation of computer software, and an examination of specific curriculum issues.

4950 Evaluation of Teaching and Learning (IS,ISI) is an introduction to the theory and practice of evaluating teaching and student learning in the classroom. Topics include the nature of classroom assessment; the production, administration, interpretation, and evaluation of teacher-made tests; assessment of student products and performances by direct observation; grading and reporting progress; and the application of assessment results to the improvement of teaching.
OR: the former ED 4912

4970-4980 Special Topics Courses in Intermediate/Secondary (IS) will have topics offered announced by the Faculty of Education.

1 Faculty Description

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers co-operative undergraduate programs leading to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering, as well as graduate programs leading to the degrees of Master of Engineering, Master of Applied Science, and Doctor of Philosophy. Through teaching, research and outreach, the Faculty of Engineering plays a critical role in the economic development of the province, and graduates from the programs hold key positions in the major industrial developments in our province. A growing number of our recent graduates are leading emerging high-technology companies and hold important positions in national and international industries and governments, contributing to the University’s global impact. Research in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science has a strong focus on research and development opportunities associated with the general technological needs of our society. The Faculty maintains a very strong sense of identity and cooperation among students, faculty, and staff, and prides itself on its strong linkages with industry and the engineering profession.

Additional information regarding the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science is available at www.engr.mun.ca.

1.1 Accreditation Status

The undergraduate programs offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science are fully accredited by the Canadian Engineering Accreditation Board (CEAB) of the Canadian Council of Professional Engineers (CCPE) to June 2011.

1.2 Objectives of the Bachelor of Engineering Degree Program

The objectives of the undergraduate programs are to provide students an excellent academic experience and to equip graduates with the ability to solve a broad range of problems in our rapidly changing technological, economic and social environment. To this end, the Faculty is committed to educate graduates who have:

1. a strong foundation and knowledge in engineering fundamentals with a capacity to know how, when and where to use the knowledge in specific ways;
2. an ability to identify, formulate, analyse and solve engineering problems and a capacity to integrate material from more than one subject and to apply appropriate engineering principles to arrive at correct and effective solutions;
3. a comprehensive knowledge in the fundamentals of engineering practice, including an ability to use analytical techniques, experimental and laboratory skills and modern engineering simulation and design software tools;
4. a broad knowledge of the principles and skills in engineering design, development and management in global, cultural and business contexts;
5. a multidisciplinary view with an ability to work effectively as members of teams, composed of individuals from different disciplines and different professional cultures;
6. strong oral and written communication skills with a capacity to produce effective technical documents and to use current communication techniques and tools;
7. a culture of life-long learning with a capacity to engage in continuous self-improvement, personal enrichment and professional development; and
8. a broad sense of social, ethical and professional responsibility with a capacity to demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of the human dimension of technology and its impact on mankind.

2 Description of Program

The Bachelor of Engineering Degree at Memorial University of Newfoundland is a Co-operative Program in which regular full-time academic study is supplemented by four month periods of full-time work in positions related to the student’s future career. The Bachelor of Engineering degree program is available in the following five majors: Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering.

Engineering One, the first-year of the engineering program, comprises courses in mathematics and basic science (physics and chemistry), as well as courses covering engineering fundamentals which are common to each of the majors. The engineering courses in Engineering One introduce students to engineering problem-solving, analysis, design, communication, and teamwork. Students will develop an understanding of the different engineering specialties, as well as the interdisciplinary nature of engineering practice.

The specialized major programs of Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering are offered in academic terms 3 through 8. Students in each major may also choose to pursue an Offshore Oil and Gas Engineering option (OOGEO) in the last three terms of the program. For specific details on each major, refer to the appropriate Program Regulations.

Electives can be tailored to meet the needs of those who plan to go straight into industry and those who wish to join the increasing number of our graduates who are pursuing advanced degrees.

All courses of the Faculty are designated by the abbreviation ENGI.

2.1 Program of Study

1. Courses in the engineering program are normally taken in blocks as shown in the appropriate program table. Students must satisfy the criteria for promotion as described below Under Promotion Regulations to remain in the Engineering program.
2. The Engineering Program consists of eight academic terms and four work terms. The first-year of the Engineering Program, known as Engineering One, forms a core that is common to all majors. All students must successfully complete the requirements of Engineering One prior to being promoted to Academic Term 3.
3. In 1000 level Engineering courses, registration priority is given to students who have been admitted to Engineering One. Other students will be admitted to these courses only with the approval of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies).
4. In these program regulations, including the program tables, wherever reference is made to English 1080 or Chemistry 1050, these courses may be replaced by courses deemed equivalent by the relevant academic unit.
5. Upon entering Academic Term 3, students begin to specialize in their academic program, in one of the following five majors: Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, or Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering. All Engineering students who successfully complete the Engineering One requirements during their first-year of Engineering will be guaranteed a place in Academic Term 3, although not necessarily in the preferred major as indicated under Promotion Regulations, Promotion Status (Engineering One).
6. Upon entering Academic Term 6, students in each major may choose to pursue the Offshore Oil and Gas Engineering option (OOGEO) for that major.
7. Engineering courses in Academic Term 3 and beyond (i.e., those with numbers 3000 and greater) are restricted to students who have been admitted or promoted to the appropriate academic term and major (e.g., Academic Term 3 for 3000 level courses, restricted by major). Other students will be admitted to these courses only with the approval of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) in consultation with the appropriate Discipline Chair.

Some of the courses offered in academic terms 3 to 8 are taken by all Engineering students, others are offered for more than one major, but most technical courses in academic terms 3 to 8 are specific to the individual majors. Students should refer to the program descriptions for the detailed course requirements in each phase of their program.
8. Technical elective courses may be offered in terms other than those indicated in the program tables.
9. A student who has previously met a technical elective requirement in a given semester or wishes to defer it, may request an exemption or deferral by applying to the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies), who will consult the appropriate Discipline Chair. A minimum grade of 60% is required for credit to be given towards a student’s engineering program for any technical elective taken outside the normal blocks as shown in the tables.
10. Students registered in Academic Term 7 of any Engineering major are eligible to apply for admission to a Master of Engineering fast-track option (M.Eng.). The purpose of the option is to encourage students interested in pursuing graduate studies to begin their graduate program while still registered as an undergraduate student. While enrolled in the option, a student may complete some of the M.Eng. Degree requirements and potentially be able to graduate earlier from the M.Eng. Program. For further details and the regulations regarding the option, refer to the School of Graduate Studies, Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Engineering.

2.2 Complementary Studies

1. The Complementary Studies component has been developed to make students aware of the function and responsibilities of the Professional Engineer in society and the impact that engineering in all its forms has on environmental, economic, social and cultural aspects of our society. This complements the technical expertise and communications skills developed and practised in all components of the program.

2. The Complementary Studies component is the same for all programs and consists of a minimum of 21 credit hours as follows:
   - English 1080 or English 1020
   - Engineering 3101
   - Engineering 4102
   - One 3 credit hour course that deals with the effect of technology on society and the environment. The course is to be chosen from Engineering 6101, Sociology 2120, Philosophy 2801, Women’s Studies 4107
   - Engineering 7102
   - One Elective course of a 3 credit hour value chosen from the arts, humanities, social sciences and management and approved by the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. List A is an approved list of courses maintained by the Office of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and is available at the web site www.engr.mun.ca.
   - One Elective course of a 3 credit hour value chosen from the humanities and social sciences and approved by the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. This course must be second-year or higher and it is intended to provide experience with the central issues, methodologies and thought processes of the humanities and social sciences. List B is an approved list of course maintained by the Office of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and is available at the web site www.engr.mun.ca.

3. In order to graduate, the student must obtain an overall average of at least 60% in the 21 credit hours in Complementary Studies courses required in the program.

2.3 Bachelor of Engineering Major Programs

The Bachelor of Engineering degree program is available in the following five majors: Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering.

2.3.1 Civil Engineering

Civil Engineering deals with the planning, design, and construction of roads, railways, harbours, docks, tunnels, bridges, buildings, water supplies, hydroelectric power development, and sewage collection, treatment, and disposal systems.

The Civil Engineering major provides a broad introduction to the scientific principles and engineering techniques necessary for an understanding of the fundamental problems tackled by civil engineers. In Academic Term 6, students may select the Offshore Oil and Gas option (OOG).

2.3.2 Computer Engineering

Computer Engineering is the design and analysis of computer systems applied to the solution of practical problems. It encompasses both hardware and software design in applications ranging from telecommunications and information systems to process control and avionics. Computer Engineering students learn the mathematics of discrete and continuous systems, the design of digital machines such as processors and memories, the fundamentals of software design, and the principles used in communications systems such as telephone networks and the Internet.

Computer Engineering shares many fundamentals with Electrical Engineering which are covered in a common curriculum up to and including Academic Term 3. In Academic Term 6, students may select the Offshore Oil and Gas option (OOG). In recognition of the considerable diversity of careers available to computer engineers, students are given latitude in the final three academic terms to choose from a wide range of electives in various specialty areas.

2.3.3 Electrical Engineering

Electrical Engineering is a broad field encompassing the study of control systems, electromagnetics and antennas, power systems, electronics, communications, and computer hardware and software.

Electrical Engineering shares many fundamentals with Computer Engineering which are covered in a common curriculum up to and including Academic Term 3. In Academic Term 6, students may select the Offshore Oil and Gas option (OOG). In recognition of the considerable diversity of careers available to electrical engineers, students are given latitude in the final three academic terms to choose from a wide range of electives in various specialty areas.

2.3.4 Mechanical Engineering

Mechanical engineering is a highly diversified discipline encompassing the design, analysis, testing and manufacture of products that are used in every facet of modern society. Mechanical engineers analyze design using the principles of motion, energy, and force to ensure that the product functions safely, efficiently, reliably, and can be manufactured at a competitive cost. This activity requires a thorough knowledge of materials, mathematics, and the physical sciences, and an ability to apply this knowledge to the synthesis of economical and socially acceptable solutions to engineering problems.

Mechanical Engineering is designed to provide students with a knowledge in the following four areas: design and dynamics area, emphasizing solid mechanics, material science, dynamics, vibrations and machine component design; thermo-fluids area, focussing on thermodynamics, heat transfer and fluid mechanics; mechatronics area, dealing with electro-mechanical systems, control, robotics, and automation; manufacturing/industrial area, which encompasses CAD/CAM, production and operation management. In Academic Term 6, students may select the Offshore Oil and Gas option (OOG). Students may choose from a wide range of electives in various specialty areas in academic terms 7 and 8.

2.3.5 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering

Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering covers aspects of both naval architecture and ocean engineering. The Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering major is the only accredited undergraduate program specifically in naval architecture/ocean engineering in Canada. The major is designed to provide education to work in marine transport, ship and boat building, offshore engineering, submarines design and many related marine areas. The undergraduate program is also a comprehensive preparation for graduate studies, research and consulting in ocean engineering.

Naval Architecture is primarily concerned with the design and construction of ships, offshore structures and other floating equipment and facilities. Ocean Engineering extends this focus to cover virtually all aspects of engineering related to the world’s oceans. Topics including sub-sea systems and oceanographic science add core ocean engineering content to the program. Students will be able to

Students in the Engineering program are governed by the Co-operative Student Handbook which is available at www.mun.ca/coop/home/engineering.php. Prior to registering for the first work term, students must successfully complete the non-credit course Professional Development Seminars.

Students must successfully complete four work terms in order to graduate with a Bachelor of Engineering degree. Students who are expecting to complete the Engineering One requirements during the Fall and Winter semesters may apply to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies to undertake a work term during the Spring semester of Engineering One. Students who have completed the requirement for four work terms may apply to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies to undertake additional work terms.

2.4.1 General Information

- During work terms students are brought into direct contact with the engineering profession, exposed to the work place setting, expected to assume ever-increasing responsibility in employment situations as their education advances, and introduced to experiences beyond the scope of those which could be provided in the classroom.
- Students are responsible for finding suitable work placements. The Office of Co-operative Education of the Faculty provides resources to assist in this process.
- Students who cannot meet the demands of the work term may be required by the Faculty to withdraw from the work term until they can demonstrate an ability to continue in the program.
- Students are not permitted to drop work terms without prior approval of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Co-operative Education Office of the Faculty. Students who drop a work term without permission, or who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, will be assigned a grade of FAL (fail) for that work term.
- Students who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their termination from the job, will be assigned a grade of FAL (fail) for that work term.

2.4.2 Evaluation of Work Terms

Two components are considered in work term evaluation: work performance and a communications component, as described in the Co-operative Student Handbook which is available at www.mun.ca/coop/home/engineering.php.

Each component is evaluated separately and equally weighted resulting in one of the following classifications: Outstanding, Above Expectations, Satisfactory, Marginal Pass, Fail. Both evaluations will be recorded on the transcript. Overall evaluation of the work term will result in the assignment of one of the following final grades:

- Pass with distinction (PWD): To receive a PWD, a student must obtain an evaluation of Outstanding in both the communications and work performance components of the work term.
- Pass (PAS): To receive a PAS, a student must achieve an evaluation of Marginal Pass or better in the communications component and in the performance component of the work term.
- Fail (FAL): A student receiving a Fail in either the communications or performance component of the work term will receive a FAL. For promotion from the work term, a student must obtain PWD or PAS.

2.5 Continuing Engineering Education

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science has a firm commitment to continuing engineering education and offers a variety of seminars and short courses in St. John's and in other centres for practising engineers. For applicability of courses towards diplomas and certificates in Engineering, contact the Continuing Engineering Education office by telephone to (709) 737-7467, in-person at EN 3017, or through the website at http://www.engr.mun.ca/programs/cee/.

3 Admission/Readmission Regulations for the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science

In addition to meeting UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS, students must meet the admission/readmission regulations for the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

3.1 General Information

1. Entry to Engineering One and to the majors offered by the Faculty is competitive for a limited number of placements. Meeting the minimum admission requirements does not guarantee acceptance into the Engineering program. The final decision on admission or readmission to Engineering One or any engineering major rests with the Admissions Committee of the Faculty.

2. Admission or readmission to the University does not necessarily constitute admission or readmission to Engineering One or to any major.

3. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission or readmission is the Admission Committee's judgement of the likelihood of an applicant succeeding in the program.

3.2 Application Forms and Deadlines

1. All programs of the Faculty commence in the Fall semester. The deadline for application for admission is March 1. Students are encouraged to submit their applications as early as possible since the Faculty may begin to offer provisional admissions as early as February to students applying to begin their program in September.

2. The deadline for application for readmission, for students who were previously admitted to a Faculty program, is June 1 for the Fall semester, October 1 for Winter, and February 1 for Spring.

3. Applications received after the relevant deadline may be considered as time and space permit. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

4. Application forms are available in person from the Faculty's General Office and the Office of the Registrar or through the Faculty's website at www.engr.mun.ca. Application forms may also be obtained by writing to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1B 3X5, or to the Office of the Registrar, Admissions Office, Memorial
5. All applications for admission or readmission must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar. A complete application package includes an application to the University (for those who have not attended Memorial University of Newfoundland in the two preceding semesters), an application to the Faculty and any other required supporting documentation. Application fees must be paid when the application forms are submitted.

3.3 Admission Requirements to the Faculty Program

Applicants may apply for admission to the University in a category as defined in the Calendar section under Categories of Applicants, Admission Criteria and Other Information. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate). In addition to meeting these regulations, applicants to the faculty program in the following categories must meet the requirements as indicated below.

3.3.1 High School Applicants

- The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science encourages applications from high school students who have an interest in pursuing an engineering degree and who have achieved a good academic performance during high school.
- High school applicants admitted to the program who are admissible to the required Engineering One courses Mathematics 1000, Physics 1050, and Chemistry 1050 are expected to be able to complete the Engineering One requirements during their first two semesters at Memorial University of Newfoundland.
- High school applicants who are not admissible to these courses, but who are interested in pursuing an engineering degree, are encouraged to apply to the Faculty and to discuss an appropriate first-year program with the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies).

3.3.2 Memorial University of Newfoundland Applicants

- To be eligible for consideration for admission to Engineering One, students who are attending or have previously attended this University must have a cumulative average of at least 60% or an average of at least 65% on their most recent 30 attempted credit hours and be admissible to (or have previously completed) the Engineering One courses Mathematics 1000, Physics 1050 and Chemistry 1050.
- To be eligible for consideration for admission to Academic Term 3, students who are attending or have previously attended this University must meet the requirements stated in the Promotion Regulations, Promotion Status (Engineering One).

3.3.3 Transfer Applicants

- Applicants seeking admission through transfer from accredited post-secondary institutions must have achieved a minimum overall average of 60% to be considered for admission.
- A student’s placement within a program, and requirements needed to complete the program, will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission. Transfer applicants must complete a majority of the credit hours in their program at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

3.4 Other Information

1. The Faculty will notify applicants in writing regarding an admission decision to the Faculty program.
2. Students admitted to the program in any term, without receiving credit for all courses required up to that level, must successfully complete those courses prior to graduation.
3. Students who have been admitted to one major offered by the Faculty and who wish to change to another major within the Faculty must submit a new application for admission to the program. This application must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by the appropriate deadline date as outlined above in Application Forms and Deadlines and will be considered in competition with all other applications.
4. Students admitted full-time to the program and who decline the offer of admission or who fail to register for the appropriate courses during the term of admission will be considered withdrawn from the program. Such students, if they subsequently wish to be considered for admission, must submit a new application for admission to the program. This application must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by the appropriate deadline date in Application Forms and Deadlines above and will be considered in competition with other applications.
4 Program Regulations

4.5 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Program Regulations

4.5.1 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Major

- The full-time 141 credit hour Bachelor of Engineering (Co-operative), Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Major, requires eight academic terms and four work terms.
- The 141 credit hours shall normally be taken in the academic terms in the academic terms order as set out in Table 9 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Major.
- Work terms shall normally be taken in the order as set out in Table 9 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Major.

*Focus Stream Electives:
The courses in the Focus Stream allow a student to pursue a specialization in an area of interest. The area can be in engineering, the sciences, the arts and humanities or business. Students will plan their own focus stream, with approval by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Discipline Chair of Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering.

In reviewing the plan for the stream, the Faculty will be looking for clear educational goals by each student, with increasingly advanced courses in the topic area. The stream is not meant to be a series of random free electives, and especially not a series of introductory courses. The stream will enable students to complete a significant part of a minor in almost any subject. Students are encouraged to take the required additional courses to complete such a minor. Interdisciplinary experience and education is increasingly valuable and this focus stream opportunity will provide our graduates with unique and special knowledge.

4.6 Advanced Standing

Students are occasionally admitted to later terms in Engineering from other institutions. Such entry is normally based on a detailed analysis of the student’s record and is handled on a case-by-case basis. Such students should contact the Office of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies).
5 Promotion Regulations

5.1 General Information
1. In addition to meeting the promotion regulations for the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, all students must meet the general academic regulations (undergraduate). For further information refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).
2. Success in the programs depends on meeting the requirements of both academic terms and work terms.

5.2 Promotion Status (Engineering One)
1. The requirements for promotion to Academic Term 3 are:
   a. a grade of at least 60% in each of Mathematics 1001, Mathematics 2050, Physics 1051 and Chemistry 1050;
   b. a grade of at least 50% in each of ENGI 1010, ENGI 1020, ENGI 1030 and ENGI 1040; and
   c. an average of at least 65% over the above eight courses.
   It is strongly recommended that students complete English 1080 during their first semester in Engineering.
2. In order to remain in the Engineering program, students admitted to Engineering One must complete the requirements for promotion to Academic Term 3 before the end of the academic year of admission.
3. Students who fail to meet the requirements for promotion to Academic Term 3 before the end of the academic year of admission will be deemed to have withdrawn from the Engineering program.
4. Promotion from Engineering One does not guarantee admission to one of the five specific majors. The Faculty reserves the right to limit the number of spaces available in each major. The Faculty also reserves the right to guarantee admission into a particular major at the time of admission into the Engineering program.
5. Students completing the requirements of Engineering One are required to apply for their major by March 1 of the academic year of admission, indicating their preferences for major in rank order. All Engineering students who successfully complete Engineering One in the academic year of admission will be guaranteed a place in Academic Term 3, although not necessarily in the preferred major.

5.3 Promotion Status (Beyond Engineering One)
A student’s promotion status will be determined beyond Engineering One and at the end of each term in one of the following three categories:

5.3.1 Clear Promotion
Clear Promotion means that a student can proceed to the next term without restrictions.
- Students completing or repeating an academic term will receive a Clear Promotion by obtaining an overall average (excluding complementary studies courses and free elective courses) of at least 60%, with a numeric grade of at least 50% in each course (excluding complementary studies courses and free elective courses) in that academic term.
- Students completing a work term will receive a Clear Promotion by obtaining an overall grade of PAS or PWD in that work term.

5.3.2 Probationary Promotion
Probationary Promotion designates less than a Clear Promotion from an academic term, but requires an overall average (excluding complementary studies courses and free elective courses) of at least 60% in that academic term.
- A student with Probationary Promotion from an academic term may continue to the subsequent work term under the condition that entry into the next academic term is not allowed until the student’s status is changed to Clear Promotion.
- A student with Probationary Promotion at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student’s status is changed to Clear Promotion.
- To change Probationary Promotion to Clear Promotion the student must satisfy the Faculty that he or she is competent in the subject of the ENGI course(s) in which the student has failed to achieve 50%. This will normally entail re-examination(s), after which the student will be declared to have passed or failed a test of competency in the subject(s) concerned. No numerical grade will be assigned in the re-examination(s). Upon passing a re-examination, the original grade submitted for the course will be changed to PAS.
- Re-examination will be at a time determined by the Faculty. A student with Probationary Promotion who fails to submit to the re-examination(s) or who fails in the re-examination(s) must repeat the corresponding failed course(s) successfully in order to change the Probationary Promotion to Clear Promotion.

5.3.3 Promotion Denied
Promotion Denied indicates Clear Promotion is not achieved each term or following probation.
- A student with Promotion Denied status will be required to withdraw from the Faculty. Students with Promotion Denied status may apply for readmission to the program after two semesters. Subject to space being available, a student will be readmitted into the term from which promotion was denied. An academic term may be repeated only once, and not more than two academic terms may be repeated in the entire program.
- A student who is denied promotion for failing a work term may be considered for readmission. A student readmitted under this clause must successfully complete four work terms prior to graduation.
- A student who has been denied promotion as a result of having failed a work term and who, in the opinion of the Faculty, can benefit from a remedial program, may be permitted an extension of time not to exceed the end of the registration period of the subsequent semester to complete the requirements of the work term.
- A student who is denied promotion from an academic term will be required to repeat all required courses in which the student obtained a numeric grade of less than 60% in that term. A technical elective course in which the student obtained a numeric grade of less than 60% may be replaced by a course acceptable in the student’s program.
- A student with Promotion Denied status at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.
5.4 Other Information
1. The appropriate discipline will make a recommendation to Faculty Council on each student’s promotion status at the end of each of academic terms 3 to 8.
2. To be recommended for graduation, a student must have clear promotion from Academic Term 8, must have successfully completed at least four work terms and must have an average of at least 60% in the 21 credit hours in complementary studies as described in Description of Program, Complementary Studies.
3. The Office of Co-operative Education will make a recommendation to Faculty Council on each student’s promotion status at the end of each work term.
4. A student must have completed at least one work term successfully, in order to be promoted to Academic Term 5.
5. A student must have completed at least two work terms successfully, in order to be promoted to Academic Term 6.
6. A student must have completed at least three work terms successfully, in order to be promoted to Academic Term 7.
7. A student must have completed four work terms successfully, in order to be promoted to Academic Term 8.
8. A student denied promotion shall be permitted only one readmission to the same term and a total of no more than two readmissions to the Faculty.
9. No course required in any of academic terms 3 to 8 of the program may be attempted more than twice.
10. Students may be required to withdraw from their program at any time, if, in the opinion of the Faculty, they are unlikely to benefit from continued attendance.

6 Waiver of Faculty Regulations
Every student has the right to request a waiver of Faculty regulations. Students seeking a waiver of University academic regulations should refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations Undergraduate - Waiver of Regulations.
1. The Faculty Council reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any Faculty regulation in its application to individual students, where merit and equity so warrant in the judgment of the appropriate Committee of the Faculty Council.
2. All requests must be submitted to the Office of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) for submission to the appropriate Committee of the Faculty. Students must submit their request in writing. Medical and/or other documentation to substantiate the request must be provided.
3. Requests for waivers of admission requirements will be submitted to the Admissions Committee who will make a recommendation for action to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty.
4. Requests for a waiver of a course(s) required in academic terms 3 to 8 should be made prior to the commencement of the academic term and will be considered by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, upon recommendation of the appropriate Discipline Chair.
5. Requests for a waiver of a work term will be considered by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon recommendation of the Office of Co-operative Education. Any waiver granted does not reduce the total number of work terms required for the degree below an absolute minimum of three.

7 Appeal of Regulations
7.1 Faculty Appeal Committee
Appeals against decisions of the Faculty Admissions Committee and appeals against promotion decisions of Faculty Council will be considered by the Faculty Appeal Committee.
1. An appeal against promotion decisions of Faculty Council will normally only be considered upon presentation of evidence which has not been placed before Faculty Council.
2. Any such appeal must be made within one month of the issue of the decision of the Admission Committee or within one month of the issue of results by the Registrar, as the case may be.
3. When a student has requested a re-read of an examination paper which may affect an appeal that appeal must nevertheless be made within one month of the issue of the original results, and consideration of the appeal will be delayed until the result of the re-read is available.

7.2 Other Appeals
Any student whose request for waiver of Faculty regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.

8 Course Descriptions
All courses of the Faculty are designated by ENGI.

8.1 Work Terms and Non-Credit Courses
001W Engineering Work Term 1 represents, for most students, their first experience in an engineering or related work environment. Students are expected to learn, develop and practise the basic standards of behaviour, discipline and performance normally found in a professional work environment. Students are also expected to learn the basics of technical writing and to become familiar with the various communications tools used in a technical work environment.
Two documents must be submitted for evaluation for the communications component for Work Term 1. Additional communication requirements such as technical reports or manuals may be requested by the employer. The two documents to be submitted to the Engineering Co-operative Education Office are the Personal Job Diary and the Work Term Journal or Short Technical Report or Portfolio. Detailed guidelines for the preparation of these documents are provided in the Co-operative Student Handbook. These documents shall be submitted or postmarked no later than the last official day of the work term as shown in the University Calendar.
CH: 0
PR: ENGI 200W

002W Engineering Work Term 2 requires students to have sufficient academic grounding and work experience to contribute in a positive manner to the engineering design and problem solving processes practised in the work environment. Students are expected to show greater independence and responsibility in their assigned work functions than in Work Term 1, and the ability to deal, under supervision, with complex work-related concepts and problems should also be demonstrated. Students can become better acquainted with their chosen discipline, and can observe and appreciate the attitudes, skills, and ethics normally expected of engineers.

The communications component for Work Term 2 consists of a formal, descriptive technical report describing a technical process, project, procedure or investigation chosen from the student's work environment. Students are also expected to keep a job diary, which will not be submitted but must be available for review during monitoring.

Guidelines for the preparation of a descriptive technical report are provided in the Co-operative Student Handbook. The report shall be submitted or postmarked no later than the last official day of the work term as shown in the University Calendar.

CH: 0
LC: 0
PR: ENGI 001W, ENGI 3101

003W Engineering Work Term 3 requires greater participation in the student's selected engineering discipline. Students become more experienced and proficient with the appropriate design procedures than in the preceding work terms. Students are expected to acquire improved speed and accuracy in their work and at the same time accept greater responsibility and be able to function with less direct supervision. Self-confidence and initiative as well as improved analytical skills are expected to develop in the student's engineering education.

The communications component for Work Term 3 consists of a formal technical report on a topic related to a specific theme prescribed by the Faculty, the dean, and the Co-operative Education Office. Examples of themes would include a technical report on a topic related to a specific theme prescribed by the Faculty, the dean, and the Co-operative Education Office. The report shall be submitted or postmarked no later than the last official day of the work term as shown in the University Calendar.

004W Engineering Work Term 4 requires students to engage in various facets of engineering, such as design, analysis, project management, specifications, plans, formal proposals, tender documents, etc. Participation in their selected engineering discipline is expected. Students should continue to gain an appreciation of the use and importance of acquired analytical skills in engineering analysis as well as the scientific and engineering principles that form the basis of specifications and codes. Students should have a level of responsibility commensurate with their academic background and experience.

The communications component for Work Term 4 consists of an oral presentation on a technical subject taken from the student's work environment and preferably related specifically to the student's work. The presentation should be of 10 minutes duration and will be given on campus in a formal setting after students have returned to class. A written summary is also required. Guidelines for the preparation of this oral presentation are provided in the Co-operative Student Handbook.

LC: 0
PR: ENGI 003W

005W Engineering Work Term 5 requires students to engage in various facets of engineering, such as design, analysis, project management, specifications, plans, formal proposals, tender documents, etc. Participation in their selected engineering discipline is expected. Students should continue to gain an appreciation of the use and importance of acquired analytical skills in engineering analysis as well as the scientific and engineering principles that form the basis of specifications and codes. Students should have a level of responsibility commensurate with their academic background and experience. The promotion criteria for this work term will be determined by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

Note: Students in the new program can apply to enter Work Terms 5 and 6.

CH: 0
LC: 0
PR: ENGI 004W

006W Engineering Work Term 6 requires students to engage in various facets of engineering, such as design, analysis, project management, specifications, plans, formal proposals, tender documents, etc. Participation in their selected engineering discipline is expected. Students should continue to gain an appreciation of the use and importance of acquired analytical skills in engineering analysis as well as the scientific and engineering principles that form the basis of specifications and codes. Students should have a level of responsibility commensurate with their academic background and experience. The promotion criteria for this work term will be determined by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

Note: Students in the new program can apply to enter Work Terms 5 and 6.

8.2 Engineering One Courses

1010 Engineering Statics is the first course in Engineering Mechanics. Forces and moments are described with vector algebra, leading to a description of the equilibrium conditions for particles and solid bodies. The importance of free body diagrams is highlighted. This knowledge is then applied to the analysis of trusses, frames and machines. Additional topics include an examination of friction and the concepts of centre of force, centroids and second moments of area.

PR: ENGI 005W

200W Professional Development Seminars are offered during the Fall and Winter semesters prior to a student's first work term. These seminars introduce the co-operative education process and prepare the student for work terms. These seminars are graded PAS or FAL based on attendance, participation and assignments.

AR: attendance is required

LC: as scheduled

8.3 Academic Term 3 Courses

3001 Ocean/Naval Design is an introductory course to design in naval architecture and ocean engineering. It introduces the design challenges in a marine setting. A series of modules will familiarize the students with the main design issues. The first module covers the basic economic question of why ships are built. This is followed by an examination of the materials of construction and the primary fabrication method – welding. The third module deals with manufacturing, including design for manufacturing and the workflow process itself. The final module examines methods of marine design and performance evaluation. This covers numerical and experimental simulation methods and design software. There are several relevant labs and a design project.

LH: at least six 3-hour laboratory sessions per semester

3054 Ocean Engineering Hydrostatics is an introductory course to naval architecture and marine engineering. It discusses the basic principles of the statics of rigid floating or submerged structures. These include: ships, offshore platforms and submersibles. Methods of analysis of the hydrostatics, stability and trim, damage stability and the statics of mooring systems are introduced. Applications are also discussed.

LH: at least nine 3-hour laboratory sessions per semester

PR: ENGI 1010

3101 The Engineering Workplace is a course that deals with issues associated with professional engineering practice. Topics will include workplace and professional ethics, public and workplace occupational health and safety including first-aid, equity, gender and diversity issues, and technical written, oral and visual communication.

AR: attendance is required

3424 Engineering Mathematics includes ordinary differential equations of first degree; linear ordinary differential equations of higher order, methods of undetermined coefficients and variation of parameters; applications to electric circuits and mass-spring systems; Laplace transforms; partial differentiation; convergence of series; Taylor and binomial series; remainder term; and an introduction to Fourier series.

CH: 4
CR: ENGI 2422
LC: 4
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Mathematics 1001, Mathematics 2050

3425 Mathematics for Civil Engineering I includes sequences & series, functions, complex numbers, analytic geometry, derivative, maximum and minimum values, related rates, and antiderivative; partial differentiation; multiple integration, introduction to first order ordinary differential equations.

CH: 4
LC: 4
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Mathematics 1001 and 2050

3610 Earth Sciences for Civil Engineering is an introduction to basic concepts in Geology and Mining with emphasis on applications in Civil, Geological, Mining and Environmental Engineering through the use of case histories. It includes the study of rocks and minerals in selected field and laboratory exercises.

LH: 3
OR: 36-hour field school conducted during the first two weeks of the 1st semester

3703 Surveying and Geomatics includes plane surveying: distance, elevation, and angle measurements; horizontal and vertical curves; plane survey calculations; area and volume computations. Photogrammetry will be studied, including sensors and platforms, mathematics of photogrammetry; instrumentation, equipment, photogrammetric products, digital photogrammetry, remote sensing, and introduction to global positioning and geographical information systems (GIS). A surveying field school to introduce students to the use of surveying equipment and mapping will be held in the first two weeks of the term.

LH: 3
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week

3731 Materials for Construction includes structure of metals and nonmetals; deformation of metals; strengthening mechanisms in metals; concrete and cementitious materials; admixtures; iron and steel; brick masonry; concrete masonry; mortar, grout and plaster; reinforced masonry structures; wood and wood products. Relevant experiments are conducted.

LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: up to one 1-hour tutorial per semester

3821 Circuit Analysis begins with a review of elementary circuits, then considers wye-delta transformation, bridge circuits; transient analysis of first- and second-order circuits; sinusoidal steady state analysis, phasor diagrams, maximum power transfer, frequency selective circuits (filters); and Laplace transforms in circuit analysis (transients, steady state, transfer function).

CR: Physics 3550
LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Mathematics 1001, Mathematics 2050, ENGI 1040

3861 Digital Logic includes number systems and Boolean algebra; minimization techniques for Boolean functions; basic combinational logic circuit analysis and design; flip-flops, state machine design and implementation; decoders, multiplexers, registers, counters; simple arithmetic and logic unit (ALU) algorithms, introduction to hardware description languages (VHDL) for logic component and circuit modelling.

CR: Computer Science 3723
LH: at least six 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: up to eight tutorial sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 1040

3891 Advanced Programming includes advanced procedural language programming; data structures, user defined types, pointers; modularization techniques, scope and data hiding; object-oriented programming; classes, objects and attributes; data encapsulation, member and non-member functions; overloading, methods and friend functions; inheritance, sub- and super-classes; templates.

LH: at least nine 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 1020

3901 Thermodynamics I is a macroscopic approach to heat, work, and energy. Pure substances; conservation of mass, energy for open and closed systems; thermal efficiency and coefficient of performance; second law of thermodynamics; and its corollaries; entropy; second law analysis of thermodynamic systems; second law efficiency.

PR: Mathematics 1001

3911 Chemistry and Physics of Engineering Materials I is an introduction to the structure and properties of engineering materials, in particular, materials, semiconductors, ceramics, glasses and polymers. Topics include a review of atomic bonding, discussion of basic crystalline and amorphous structures, point and line defects, and the role these structural features play in elastic and plastic deformations, yield, fracture, glass transition, thermal conductivity, thermal expansion, specific heat and electrical conductivity.

CR: ENGI 2206
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Chemistry 1050

3934 Dynamics includes kinematics and kinetics of particles using rectangular, normal/tangential and polar coordinates; relative motion using rotating axes; two-dimensional kinematics and kinetetics of rigid bodies; force, acceleration, work-energy and impulse-momentum methods.

CR: ENGI 2313
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Physics 1050, Mathematics 1001; 2050

3941 Production Technology includes an overview of production: production strategies; dimensioning and tolerancing; basic material removal process; forming and shaping process; casting, molding, extrusion and joining processes; computer aided machining, new technologies.

LH: at least eight 3-hour sessions per semester

8.4 Academic Term 4 Courses

4011 Resistance and Propulsion examines the phenomena relating the motions of ships and some factors considered in the design of the marine screw propeller. The topics include the resistance due to friction, wave making, form appendage, wind and waves, squat, blockage, and shallow water effects, and also include the estimation of powering using methodical series and statistical methods. Topics considered in the design of the marine screw propeller include propeller theory, blade sections, blade strength, methodical series charts, efficiency elements, lifting line calculations, cavitation, and propellers in non-uniform flow.

CR: ENGI 5011
LH: 3
CR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: ENGI 3504

4050 Marine Fluid Dynamics includes fluid statics; fluid flow phenomena, in general and in marine applications; control volume analysis of fluid motion; conservation of mass, momentum and energy; differential approach to flow analysis; head losses; applications of conservation laws; external v.s. internal flow, dimensional analysis and scaling; fluid-structure interaction concepts, potential flow theory, lift and Kutta-Joukowski theorem; viscous flow, boundary layers and drag.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: ENGI 3504

4102 Engineering Economics is an introduction to the concepts in the determination of the economic feasibility of engineering projects; time value of money – interest rates, depreciation, annual, present and future worth analysis, benefit-cost analysis, analysis of marine structures and components, free body diagrams of structure, components and section of a components, definition of a stress at point, stress notation, complementary property of shear stress, definition of strain, normal strain, shear strain, thermal strain, mechanical properties of materials, analysis of prismatic members due to axial, bending and torsion loading, analysis of beams, shear force and bending moment diagrams, combined loads; and the transformation of stresses and strains.

LH: at least four 1-hour sessions per semester
OR: up to ten 1-hour tutorials per semester
PR: ENGI 1010

4241 Probability and Statistics includes probability, probability distributions, probability densities, sampling distribution, hypothesis testing, regression and correlation.

CR: ENGI 3423, STAT 2510
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Mathematics 1001

4244 Discrete Mathematics for Computer Engineering is an introduction to discrete mathematics including a selection of topics such as propositional logic, introductory predicate logic, mathematical reasoning, induction, sets, relations, functions, integers, graphs, trees, and models of computation.

CR: ENGI 3422
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Mathematics 2050

4245 Mathematics for Civil Engineering II examines the analytical solutions of ordinary differential equations of the first and higher orders and numerical methods: errors, round off and stability, solution to nonlinear equations, curve fitting and interpolation methods, numerical differentiation and integration.

4717 Applied Environmental Science and Engineering examines the nature and scope of environmental problems; concept of sustainable development; environmental hazards; introduction to ecology, microbiology and epidemiology; basic concepts of environmental quality parameters and standards; solid and hazardous wastes; atmospheric, noise, and water pollution, their measurements, and control.

CH: 3
PR: ENGI 3933
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: Completion of Term 3 of the Civil Engineering program

4723 Geotechnical Engineering I begins with an introduction to soil as a three-phase material and examines physical and mechanical properties; structure; classification of soils; soil compaction; hydraulic properties; permeability; flow of water in soil; flow nets; effective stress concept in stress states in soils beneath loaded areas; and one-dimensional consolidation theory.

LH: at least ten 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: Completion of Term 3 of the Civil Engineering program

4823 Introduction to Systems and Signals begins with an introduction to systems and signals, and includes mechanical and electrical analogs; principles of linear superposition and time-invariance; definitions, properties, and use of the delta function; applications of complex variables and functions; impulse and step responses; input-output relations of continuous-time systems in terms of convolution and transfer functions; frequency response plots; the Fourier transform and applications; applications of Laplace transforms to filtering, communications, and control.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per week
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: ENGI 3424, ENGI 3821

4841 Electromechanical Devices includes an introduction to fundamental principles of energy conversion; review of three-phase systems; magnetic field and transformer models; dynamic loads on transformers; switching, and applications; basic concepts of rotating machines; performance and control of dc machines.

CR: ENGI 5842
LH: at least six 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: tutorial 100 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 3424, ENGI 3821

4854 Electronic Circuits I begins with an introduction to semiconductor electronic devices and circuits using operational amplifiers, diodes, bipolar junction transistors and field effect transistors. Topics covered include operational amplifier configuration and analysis; basic principles, dc and small-signal models and analysis of pn junction diodes, bipolar junction transistors and field effect transistors; differential and multistage amplifiers; practical applications of the devices to the design of power supplies, amplifiers and switching circuits. CAD tools are used to illustrate the analysis and design of electronic circuits.

LH: at least ten 3-hour sessions per semester
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: ENGI 3821, Physics 3000

4862 Microprocessors is a course on microprocessor architecture; assembly language programming; addressing modes, table look up; memory mapped devices; interfacing techniques: parallel, serial; timing control; analog input and output, and computer displays.

LH: at least eight 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 3861

4892 Data Structures examines fundamental data structures; recursive structures and programming techniques; modularity and reusability; time complexity and efficient data structures; procedural abstraction; data abstraction and precise documentation of data structures.

CO: ENGI 4424
PR: ENGI 3891

4901 Thermodynamics II examines thermodynamic cycles: power and refrigeration applications; human comfort and air conditioning: mixture of gases and vapours, humidity, psychrometrics; chemically reacting mixtures and combustion.

LH: at least two 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 3901

4932 Mechanisms and Machines includes an overview of mechanisms within machines; graphical and analytical methods for position, velocity, and acceleration analysis of moving mechanisms; kinematics and kinetics of planar mechanisms; static and dynamic loads on mechanisms and an introduction to mechanism synthesis. There is an analysis project.

CR: ENGI 3933
OR: tutorial 1 hour per week
PR: ENGI 3934

4951 Mechatronics I focuses on sensors and instrumentation. The topics covered in the course are: electric circuits; electronic sensors; signal conditioning and instrumentation. There is a sensors project and 4 laboratory exercises.

LH: at least four 1-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 1040

8.5 Academic Term 5 Courses

5003 Ship Structures I examines longitudinal strength, still water and wave bending moment, shear and bending moment curves; Smith Correction, section modulus calculation, torsion and radiation forces; bulkhead and girder scantlings; portal frame analysis by moment distribution and energy method; finite element analysis and the use of Classification Society rules for design of midship section.

CR: ENGI 6002
OR: ENGI 4312

5020 Marine Propulsion is a second course in marine propulsion and ship powering. The purpose of this course is to give students the principles of design and analysis of marine screw propellers and other propulsion devices. The course introduces various marine propulsion devices including conventional and unconventional propulsion systems. It covers methods of propeller design and propeller design philosophy. Emphasis is placed on the design of fixed-pitch propellers based on the lifting line theory and the design of ducted propellers. The student will also develop some insight into the design of other propulsion systems such as waterjets and sails.

CR: ENGI 6020
LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
PR: ENGI 6020

5312 Mechanics of Solids II begins with an introduction to earlier concepts and considers strain transformation; deflections of beams and shafts, energy methods; failure theories; buckling of columns and the inelastic behaviour of beams.

LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4312

5420 Probability and Random Processes includes basic concepts in probability, random variables, multiple random variables, descriptive statistics, random processes and selected applications for engineering.

PR: Mathematics 1001

5434 Applied Mathematical Analysis examines numerical and analytical solutions of applied mathematical problems in Civil Engineering, problems of higher order differential equations, stiffness equations, stability, ODE, Runge-Kutta methods, boundary value problems, applications of eigen value problems (numerical solutions). Fourier analysis, elliptic, parabolic and hyperbolic partial differential equations and their numerical solutions with engineering applications.

PR: ENGI 4425

5706 Design of Concrete Structures begins with a review of concrete mix design. Topics include design methods and requirements, strength of rectangular sections in bending, balanced condition at ultimate strength with tension reinforcement, bending with both tension and compression reinforcement; serviceability, deflections, flexural crack control for beams and one-way slabs; shear strength, inclined cracking, and shear reinforcement; bond stress and development of reinforcement; T-sections in bending; members in compression and bending: length effects, lateral ties, spiral reinforcement and longitudinal bar placement.

LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4312

5713 Fluid Mechanics examines fluid characteristics; fluid statics; buoyancy and stability; kinematics; pressure measurement; continuity, energy and momentum principles; energy and hydraulic grade lines; free jets; laminar and turbulent flow; dimensional analysis; drag on immersed bodies; flow measurement.

CR: ENGI 4913
LH: at least five 1-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4425

5723 Geotechnical Engineering II examines shear strength of soil, types of laboratory and in-situ soil tests; immediate and consolidation settlement of foundations; plastic equilibrium in soils; limit equilibrium method; earth...
5812 Basic Electromagnetics includes a review of relevant vector calculus, including the divergence, gradient and curl operators in Cartesian, cylindrical and spherical coordinates, divergence theorem, Stokes' theorem, and Laplace's and Poisson's equations. Topics in electrostatics include Coulomb's law, potential and energy, conductors, dielectrics, capacitance and electric field boundary conditions. Topics for magnetism include the steady magnetic field, the Biot-Savart law, Ampère's law, magnetic force, potential, and electric and magnetic field and material boundary conditions.

PR: ENGI 3821, ENGI 4430

5821 Control Systems I includes an introduction to control systems with a negative feedback; mathematical modelling and transfer functions of electromechanical systems; block diagram reduction and signal flow graphs; controller realization using op-amps; transient response analysis; Routh's stability criteria; classical control techniques and design of control systems; root locus analysis and design; frequency response analysis; Bode diagram; gain and phase margins; compensator design in frequency domain; Nyquist stability criterion; A/D and D/A conversion, digital implementations of analog compensation, and an introduction to PID controller tuning methods.

LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester

PR: ENGI 4823

5854 Electronic Circuits II includes an introduction to digital electronics; transient and frequency response of amplifier circuits; feedback amplifier analysis and design; stability and compensation techniques; noise and distortion in electronic circuits; analysis and design of digital converters; and an introduction to analog filter design. CAD tools are used to illustrate the analysis and design of electronic circuits.

LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester

PR: ENGI 4823, ENGI 4854

5865 Digital Systems includes concepts, language, tools, and issues pertaining to specification, modelling, analysis, simulation, testing and synthesis of digital systems, including PLD, FPGA, and ASIC devices. Examples of CAD tools will be used in this course to facilitate system design and testing.

LH: at least ten 3-hour sessions per semester

PR: ENGI 3891, ENGI 4862

5895 Software Design examines the development process: requirement analysis, design, iterative development, design documentation; an introduction to the Unified Modelling Language: use cases, class diagrams, interaction diagrams, structural patterns, behavioural patterns; object and sequence diagrams; an introduction to software design patterns; and case studies. Students will be expected to participate in group discussions, write essays, and present to the class.

LH: at least 15 lecture hours per semester

OR: meetings with project supervisor as required

PR: ENGI 4892

5911 Chemistry and Physics of Engineering Materials II examines aspects of chemical and physical processes and microscopic structure relevant to the production and use of engineering materials, focussing on metals, alloys, ceramics, composites, and wood. Topics include solid-state solutions and compounds, alloy structures, phase diagrams, reaction rates, solid-state transformations, polymerization, oxidation and corrosion, hardness, creep, fatigue, fracture toughness and visco-elastic deformation.

CR: ENGI 5955

LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester

OR: tutorial 1 hour per week

PR: ENGI 3911

5927 Mechanical Component Design I examines adequacy assessment and synthesis of machine elements with a focus on failure prevention, safety factors, and design failure of ductile and brittle materials, fatigue, and analysis of components. Topics include the design of power screws, bolted connections, welds, springs, and shafts.

CR: ENGI 5926

LH: at least eight 3-hour sessions per semester

NR: ENGI 4312

5931 Advanced Mechanics of Deformable Solids examines stresses due to combined loads, thin-walled pressure vessels, transformation of stresses and strains, principal stresses and strains (two and three dimensional stress states). Mohr's circle, theory of failure, stress concentrations, energy methods, buckling of columns, thick-walled cylindrical pressure vessels, rotating disks, multilayered thick walled pressure vessels, shrink fits and contact stresses.

CR: ENGI 5312

LH: at least four 2-hour sessions per semester

PR: ENGI 4312

5951 Mechatronics II focuses on drives and controllers. The topics covered in the course are: electric motors; actuators; control circuits. There is a major project and 4 laboratory exercises.

PR: ENGI 4951

5961 Fluid Mechanics I examines fluid statics; fluid flow phenomena; control volume analysis; conservation of mass, momentum, and energy; Bernoulli equation; head losses, applications of conservation laws: flow measurement devices; pipe networks, momentum devices, dimensional analysis, boundary layer phenomena; lift and drag.

CR: ENGI 4913

LH: at least five 1-hour sessions per semester

8.6 Academic Term 6 Courses

6003 Ship Structures II is an introduction to ship structural safety and rational design. Topics include local strength analysis, elastic, plastic and postbuckling strength of plating, frames and girdles, buckling of columns and plates and fatigue and fracture in ships.

CR: ENGI 7002

LH: at least one 4-hour session per semester

PR: ENGI 5003

6005 Floating Ocean Structures Design introduces floating structures used in the offshore petroleum industry, along with functional requirements, such as drilling and production, of the platforms. Field development criteria are discussed in the context of platform concept selection and synthesis. Environmental loads are examined, focussing on wave loads and ice loads. Diffraction theory and its application on offshore structures is presented. Offshore safety is discussed in terms of major hazards, risk management, and case studies.

CR: ENGI 7005

LH: 1

PR: ENGI 3054

6030 Dynamics and Maneuvering of Ocean Vehicles examines applications of the linearised equations of motion to ocean vehicle problems with single and multiple degrees of freedom; dynamics and maneuvering of marine vehicles: motions in calm water and in waves; hydrodynamics effects such as added mass, radiation and viscous damping; strip theory; irregular motions; and systems for course keeping and motion control.

PR: ENGI 5054, ENGI 4020

6101 Assessment of Technology deals with the issues of the impact of technology on society from an economic, environmental and social point of view. Public safety as an engineering responsibility will also be covered. Students will be expected to participate in group discussions, write a number of essays and give oral presentations.

6322 Thermal Sciences examines fundamental concepts associated with thermodynamics, fluid dynamics and heat transfer; first and second laws of thermodynamics; system and control volume analysis; classification of flows; introduction to boundary layers and drag; convection, conduction and radiation heat transfer; thermal insulation and calculation of R-values; and applications of electrical components.

CR: ENGI 4322

6602 Offshore Petroleum Geology and Technology introduces basic concepts in geology and geophysics of the offshore environment. An outline of petroleum geology is presented, following a path from the origins of hydrocarbons through migration in the Earth's crust, accumulation in reservoirs and the strategies used to discover and to exploit liquids found in the subsurface. Topics include an introduction to the offshore oil and gas industry in harsh environment, type of platforms and structures, exploration phase of offshore oil development, production drilling and completion processes and equipment, and oil and gas transportation system. There are case studies and a project.

PR: completion of Academic Term 5

6705 Structural Analysis I examines structure classification and loads, building code provisions, analysis of statically determinate arches and frames, shear and moment diagrams for frames, influence lines for statically determinate structures, approximate analysis of indeterminate trusses and frames, the force method of analysing indeterminate beams and frames, an introduction to slope deflection method, and moment distribution method.

LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5312

6707 Design of Concrete and Masonry Structures examines design methods for reinforced concrete two-way slabs, two-way slabs supported on walls and stiff beams, design of two-way slab systems, direct method and equivalent frame method, design of concrete retaining walls and basement walls, engineered masonry, allowable masonry stresses, mortar stress analysis and design of flexural members, axial load and bending in unreinforced and reinforced walls, columns and masonry shear walls.

LH: 2
PR: ENGI 5706

6713 Hydraulics examines flow in pipe systems and networks; uniform and non-uniform flow in open channels; hydraulic machinery and associated conduits; design and analysis of culverts; and pipeline/pump system optimization.

LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5713

6716 Environmental Geotechniques examines soil characteristics; soil minerals; soil water; soil moisture sorption; soil infiltration; soil adsorption and diffusion; non-aqueous phase liquids; geosynthetics; design of landfills; and use of waste materials. Relevant software programs are used.

CR: ENGI 7718
PR: ENGI 5723

6749 Construction Planning Equipment and Methods includes construction equipment selection and utilization; earthmoving including use of explosives; case studies of major civil projects; principles of project planning and control; computer applications to the construction industry.

CR: ENGI 8749
PR: completion of Term 5 of the Civil Engineering program

6813 Electromagnetic Fields is a continuation of the topics started in Engineering 5812, including a review of electrostatics and magnetostatics, Maxwell's equations, Lorentz force, Poing'ty's theorem, plane waves, and applications including two-wire transmission lines.

LH: at least three 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5812

6843 Rotating Machines examines the fundamentals of rotating machines; design of machine windings; polyphase and single phase induction motor theory and applications; synchronous machine theory; stability and control of synchronous generators; control and protection of rotating machines, an introduction to A.C. motor drives, and machines.

LH: at least six 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4841

6855 Industrial Controls and Instrumentation examines control and instrumentation system components; transducers and signal processing circuits, linear variable differential transformers, power oscillators; electromechanical actuators, solenoids, power drives; A/D and D/A conversion, standard PC interfaces; real-time operating systems; design of discrete control, controllers and PLC's; on a PC platform; system integration, control system tweaking and troubleshooting; programming soft-PLC's using IEC61131.

CR: ENGI 7858
LH: at least eight 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5821

6856 Power Electronics is an overview of power semiconductor switches, an introduction to energy conversion and control techniques and examination of controlled rectifiers; phase-controlled converters; switch-mode dc-dc converters; variable frequency ac/dc inverters; ac/dc converters; design of thyristor commutation circuits, gate and base drive circuits, and snubber circuits; thermal models and heat sink design.

CR: ENGI 7846
LH: at least ten 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5854

6861 Computer Architecture begins with a review of microprocessors and computer organization. Topics include fundamentals of computer design: performance metrics and cost; instruction set architecture; memory hierarchy; fetch; decode; execute; memory; input/output; pipelining; hazards; parallelism; special purpose processors; multiprocessors and thread-level parallelism.

CR: ENGI 4862

6871 Communication Principles begins with a review of signal representation and analysis and includes distortionless signal transmission, analog modulation (AM, FM and PM), super-heterodyne receiver, sampling theorem, pulse amplitude modulation (PAM), pulse code modulation (PCM), delta modulation, baseband digital transmission, digital modulation techniques (ASK, FSK and PSK).

LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per term
PR: ENGI 4823, ENGI 5420

6876 Communication Networks is an introduction to communication networks such as the telephone network and the Internet. Topics include flow control and error control; circuit switching; packet switching; local area networks; internetworking; communication architectures and protocols.

PR: ENGI 5420

6892 Algorithms, Complexity, and Correctness presents fundamental theories and practices for the design of correct and efficient computing systems, including specification of computing systems and their correctness with respect to specifications; methods of verification; algorithmic problem solving strategies (such as divide and conquer, dynamic programming, etc.); tractability and intractability of computational problems.

PR: ENGI 4424, ENGI 4892

6901 Heat Transfer I examines modes of heat transfer; conduction: steady, 1-D conduction, thermal resistance, extended surfaces (fins), lumped capacitance analysis, 1-D transient conduction; convection: Newton's law of cooling, convection heat transfer coefficient, external boundary layer flows, internal flows, natural convection; radiation: principles, properties, exchange factors, black body radiation, and enclosures; radiation shields.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
PR: ENGI 4901

6927 Mechanical Component Design II is a continuation of the ENGI 5927 course in analysis and synthesis of machinery, including advanced analysis of machine elements such as clutches, brakes, couplings, journal bearings and gears. Advanced machine design concepts are examined, such as reliability, optimization and techniques for stimulating innovative design. A synthesis project involving the machine elements studied is usually included.

CR: ENGI 6926
LH: at least ten 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5927

6933 Mechanical Vibrations examines single degree of freedom systems: free vibration, energy methods, response to harmonic excitation, response to arbitrary inputs; two degree of freedom systems: natural frequencies and mode shapes, dynamic vibration absorber.

CR: ENGI 5932
LH: at least four 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 3934

6951 Automatic Control Engineering examines the performance of feedback control systems. The topics covered in the course are: feedback control concept; control system performance; control system stability; nonlinear phenomena. There is a project which makes use of a peripheral interface controller or PIC. There are 3 laboratory exercises. Extensive use is made of MATLAB.

CR: ENGI 6925
LH: at least three 1-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5951

6961 Fluid Mechanics II examines differential analysis of fluid motion; conservation of mass; continuity equation; conservation of momentum; Navier-Stokes equations; conservation of energy; incompressible flows; low Reynolds number flows; boundary layer flows; compressible flows.

CR: ENGI 5913
LH: at least three 1-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5961

8.7 Academic Term 7 Courses

7000 Ocean Systems Design examines the preliminary design methods for the selection of one or more acceptable solutions; weight and cost estimation, power requirements estimating, and selection of principal design characteristics and economic and operational evaluation of alternative solutions. There are relevant design laboratory projects.

CR: ENGI 7052
LH: 3
PR: ENGI 3001, ENGI 3054

7030 Vehicle Dynamics is a course in the dynamics of vehicles of all types. This includes space craft, aircraft, automobiles, rail vehicles, boats, and underwater vehicles. The course will focus on the basic mechanics of vehicles, equilibrium, lift, powering, stability and performance.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
PR: ENGI 3934

7033 Marine Hydrodynamics examines the fundamental equations of hydrodynamics, boundary layers; potential flow, added mass, damping, circulation, and vorticity; numerical methods for hydrodynamic coefficients; water waves and loading for regular and irregular seas.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
PR: ENGI 4020

7045 Marine Engineering Systems examines shafting system design; shafting system vibration analysis, study of exciting forces and moments, and balancing of reciprocating and rotating machinery; heat transfer and marine heat exchangers; incompressible fluid flow and piping system design and selection of appropriate pumping devices.

CH: 4
LC: 4
LH: 1
PR: ENGI 3901, ENGI 6933

7102 The Engineering Profession examines the origins and development of Engineering as a profession and its values, the place of technology in society and the nature of technological decisions. Topics will include the role and responsibility of the professional engineer in society, code of ethics, sustainable development and environmental stewardship.
CR: ENGI 5101

7650 Offshore Oil and Gas Engineering Project I is a multidisciplinary design project that illustrates the application of previous engineering science and design related courses. The project will be done by teams of students with individuals concentrating their participation in their own engineering discipline. The program topic will be from the offshore oil and gas engineering industry. Lectures will be scheduled as required. This is the Term 7 project and if the scope of the project is such that it needs to continue, then the student will have the option to continue the same project in term 8 (in ENGI 8650).
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5821

7704 Design of Steel Structures begins with a review of Design Concepts, Standards, and Products. Topics include design of members and connections, tension members, bolted joints, welded joints, compression members, stability and effective length, flexural members, beams & beam-columns, plate girders, composite construction, introduction to serviceability, and deflections.
LH: at least four 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5706 or approval of the Discipline Chair

7706 Finite Element Structural Analysis includes a review of basic concepts required for FEA, basics of stiffness formulation, direct stiffness method, displacement method, one dimensional elements, trusses and frames. Topics include 1-D fluid and heat transfer elements, automated analysis and modelling concepts, higher order elements: two dimensional elements - plane stress and plane strain, introduction to 3D and other types. - introduction to advanced topics and isoparametric formulation.
LH: at least eight 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 6705 or approval of the Discipline Chair

7707 Reliability and Environmental Loading on Offshore Structures begins with an introduction to natural phenomena that cause loading and influence the design of marine structures. Topics include the interpretation and utilization of field data for the determination of design loads for wind, waves currents and ice case studies of load analysis for the design of offshore structures in Atlantic Canada.
PR: ENGI 5312

7713 Hydrology and Water Resources examines precipitation, snowmelt, infiltration, runoff, and streamflow; stages and characteristics of hydrologic data; hydrograph analysis and synthesis; evaporation; structure design floods; reservoir storage and flood routing; urban run-off and drainage.
LH: at least 8 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 5713, ENGI 6322

7716 Hydrotechnical Engineering examines the theory and application of steady gradually-varied flow in artificial and natural open channels together with an introduction to appropriate software; erosion protection and mobile-boundary hydraulics; problems with ice in rivers, the design of spillways, energy dissipators and culverts; physical scale models. There is an introduction to water hammer and surge tanks.
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5713

7723 Geotechnical Engineering III examines soil investigation and site characterization; pile foundations; embankment dams; elements of geotechnical earthquake engineering; constitutive theories for soil materials; and numerical methods in geotechnical engineering. The students select two of the above topics on which they are interested in concentrating their efforts. Bi-weekly lectures are offered on the other topics at an informal level.
PR: ENGI 5723

7745 Highway Engineering examines design and construction of highways including driver, vehicle and road characteristics; highway location and geometric design; soil classification; subgrade and base materials; highway drainage; flexible and rigid pavement; and highway economics.
PR: completion of Term 6 of the Civil Engineering program

7748 Project Planning and Control includes an introduction to types of contracts, project delivery approaches, and prevailing contractual relationships. The course examines basic project management techniques for network planning and scheduling (CPM and PERT); principles of resource productivity databases, preliminary estimating, and detailed bid preparation; quantitative approaches for effective control of time, cost, resources, and constructed facilities; use of computer software for scheduling, estimating, and control.
PR: completion of Term 6 of the Civil Engineering program

7803 Electrical Engineering Design Project I provides an opportunity for senior students to integrate the knowledge that they have acquired through the junior terms and apply it to solving an electrical engineering design problem. Students work in small teams with the assistance of a faculty mentor to define an appropriate design problem and propose a method of solution to the problem. The project is continued in ENGI 8853.
CR: ENGI 7800
LH: at least 10 lecture hours per semester
OR: weekly meetings with project supervisor
PR: completion of Term 6 of the Electrical Engineering program

7804 Computer Engineering Design Project I provides an opportunity for senior students to integrate the knowledge that they have acquired through the junior terms and apply it to solving a computer engineering design problem. Students work in small teams with the assistance of a faculty mentor to define an appropriate design problem and propose a method of solution to the problem. The project is continued in ENGI 8854.
CR: ENGI 7800
LH: at least 10 lecture hours per semester
OR: weekly meetings with project supervisor
PR: completion of Term 6 of the Computer Engineering program

7811 Antennas examines the fundamentals of electromagnetic radiation; propagation: small antennas and antenna parameters; thin linear wire antennas and antenna arrays; antenna impedance and ground effects; Friis transmission formula; and aperture antennas.
LH: at least three 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 6813

7814 Electromagnetics for Communications examines vector calculus; Green's, Stokes' and Gauss' theorems; Maxwell's differential and integral equations; steady-state and time-varying aspects of Maxwell's equations; uniform plane wave propagation in various media; and applications of electromagnetics in communications.
CR: ENGI 3424, ENGI 3821

7824 Introduction to Digital Signal Processing examines sampling theory; the discrete Fourier transform; the efficient fast Fourier transform algorithm; elementary discrete-time signals; the discrete-time Fourier series; the discrete-time Fourier transform; discrete-time linear and time-invariant systems; linear constant-coefficient difference equations; the convolution sum; the z-transform and frequency response of discrete-time systems; an introduction to digital filter design techniques; and digital signal processing applications.
PR: ENGI 6871

7825 Control Systems II examines state space models for multi-input/output systems; observability, controllability; state feedback without and with integral controller structure, state observers; quadratic optimal regulator and tracking control strategies; discrete-time state equations; and an introduction to optimal control.
CR: ENGI 6825
PR: ENGI 5821

7844 Power System Analysis begins with an introduction to electric power systems. Topics include per unit quantities; transmission line parameters; modelling of power system components; single line diagrams; network equations formulation; bus impedance and admittance matrices; load flow analysis and control; design of reactive power compensation for power system performance enhancement; tap changing, auto and control transformers for power system application; economic dispatch and optimal power flow studies.
LH: at least six 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 6843

7855 Communications Electronics begins with an introduction to communications systems components and a review of linear amplifiers. The course examines linear amplifier design and characteristics using s-parameters; power amplifiers; mixers; oscillators; modulator/demodulator circuits and subsystems; and the integration of subsystems into analog and digital communication systems.
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5854, ENGI 6871

7894 Concurrent Programming surveys parallel and distributed architectures and examines patterns of concurrent program design; correctness of concurrent programs: safety and liveness properties, proof of correctness of concurrent programs: safety and liveness properties, proof of properties; synchronization using locks, semaphores, and monitors; communication using message passing and remote procedures; parallelization for high-performance computation and advanced topics such as scientific applications, distributed systems, model checking, and transaction processing.

CR: ENGI 8893
PR: ENGI 6861, ENGI 6892

7901 Heat Transfer II examines advanced topics in heat transfer; multidimensional conduction; shape factors; numerical methods; moving heat sources; heat transfer equipment: heat exchangers, heat exchanger design principles; phase change heat transfer; melting, solidification, condensation, and boiling.

LH: at least one 3-hour session per semester
PR: ENGI 6901

7903 Mechanical Equipment examines performance characteristics of mechanical equipment; fluid power devices: pipes; valves; pumps; fans; blowers; compressors; storage tanks; heat transfer devices: heat exchangers; boilers; cooling towers; and pressure vessels.

LH: at least three 1.5-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 6901

7911 Industrial Materials examines physical and mechanical properties; industrial materials; metals and metal alloys, ceramics and polymer, composite materials; failure modes and mechanisms, non-destructive testing and evaluation, damage tolerant materials; material treatments; and materials selection.

CR: ENGI 6972
LH: at least 20 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 5911

7926 Mechanical Design Project I is the first of two capstone design courses in the Mechanical Discipline. In this course mechanical students are organized into small groups or teams, which must complete a common design challenge. The project is presented as an open-ended problem statement to allow for a wide range of solutions and specific research. The system is designed, prototyped and tested during the course of the term. Each team is a small consulting firm and is required to document its object planning as well as its design.

CR: ENGI 7926
LC: scheduled as required
PR: completion of Term 6 of Mechanical Engineering program

7928 Computer Aided Engineering Applications introduces a variety of Computer Aided Engineering (CAE) applications based on advanced CAD modelling. The fundamentals of 3D modelling are covered including parametric and feature-based design. CAE applications include assembly modelling, mechanism animation and finite element analysis. Further applications include Computer Aided Manufacturing (CAM); model based inspection (i.e. Coordinate Measurement Machines); reverse engineering; document/drawing production; data exchange; and data management. The course has a significant lab component, which provides exposure to solid modelling and CAE applications based on an industrial CAD/CAM/CAE package.

CR: ENGI 7962
LH: at least 10 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 1030, ENGI 6927

7934 Finite Element Analysis examines the basis of the finite element method. The course examines continuum mechanics applications; beam problems, fluid mechanics problems, and heat transfer problems. There are relevant computer laboratory exercises.

LH: at least 10 2-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4430, ENGI 5931

7952 Robotics and Automation provides the fundamentals in robotic manipulators and arms. The course provides basic understanding in coordinate transformations for spatial description, both kinematical and kinetic analysis, forces and dynamics and finally trajectory generation and path planning.

CR: ENGI 7944
LH: at least three 1-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 1040, ENGI 4430

8.8 Academic Term 8 Courses

8000 Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering Project executes the design project selected and approved in Term 7. The project must illustrate the application of previous design related courses, i.e., decision methods, impact assessments and application of technology. The subject may be ship design, marine system, directed research or a unique design solution. Lectures will be scheduled as required.

LH: 3
PR: ENGI 7000

8003 Small Craft Design presents the fundamentals of naval architecture as practised in small craft design, and develops a methodology for a variety of craft: tenders, lifeboats, planning vessels, dinghies, coastal cruisers and large, state of the art racing yachts. The emphasis is on recreational craft of all sizes, with special emphasis on sailing vessels. Special topics, such as choice of material of construction, scantlings, performance prediction, seaworthiness, tank testing, modern construction materials and techniques are covered. Specific design problems unique to small craft will be covered such as: mast design and sail area determination, and the state of the art in performance prediction. Students will do a design of their choice over duration of the course. Small weekly design studies will be required.

LH: at least 12 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 6090

8054 Advanced Marine Vehicles examines the concepts used in the design of advanced marine vehicles. Emphasis will be given to: structural design of craft constructed from fibre reinforced plastics; high speed marine vehicles (powering, structures, seakeeping and model testing); small craft.

LH: at least 9 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 5003

8058 Submersible Design examines the formulation of mission statement, promotes understanding of various design constraints and reviews the historical developments of submersibles design. The course studies the hydrostatics principles of floatation, stability and control of submersibles. Students will perform resistance and propulsion calculations. The course examines maneuvering and control equations, a survey of different materials, and their selection criteria, the design of pressure hulls, the structural design of submersibles and a study of various support systems.

LH: at least 12 hours per semester
PR: ENGI 3054

8650 Offshore Oil and Gas Engineering Project II is a multidisciplinary design project that illustrates the application of previous engineering science and design related courses. The project will be done by teams of students with individuals concentrating their participation in their own engineering discipline. The project topic will be from the offshore oil and gas engineering industry. Lectures will be scheduled as required.

PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8671 Safety and Risk Engineering begins with an overview of safety and risk issues in the offshore oil and gas industry. The course examines regulatory requirements; hazards and structured analysis tools; risk terminology and quantified risk analysis (QRA) techniques; and safety assessment studies. The course includes project and case studies.

PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8676 Design of Natural Gas Handling Equipment covers process description, design methods, operating procedures, and troubleshooting aspects of gas production facilities including inlet separation, gas compression, hydrate prevention and control, gas dehydration, NGL recovery and dew point control, gas transmission and pipeline design and transportation systems.

PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8680 Process Control and Instrumentation begins with an introduction to feedback and feedforward control systems, regulatory and servo control. Topics include modelling thermal, gas, liquid and chemical processes; sensors and transmitters, control valve sizing for liquids and gases, industrial feedback controllers; design of feedback control loops, tuning of feedback controllers; cascade, ratio, override and selective control; feedforward control; multivariable process control; piping and instrumentation diagrams, and control system documentation.

LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5821

8690 Reservoir Engineering examines fluid pressure regimes, oil recovery factors, calculation of hydrocarbon volumes, reservoir rock characteristics, reservoir fluid properties, porosity and permeability, material balance, and well test analysis.

PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8691 Petroleum Production Engineering examines the procedures and equipment necessary for preparing a well to produce hydrocarbons and maximizing flow rate during the life of the well; techniques for well productivity analysis in under-saturated, saturated, and natural gas matrices; well completion configuration; tubulars; packers and subsurface flow control devices; completion and work over fluids; perforating oil and gas wells; formation damage; surfactants for well treatment; hydraulic fracturing; acidizing; scale deposition, removal, and prevention; work over and completion rigs; and artificial lift.

PR: completion of Academic Term 6
8692 Drilling Engineering for Petroleum Exploration & Production covers both offshore and onshore drilling operations and includes: rotary drilling rig operations, well construction sequence, drill string, drill bits, well bore hydraulics, casing and well heads, cementing, well control, directional and horizontal drilling, well planning and fishing operations, and extended reach, horizontal and multilateral well drilling techniques.
PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8693 Petroleum Facilities Engineering covers process description, design methodology, procedures, and troubleshooting. Aspects of surface production facilities including separation systems, oil treating, water treating systems, custody transfer operations, transport and storage systems.
PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8694 Downstream Processing includes: oil and natural gas processing, oil and gas storage facilities and their design, oil and gas separation processes, petroleum refining processes, and de-bottlenecking.
PR: completion of Academic Term 6

8700 Civil Engineering Project is a practically oriented design project integrated over the five areas in which Civil programs are offered. Students will operate in consultant groups and will complete a design for a typical Civil Engineering unit, e.g., drainage system, site design, or foundation design. The project may include design elements from areas of hydraulic, geotechnical and structural engineering. Relevant field exercises will be conducted.
PR: completion of Term 7 of the Civil Engineering program

8705 Structural Building Systems examines geometries, loads, safety and serviceability, procedure of using the national building code for evaluating the structures. Examples on structural members: design of low rise concrete, timber and steel buildings; lateral load-resisting elements and bracing systems; design of foundation systems, footing design, pile cap design, pile group analysis using plastic centre method and inclined pile analysis; prestressed concrete concepts; strength of flexural members, and shear reinforcement for prestressed concrete beams.
LH: at least nine 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 6707

8706 Offshore Structural Design examines guidelines and international codes and standards for offshore structural design; understanding design constraints and concepts of offshore fixed and floating structures; design consideration for fixed offshore concrete platform; design consideration for offshore platforms and floating production system design, and analysis of various support systems of the offshore structure.
PR: ENGI 7707

8713 Municipal Engineering includes water supply system overview; water consumption estimation; groundwater and surface water sources; oxygen demand and transfer; water treatment processes; water distribution systems and design software; sewer systems and design software; wastewater treatment processes; sludge handling; decentralized and on-site wastewater treatment.
PR: ENGI 7716

8717 Environmental Assessment, Monitoring and Control covers statistical analysis; pollution monitoring, and sampling network design; water quality analysis; pollution modelling; environment assessment; environmental impact assessment; site remediation and hazardous waste management. There are relevant field trips and case studies.
LH: at least ten 3-hour lab sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 4717

8740 Contract Law and Labour Relations is an introduction to law as it applies to engineering activity; the nature of law and legal processes, including standard forms; liens, bonds and insurances; the labour movement in North America; examination of union philosophies and managerial attitudes; legal and collective bargaining; disputes and settlements.
CR: ENGI 6740

8751 Coastal and Ocean Engineering examines the coastal and ocean environment; ocean circulation and properties; waves and tides; instruments and measurement. Additional topics will be drawn from the areas of hydraulic, geotechnical and structural engineering. Relevant field exercises will be conducted.
PR: ENGI 6713

8821 Design of Digital Signal Processing Systems is a review of introductory digital signal processing (DSP) principles, including sampling theory and discrete-time systems and signals. Topics include transform analysis of DSP systems; issues in the implementation of DSP systems; design of IIR and FIR digital filters; computable transforms and their use in the implementation of DSP systems; and design of IIR and FIR digital filters for current and emerging applications of digital signal processing.
PR: ENGI 7824

8826 Filter Synthesis begins with an introduction to analog filters. The course examines descriptive terminology, transfer functions and frequency response of filters; design of first order passive and active filters; design and analysis of biquad circuit, Sallen key circuit, multiple feedback circuit and state variable filter; RC-CR transformation; inductance simulation circuit; cascade design principle; design of filters with maximally flat magnitude response; design of filters with equal ripple magnitude response; design of Bessel-Thomson filters; analysis and design of switched capacitor filters; and the use of Matlab for design of analog filters.
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5854

8845 Power System Operation examines symmetrical components; power system fault analysis; power system stability; and power system protection.
LH: at least four 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 7844

8853 Electrical Engineering Design Project II continues ENGI 7803 and provides an opportunity for senior students to integrate the knowledge that they have acquired through the junior terms and apply it to solving an electrical engineering design problem. Students work in small teams with the assistance of a faculty mentor to complete detailed design, implementation and testing of an electrical engineering system to solve the problem as defined in 7803.
CR: ENGI 8800
LC: 0
CR: weekly meetings with project supervisor
PR: 7803

8854 Computer Engineering Design Project II continues ENGI 7804 and provides an opportunity for senior students to integrate the knowledge that they have acquired through the junior terms and apply it to solving a computer engineering design problem. Students work in small teams with the assistance of a faculty mentor to complete detailed design, implementation and testing of an electrical engineering system to solve the problem as defined in 7804.
CR: ENGI 8800
LC: 0
CR: weekly meetings with project supervisor
PR: 7804

8863 Introduction to LSI Design (same as Computer Science 4725) is an introduction to ASICs and ASIC design methodology and includes basic components of digital logic design tools and ASIC technology libraries; partitioning for logic synthesis and VHSIC coding; constraining designs, synthesizing, simulation and optimization; design for testability; layout and post-layout optimization and SDF generation; and static timing analysis.
LH: at least eight 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 5865

8879 Digital Communications is a review of baseband transmission and basic digital modulation schemes, detection (optimum receiver, matched filter, correlator), error performance, intersymbol interference (ISI), equalization, the concept of information and entropy, source coding including block and convolutional error correcting codes, modulation and coding trade-offs, bandwidth and power efficiency.
PR: ENGI 6871

8903 Mechanical Systems examines mechanical systems design; system simulation, control, and optimization; design optimization and system performance evaluation; design case studies and equipment for overall system design.
PR: ENGI 6901

8910 Corrosion and Corrosion Control examines forms of corrosion; the electrochemical nature of the corrosion process; the mixed potential theory, Purba diagrams and Evan diagrams; corrosion testing, control use by use of materials, selection, cathodic protection, inhibitors, and coatings. There are several studies of selected corrosion problems.
CR: ENGI 8962
LH: at least five 3-hour sessions per semester
PR: ENGI 7911

8926 Mechanical Design Project II is the second of two capstone design courses in the Mechanical Discipline. Building on skills acquired in the first, student teams each choose a unique design challenge and then proceed to generate a solution. The problem statements are often drawn from industry and, where possible, interdisciplinary interaction is encouraged (for example, with business, computer science, or other engineering disciplines). In most cases, the problem proponent will act as the “client” and the team is expected to manage the client interaction process as well. Significant emphasis is placed on both oral and written communication of both the process and results. Wherever possible, each system or a critical component of it, will be prototyped and tested.
CR: ENGI 8936
8933 Fatigue and Fracture Mechanics is an introduction to fatigue and fracture analysis of metallic components, failure mechanisms, fracture mechanisms, effects of cracks, notches, collapse; linear elastic fracture mechanic analysis; design of components to avoid fracture; fatigue crack propagation, fracture initiation, crack arrest; and fracture toughness measurements.
PR: ENGI 7926

8935 Pressure Component Design examines traditional design methods; load types; sustained, cyclic, impact; failure modes and mechanisms; incremental collapse; plastic shakedown; upper bound and lower bound approximations; loa cycle fatigue; and rational design procedures. Case studies are conducted for cylinders; plates; shells.
PR: ENGI 5931

8937 Machine Dynamics begins with a review of Newton's Law, planar rigid body kinematics and kinetics. Topics include three-dimensional kinematics and kinetics: orientation angles, rotation matrices, Euler's equations. Lagrange's and Hamilton's equations, constraints, dynamic simulation of linkages, mechanism loads, balancing, engine dynamics. There is a student analysis project.

8945 Production & Operations Management is an overview of production and operations management, and an examination of decision making and operations strategy; process design and improvement, process flow analysis/simulation, capacity planning; design of value chains, lean systems, plant layout and process planning; operating value chains, MIS systems, inventory and resource management; Relevant computer laboratory exercises are conducted.
CR: ENGI 7945

8964 Fluid Structure Interactions examines structural vibrations generated by fluid flow. These vibrations can be transient or they can take the form of instability or resonance. The course deals with the following fluid structure interactions: (1) Flow induced vibration of structures (2) Unsteady flow in pipe networks (3) Water wave interactions with structures.
CR: ENGI 8904
LH: at least three 3-hour sessions per semester

1 School Description

The Fisheries and Marine Institute was established in 1964 as the College of Fisheries, Navigation, Marine Engineering and Electronics. It became affiliated with the University in 1992 and since then has continued to grow as a world-class centre of marine technology and education. The official name is the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland, but it is commonly known as the Marine Institute.

The main campus of the Marine Institute overlooks the city of St. John’s from within Pippy Park, which has extensive hiking trails and recreational facilities. This building houses a flume tank, a seafood processing plant, freshwater aquaculture research and development facilities, and extensive marine simulation facilities. The Dr. C. R. Barrett Library, located at this campus, houses one of Canada’s largest marine-related collections. In addition, the Institute manages the Offshore Safety and Survival Centre in Foxtrap, the Safety and Emergency Response Training (SERT) Centre in Stephenville and a marine base on the south side of St. John’s harbour.

The Marine Institute provides a full range of programs focusing on fisheries and marine science and technology. In addition to undergraduate and graduate degrees, the Institute offers advanced diplomas, diplomas of technology, and technical and vocational certificates. The Institute also runs a variety of short courses and industrial response programs.

All programs and courses are designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills required for success in the workforce. The Institute seeks the advice of industrial program advisory committees in the ongoing development and review of programs. Whenever appropriate, it submits programs for national accreditation, providing graduates with mobility in professional employment.

2 Description of Degree Programs

Students must meet all regulations of the Fisheries and Marine Institute in addition to those stated in the University’s general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

For information about non-degree programs and upgrading opportunities refer to www.mi.mun.ca.

2.1 General Degrees

The Marine Institute offers two undergraduate degrees. For specific details on each degree refer to the appropriate Degree Program Regulations. The courses in the programs are available on campus and by distance delivery.

2.1.1 Bachelor of Maritime Studies

The Bachelor of Maritime Studies program prepares graduates for career advancement in the maritime and related industries. It is designed for students who have graduated from accredited, or Transport Canada approved, diploma of technology programs in the marine fields. The program is also available to professional mariners and certain Canadian Forces (Naval Operations) personnel. Courses in the program provide the student with an introduction to human resource and business management concepts, and the social contexts in which their careers will be based. The program consists of 39 credit hours in addition to work completed in a diploma program and can be taken on a full-time or part-time basis.

2.1.2 Bachelor of Technology

The Bachelor of Technology program prepares graduates for career advancement in health science technology or engineering/applied science technology industries. It is designed for students who have graduated from an accredited diploma of technology program that is applicable to one of two optional areas. Courses in the program provide the student with an introduction to human resource and business management concepts, and the social contexts in which their careers will be based. The program consists of 39 credit hours in addition to work completed in a diploma program and can be taken on a full-time or part-time basis.

The optional areas are:
Engineering and Applied Science Technology Option, which is normally chosen by students who have an engineering/applied science technology diploma.

Health Sciences Technology Option, which is normally chosen by students who have a health sciences technology diploma.

3 Admission/Readmission Regulations for Degree Programs

In addition to meeting the admission/readmission requirements for the University students must also meet the admission/readmission requirements for the Marine Institute. See UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate) for University requirements.

3.1 General Information

1. All application forms must be submitted to the Admissions Office, Office of the Registrar, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL, A1C 5S7.

2. Students who want to take University courses concurrently with diploma courses should check either Pre-Bachelor of Maritime Studies or Pre-Bachelor of Technology on the Memorial University of Newfoundland application for admission/readmission form.

3. For the purpose of satisfying the requirements of UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Year of Degree and Departmental Regulations - All Other Faculties and Schools, Pre-Bachelor of Maritime Studies and Pre-Bachelor of Technology students will normally follow regulations in effect in the academic year in which the student first completes a course(s) in the Bachelor of Maritime Studies or Bachelor of Technology program as a Pre-Bachelor of Maritime Studies or Pre-Bachelor of Technology student. However, the student may elect to follow subsequent regulations introduced during the student’s tenure in a program.

4. Students may not obtain both a Bachelor of Maritime Studies and a Bachelor of Technology degree based upon completion of the same diploma of technology.

3.2 Admission Requirements for Applicants to the Bachelor of Maritime Studies Program

1. An applicant must submit a form for admission/readmission to the University. This application must include all required documentation including proof of the diploma or certificate required for admission in a specific category.

2. Categories for admission to the Bachelor of Maritime Studies

   Applicants must meet the general admission/readmission requirements of the University and be eligible for admission to the Bachelor of Maritime Studies program in one of the following categories:

   - Category A: applicants holding a diploma from the Marine Institute in nautical science, marine engineering technology, naval architecture technology or marine engineering systems design technology or marine engineering technology,
   - Category B: applicants holding a Canadian Technology Accreditation Board accredited, or Transport Canada approved, diploma in marine engineering technology or nautical science,
   - Category C: applicants holding a Canadian or non-Canadian diploma similar to an accredited or Transport Canada approved Marine Institute diploma in nautical science, marine engineering technology, naval architecture technology or marine engineering systems design technology,
   - Category D: applicants holding a Transport Canada Certificate of Competency at the Master Mariner or Engineering First Class level or equivalent,
   - Category E: applicants holding a Transport Canada Certificate of Competency at the Master, Intermediate Voyage level or equivalent,
   - Category F: applicants holding a Transport Canada Certificate of Competency at the Engineering Second Class level or equivalent,
   - Category G: applicants who have Canadian Forces (Naval Operations) training of a type and at a level acceptable to the Admissions Committee.

3. Applications to the program will be considered by the appropriate admissions committee(s).

3.3 Admission Requirements for Applicants to the Bachelor of Technology Program

1. An applicant must submit a form for admission/readmission to the University. This application must include all required documentation including proof of the diploma or certificate required for admission in a specific category.

2. Categories for admission to the Bachelor of Technology Program

   Applicants must meet the regular admission requirements of the University and be eligible for admission in one of the following categories:

   - Category A: applicants holding a diploma of technology accredited by the Canadian Medical Association (CMA),
   - Category B: applicants holding a diploma of technology in engineering/applied science technology accredited by the Canadian Technology Accreditation Board (CTAB),
   - Category C: applicants holding a diploma of technology comparable to a Marine Institute or College of the North Atlantic three-year CTAB accredited diploma in engineering/applied science technology,
   - Category D: applicants holding a diploma of technology comparable to a College of the North Atlantic three-year CMA accredited diploma.

3. Upon acceptance into the program, students will be admitted to one of the two options: the Engineering and Applied Science Technology Option or the Health Sciences Technology Option. Students may be permitted to change their option with the approval of the Marine Institute Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

4. Applications to the program will be considered by the appropriate admissions committee(s).
4 Degree Program Regulations

4.1 Bachelor of Maritime Studies

- Students must complete 39 credit hours in addition to the work which was required under their category of admission.
- The required and elective courses are listed in Table 1 Bachelor of Maritime Studies - Course Requirements For All Students. These courses may have prerequisites which have to be met.
- Students admitted to the program in certain categories may have to complete additional requirements. These are listed in Table 2 Bachelor of Maritime Studies - Additional Requirements Based on Category of Admission.
- When transfer credit has been granted for a course(s) taken to satisfy the requirements for admission students must take an additional elective University course(s).
- To meet the academic requirements for a Bachelor of Maritime Studies a candidate shall successfully complete the following program with a minimum overall average of 60% and a minimum numeric grade of 50% in each course required for the degree.
- Students must take 39 credit hours with 21 credit hours from the required courses and 18 credit hours from the electives.
- At least one elective must be chosen from each of the groups A and B.

4.2 Bachelor of Technology

Students must complete 39 credit hours in addition to the work which was required under their category of admission.

The required and elective courses are listed in Table 3 Bachelor of Technology - Engineering and Applied Science Technology Option and Table 4 Bachelor of Technology - Health Science Technology Option. These courses may have prerequisites which have to be met.

When transfer credit has been granted for a course(s) taken to satisfy the requirements for admission, students must take an additional elective(s) in the Bachelor of Technology program.

To meet the academic requirements for a Bachelor of Technology a candidate shall successfully complete the program with a minimum overall average of 60% and a minimum numeric grade of 50% in each course required for the degree.

4.2.1 Bachelor of Technology - Engineering and Applied Science Technology Option

- Students must take 39 credit hours with 24 credit hours from the required courses and 15 credit hours from the electives.
- At least one elective must be chosen from each of the groups A and B.

5 Waiver of Degree Program Regulations

Students requesting waiver of University academic regulations should refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Waiver of Regulations. Every student also has the right to request waiver of degree program regulations.

5.1 General Information

- The Marine Institute reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any Marine Institute regulation in its application to individual students where merit and equity so warrant, in the judgement of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Marine Institute.
- Students requesting a waiver of a Marine Institute regulation must submit their request in writing to the head of the program who will forward a recommendation to the Chair of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Marine Institute. Medical and/or other documentation to substantiate the request must be provided.
- Any waiver granted does not reduce the total number of credit hours required for the degree.

6 Appeal of Regulations

Any student whose request for waiver of Marine Institute regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.
7 Course Descriptions

All courses of the Marine Institute degree programs are designated as MSTM (Maritime Studies/Technology Management).

4001 The Organization and Issues of Shipping will provide students with knowledge of the economic shipping environment with respect to Canada. The course will develop an understanding of basic trade theory, patterns of trade and sea routes, commodities traded by sea, and the organizational structure of shipping companies.

CR: the former Engineering 8065; Maritime Studies 4001

4002 The Business of Shipping will provide students with an understanding of financial statements, costs, revenues and financial performance of shipping companies as well as computing, voyage and annual cashflows. The course will develop an understanding of marine insurance and forecasting, and risk management.

PR: MSTM 4001

4003 Environmental Management System will provide students with a knowledge and understanding of international standards for environmental management. The course will develop an understanding of the ISO 14000 standard, its requirements and the process for establishing an environment management system (EMS). The course will include a consideration of the documentation and other requirements for ISO 14000 registration.

4004 Marine Environmental Management will introduce students to the requirements for the safe management of the marine environment. The course will introduce major environmental problems and identify the major threats to the marine environment. It will provide a working knowledge of these threats and consider the possible counter measures that may be employed by employees in the marine industry.

PR: Admission to the Bachelor of Technology or the Bachelor of Maritime Studies program

4005 Trends and Issues in International Shipping will provide students with an understanding of how regulatory bodies and their legislation have evolved to affect the modern seafarer trading internationally. This course will develop an understanding of the various rules and regulations dealing with Classification, ISM, MAPROL, SOLAS and SIRE inspections which have to be dealt with on a daily basis at sea.

PR: Admission to the Bachelor of Technology or the Bachelor of Maritime Studies program

4010 Assessment and Implementation of Technology (formerly Technology 4010) examines the effects of technology on the physical, socio-economic, historic, cultural and aesthetic environments. The course also addresses relevant legislation, the generation and evaluation of project/product alternatives, and the prediction, verification and mitigation of technological effects.

CR: Technology 4010

4020 Economic Management for Technologists (formerly Technology 4020) provides an introduction to the economics of technological projects. Students will study the mathematics of money, cost composition, and project evaluation, including cost comparison. They will also learn to analyse projects for decision making, including risk assessment and replacement analysis. In addition, they will learn to use suitable criteria for project selection, and to conduct sensitivity analysis.

CR: Engineering 4102; Technology 4020

4030 Technology in the Human Context (formerly Technology 4030) examines technology in the historical context and technology in the modern era. Students will discuss human insights, innovation, the interactions between development and technology transfer, ethics and professionalism, and how to develop a technology value system.

CR: Technology 4030

4040 Project Management for Technologists (formerly Technology 4040) will introduce the student to the interdisciplinary field of project management. The course covers the interpersonal skills necessary to successfully lead or work effectively within a project team as well as providing an overview of certain planning and scheduling tools and techniques necessary for the planning and monitoring of projects.

CR: Technology 4040

4050 Introduction to Quality Management (formerly Technology 4050) will provide students with an understanding of the philosophy and concepts involved in the total quality approach to quality management. The course covers the various tools and techniques used in quality management as well as providing an overview of the role of management.

CR: Technology 4050

4060 Advanced Technical Communications will enhance the technical communication skills of students. The course content examines technical writing fundamentals, information gathering, analysis, and documentation; proposal preparation; technical document applications; technical report preparation; graphics preparation, and technical presentations. The course will provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to develop proposals, reports, and presentations for technical projects.

4070 Special Topics in Technology will provide the opportunity for students to maintain technical currency through a review of recent advances in technology and their application to particular technical areas.

PR: Admission to the Bachelor of Technology Program and MSTM 4060

4100 Technical Project and Report I (formerly Maritime Studies 4000 and Technology 4000) requires the student to identify a research topic in a specialty area, write a concept paper and develop a proposal to be carried out in MSTM 4200. In addition, the course offers an opportunity to improve time management, critical thinking, project management, problem solving, and reading writing skills as related to the research process.

CH: 1
CO: MSTM 4060 or second English course at the 1000 level
PR: MSTM 4060 or second English course at the 1000 level

4200 Technical Project and Report II (formerly Maritime Studies 4000 and Technology 4000) provides a link between the other courses of the program and the technical component from the diploma program. Students will carry out an in-depth study of the topic identified in MSTM 4100. Students will fully document and present their findings through the writing of a formal technical report.

CH: 2
PR: MSTM 4100

8 Maritime Studies/Technology Management (MSTM) Courses Available to Students not Enrolled in a Degree Program Offered by the Fisheries and Marine Institute

Students not in a degree program offered by the Marine Institute may register in courses from the following list if space is available.

- 4001 The Organization and Issues of Shipping
- 4003 Environmental Management System
- 4010 Assessment and Implementation of Technology
- 4030 Technology in the Human Context
- 4040 Project Management for Technologists
- 4050 Introduction to Quality Management
- 4060 Advanced Technical Communications

AR = Attendance requirement; CH = Credit hours are 3 unless otherwise noted; CO = Co-requisite(s); CR = Credit can be retained for only one course from the set(s) consisting of the course being described and the course(s) listed; LG = Lecture hours per week are 3 unless otherwise noted; LH = Laboratory hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usage limitation(s).

1 School Description
The School of Human Kinetics and Recreation offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in kinesiology, physical education, and recreation. The School's programs prepare students to meet societal needs for professionals who are able to initiate and manage health and lifestyle-enhancing programs. The School encourages a close working relationship among students, faculty, and staff, and with local and national sport, health, and professional organizations. Co-operative education programs provide for the integration of academic and professional knowledge. A full-time academic student advisor within the School assists students with decisions related to their academic program. The School prides itself on the extent to which senior undergraduate and graduate students are engaged in teaching, research, and scholarly activity. Many graduates of the School are leaders in the fields of physical education, sport, kinesiology, health, and recreation.

Additional information regarding the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation is available at www.mun.ca/hkr.

Students must meet all regulations of the School in addition to those stated in the general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

2 Description of Programs
All courses of the School are designated by the abbreviation HKR.

2.1 General Degrees
The School of Human Kinetics and Recreation offers six general degrees in three program areas. For specific details on each degree refer to the appropriate Program Regulations - General and Honours Degrees.

2.1.1 Kinesiology Degrees
Kinesiology degrees are designed to prepare graduates for careers in ergonomics, fitness, health and wellness, and lifestyle professions. The kinesiology degree programs consist of School courses in addition to a flexible choice of electives. The two kinesiology degrees are:

- Bachelor of Kinesiology (Co-operative): is comprised of 120 credit hours and three work terms and is taken on a full-time basis.
- Bachelor of Kinesiology: is comprised of 120 credit hours and can be taken on a full-time or part-time basis.

2.1.2 Physical Education Degrees
Physical Education degrees are designed to prepare graduates for careers in teaching and related areas. There are two physical education degrees with teaching and general options available within each degree.

The teaching option contains courses in the fundamentals of physical education as well as courses in curriculum planning, teaching methods, and pedagogy relevant to physical education curricula for various grade levels. Within the teaching option students will be placed in an educational setting for some of the course work. Following completion of a physical education degree - teaching option, a student wishing to teach in a school setting normally completes an intermediate/secondary degree program offered by the Faculty of Education. For information regarding admission requirements to the intermediate/secondary programs refer to the FACULTY OF EDUCATION section of this Calendar.

The general option is designed to provide basic professional preparation. The general option of the program consists of courses common to the teaching option plus a flexible choice of electives, without the requirement for curriculum and methods courses.

The two physical education degrees are:

- Bachelor of Physical Education (Co-operative): is comprised of 120 credit hours and three work terms and is taken on a full-time basis. This program is offered in the teaching and general options.
- Bachelor of Physical Education: is comprised of 120 credit hours and can be taken on a full-time or part-time basis. This program is offered in the teaching and general options.

2.1.3 Recreation Degrees
Recreation degrees are designed to provide students with the opportunity to develop professional competencies in recreation and leisure service management. The students will also gain an understanding of the social, physical, psychological, cultural, economic, and political issues that influence recreation and leisure participation, delivery, and management. The two recreation degrees are:

- Bachelor of Recreation (Co-operative): is comprised of 120 credit hours and three work terms and is taken on a full-time basis.
- Bachelor of Recreation: is comprised of 120 credit hours and can be taken on a full-time or part-time basis.
2.2 Honours Degrees

Honours degrees signify superior academic achievement in kinesiology and physical education programs and superior academic achievement with specific course work in recreation programs. To graduate with honours, application must be made on the prescribed form which is available from the School or the Office of the Registrar. For further information on honours degrees see Program Regulations - General and Honours Degrees.

2.3 Work Terms in Co-operative Programs

Students registered for work terms are also governed by the Co-operative Student Handbook. Prior to registering for the first work term, students must successfully complete the course Professional Development Seminars.

2.3.1 General Information

- During work terms students are brought into direct contact with the kinesiology, physical education, and recreation professions, exposed to the work place setting, expected to assume ever-increasing responsibility in employment situations as their education advances, and introduced to experiences beyond the scope of those which could be provided in the classroom.
- Students are responsible for finding suitable work placements. The Co-operative Education Office of the School provides resources to assist in this process.
- In addition to a work term, students may register for up to 6 credit hours, although they are advised to consult the School's Academic Student Advisor.
- Students are not permitted to drop work terms without prior approval of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies and with the recommendation of the Co-operative Education Office of the School. Students who drop a work term without permission, or who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, will be assigned a grade of FAL (fail) for that work term.
- Students who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their termination from the job, will be assigned a grade of FAL (fail) for that work term.
- Students are expected to maintain professional ethics, including confidentiality.

2.3.2 Work Term Reports

- A work term report, on a topic approved by the Co-operative Education Office of the School, must be submitted for each work term. The report must be approved by the employer and submitted by the student to the Co-operative Education Office of the School on or before the appropriate deadline in the University Diary.
- Late work term reports will not be evaluated unless prior permission for a late work term report has been granted by the Co-operative Education Office of the School.

2.3.3 Evaluation of Work Terms

- Two components are considered in work term evaluation: on-the-job performance and the work term report. Each component is evaluated separately and equally. The overall evaluation of work terms will result in the assignment of one of the following letter grades: PWD (pass with distinction), PAS (pass) or FAL (fail).

3 Admission/Readmission Regulations for the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation

In addition to meeting the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS students must meet the admission/readmission regulations for the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation.

3.1 General Information

1. Entry to programs offered by the School is competitive for a limited number of placements. Meeting the minimum requirements for admission does not guarantee acceptance into the program. The final decision on admission rests with the Admissions Committee of the School.
2. Admission or readmission to the University does not necessarily constitute admission or readmission to any program.

3.2 Application Forms and Deadlines

1. All programs of the School commence in the Fall semester. The deadline for application for admission is March 1.
2. The deadline for application for readmission, for students who were previously admitted to a School program, is June 1 for the Fall semester, October 1 for Winter, and February 1 for Spring.
3. Application forms are available in person from the School’s General Office and the Office of the Registrar or through the School’s website at www.mun.ca/hkr. Applications forms may also be obtained by writing the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL, A1C 5S7 or the Office of the Registrar, Admissions Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7.
4. Applicants applying to more than one program must submit separate application forms and supporting documentation for each program.
5. All applications for admission or readmission must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar. A complete application includes an application to the University (for those who have not attended Memorial University of Newfoundland in the two preceding semesters), an application to the School, an autobiographical statement, and any other required supporting documentation. Application fees must be paid when the application forms are submitted.
6. In addition to these requirements, students applying to the physical education programs must:
   - submit a current first aid certificate, and
   - complete the School's swim test. Students applying from outside St. John's should call the School's General Office at (709) 737-6130 to contact the swim test co-ordinators to arrange for testing. In lieu of the School swim test, a level 8 Red Cross or other credential satisfactory to the School may be accepted. Students unable to complete the swim test requirement before beginning their program must successfully complete this requirement by the end of October of their first semester of admission to the program. Failure to do so will result in the student being required to withdraw from the program at the end of their first semester.
3.3 Admission Requirements to School Programs

Applicants may apply for admission to School programs under the Categories Of Applicants, Admission Criteria and Other Information outlined under UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate). In addition to meeting these regulations, applicants in the following categories, other than those applying for admission to the Bachelor of Recreation degree program, must meet the additional requirements as indicated below.

3.3.1 High School Applicants

- High school applicants to the kinesiology degree programs must have completed:
  - Level III Laboratory Science with a grade of at least 70%, and either
  - Level III Advanced Mathematics, or Level III Academic Mathematics with a grade of at least 70%, or Level III Academic Mathematics and a score on the Mathematics Placement Test acceptable to the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. For further information on the Mathematics Placement Test contact the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

- Applicants to the Bachelor of Recreation degree program cannot apply under this category and must apply under Memorial University of Newfoundland Applicants or Transfer Applicants.

3.3.2 Memorial University of Newfoundland Applicants

- To be eligible for consideration for admission to all programs, other than the Bachelor of Recreation degree program, students who are attending or have previously attended this University must have a cumulative average of 60% or an average of 65% on their last 30 credit hours.

- To be eligible for consideration for admission to the Bachelor of Recreation degree program, students are required to complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in the courses indicated in Table 8 Bachelor of Recreation - Course and Credit Hour Requirements. Applicants must have achieved an overall average of at least 60% in the courses comprising the required 15 credit hours.

- Overall academic performance is an important criterion in reaching decisions on applications for admission, and will be considered, in addition to the average on the five courses required for admission, in the selection process.

- Applicants to the Bachelor of Recreation degree program must have at least five years of relevant work experience, or equivalent, that is deemed acceptable by the Admissions Committee of the School of Human Kinetics & Recreation.

- Students who are attending or have previously attended this University are not required to submit a copy of their transcript with their application(s).

3.3.3 Transfer Applicants

- Applicants seeking admission through transfer from accredited post-secondary institutions must have achieved a minimum overall average of 60% to be considered for admission.

- A student's placement within a program, and requirements needed to complete the program, will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission. No applicant will be granted placement beyond Academic Term 4.

- Transfer applicants must request that an official transcript showing any completed courses and current registrations be forwarded to the Office of the Registrar. Final transcripts must be submitted upon receipt of final grades.

3.4 Other Information

1. The School will notify applicants in writing regarding an admission decision to a School program.

2. Students admitted to a program at any level beyond Academic Term 1, without successfully completing all courses required up to that level, must successfully complete those courses prior to the end of their last academic term. Successful completion shall mean a minimum grade of 50% in every non-HKR course and a minimum grade of 60% in every HKR course.

3. Students who have been admitted to one program offered by the School and who wish to change to another program within the School must submit a new application for admission to the program. This application must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by the March 1 deadline date and will be considered in competition with all other applications.

4. Students admitted full time to a program and who decline the offer of admission or who fail to register for courses during the Fall term of admission will be considered withdrawn from the program. Such students, if they subsequently wish to be considered for admission, must submit a new application for admission to the program. This application must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by the March 1 deadline date and will be considered in competition with other applications.

5. Students admitted part time to a program and who decline the offer of admission or who fail to register for courses and to successfully complete at least 6 credit hours applicable to the degree during each academic year will be considered withdrawn from the program. Such students, if they subsequently wish to be considered for admission, must submit a new application for admission to the program. This application must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by the March 1 deadline date and will be considered in competition with other applications.

6. In the case where students have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Recreation (Co-operative) Programs, the Admissions Committee of the School may consider this circumstance as grounds to deny admission to applicants to the Bachelor of Recreation degree program.
Program Regulations - General and Honours Degrees

4.1 Bachelor of Kinesiology (Co-operative)

- The full-time 120 credit hour Bachelor of Kinesiology (Co-operative) requires 69 HKR credit hours, 51 non-HKR credit hours, and three work terms.
- The 120 credit hours shall normally be taken in the academic terms in the sequence and course load as set out in Table 1 Bachelor of Kinesiology (Co-operative). Students wishing to change the sequence and/or reduce the course load required in the academic terms must first consult with the School's Academic Student Advisor.
- Work terms shall be taken in the term and sequence as set out in Table 1 Bachelor of Kinesiology (Co-operative).

4.2 Bachelor of Physical Education (Co-operative)

4.2.1 Teaching Option

- The full-time 120 credit hour Bachelor of Physical Education (Co-operative) - Teaching Option requires 69 HKR credit hours, 51 non-HKR credit hours, three work terms, and a first aid certificate and a CPR certificate both of which must be current at the time of graduation.

- The 120 credit hours shall normally be taken in the academic terms in the sequence and course load as set out in Table 2 Bachelor of Physical Education (Co-operative) - Teaching Option. Students wishing to change the sequence and/or reduce the course load required in the academic terms must first consult with the School's Academic Student Advisor.

- The three work terms shall be taken in the term and sequence as set out in Table 2 Bachelor of Physical Education (Co-operative) - Teaching Option.

- Students following the teaching option, and who plan to complete one of the intermediate/secondary degree programs offered by the Faculty of Education at this University, must choose a minor of at least 24 credit hours from one of the academic disciplines listed in the intermediate/secondary degree regulations. In completing the minor, students must follow the minor program regulations listed under the appropriate faculty or school.

4.7 Honours Degrees

1. An honours degree signifies superior academic achievement.
2. An application for admission to any of the honours degrees is not required. Rather, students indicate on the prescribed application for graduation form that they wish to be considered for an honours degree.
3. To receive an honours degree, a candidate shall:
   - meet the requirements of the general degree;
   - successfully complete HKR 4600 and HKR 4610 with a minimum grade of 75% in each course;
   - obtain an overall average of 75% or better on all HKR courses for the degree; and
   - obtain an overall average of 70% on the 120 credit hours required for the degree.
4. A candidate for the honours degree who does not fulfill these conditions but fulfills the requirements for the general degree shall be awarded the general degree.
5. Candidates are not permitted to repeat or substitute courses or work terms for the purpose of meeting the academic requirements for honours degrees.
6. A candidate who, for academic reasons, has been required to withdraw from a program offered by the School will not be eligible for the honours degree.

5 Promotion Regulations

5.1 General Information

- In addition to meeting the promotion regulations for the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation all students must meet the general academic regulations (undergraduate). For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).
- Success in the programs depends on meeting the requirements of both academic terms and work terms.
- To be promoted a student must, in addition to obtaining the requisite grades and average, complete and deliver all work term reports as required.

5.2 Promotion Status

- A student’s promotion status at the end of each term will be in one of the following four categories:

5.2.1 Clear Promotion

- Students completing an academic term will receive a Clear Promotion by obtaining an overall average of at least 60%, with a numeric grade of at least 60% in each HKR course, and a numeric grade of at least 50% in each non-HKR course.
- Students completing a work term will receive a Clear Promotion by obtaining a PAS (pass) or a PWD (pass with distinction) in the work term.
- Students completing courses in addition to a work term must obtain a PAS (pass) or a PWD (pass with distinction) in the work term and an overall average of at least 60%, with a numeric grade of at least 60% in each HKR course, and at least 50% in each non-HKR course.

5.2.2 Probationary Promotion

Probationary Promotion designates less than a Clear Promotion but requires an overall average of at least 60%, with a numeric grade of at least 50% in each course, and not more than one HKR course with a numeric grade below 60%.
A student with Probationary Promotion at the end of Academic Term 1 may be permitted to enter Academic Term 2 but must have Clear Promotion by the end of Academic Term 2.

A student with Probationary Promotion from any academic term may continue to the subsequent work term under the condition that entry into the next academic term is not allowed until the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.

A student with Probationary Promotion at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.

To change Probationary Promotion to Clear Promotion the student must satisfy the School that he or she is competent in the subject of the HKR course in which the student has failed to achieve 60%. This will normally entail re-examination, after which the student will be declared to have passed or failed a test of competency in the subject concerned. No numerical grade will be assigned in the re-examination, and the original grade submitted for the course will not be changed.

Re-examination may be written, oral, practical or a combination of formats and will be at a time determined by the School.

Only one re-examination is permitted per course. Failure to submit to the re-examination or failure in the re-examination will result in denial of promotion. If the student is subsequently readmitted to the School, he or she must repeat or replace the course in which re-examination was unsuccessful.

A maximum of two re-examinations is permitted in a student's degree program. If a student is awarded a grade of less than 60% in a third HKR course, the student will be required to repeat or replace the course.

It is the responsibility of the student to arrange for re-examination before the end of the first week of the student's next academic term. If re-examination is not arranged in accordance with this time frame, the student will be required to repeat or replace the course.

The School may recommend that the student complete remedial studies before re-examination.

5.2.3 Probationary (A) Promotion
Probationary (A) Promotion designates failure to successfully complete the required components of HKR 2210, 2220, 3210, 3220, 4210 and 4220 in a given term.

Probationary (A) Promotion will be given upon the recommendation of the course instructor/Coordinator and/or the Committee on Undergraduate Studies and only for extreme circumstances, duly authenticated.

A student with Probationary (A) Promotion in any term will be permitted to enter subsequent terms and will receive a letter grade of INC (Incomplete) in the course. A final numeric grade will not be received until the required components of each course have been successfully completed. Academic Council will grant this status, taking into account the specific factors involved in each case. This status is not automatic, as failure to successfully complete all required components of each course would normally result in a failing grade.

To change Probationary (A) Promotion to Clear Promotion, a student must successfully complete the activity course(s), with a minimum grade of 60%, within one academic year of the date on which the original grade(s) of Incomplete was (were) recorded.

A student with Probationary (A) Promotion at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student has successfully completed all required components of all courses, and the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.

5.2.4 Promotion Denied
Promotion Denied indicates Clear Promotion is not achieved each term or following probation.

A student with Promotion Denied status will be required to withdraw from the School. Students with Promotion Denied status may apply for readmission to the program after two semesters. A student will normally be readmitted into the term from which promotion was denied.

A student who is denied promotion for failing a work term may be considered for readmission after the lapse of two semesters, at which time the student will be required to complete a further work term with satisfactory performance before being admitted to any further academic term in the School. A work term may be repeated only once, and not more than two work terms may be repeated in the entire program.

A student who has been denied promotion as a result of having failed a work term and who, in the opinion of the School, can benefit from a remedial program, may be permitted an extension of time not to exceed the end of the registration period of the subsequent semester to complete the requirements of the work term.

A student who is denied promotion as a result of grades received in HKR and non-HKR courses will be required to repeat all HKR courses in which they obtained a numeric grade of less than 60% in that term. A non-HKR course may be replaced by a course acceptable in the student's program.

A student with Promotion Denied status at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.

5.3 Other Information
The Committee on Undergraduate Studies will determine each student's promotion status at the end of each term and will make its recommendations to Academic Council.

Academic Council may promote a student notwithstanding the promotion regulations given above. A decision of this nature will be made only for reasons acceptable to Academic Council and in the case of a student thought likely to succeed in future terms.

A student shall be permitted only one readmission to the School.

Students may be required to withdraw from their program at any time, if, in the opinion of the School, they are unlikely to benefit from continued attendance.

6 Waiver of School Regulations
Every student has the right to request waiver of School regulations. Students wishing waiver of University academic regulations should refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Waiver of Regulations.

6.1 General Information
The School reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any School regulation in its application to individual students where merit and equity so warrant in the judgment of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School.
7 Appeal of Regulations

Any student whose request for waiver of School regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.

8 HKR Courses Available to Students Not Enrolled in a Program Offered By the School

8.1 Regulations for Students Not in a Program Offered By the School

- Students not in a program offered by the School may register for a maximum of 15 credit hours only from the following list if space is available.
- Students who have been required to withdraw from a program offered by the School may not register for any HKR course.
- Students not in a School program will be required to drop any HKR course(s) in excess of 15 credit hours and may be subject to academic and financial penalties.

9 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Director of the School.

All courses of the School are designated by HKR. The abbreviations KIN, PHSD, and RECR indicate former Kinesiology, Physical Education, and Recreation courses.

1000 Fitness and Wellness (formerly PHSD 1000) is an introduction to the concepts of fitness and wellness, and the relationships among physical activity, fitness, wellness, quality of life, and longevity.

AR: attendance is required

CR: PHSD 1000

UL: not applicable towards any of the degrees offered by the School

1001 Resistance Training for Health and Activity (formerly KIN and PHSD 1001) is an introduction to resistance training exercises, programs, and principles. This will necessitate both theoretical classes and practical laboratories that will involve testing and participation in resistance training activities. A portion of the assessment will also be based on regular attendance (at student convenience) for another hour of resistance training per week certified by the attending fitness consultant.

CR: KIN and PHSD 1001; HKR 4320; the former KIN and PHSD 4320

LH: 2

UL: not applicable towards any of the kinesiology or physical education degrees offered by the School 1022 Professional Development Seminars are offered during the Fall semester prior to a student’s first work term. These seminars introduce the co-operative education process and prepare the student for work terms. These seminars are graded PAS or FAL based on attendance and participation.

AR: attendance is required

CH: 0

LC: as scheduled

2000 Introduction to Kinesiology, Physical Education and Recreation (formerly KIN, PHSD, and RECR 2000) introduces the philosophical, scientific, socio-cultural, historical concepts, and influences in kinesiology, physical education, and recreation.

CR: KIN, PHSD, and RECR 2000; HKR 2001

2001 Introduction to Physical Education for Education Students provides students a general overview of the role that physical education and active living play in the overall development of primary and elementary students, and in the creation of positive learning environment in schools. This course is intended for students in the primary/elementary program offered by the Faculty of Education.

CR: HKR, KIN, and RECR 2000

PR: admission to the Bachelor of Education (Primary/Elementary) offered by the Faculty of Education

UL: not applicable towards any of the degrees offered by the School

2002 Coaching (formerly KIN and PHSD 2002) introduces the various methods, principles, and theories used to coach developing athletes in various sport settings. Factors such as the coach’s role, planning, analysing and developing skills, sport safety, and physical preparation will be presented with an emphasis on attaining competency in these areas.

CR: KIN and PHSD 2002; the former PHSD 421A/B
2004 Enhancing Performance in Physical Activity (formerly PHSD 2004) gives an overview of the various models, principles, and theories used to explain and predict ways in which athletes and exercisers conduct themselves in various sport settings. Selected intervention techniques to enhance performance will be presented.
CR: PHSD 2004

2005 Personal Stress Management is designed to provide students with an introduction to stress and to explore the relationship between exercise, fitness and physical activity and stress management. It describes how to reorganize one's life by presenting a systematic analysis of stress and coping mechanisms appropriate to different stages of life. The stress coping mechanisms will be presented with an emphasis on application. Completion of this course does not qualify students as stress management counselors. Students interested in this field are advised to contact the Department of Psychology for information on careers in counselling.
CO: Psychology 1000 and 1001
PR: Psychology 1000 and 1001

2100 Introduction to Organization and Administration (formerly PHSD and RECR 2100) introduces the basic administrative functions in a work setting in physical education and/or recreation. The laboratory sessions will assist students to develop skill in the basic computer applications relevant to these functions.
CR: PHSD and RECR 2100
LH: 2

2210 Physical Activities Course: Movement Concepts (formerly PHSD 2210) employs the conceptual approach to teaching physical activity and facilitates the development of various forms of dance (e.g., creative, folk). Concepts, skills, and strategies will be emphasized.
AR: attendance is required. Students who are absent more than six class hours may be required to withdraw from the course and will receive a letter grade of DRF and a numeric grade of 0
CR: PHSD 2210
LC: as scheduled
LH: as scheduled

2220 Physical Activities Course: Gymnastics and Aquatics (formerly PHSD 2220) may employ a number of teaching methods. Emphasis will be placed on the language and practice of the conceptual approach. Concepts, skills, and strategies will be emphasized.
AR: attendance is required. Students who are absent more than six class hours may be required to withdraw from the course and will receive a letter grade of DRF and a numeric grade of 0

LC: as scheduled
LH: as scheduled
PR: HKR 2210

2300 Growth and Development (formerly PHSD 2120, and KIN and PHSD 2300) is an introductory study of human growth and developmental factors and their influence on the learning of motor skills.
CR: PHSD 2120; KIN and PHSD 2300

2310 Human Anatomy (formerly KIN and PHSD 2310) is a study of the structure of the human body with emphasis on selected systems (endocrine, neural, muscular, skeletal, cardiovascular, respiratory).
CR: KIN and PHSD 2310
LH: 2

2320 Primary Human Physiology (formerly KIN and PHSD 2320) is a study of bodily functions with emphasis on selected systems (endocrine, neural, muscular, cardiovascular, respiratory).
CR: KIN and PHSD 2320
LH: 2

2410 Historical and Comparative Physical Education, inactive course.

2420 Doping in Sport, inactive course.

2505 Recreation Programming and Evaluation (formerly RECR 2505) introduces the student to a variety of methodologies, skills, and materials for diverse populations in a variety of settings.
CR: RECR 2505

2515 Social Psychology of Leisure (formerly RECR 2515) introduces the personality and social factors that shape how people experience leisure. Course materials will focus on life cycle theory, intrinsic and extrinsic motivation, perceived freedom, constraints theory, and other social psychological theory related to leisure.
CR: RECR 2515

2545 Introduction to Outdoor Recreation and Education (formerly RECR 2545) provides an overview of the foundational principles of outdoor education and recreation as they pertain to philosophy, wilderness ethics, professional preparation, movement through wildlands, environmental hazards, navigation, and safety. Students will participate in a sampling of outdoor education and recreation activities during the course.
CR: RECR 2545

2585 Foundations of Therapeutic Recreation is designed to examine a variety of aspects of therapeutic recreation from both a practical and theoretical perspective. Topics will include the history, philosophies, and theories underlying therapeutic recreation, therapeutic recreation models, essential skills for the therapeutic recreationist and ethical considerations for therapeutic recreation. Diverse groups (e.g. adults, youth, disadvantaged and disabled) and settings (e.g. community, schools, institutions, and workplace) suitable for therapeutic recreation will be discussed.

2600 Introduction to Human Nutrition (formerly KIN 2600; same as Biochemistry 2600) gives an overview of human nutrition with an emphasis on topics of current interest. Students will gain an understanding of nutrition in the context of health maintenance across the life span. Topics covered will include nutrition during pregnancy, nutrition for infants, Canadian Recommended Nutrient Intake/Dietary Reference Intake, weight loss and weight gain, nutriceuticals, and ergogenic aids.
CR: KIN 2600; Biochemistry 2600

2601 Physical Activity, Obesity, and Weight Control explores the relationship between physical activity, obesity and morbidity. Emphasis will be placed on the incidence and prevalence of obesity, environmental and genetic factors affecting obesity, and mechanisms of weight and body composition modification.

2703 Introduction to Human Factors (formerly KIN 2703) is an introduction to the field of human factors, the field that studies aspects of human movement, health, safety, and performance in the workplace. This course will include an introduction to the methods of detection, evaluation, and the physiological changes arising from hazards (e.g., inappropriate levels of illumination, evaluation, and temperature) in the workplace. The course will also examine various injuries in workplace studied in the context of basic biomechanics and function of the musculo-skeletal system.

The Division of Lifelong Learning is dedicated to providing open and accessible learning opportunities in conformity with the University's strategic outreach education and its dedication to providing a superior learning environment through responsive and innovative teaching as outlined in the document "Launch Forth".

Additional information regarding the Division of Lifelong Learning is available at www.mun.ca/lifelonglearning/.

1 Certificate Programs

The following certificate programs are available through the Division of Lifelong Learning. These programs are offered by and are under the academic control of the appropriate faculties and schools.

1.1 Admission Requirements

Students who wish to complete certificate programs must be admitted to the University as undergraduate students and comply with the General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

1.2 Regulations for a First Certificate

A Memorial University of Newfoundland certificate is awarded to students who complete certificate program requirements.

1. Every candidate for a certificate shall comply with all the course requirements governing the award of that certificate.
2. Candidates shall complete at this University a minimum of 9 credit hours of the total number of credit hours required for a certificate.
3. No candidate will be awarded a certificate unless s/he has obtained an average of 2 points or better on the total number of credit hours required for the certificate.

1.3 Regulations for a Second Certificate

Students who have completed a certificate program and wish to complete a second certificate must:

1. comply with all course requirements governing the award of that certificate; and,
2. complete at least 9 credit hours beyond those required for the first certificate. The courses which comprise these credit hours must be applicable to the certificate sought.

1.4 Certificate in Business Administration

The Certificate in Business Administration is widely recognized by business and industry. It is designed for management-entry level employees who are interested in career development. Courses completed on the certificate program can be applied toward the diploma and the general degree of the Bachelor of Commerce, and the Bachelor of Business Administration.

Students who have a particular interest in Accounting, Marketing, Human Resources and Labour Relations, Small Business/Entrepreneurship or Information Systems should consult with the Division regarding choice of elective courses.

1.4.1 Regulations for the Certificate in Business Administration

To be eligible for the Certificate in Business Administration a student must have:

1. Completed the following 30 credit hours: Business 1000, 1101, 1201, 2301, 4000, Either 3320 or 4320 and 12 credit hours in business electives which may include Computer Science 2801
2. At least two years of full-time work experience or equivalent.
3. At least two years during which the student has not been in full-time attendance at a secondary or post-secondary institution.

1.5 Certificate in Career Development

The Certificate in Career Development is designed for persons working in the career development field who wish to consolidate and deepen their knowledge base. The program will provide a grounding in career development theory and practice for those wishing to enter the field. The practicum will give new entrants to the field valuable work experience and will allow existing practitioners the opportunity to reflect on and improve their practice.

1.5.1 Regulations for the Certificate in Career Development

1.5.1.1 Curriculum

Students will be required to complete a total of ten courses as follows:

1. Required Courses: Career Development 1000, 1100, 1200, 1210, 1220, 1300, and 3000
2. Three Elective Courses from the following list: Career Development 2000, 2001, 2100, 2200, or 2300

Notes:
1. Students are required to meet UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate) for entry to Memorial University of Newfoundland.
2. Students may receive up to three exemptions for equivalent course work completed through another program or at another institution. If students have previously obtained credit from Memorial University of Newfoundland for any of the courses on a certificate program, they are not required to repeat these courses. To receive exemptions for certificate credit courses, students must make a written request with supporting documents (transcripts and course descriptions) to the Program Developer, Certificate Programs, Division of Lifelong Learning for consideration by the Advisory Committee for the certificate.

1.6 Certificate in Criminology

The Certificate in Criminology is designed for members of the community who have a special interest in the structure and administration of criminal justice. The program is of particular interest to persons engaged in law enforcement, corrections and rehabilitation.
1.6.1 Regulations for the Certificate in Criminology
To be eligible for the Certificate in Criminology a student must complete the following:

2. Two courses chosen from Business 5700, 6700; Political Science 3540, 3741; Municipal Administration 1701, 2705.

2 Certificate Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Certificate courses are specially designed courses relating to specific areas of study for which no equivalent degree credit course exists and are not applicable towards an existing diploma or degree program.

2.1 Career Development
Courses in the Certificate in Career Development are designated by CADV.
1000 Career Development I
1100 Assessment in Career Development I
1200 Interpersonal Communications
1210 The Nature of the Helping Relationship
1220 Group Facilitation
1300 The Nature of Work, the Workforce and the Workplace
2000 Career Development II
2001 Career Development for Special Populations
2100 Assessment in Career Development II
2200 Program Design, Implementation, and Evaluation
2300 The Emerging Economy
3000 Practicum in Career Development

2.2 Criminology
1302 Criminal Procedure and the Administration of Criminal Justice examines the flow of criminal matters through the criminal justice system. Topics include the investigation into criminal complaints, search and seizure, arrest, release (bail), elections, and pleas, preliminary inquiries, trials, sentencing, appeals and the ultimate disposition.
1303 Corrections in the Criminal Justice System examines the role of corrections in the Canadian criminal justice system which seems to be in constant change. These changes will be reviewed, updated and evaluated as we look at the two-dimensional role of corrections in justice, correctional institutions (prisons) and the community after-care functions. Includes a review of new Canadian legislation affecting the above areas, as well as an examination of sentencing options and the Canadian pardon system.
3301 Selected Topics in Criminology will be determined by the Division of Lifelong Learning.

2.3 Library Studies
1601 Introduction to Libraries introduces students to the organization, functions, and services in various types of libraries. The course will also cover some aspects of the history of libraries, ethical considerations in library work (freedom of information and access, copyright), and collection development.
1602 Technical Processing explains the theory and practice of the various aspects of technical processing: acquisitions, cataloguing, classification, serials and circulation.
1603 Reference examines reference services, the reference interview and search strategies. Reference sources, materials and research methods will be examined.
1604 Adult Services covers library services directed towards adults, with an emphasis on the genres of fiction and non-fiction works, the promotion of literacy and leisure reading, and reference tools.
1605 Children’s Services looks at fiction and information books appropriate for children from birth to teenage years. Coverage will include library publicity and the promotion of books through children's programming.
1606 Introduction to Library Technology is intended for those interested in how technology is shaping library services and collections. Topics include an introduction to computer hardware, network topography, HTML, Integrated Library Systems, proxy servers, electronic journal procurement, electronic indexes, and evolving user interfaces. It also looks at the way technology has changed the workflow in libraries and the impact that this has had on library organization and staffing.
1609 Managing Libraries is an introduction to the management function in the library setting, including job descriptions, policies and procedures, legal aspects, budgeting, organizational structure and interrelationships, and public relations.
1610 Library Services for Business and Industry focuses on the provision of library services to business and industry, with emphasis on specific strategies for providing information to business and industry users, the role of in-house information services and libraries, and the interaction between the library, management, and administration in business and industry settings.
1611 Multimedia Operations in the Library Setting covers current trends in the information revolution, and their effect on communications in the library setting. Students will be introduced to applications of multimedia to library work, including audiovisual resources, desktop publishing and other software, computer networking, and the creation of promotional materials. The course is intended to be a hands-on introduction to these applications.
2606 Advanced Topics in Library Technology offers an overview of popular technologies like blogs, wikis, web search engines, relational databases, wireless networks, personal computing devices, and XML, with an emphasis on their application in the world of libraries. The course provides a basic understanding of library-specific protocols and standards including the NISO Circulation Interchange Protocol (NCIP), Radio Frequency Identification (RFID), Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), Unicode, and cataloguing schemas for digital objects.
Prerequisite: Library Studies 1606
3600 Directed Research/Project - inactive course.
3601-3609 Special Topics in Library Studies examines specific courses developed to meet particular needs, new topics, and current trends in library studies work. Prerequisite(s): any two Library Studies courses below the 3000 level.

2.4 Municipal Administration
1701 Introduction to Municipal Accounting - inactive course.
1702 Introduction to Local Government - inactive course.
2703 Municipal Law - inactive course.
2704 Municipal Financial Administration - inactive course.
2705 Municipal Administration - inactive course.
2706 Municipal Planning and Community Development - inactive course.
2707 Selected Topics in Municipal Administration will be determined by the Division of Lifelong Learning.

2.5 Records Management
1000 Introduction to Records Management - inactive course.
1001 System and Functions in Records Management - inactive course.
1100 Introduction to Archival Science - inactive course.
2000 Records Classification Systems - inactive course.

3 Diploma in Information and Communications Technology
The Diploma in Information and Communications Technology is designed to provide individuals already possessing a post-secondary diploma or degree in any field with the knowledge and skills required to work in today's high technology environment. The program will benefit individuals from a wide variety of backgrounds, including business, education, technical, and administrative.

The program is offered in a collaborative learning environment with a problem-solving focus. The instructors are experienced and industry-certified by Microsoft and Cisco. The Division of Lifelong Learning is the Cisco Regional Academy for Newfoundland and Labrador; Cisco is a world leader in networking for the Internet.

Two options are available for completion of the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology:
1. Option 1. is taken on a full-time basis and is comprised of three semesters and consists of 32 credit hours and one work term.
2. Option 2. is comprised of 35 credit hours and can be taken full-time in three semesters or part-time in seven semesters.

3.1 Program Objectives
The program focus is on four areas: E-Commerce, networking, programming, and databases. Graduates of the program will:
1. Enhance their academic and other credentials with practical technology skills.
2. Obtain skills and knowledge that will prepare them to work effectively within a high technology environment.
3. Demonstrate the ability to work as part of a team.
4. Develop skills required to analyse an organization's information and communications technology needs and design a customized solution.

3.2 Admission Requirements
Applicants to the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology normally must have successfully completed a three-year diploma or degree from an accredited post-secondary institution and attained a minimum of 65% on the last 15 courses completed. Admission to the program is limited and competitive. Application to the program must be made in writing to the Division of Lifelong Learning on the appropriate form, and must include an official transcript of post-secondary marks. Applications must be submitted by June 1 for Fall semester, October 1 for Winter semester, and February 1 for Spring semester. Applications received after these deadlines will be considered only if a place is available. In addition, students who have not registered for courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland for either of the two immediately preceding semesters must also complete an application for admission/readmission to the University.

Selection of candidates will be based on academic performance and on other criteria considered suitable for an information technology professional, including but not limited to evidence of the ability to cope with a demanding schedule or demonstrated mathematical ability. Candidates pursuing Option 2. will be required to have at least one year of full-time work experience or equivalent.

3.3 Program Requirements
The Diploma in Information and Communications Technology consists of the set curriculum outlined below. All courses are specifically designed for the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology only, and are not applicable towards any other existing degree or diploma program. Courses are normally offered sequentially in an accelerated format. Students enrolled in Option 1. will be required to complete a work term component. A work term is not available under Option 2., however, a substantial project (INFO 4500) will be required of each participant prior to completion of the program. Students completing the program on a part-time basis must do so within three calendar years from the date of admission to the program. Students completing the program on a full-time basis must do so within four semesters from the date of admission to the program.

3.4 Evaluation, Continuance and Transfer
The passing grade for each course is 65%. A pass must also be awarded for the work term. Evaluation may include, but not be limited to, any or all of the following: projects, assignments, examinations, and class participation.

Students who obtain a numerical grade of less than 65% in no more than two of the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology courses will be given a probationary promotion and will be required to repeat the course(s) in the next semester in which it (they) is (are) offered.

The foregoing notwithstanding, students will be required to withdraw from the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology program if:
1. a final numerical grade of less than 65% is obtained in more than two courses, or
2. a final numerical grade of less than 65% is obtained in a repeated course, or
3. a final numerical grade of less than 50% is obtained in any one course.

Students may be considered for readmission by the Admissions Committee, Division of Lifelong Learning. Students who choose to drop a course(s) are strongly encouraged to consult with the Division of Lifelong Learning to ensure their program can be completed within the specified time.

Students may be permitted to transfer between options at the end of semester one with approval from the Division of Lifelong Learning.

3.5 Work Term
Students accepted into Option 1. of the program will complete the work term component during the third semester of the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology program. The dates for starting and finishing the work term are shown in the University Diary. To be eligible for the work term, students must have successfully completed all other courses in the program. Successful completion of the work term requirement is a prerequisite to graduation from the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology.

General management of the work terms is the responsibility of the Division of Lifelong Learning. It is responsible for assisting potential employers to become involved in the program, for the continual development of employment opportunities, for arranging student-employer interviews, for counselling of students, for visiting students on their work assignments and for the evaluation of the work term. Students are also encouraged to seek out suitable work term placements.

Students and employers choose each other through the placement competition process. Employers interview students, and both the students and employers express their preferences. Placement is not guaranteed but every effort is made to ensure that appropriate employment is made available.

Students accepted into the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology, Option 1., give permission to the Division of Lifelong Learning to supply their resumes and transcripts to prospective employers.
Salaries paid to students are determined by employers and are based upon their internal wage structures. However, students should not expect the income from work terms to make them completely self-supporting.
Students may obtain their work term placements outside the competition. Such work terms must be confirmed by the employer, and be approved by the Division of Lifelong Learning before the start of the work term on the information to be provided to the Division so that it can evaluate the student’s work during the term.

A student who is unable to obtain a work term may be assigned self-employment within four weeks of the start of the work term. Such assignments must be approved and monitored by the Division of Lifelong Learning. The work term will be expected to take place at the University, another entity of the University, a company, municipality, non-profit organization, or the like. The contract work must be part-time, or occupy only a portion of a semester, and may allow the student to earn an income in other ways. The contract, whether paid or unpaid, must be approved by the Division of Lifelong Learning. A work term report must be submitted. This report will be assigned by the Division of Lifelong Learning. Evidence of the student’s ability to gather material relating to the job, analyse it effectively and present it in a clear, logical and concise form, will be required in the report. Late reports will not be evaluated, unless prior permission for a late report is given.

The evaluation of the work term is the responsibility of the Division of Lifelong Learning. Two components are considered in work term evaluation: on-the-job performance and the work term report. Each component is evaluated separately.

Evaluation of the work term will result in the assignment of one of the following recommendations:

- PASS WITH DISTINCTION: Indicates excellent performance in both the work report and work performance. The student is commended for his/her outstanding performance in each of the required components; pass with distinction has been awarded to each of the work report and work performance.
- PASS: Indicates that performance meets expectations in both the work report and work performance. The student fully meets the requirements of a passing work report and completely satisfactory work term performance.
- FAIL: Indicates failing performance in the work report and/or work performance.

On-the-job performance is assessed by the Division of Lifelong Learning in conjunction with the employer.

If a student fails to achieve a passing grade from a work term, the student will normally repeat that work term in a work situation approved by the Division of Lifelong Learning. A work term may be repeated only once during the program.

Students who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, or who drop a work term without prior approval of the Division of Lifelong Learning, or who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their discharge from the job, will normally be awarded a failed work term.

Permission to drop a work term does not constitute a waiver of diploma requirements, and students who obtained such permission must complete an approved work term in lieu of the one dropped.

3.6 Awarding of Diploma

Once all course requirements have been successfully completed, application for awarding of the Diploma must be made in writing on the appropriate form to the Office of the Registrar, Memorial University of Newfoundland.

3.7 Course Load

Full-time students in semester one will complete 16 credit hours.

Full-time students in semester two will complete 16 credit hours.

Full-time students may register for an additional 3 credit hour course while on the work term.

3.8 Course Descriptions

Note: All courses, unless otherwise noted, consist of laboratory and classroom sessions.

Courses in the Diploma in Information and Communications Technology program are designated by INFO.

1000 Computer Technology (1 cr. hr.) provides an overview of computer technology and introduces computer basics. Students will become familiar with the basic parts of computer systems and their functions while learning troubleshooting techniques and distinguishing between hardware and software problems. Configuring hardware through the operating system and component failure will be discussed. Understanding of these topics will be enhanced by dismantling and assembling a computer. This course is a prerequisite for all other courses in this program.

2100 Operating Systems I (2 cr. hrs.) is a study of basic operating systems. Features and benefits of the Windows and Unix environments will be discussed in detail.
Prerequisite: INFO 1000
Note: Credit may not be obtained for INFO 2100 and the former INFO 3111 and INFO 3110.

2200 Networking Systems I (2 cr. hrs.) is a study of the most commonly used networking systems. Topics include fundamentals of LAN theory; LAN protocols; network topologies; network security; basic network communication options; and network management.
Prerequisite: INFO 2100

2300 Internet Applications (1 cr. hr.) is a study of the Internet and its applications. Topics will include advanced searching techniques, programming languages used in developing applications for the World Wide Web, and creating and maintaining WWW sites.
Prerequisite: INFO 1000

2600 Introduction to Wireless LANs (1 cr. hr.) focuses on the design, planning, implementation, operation, and troubleshooting of Wireless LANs and bridging.
Prerequisite: INFO 2100

3200 Networking Systems II (2 cr. hrs.) is a continuation of the more advanced features of networking systems.
Prerequisite: INFO 2200

3301 Introduction to Programming (2 cr. hrs.) is an introduction to the fundamentals of structured programming. Topics include: algorithms, program structures, software design methodology, language constructs, data file basics, and abstract data types.
Prerequisite: INFO 2100
Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both INFO 3301 and the former INFO 3300.

3310 Windows Programming (2 cr. hrs.) is a study of the fundamental elements of programming in a Windows environment. Topics will include: building a Windows Graphical Interface and the introductory concepts of object-oriented programming.
Prerequisite: INFO 3300

3315 Introduction to Databases (1 cr. hr.) is the study of the effective use of databases, including design and implementation, and their use in addressing a business data problem.
Prerequisite: INFO 1000
Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both INFO 3315 and the former INFO 3400.

3320 Programming with Databases (2 cr. hrs.) is a study of applications basics, basic data types, understanding objects and collections, coding for events, writing RDBMS, controlling programs, testing and debugging the application, run-time errors, and distributing the application.
Prerequisites: INFO 3310 and INFO 3315

3330 Object Oriented Programming (2 cr. hrs.) is an introduction to object-oriented programming. Topics include: encapsulation, information hiding, inheritance and polymorphism.
4 Personal and Professional Development

The Division of Lifelong Learning offers more than 150 courses/seminars/workshops per semester in general interest and professional development. These offerings are non-credit in nature and there are no formal admission requirements. Program areas include communications, business, computer technologies, languages, marine, writing, the arts, and courses for children and youth. Instructors are drawn from the University and the community and are usually recognized for their achievements in their fields of instruction. These offerings are an excellent continuing education service. They serve as a valuable introduction to the university setting for persons interested in pursuing diploma or certificate studies. General interest and professional development courses are generally offered on-campus during the Fall, Winter, and Spring semesters.

The Division also administers diploma and certificate programs that are outside of the mandates of other academic units. Certificate programs are short (6 to 10 courses) ranging from being comprised of all degree credit courses to being comprised of all certificate credit courses, or some combination of the two. Certificate programs are offered in business administration, municipal administration, public administration, criminology, Newfoundland studies, library studies, and career development. All of the seven certificate programs are short (6 to 10 courses) ranging from being comprised of all degree credit courses to being comprised of all certificate credit courses, or some combination of the two. Certificate programs are offered in business administration, municipal administration, public administration, criminology, Newfoundland studies, library studies, and career development. All of the seven certificate programs are available through distance education.

The Division offers customized corporate education and training to help business, industry, and public sector agencies achieve their business objectives. It works with clients to identify their professional development needs, customize the appropriate training and materials, and deliver and evaluate the seminars and workshops.

Further information on courses or programs administered by the Division of Lifelong Learning may be obtained by contacting the Division in writing to the Division of Lifelong Learning, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL A1C 5S7, or by telephone to (709) 737-7979, or by fax to (709) 737-8486, or by e-mail at lifelong.learning@mun.ca, or through the website at www.mun.ca/lifelonglearning.

1 Background

The Faculty of Medicine of Memorial University of Newfoundland is one of 17 Canadian medical schools and was one of the four schools suggested by the Hall Royal Commission on Canadian Health Services in its 1964 report. A series of meetings was begun in 1963 between representatives of Memorial University of Newfoundland, the Newfoundland Medical Association, and the Department of Health of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador. Following the Hall Commission's recommendation and on the basis of positive advice from Dr. J. Wendell MacLeod, Executive Secretary of the Association of Canadian Medical Colleges, and Dr. Chester B. Stewart, Dean of Medicine at Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Memorial University of Newfoundland established a Commission in 1965 to undertake a feasibility study. The late Dr. J.A. MacFarlane, formerly Dean of Medicine at the University of Toronto, and a member of the Hall Royal Commission served as chairman. The MacFarlane Commission's recommendation that a Medical School be established at Memorial University of Newfoundland was confirmed independently by a Royal Commission on Health Services for Newfoundland and Labrador. The chairman of this latter Commission, Lord Brain, an eminent British medical educator, and his advisors, reported that the location of a medical school in the Province was a necessary step in the provision of adequate medical services for Newfoundland.

Dr. Ian Rusted, a local physician who had been involved in the early negotiations and had taken the initiative in introducing continuing medical education for doctors in the Province, was appointed Dean of Medicine in 1967. Under his leadership, faculty members were recruited, the undergraduate program was initiated and the first medical students were admitted in 1969. The existing programs of postgraduate training and continuing medical education were strengthened and the spectrum of medical education was subsequently completed in 1971 with the initiation of a program of graduate studies leading to the degrees of M.Sc. and Ph.D.

The undergraduate curriculum was designed to foster integrated learning and to permit contact with patients early in the student's training. To facilitate this integrated approach the administration of the school was set up as a non-departmental system based on three Divisions: Community Health, BioMedical Sciences and Clinical Sciences.

Initially the Faculty of Medicine was housed in temporary buildings. With joint funding by the Federal and Provincial Governments, a Health Sciences Centre (HSC) was constructed on the North Campus of the University and was officially opened in 1978. This new building became home to the Faculty of Medicine General Hospital and the School of Nursing. Over time the building was expanded, and now it also houses the School of Pharmacy, the Janeway Children's Health and Rehabilitation Centre, the Dr. H. Bliss Murphy Cancer Centre and the Agnes Cowan Hostel. The Health Sciences Centre contains a comprehensive health sciences library, animal care and research facilities, plus an appropriate range of teaching facilities to accommodate large lectures and demonstrations, small group discussions, seminars, clinical skills and laboratory sessions. The structure of the Health Sciences Centre facilitates integration between basic scientists, clinicians and allied health workers in the hospital, the University and the community. Clinical research facilities are located adjacent to basic research units and some research laboratories provide services in clinical investigation. Services such as cafeteria and stores are common to the Faculty of Medicine and the Eastern Regional Health Authority.

The General Hospital and Janeway Children's Health and Rehabilitation Centre are part of a network of teaching hospitals in St. John's and throughout the Province. The conventional use of major referral centres as teaching resources is complemented by the availability of regional and community hospitals to provide valuable clinical experience for undergraduate and postgraduate medical students.

In contrast to many other schools, the class size at the University's Medical School is small. This facilitates interaction between students and faculty, and has obvious advantages in clinical teaching. Normally 60 students are admitted annually to the first year of the undergraduate medical program.

Additional information regarding the Faculty of Medicine is available at www.med.mun.ca/medicine/home.aspx.

2 Mission and Objectives of the Faculty of Medicine

The Mission of the Faculty of Medicine is to enhance the health of the people of Newfoundland and Labrador by educating physicians and health scientists; by conducting research in clinical and BioMedical Sciences and applied health sciences and by promoting the skills and attitudes of lifelong learning.

The objectives of the Faculty of Medicine are consistent with the objectives of Memorial University of Newfoundland in developing and maintaining excellence in the quality of its academic standards and of research, establishing programs to meet the expanding needs of the Province and of providing the means to reach out to all the people.

The Faculty seeks to attain these objectives through an organizational structure which allows optimum interaction among the various disciplines within the Medical School and with other Faculties and Schools as appropriate.

The term 'Medical School' refers to the wider organizational structure of the Faculty of Medicine with various healthcare, institutions, community organizations and other academic units with the University.

The specific objectives are:

1. To teach medical students to be physicians; and to provide such learning experiences as will inspire all medical graduates of the school to be prepared to practice medicine at the highest standards, serving all individuals and societies in the pursuit of health.

2. To acknowledge the special geography of this Province by encouraging the education of physicians with exemplary skills for rural practice.

3. To educate and train graduate and diploma students in the health sciences.

4. To provide postgraduate educational experiences in medicine and the medical sciences such that the graduating Canadian physicians will pursue further studies within the school's postgraduate programs, leading to certification in family medicine or specialist subjects, especially in those areas where deficiency in numbers is currently recognized or anticipated.

5. To instill within students at all levels:
   a. The wish and the capacity to further the practice and science of medicine through the creation of new knowledge for the improvement of the health of the world's peoples.
   b. The wish and the capacity to improve their own professional practice through continuing self-assessment and scholarship.
   c. An appreciation of their evolving roles as members of a team of professionals possessing complementary skills.

6. To attract faculty members who will together:
   a. Act as a resource in providing undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate, and continuing medical education.
   b. Contribute to the advancement of educational methods.
   c. Practice the highest quality of primary, secondary, or tertiary care medicine.
   d. Show leadership in promoting research into the health of the individual and the community, including the organization of health care delivery systems.
   e. Facilitate and promote education and research appropriate to our mid North-Atlantic environment.

7. To provide educational experiences in the health sciences to students from other Schools or Faculties of Memorial University of Newfoundland and of other educational institutions.

8. To provide Continuing Medical Education experiences which will help physicians to maintain and enhance their competence in medical skills.

9. To provide a learning environment for undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate students of medicine and the medical sciences who are citizens of other countries.

10. Actively to provide an Informational, Educational and Consultative resource for the whole community.

3 Affiliated Teaching Sites
1. Within St. John's: (hospitals and other centres under the Eastern Regional Health Authority)
2. Outside St. John's: (hospital/community settings)
3. New Brunswick: (hospital/community settings)
4. Prince Edward Island: (community settings)

4 Description of Medical Training Program

The Faculty of Medicine offers a four-year undergraduate medical program, comprising a minimum of 186 credit hours, leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine (M.D.).

The first two years of medical studies is called Pre-Clerkship. BioMedical Science courses are taught primarily in the first year of medical studies. Upon completion of these courses, the Integrated Study of Disease courses follow. Students undertake instruction in Community Health & Humanities and Clinical Skills concurrently. By the end of Pre-Clerkship, students are expected to be able to take a patient's medical history, perform a thorough physical examination and to derive a logical diagnosis. The Clerkship Preparation Course is completed prior to commencing the Clerkship.

The last two years of medical studies is called Clerkship. During this time, students who are clinical clerks take courses that will allow them to alternate through the major disciplines in hospital and community settings throughout affiliated teaching sites in Newfoundland and Labrador and community and hospital settings throughout Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. Clinical clerks participate as members of the health care team gaining the knowledge and experience necessary to assume the responsibilities associated with patient care.

Upon successful completion of medical studies, the students are qualified to write Part I of the licensing examinations set by the Medical Council of Canada (MCC). After the award of the M.D. degree and following successful completion of one year of postgraduate training, they are qualified to write Part II of the MCC licensing examinations.

5 Continuing Medical Education

The Faculty of Medicine's Office of Professional Development and Conferencing Services delivers accredited continuing medical education (CME) programs and plays a major role in meeting the professional development needs of health care professionals throughout Newfoundland and Labrador and across Canada. CME is offered through a variety of formats, including teleconferencing, video-conferencing, online and onsite. Faculty development programs are designed specifically to assist faculty members in their own unique educational requirements. Educational assessments and retraining experiences are available to physicians, international medical graduates and health care practitioners who meet the criteria. The Office of Professional Development and Conferencing Services is committed to assisting students, faculty members, and physicians in meeting their educational requirements.

6 Postgraduate Medical Training Programs

Postgraduate medical training is offered in programs leading to certification by either the College of Family Physicians of Canada (CFPC) or the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (RCPSC). These are full-time training programs comprised of hand-on-practical training complemented by formal teaching and academic study. The programs are completed in a structured learning environment consisting of hospital and community based teaching units, supervised by faculty. The level of responsibility afforded the student is based on regular evaluation of abilities by faculty. The Postgraduate training programs are accredited by the CFPC or the RCPSC and the appropriate licensing authorities.

Postgraduate entry positions are available through the Canadian Residency Matching Service. For further information write to The CaRMS Office, Suite 802, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1P 5H3, or by telephone to (613) 237-0075, or toll free to (800) 291-3727, or the website at www.carrms.ca.
6.1 Family Medicine

The University offers a two-year residency in Family Medicine. This leads to eligibility for certification by the College of Family Physicians of Canada.

6.2 Residency Training Programs

Memorial University of Newfoundland offers specialty training programs in Anesthesia, Internal Medicine (and subspecialty in Nephrology), Neurology, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Orthopedics, Anatomic Pathology, Pediatrics, Psychiatry, Radiology and General Surgery.

Internal Medicine and Pediatrics offer a straight program in the first year of the training program. The normal period of training in Internal Medicine or Pediatrics is four years post-M.D.

In the remaining specialty programs offered by Memorial University of Newfoundland, broad-based clinical training is offered as the first year of the training program. The total length of each of these programs is five years.

6.3 Clinical Fellowships

A sixth year of postgraduate study (Clinical Fellowship) may be available to residents who have completed specialty training requirements. These fellowships may be primarily directed to the clinical area, to teaching, or to research.

6.4 Registration

Postgraduate Trainees are registered each year as full-time students of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

6.5 Licensure in Newfoundland and Labrador

All trainees must be eligible for and obtain an educational license from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Newfoundland (CPSNL).

Advice will be provided by the Postgraduate Medical Studies Office.

Note: It is a requirement of the Newfoundland Medical Board that International Medical Graduates have passed the Test of Spoken English (as well as the University requirement of TOEFL).

7 Graduate Studies

Interdisciplinary interaction and research among the divisions of BioMedical Sciences; Community Health and Humanities and Clinical Sciences is promoted.

Programs have been designed to attract students interested in a Graduate Diploma or a Master’s, Ph.D. or M.D.-Ph.D. degree. Areas of strength include Applied Health Services Research, Cancer, Cardiovascular and Renal Sciences, Clinical Epidemiology, Community Health, Human Genetics, Immunology and Infectious Diseases, and Neurosciences. Details of the graduate programs are provided in the School of Graduate Studies section of this Calendar.

8 Regulations for the Degree of Doctor of Medicine

8.1 Admission to the Faculty of Medicine

1. All applications for entry to the program of studies leading to the MD degree are dealt with by the Admissions Office of the Faculty of Medicine and must be submitted to that office on or before the closing date (normally October 15th). No application received after this date will be considered. An application processing fee of $75.00 is required from all applicants.

2. Applications are reviewed after the closing date by the Admissions Committee of the Faculty of Medicine. This Committee has the delegated authority of the Faculty Council to admit or decline to admit students, following guidelines and procedures acceptable to that Council.

3. Admissions will normally be to the first year of medical studies. In exceptional circumstances, admission with advanced standing may be offered.

4. Entry to medical school is based on competition for a fixed number of places. The Admissions Committee takes account of an applicant's academic background, performance on the Medical College Admissions Test (MCAT) and information on an applicant's personal characteristics and achievements as given by the applicant, by referees' reports and, in some cases, by personal interviews. Age by itself is not used as a basis for selection or rejection. Both age and the length of time away from full-time studies may be taken into consideration. The residency status of each applicant at the time of the closing date for application (normally October 15) will be determined by guidelines established by the Admissions Committee and approved by Faculty Council. For each candidate, the residency status determined at that time will apply throughout the admissions process and the period of undergraduate medical education. Priority is given to applicants who are bona fide residents of this province.

5. The Admissions Committee’s decision to admit or decline to admit an applicant will be made on the basis of the competition for entry in the year of application and will be determined by the Committee's judgement of the likelihood of an applicant succeeding in the academic and professional studies leading to the award of the MD and in the eventual practice of medicine.

6. To be eligible for admission, an applicant shall have completed a bachelor's degree including the prerequisite subjects of 6 credit hours in English at a recognized university or university college before admission. In exceptional circumstances an application may be considered from someone who does not expect to hold a bachelor's degree at the time of admission. Such an applicant will have completed at least 60 credit hours including the prerequisite subjects of 6 credit hours in English at a recognized university or university college before admission and be a student who has work-related or other experience acceptable to the Admissions Committee.

No application will be considered from a candidate who cannot produce evidence that the above requirements have been met or will have been met by the time of entry to the Medical School.

In addition, all applicants must write the MCAT prior to the application deadline. The MCAT should be written within the preceding five years of the date of application.

7. Applicants need to be aware of the policy related to Essential Skills and Abilities Required for the Study of Medicine. This policy outlines essential skills and abilities needed to succeed in the MD program and it includes technical standards for students in the program and information for students with disability. This information is available on the Faculty of Medicine's website at
8. Each applicant is responsible for ensuring that all the required information on the application form, e.g., transcripts, MCAT scores, referee’s reports, is supplied to the Admissions Committee, and for providing any further information required by this Committee. An application is not considered complete until these documents have been received.

9. The Admissions Committee may request that a candidate attend an interview.

10. Notification of the Committee’s decision will be made to candidates by letter signed by, or on behalf of, the Chair of the Admissions Committee. No other form of notification can be considered to be official.

11. The letter of acceptance will give the successful applicant fourteen (14) days in which to confirm that he/she will accept the place offered. The signed intention to accept the offered place must be accompanied by a deposit of $200.00 which will be credited towards tuition fees. The deposit will be forfeited if the applicant subsequently declines the place.

If no reply to the offer of a place is received within fourteen days, the offer by the Faculty of Medicine will be withdrawn on the appropriate date, and the applicant will be informed of this by letter.

12. In order to register, applicants who have been accepted as international students will be required to sign a document indicating that they will pay differential fees throughout the undergraduate medical program and that they will have the status of non-Canadians in the postgraduate matching process.

13. The Admissions Committee, at its discretion, may grant deferral of admission for one year to a maximum of two successful applicants in the first round of offers for any one admission cycle. An applicant must request a deferred entry at the time of responding to an offer of admission. The first round of offers are normally confirmed by mid-June and requests for deferral are considered by mid-July.

14. Successful applicants must normally complete a certified Basic Cardiac Life Support course before beginning medical school.

15. Unsuccessful applicants who wish to reapply for admission are required to submit the application forms relevant to the year of reapplication and will be required to enter the competition in that year. An unsuccessful applicant can meet with the Assistant Dean for Admissions or the Admissions Officer to discuss reapplying prior to the deadline for submission of a new application (normally October 15).

16. An unsuccessful applicant has the right to appeal against the decision of the Admissions Committee not to offer him/her a place, if it is felt by the applicant that the decision was reached on grounds other than those specified in Clauses 1-4 above. The appeal should be made in writing within fourteen days of the notification of the decision and should be directed to the Dean of Medicine. The letter should state clearly and fully the grounds for the appeal. If the Dean of Medicine, in consultation with the Registrar, judges the grounds to be sufficient, the formal appeals mechanism will be initiated.

8.2 Evaluation

1. Subject to the approval of Senate, the overall policy of evaluation and the planning of the programs of studies leading to the MD degree are the responsibility of the Undergraduate Medical Studies Committee, which is a standing committee of the Council of the Faculty of Medicine.

2. Each student is expected to complete the work of the class as described in the current regulations of the Faculty of Medicine for each year of the program and to pass the prescribed academic and professional evaluations. In this context, the professional evaluation will cover, not only the skills expected of a student, but personal conduct and relationships with peers, patients, hospital personnel, faculty members and staff.

3. Course grades are recorded as pass or fail on a student’s University transcript. For Pre-Clerkship courses/subjects and Medicine 7280, evaluation of an individual student’s performance is conducted by the course/subject chair or instructor(s). The overall results of the course/subject evaluations are expressed on a four-point internal scale as outstanding, pass, borderline or fail. For Clerkship, overall evaluations of discipline rotations/selectives and electives are the responsibility of the respective discipline or electives coordinator. There is an internal five-point scale of outstanding, above average, average, below average and fail.

   a. The Co-ordinator of the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship and the Chair of the appropriate course/subject committee are responsible for ensuring that each student is informed of the results of each evaluation. The Chair of the course/subject committee will notify the student and Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Co-ordinator, in writing, of any concerns that have arisen about performance.

   b. It is the responsibility of the student to consult immediately with the Co-ordinator of the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Committee and/or the Chair of the course/subject committee regarding any concerns about performance that have been expressed. Within one week of receiving notification of the grade for a course/subject, a student may submit a written request to the Co-ordinator of the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Committee for reconsideration of the grade awarded or for a reread of an exam/paper.

   c. The student is responsible for notifying the Co-ordinator of the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Committee immediately of any new circumstances or of any pre-existing circumstances that have not previously been reported which could affect his or her individual performance in the work of the class.

4. A student’s progress is monitored in each year of the program by the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Committee.

8.3 Promotion

1. The Student Promotions Committee is a standing committee of Faculty Council. The Student Promotions Committee review the grades of all students in each year. On the basis of this review, this Committee decides which students should be promoted to the next year and which students are eligible to graduate. In reaching its decisions the Student Promotions Committee takes into account professional, as well as academic factors, and any special circumstances, duly authenticated, which warrant consideration.

2. The Student Promotions Committee may require students to pass reassessments or to do remediation with reassessment before being considered for promotion or graduation. Students with a Fail grade in any subject or course cannot be promoted; such students may be required to repeat the entire course or any appropriate section and must pass an appropriate reassessment before a positive promotion decision is made. The amount and quality of makeup required of a student is at the discretion of the Student Promotions Committee, but it cannot be undertaken while any other course, including an elective, or a selective, is in progress, nor if a student’s full participation in subsequent courses is in any way jeopardized.

3. A student who consistently receives Borderline or Below Average grades even in the absence of any Fail grades may either be required to repeat the year or required to withdraw conditionally or unconditionally.

4. A student who is deemed by the Student Promotions Committee to be unsuitable for promotion or graduation is either required to repeat all of the studies in any year, or required to withdraw either conditionally or unconditionally.

   a. If a student is required to repeat a year with academic prejudice, his or her performance in the repeated year must be at a level at which no remediation or reassessment is required. If this standard is not met, the Student Promotions Committee requires the student to withdraw unconditionally.

b. The option to repeat a year with academic prejudice can only be offered to a student once during his/her MD program. A student may repeat a year without academic prejudice if it has been demonstrated that the student’s performance has been adversely affected by other factors acceptable to the Student Promotions Committee and duly authenticated.

c. If the Student Promotions Committee requires a student to withdraw conditionally, the Chair of the Student Promotions Committee reports to the Dean and the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Co-ordinator the nature of the conditions to be met and the time period specified for meeting the conditions. The Dean then recommends to the Registrar that the student be required to withdraw from the program. Any student who has been required to withdraw conditionally may be readmitted once the conditions have been met. If the conditions are not met within the specified time limit, the student is required to withdraw unconditionally.

d. If the Student Promotions Committee requires a student to withdraw unconditionally, the Chair of the Student Promotions Committee will report the decision and the basis upon which it was reached to the Dean and the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Co-ordinator. The Dean then recommends to the Registrar that the student be required to withdraw from the program. Any student who is required to withdraw unconditionally and who wishes to re-enter the Faculty must apply by the appropriate deadline date to the Admissions Committee in competition with all other applicants.

5. A student has the right to make a formal appeal against a decision of the Student Promotions Committee. However, this appeal cannot be made on the basis of the grades awarded in individual courses or subjects, as the student will normally have had the opportunity of contesting grades immediately after notification. A formal appeal by a student against the decision of this Committee must be made on grounds other than the grades awarded, e.g. default of procedure. This appeal should be made in writing, clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed in the first instance to the Dean. The Dean in consultation with the Office of the Registrar determines whether or not the grounds stated are sufficient to warrant a formal hearing of the appeal.

6. In addition to the above clauses, the Faculty of Medicine reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from the program at any time when acceptable cause is demonstrated. In such cases, the Dean, on behalf of the Faculty, recommends such withdrawal to the Registrar who will then take appropriate action. Any such action is subject to the right of appeal by the student. An appeal should be made in writing, clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed in the first instance to the Dean. In such cases, the Dean, on behalf of the Faculty, recommends such withdrawal to the Registrar, who will then take appropriate action. Any such action is subject to the right of appeal by the student. An appeal should be made in writing, clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed in the first instance to the Dean. The Dean in consultation with the Office of the Registrar determines whether or not the grounds stated are sufficient to warrant a formal hearing of the appeal.

7. Any student who enters the first year of the medical program but withdraws within the first seven weeks may be permitted re-entry only by re-application to the Admissions Committee in competition with all other applicants by the appropriate deadline date. Withdrawal at all other times is in accordance with UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

8. a. Upon completion of a program year, a student in good academic standing may elect to withdraw temporarily from studies (e.g. to pursue graduate studies after completion of the second year).

b. Any student may be permitted to withdraw in accordance with UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) Withdrawing From The University. In all cases, the intent to withdraw voluntarily should be discussed with the Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Co-ordinator, as appropriate. The student must make a written request for voluntary withdrawal to the Dean who will then consult the appropriate Co-ordinator. In the event that a student wishes to return to medical school, the Dean should ensure that sufficient revision and preparatory work are undertaken before the student is permitted to resume medical studies.

c. Students permitted to withdraw are advised of the date upon which they are required to resume medical studies. In the absence of good cause, any such student who does not resume studies on the specified date will be deemed to have left the program.

8.4 Curricular Requirements (M.D.)

Students entering the M.D. program will be governed by curricular requirements in effect at the time of their admission. In the event of readmission, students will be governed by curricular requirements in effect at the time of their readmission.

The Clerkship Student Promotions Committee recommends to Faculty Council those students to be awarded the M.D. degree.

9 Course Descriptions

The courses in Pre-Clerkship form a continuum. Some courses are composed of several individual subjects.

Clerkship provides clinical experience in the affiliated teaching hospitals and community sites of Memorial University of Newfoundland. The students become members of the patient care team and have graded and supervised responsibility.

9.1 Courses in the First and Second Year of Medical Studies

5600 Basic Science of Medicine I is an integrated course with several subjects including anatomy, biochemistry, genetics, immunology, microbiology, pathology and physiology. This course introduces students to the structure and function of the human body and provides the foundation of the basic science of medicine. A wide range of teaching methods are used including lectures, small group sessions, and laboratory sessions/demonstrations.

CH: 14

5610 Clinical Skills I introduces students to the main elements of the medical interview and techniques of counselling. Students are then expected to acquire skill in examining normal individuals and eliciting symptoms and signs in patients and presenting the findings in a logical and comprehensive manner. Emphasis is placed on developing a sympathetic and understanding approach to the patient. The course also provides an integrated approach to clinical symptoms and signs as manifestations of disordered function or structure. Ethical and legal issues playing a significant role in assessment and management of clinical problems are also considered within the humanities, ethics, and law in medicine (HELM) component.

CH: 9

5640 Community Health I introduces several aspects of community health including health promotion, disease prevention, biostatistics, epidemiology, social and organizational factors in health, environmental and occupational health, community nutrition and behavioural sciences. Lectures and small group sessions are complemented with practical experience obtained through group research projects and field teaching in the community in both a rural and urban context. Aspects of medical ethics relative to community health are integrated throughout the course. Emphasis is placed on understanding the determinants of health and illness and the context in which they occur. The principles of research are introduced and students may initiate research opportunities that are carried through subsequent courses in the curriculum.

CH: 9

5650 Integrated Study of Disease I involves studying diseases of the major organs/body systems and includes integration with the pathophysiological basis of disease, pathology and pharmacology. The course also incorporates the relevant aspects of preventive medicine, clinical genetics, clinical epidemiology and occupational medicine.

CH: 10

5660 Family Medicine Pre-Clerkship Elective is offered to medical students interested in enhancing their patient interviewing and clinical examination skills. Each student will be paired with an experienced family physician in the community (rural and urban opportunities) for two to four weeks during the summer months at the end of the first and/or second year. Students gain practical experience of working at the primary care level in a variety of settings that could include office-based practice, home visits, emergency departments, labour and delivery and both long-term care facilities and in-hospital ward experiences. (This varies depending on the family physician’s practice profiles.) Students applying for this course must be currently registered as a first or second year medical student in a Canadian medical school.

CH: 0

6600 Basic Science of Medicine II is a continuation of Basic Science of Medicine I.
CH: 8

6610 Clinical Skills II is a continuation of Clinical Skills I.
AR: attendance is required
CH: 9

6640 Community Health II is a continuation of Community Health I.
CH: 9

6650 Integrated Study of Disease II is a continuation of Integrated Study of Disease I.
CH: 30

6660 Family Medicine Pre-Clerkship Elective has the same course description as Medicine 5660.
AR: attendance is required
CH: 0

7000 Clerkship Preparation Course
AR: attendance is required
CH: 2

9.2 Courses in the Third and Fourth Year of Medical Studies

The Third Year is approximately 14 months in duration; it begins in September and continues until November of the following year. It is composed of the core courses 7200-7250 and two (8 credit hours) elective courses. The Fourth Year begins immediately upon completion of the Third Year and continues until May of the following year. It includes one (4 credit hours) elective course, three (12 credit hours) selective courses, and Medicine 7280.

7200 Internal Medicine
AR: attendance is required
CH: 15

7210 Surgery
AR: attendance is required
CH: 10

7220 Psychiatry
AR: attendance is required
CH: 10

7230 Pediatrics
AR: attendance is required
CH: 10

7240 Rural Family Practice
AR: attendance is required
CH: 5

7250 Obstetrics/Gynecology
AR: attendance is required
CH: 10

7260, 7261 & 7263 Electives
AR: attendance is required
CH: 12 (4 each)

7270-7272 Selectives
AR: attendance is required
CH: 12 (4 each)

7280 Integrated Basic, Community Health and Clinical Sciences
CH: 2

9.3 Courses Offered By the Faculty of Medicine for Non-Medical Students

310A and 310B Human Physiology covers the properties of nerve and muscle cells, the special senses, blood and body fluids, and the nervous, cardiovascular, digestive, immune, respiratory, urinary, endocrine and reproductive systems. Integration of the body’s systems in maintaining homeostasis is emphasized. Priority for entry into this course is given to Biochemistry, Nutrition, Dietetics, and other students who are interested in experimental science.

CO: Biochemistry 2101
CR: Biochemistry 311A/B and Medicine 310A/B
LH: to be specified
PR: Biochemistry 2101

4300 Introduction to General and Autonomic Pharmacology deals with the general principles of pharmacology (dose-response relationship, drug-receptor interaction, absorption, distribution, metabolism, excretion of drugs), and drugs that affect neuromuscular and autonomic neurotransmission, the cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, and central nervous systems, and autacoids/prostanoids.

CO: Biochemistry 3111 or Pharmacy 3111
CR: Biochemistry 4220
LH: to be specified
PR: Medicine 310A/B or Biochemistry 311A/B, or Pharmacy 2002/2003 or the former Pharmacy 3201/3202.

1 School Description

The School of Music at Memorial University of Newfoundland is the largest and most comprehensive university school of music in Atlantic Canada. Four-year undergraduate programs are offered in most of the principal areas of professional study in music: performance, music history and literature (including ethnomusicology), music theory and composition. In collaboration with Memorial University of Newfoundland's Faculty of Education, the School offers a conjoint Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Music Education (B.Mus./B.Ed.) degree in music education which can be completed in five years. For students not ready to specialize, a Bachelor of Music (B.Mus.) in general musical studies with or without minor provides a flexible degree option. The School of Music's twenty-three full-time faculty comprise a diverse group of professors and scholars from across North America and Europe who are dedicated to teaching and research at the highest standard. Access to professional applied studies instruction is a right of every student in the program in every year. With close to 200 degree-stream students, the School maintains a comprehensive ensembles program which provides performance experience in choirs, bands, orchestras, an opera workshop, jazz, world music, contemporary and chamber music ensembles. Memorial University of Newfoundland's ensembles have won numerous national awards and the School tours these groups provincially, nationally and internationally on a regular basis. While the focus of the School's programs is on the classical music tradition, Newfoundland and Labrador's rich musical legacy is also honoured in its curriculum with a range of courses taught by tradition-bearers from the professional music community. The School's undergraduate community is enriched by the presence of students pursuing Master of Music (M.Mus.) degrees in performance, performance/pedagogy and conducting, as well as Master of Arts (M.A.) and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) students in the area of ethnomusicology. Additional information regarding the School of Music is available at www.mun.ca/music/home/.

4 Health Statement

Music study and music making are activities that demand great mental and physical energy and coordination. For this reason, students are strongly encouraged to maintain a healthy lifestyle, getting adequate rest, proper nutrition, and exercise, and avoiding practices which could be detrimental to good health and well-being.

5 Bachelor of Music Degree: Admission and Academic Standards

1. Applicants wishing to enter the Bachelor of Music degree must apply on-line at www.mun.ca/regoff/ or complete the School of Music application form in addition to the "Undergraduate Application for Admission/Readmission" to the University form. Both forms are available from the Office of the Registrar or the School of Music.

2. Admission to the Bachelor of Music degree is normally possible in the Fall semester only. The application deadline for admission to the Fall semester is January 31.

3. Notwithstanding the above:
   a. students who have withdrawn from the music degree program may apply to be readmitted in either the Fall or Winter semester.
   b. students transferring from post-secondary music programs at other institutions may be considered for admission in the Winter semester if they have the prerequisites to enter a sufficient number of music courses in that semester.
   c. the application deadline for admission to the Winter semester is September 30.

4. All candidates must satisfy the general admission requirements of the University and must satisfy additional requirements of the School of Music as set out below and specified on the School of Music's website: www.mun.ca/music:
   a. Placement Test in Theory and Musicianship: This test in basic rudiments, aural perception, and simple four-part harmony will be given during the entrance audition period.
   b. Audition: All applicants are required to audition to the satisfaction of the School on the instrument that they have chosen as their principal applied study in their degree program (i.e. voice, piano, organ, guitar, or any orchestral instrument.) Auditions are held in the Winter semester. Late auditions will be accepted if space is available. Students auditioning late are normally not eligible for School of Music entrance scholarships.

5. Transfer students and students seeking readmission to the music degree program must audition to determine their placement in applied study courses. The level of audition should be equivalent to the prerequisite of the course to which they are seeking admission. Jurisdiction requirements are available from the office of the School of Music.

6. Piano Proficiency Test: Applicants whose principal applied study is other than keyboard are also required to demonstrate a reasonable technical facility at the piano. Applicants whose level of attainment is not acceptable to the School will be required to repeat and pass the Piano Proficiency Test prior to registering for Music 1127. Students are advised to contact the School of Music regarding scheduling of the test and for information about private remedial piano instruction.

7. Students admitted to the Bachelor of Music program will be permitted to register for a maximum of 17 credit hours per semester, without requiring written permission of the Director.

8. Students who have completed Music 440A/B or 445A/B, students who are not registered for a principal applied study course or Education 403X at the end of the regular registration period will be deemed to have withdrawn from the music degree program.

9. A student who withdraws from a principal applied study course at any time in the semester shall have his/her eligibility to continue in the degree program reviewed by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. The Committee shall determine whether or not the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn.

10. Students who have withdrawn from the music degree program and wish to re-enter the program must re-apply in competition. A student re-entering the Bachelor of Music degree program may be readmitted on probation if the Admissions Committee so recommends.

11. Students who have been required to withdraw from the music degree program may apply for readmission after a minimum of TWO semesters have elapsed following the withdrawal.

12. Students who have been required to withdraw from the music degree program twice are ineligible for further readmission.

13. Students in the performance major must attain a minimum grade of 75% in each of the jury exam and the course work for Music 345A/B and Music 445A/B. Students who fail to do so will be required to withdraw from the performance major. In such cases, the student may apply in writing to the Director for admission into a major other than performance.

14. A student may not register for and repeat a principal applied study course that s/he has already successfully completed, unless the student has the written permission of the Director.

15. Students wishing to appeal matters pertaining to admission, re-admission and academic standing must make the appeal in writing to the Chair, Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School of Music.

16. In special cases, the Committee on Undergraduate Studies may waive the admission, readmission, and course requirements that apply only to the School of Music, subject to ratification by the Academic Council. Such waivers shall not reduce the total number of music courses required for the degree.

17. The active participation in School of Music ensembles is an integral part of a music student's education. One must be present at rehearsals and performances to have participated in the learning experience. Furthermore, the success of the ensemble as a whole is dependent upon the regular attendance and participation of all members in the ensemble. Accordingly, attendance will be required in the following courses: Music 2611-2618, Music 263A/B, Music 265A/B, and Music 3510-3518.

6 Bachelor of Music Degree Regulations

6.1 Major

Candidates normally do not declare their intended major area of study before their fourth semester in the Bachelor of Music program.
Candidates shall choose one of the following areas for their major:

1. Performance. This program is recommended for those candidates planning to pursue a career as a solo performer, orchestral or band player, or private teacher. Candidates for this major must apply in writing to the Director by the last day of classes in the semester during which they registered for Music 240B. Candidates will normally be required to audition for this program. Where possible, the jury examination for Music 240B will be considered as the audition for admission to the Performance major, although in some cases the audition may require repertoire beyond the level and amount prepared for the jury examination. Admission to this major is based on a candidate’s: i) performance on the audition and achievement in Music 140A/B and 240A/B, ii) general academic achievement, and iii) potential for a career and/or graduate work in performance.

2. Theory and Composition. This program is recommended for those candidates who plan to compose, to carry out research in music theory, or to teach composition and/or theoretical subjects. Candidates for this major must apply in writing to the Director by the last day of classes in the semester during which they registered for Music 2108, submitting up to three pieces of relevant work with their application, including essays, compositions or analyses written either in the context of academic course work or independently. Candidates for this major will be interviewed by a panel of faculty representing theory and composition disciplines. Admission to this major will be based on the candidate’s: i) submitted work, ii) interview, iii) achievement in Music 1107, 1108, 2107, 2108, and all elective music theory courses as well as any technology courses, iv) general academic achievement, and v) potential for a career and/or graduate work in music theory or composition.

3. History and Literature of Music. This program is recommended for those candidates interested in research in music and/or media professions. Candidates for this major must apply in writing to the Director by the last day of classes in the semester during which they registered for Music 2003, submitting up to three pieces of relevant work with their application including essays or analyses written either in the context of academic course work or independently. Candidates for this major will be interviewed by a panel of faculty representing musicology and ethnomusicology disciplines. Admission to this major will be based on the candidate’s: i) submitted work, ii) interview, iii) achievement in Music 1002, 1003, 2002, 2003, and all elective music history courses, as well as English and research/writing courses, iv) general academic achievement, and v) potential for a career and/or graduate work in music history and literature, journalism or a related field.

4. General Musical Studies. This program is recommended for those candidates who wish a broad knowledge of music that would prepare them for a variety of career and advanced study options. Students have the option of including a minor in a discipline other than music, in which case they must meet all prerequisites and requirements for the minor. The subject of the candidate’s minor shall be that declared by the candidate on the Change of Academic Program Form which must then be signed by the head of the department of the minor. Students who intend to apply for admission to the Bachelor of Music Education Conjoint Degree program must consult with the Faculty of Education's admission requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education Conjoint Degree program. Candidates for the General Musical Studies major need not submit an application. All candidates who have not been admitted to another major by the end of their fourth semester in the Bachelor of Music program will automatically be admitted to the General Musical Studies major.

5. Joint Major in Music Performance and History and Literature of Music. This program is recommended to those candidates who have both advanced performance skills and an interest in musicology and research. Students who are planning careers in specialized performance, music editing or media are encouraged to consider this major. Candidates must fulfill the requirements for admission to both the Performance and History and Literature majors.

6. Joint Major in Music Performance and Theory and Composition. This program is recommended to those candidates who have both advanced performance skills and an interest in music theory and composition. Students who are planning careers in performance, music editing, conducting, arranging, composing or as university-based musicians are encouraged to consider this major. Candidates must fulfill the requirements for admission to both the Performance and Theory and Composition majors.

7. Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Music Education Conjoint Degrees. This program is offered with the Faculty of Education, and is recommended for candidates planning to pursue a career in music education. Candidates for the Conjoint Degrees program must meet the Faculty of Education’s admission requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education Conjoint Degree program. Applications must be submitted to the Faculty of Education by January 15 for admission in the following Fall Semester.

A candidate may not change his/her major without the written permission of the Director of the School. In cases where permission is granted, the candidate shall be required to fulfill all requirements for the new major. However, in the case where a student’s major changes from Performance to one of the other majors, the principal applied study courses successfully completed under the Performance major may be used to satisfy the requirements for principal applied study in the new major, with any additional credit hours being used as music electives in the new major.

Prerequisite: Music 1120 with a minimum mark of 75% or equivalent and completion of at least 24 credit hours of university course work.

3015 World Music: Music of Africa and the Americas (3 credit hours) is an examination of musical theory, genres, instruments; aesthetics, and functions of music in Africa and the Americas, including traditional African musics, neo-African musics of the Americas, Native American musics, and traditional South American musics. This course has a strong listening component.
Prerequisite: Music 1120 with a minimum mark of 75% or equivalent and completion of at least 24 credit hours of university course work.

3016 Canadian Musical Traditions (3 credit hours) is a survey of musical streams in Canadian music history from colonial times to the present, including indigenous and transplanted musical traditions, and Canadian Art Music. This course has a strong listening component.
Prerequisite: Music 1120, with a minimum mark of 75% or equivalent and completion of at least 24 credit hours of university course work.

3017 Folksong (3 credit hours) (same as Folklore 3618) is an introduction to the full range of traditional verse, song and music. Stress primarily on the songs of Canada, the United States and the British Isles, with attention to Newfoundland parallels. Examination of traditional vocal and instrumental styles as well as verse forms. Some reference to non-Western musical traditions.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both Music 3017/Folklore 3200 and former Folklore 2430.

3018 Jazz and Blues: The Roots of Popular Music (3 credit hours) (same as Folklore 3618) is an overview of blues and jazz as traditional musical forms. Lectures and listening will illustrate the development of regional music cultures and generic styles. To better understand the shift of jazz from regional to global performance contexts, the course will examine the effects of changing transmissional media, from predominantly sensory media through contemporary media technologies. A term paper concerning musical style will entail library research and aural analysis.

3060 Voice Literature and Performance Practice (3 cr. hrs) is a survey of selected solo vocal repertoire from the Renaissance to the present day. Stylistic development and performance practices will be emphasized.
Prerequisite: Music 140B in voice or permission of the instructor.

4000The First Viennese School - inactive course.

4002 Studies in Baroque Music (3 credit hours) is an examination of aspects of musical style and performance practices in the baroque period through the study of selected topics and specific musical examples. The course includes reading assignments, listening, score reading, and taking part in class demonstrations.
Prerequisite: Music 1003.

4003 Special Topics in Music History (1 credit hour per semester, maximum: 3 credit hours) will be announced by the School of Music.

4004 Special Topics in Music History (2 credit hours per semester maximum: 4 credit hours) will be announced by the School of Music.

4005 Special Topics in Music History (3 credit hours per semester maximum: 6 credit hours) will be announced by the School of Music.

4094 Introduction to Music Research (3 credit hours) is a study of bibliography and various aspects of research methods appropriate to the study of music. Students will participate in group and individual projects, and give a seminar presentation in class. Prerequisite: Music 2003.

4095 Graduating Essay (3 credit hours) is directed study which will result in the production of an original paper dealing with a topic of historical musical significance. This course is restricted to History and Literature of Music majors. Prerequisite: Music 4094.

4440 Music and Culture (3 credit hours) (cross-listed with Folklore 4440 and Anthropology 4440) examines traditional music as an aspect of human behaviour in Western and non-European cultures. Examination of the functions and uses of music; folk-popular-art music distinctions; and the relation of style to content. Outside reading, class exercises and individual reports will be required.

1 School Description
The origin of Memorial University of Newfoundland School of Nursing dates back to August 1963 when the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland submitted a brief to the University calling for the establishment of a baccalaureate program in nursing. In September 1966, the first students were admitted to the undergraduate degree program. Over its 42 year history, the School has remained responsive to the changing needs of nursing within the province and in Canada and consequently has developed and changed over time.

The educational, research and scholarly activities of the School and its faculty draw upon knowledge from the arts and sciences and from nursing and other health professions. The School and its faculty are also involved in many community outreach and professional service activities. While being responsive to national and international needs, the School acknowledges its primary responsibility to the people of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The School offers undergraduate degree programs on campus to prepare entry-level nurses for practice, and by distance for registered nurses with a diploma in nursing. A graduate degree, the Master of Nursing, is offered by the School of Graduate Studies.

Students must meet all regulations of the School in addition to those stated in the general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

Further information regarding the School of Nursing is available at www.mun.ca/nursing/about_us/.

1.1 Vision Statement
The School of Nursing provides innovative leaders in nursing education and research provincially, nationally and internationally by developing quality learning and scholarship environments. Graduates of the School of Nursing will be prepared to embrace the challenges of providing health care and will be responsive to human diversity while improving health for all.

1.2 Mission Statement
The School of Nursing’s mission provides leadership and advances knowledge in nursing education, practice and research with the goal of promoting health and well-being.

1.3 Accreditation Status
The School of Nursing’s Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) and the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) programs are accredited to June 2008 by the Canadian Association of Schools of Nursing (CASN). The School of Nursing is currently awaiting a decision regarding the review that occurred in Winter 2008.

2 Description of Programs
All courses of the School are designated by the abbreviation NURS.

2.1 General
The School of Nursing offers an undergraduate program leading to a Bachelor of Nursing to prepare entry-level nurses. To meet the licensing requirements for practising nursing in Canada, students must write the Canadian Registered Nurse Exam (CRNE). To be eligible to write the CRNE, candidates must graduate from an approved program offered by a School of Nursing and be recommended by the School of Nursing. In order to be recommended for the CRNE, a student must complete a comprehensive examination set by the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program. All costs associated with these exams are the responsibility of the student.

The School of Nursing also offers an undergraduate program leading to a Bachelor of Nursing for nurses with a diploma in nursing. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option program must meet the licensing requirements for practising as a Nurse Practitioner in Newfoundland and Labrador by writing the Canadian Nurse Practitioner Family/All Ages Examination. To be eligible to write the examination, candidates must graduate from an approved School of Nursing and be recommended by the School of Nursing. In order to be recommended for the Nurse Practitioner licensure examination students must complete a comprehensive examination set by the School of Nursing. All costs associated with these exams are the responsibility of the student.

2.1.1 Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program
This four year program is designed to prepare competent entry-level nurses who will function within a variety of health care settings. The graduate is prepared to assume the roles of direct caregiver, educator, counsellor, advocate, facilitator, co-ordinator of care, researcher, leader, and member of the nursing profession. This full-time program is comprised of 130 credit hours.

The School of Nursing depends on the cooperation and involvement of a large number of organizations and professional personnel in providing quality clinical placements and instruction to its students. These agencies often have a range of requirements, some of which include, a Certificate of Conduct, a Child Protection Record Check, immunizations, a First Aid Certificate, and a CPR certificate. Students unable to meet these agency requirements may be delayed in their program or prevented from completing their program of studies. All students are required to complete these requirements in a timely fashion and at their own expense. Many of these requirements must be updated annually.

This program is offered at Memorial University of Newfoundland School of Nursing, the Centre for Nursing Studies, and the Western Regional School of Nursing. Information regarding the Centre for Nursing Studies is available at www.cns.nf.ca/, and information regarding the Western Regional School of Nursing is available at www.swgc.mun.ca/nursing.
2.1.2 Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option Program

The Fast-Track program is also designed to prepare competent entry-level nurses, however it is geared to students with well-developed university-level study skills. This full-time program is for current degree holders or those with advanced standing and is comprised of 93 credit hours. This option is taken over six consecutive semesters, i.e., two calendar years.

The School of Nursing depends on the cooperation and involvement of a large number of organizations and professional personnel in providing quality clinical placements and instruction to its students. These agencies often have a range of requirements, some of which include, a Certificate of Conduct, a Child Protection Record Check, immunizations, a First Aid Certificate and a CPR certificate. Students unable to meet these agency requirements may be delayed in their program or prevented from completing their program of studies. All students are required to complete these requirements in a timely fashion and at their own expense. Many of these requirements must be updated annually.

This program is offered at Memorial University of Newfoundland School of Nursing and Western Regional School of Nursing. Information regarding the Western Regional School of Nursing is available at www.swgc.mun.ca/nursing.

2.1.3 Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Program

This program is designed to build on the knowledge and competencies that registered nurses acquire in their diploma program. The program content and learning activities are intended to broaden students' theoretical base within the context of health promotion and to provide opportunities for students to enhance skills such as critical thinking and research application. The program is offered entirely by distance education. The program is designed for the convenience of registered nurses who wish to continue their education but cannot attend a university campus. The full-time or part-time program is comprised of 108 credit hours.

2.1.4 Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option Program

This program is a time-limited transitional program with two intakes planned. The program consists of a 6-semester full time or an 11-semester part-time program. Admission to the program will be offered in the years 2008 and 2009 for 16 students per intake. The program is primarily through distance delivery but there is a residency requirement in each semester. The full or part-time program is comprised of 111 credit hours.

New applicants to the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option will only be accepted into part-time study in Fall 2008 and into full-time study in Fall 2008 and Fall 2009. All students must complete the program no later than the 2011-2012 Winter semester.

3 Admission/Readmission Regulations for the School of Nursing

Applicants requiring additional information may e-mail nursingadmissions@mun.ca.

In addition to meeting the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS students must meet the admission/readmission regulations for the School of Nursing.

3.1 General Information

1. Entry to the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year and Fast-Track Option, and to the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option are competitive for a limited number of placements. Meeting the minimum requirements for admission does not guarantee acceptance into the selected program. The final decision on admission rests with the relevant Admissions Committee of the School.

2. Admission or readmission to the University does not necessarily constitute admission or readmission to any program.

3. Selection of candidates for Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year and Fast-Track two year Option, and to the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option is based on academic performance, relevant work and volunteer experience, references and personal statements.

4. Admission to the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option is competitive for a limited number of places. Selection of candidates is based on:
   • a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a 4 point scale in their degree program for applicants who have completed a bachelor degree;
   • a minimum overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4 point scale in the twelve courses, 36 credit hours required for admission for applicants for advanced standing;
   • evidence of ability to successfully maintain a full course load; and
   • other criteria considered suitable for professional practice in nursing.

5. For all programs, other than the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN), priority is given to applicants who are residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

6. In addition to the regular quota positions, up to three additional positions per year are available in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year option program for applicants of aboriginal ancestry who have met the admission requirements. Applicants must send a letter of request at the time of application and provide documentation of aboriginal ancestry.

7. Applicants are required to submit a health assessment and a complete record of current immunizations at the beginning of all programs except for the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) when they must be submitted prior to commencing any Nursing course with a clinical component.

8. Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track and Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care applicants may be requested to attend an interview.

9. Evidence of certification in Standard First Aid and Basic Life Support (CPR) level HCP, offered by The Canadian Red Cross or St. John Ambulance is required by applicants to all programs except the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN). Certification obtained from other organizations will be accepted if deemed equivalent by the School of Nursing.

3.2 Application Forms and Deadlines

1. All programs and their options, other than Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) distance option, commence in the Fall semester. The deadline for application to the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program, 4 year and Fast-Track 2 year option is March 1st. The deadline for application for admission is March 1. The Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program applications for admission are accepted on an ongoing basis. The deadline for admission to the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option program is May 31.
2. Application forms are available in person from the Office of the Registrar or by writing the Office of the Registrar, Admissions Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7. The Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) and the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option program application for admission is available at www.mun.ca/nursing/undergrad/collaborative/application_forms.php. The Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program application for admission is also available at www.mun.ca/nursing/undergrad/post_rn/forms.php. The Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option program application for admission is also available at www.mun.ca/nursing/undergrad/nurse_prac/forms.php.

   or qualify for advanced standing. An applicant who has successfully completed all the non-nursing course requirements of the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program, and who is in good standing, may qualify for advanced standing. Applicants must demonstrate successful completion of the following 12 courses, 36 credit hours prior to admission:
   - 6 courses, 18 credit hours as follows: 6 credit hours from English, Biology 1430 or equivalent, Biology 3053 or equivalent, Psychology 1000 or equivalent, Statistics 2500 or equivalent or Education 2900;
   - 4 courses, 12 credit hours as follows: 3 credit hours from each of the following: Business, Philosophy 2800 to 2810 series or Religious Studies 2610, Political Science, and Sociology, Anthropology, or Archaeology; and
   - 2 courses, 6 additional elective credit hours selected from any credit courses offered by this University.

3. Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program applicants must provide:
   - proof of practising Registered Nurse (RN) license. For the purposes of admission a RN is a Nurse who is currently registered in Newfoundland and Labrador or eligible to register in Newfoundland and Labrador, or is currently registered or eligible for registration in the province/country in which the applicant resides; and
   - one letter of reference from a current supervisor of nursing position.

4. Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option applicants must provide:
   - proof of practising Registered Nurse (RN) license. For the purposes of admission a RN is a Nurse who is currently registered in Newfoundland and Labrador or eligible to register in Newfoundland and Labrador, or is currently registered or eligible for registration in the province/country in which the applicant resides. Applicants must have a current, practising licence in the jurisdiction in which they plan to complete courses with a clinical component.
   - a complete application package which includes:
     - an application to the University for those who have not attended Memorial University of Newfoundland in the two preceding semesters;
     - an application to the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option that includes a personal statement and description of relevant work experiences;
     - proof of current practising RN license;
     - two letters of reference, one of which must be from the current nursing supervisor or employer;
     - evidence of two years of recent acute care nursing experience;
     - completed health assessment;
     - completed record of current immunization as outlined on the appropriate School of Nursing form; and
     - a letter from a primary health care physician or a primary health care nurse practitioner and a health care agency guaranteeing the applicant a preceptored clinical placement throughout the program.

3.4 Other Information

1. Applicants seeking clinical placements outside of Canada must satisfy the clinical agency’s immunization requirements submitting documentation of its requirements to that agency at least one month in advance of the start of the semester in which the course will be taken.

2. Applicants seeking clinical placements within Canada must satisfy the School of Nursing immunization requirements outlined on the School of Nursing Immunization Requirements form. This documentation must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar in advance of the start of registration for the semester in which the course will be taken.
4 Program Regulations - General Degrees

4.1 Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program

1. The four year, 130 credit hour Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program requires 94 NURS credit hours and 36 non-NURS credit hours.

2. The 130 credit hours are recommended to be taken in the academic terms in the sequence as set out in Table 1, 2, or 3 Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program. These courses will be offered during the same year at all sites, but the semester of course offering may vary with each site.

3. Selected nursing courses which are designed for the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program may be used as electives in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program with permission of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies and the course instructor.

5 Promotion Regulations

These regulations apply to all programs except as noted below.

1. The Memorial University of Newfoundland School of Nursing constitutes the examining body for all School of Nursing examinations. The standing of every student will be assessed at the end of each academic semester by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, and a grade report will be issued by the University Registrar to the individual student.

2. Students are required to achieve a grade of at least 65% or a grade of PAS as appropriate in each of the required nursing courses.

3. Except in the Bachelor of Nursing Fast-Track Option, students failing to achieve the requirements outlined above are permitted to repeat the given nursing course only once. A second failure in a given nursing course will result in withdrawal from the program. In the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track option students may be permitted, with special permission from the Directors, to resume studies within the regular stream of the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program and are subject to all its academic standards. Accordingly, invoking this clause carries over to the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program as a first failure in the relevant course(s).

4. Failure in excess of two nursing courses during the program will result in withdrawal from the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year program, the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN), or the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option programs.

5. Students who are required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year program, or the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program, as outlined above in the two preceding clauses, may appeal for readmission after a lapse of two semesters by writing to the Chair, Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Students who are required to withdraw from the program a second time will not be eligible for future admission/readmission to the program.

6. A student may be required to withdraw from a nursing course with a clinical component or from the program at any time, on the recommendation of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, if the student is deemed unlikely to profit from continued attendance in the nursing course or program and/or is deemed unsafe in a clinical setting. Students who are required to withdraw from the program for any of these reasons will not be eligible for future admission/readmission to the program or the School of Nursing.

7. Students who fail to complete a nursing course in any program, other than the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program, for a period of three consecutive semesters will be considered to have withdrawn from the program. Students who have not completed a course in the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) program within the last 6 consecutive semesters will be considered to have withdrawn from the program and must apply for re-admission. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option program who fail to complete a nursing course will be considered to have withdrawn from the program and must apply for re-admission.

8. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) and the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option programs who wish to take a leave of absence from the program may do so only with the written permission of the Director or delegate. A leave will be granted for a maximum period of three consecutive semesters. Students on leave who plan to resume their studies must notify the Director in writing one semester prior to registration.

9. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program and the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option program who voluntarily withdraw from the program prior to the conclusion of the first semester of the first year and who wish to return to the program must re-apply in competition as a new applicant.

10. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program, the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option program, or the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-RN) Nurse Practitioner Primary Health Care Option program who voluntarily withdraw from the program at the conclusion of the first semester of the program, or later, and who wish to return to the program, must appeal for re-admission. The letter of appeal must be directed to the Chair, Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

11. Students in the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) four year and two year Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Fast-Track Option program who are readmitted to the program following a period of absence, either as a result of a leave of absence or a withdrawal from the program, may be required to do remedial work upon the recommendation of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Remedial work may include the repetition of classroom or clinical courses.

6 Waiver of School Regulations

Any student whose request for waiver of School regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.

6.1 General Information

1. The School reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any School regulation in its application to individual students where merit and equity so warrant in the judgment of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School.

2. All requests must be submitted to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School for consideration. A student requesting a waiver of a School regulation must submit the request in writing to the Chair of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Medical and/or other documentation to substantiate the request must be provided.

3. Any waiver granted does not reduce the total number of credit hours required for the degree.

7 Supplementary Examinations

Any student receiving a grade of 60% in a Nursing course is eligible to write a supplementary examination in that course. Only three supplementary examinations in Nursing courses can be written during the program.

In addition to meeting UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), upon successful completion of the supplementary examination, a student must also meet the promotion regulations of the School. For further information refer to Promotion Regulations.

1. Supplementary examinations are permitted only in Nursing courses that have a written final examination.

2. Supplementary examinations will have the same weight as final examinations for the course in determining whether the student achieves a passing grade for the course.

3. Any student writing a supplementary examination can obtain only a maximum grade of 65% in the course.

4. Supplementary examinations will be written no later than the first week of the semester immediately following the one in which the course was failed. Normally they should coincide with the writing of deferred examinations in courses where deferred examinations are granted for the semester in question. Grades for supplementary examinations must be received by the Office of the Registrar within one week following the completion of the examination.
5. A student may write a supplementary examination for any one course only once.
6. If it is mathematically impossible to achieve a passing grade in a course the student will not be granted a supplementary examination.

8 Appeal of Regulations
1. An applicant who has been denied admission has the right to appeal this decision of the Admissions Committee if it is felt by the applicant that the decision was reached on grounds other than those outlined under Admission Regulations for the School of Nursing. The appeal should be made in writing within fourteen days of the notification of the decision and should be directed to the Chair, Memorial University of Newfoundland School of Nursing, Committee on Undergraduate Studies. The letter should state clearly and fully the grounds for the appeal.
2. Any student whose request for waiver of School regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.

1 School Description

The School of Pharmacy offers an undergraduate degree in pharmacy and graduate degrees in pharmaceutical sciences. The School is committed to providing an undergraduate program of quality and excellence that will prepare individuals who will contribute significantly in all settings of pharmacy practice. The experiential learning component of the program ensures students have the opportunity to integrate academic learning with professional practice and to develop the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes required of practising pharmacists. The School encourages a close working relationship among students, faculty, and staff, and prides itself on its strong association with and support of the pharmacy community at both the provincial and national level.

Additional information regarding the School of Pharmacy is available at www.mun.ca/pharmacy.

Students must meet all regulations of the School in addition to those stated in the general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (Undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

1.1 Vision Statement
Fostering the development of pharmacy graduates committed to enhancing the health of individuals and the community.

1.2 Mission Statement
Through the scholarly pursuits of teaching, research and service, the School of Pharmacy is dedicated to:

- preparing pharmaceutical care practitioners committed to life long learning
- fostering excellence and innovation in research and graduate studies
- developing and participating in professional practice and community outreach
- advancing the profession

1.3 Accreditation Status
The School of Pharmacy is accredited by the Canadian Council for Accreditation of Pharmacy Programs (CCAPP) to June 2010.

2 Description of Program

The School of Pharmacy offers an undergraduate program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy). This degree is designed to prepare graduates for careers primarily in community and hospital settings but also in the pharmaceutical industry, pharmacy organizations, health sciences research, government, and educational environments. After successful completion of national examinations, a graduate of the program is eligible to apply to be licensed as a pharmacist in Newfoundland and Labrador and other provinces in Canada.
The program of study leading to the Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy) degree has two phases and requires at least five years to complete. Prior to entry to the program students will acquire a background in the mathematical and physical sciences. Once in the program students will take courses in the basic health sciences, pharmacy sub-specialties and social/administrative sciences. At the end of each year students will have an opportunity to apply the academic knowledge acquired and to develop and practice patient care skills by participating in experiential learning within community and hospital settings. During the program students will develop an understanding of the professional and societal responsibilities of a pharmacist, and will recognize the need for lifelong learning.

2.1 Structured Practice Experience

Students are required to successfully complete all experiential components of the program, including the Structured Practice Experience (SPE). During SPEs students are placed in community or hospital pharmacy practice settings and are brought into direct contact with patients, pharmacists and other health professionals. Students become involved in the practice of pharmaceutical care and are expected to assume ever-increasing responsibility as their education advances. Such practice experiences ensure students are exposed in situations which cannot be provided in the classroom.

1. The Joint Committee on Structured Practice Experience, consisting of representatives from both the School of Pharmacy and the Newfoundland and Labrador Pharmacy Board, is responsible for providing the overall direction for the program and recommending policies and procedures for its operation.

2. Students will be placed at sites by the School. The Structured Practice Experience Co-ordinator liaises with students to determine placements.

3. While every effort will be made to accommodate a student's request to complete SPEs in a specific location, a student may be assigned to any participating site within the province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

4. Students are responsible for all travel and accommodation costs associated with the SPE.

5. Students who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their termination from the SPE site, including breaches in confidentiality, violation of policies and professional misconduct will be assigned a grade of FAL (fail) for that SPE.

6. Students are required to complete three SPEs, each of four weeks duration, and one SPE of twelve weeks duration. The first three SPEs are completed at the end of the Winter semester in the first, second, and third years of the program. The final SPE is completed in the Winter semester of the final year of the program.

7. Students will be evaluated on their performance during the SPE and on written assignments including workbooks, pharmaceutical care case work-ups and drug information requests. Students may have workbooks audited or they may be formally examined on material learned during the SPE period. The overall evaluation of SPEs will result in the assignment of one of the following grades: PWD (pass with distinction), PAS (pass), or FAL (fail).

2.2 Registration as a Pharmacy Student

A student must be registered as a “Pharmacy Student” with the Newfoundland and Labrador Pharmacy Board. A student must be registered by September 30th of each academic year. As well, a student must be registered as a “Pharmacy Student” with the respective provincial or territorial licensing body prior to the commencement of Structured Practice Experiences. A student who fails to meet the requirements for licensing may be required to withdraw from the program.

3 Admission Regulations for the School of Pharmacy

In addition to meeting UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS students applying for admission for the program must meet the admission regulations of the School.

3.1 General Information

1. Admissions will normally be to the first year of pharmacy studies. In some circumstances, however, admission with advanced standing may be offered.

2. Entry to the School is competitive for a limited number of placements. Priority is given to applicants who are bona fide residents of this province and who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents. The final decision on admission rests with the Admissions Committee of the School.

3. The Admissions Committee considers each applicant's academic background and information on the applicant's personal characteristics and achievements as given by the applicant and by referees' reports. Personal interviews, which may include both a written and oral component, may be required.

4. The School of Pharmacy does not require criminal record checks or other screening procedures as a condition of admission to its program. However, students should be aware that such record checks or other screening procedures may be required by agencies used by the University for clinical or structured practice experiences related to academic course assignments necessary for graduation. Such agencies may refuse to accept students on the basis of information contained in the record check or other screening procedure thus preventing the student from completing a practice experience or other clinical requirement. As a result, such students may not be eligible for promotion or graduation.

It is the students' responsibility to have such procedures completed as required and at their own expense.

The screening procedures of any given agency may change from time to time and are beyond the control of the University.

3.2 Application Forms and Deadlines

1. Application forms are available in person from the School and the Office of the Registrar or through the School's website at www.mun.ca/pharmacy. Application forms may also be obtained by writing the School of Pharmacy, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL A1C 5S7 or the Office of the Registrar, Admissions Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL A1C 5S7.

2. All application forms and fees for admission to the program for the Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy) must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar of the University on or before the deadline of March 1 in any year. The program commences in the Fall semester.

3. Applications will be reviewed after the closing date by the Admissions Committee of the School. This Committee has the delegated authority of the School's academic council to admit or decline to admit applicants, following guidelines and procedures acceptable to that council.

4. Each applicant is responsible for ensuring that all the required information for application is supplied to the Admissions Committee, and for providing any further information required by the Committee. An application will not be considered to be complete until all documentation has been received.

3.3 Admission Requirements to the School

Applicants who are not currently students at Memorial University of Newfoundland must apply for admission to the University under the Categories of Applicants, Admission Criteria and Other Information outlined under UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate). In addition to meeting these regulations, applicants to the School must meet requirements as indicated below.

1. To be eligible for consideration an applicant shall have completed a minimum of 30 credit hours which have been taken or accepted for credit at a recognized university or university college.

2. An applicant is normally required to have completed each of the following courses or their equivalents. The course designations relate to courses taught at Memorial University of Newfoundland including Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.
   - Biology 1001 and 1002
   - Chemistry 1050 and 1051 or Chemistry 1200 and 1001
   - English 1080 or English 1000; and English 1101 or English 1001, or equivalent
   - Mathematics 1000 and 1001
   - Physics 1020 and 1021 or Physics 1050 and 1051

3. Normally an application will not be considered from an applicant who cannot produce evidence that the above requirements have been met or will have been met by the time of entry into the School.

4. An unsuccessful applicant who wishes to reapply for admission is required to submit the application forms relevant to the year of reapplication and will be required to enter into the competition for that year.

3.4 Acceptance Procedures

1. Notification of the decision of the Admissions Committee of the School will be made to applicants by the Director of the School by letter. No other form of notification will be considered official.

2. The letter of acceptance will give the successful applicant 14 days from the date of the letter of notification in which to confirm acceptance of the placement offer. The signed intention to accept the offer must be accompanied by a deposit of $100, which will be credited towards tuition fees. The deposit will be forfeited if the applicant subsequently declines the offer or fails to register. If no reply is received within 14 days, the offer by the School will be withdrawn and the applicant will be informed of this by letter.
4 Program Regulations - General Degrees

4.1 Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy)

1. The 174 credit hour Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy) requires 30 credit hours before admission to the program and 144 credit hours after admission to the program. The program includes four structured practice experiences, three of which are non-credit, with the other having 18 credit hours.

- The program courses shall normally be taken in the academic terms in the sequence and course load as set out in Table 1 Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy). Students wishing to change the sequence and/or reduce the course load required in the academic terms must first consult with the School’s Office of the Director.
- Elective courses may be taken from any academic unit.

5 Promotion Regulations

5.1 General Information

• The Committee on Undergraduate Studies will determine each student's promotion status at the end of each academic year.
• In addition to meeting the promotion regulations for the School students must meet the general academic regulations (undergraduate). For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).
• Success in the program depends on meeting the requirements of all terms.

5.2 Promotion Status

A student's promotion status at the end of each academic year will be in one of the following two categories:

5.2.1 Clear Promotion

Clear Promotion means a student can proceed to the next academic year without restrictions.

• Students will receive a Clear Promotion from an academic year by obtaining an average of 65% and having obtained at least a pass in each course. A weighted average based on credit hours in the Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy) program courses will be calculated for determining eligibility for promotion. Neither promotion nor graduation will be permitted if a student has a numeric grade below 50% in any course in the program.
• Students completing PHAR 2102 must obtain a numeric grade of at least 70%.
• Students completing PHAR 201W, 302W, 403W, 501W, or 500X must obtain a grade of PAS or PWD in each course.
• Students must attain a passing grade in each elective, but these courses will not be included in calculating the student's average grade for the purposes of promotion, graduation, or academic awards.

5.2.2 Promotion Denied

Promotion Denied indicates Clear Promotion is not achieved at the end of each academic year.

• A student with Promotion Denied status will be required to withdraw from the School.
  • A student who does not obtain a clear promotion may be permitted to repeat all or part of the academic year. If a student is required to repeat a year on the grounds of unsatisfactory performance, his or her performance in the repeated year must meet the conditions for Clear Promotion. If this standard is not met, the Committee on Undergraduate Studies may require the student to withdraw from the program.
  • Normally, the option to repeat a year on the grounds of academic difficulties can be offered only once during the student's Bachelor of Science (Pharmacy) program. This restriction may be waived if it has been demonstrated that the student's academic performance has been adversely affected by factors duly authenticated and acceptable to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies.
• A student with Promotion Denied status at the end of the final academic term will not be recommended for graduation until the student's status is changed to Clear Promotion.

5.3 Other Information

• Students may be required to withdraw from their program at any time, if, in the opinion of the School, they are unlikely to benefit from continued attendance.
• The Committee on Undergraduate Studies may require a student who is deemed unlikely to benefit from continued attendance in his/her course of study to withdraw conditionally. The Chair of the committee will advise the Director of the School of the circumstances precipitating this action, the duration of the withdrawal and any conditions the student must fulfill during the withdrawal. The Director may then recommend to the Registrar that the student is on conditional withdrawal. Upon completing the conditions, the student may be permitted re-entry to the program. If the conditions are not met, the student may be required to withdraw from the program.
• The School reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from the program at any time when acceptable cause is demonstrated. In such cases, the Director, on behalf of the School, shall recommend such withdrawal to the Registrar who will then take appropriate action. Any such action is subject to the right of appeal by the student. An appeal should be made in writing clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed in the first instance to the Registrar of the University. The Registrar, in consultation with the Director, will determine whether or not the grounds stated are sufficient to warrant a formal hearing of the appeal.

5.4 Leave of Absence

• Upon completion of an academic year, a student in good standing may elect to withdraw temporarily from studies. Voluntary withdrawal at other times and for other reasons may be permitted in accordance with UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Registration. In all cases, the intent to withdraw voluntarily should be discussed with the Director. The Director may then recommend to the Registrar that a student be permitted to withdraw for a stated period of time. At the end of this period, the student, in consultation with the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, should ensure that sufficient revision and preparatory work is undertaken to allow studies to be resumed readily. In the absence of good cause, any such student who does not resume studies on the specified date may be deemed to have left the program.

6 Supplementary Examination Regulations

A student has the right to request to write a supplementary examination in courses offered by the School of Pharmacy that have written final examinations. In the case of Pharmacy courses, where the final examination is not cumulative, a student may be permitted to write one supplementary examination, at the discretion of the course co-ordinator, if they fail any one of the term examinations.

In addition to meeting UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), upon successful completion of the supplementary examination, a student must also meet the promotion regulations of the School. For further information refer to Promotion Regulations.

1. Students who wish to write a supplementary examination must submit the prescribed form, which is available from the School of Pharmacy, to the Office of the Director within one week of release of grades. Normally the supplementary examination will be written no later than the first week of the semester immediately following the one in which the course was failed. The examination will be similar in length and degree of difficulty as the original examination.

2. A student who has satisfied the academic criteria for continuance at the University may write a supplementary examination in one Pharmacy course if the final grade obtained is 45-49% (F). In the case of a Pharmacy course that has a final pass mark greater than 50%, a student who obtains a final grade that is within five marks below the established pass mark may be permitted to write a supplementary examination.

3. The student must pass the supplementary examination in order to pass the course. The new grade obtained from successfully passing the supplementary examination will be calculated using the same weighting scheme used in the course, but with the result of the supplementary examination replacing that of the original failed examination. Any additional course requirements, including a requirement to pass the laboratory/practical session, will continue to apply.

4. The new course grade will replace the original grade on the student’s transcript and will indicate that the course result was earned as the result of supplementary examination.

5. A student may write a supplementary examination in a particular course only once; if the course result following the supplementary examination is a fail then the course must be repeated and successfully completed.

6. A student will be permitted to write a maximum number of one supplementary examination during each year of the Pharmacy program.

7  Waiver of School Regulations
A student has the right to request waiver of School regulations. A student wishing waiver of University academic regulations should refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Waiver of Regulations.

7.1  General Information
- The School reserves the right in special circumstances to modify, alter, or waive any School regulation in its application to individual students where merit and equity so warrant in the judgment of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School.
- All requests must be submitted to the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the School for consideration. A student requesting a waiver of a School regulation must submit the request in writing to the Chair of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Medical and/or other documentation to substantiate the request must be provided.
- Any waiver granted does not reduce the total number of credit hours required for the degree.

8  Appeal of Regulations
Any student whose request for waiver of School regulations has been denied has the right to appeal. For further information refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Appeal of Regulations.

- An applicant who has been denied admission has the right to appeal this decision of the Admissions Committee if it is felt by the applicant that the decision was reached on grounds other than those outlined in Admission Regulations for the School of Pharmacy. The appeal should be made in writing within fourteen days of the notification of the decision and should be directed to the Director of the School. The letter should state clearly and fully the grounds for the appeal. If the Director of the School, in consultation with the Registrar, judges the grounds to be sufficient, the formal appeals mechanism will be initiated.
- A student has the right to make a formal appeal against a decision of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. However, this appeal cannot be made on the basis of the grades awarded in individual courses, as the student will normally have had the opportunity of contesting grades immediately after notification. A formal appeal by a student against the decision of the Committee must be made on grounds other than the grades awarded, e.g. default of procedure. This appeal should be made in writing, clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed in the first instance to the Registrar of the University. The Registrar, in consultation with the Director, will determine whether or not the grounds stated are sufficient to warrant a formal hearing of the appeal.

9  Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Director of the School.

All courses of the School are designated by PHAR and are restricted to students in the School of Pharmacy.

2002 Anatomy and Physiology I presents a survey of human anatomy and physiology throughout the lifespan. It includes aspects of cytology and histology that form a foundation for the practice of pharmacy. Special emphasis is given to the skeletal, muscular, nervous and endocrine systems. The course will include both the vocabulary and concepts of anatomy and physiology with the overall goal being the understanding of the interrelationships and integration of all systems from the cell to whole organism.

3203 Medicinal Chemistry I (formerly PHAR 4010) presents topics covering the molecular basis of action, metabolism, and toxicity of drugs. It provides an orientation to medicinally important nuclei and their nomenclature: followed by principles of drug discovery and development. The relationship between molecular structure and biological action of drug together with elementary molecular modelling, and theories related to receptors and drug action will be presented. Concepts of drug metabolism and the relevant metabolic pathways in relationship to drug inactivation and excretion, along with the principles of drug disposition and prodrugs is covered. The structures, selected physicochemical properties, mechanism of action, structure-activity relationships, toxic effects at molecular level, and metabolism of drugs including central nervous system.

3205 Pharmaceutics III consists of several units. The standards of good manufacturing practice will be introduced. Characteristics, preparation, quality assurance and delivery systems for sterile products will be covered. The basic principles governing the application of radiation and radioactive compounds in medical diagnosis and therapy will be discussed. The status of current biotechnology-based pharmaceuticals and biotechnology related matters will be addressed.

CR: PHAR 5017
PR: PHAR 2201 and 2202
3206 Applied Pharmacokinetics (formerly PHAR 4006) is an introduction to biopharmaceutical and pharmacokinetic principles used in the selection, dosing, monitoring and evaluation of drug therapy. Application of these principles in evaluating drug literature and developing drug dosage regimens of selected classes of drugs for individual patients will be discussed.

4150 Pharmacy Skills continues the development of the learning skills necessary for pharmacy practice in order to meet the educational outcomes for the third year of the pharmacy program. Students will continue to develop skills in the areas of drug information and communication relating to the courses of study in the third year. Students will participate in practice sessions necessary to develop an understanding of and skills required in patient assessment. Students will be required to discontinue and education session learned in first year through participating in dispensing and interview/counselling sessions in more complex patient situations. Students will learn to appreciate the challenges faced by, and in dealing with special patient populations.

4151 Pharmacy Skills continues the development of the learning skills necessary for pharmacy practice in order to meet the educational outcomes for the third year of the pharmacy program. Students will continue to develop skills in the areas of drug information and communication relating to the courses of study in the third year. Students will participate in practice sessions necessary to develop an understanding of and skills required for in-home diagnostic testing. Students will build on their dispensing and education skills learned in first year through participating in dispensing and interview/counselling sessions in more complex patient situations. Students will learn to appreciate the challenges faced by, and in dealing with special patient populations. 4401 Therapeutics I is part of a series that looks at the therapeutic management of common diseases. Topics include infectious diseases, hematology/oncology, dermatology, and musculoskeletal disorders. For each disease state discussion will centre around several key issues including: the establishment of desired therapeutic outcomes; development of appropriate pharmacological and non-pharmacological therapeutic alternatives; factors to be considered in aid of the selection of an individualized therapeutic regimen; and the development of a monitoring plan to evaluate efficacy and safety.

4501 Pharmacy Research and Evaluation II introduces the biostatistical, pharmacoepidemiologic and pharmacoeconomic concepts and develops the skills necessary to the practice of research and evaluation methods in applied pharmacy. The understanding of such methods is an important prerequisite in the critical appraisal of the health literature and the undertaking of evidence-based clinical practice.

PR: PHAR 3501

4502 Pharmacy Research and Evaluation III introduces students the principles of critical appraisal and provides opportunities to apply these principles to critique and evaluate current medical literature. Students will be assigned to a tutorial group, which will meet twice during the semester to critically appraise at least two recently published studies (journal club). Emphasis will be placed on appropriate application of critical appraisal skills and group discussion of impact of study findings on clinical practice. In addition, this course will also discuss drug utilization reviews and evaluation and the role of the pharmacist, as well as adverse drug event reporting and the role of the pharmacist.

4503 Pharmacy Administration introduces students to the basic principles of management as it relates to pharmacy practice. Topics will include human resources and financial management, marketing, strategic planning and the principles and issues associated with safe and appropriate drug distribution. These will be discussed from both a community and an institutional practice focus.

500X Structured Practice Experience IV provides experience in clinical practice. Students will participate as members of the health care team. They will be responsible for providing pharmaceutical care to patients. Activities will include attending patient care rounds, providing in-services and drug information, and participating in case presentations. Students will be evaluated periodically throughout the practice experience and will also be required to pass an exam. The structured practice experience is comprised of two six week modules, 35 hours per week.

1 Research Units

1.1 Centre for Earth Resources Research (CERR)

Director
Hanchar, J.M., B.S. Memphis, M.S. Vanderbilt, Ph.D. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

1.1.1 Research Group

The Centre draws on the research expertise of faculty and research staff members in the Department of Earth Sciences as well as other specialists inside and external to the University. For a complete listing of faculty, see Earth Sciences entry.

1.1.2 Scope and Objectives

The CERR was established in 1983 to provide for the co-ordination and promotion of earth resources research and associated work related to the origin, discovery, development, exploitation, and environmental aspects of earth resources.
The Centre promotes, initiates, and co-ordinates research within the earth resources disciplines on the national and international scenes. Researchers interact, when appropriate, with the industrial and government sectors and introduce other organizations to the potential benefits of further research and development in earth resources. The special facilities of the Centre complement the development of graduate and undergraduate programs in earth sciences and related disciplines at Memorial University of Newfoundland. A further function of the Centre is to contribute to the training of people competent in solving earth resources problems and to encourage personnel exchanges with industry and government.

The Alexander Murray Building houses the Centre, and has laboratories for teaching and basic and applied research.

1.3 Organization

The Centre is an integral part of the Department of Earth Sciences. The active research of faculty members contributes to programs in the Centre. Increasing collaboration is under way with government and industry in research projects that emphasize earth resources. The work of the Centre addresses problems and opportunities related to mineral resources, petroleum resources, exploration technology, environmental geoscience, and generic research.

The Centre works closely with other local, national, and international research institutes. CERR hosts the geoscience component of the University's Oil and Gas Development Partnership.

The Ocean Sciences Centre (OSC) provides scientists at Memorial University of Newfoundland and other organizations with first-rate facilities for research in cold ocean sciences. In addition, the OSC supports quality graduate education in a broad range of marine science and related disciplines. Located on the most eastern coast of Canada, the Centre lends itself to the shore-based study of cold ocean processes, and sub-arctic and arctic fauna and flora. Current research foci are aquaculture, biological and chemical oceanography, and fundamental principles of behaviour, biochemistry, and physiology that underlie the first two themes. The OSC is a key player in AquaNet, Canada’s first federal Network of Centres of Excellence (NCE) devoted to aquaculture. The OSC is an AquaNet Core Facility, as well as its Administrative Centre.

Located at Logy Bay, 9.6 km from the main campus, the OSC has an excellent unpolluted sea water supply that is the lifeline of the centre. There are 35 laboratories (22 provided with running seawater) and facilities for microscopy, histochemistry, analytical chemistry, radioisotope counting, physiological work, and standard analyses for oceanography. Large holding areas permit scientists to maintain a variety of marine organisms for long periods at ambient and controlled water temperatures. The Seal Research Facility offers research opportunities on North America’s only population of captive harp seals. The Field Services Unit provides extensive resources for field studies including: year round SCUBA diving, small research vessels, a tank truck for the transportation of live specimens, and a wide-range of oceanographic and collecting equipment.

The Logy Bay complex includes machine, woodworking and electronics shops, computer resource personnel, and a multimedia classroom. Desktop computers are linked to the mainframe cluster on campus, with high-resolution printing and graphics, and an image analysis facility.

The Aquaculture Research and Development Facility provides state-of-the-art facilities designed to support research, training, pre-commercial production, and small-scale commercial trials, on alternative species for marine aquaculture. A critical component of the new facility is a sea water system designed to deliver high quality, temperature controlled, flow through and re-circulating water. There are areas for broodstock conditioning, hatchery and nursery operation, first-feeding, on-growing, and live food production. Under investigation are: Atlantic halibut, Atlantic cod, Atlantic salmon and smaller flounder species.

Research Themes

1. Aquaculture nutrition and production
2. Reproductive biology of finfish and molluscs
3. Development and behavioural ecology of larval and juvenile fish
4. Survival of marine organisms without oxygen
5. Antifreeze proteins and cold adaptation in fish
6. Biological production and the ecology of cold oceans
7. Transport and fate of lipids in cold ocean ecosystems
8. Physiology of feeding and digestion in marine invertebrates
9. Marine biotechnology
10. Fisheries oceanography
11. Quantitative biology and population interactions

2 Faculty Description

The Faculty of Science encompasses eight academic departments: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Sciences, Mathematics and Statistics, Physics and Physical Oceanography, and Psychology. Each offers programs leading to either a general or honours degree. A number of specialized and joint (double major) programs are also offered, as well as Bachelor of Science degree programs delivered by the Departments of Geography and Economics. In addition to educational programs, research is a most important aspect of the Faculty of Science. As such, the Faculty is in a position to generate new knowledge by the pursuit of high quality research and to foster economic development through cooperative research and technology transfer with the private sector. The Faculty of Science is the scientific training ground for all undergraduates at the University. Memorial University of Newfoundland’s science graduates are in demand by science-based industries throughout the country. Our Faculty excels in research and in its commitment to effective teaching and delivery of quality educational programs.

Additional information regarding the Faculty of Science is available at www.mun.ca/science/aboutus/.

3 Degree Regulations

Students must meet all regulations of the Faculty of Science in addition to those stated in the general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

3.1 Admission to the Department of Subject of Major

Admission to certain major programs within the Faculty is limited and competitive.

Admission to all major programs within the Faculty is upon formal application to the department of the subject of major after completion of the admission requirements.

Unless otherwise indicated by the Departmental Admission Regulations as published in the University Calendar under departmental regulations, students upon formal application by Change of Academic Program Form, are normally admitted to the department of major program upon successful completion of 30 credit hours which must include:

1. 6 credit hours in English courses
2. 6 credit hours in Mathematics courses
3. 6 credit hours in courses from each of two Sciences other than Mathematics

Students seeking admission to departments with Departmental Admission Regulations as indicated above must apply for admission on the appropriate Departmental Application for Admission Form upon completion of the specified admission requirements.

3.2 Limited Enrolment Courses

Certain course offerings in the Faculty of Science will be identified as being Limited Enrolment Courses and will be clearly identified as such in the University Timetable. Students who have registered for a Limited Enrolment Course must confirm their registration either (1) by attending at least one of the first three hours of lecture in the course and the first meeting of any laboratory section of the course; or (2) by notifying the department in writing within the first five university working days of the semester. Students who do not confirm their registration may be dropped from the course on the recommendation of the Head of Department.
3.3 Regulations to Govern Supplementary Examinations in the Departments of Biochemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics and Statistics, and Physics and Physical Oceanography

1. Supplementary examinations will be allowed in certain of the Biochemistry, Computer Science, and Physics and Physical Oceanography courses, and all Mathematics and Statistics courses which have written final examinations. In each course, students will be informed as to the possibility of a supplementary examination during the first week of classes. This information will be provided in writing, as part of the evaluation scheme for the course.

2. Supplementary examinations will be similar in length and degree of difficulty as the original final examination.

3. Students who wish to write supplementary examinations must apply in writing to the department within one week of release of grades.

4. A student who has clear or conditional standing may write a supplementary examination in a course if the final grade obtained is 45-49F and if his or her term mark is at least 50%.

5. In order to pass the course, the student must pass the supplementary examination. If the student passes the supplementary examination, the new course grade will be calculated using the same weighting scheme used in the course, but with the result of the supplementary examination replacing that of the original final examination. Any additional course requirements, including a requirement to pass the laboratory component of a course, will continue to apply.

6. If the new course grade is higher than the original, it will replace the original grade on the student's transcript, subject to the condition that the final mark will not exceed the student's term mark. The student's transcript will indicate that the course result was earned as the result of a supplementary examination.

7. Supplementary examinations will be written no later than the first week of the semester immediately following the one in which the course was failed. Normally they will coincide with the writing of deferred examinations. Grades for supplementary examinations will be submitted to the Office of the Registrar within one week following the commencement of classes for that semester.

8. A student may write a supplementary examination for any one registration in a course only once; if the course result following the supplementary examination is a fail then the course must be repeated in order to obtain credit.

3.4 Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science

1. For the General Degree of Bachelor of Science a candidate will be required to complete, subject to the following Regulations, 120 credit hours applicable to the degree which shall include:

   a. Six credit hours in English courses
   b. Six credit hours in Mathematics courses
   c. Six credit hours in courses from each of two Sciences other than Mathematics

2. a. Courses shall be chosen so that a candidate shall have completed an approved concentration of courses in one subject to be known as the candidate's Major. In selecting courses in their Major, candidates must comply with the Departmental Regulations approved by the Senate and printed in the Calendar. The Departmental Regulations shall require not fewer than 36 nor more than 45 credit hours in courses from the subject of the Major (including the courses in that subject completed at the first-year level). (See also Notes 1. and 2.).

   b. The subject of the candidate's major shall be that declared by the candidate on the appropriate admission form and approved by the department at the time of admission.

   c. The 36 or more credit hours in courses from one subject referred to in a. above, may be chosen from the following subjects, and may include courses in that subject which were completed at first-year level: Biology (see Note 4.), Biochemistry (see Note 6.), Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Sciences, Economics, Geography, Mathematics (except 1150, 1151) and Statistics, Physics, Psychology.

   d. A candidate may change the subject of the Major during any Regular Registration Period provided he or she has first applied for and received acceptance by the department to which application is being made.

   e. In those Departments which offer programs leading to both a degree of Bachelor of Arts and a degree of Bachelor of Science, students are free to choose the degree program they wish to follow and may change from one to the other; however, they may not obtain both degrees in the same Major subject at this University. Students who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree should refer to the entry Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Science (Computer Science) and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) immediately following these regulations.

3. Further courses may be chosen from any of the subjects listed in Clause 2. above, or from other courses approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Science (see Note 5.), provided that, of the 120 credit hours required:

   a. candidate shall have completed at least 78 credit hours in courses from the subjects listed in Clause 2. above, including the Major courses and the courses required for admission; See Notes 3. and 5.

   b. there shall be not fewer than five subjects in which a candidate shall have completed courses. At least four of these subjects shall be chosen from the subjects listed in Clause 2. above. In the case of unspecified transfer credits awarded in a subject area not taught at Memorial University of Newfoundland any number of such transfer credits in the aggregate shall count as one subject area.

   c. not more than 15 unspecified transfer credit hours awarded in a subject area not taught at Memorial University of Newfoundland shall be used to satisfy the requirements of the degree.

4. Before a candidate registers, the Head of the Department of his or her Major, or delegate, shall approve a candidate's program which is in accordance with the above regulations. The Head of the Department or delegate shall advise each candidate of programs suitable for his or her particular needs.

5. To obtain a general degree of Bachelor of Science a candidate shall have:

   a. satisfied the conditions of UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Graduation under Application for Graduation - Degrees, Diplomas and Certificates;

   b. obtained an average of at least 2.0 points per credit hour in the 78 credit hours in Science required for the degree;

   c. obtained an average of at least 2.0 points per credit hour in the minimum number of credit hours in the major subject (or, in the case of joint majors, subjects) required for the major program (or, in the case of joint majors, programs).

6. Where a student satisfies the separate departmental regulations for a major in two or more subjects for which a specific joint program does not exist, such subjects shall be recognized as the major subjects for the general degree of Bachelor of Science.
7. A candidate may complete a minor of at least 24 credit hours in courses from a subject area other than that of the Major chosen from Clause 2. c. above or from minors available in the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Business Administration, and the School of Music. (It should be noted that because of departmental regulations for the Major, not every candidate may be able to fit a minor into his or her 120 credit hour program).
   a. The subject of the candidate’s minor shall be that declared by the candidate on the Change of Academic Program Form which must then be signed by the Head of the Department of the Minor.
   b. A candidate must follow the departmental regulations for the Minor as set forth in the appropriate section of the Calendar.
   c. The Head of the Department of the Minor will advise the candidate on the selection of courses in the Minor.
   d. Students who have taken courses appropriate to their Minor at another university are required to complete at least 6 credit hours in courses from that subject at this University. These courses must be chosen in consultation with the Head of the Department of the Minor program.
   e. A candidate must obtain a grade point average of at least 2.0 in the credit hours prescribed for the minor program.

Notes:
1. Departmental regulations are not intended to debar students from taking more than the required courses in the subject of their Major.
2. Students who have taken courses in the subject of their Major at another university are required to complete at least 12 credit hours in courses from that subject at this University.
3. Science 2010/2011 may be used to fulfill in part the requirement of 78 credit hours in Science.
4. Biology 2120 may not be used for credit by Biology Majors.
5. When Science course equivalents have been established by Department Heads for Engineering courses, credit may not be obtained for both the Engineering course and the established equivalent course offered by the Faculty of Science.
6. In the case of Biochemistry the courses for the Biochemistry program shall include Chemistry 2400 and 2401.

3.5 Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science

A program is offered leading to the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science. An Honours degree offers greater specialization in a given field of knowledge than a General degree, and requires higher than average academic achievement. Possession of this degree will be of great advantage to all students planning more advanced work in their chosen field. In many cases, an Honours degree is a prerequisite to admission to a graduate program.

1. Admission and Registration
   a. Declaration of Intent: A candidate for an Honours degree shall declare in writing his (her) intention to pursue an Honours program and to obtain an Honours degree in a specified subject or subjects: Such declaration shall be submitted to his (her) Department(s) of specialization and to the Registrar not earlier than the beginning of his (her) fifth semester, or the equivalent, at University, and not later than the final date set for the application for a degree. A candidate for an Honours degree must have completed all courses listed under Admission to the Department of Subject of Major before declaring his (her) intent to pursue an Honours degree, regardless of whether these courses had been completed at the time of admission to his (her) Department of specialization.

   Notes:
   - An otherwise qualified student who fails to declare his (her) intention to obtain an Honours degree on or before the last day of the period outlined above shall be awarded a General degree even if he (she) fulfills all other requirements for an Honours degree. The University cannot undertake to notify him (her) that he (she) may be eligible for an Honours degree.
   - At the beginning of each registration period the Head(s), or delegate(s), of the Department(s) in which a candidate is taking Honours, shall approve a candidate’s program. The Head(s) of Department(s), or delegate(s), shall advise each candidate of programs suitable for his or her particular needs.
   - Students who have been awarded a Bachelor of Science (General) degree may convert it to a Bachelor of Science (Honours) degree by declaring their intention and by completing the requirements for the Honours degree as outlined in these regulations.
   - To graduate, a candidate for an Honours degree must have completed all courses listed under Admission to the Department of Subject of Major in addition to those courses required by individual departmental regulations.

2. Course Requirements
   a. For the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science with a single subject major a candidate will be required to have completed 120 prescribed credit hours in courses. For the Joint Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science a candidate will be required to have completed either 120 or 135 credit hours as prescribed by the specific program. In either case, those courses must include the courses specified in Clause 1 of the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science.
   b. Clause 2.a. I. notwithstanding, certain Departmental regulations preclude the possibility of completing a single subject Honours degree in 120 credit hours and may require the completion of 123, 126 or 129 credit hours in courses. (See Note below).

   Note: The requirements for an Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science cannot be completed in 120 credit hours if any of the following three statements is true: (I) the student is a major in Chemistry, or Physics and has completed the former Mathematics 1080; (ii) the student is a major in Chemistry or Physics and has completed Chemistry 1800; (iii) the student is a candidate for the Honours B.Sc degree in Chemistry or Physics and has completed Physics 1021. Such students will only meet the degree requirements after completing 123, 126 or 129 credit hours in courses.

   b. Courses shall be chosen so that a candidate shall have completed:
      i. Either, (i) at least 60 credit hours from courses in one of the following subjects, including the courses in that subject completed at the first year level: Biology, Biochemistry, Chemistry, Computer Science (See Note 2.), Earth Sciences, Economics, Geography, Mathematics and Statistics, Physics and Psychology.
   Notes:
   - For options in the Biochemistry, Dietetics and Nutrition programs the courses shall be those specified in the respective programs.
   - For the Behavioural Neuroscience programs the courses shall be those specified in the program.
   - For the Environmental Physics Program, the courses shall be those specified in the program.
   - or, (ii) at least 84 credit hours in courses from two subjects listed in I. above, including the courses in these subjects completed at the first year level, with no fewer than 36 credit hours in either subject approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Science (see Note 2 of the Bachelor of Science General Degree) provided that, of the 120 or more credit hours required:
   - or, (iii) in special circumstances, a program of at least 90 credit hours in courses from two or more subjects, including the courses in these subjects completed at the first year level, one of which need not be taken from those listed in I. above, as recommended by the Heads of the Departments concerned and approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Science.
   - Further courses may be chosen from any of the subjects listed in Clause 2. b. above, or from other courses recognized for this purpose by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the Faculty of Science (see Note 5 of the Bachelor of Science General Degree) provided that, of the 120 or more credit hours required:
i. a candidate shall have completed at least 90 credit hours in courses from the subjects listed in Clause 2. b. above, including those completed at the first-year level, and

ii. there shall be no fewer than four subjects in which a candidate shall have completed courses. In the case of unspecified transfer credits awarded in a subject area not taught at Memorial University of Newfoundland, any number of such transfer credits in the aggregate shall count as one subject area.

iii. Not more than 15 unspecified transfer credit hours in courses awarded from a subject area not taught at Memorial University of Newfoundland shall be used to satisfy the requirements of the degree.

3. Comprehensive Examination and Dissertation
a. In addition to the regular examinations, a candidate in an Honours program shall pass a general comprehensive examination in his (her) Major subject or subjects. Alternatively, a candidate may be required to submit a dissertation, which at the discretion of the Head(s) of the Department(s) of specialization may be followed by an oral examination thereon.
b. If a candidate is required to submit a dissertation, such dissertation must be submitted to the University Library before the degree is conferred. All Honours dissertations in the University Library shall be available for unrestricted consultation by students and faculty except under very exceptional circumstances which must be approved by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies. Copyright remains with the author. A signed release form must accompany an essay or a dissertation when it is submitted to the University Library.
c. The deadline for the submission of Honours dissertations shall be no later than three weeks before the end of the final semester of the candidate's program.
d. The Honours dissertation shall be equivalent to either a 3 credit hour course or a 6 credit hour linked course as specified in the course offerings of each Department.

4. Departmental Regulations
Candidates for Honours Degrees shall also comply with such additional requirements of the appropriate Department(s) as are approved by the Senate and printed in the Calendar.

5. Residence Requirements
a. To qualify for an Honours Degree in Science, a candidate shall attend a recognized university or an equivalent institution for at least seven semesters as a full-time student. Honours candidates transferring credits to Memorial University of Newfoundland from other universities or equivalent institutions shall either spend a minimum of four of the seven semesters as full-time students at Memorial University of Newfoundland, and take a minimum of 24 credit hours in courses from their Honours discipline or take a minimum of 36 credit hours in courses from their Honours discipline as full-time students at Memorial University of Newfoundland (whichever is to their advantage), provided that the total number of semesters spent as full-time students at this and other recognized universities or equivalent institutions will not be less than seven.
b. To qualify for an Honours Degree in Science and additionally a second degree, a candidate shall attend this University for at least ten semesters as a full-time student, except with the special permission of the Faculty Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

6. Academic Standing
In order to graduate with an Honours degree, a candidate shall obtain:

a. a grade of "B" or better, OR an average of 75% or higher (whichever is to the candidate's advantage) in the minimum number of courses in the Honours subject (or subjects) prescribed by the Department (or, in the case of joint Honours, Departments) concerned, excluding the 1000-level courses, and
b. an average of at least 2.75 points on the total number of courses required for the degree (see UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Grading for explanation of the point system).

Note: A student may, with the approval of the Head of the Department and the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, repeat or substitute up to three courses in order to meet the requirements of Clause 6.a. above. In counting repeats, each attempt at the same course will count as one course towards the maximum. That is, the same course, repeated three times, would place a student at the maximum and no additional repeats or substitutions would be allowed.

7. Classification of Degrees
a. If the candidate's general average is 3.25 or better per required course, and his (her) average for the courses in his (her) Honours subject (excluding 1000-level courses) is 3.50 or better, he (she) shall be awarded an Honours degree with First Class standing.
b. If the candidate fulfills the conditions of Clause 6. but not of Clause 7 a., he (she) shall be awarded an Honours degree with Second Class standing.
c. No classification will be given to the degree awarded a candidate who has completed (i) fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University, or (ii) who has completed fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University since 1959. All candidates for such degrees shall, however, fulfill the conditions of Clause 6. on the courses taken at the University since September, 1959, in order to qualify for the degree.
d. A declared candidate for an Honours degree who fails to attain the academic standing specified in Clause 6. but fulfills the academic requirements for a General Degree shall be awarded a General Degree, the classification of which shall be determined in accordance with the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), Graduation.

4 Joint Programs
The following joint programs are offered by Departments in the Faculty of Science, and the regulations for each program are joint Departmental Regulations. For convenience of reference the joint programs are listed below in alphabetical sequence: Joint Honours, Joint Majors, and Joint Options.

4.1 Biochemistry (Nutrition)/Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) Joint Honours
Note: Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

The following courses (or equivalents) are required:

1. Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050, 1051), Biology 1001 and 1002, Mathematics 1000, Physics 1020 or 1050, and 1021 (or 1051), English 1080 and 1110.

2. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3106, 3200, 3201, 3202, 4002, 4300, 4301, 4502, Medicine 310A/B.

3. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3800, 3801, 3900; two further courses in Psychology chosen from the following: 3050, 3100, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650, 3750; two 4000 level courses in Psychology of which one must be a research experience course.

4. Either Biochemistry 499A/B or Psychology 499A/B.

5. Chemistry 2400, 2401 or Chemistry 2440.

6. Other courses to complete at least the prescribed minimum of 120 credit hours in courses for the Joint Honours Degree.

Notes:

1. In accordance with Clause 6.a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, Honours candidates must obtain a grade of "B" or better, or an average of 75% or higher in all the required courses listed in Clauses 2., 3., and 4. above, except those at the 1000 level.

2. Students in first year intending to follow this program should note the regulations as outlined for admission to Major programs in Psychology and that the deadline for submission of a completed application form to the Psychology Department is June 1 for the Fall semester and October 1 for the Winter semester.

4.2 Biochemistry/Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) Joint Honours

Note: Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2620.

The following courses (or equivalents) are required to complete the 120 credit hours in courses required for the degree:

1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or equivalents), Biology 1001 and 1002, Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Physics 1050 or 1020, and 1051, English 1080 and 1110.

2. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, Medicine 310A/B, either 4210 or 4211, 9 credit hours chosen from Biochemistry 4002, 4101, 4102, 4103, 4104, 4200, 4201, 4220.

Note: Only one of 4105 and 4220 may be chosen.

3. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3800, 3801, 3900, two further courses in Psychology chosen from the following: 3050, 3100, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650, 3750; two 4000 level courses in Psychology of which one must be a research experience course.

4. Either Biochemistry 499A/B or Psychology 499A/B.

5. Chemistry 2300, 2400, 2401.

Notes:

1. In accordance with Clause 6.a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, Honours candidates must obtain a grade of "B" or better, or an average of 75% or higher in all the required courses listed in Clauses 2., 3., and 4. above, except those at the 1000 level.

4.3 Physics/Biochemistry Joint Honours

The following courses are required:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalent), Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Physics 1050 and 1051 (or 1020, 1021 and 1051).

2. Chemistry 2400, 2401.

3. Chemistry 2300 or Physics 2053.

5. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, Medicine 310A/B; plus 9 credit hours in courses to be selected from Biochemistry 4002, 4101, 4102, 4103, 4104, 4200 and 4201; plus a 3 credit hour course to be selected from Biochemistry 4210 or 4211.

6. Physics 2055, 2750 or 2056, 2820, 3200, 3400, 3500, 3750, 3820, 3821, 3900, plus one 4000 level Physics course.

7. One course to be selected from Physics 3150, 3300, 3410, 3751. Physics 3751 is recommended.

8. Either Physics 490A/B or Biochemistry 499A/B.

9. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 135 credit hours in courses for the Joint Honours degree.

4.4 Chemistry/Biochemistry Joint Honours Degree

The following courses (or their equivalents) are required:

1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 and 1031) or their equivalents, Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Physics 1050 and 1051, 6 credit hours in first year English courses. Biology 1001 and 1002 are highly recommended.

3. Chemistry 2210, 2300, 2400, 2401, 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3410, 3411, 3500; 6 credit hours in Chemistry courses at the 4000 level.

4. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, Medicine 310A/B, either Biochemistry 4210 or 4211, 9 credit hours chosen from Biochemistry 4002, 4101, 4102, 4103, 4104, 4105 or 4220, 4200.

5. Either Chemistry 490A/B or Biochemistry 499A/B.

6. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 135 credit hours in courses for the Joint Honours Degree. Physics 2820 and/ or Physics 2750 are recommended.

4.5 Cell Biology and Biochemistry Joint Honours

Students must have at least an overall average of 65% in English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalents), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Biology 1001 and 1002, Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or equivalents), Physics 1050 and 1051 (or 1020, 1021 and 1051).

The following courses, including prerequisites where applicable, will be required.

1. Biochemistry 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, either 4210 or 4211, 12 credit hours chosen from 4002, 4101, 4102, 4103, 4104, 4105, 4200, 4201.

2.  Biology 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900, 3050 and 9 credit hours chosen from 3500, 3530, 3620, 4000, 4200, 4241. In addition, further Biology courses at the 2000, 3000, or 4000 level must be selected by the student to make up a minimum of 42 credit hours in Biology including Biology 1001 and 1002 but not including Biology 499A or 499B.

3. Either Medicine 310A/B, or Biology 3401 plus one of Biology 3402, 4245 or 4404.
4. Chemistry 2300, 2400, 2401, 3100; either 3410 or 3411.
5. Statistics 2550 or equivalent.
7. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 135 credit hours in courses for the Joint Honours Degree.

Note: Students may count only one of the two courses, Biochemistry 4105 or Biology 4200, for credit in this program.

The topic of the Honours dissertation must be chosen with the approval of both Departments. A faculty member of either Department may act as supervisor.

Seventy-eight credit hours in Biology, Biochemistry and Chemistry courses beyond the first-year level from those listed in the program shall contribute to those in which a grade of "B" or an average of 75 or higher is required. Medicine 310A/B counts as Biochemistry for these eighty-eight credit hours.

4.6 Biology and Earth Sciences Joint Honours

The following courses, including prerequisites where applicable, will be required:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalents), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Biology 1001 and 1002, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051), Physics 1020 and 1021 (or 1050 and 1051).
2. Chemistry 2440, Biochemistry 2101, Biochemistry 3106, one of Statistics 2550, 2560 or 2510.
3. Biology 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900, one of 3401, 3402, 4245 or 4404; plus Biology 3710, 3711, and 4505. In addition, further Biology courses at the 2000, 3000, or 4000 level must be selected by the student in consultation with the supervisor to make up a minimum of 42 credit hours in Biology not including Biology 499A or 499B.
4. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2502, 2905; plus a minimum of 24 credit hours in other Earth Science courses from 2000 to 4000 level, at least 3 credit hours of which must be at 4000 level. Earth Sciences 2150, 2914, 2915, 2916, and 4310 cannot be used to fulfill this requirement. Career-related streams outlined in the departmental Student Handbook should be used as a guide to course selection so as to achieve a concentration in one facet of Earth Sciences.
5. An Honours dissertation (Biology 499A/B or Earth Sciences 499A/B). The topic of the Honours dissertation must be chosen with the approval of both Department Heads. A faculty member of either Department may act as supervisor.
6. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 135 credit hours in courses for the Honours degree, with at least 84 credit hours in courses in Biology and Earth Sciences combined.

Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.7 Biology/Psychology Joint Honours

Note: Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

The following forty courses (or equivalents) are required:
1. Biology 1001, 1002, 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900; one of 3401, 3402, 4245 or 4404; four Biology electives at the 2000, 3000 or 4000 level not including Biology 499A or 499B.
2. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3250, 3800 or 3801; 3900, 4910; one of the following: 3050, 3100, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650; one further 4000 level Psychology research experience course.
3. Biology or Psychology 3750, 4701, 499A/B.
4. English 1080 and 1110; Mathematics 1000; Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051), and 2440; Physics 1020 (or 1050) and 1021 (or 1051); Biochemistry 2101 and 3106.
5. Other courses, if necessary, to complete at least 120 credit hours of courses.

4.8 Biology/Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) Joint Honours

Note: Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

The following forty courses (or equivalents) are required:
1. Biology 1001, 1002, 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900; one of 3401, 3402, 4245 or 4404; five Biology electives at the 2000, 3000 or 4000 level not including Biology 499A or 499B.
2. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3250, 3800 or 3801; 3900, 4910; one of the following: 3050, 3100, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650; one further 4000 level Psychology research experience course.
3. Biology or Psychology 3750, 4701, 499A/B.
4. English 1080 and 1110; Mathematics 1000; Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051), and 2440; Physics 1020 (or 1050) and 1021 (or 1051); Biochemistry 2101 and 3106.
5. Other courses, if necessary, to complete at least 120 credit hours of courses.

Note: In accordance with Clause 6.a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, Honours candidates must obtain a grade of "B" or better, OR average of 75% or higher in all the required courses listed in Clauses 1, 2, 3, and 4 above, except those at the 1000 level.

4.9 Statistics/Biology Joint Honours (B.Sc. Only)

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. Students shall complete the following requirements:
1. Mathematics 1000 and Mathematics 1001, Biology 1001 and 1002, English 1080 and 1110, Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051), Physics 1020 and 1021, or equivalents;
2. Mathematics 2000, 2050, 2051, Statistics 2500 or 2510, 2501 or 2560 or 2511, 3520, 3521, 3530, and 4581;
3. nine further credit hours in Statistics courses (excluding those with second digit 0) including at least 6 credit hours in courses at the 4000 level or higher but not including Statistics 4599;
4. Chemistry 2440 (or 2400 and 2401). Biochemistry 2101 and 3106. Computer Science 2602;
5. Biology 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900, one of 3401, 3402, 4245, or 4404. In addition, further Biology courses at the 2000, 3000 or 4000 level must be selected by the student in consultation with the supervisor to make up a minimum of 42 credit hours in Biology but not including Biology 499A or 499B.

4.10 Joint Honours in Computer Science and Geography (B.Sc. Only)
1. Computer Science Requirements
   See General Regulations for the Honours Degree.
   Forty-eight credit hours in Computer Science courses are required for the Joint Honours:
   a. 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4751 and 4770.
   b. Six additional credit hours in courses at the 4000 level not including 4780.
   c. Three additional credit hours in courses at the 3000 level or beyond.
2. Geography Requirements
   Forty-eight credit hours in Geography courses are required for the Joint Honours: 1050, 2001, 2102, 2195, 2226, 2302, 2425, 3202, 3222, 3226, 3250, 3260, 3303, 4202, 4250, 4261, and 4291.
3. Additional Requirements
   b. An Honours Dissertation (either Computer Science 4780 or Geography 4999). The topic for dissertation must be chosen with the prior approval of the Heads of both Departments.

4.11 Joint Honours in Computer Science and Physics
The following courses are prescribed:
1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031).
2. a. Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3731, 3754 and 4770.
   b. Nine additional credit hours in Computer Science courses numbered 3000 or higher, including at least 6 credit hours in courses numbered 4000 or higher.
3. a. Physics 1050 and 1051, or Physics 1020, 1021 and 1051.
   b. Physics 2053, 2055, 2750 or 2056, 2820, 3220, 3400, 3500, 3820, 3821, 4500, and 3220 or 3900.
4. Physics 490A/B or Computer Science 4780.
5. Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
Statistics 2510 is recommended.
The topic for the Honours project or thesis, Computer Science 4780 or Physics 490A/B, must be chosen with the prior approval of both Departments.

4.12 Joint Honours in Geography/Earth Sciences (B.Sc. Only)
The following courses will be required. A few prerequisites are not met by this list of courses, and students are advised to obtain advice from instructors in such cases to be sure that they are prepared for course material. Both departmental Heads can advise students on a workable sequencing of courses to complete the degree in a timely manner.
1. Six credit hours in first-year English courses; Geography 1050; Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002; Mathematics 1000 and 1001; Chemistry 1010 and 1011 or equivalent; Physics 1050 and (1051 or the former 1054) OR Physics 1020 and 1021.
2. One of Geography 3222, Statistics 2500, 2510.
3. Biology 2120 or Biology 1001 and 1002.
4. Geography 2102, 2195, 2302, 2425, 3230.
5. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2502 and 2905.
6. Either Earth Sciences 499A and 499B, or Geography 4990 and 4999.
7. Twenty-one additional credit hours in Geography courses, of which at least 12 credit hours must be selected from the group Geography 2200, 3110, 3120, 3140, 3150, 3250, 3425, and of which at least 6 credit hours must be in courses at the 4000 level.
8. Twenty-one additional credit hours in Earth Sciences courses, of which at least 9 credit hours must be in courses at 3000 level and at least 6 credit hours must be in courses at 4000 level. Earth Sciences 2150, 2914, 2915, 2916 and 4310 cannot be used to fulfill this requirement.
9. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 120 credit hours.
The topic of the Honours dissertation must be chosen with the approval of both Departments. A faculty member of either Department may act as supervisor.
Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.13 Statistics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. Only)
See General Regulations for Honours Degree. In addition to Mathematics 1000 and 1001 the following courses numbered 2000 or higher are required:
2. Twenty-four further credit hours in Statistics courses (excluding those with second digit 0) including at least 12 credit hours in courses numbered 4000 or higher, but not including Statistics 4599 and 4581;
3. Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4734, and 4770.
4. Six additional credit hours in Computer Science courses at the 4000 level, not including 4780.
5. Either Computer Science 4780 or Statistics 4599.

4.14 Earth Sciences/Chemistry Joint Honours
The following courses, including prerequisites, where applicable, will be required:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalents), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or 1010, 1011 and 1031) or their equivalents, Physics 1050 and 1051 (or 1020 and 1021) and 1051.
2. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2401, 2502, 2702, 2905, 3420, 3600; one of 3053, 3054 or 3055; at least one of Earth Sciences 3210 or 3811; plus 9 additional credit hours in Earth Sciences Courses.
3. Chemistry 2210, 2300, 2400, 2401, 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3410, 3411, 3500, and at least 3 credit hours in Chemistry courses at the 4000 level.
5. Physics 2820.
6. Biology 2120 (or Biology 1001 and 1002).
7. An Honours Dissertation (Earth Sciences 499A/B or Chemistry 490A/B). The topic of the Honours Dissertation must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments. A faculty member of either Department may act as supervisor.
8. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 135 credit hours.
Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.15 Joint Honours in Earth Sciences/Physics
This program was formerly in the Earth Sciences section of the calendar as an Honours B.Sc. Degree in Geophysics. The following courses will be required:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalent), Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or equivalent), Physics 1050 and 1051 (or Physics 1020, 1021 and 1051).
2. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2401, 2502, 2905, 3170, 3172, 3420, 4105, 4171, 4173, 4179, 499A/B.
3. Physics 2055, 2750 or 2056, 2820, 3220, 3230, 3500, 3820, 3821; plus 9 other credit hours in Physics courses at 3000 level or higher.
4. One of Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
6. Other courses to complete at least a minimum of 120 credit hours.
Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.16 Joint Honours in Geophysics and Physical Oceanography
The program requires the following courses:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalent), Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, Physics 1050 and 1051 (or Physics 1020, 1021 and 1051).
2. Earth Sciences 2905, 3170, 3172, 4105, 4171, 4173, 4179 and 10 credit hours at the 2000 level or higher with at least 3 credit hours at the 3000 level.
3. Physics 2053, 2055, 2820, 3220, 3300, 3500, 3820, 3821, 4205; 4300; 4330 plus one of Physics 3600, 3150, 3400, 3550 or 3900.
5. Either Earth Sciences 499A and 499B or Physics 490A and 490B.
6. Other courses to complete the prescribed minimum of 120 credit hours.
Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.17 Applied Mathematics/Chemistry Joint Honours (B.Sc. Only)
See General Regulations for Honours Degree. In addition, Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 and 1031), Mathematics 1000, and 1001, Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051, the following courses numbered 2000 or higher are required:

1. Chemistry 2210, 2300, 2400, 2401, 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3500, 4300, 4302, and a 3 credit hour Chemistry elective.
3. Physics 2055, 2056 or 2750, 2820, 3220 and 3230.
4. Either Applied Mathematics 419A/B or Chemistry 490A/B.
The following courses are recommended:

4.18 Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. Only)
See General Regulations for Honours Degree. Students shall complete the following:
At least 51 credit hours in Computer Science courses are required including the following:

1. 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, and 4770.
2. Excluding 4780, 15 additional credit hours from courses numbered 3000 or higher, at least 9 credit hours of which must be in courses at the 4000 level.
The following courses in Mathematics and Statistics are required:
2. Excluding Pure Mathematics 4399, 15 additional credit hours in courses offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.
numbered 3000 or higher including at least 9 credit hours from courses numbered 4000 or higher and at least 9 credit hours in Pure Mathematics courses;

3. An Honours Dissertation in one of the departments, with the topic chosen in consultation with both departments.

Note: There is an Undergraduate Advisor in each Department. These advisors should be consulted on all academic matters.

4.19 Pure Mathematics/Statistics Joint Honours

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. In addition to Mathematics 1000 and 1001 the following courses numbered 2000 or higher are required:

2. A computing course early in the program is required. Computer Science 1510 is highly recommended;
3. either Pure Mathematics 4399 or Statistics 4599;
4. one of: Pure Mathematics 3301, 3330, or 3340;
5. Twenty-one further credit hours in Pure Mathematics and/or Statistics courses numbered 3000 or higher of which at least 12 credit hours must be from courses numbered 4000 or higher excluding Statistics 4581.

4.20 Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Honours

The following courses are required:

1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent).
2. A computing course. Computer Science 1510 is recommended.
3. Six credit hours in a science other than Mathematics or Physics (if Computer Science is chosen then Computer Science 1510 may be counted as three of these hours).
5. At least one of Applied Mathematics 2130 or Pure Mathematics 2320.
6. Physics 1050 (or 1020), 1051, 2053, 2055, 2750 (or 2056), 2820, 3220, 3230, 3400, 3500, 3750.
7. Three additional credit hours chosen from courses numbered 3000 or higher that are offered by the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography.
9. Physics 490A/B or Applied Mathematics 419A/B.
10. Twelve additional credit hours chosen from courses numbered 4000 or higher that are offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics or the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography. At least 3 credit hours must be selected in each of Applied Mathematics and Physics.
11. A sufficient number of elective courses to bring the degree to a total of 120 credit hours.

The topic for the Honours project or thesis, Applied Mathematics 4199 or Physics 490A/B must be chosen with the prior approval of both departments.

4.21 Physics/Chemistry Joint Honours

The following courses are prescribed:

2. Physics 1050 (or 1020 and 1021) and 1051.
3. A minimum of 45 additional credit hours in Physics courses, which shall include 2055, 2750 or 2056, 2820, 3220, 3230, 3500, 3750, 3820, 3821, 3900, and 3 credit hours in a Physics course numbered 3000 or higher and 12 credit hours in Physics courses numbered 4000 or higher.
4. Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
5. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 and 1031), 2210, 2300, 2400, 2401 and 30 credit hours in Chemistry courses numbered 3000 or higher including 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3500, 4300 and 4302.
6. The courses selected in accordance with 3. and 5. above shall include Chemistry 490A/B or Physics 490A/B.

The topic for the Honours thesis, Chemistry 490A/B or Physics 490A/B, must be chosen with the prior approval of both Departments.

4.22 Joint Major in Computer Science and Economics (B.Sc. Only)

1. Computer Science Requirements

Forty-two credit hours in Computer Science courses are required: 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3731, 3753, 3754, and 4770.

2. Economics requirements

A total of 42 credit hours in Economics courses are required: 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3001, 3010, and 6 credit hours from either 3550 and 3551, or 4550 and 4551 are obligatory.

The remaining 18 credit hours shall be chosen from among the various Economics courses in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, and will include at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 4000 level.

4.23 Joint Major in Computer Science and Geography (B.Sc. Only)

1. Computer Science Requirements

Thirty-nine credit hours in Computer Science courses are required: 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4751, and 4770.
2. Geography Requirements

Thirty-nine credit hours in Geography courses are required: 1050, 2001, 2102, 2195, 2302, 2425, 3202, 3222, 3250, 3260, 4202, 4250, 4261.

4.24 Applied Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. Only)

The following courses are required:

1. Computer Science 1710, 2711, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4770, plus 6 further credit hours in Computer Science courses numbered 3000 or higher.

In addition, Statistics 2510 is highly recommended.

4.25 Joint Major in Pure Mathematics and Economics (B.Sc. Only)

2. A computing course early in the program is required. Computer Science 1510 is highly recommended.
3. Economics: 2010, 2020, 2550, 3000, 3000, 3010, and 6 credit hours from either 3550 and 3551, or 4550 and 4551.
4. Eighteen further credit hours chosen from among the various Economics courses in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, including at least 9 credit hours at the 4000 level.

4.26 Statistics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. Only)

In addition to Mathematics 1000, 1001, and Computer Science 1710, the following courses numbered 2000 or higher are required:

1. 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4734, and 4770.
2. Statistics 2510 and 2560.
4. Nine further credit hours in Statistics courses numbered 3000 or higher including at least 3 credit hour course numbered 4000 or higher excluding Statistics 4581.

4.27 Joint Major in Applied Mathematics and Economics (B.Sc. Only)

2. Either Applied Mathematics 3132 and 4131 or 3161 and 4160.
3. A computing course early in the program is required. Computer Science 1510 is highly recommended.
5. At least 9 credit hours at the 4000 level.

4.28 Joint Major in Applied Mathematics and Physics (B.Sc. Only)

Required course for this degree are:

1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent).
2. A computing course. Computer Science 1510 is recommended.
3. Six credit hours in science other than Mathematics or Physics (if Computer Science is chosen then Computer Science 1510 may be counted as 3 of these hours).
5. At least one of Applied Mathematics 2130 or Pure Mathematics 2320.
6. Physics 1050 (or 1051), 1051, 2053, 2055, 2750 (or 2056), 2820, 3220, 3400, 3500, 3750.
7. Applied Mathematics 3161 or Physics 3820.
8. At least 15 additional credit hours chosen from Applied Mathematics and Physics courses numbered 3000 or above. At least 3 hours are required from Applied Mathematics and 6 hours are required from Physics.
9. A writing course. Any one of Applied Mathematics 2130, Physics 3900, Applied Mathematics 4199, or Physics 490A/B is acceptable.

The last requirement does not have to be met independently of the other regulations. For example, it can be satisfied either by choosing Applied Mathematics 2130 from clause 5. above or choosing Physics 3900 as a 3000+ elective in clause 8. above.

4.29 Joint Major in Computer Science and Physics

1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031).
2. Thirty-nine credit hours in Computer Science are required for the Major: 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3731, 3734, and 4770.
3. Physics 1050 and 1051 (or 1020, 1021 and 1051) plus at least 30 additional credit hours in Physics including 2053, 2055, 2750 (or 2056), 2820, 3220, 3400, 3500, 3550, 3750 and 3900.
6. Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
4.30 Joint Major in Earth Sciences/Physics

This program was formerly in the Earth Sciences section of the calendar as a General B.Sc. Degree in Geophysics. The following courses will be required:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalents), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or equivalent), Physics 1050 and 1051 (or Physics 1020, 1021 and 1051).
2. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2401, 2502, 2905, 3170, 3172, 3420; plus a 3 credit hour course in Earth Sciences 4100 series.
3. at least 30 credit hours in Physics courses at the 2000 level or higher, including Physics 2055, 2056 or 2750, 2820, 3220, 3500.
4. One of Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
6. Other courses to complete at least a minimum requirement of 120 credit hours in courses for the General Degree.

Any change in the program of study must have the prior approval of the Heads of the two Departments concerned.

4.31 Joint Major in Statistics and Economics (B.Sc. Only)

2. Six further credit hours in Statistics courses numbered 3000 or higher, at least 3 credit hours of which must be numbered 4000 or higher, excluding Statistics 3521 and 4581.
4. Eighteen further credit hours chosen from among the various Economics courses in consultation with the Head of the Department or delegate, including at least 9 credit hours at the 4000 level.

4.32 Joint Major in Statistics and Economics (Co-operative) (B.Sc. Only)

The Joint Major in Statistics and Economics Co-operative Education Option is available to full-time Economics and Statistics majors (B. Sc.) only. The program is available under the Economics Co-operative Education Option (ECEO).

The ECEO provides an excellent mutual opportunity for students and employers. Qualified students will obtain rewarding employment experience in fields related to Economics for several months of continuous duration. Students will learn valuable practical skills in an employment situation during their course of study. Furthermore, paid employment will help to defray the cost of their education. The timing of the Work Terms and the structure of the ECEO generally are such that employers stand to gain from the acquired employable skills of economists and statisticians in training. The objectives of the Work Term component of the ECEO are embodied in the Work Term descriptions below. The descriptions serve to guide the student and the employer toward achieving these objectives.

1. Admission Requirements
   a. Admission is competitive and selective. Therefore, prospective students are encouraged to consider an alternate degree program in the event that they are not accepted into the Joint Co-operative program.
   b. Applicants should note that it is possible to enter Term 1 only in the Fall semester commencing in September of each academic year. Application forms are available in the Department of Economics and the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. The deadline for applications for admission to Term 1 is March 1.
   c. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission is overall academic achievement. Students with weak overall academic records are unlikely to be admitted.
   d. To be eligible for admission to Term 1 an applicant must have successfully completed a minimum of 30 credit hours with an overall average of at least 65% as follows: All applicants must have completed Economics 2010 and 2020; at least 6 credit hours in English*, Mathematics 1000 and 1001; and 12 credit hours chosen from courses in the Faculties of Arts or Science.
   *It is recommended that students complete English 1110, Critical Reading and Writing II (Context, Substance, Style) as one of these English courses.
   e. Students may apply for admission to Advanced Standing.
   f. Transfer students from other universities will be placed in that term of the program judged to be appropriate considering equivalent credits, as determined by the Departments.

2. Program of Study
   a. Promotion from each of Terms 1 through 6 requires a passing grade in all specified required courses and an overall average of at least 60% in all courses, including electives. A student who fails a required course or fails to maintain an overall average of 60% will not be promoted to the next term and will be required to withdraw from the program. The student in question may apply for readmission in a subsequent year after passing the specified required course(s) previously failed, or re-establishing the 60% average.
   b. In addition to the 30 credit hours required for admission, students are required to complete the six academic terms in the ECEO program for a total of 120 credit hours. Students must complete three Work Terms which follow Academic Terms 2, 4, and 5.
   c. Courses shall normally be taken in academic terms or “blocks” in the sequenced course load and order set out in the Academic Course Program Joint Major (Co-operative) Table. Unspecified credits may be used to fulfill elective requirements only.
   d. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) - Classification of Students notwithstanding, students do not require special permission to register for courses while on work terms if the courses are in addition to the prescribed program.

3. Work Term Placement

See Departmental Regulations in Economics for the Major in Economics (Co-operative), in the Faculty of Arts section of the Calendar.

4. Registration and Evaluation of Performance

See Departmental Regulations in Economics for the Major in Economics (Co-operative), in the Faculty of Arts section of the Calendar.

Notes:
1. Another 1000-level Computer Science course may be substituted for Computer Science 1700 with the Heads' approvals.
2. Elective courses should be chosen with reference to the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science, since courses specified for admission to and completion of the program only partially satisfy these regulations. In particular note that in addition to the 78 credit hours (26 courses) in Science subjects required, at least 3 credit hours in a Science subject other than Mathematics/Statistics, Economics and Computer Science must be completed.

4.33 Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. Only)

In addition to Mathematics 1000, 1001, and Computer Science 1710, the following courses numbered 2000 or higher are required:

1. 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, and 4770.
2. Six additional credit hours in Computer Science courses numbered 3000 or higher.
4. Nine additional credit hours in courses numbered 3000 or higher offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

4.34 Physics/Chemistry Option Programs

Students who follow the five-year Physics/Chemistry Joint Honours Program of courses outlined above either as Honours students or otherwise and who satisfy all relevant course regulations except those on Academic Standing for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science shall receive on their University records a notation that they followed the “Physics/Chemistry” Option Programs.

Students who intend to follow a joint degree program are strongly recommended to consult the Head of the Department or delegate at their earliest opportunity to ensure proper planning of their course sequence.

4.35 Joint Degrees of Bachelor of Science (Computer Science) and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)

For students registered in a program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science majoring in Computer Science who are concurrently completing the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree, the number of credit hours required to comply with clause 3. a. of the Degree Regulation for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science will be reduced to 69 credit hours. This adjustment will be permitted only for students who are graduating with the Bachelor of Science degree (majoring in Computer Science) and the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree at the same convocation. In order to meet all of the requirements of both degree programs at the same time, students who are completing the joint degrees are strongly advised to follow the Suggested Program of Studies outlined below, and to seek advice from the Department of Computer Science and the Faculty of Business Administration in order to ensure that their proposed program is possible within the constraints of course scheduling and prerequisites.

Suggested Program of Studies: Bachelor of Science (Computer Science) and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) Prior to admission to the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program:

For the joint degrees of Bachelor of Science majoring in Computer Science and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative), students must successfully complete a minimum of 150 credit hours in courses applicable to the degrees. To be eligible for admission to Term 1 of the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) program, an applicant must have successfully completed 30 credit hours with an overall average of at least 65% on the courses comprising those credit hours. For the Joint Degree, the 30 credit hours must comprise:

1. Six credit hours in English courses;
2. Six credit hours in Mathematics courses, which must include Mathematics 1000;
3. Economics 2010 and 2020;
4. Business 1000;
5. Computer Science 1710;
6. Six additional credit hours in Science electives. Following admission to the Joint Program, the curriculum is as set out in the table below.

Please refer to the calendar entry for the Faculty of Business Administration for complete course descriptions, regulations and plan of operation for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) component of the degree, and to the entry for Computer Science for the Computer Science course descriptions.

|                 | 1 Computer Science elective
|                 | Six credit hours of electives [see Note 3 below]

Notes:
1. Students are advised that, in order to complete the joint degrees within the minimum 150 credit hours, they should be prepared to complete at least three of the courses required for the degree of Bachelor of Science as opportunities arise and as courses are offered. Following Term Two of the program for the Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative) degree, these courses may be completed during the Spring semester between Terms 2 and 3, or during any of the three Work Terms (for example, in the evening or by distance), or during Terms 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 (following submission of a course-load waiver).
2. To meet the requirements for the Joint Degree in the minimum number of 150 credit hours, careful planning, particularly in the selection of elective courses as well as in the sequence of Major program courses, is recommended to ensure timely completion. Also note that, in order to meet the Science general regulations, students must have completed courses in at least four areas of Science.
3. Six credit hours must be Business electives and 6 credit hours must be Science electives.

5. Waiver of Regulations for Undergraduate Students

Where circumstances warrant, any prerequisite or prerequisites listed in Departmental Regulations may be waived by the Head of the Department. Any Department Regulations may be waived by the appropriate Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon request of the Head of the Department concerned.

6. Program Regulations and Course Descriptions

6.1 Biochemistry

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:

1. Major or Honours in Biochemistry
2. Major or Honours in Nutrition
3. Major or Honours in Dietetics - Admission to this program is under review. For further information see Important Note under Professional Program in Dietetics.
4. Joint Honours in Biochemistry and Cell Biology/Microbiology
5. Joint Honours in Biochemistry and Chemistry
6. Joint Honours in Biochemistry and Physics
7. Joint Honours in Biochemistry (Nutrition)/Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience)
8. Joint Honours in Biochemistry/Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience)
9. Minor in Biochemistry
10. Minor in Nutrition

Students who wish to enrol in any of these programs should plan their program well in advance so that they will have taken the appropriate prerequisites. Entry to a number of required courses is limited and will be determined by academic performance. Required courses should be taken in the year indicated by the course numbers so as to avoid timetabling clashes and missing prerequisites which could prolong the time necessary to complete the program. Students are advised to consult with the Department at the earliest opportunity.

Candidates for the general and honours degrees in the programs above should refer to the University Regulations - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate) for the General and Honours degrees of Bachelor of Science.

Students who intend to pursue graduate studies should take the courses leading to the honours degree.

Note: Supplementary examinations will be allowed in certain Biochemistry courses which have written final examinations. Students should refer to the Faculty of Science Degree Regulations for details.

6.1.1 Admission to Programs

Students who wish to declare a Major in Biochemistry or Biochemistry (Nutrition) or who wish to apply for Honours standing in any of our programs are strongly recommended to do so by June 30 in any year. Students who do not declare by this date may not be considered for departmental scholarship or other awards.

Note: For further information see regulations governing admission to Biochemistry (Dietetics).

6.1.2 Major in Biochemistry

Entry to the Biochemistry Majors program is based on academic standing.

1. To be considered for admission to the program students must have at least 30 credit hours in courses and have successfully completed the following courses (or their equivalents) with a minimum overall average of 60%. In addition, students must be eligible for entry to Chemistry 2400.
   a. English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
   b. Chemistry 1050, 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 or 1201, 1001)
   c. Mathematics 1000, 1011 (or Math 1090, 1000)
   d. Physics 1050, 1051 (or Physics 1020, 1021), or Biology 1001, 1002

2. Required courses to complete the major:
   a. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108.
   b. At least 12 credit hours in courses from Biochemistry 3200, 4002, 4101, 4103, 4104, 4200, 4201.
   c. Medicine 310A, 310B or 6 credit hours from Biology 2060, 3050, 3401, 3402, 3530, 4200, 4245, 4404, Chemistry 4201
   d. Biology 1001 and 1002; Mathematics 1001; and Physics 1020 or 1050, and 1051 for those students who did not complete them in first year. Students may also need to complete Physics 1021 in order to fulfill this requirement.
   e. Chemistry 1031 which is strongly advised to be taken prior to second year for those students who complete Chemistry 1010 and 1011 in first year. see Note 2. below.
   f. Chemistry 2300, 2400, 2401
   g. one of Chemistry 3100, Environmental Sciences 3210, Environmental Sciences 3211.

Notes:
1. Students are required to complete at least 78 credit hours in Science courses for the General Degree.
2. Majors who take Chemistry 1010/1011 but not Chemistry 1031 as part of their first year sequence risk waiting a whole year before they can continue taking Biochemistry program courses.
3. For the purposes of a Biochemistry degree, Medicine 310A and 310B count as Biochemistry courses.

3. Students are encouraged to choose a minor.

6.1.2.1 Honours Degree in Biochemistry

Students normally should apply for an Honours program at the completion of their third year of studies. Honours students would normally follow the Biochemistry Majors program before applying to honours, and must meet its admissions requirements as follows:

1. To be considered for admission to the majors program prior to admission to honours, students must have at least 30 credit hours in courses and have successfully completed the following courses (or their equivalents) with a minimum overall average of 60%. In addition, students must be eligible for entry to Chemistry 2400.
   a. English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
   b. Chemistry 1050, 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, or 1201, 1001)
   c. Mathematics 1000, 1001 (or Mathematics 1090, 1000)
   d. Physics 1050, 1051 (or Physics 1020, 1021) or Biology 1001, 1002

2. To be eligible for admission, students must be in Honours standing. To be considered for early admission to an Honours program in Biochemistry at the end of second year, students must have achieved at least 70% in each of Biochemistry 2100 and 2101 and Chemistry 2400, 2401.

3. Required courses:
   a. Biochemistry 2100, 2101, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, 4102, 4201.
   b. Mathematics 1000, 1001.
   c. Twelve credit hours in courses from Biochemistry 4002, 4101, 4103, 4104, 4200, 4201.
   d. At least 6 credit hours in courses from Biochemistry 3200, 3201, 4105, 4220, Biology 2060, 3050, 3530, 4200, 4245, 4404, Chemistry 4201.
To be considered for admission to the program students must have at least 30 credit hours in courses and have successfully completed the following courses (or their equivalents) with a minimum overall average of 60%:

- English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
- Chemistry 1050, 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, or 1201, 1001)
- Mathematics 1090, 1000 (or Mathematics 1000 and one elective)
- Biology 1001, 1002 or Physics 1020, 1021 (or equivalent)

2. Required courses to complete the major:
   - Biochemistry 2000, 2100, 2101, 3106, 3200, 3201, 3202, 3402, 4300, 4301, Medicine 310A, 310B
   - One of Biochemistry 3107, 3108, 4002
   - Biology 1001 and 1002 and Physics 1020 and 1021 (or equivalent), for those students who did not complete them in first year
   - Chemistry 2440, or Chemistry 2440 and 3 additional credit hours from the Biochemistry courses listed in 3. above.
   - Course prerequisites stipulated in the course descriptions shall apply to a minor in Biochemistry.

3. Students are encouraged to choose a minor.

Notes:
1. Students who take a minor in Biochemistry will complete:
   - Biochemistry 2101, 3106
   - Either Biochemistry 2100 or Biology 2250
   - Nine credit hours from Biochemistry 3105, 3107, 3108, 4002, 4101, 4103, 4104, 4200, 4201; or 6 credit hours from these Biochemistry courses and 3 credit hours from Chemistry 4201, Biology 2060, 3050.
   - Either Chemistry 2400, 2401 or Chemistry 2440 and 3 additional credit hours from the Biochemistry courses listed in 3. above.

4. Entry to the Nutrition majors program is based on academic standing.
1. To be considered for admission to the program students must have at least 30 credit hours in courses and have successfully completed the following courses (or their equivalents) with a minimum overall average of 60%:
   - English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
   - Biology 1001, 1002 or Physics 1020, 1021 (or equivalent)
   - Mathematics 1090, 1000 (or Mathematics 1000 and one elective)

2. Required courses to complete the major:
   - Biochemistry 2000, 2100, 2101, 3106, 3200, 3201, 3202, 3402, 4300, 4301, Medicine 310A, 310B
   - One of Biochemistry 3107, 3108, 4002
   - Biology 1001 and 1002 and Physics 1020 and 1021 (or equivalent), for those students who did not complete them in first year
   - Chemistry 2440, or Chemistry 2440 and 3 additional credit hours from the Biochemistry courses listed in 3. above.
   - Course prerequisites stipulated in the course descriptions shall apply to a minor in Biochemistry.

6.1.3 Nutrition Program

6.1.3.1 Major in Nutrition

1. Students are required to complete at least 78 credit hours in Science courses for the General Degree.
2. Students who choose to complete Chemistry 2400/2401 are advised to take the appropriate prerequisites for those courses.

3. Students are encouraged to choose a minor.

Notes:
1. Students are required to complete at least 78 credit hours in Science courses for the General Degree.
2. Students who choose to complete Chemistry 2400/2401 are advised to take the appropriate prerequisites for those courses.
3. For the purposes of a Biochemistry (Nutrition) degree, Medicine 310A and 310B count as Biochemistry courses.

6.1.3.2 Honours Degree in Nutrition

Students normally should apply for an Honours program at the completion of their third year of studies. Honours students would normally follow the Biochemistry (Nutrition) Majors program before applying to honours, and must meet its admissions requirements as follows:

1. To be considered for admission to the majors program prior to admission to honours, students must have at least 30 credit hours in courses and have successfully completed the following courses (or their equivalents) with a minimum overall average of 60%:
   - English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
   - Chemistry 1050, 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 or 1201, 1001)
   - Mathematics 1090, 1000 (or Mathematics 1000 and one elective)
   - Biology 1001, 1002 or Physics 1020, 1021 (or equivalent)

2. To be eligible for admission to the honours program, students must be in Honours standing. To be considered for early admission to an Honours program in Nutrition at the end of second year, students must have achieved at least 70% in each of their required 2000 level Biochemistry and Chemistry courses.

3. Required courses:
   - Biochemistry 2000, 2100, 2101, 3106, 3107, 3108, 3200, 3201, 3202, 3402, 4002, 4300, 4301, 4502, Medicine 310A, 310B
   - Nine additional credit hours chosen from Biochemistry 3105, 3108, 4101, 4103, 4104, 4105, 4200, 4201, 4210, 4211, 4220, 4400, Biology 3050.
   - Either Biochemistry 499A/B or 4999 plus an additional 3 credit hours 4000 level Biochemistry course.
   - Biology 1001 and 1002; and Physics 1020 and 1021 (or equivalent), for those students who did not complete them in first year.
   - Chemistry 2440, or Chemistry 2440 and 3 additional credit hours from the Biochemistry courses listed in 3. above.
   - Course prerequisites stipulated in the course descriptions shall apply to a minor in Biochemistry.

4. Students are encouraged to choose a minor.
5. Those courses in which the grades specified in clause 6.a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science are 60 credit hours chosen from Biochemistry courses and Biology 3050.

Notes: 1. Students who choose to complete Chemistry 2400/2401 are advised to take the appropriate prerequisites for those courses.
2. For the purposes of a Biochemistry (Nutrition) Honours degree, Medicine 310A and 310B count as Biochemistry courses.

6.1.3.3 Minor in Nutrition
Students who take a minor in Nutrition will complete:
1. Biochemistry 2101, 3106, 3200, 3201, Medicine 310A, 310B.
2. Six credit hours chosen from Biochemistry 3202, 4300, 4301.

Course prerequisites stipulated in the course descriptions shall apply to a minor in Nutrition. In particular, students should note that one of Chemistry 2440 or Chemistry 2401 are required as co-requisites or prerequisites to several courses.

6.1.4 Professional Program in Dietetics
For professional qualification as a dietitian, students are required to complete the degree in Dietetics, followed by an approved Dietetic Internship.

Note: The Department of Biochemistry does not expect to admit students to the Dietetics program in the future. Further information on the status of the program can be obtained from the Department.

6.1.4.1 Admission to Dietetics
All applications for entry to the program for the Bachelor of Science in Dietetics must be submitted to the Head of the Department of Biochemistry by April 30 in any year.

Entrance to the program in Dietetics is on the basis of competition for a fixed number of places. The Admission Committee takes into account the applicant’s academic background and information on an applicant’s personal qualities and achievements as given by the applicant and by referees’ reports.

1. To be eligible for consideration, an applicant must have completed a minimum of 30 credit hours in courses which have been taken or accepted for credit at a recognized university or university college before entry to the Dietetics program.

2. Students applying to enter are required to have successfully completed the following courses or their equivalents:
   a. Chemistry 1050, 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011 or 1201, 1001)
   b. English 1080, 1110 (or equivalent)
   c. Mathematics 1090, 1000 (or Mathematics 1000 and one elective)
   d. Physics 1020 and 1021 (or Physics 1050 and 1051).
   e. either Biology 1001 and 1002 or Psychology 1000 and 1001

3. No application will be considered from an applicant who cannot produce evidence that the above requirements have been met or will have been met by the time of entry into the Dietetics program.

4. After admission, the program will consist of two years of study at this University and a final year at Acadia University. The number of seats available at Acadia University is limited. When a student is accepted into the Dietetics program at Memorial University of Newfoundland, the year that student is expected to attend Acadia University will be set. No guarantee of space will be available in other years.

6.1.4.2 Registration and Promotion
The following regulations apply to the program courses taken at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

1. Biochemistry and Chemistry courses shall be taken in the program year indicated by the course number. Biology 1001 and 1002 must be completed by the end of the second year of the program. The remaining courses are to be scheduled so that the course load is five in each semester. Exceptions to this prescribed program, including specified course load, must have the approval of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies of the department. Students who have completed program courses in advance of admission to the program may arrange with the Committee a reduction in the required course load.

2. For promotion from each term the requirements are: the achievement of a passing grade in all courses; an overall average of at least 60% in those courses required in each academic term; and completion of the appropriate course load as outlined above.

3. Students who fail to achieve the standards outlined in the paragraph above will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission at which time they will normally be required to repeat the courses in which they failed, and/or to repeat courses which will raise the average to 60%, unless, in the opinion of the Head, a more meaningful course of study would be appropriate.

4. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally apply for readmission to the program not later than the deadline date specified in the first paragraph of the Admission section of this program.

6.1.4.3 Major in Dietetics

1. Required courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland:
   b. Either Biochemistry 3054 or Biology 3050.
   c. Biology 1001, 1002 (if not taken in first year).
   e. Chemistry 2440 (or Chemistry 2400, 2401)
   f. Statistics 2550 or equivalent.
   g. Six credit hours in social science courses if Psychology 1000 and 1001 were not taken in first year.
   h. Three credit hours in Computer Science.

Notes: 1. Students who choose to complete Chemistry 2400/2401 are advised to take the appropriate prerequisites for those courses.
2. For the purposes of a Biochemistry (Dietetics) degree, Medicine 310A and 310B count as Biochemistry courses.

The above courses must be completed before the year at Acadia University for both the General and the Honours Programs.
2. Required courses at Acadia University:

The equivalent of at least 18 senior level credit hours in nutrition and/or foods must be successfully completed at Acadia University. Courses to make up these credit hours are to be selected in consultation with faculty advisors at Memorial University of Newfoundland and Acadia University.

Note: 120 credit hours in courses must be obtained for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science (refer to Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science, Clause 1).

6.1.4.4 Honours Degree in Dietetics

Students normally should apply for an Honours program at the completion of their third year of studies. To be eligible for admission, students must be in Honours standing.

In addition to the courses required for the general degree, the program shall include: Either Biochemistry 499A/B or Biochemistry 4999 plus 3 additional credit hours in Nutrition at Memorial University of Newfoundland or Acadia University at the 4000 level.

The 60 credit hours in courses from clause 6. a. of the Regulations for the Honours degree of Bachelor of Science shall be chosen from the required Biochemistry courses in the program outlined above, the Nutrition and Foods courses at Acadia University, and Biology 3050.

6.1.5 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Biochemistry courses are designated by BIOC.

1430 Biochemistry for Nurses is an introduction to the chemistry and structure-function relationships of carbohydrates, lipids and proteins. It will examine the basic metabolism of carbohydrates and fats, with emphasis on the biochemical fluctuations that occur in human health and disease, and will include a brief introduction to molecular genetics. This course may not be used for credit to fulfill the requirements for a major in the Department of Biochemistry. Entry into this course is restricted to students in the BN (Collaborative) Program. Prospective fast-track program students should consult with the School of Nursing concerning admission to this course. Prerequisite: Level 3 Chemistry or Chemistry 1010 or Chemistry 1810 or equivalent.

Lectures: Four hours per week.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 1430 and the former 2430.

2000 Principles of Food Science enables one to gain an understanding of the scope of Food Science as a discipline. Topics include introductions to chemistry, processing, analysis, microbiology, packaging, product development, sensory evaluation and quality control as they are related to Food Science.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 2400 or 2440.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: One period per week.

2005 Food, Food Safety, and Health introduces the concepts of the composition of foods, and how the processing of food affects sensory appeal, shelf life and nutrient composition. Common food and water-borne illnesses (risks and prevention) are covered in the course content. Students will also be introduced to food biotechnologies, including genetically modified organisms, nutriceuticals and the development of functional foods.

Lectures: Three hours per week.
Corequisites: Chemistry 2400 or 2440.

2010 Introductory Foods I is an introduction to the science of food and food preparation. Topics covered include fats and oils, simple and complex carbohydrates, fruits and vegetables, cereals and starches. Laboratory work applies scientific principles and theories to practical problems in food preparation.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1011 or 1051.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

2011 Introductory Foods II is an introduction to the science of food and food preparation. Topics covered include proteins - dairy products, eggs, meats and fish, legumes, gelatin and flour proteins, batters and doughs, and menu planning. Laboratory work applies scientific principles and theories to practical problems of food preparation.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1011 or 1051; BIOC 2101.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

2100 Introduction to Molecular Biology and Genetics will cover the heritability of simple traits from phenotype to genotype; the discovery of DNA as the molecule of heredity; the structure and function of DNA; the elucidation of the genetic code; and the manipulation of DNA for recombinant DNA technology and biotechnology.

Prerequisites or co-requisites: BIOC 2101, Chemistry 2401, Physics 1021 or 1051. Students may replace the co-requisite Chemistry 2401 with Chemistry 2440 as a prerequisite. Chemistry 2440 may not be taken as a co-requisite of 2100.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours on alternate weeks.

2101 Introduction to Biochemistry is an introduction to the major organic substances of living organisms, proteins, carbohydrates and lipids: their structure, analysis and biochemical function. Other topics will include enzymes; the biochemistry of membranes, including the plasma membrane and specialized intracellular membranes; and the biochemistry of selected differentiated cells.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 2400 and 2440, or Chemistry 2440; and Physics 1020 or 1050, and 1021 (or 1051). Chemistry 2401 and Physics 1021 or 1051 can be done concurrently.

Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: One three-hour laboratory period on alternate weeks to illustrate concepts covered in the lectures.
Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of 2101, Pharmacy 2004, or the former Pharmacy 3110.

2500 Introduction to Human Nutrition (same as HKR 2600) gives an overview of human nutrition with an emphasis on topics of current interest. Students will gain an understanding of nutrition in the context of health maintenance across the life span. Topics covered will include nutrition during pregnancy, nutrition for infants, Canadian Recommended Nutrient Intakes / Dietary Reference Intakes, weight loss and weight gain, nutriceuticals and ergogenic aids.

Notes: 1. Credit can be obtained for only one of BIOC 2600, the former Kinesiology 2600, or HKR 2600.
2. Students who have completed BIOC 3200 or 3201 may not subsequently receive credit for BIOC 2600.
3. Students may not count BIOC 2600 among the 60 credit hours in Biochemistry courses required for Honours in Biochemistry, Honours in Nutrition, or Honours in Dietetics.

3052 Food Microbiology - inactive course.

3054 Fundamentals of Food Microbiology is an introduction to the basic principles of microbiology with an emphasis on the study of microorganisms that are found in foods. The role of microbes in food and food spoilage, and the role of food-borne pathogens in human illness and disease will each be covered.

Lectures: Three hours per week.
Prerequisites: Biology 1002 and BIOC 2101.
Note: Credit can only be received for only one of BIOC 3052, 3054, Biology 3052, and the former BIOC 3401.

3105 Physical Biochemistry examines topics such as: types of intermolecular forces in biomolecules; the folding of biomolecules and the role of water; pH; buffers, and ionisation of biomolecules; thermodynamics: equilibria, coupled reactions, transport across membranes and redox reactions; and ligand binding. Other topics will include: size and shape of biomolecules; isopotes in biochemistry; and, spectroscopy of biomolecules.

Prerequisites: BIOC 2101, and Chemistry 2300 or Physics 2053.
Lectures: Three hours per week and a two hour problem-solving class.

3106 Metabolism examines the catabolism of carbohydrates, lipids and amino acids. Other topics will be: mitochondria, chloroplasts and ATP synthesis; biosynthesis of carbohydrates and lipids; metabolic specialization of differentiated cells and tissues; and, integration of metabolism.

Prerequisites: BIOC 2101.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Practical classes: One three-hour laboratory or one-hour tutorial per week.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 3106, the former BIOC 3102 or Pharmacy 3111.

3107 Nucleic Acid Biochemistry and Molecular Biology examines the structure, function and biochemistry of DNA and RNA and the biochemical processes in the flow of information from the gene to protein. These will include: DNA replication, recombination and repair processes; transcription of RNA and RNA splicing; and protein synthesis. The regulation of gene expression will also be covered at an introductory level. The course will also include an introduction to cloning methodology.

Prerequisites: BIOC 2101; and BIOC 2100 or Biology 2250.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Up to four hours per week which will normally consist of one three hour laboratory period plus one additional hour on the following day.
3108 Molecular Biochemistry of the Cell focuses on the molecular biochemistry of intracellular regulation, including advances in topics such as signal transduction, apoptosis and cancer. Other topics will include protein processing, folding and sorting, cell adhesion molecules and the structure of the extracellular matrix.

Lectures: Three hours per week.
Prerequisites: BIOC 2100 or Biology 2250; and BIOC 2101.

311A/B Human Physiology (same as Medicine 310A/B) covers the properties of human body tissues and cells, the special senses, blood and blood fluids, and the nervous, cardiovascular, digestive, immune, respiratory, urinary, endocrine and reproductive systems. Integration of the body’s systems in maintaining homeostasis is emphasized. Priority for entry into this course is given to Biochemistry, Nutrition, Dietetics, and other students who are interested in experimental science.

Prerequisite or Co-requisite: BIOC 2101.
Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: To be specified.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 311A/B or Medicine 310A/B.

3200 Basic Human Nutrition I studies the nutrients essential to human health and well-being with emphasis on carbohydrates, proteins and lipids; chemistry, dietary source, dietary requirements, metabolism, and physiological importance.

Prerequisite or Co-requisite: BIOC 2101 or Pharmacy 2004 or the former Pharmacy 3110.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

3201 Basic Human Nutrition II studies the vitamins, minerals and trace elements essential to human health and well-being - chemistry, dietary source, dietary requirements, physiological role, and deficiency syndromes.

Co-requisite or prerequisite: BIOC 3106 or Pharmacy 3111.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

3202 Community Nutrition examines nutritional assessment, nutrition education, nutrition policy, the role of community agency in the dissemination of nutritional information. Survey methods and results will be discussed.

Co-requisites or prerequisites: BIOC 3201, and either BIOC 311B or Medicine 310B.
Prerequisite: BIOC 3200.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 3202 and the former BIOC 4302.

3402 Food Chemistry examines the following topics: water structure and the role of water in chemical reactions and mechanical properties of foods; chemistry and physical properties of carbohydrates, proteins and lipids; food dispersions; pigments and natural colorants; food flavour; enzyme properties and applications; vitamins and minerals; chemistry of enzymic and non-enzymic browning; characteristics of: muscle tissue, milk, eggs, bread and edible plant tissue; food additives; and, chemical changes in foods during processing.

Prerequisites: BIOC 2000, 2101, and either Chemistry 2440 or Chemistry 2401.
Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: One period per week.

4002 Biochemical Regulation examines metabolic regulation at the cellular and multicellular level. Topics will include: control theory; hormones; their biosynthesis and mechanism of action; signal transduction; and, endocrine coordination of metabolic processes. Principles will be illustrated by the use of case studies from the medical and veterinary literature.

Prerequisites: BIOC 2100 or Biology 2250; and BIOC 3106.
Lectures: Two to three hours per week, together with assigned reading and case studies.

4101 Proteins will review the history of protein research and the general properties of proteins and include other topics such as: strategy and methods for purification; chemical structure, properties, modification and determination of the protein amino acids; sequencing strategy, chain cleavage methods and end group analysis; folding of the protein main chain and determination of tertiary and quaternary structure; and, the relationship of structure and function; protein filaments, motors and regulators. It will also cover disease-related proteins and other examples from the current literature.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3105.
Lectures: Two to three hours per week and assigned reading.

4102 Current Topics in Biochemistry is a seminar course in which faculty and students will discuss topics of current interest in the biochemistry literature. Students will be responsible for reading and critically assessing recent literature.

Prerequisites: Admission to this course is restricted to Honours Biochemistry students in their final year or by permission of the Head.

4103 Prokaryotic Gene Regulation is a detailed and up-to-date treatment of the mechanisms of genetic regulation found in bacterial cells. The course will develop topics based on the evidence of bacterial genetics and modern molecular biological experiments. Topics may include: theory of mutations; RNA transcription, positive and negative regulation of transcription; regulation of protein synthesis; control of DNA replication; bacterial operons and regulons, developmental molecular biology in bacterial systems; and evolution and molecular biology of organelles.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3107.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

4104 Eukaryotic Gene Regulation and Developmental Biology details the cellular and molecular aspects of eukaryotic gene regulation and development. Topics to be covered will include the DNA content and organization of eukaryotes, mechanisms controlling the expression of eukaryotic genetic information at the transcriptional and post-transcriptional levels, and the methodologies used to define these mechanisms. Detailed consideration will be given to cellular-level events which regulate nuclear gene expression and cell lineage specification. Developmental mechanisms operating in a number of model systems will be discussed.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3107 or 3108.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

4105 Immunology (same as Pharmacy 4105) is taught and administered by the School of Pharmacy. This course is an introduction to the molecular and cellular basis of immunity and hypersensitivity, and will include a discussion of the manipulation of the immune system in the management and treatment of disease.

Lectures/Tutorials: Three per week.
Co-requisites or prerequisites: BIOC 2101, and either BIOC 311B or Medicine 310B.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 4105, Pharmacy 4105 and the former Pharmacy 3105.

4200 Bioenergetics and Biological Oxidation examines topics such as: respiration and electron transport; the functional organization of energy transducing membranes; the structure and function of flavoenzymes, cytochromes, iron-sulfur proteins and quinones; enzyme reduction of oxygen; and, free radicals in biological systems.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3106.
Lectures: Two to three hours per week and assigned reading.

4201 Membranes - Structure and Function examines the structure of model and biological membranes, the molecule interactions between the lipid components and the proteins; and the interplay of these interactions on the biophysical and functional properties of membranes. Other topics will include the structure-function of specialized membraneous systems, such as lipoprotein, lung surfactant, and lipid rafts; membrane lipid composition in biochemical adaptation and function; and, the role of membrane proteins in intracellular trafficking, receptor function, enzymatic activity and membrane-related diseases.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3105.

4210 Biochemical Research Techniques I is designed to familiarize students with methods used for the study of structural and molecular biology.

Prerequisites: BIOC 3105, 3107.
Lectures and laboratory periods: times as arranged.
Attendance is required.

4211 Biochemical Research Techniques II is designed to familiarize students with methods used for the study of cellular and subcellular metabolism. This course may include a research project.

Prerequisite: BIOC 3106.
Lectures and laboratory periods: times as arranged.
Attendance is required.

4220 Introduction to General and Autonomic Pharmacology (same as Medicine 4300) deals with the general principles of pharmacology (dose-response relationship, drug-receptor interaction, absorption, distribution, metabolism, excretion of drugs), and drugs that affect neuromuscular and autonomic neurotransmission, the cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, and central nervous systems, and autacoids/prostanoids.

Prerequisites: BIOC 311A/B or Medicine 310A/B or Pharmacy 2002/2003 (or the former Pharmacy 3201/3202).
Prerequisite or Co-requisite: BIOC 3106 or Pharmacy 3111.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 4220 or Medicine 4300.

4230-4239 Special Topics in Biochemistry will be given for senior undergraduates, and will cover a range of topics in specialized fields in Biochemistry. They may be taught by visiting specialists when available.

Prerequisite: To be determined at the time of offering.

4240-4249 Special Topics in Nutrition will be given for senior undergraduates, and will cover a range of topics in specialized fields in Nutrition. They may be taught by visiting specialists when available.

Prerequisite: To be determined at the time of offering.

4300 Advanced Nutrition is a course in which current controversies and trends in human nutrition are presented and discussed using the scientific literature.

Prerequisites: BIOC 3200, 3201, and either BIOC 311B or Medicine 310B.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

4301 Nutrition and Disease is a course which addresses the scientific basis and nutritional intervention in chronic human disease.

Prerequisites: BIOC 3200, 3201, and either BIOC 311B or Medicine 310B.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

4400 Food Analysis - inactive course.

4502 Techniques in Nutrition Research is a seminar course in which faculty and students will discuss concepts and methods used in the study of nutrition. Students will be responsible for reading and critically assessing recent literature.
Prerequisite: BIOC 4301.
Admission to this course is restricted to Honours Nutrition students in their final year or by permission of the head.

499A and 499B Dissertation is a two-semester linked course (6 credit hours) based on independent study of a problem in Biochemistry. The subject of study will be decided in consultation with Faculty advisors and must be approved in advance by the Department, or both Departments in the case of a Joint Honours degree. This dissertation is obligatory for Honours students in Biochemistry. The dissertation will be submitted as a formal written report accompanied by appropriate illustration before the end of the tenth week of the second semester. Before the end of his/her final semester the student will give an oral presentation of his/her research. Admission to this course is restricted to Honours students in their final year or by permission of the Head.

Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 499B or BIOC 4999.

4999 Dissertation is a 3 credit hour dissertation for Honours students in Dietetics and Nutrition. The dissertation will be based on independent study of a problem in Dietetics or Nutrition. The subject of study will be decided in consultation with Faculty advisors and must be approved in advance by the Department. The dissertation will be submitted as a formal written report accompanied by appropriate illustrations before the end of the semester. Admission to this course is restricted to Honours students in their final year or by permission of the Head.

Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOC 499B or BIOC 4999.

6.2 Biology

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:

1. Major or Honours in Biology
2. Joint Honours in Biology and Earth Sciences (Geology)
3. Joint Honours in Biology and Psychology
4. Joint Honours in Biology and Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience)
5. Joint Honours in Biology and Statistics
6. Joint Honours in Cell Biology and Biochemistry
7. Minor in Biology

Details of joint programs are given after the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science.

6.2.1 Entrance Requirements

Entry to the Biology Majors Program is competitive and based on academic standing. To be considered for admission to the program students must have completed Biology 1001/1002 with an average of at least 65%. In addition, applicants will normally have completed the following courses (or their equivalents) and must have a minimum overall average of 60% in these courses.

1. English 1080, 1110 or equivalent
2. Mathematics 1090 and Mathematics 1000 (or Mathematics 1000 only)
3. Chemistry 1010/1011 or Chemistry 1050/1051 or Physics 1020/1021 or Physics 1050/1051
4. If Mathematics 1000 taken, any one other first year course.

Chemistry 1010/1011 (or 1050/1051) should be taken in the first year, as it is a prerequisite for other required courses in the Biology program, and delaying chemistry until second year may make it difficult to complete the program in the normal eight semesters.

6.2.2 Minor in Biology

A minor in Biology will consist of 24 credit hours in Biology courses: 1001 and 1002 (or equivalent) plus any 18 credit hours chosen from the list of Biology courses except 2040, 2041 and 2120. The choice of courses must be made in consultation with the Head of Biology or delegate and it is recommended (but not required) that students take at least two Biology courses at the 3000 level or above.

6.2.3 General Degree - Major in Biology

Each Biology Major is assigned a faculty advisor who should be consulted on academic problems, including course selection. All students majoring in Biology are required to complete a minimum of 45 credit hours in courses from the Biology Department offering. Those 45 credit hours must include Biology 1001/1002 or their equivalents, the 15 credit hours in core courses listed below, and 24 credit hours in biology elective at the 2000, 3000 or 4000 level.

Biology Core (15 credit hours): Biology 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900, plus one of Biology 3401, 3402, 4245 and 4404.

All majors must also successfully complete the following courses or their equivalents:

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalent)
2. Physics 1020/1021 (or 1050/1051)
3. Mathematics 1000
4. Chemistry 1010/1011 (or 1050/1051), 2440
5. Statistics 2550
6. Biochemistry 2101 and 3106

7. Extra Science courses as necessary to fulfill the requirement for 78 credit hours in Science as stipulated in Clause 3. a. of the Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Science.

It is recommended, but not required, that a Computer Science course be included and the Biology Department strongly recommends Computer Science 2650.

Note: To minimize timetabling problems, students on the St. John's campus are advised to take Biology 2250 and 2600 in their third semester (Fall), and 2060 and 2900 in their fourth semester (Winter).

6.2.4 Honours Degrees

The attention of students wishing to take Honours is called to those sections of the Calendar dealing with Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Science (Honours).

Sixty-nine credit hours in courses, including the 6 first year credit hours and the 15 required core credit hours outlined in the regulations for the General Degree, and the Honours Dissertation (Biology 499A/499B), shall be taken from the Department of Biology offering. Students may elect to complete an Honours Program in Biology or in one of the joint Honours Programs listed under the heading “Programs in Biology”. Programs of students taking Honours shall be drawn up in consultation with the student's supervisor, and must be approved by the Head of the Department (or his/her delegate) in accordance with Regulation 1. b. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science.

Note: Some Graduate Courses may be taken in the final year of the Honours Program with the permission of the Head of the Department and the course instructor.

A dissertation (6 credit hours) is to be presented on some original piece of work undertaken by the candidate, under the guidance of a faculty member of the department, as appointed by the Head of Department. For students electing to take one of the Joint Honours Programs, the dissertation shall be on a topic representative of the selected program. The Department of Biology considers the dissertation to be an important part of the Honours Program.

The dissertation will be based on a 6 credit hours course (Biology 499A/499B). It will involve directed reading relevant to the dissertation topic, preparation of a dissertation outline, supervised research, data synthesis and interpretation, and preparation and defence of the dissertation.

Two typed copies of the dissertation, complete with figures and tables, are to be submitted not less than two weeks before the end of lectures in the semester in which the candidate is registered for Biology 499B. These copies must be submitted to the Head of Department, and must have met the prior approval of the candidate's Honours supervisor.

Before the last day for examinations in the semester, the candidate will be examined orally on the contents of the dissertation. The examining committee shall consist of the Head of the Department, or delegate, the candidate's supervisor, and an examiner appointed by the Head of the Department in consultation with the candidate's supervisor.

6.2.5 Honours in Biology

Students seeking the Honours Degree in Biology must satisfactorily complete Biology 1001/1002 (or equivalents) and the 15 credit hours of core Biology courses. The remaining 48 credit hours in Biology courses, which must include the dissertation (499A/499B), may be taken as electives from the Biology offering, on the advice of the supervisor. Additional courses from other departments required for the Honours Degree in Biology include those given for the Major in Biology Program as outlined above.

An Honours degree in Biology may comprise a broadly based selection of courses according to the students' interests, or it may be more narrowly focussed. An Honours student may focus on any area of Biology where an appropriate supervisor can be found. All Honours students should choose courses in consultation with their supervisors, but it is particularly important that students wishing to focus within the Honours degree should discuss course selection with an Honours supervisor within their area of interest.

As a guide to course selection a number of foci are set out below with some appropriate courses. Note that students are not limited to these areas but may focus their programs wherever they wish provided that (i) an appropriate supervisor is available, (ii) consultation with that supervisor takes place, and (iii) the resources of the Department, as determined by the Head of Department, are appropriate and adequate. Area of focus will not be indicated on the students' transcript.

Focus in Marine Biology

Students wishing to focus on marine biology in their Biology Honours program must fulfill all the requirements for an Honours degree in Biology as set out above. The following courses are recommended for this area of interest: Biology 2010, 2122, 2210, 3050, 3295, 3620, 3709, 3710, 3711, 3712, 4012, 4360, 4505, 4510, 4600, 4601, 4605, 4701, 4750, 4810. (Note: this list is only advisory; these are not required courses).

Focus in Cell/Molecular Biology

Students wishing to focus on cell biology/molecular biology in their Biology Honours program must fulfill all the requirements for an Honours degree in Biology as set out above. The following courses are recommended for this area of interest: Biology 3050, either 3401 or 3402, 3500, 3530, 3540, 3620, 4000, 4040, 4241, 4245, 4402, 4404, 4605. (Note: this list is only advisory; these are not required courses).

Focus in Ecology - Evolution

Students wishing to focus on ecology and/or evolution in their Biology Honours program must fulfill all the requirements for an Honours degree in Biology as set out above. The following courses are recommended for this area of interest: Biology 3041, 3050, 3295, 3610, 3620, 3709, 3710, 3711, 3712, 3714, 4040, 4350, 4306, 4360, 4504, 4605; either 4810 or 4820. (Note: this list is only advisory; these are not required courses).

6.2.6 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Students may obtain credit for only 6 1000-level credit hours in Biology. Normally, these courses will be Biology 1001-1002, which are prerequisites to all higher courses in Biology, except where noted below.

According to the nature of particular courses, the specified number of laboratory hours may consist of some combination of laboratory work, seminars or directed independent study relevant to the practical aspects of the subject matter.

Biology courses are designated by BIOL:

1001-1002 Principles of Biology is an introduction to the science of biology, including a discussion of the unity, diversity and evolution of living organisms.

Three hours of lecture and a three-hour laboratory per week.

Note: BIOL 1001 is a prerequisite for BIOL 1002.

2010 Biology of Plants is a study of the structure, function and reproductive biology of plants, with emphasis on the vascular plants, and on their relationship to environment and human activities.

Prerequisites: BIOL 1001 and 1002; Chemistry 1010 or 1050 (or 1000).

2040 Modern Biology and Human Society I examines various aspects of the human body, and the implications of modern biological research for human beings. Topics include cancer; diet and nutrition and associated diseases; circulatory disease, immunity, human genetics, biorhythms, new diseases, genetic engineering and reproductive engineering.

Three hours of lectures/seminars per week.

Note: BIOL 2040 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Biology. There are no prerequisites for this course.

2041 Modern Biology and Human Society II examines the origins and consequences of the environmental crisis of the 20th century. Topics include the population explosion, energy, material cycles, air and water and land pollution, global food supplies, the fisheries, wildlands, renewable and non-renewable resources, environmental ethics.

Three hours of lecture/seminar per week.

Note: BIOL 2041 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Biology. There are no prerequisites for this course.

2060 Principles of Cell Biology is a modern view of the biology of eukaryotic cells, organelles and molecules and their interactions in the functioning of living organisms.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 1001, 1002 and 2250; Chemistry 2440 or 2400

Prerequisites or co-requisites: Physics 1021 or 1051; Biochemistry 2101

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 2060 and the former BIOL 3060.

2120 Biology for Students of Earth Sciences is an introduction of the principles of Biology for students in Earth Sciences. Topics will include principles of classification, levels of biological organization, fundamental characteristics of living organisms and basic concepts in ecology.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: Earth Science major; Earth Sciences 1001 or 1002 or permission of the Head of Department.

Notes: 1. Entry to this course is restricted to Earth Sciences majors, or by permission of the Head of Department.
2. This course may not be used for credit by Biology Majors or Minors.
3. Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 2120 and either of BIOL 1001 or 1002.

2122 Biology of Invertebrates is a study of the invertebrates with emphasis on structure and function, adaptations and life histories. The laboratories will present a broad survey of the major invertebrate groups.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 1001 and 1002.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 2122 and the former BIOL 3122.

2210 Biology of Vertebrates is a study of the vertebrates, with emphasis on structure and function, adaptations and life histories.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

2250 Principles of Genetics is an introduction to Mendelian and molecular genetics. Phenotype and genotype, behaviour of alleles in genetic crosses, chromosome theory of inheritance, genetic linkage, molecular biology of DNA, RNA and protein, molecular basis of mutation, recombinant DNA, applications of genetic biotechnology.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 1001 and 1002.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 2210 and the former BIOL 3210.

2300 Principles of Evolution and Systematics is an introduction to the processes and patterns of evolution, and the principles of classification. Natural selection and other microevolutionary processes, variation and adaptation, species and speciation, phylogenetic systematics, reconstruction of phylogeny, macro-evolutionary patterns in the fossil record and their interpretation.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 1001, 1002 and 2250.
Prerequisite or co-requisite: Statistics 2550 (or equivalent)
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 2300 and the former BIOL 3250.

3041 Boreal Flora covers the identification of the terrestrial vascular plants of New Labrador. Various subjects of floral biology, and the use of dichotomous keys will also be covered.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 1001 and 1002.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOL 3041 or ENVS 3110.

3050 Introduction to Microbiology is a course in which the basic principles underlying life itself are studied. Topics include structure, function, bioenergetics and growth with an emphasis on prokaryotes. Also studied are viruses, microbial diseases, introductory principles of immunology and the control of microorganisms. The laboratory sessions provide training in culture and determinative techniques using microorganisms.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 1001, 1002 and 2060.
Prerequisites or co-requisites: Chemistry 2440 or 2400.
Prerequisite or co-requisite: Statistics 2540 or 2550.

3295 Population and Evolutionary Ecology is an introduction to the theory and principles of evolutionary ecology and population dynamics.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2600; at least one of BIOL 2010, 2122 or 2210.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3295 and the former BIOL 4290.

3300 Introductory Entomology is a study of the classification and ecology of insects within an evolutionary framework. Topics will include molecular biological and classical morphological issues surrounding insect taxonomy, evolutionary based higher systematics, and the ecological roles of insects in a variety of ecosystems.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisite: BIOL 2600.
Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOL 3300, 4150, and the former BIOL 4140. It is recommended that students enrolling in BIOL 3300 have already completed BIOL 2900.

3401 Comparative Animal Physiology is a comparative study of the basic physiological processes, with special attention paid to those strategies invoked by animals which enable them to adapt to environmental changes.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and 2210.
Prerequisite or co-requisite: Biochemistry 3106.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3401 and the former BIOL 4401.

3402 Principles of Plant Physiology is a consideration of the principles of plant physiology, including water relations, nutrition, metabolism, growth and development.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2610 and 2650.
Prerequisite or co-requisite: Biochemistry 3106.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3402 and the former BIOL 4403.

3500 Histology is a study of microstructure and ultrastructure of tissues and organ systems in vertebrates, particularly mammals, with emphasis on correlating structure and function.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and 2210.

3530 Developmental Biology is a study of developmental systems in protists, plants and animals with a focus on the underlying principles and molecular mechanisms involved in cellular differentiation, morphogenesis and growth.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and either 2250 or Biochemistry 2100.

3600 Developmental Biology is a study of the principal features of terrestrial ecosystems, with emphasis on the boreal region.

This course may be offered in a usual 13 week semester or as a two-week field course.
Either: three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Or: a two-week field course that embodies equivalent instructional time.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2010, 2250, 2600 and 2900; Statistics 2550 or equivalent.
Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of BIOL 3610 or ENVS 3131.

3620 Aquatic Microbial Ecology is a study of the nature, distribution and activities of microorganisms in the freshwater and marine environments. Field and laboratory work illustrate some of the investigative techniques used in this area of study.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2600 and 3050; Statistics 2550 or equivalent.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3620 and the former BIOL 3603.

3709 Field Course in Marine Biology is a two-week field school immediately prior to the beginning of the Fall Semester. In the Fall Semester there are follow-up lectures, readings and submission of reports. The course is designed to introduce the principal marine environments, organisms and techniques. It is strongly recommended that this course be taken before either BIOL 3710, 3711 or 4810. May be taken only with the permission of the Head of Department.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2600; Statistics 2550 or equivalent.

3710 The Aquatic Environment examines the abiotic properties of marine and freshwater systems, including basin formation, chemical properties, circulation and dynamics, sampling techniques and the special characteristics of estuarine systems. Emphasis will be on large bodies of water, but stream hydrology will also be discussed.
This course may be offered in a usual 13 week semester or as a two-week field course.
Either: three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Or: a two-week field course that embodies equivalent instructional time.
Prerequisites: Physics 1021 or 1051; Chemistry 1011 or 1051; BIOL 2900 as prerequisite or co-requisite.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3710 and the former BIOL 3700.

3711 The Ecology of Open Waters is a comparative survey of the major biological groups in open water aquatic habitats, both freshwater and marine, with community structure, trophic interactions and energy flow as central themes. Strategies for measuring population levels and production and for constructing both conceptual and quantitative models of ecosystems.
and their components are emphasized. This course may be offered in a usual 13 week semester or as a two-week field course.

Either: three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Or: a two-week field course that embodies equivalent instructional time.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2122, 2600 and 3710.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 3711 and the former BIOL 3701.

3712 Benthic Biology - inactive course.

3714 Estuarine Fish Ecology Field Course

examines community structure and distribution of northern coastal fishes in fjords and estuarine environments. Emphasis on sampling, field techniques, taxonomy, quantitative characterization, adaptations and habitat relationships. A comparative approach will contrast fish communities from other areas. To be held as a two week field course.

Prerequisite/co-requisite: BIOL 2600.

3750 Animal Behaviour I

is an introduction to the mechanisms and development of the behaviour of animals. Topics include: the history of ethology and comparative psychology, methods of animal behaviour study, behaviour of animals in relation to physiology, sensory function, learning, communication, orientation, and other areas in biology and psychology.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 1001 and 1002; Statistics 2550 or equivalent.

Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOL 3750 or Psychology 3750 and Psychology 4770.

3811 Paleontology (W) (same as Earth Sciences 3811)

is taught and administered by the Department of Earth Sciences.

Prerequisites: EITHER Earth Sciences 1002 and BIOL 2120 (or BIOL 1001 and 1002), OR BIOL 2122 and 2210.

Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of BIOL 3811, the former BIOL 3800, and the former Earth Sciences 3801.

4000 Bacterial Systematics

is a study of bacterial classification, nomenclature and identification. Subjects include classical and numerical taxonomy, aerobic and anaerobic culture techniques, phage typing, serology, and the significance of genetic relatedness. The laboratory work presents the techniques of descriptive bacteriology.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2250 and 3050.

4012 Phycology

studies the biology of the algae. A study of the structure, reproduction and evolution of the major divisions of the algae. Aspects of algae systematics and ecology relating to how algae are adapted to life in freshwater, marine and symbiotic environments, together with economic aspects of phycology, will also be covered. The laboratories will emphasize the identification of representative species of the major algal divisions with a bias towards local species. There will be field trips to collect material in local marine and freshwater environments.

This course may be offered in a usual 13 week semester or as a two-week field course.

Either: three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Or: a two-week field course that embodies equivalent instructional time.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and 2600.

4014 Biology and Ecology of Boreal and Arctic Seaweeds

is a field course dealing with seaweed biology and ecology with special study of living specimens in estuarine, fjordic and exposed coastal sites, demonstrating their physiological and ecological adaptations to cold-water habitats.

This course is offered at the Bonne Bay Marine Station during the Summer Semester with two weeks of instruction followed by a week to complete course requirements.

Prerequisite: BIOL 2600 or equivalent.

4040 Mycology

is a study of the physiology, morphogenesis, nature of plant and animal parasitism, ecology and taxonomy of terrestrial and freshwater fungi.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and 3050.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 4040 and the former BIOL 3025.

4122 Advanced Topics in Marine Invertebrates

provides an in-depth examination of physiological, ecological and behavioural adaptations in marine invertebrates. Lectures will be combine with discussions of relevant papers from the primary literature on topics of current interest, which may include functional morphology, ecology, evolution and natural history. Students will also gain practical research experience through the study of live and preserved animals.

Three hours of lectures and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2122, 2600 and 2900.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 4141 and the former BIOL 4050.

4141 Nematology

is a study of plant parasitic, insect parasitic and free-living nematodes, terrestrial and freshwater. Emphasis will be placed on taxonomy, biology, economic importance, control methodologies and environmental applications.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2010, 2122 and 2600.

4150 Insect Systematics and Ecology - inactive course.

4180 General Parasitology

is an examination of parasitism as a way of life, with emphasis on classification, structural adaptation, life cycles and ecology.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2122, 2210 and 2600.

4182 Fisheries and Wildlife Parasitology

is a study of the important parasites of fish and other wildlife and their impact on both individuals and populations.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisite: BIOL 4180.

4200 Immunology

is a study of vertebrate and invertebrate immune systems including antigens and antibodies and their reactions.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060 and BIOL 3050.

4241 Advanced Genetics

has advanced topics in modern genetic analysis, including regulation of gene expression, developmental genetics, molecular basis of inherited disease, genomics, immunogenetics, behavioural genetics, and molecular evolution.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2250; Biochemistry 2101.

4245 Biophysics

is an examination of the physical properties involved in defining diffusion, membrane properties, electrochemical potentials and the processes of bioenergetics within cells and organelles. Selected topics in biomechanics and the functioning of whole organisms with respect to size, shape, support, orientation, transport and motility.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060; Biochemistry 2101.

4250 Evolutionary Genetics

has advanced topics in the study of micro and macro-evolutionary phenomena. Genetic variation in natural populations; theory of genetic drift, mutation, recombination and natural selection; neutral theory of molecular evolution, patterns of nucleotide substitution, heritability and quantitative genetics.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2250 and 2900.

4251 Genomics will have lecture, seminar, and laboratory components.

Topics covered will include Technical Foundations of Genomics, Global Gene Expression Profiling, Bioinformatics, Comparative Genomics, Microbial Genomics, Genomics and Medicine, Genomics and Agriculture, Environmental Genomics, and Ethical Issues of Genomics. Each topic will involve a lecture component, in which theory and methods will be taught using the textbook and journal articles. Some lecture and lab times will be devoted to seminars on methods and papers related to lecture or laboratory topics. In the seminar component, students will have the opportunity to use state-of-the-art genomic techniques to address a research question.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory/seminar per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060, 2250.

4270 History of Biology

is a consideration of the development of biological concepts as interactions between observations, philosophical systems and cultural environment. This course will normally require students to make verbal presentations to the class, participate in discussions and submit written papers. May be taken with the permission of the Instructor.

Three hours of lecture plus one three-hour seminar per week.

Prerequisites: A minimum of 90 credit hours overall including a minimum of nine credit hours in Biology at the 3000 level or above, plus the permission of the Instructor.

4306 Applied Biology

is an examination of how biological and other sciences are applied to the problems of management and utilization of organisms at both the individual and systems level to meet human needs.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2060, 2250, 2600, 2900 and one of BIOL 2010, 2122 or 2210.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for BIOL 4306 and either of the former BIOL 4303 or the former BIOL 4304.

4360 Community and Ecosystem Ecology

is a study of the basic principles, patterns and processes of ecological communities and ecosystems.

Three hours of lecture plus a seminar/discussion group each week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2250, 2600 and 2900 and one of BIOL 2010, 2122 or 2210; Statistics 2550 or equivalent.

4402 Electron Microscopy in Life Sciences - inactive course.

4404 Microbial Physiology

is a study of the structure and growth of microorganisms. Themes covered in this course include the structure, function and regulation of the microbial cellular machinery, the hierarchical regulation of cellular activities, and communication between cells. Quantitative experimental methodology relating to microbial physiology is studied in the laboratory.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisites: BIOL 2250 and 3050; Biochemistry 3106.

4405 Landscape Ecology

is an introduction to the theory and principles of landscape pattern and processes, including issues related to scale, networks, landform and vegetation patterns, species distributions, and natural and human-caused aspects of landscape change.

Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

Prerequisite: BIOL 2600 and 18 credit hours in Biology or permission from the course instructor.
4505 Systematics and Biogeography is a study of the geographical distributions of plants and animals with particular reference to temporal and spatial variability and to theories advanced to explain historical and recent distribution patterns.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2250, 2600, 2900 and one of BIOL 2010, 2122 or 2210.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both BIOL 4505 and Geography 4710.

4510 Distribution Patterns in the Sea - inactive course.

4550 Principles of Endocrinology comprises an introduction to basic concepts concerned with how chemical messages are transmitted and received between cells to coordinate body functions. Hormonal control of adaptation, reproduction, metabolism, growth, digestion, and electrolyte homeostasis will be discussed. Although the endocrinology of invertebrates and lower vertebrates will be mentioned as appropriate, the main emphasis will be on mammalian and human endocrinology at the level of the whole organism.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2122 and 3401. Biochemistry 3106.

4600 Ichthyology is the study of fishes: taxonomy, life histories, evolution, behaviour and zoogeography.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2210 and 2600.

4601 Functional Biology of Fish is an introduction to anatomical, physiological and cellular aspects of selected processes in the life cycle of fishes.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2060, 2210, and 3401.

4605 Quantitative Methods in Biology (same as Statistics 4581 and the former Statistics 4605) is quantitative reasoning using verbal, graphical and statistical models of scaled quantities (units and dimensions). Exploratory and confirmatory analysis of field and laboratory data. Hypothesis testing, including randomization tests. Topics include the general linear model (t-tests, anova etc), correlation, autocorrelation, geographic statistics, estimates of population size and multivariate methods.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisite: Statistics 2550.

4620 Ornithology examines structure, classification, evolution, ecology and behaviour of birds, with particular reference to those of economic importance, Identification of the birds of Eastern Canada.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2210 and 2600.

4630 Mammalogy examines evolution, systematics, life histories and distribution of mammals, with particular emphasis on eastern North American forms.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2210 and 2600.

4650 Conservation in Biology and Geography (same as Geography 4650) is an examination of how biological and geographical principles can be applied to conserving biological diversity in the natural world under conditions of exploitation and habitat loss. Special emphasis will be given to relevant provincial examples.
Three hours of lecture per week and 3 hours of seminar/discussion group per week.
Prerequisites: 30 credit hours in either Biology or Geography.

4701 Animal Behaviour II is an examination of the behaviour of animals with particular emphasis on evolution and ecology. Topics include behavioural genetics and evolution, reproductive strategies, social behaviour, habitat selection, territoriality, foraging behaviour, and other topics in biology and psychology.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisites: BIOL 3750 or Psychology 4770.

4710 Experimental Marine Ecology of Newfoundland Waters is a two-week field course examines the ecology of cold ocean environments, focussing on energy flux through marine pelagic and benthic flora and fauna of Newfoundland waters, and how the dynamics of this environment influence linkages among organisms in different habitats. The course will be field intensive with some lecture component and a strong hands-on field component. Students will identify local organisms and study how and why they vary in time and space. This course will be offered during two weeks of the Spring semester.
Prerequisite/co-requisite: BIOL 2600.

4750 Fisheries Ecology is the application of ecological principles to the problem of managing exploited fish populations. Laboratory exercises will be based on a simulation approach to fisheries problems using computer and animal models.
Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.
Prerequisite: BIOL 2600.

4800 Advanced Palaeontology (same as Earth Sciences 4800) is taught and administered by the Department of Earth Sciences.
Prerequisites: Earth Science/BIOL 3811, and one of Statistics 2510, Statistics 2550 or Mathematics 2000

4810 Research Field Course in Marine Biology will consist of an intensive two-week field school designed to acquaint students with marine field research, experimental design, methodology and data analysis. Emphasis will be placed on individual projects. Projects must be designed and approved prior to the commencement of the course and will involve a written report. May be taken only with permission of the Head of Department. At the discretion of the Head of Department, another recognized field course may be substituted for BIOL 4810.
Prerequisites: BIOL 3710 and any two of BIOL 2010, 2122 or 2210. It is strongly recommended that students take BIOL 3709 before 4810.

4820 Field Course in Terrestrial Biology will begin with a three-week field school immediately prior to the beginning of the Fall Semester. It is designed to acquaint students with terrestrial organisms and environments, and emphasis will be placed on survey and sampling techniques. In the Fall Semester the material and data collected in the field will be used in lecture and laboratory periods dealing with identification, analytical methods, and report compilation.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2010, 2122, 2210, 2600 and permission of the Head of the Department.
Recommended: BIOL 4605.

4822 Internship in Biology is an external applied laboratory where a student works with professionals on a problem or problems in biological research. Co-operating agencies may include Environment Canada, Fisheries and Oceans Canada, Agriculture Canada, the Provincial Departments of Fisheries and Forestry, and others. The student will have a supervisor within the Department and one in the co-operating agency, and will be expected to write a scientific account detailing the particulars of the work experience. The arrangements for the position must be agreed upon, and a project proposal approved, by the Head of the Department or delegate prior to registration for the course. Enrolment will be dependent upon the availability of suitable positions, and will be limited to students in the Honours Program. This course can be done in any semester, and carries 3 credit hours.

4900 Research Methods in Genetic Biotechnology will include DNA extraction, DNA amplification by the Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR), DNA cloning, DNA sequence analysis and Bioinformatics. Additional modules in gene expression and re-sequencing chip technologies may be included. This will be offered on campus as a three week course. Entry to the course will be by permission of the Head of the Department or delegate and preference will be given to senior students.
Prerequisites: BIOL 2060, BIOL 2250 or Biochemistry 2100.

4910-4920 Special Topics in Biology will be given for senior undergraduates and will be in a two-week format which will involve equivalent instruction time as a course on campus. These courses will cover a range of topics in specialized fields in Biology and may be offered at the Bonne Bay Field Station, at the Harlow campus or elsewhere as appropriate. They may be taught by visiting specialists when available.

499A and 499B Honours Dissertation is available only to students in the Honours Program. Requirements for the Dissertation are outlined under Honours Degrees.
6.3.1 Undergraduate Handbook
Additional information about the undergraduate program, individual courses and suggested timetables can be found in the Department of Chemistry Undergraduate Handbook which is available on the web at www.chem.mun.ca.

6.3.2 Faculty Advisors
Each student majoring in Chemistry will be assigned a Faculty Advisor who should be consulted on all academic matters. Individual programs must be drawn up in consultation with the advisor.

Note: Students who have obtained a grade of 3 or better on the Advanced Placement courses in Chemistry will normally be eligible for direct entry into Chemistry 1031 or second year courses. Such students must consult the department before registration.

6.3.3 Minor in Chemistry
Candidates who take a minor in Chemistry will complete Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or 1010, 1011 and 1031) or equivalent, 2400, 2401, 2210, 2300 and 6 credit hours in courses chosen from 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3410, 3411 and 3500.

6.3.4 General Degree - Major in Chemistry
The courses required for a Major in Chemistry are:
1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or 1010, 1011 and 1031) or equivalent, 2300, 2210, 2400, 2401, 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3410, 3411, 3500 and 4110.
2. Physics 1050 (or 1020 and 1021) and 1051.
4. Biochemistry 2101

Recommended courses: Mathematics 2051, Physics 2820 and/or 2750, and 6 credit hours in one of the following languages: French, German, or Russian.

Students considering declaring Chemistry as their Major are encouraged to contact either the Department Head or the Deputy Head (Undergraduate Studies).

6.3.5 Honours Degree in Chemistry
Students wishing to take Honours should consult those sections of the Calendar dealing with Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science. The Honours program in Chemistry consists of at least 66 credit hours in Chemistry courses. It is recommended that candidates also take groups of 18 or more credit hours in each of two other science subjects, normally Biochemistry, Biology, Earth Sciences, Physics, or Mathematics.

Required Courses
1. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or 1010, 1011 and 1031) or equivalent, 2300, 2210, 2400, 2401, 3100, 3211, 3300, 3301, 3410, 3411, 3500, 4110, 4300, 4302, 490A/B, 6 credit hours selected from courses with initial digits 42, and a selection from the remaining 4000-level courses.
2. Physics 1050 (or 1020 and 1021) and 1051.
4. Biochemistry 2101

Recommended courses: Biochemistry 2100, Mathematics 2051, Physics 2820 and/or 2750.

A thesis based on a selected research topic carried out under the supervision of a member of the department is to be submitted in the final year.

Chemistry 490A/B will normally require the equivalent of 9 hours/week for 2 semesters. Registration in Chemistry 490A/B is restricted to those students who have honours standing. Evaluation of the dissertation will be pass/fail, assessed by a committee comprising the supervisor and two other faculty members.

With approval of the Heads of the Chemistry and Biochemistry Departments prior to registration, a number of courses in Biochemistry may be substituted for a like number of Chemistry courses.

Six credit hours in one language are recommended: French, German or Russian should be selected in consultation with the Department Head.

Prospective Honours students in Chemistry in their first year should take
1. Six credit hours in English.
2. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or 1010, 1011 and 1031) or their equivalents.
3. Physics 1050 and 1051 or 1020 and 1021.
4. Mathematics 1000 and 1001
5. Six credit hours in other courses.

Given appropriate circumstances the Honours Chemistry program may be completed in four years. Students should consult the Undergraduate Student Handbook for timetabling details.

Note: Students completing first year requirements for any of Chemistry, Mathematics or Physics via the three course options (i.e. Chemistry 1010, 1011, 1031 (or 1800, 1200, 1001), Mathematics 1090, 1000, 1001, Physics 1020, 1021, 1051) instead of the two course options (Chemistry 1050, 1051, Mathematics 1000, 1001, Physics 1050, 1051) will require the corresponding number of extra credits to obtain an Honours degree.

Arrangements for subsequent years will depend on the other science subjects being studied and should be made in consultation with the Head of the Department.

Note: Certain advanced courses may only be offered in alternate years. Candidates therefore should consult the Head of the Department before registration.

Certain of the Graduate courses may be taken in the final year of the Honours Program with the permission of the Head of the Department.

Note: Details of Joint Honours programs with Biochemistry, Earth Sciences, Mathematics and Physics as outlined under Joint Programs.
6.3.6 Course Restrictions
Credit will be given for no more than one of Chemistry 1000, 1010, 1050, 1200, 150A/B, no more than one of Chemistry 1001, 1031, 1051, 150A/B, and no more than one of Chemistry 1001, 1011, 1051, 150A/B.

6.3.7 Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Chemistry courses are designated by CHEM.

Note: Attendance for all Chemistry Laboratory sessions is mandatory. Failure to attend may result in a failing grade or deregistration from the course.

1010 and 1011 Introductory Chemistry I and II examines descriptive chemistry; atomic structure; chemical bonding; periodicity illustrated by the chemistry of selected elements; mole concept and stoichiometry; physical properties of matter; energetics; rates of reaction; chemical equilibrium; electrochemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 1010 is a prerequisite for CHEM 1011.
Lectures: Four hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

1031 Introductory Chemistry III (F) & (I) prepares students who have completed CHEM 1010 and 1011 for CHEM 2210, 2300 and 2400. It augments the topics covered in CHEM 1010 and 1011 with the greater depth and problem solving emphasis of CHEM 1050 and 1051.
Prerequisites: CHEM 1011 and Mathematics 1000.
Lectures: Four hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

1050 and 1051 General Chemistry I and II has topics that will be similar to 1010/1011 but will be treated in greater depth with an emphasis on problem solving.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 1000. Mathematics 1000 may be taken concurrently with CHEM 1050. CHEM 1050 and Mathematics 1000 are prerequisites for CHEM 1051.
Lectures: Four hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

Notes: 1. For entry to CHEM 1050 students must have a. achieved at least 75% in high school CHEM 3202 and
b. successfully completed high school Advanced Mathematics 3202.
2. Other students, including those with no high school chemistry background, will take CHEM 1010. It is recommended that students taking CHEM 1010 have at least 75% in high school Academic Mathematics 3204, or a pass in any university level mathematics course.
3. Only six science credit hours will be awarded for a major or honours in Chemistry from the following course groups: CHEM 1010/1011/1051, or CHEM 1800/1200/1001 (Sir Wilfred Grenfell College).

2210 Introductory Inorganic Chemistry (W) studies the chemistry of selected s, p, and d block elements. Introduction to crystal and molecular structures and to molecular orbital and crystal field theories.
Prerequisites: CHEM 1051 (or 1001 or 1031), Mathematics 1000.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

2300 Introductory Physical Chemistry (F) & (W) examines introductory chemical thermodynamics and equilibria. Complementary laboratory work with an emphasis on quantitative analysis.
Prerequisites: CHEM 1051 (or 1001 or 1031), Mathematics 1001, Physics 1051 or 1021.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

2400 Introductory Organic Chemistry I (F) is a course on bonding involving carbon; conformations and stereochemistry; introduction to functional groups and nomenclature; properties, syntheses and reactions of hydrocarbons, alkyl halides and alcohols.
Prerequisites: CHEM 1051 or 1031; or CHEM 1010 and 1011 with a grade of at least 80% in each; or CHEM 1011 with a grade of at least 85%; or CHEM 1001 with a grade of at least 65%.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: Credit will not be given for more than one of CHEM 2400, 2420, 2440, and 240A/B.

2401 Introductory Organic Chemistry II (W) is an introduction to the interpretation of infrared, H and C-13 NMR spectra; properties, syntheses and reactions of ethers, simple aromatic compounds, ketones, aldehydes, amines, carboxylic acids and their derivatives; aldol and related reactions.
Prerequisite: CHEM 2400.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: Credit will not be given for more than one of CHEM 2401, 2420, 2440, and 240A/B.

2440 Organic Chemistry for Biologists (F) & (W) is an introduction to the principles of organic chemistry with an emphasis on material relevant to biological molecules. The laboratory will introduce techniques and illustrate concepts covered in the course.
Prerequisite: CHEM 1011 (or 1001 or 1051).
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: This course is designed primarily for Biology Majors. It may not be used for credit by Chemistry or Biochemistry Majors and may not serve as a prerequisite for any other Chemistry course. Credit may be obtained for only one of CHEM 2400, 2420, 2440, 240A/B.

3100 Analytical Chemistry I (F) & (W) is a treatment of data, gravimetric analysis, volumetric analysis including oxidation-reduction titrations using electrochemical techniques, the use of specific ion electrodes, and titrations in non-aqueous systems. Spectrophotometric trace analysis and titration.
Prerequisites: CHEM 2300.
Lectures and Laboratories: Not more than seven hours per week.

3211 Inorganic Chemistry (W) is a detailed examination of the structure, bonding, and chemistry of the d block elements.
Prerequisites: CHEM 2210 and 2300.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

3300 Physical Chemistry I (F) examines the laws of thermodynamics, calorimetry, thermochemistry, equilibrium constants, introduction to thermodynamics of non-ideal gases. Topics will include partial molar quantities, phase equilibria, thermodynamics of solutions, activity coefficients of non-electrolytes, the Gibbs-Duhem equation.
Prerequisites: CHEM 2300, Mathematics 2000.
Lectures: Three per week.

Prerequisites: CHEM 3300 and Applied Mathematics 3260.
Lectures: Three per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

3410 Bio-organic Chemistry (F) is a study of the major classes of biomolecules; their structure, function, and in vitro chemistry. An introduction to natural products. Synthetic polymers compared to biopolymers. Heterocyclic molecules and derived biomolecules.
Prerequisite: CHEM 2401. It is recommended that CHEM 3500 be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: Students may obtain credit for only one of CHEM 3410 and the former CHEM 3401.

3411 Synthetic Organic Chemistry I (W) is a survey of some important reactions used in organic synthesis, including pericyclic reactions and those based on carbonation, carbene, nitrene and carbanion intermediates. Emphasis is placed on multifunctional compounds.
Prerequisite: CHEM 3410, or all of CHEM 2401, Biochemistry 2100 and Biochemistry 2101.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.
Note: Students may obtain credit for only one of CHEM 3411 and the former CHEM 3400.

3500 Spectroscopic Analysis: Spectroscopy and Structure (F) is the application of spectroscopic methods to the determination of molecular structure. Emphasis will be placed on electronic, vibrational and rotational spectroscopy, nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy and mass spectrometry.
Prerequisites: CHEM 2210, 2300, 2401. Physics 2750 is strongly recommended.
Lectures and Laboratory: Not more than six hours per week.

3600 Marine Chemistry (W) - inactive course.

4110 Analytical Chemistry II (F) examines error treatment, atomic emission and absorption spectroscopy, chromatographic and other separation techniques, electroanalytical chemistry, mass spectrometry, X-ray spectroscopy, ion and electron spectroscopy.
Prerequisites: CHEM 3100 and 3300. CHEM 3300 may be taken concurrently with CHEM 4110.
Lectures and Laboratories: Not more than six hours per week.
Note: Students may obtain credit for only one of CHEM 4110 and the former CHEM 4100 and for only one of CHEM 4101 and the former CHEM 4101.

4150 Advanced Spectrometric Techniques - inactive course.
4151 Analytical Separations and Organic Mass Spectrometry examines advances in the traditional chromatographic techniques, the development of new analytical tools in separation science, the interfacing of mass spectrometers to chromatographic instruments, and other mass spectrometric techniques.
Prerequisites: CHEM 4110, which may be taken concurrently (or CHEM 4100 or CHEM 4101).
Lectures and Laboratories: Not more than six hours per week.

4152 Electroanalytical Techniques examines the principles and theory of dynamic electrochemistry, voltammetry, stripping analysis, electro-chemical sensors and detectors.
Prerequisites: CHEM 4110, which may be taken concurrently (or CHEM 4100 or CHEM 4101).
Lectures and Laboratories: Not more than six hours per week.

4201 Coordination Chemistry in Biological Molecules - Structural, Mechanistic and Magnetic Studies examines the role of certain transition elements e.g. iron, copper, cobalt, and zinc, in proteins and enzymes will be discussed in terms of structural features, the natural ligands, magnetic properties, mechanisms, etc., and reinforced with examples of 'model compounds'. Magnetic theory, in particular for polynuclear transition metal complexes, will also be developed.
Prerequisite: CHEM 3211.
Lectures: Three per week.

4202 Selected Topics in Main Group Chemistry - in inactive course.

4203 Organometallic Chemistry is principles and applications of organometallic chemistry with emphasis on compounds of the transition metals, lanthanides and actinides. A study of synthetic methods, structure, bonding, reactions and applications of these concepts to organic synthesis and to catalysis.
Prerequisite: CHEM 3211.
Lectures: Three per week.

4204 Inorganic Reaction Mechanisms and Catalysis is a survey of inorganic and organometallic reactions, their mechanisms and kinetic characteristics. In addition, stoichiometric non-rigidity, reactions of coordinated ligands and homogeneous catalysis are discussed.
Prerequisite: CHEM 3211.
Lectures: Three per week.

4205 Photochemistry of Transition Metal Complexes is an introduction to the theory of electronic excited states in transition metal complexes. Applications to artificial photosynthesis, photodynamic therapy, molecular photovoltaics and molecular electronics.

6.4 Computer Science
The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:

1. Major in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
2. Honours in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
3. Honours in Computer Science (Software Engineering) (B.Sc. only)
4. Computer Internship Option (CIIO) (B.Sc. and B.Sc. Honours only)
5. Minor in Computer Science (B.A., B.Sc.)
6. Applied Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
7. Computer Science/Statistics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
8. Computer Science/Pure Mathematics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
9. Computer Science/Geography Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
10. Computer Science/Physics Joint Major
11. Computer Science/Pure Mathematics Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
12. Computer Science/Statistics Joint Honours
13. Computer Science/Geography Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
14. Computer Science/Physics Joint Honours
15. Joint Degree of Bachelor of Science with a Major in Computer Science and Bachelor of Commerce (Co-operative)
16. Computer Science/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. Only)

Details of our joint program offerings in the Faculties of Arts, Science, and Business Administration may be found under the heading Joint Programs following the heading Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science.

6.4.1 Major in Computer Science

1. Forty-five credit hours in Computer Science courses are required for a major in Computer Science:
   a. Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, and 4770.
   b. At least 6 additional credit hours at the 4000 level in Computer Science courses.
   c. Three additional credit hours in Computer Science courses at the 3000 level or beyond.

Note: Students are encouraged to take Business 2000, Mathematics 3000, and Statistics 2560.
6.4.2 Honours in Computer Science

1. See General Regulations for the Honours Degree (B.A. or B.Sc. as appropriate).
2. Sixty-three credit hours in Computer Science courses are required for the Honours Degree in Computer Science, including:
   a. Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4770, and 4780.
   b. Eighteen additional credit hours in Computer Science at the 4000 level.
   c. Six additional credit hours in Computer Science courses at the 3000 level or beyond.
3. Additional courses required are: Mathematics 2000, 2050, Statistics 2510 and Pure Mathematics 2320.
   Note: Students are encouraged to take Business 2000, Mathematics 3000, and Statistics 2560.

6.4.3 Honours in Computer Science (Software Engineering) (B.Sc. Only)

Completion of the Honours in Computer Science (Software Engineering) Program does not qualify persons to hold the designation “Professional Engineer” as defined by various Provincial Acts governing the Engineering Profession.

1. See General regulations for the Honours Degree (B.Sc.).
2. Sixty-three credit hours in Computer Science courses are required for the Honours Degree in Computer Science (Software Engineering), including:
   a. Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760, 3715, 3716, 3718, 3719, 3724, 3725, 3754, 4719, 4759, 4770, and 4780.
   b. Twelve additional credit hours in Computer Science courses at the 4000 level.
   c. Three additional credit hours in Computer Science courses at the 3000 level or beyond.
   Note: The Honours project (4780) must be in the area of Software Engineering.

6.4.4 Computer Industry Internship Option (CIIO):

The Computer Industry Internship Option (CIIO) provides an opportunity for qualified students to obtain rewarding placements that help them develop practical skills in a real work setting before graduation. The CIIO is available to Computer Science Majors (B.Sc. and B.Sc. Honours only) who will typically apply between their third and fourth year of studies.

Admission Requirements:
In order to be considered for admission to the CIIO, an applicant must:
1. be a declared Computer Science Major;
2. have successfully completed Computer Science 1710, Computer Science 2710, Computer Science 2711, Computer Science 2742, Computer Science 2760, Computer Science 3716, and any two other core 3000-level computer science courses; and
3. have at least one computer science course left to complete after the internship.

In addition to meeting the above applicants are also subject to academic performance.

Internship Duration:
Subject to the availability of job openings, a student may choose either an 8, 12 or 16 consecutive month internship period.

Internship Guidelines:
1. Internship employment is normally organized by the Internship Co-ordinator (hereafter referred to as the Co-ordinator); however, students who have been accepted to the CIIO may also obtain their own internship placements. All placements are subject to the approval of the Co-ordinator and of the Head of the Department of Computer Science.
2. Students who have applied to the internship program give permission to the Co-ordinator to supply prospective employers with copies of their resume.
3. After being placed with an employer, students are not permitted to drop their internship without prior approval from the Co-ordinator and the Head of the Department of Computer Science. Students who drop an internship without permission, who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, or who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their discharge from the placements, will normally be awarded a fail grade for the internship period and may not be permitted to reapply.

Note: Students should also refer to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

Expectation of Work:
Within a month of starting the internship, students are required to submit a plan of intended work for the internship. They are also required to submit a progress report due the last day of classes of each semester in which they are working. The plan of intended work and progress reports are to be submitted to the Co-ordinator.

At the end of the internship period, students are required to submit a final report which will include a description of their internship projects and activities as well as their original objectives and accomplishments. The final report is to be submitted to the Co-ordinator by the last day of classes of the semester in question.

Registration, Assessment of Performance, and Assignment of Grades:
Students must register for the course Computer Science 3700 every semester during their internship.

Computer Science 3700 is a non-credit course open only to students who have been accepted into the Internship Program. During the internship, the employer and intern will complete student performance evaluations every four months and will submit them to the Co-ordinator. The final assessment of total work performed is the responsibility of the Co-ordinator, and will be based upon both input from the employer and the intern’s final report.

At the end of the internship, each intern will be assigned one of the following grades after the final assessment of their performance:
1. Pass with Distinction (PWD): Indicates excellent performance in both the work report and work performance.
2. Pass (PAS): Indicates that performance meets expectations in both the work report and the work performance.
3. Fail (FAL): Indicates failing performance in the work report or the work performance.

Also, the following will be noted in the transcript of the intern:
1. Requirements for the Computer Industry Internship Option have been completed. Internship Duration: - months.
2. A grade of NC (No Credit) for Computer Science 3700 will be awarded in all semesters of the Internship Option prior to the final Semester.
CIIO and Honours Program:
In case a student is enrolled in both the Honours program and the CIIO, the requirements of both must be met. Upon approval from the honours project supervisor, within the Department, the employer and the Head of the Department of Computer Science, an internship project may be submitted as a component of an honours project. These arrangements must be made within the first semester of the internship placement.

6.4.5 Minor in Computer Science
1. For a Minor in Computer Science, a student must complete at least 24 credit hours in Computer Science courses, including: Computer Science 1710, 2710, 2711, 2742, 2760.
2. The remaining 9 credit hours in Computer Science courses must be at the 3000 level or above.

6.4.6 Course Numbering Scheme
There are five areas of Computer Science offered in the 3000- and 4000-level courses. The meaning of the third digit of a course number is as follows:
1. Programming Languages
2. Computer Systems
3. Numerical Computations
4. Theoretical Aspects
5. Applications (e.g., Artificial Intelligence, Computer Graphics, Data Base, Robotics, Computational Geometry, Image Processing, Computer Networking, Computer Aided Design)
7 - Project Course
8 - Honours Project
9 - Directed Readings

6.4.7 Supplementary Examinations
Supplementary examinations will be allowed in certain Computer Science courses which have written final examinations. Students should refer to the Faculty of Science degree regulations for details.

6.4.8 Faculty Advisors
The Department has an Undergraduate Advisor for Computer Science majors to consult with on academic matters.

6.4.9 Undergraduate Handbook
Additional information about the undergraduate Computer Science programs and courses can be found in the Computer Science Undergraduate Handbook available from the General Office, Department of Computer Science or from www.cs.mun.ca.

6.4.10 Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Computer Science courses are designated by COMP.

6.4.10.1 First Year Courses
1510 An Introduction to Programming for Scientific Computing (F) & (W) introduces students to basic programming in the context of numerical methods with the goal of providing the foundation necessary to handle larger scientific programming projects. Numerical methods to solve selected problems from Physics, Chemistry, and Mathematics will be covered. Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: Two hours per week. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000.

Notes: 1. Students can receive credit for only one of COMP 1510 or COMP 2602.
2. Students who have received credit for the former Applied Mathematics 2120 cannot receive credit for COMP 1510.

1600 Basic Computing and Information Technology (F) & (W) - inactive course.

1700 Introduction to Computer Science (F) & (W) lays the foundation for the art and the science of computing. The course contains fundamental and topical issues in computers, languages, programming and applications. This course is designed for potential Computer Science majors without a background in programming, but is also available for non majors. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: Mathematics 1090 (or equivalent), or Mathematics 1000. Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: Three hours per week.

1710 Object-Oriented Programming I (F) & (W) is an introduction to fundamental programming techniques, primitive data types and operations, program control structures and the use of objects, classes and methods. Prerequisites: Mathematics 1000 (which can be taken concurrently), or Mathematics 1090 (or equivalent). Lectures: Three hours per week.

2710 Object-Oriented Programming II (F) & (W) continues from Object-Oriented Programming I, and studies object-oriented and event-driven programming. Additional topics include: recursion, basic analysis of algorithms, fundamental data structures such as simple linked structures and stacks, and fundamental computing algorithms such as binary search and quadratic time sorting. A brief overview of programming languages, virtual machines and language translations is also provided. Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: Three hours per week.

Prerequisite: COMP 1710.

2711 Introduction to Algorithms and Data Structures (F) & (W) includes the study of standard ways of organizing and manipulating data in computer storage. Fundamental concepts in the design and analysis of algorithms are also discussed. Lectures: Three hours per week. Laboratory: Three hours per week.

Prerequisite: COMP 2711. Note: It is recommended that students complete COMP 2742 prior to registering for COMP 2711.

2742 Logic for Computer Science (F) & (W) is an introduction to propositional and predicate logic with applications. The use of the system of boolean logic in reasoning and circuit design, as well as basic proof techniques and the resolution principle, for both propositional and predicate logic. Concepts involving sets will be used to illustrate different types of proof techniques. The probable intractability of boolean logic and Goedel's incompleteness theorem will be presented. Prerequisite: COMP 1710.

2752 Introduction to Business Data Processing (F) - inactive course.

2760 Encountering the Computer: Society and the Individual (F) & (W) examines social, ethical, legal and cultural issues surrounding the use of computers in modern society. These broader social issues are followed by an examination of the use of social and individual psychology in user interface design. Students will be expected to demonstrate an understanding of these issues both directly (through verbal and written discourse) and practically, by applied to the creation of actual software artifacts. Prerequisites: Two 1000-level English courses, or equivalent. Co-requisite: COMP 2710.

2801 Introductory Computing for Business (F) & (W) introduces students to computer applications in business, document processing, application development, decision support, and information management. A three hour laboratory requirement is expected. Prerequisite: Level III Advanced Mathematics or Mathematics 1000 (which can be taken concurrently) or Mathematics 1090 (or equivalent). Note: Students can receive credit for only one of COMP 1600, COMP 2650, COMP 2801, or Business 2700.

6.4.10.3 Third Year Courses

3700 Industrial Experience (F), (W), (S) is a course for students who are admitted to CIIO. Students are required to register for this non-credit course every semester during their internship. This course is open only to students who have been accepted into the Internship Program and provides an opportunity for qualified students to obtain rewarding job experience of 8, 12 or 16 months of continuous duration, during the course of their studies. Prerequisite: Admission to the Computer Industry Internship Option (CIIO).

3710 Vocational Languages (W) is a study of several programming languages of vocational significance (e.g. a selection from C, C++, Prolog, Perl, Python, and LISP). The use of appropriate programming paradigms to solve some significant problems. Prerequisite: COMP 2710.

3714 Programming Languages and their Processors (F) & (W) reviews typical elements of (imperative) programming languages, and then discusses the implementation of these languages in the form of compilers and interpreters. The topics include specification of syntax and semantics of programming languages, discussion of expressions and assignments, side effects, control structures, data and procedural abstractions, parameter passing, environments, bindings, scopes, and type systems. The recursive-descent technique is used for illustrations of different aspects of syntax analysis, code generation and error recovery. Language interpreters are discussed for both low-level and high-level languages. Prerequisites: Three: COMP 3719 and 3724.

3715 Network Computing with WEB Applications (F) & (W) studies how distributed applications (e.g., client/server Web applications) are constructed using the Internet. Topics covered include: the socket interface for network communication, client/server applications, browser scripting using languages such as Java, PHP, and CGI, generation for web applications (e.g., jsp, pphp), html/css documents, and the use of cryptography to handle security. Prerequisite: COMP 2711.

3716 Software Methodology (F) & (W) studies the development of software by gathering the requirements of the software program, analysing the requirements to create a development model, and creating the software and documentation for the software product. This course studies techniques for all three software development activities. Prerequisite: COMP 2711.

3717 Symbolic Computation and Recursion (W) - inactive course.

3718 Programming in the Small (F) demonstrates the tools and techniques used in the construction of small software systems. The software tools and techniques to be covered include analysis and design of software components, software construction tools (e.g. linkers, builders, debuggers), software library use and design, and system integration. Prerequisites: COMP 2711 and Pure Mathematics 2320.

3719 Theory of Computation and Algorithms (F) & (W) is an introduction to formal algorithmic problem solving. Various algorithm design techniques that sometimes yield efficient solutions are studied. Deterministic and nondeterministic finite automata, Turing machines, pushdown automata and Turing machines are discussed and used to efficiently solve problems such as the String Matching Problem, the parsing of Context-Free Languages, and to introduce the theory of NP-completeness. In addition, Turing machines are used to prove the unsolvability of certain problems. Tractable, intractable and undesirable problems are contrasted. Basic issues related to parallelization are discussed as well.

Prerequisites: COMP 2711 and Pure Mathematics 2320. Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both COMP 3719 and the former COMP 3711. Credit cannot be obtained for both COMP 3719 and the former COMP 3740.

3723 Logic Design (F) - inactive course.

3724 Computer Organization (F) & (W) can be studied at the digital logic implementation level, the instruction set architecture level, and the translation of programming languages to the underlying machine instruction level. This course studies computer organization at these levels.

Prerequisites: COMP 2711 and COMP 2714. Co-requisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3731 Introduction to Scientific Computing (W) makes emphasis on the development of algorithms for the numerical solution of mathematical problems and the study of the numerical stability of these algorithms. The efficiency of these algorithms with respect to speed and storage requirements is considered as well. Emphasis is also placed on the study of the sensitivity of selected problems to perturbations in the data. There is also a brief introduction to the development of numerical algorithms that take advantage of advanced computer architectures, such as pipeline processors, array processors and parallel processors. Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 and Mathematics 2050, and one of COMP 2602 or COMP 2710. Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both COMP 3731 and Applied Mathematics 3132.

3751 Computational Aspects of Operations Research (W) - inactive course.

3753 Computational Aspects of Linear Programming (F) is an introduction to the Linear Programming Problem (LPP). The emphasis is placed upon developing the most recent and numerically reliable algorithms for the solution of the Linear Programming Problem. The numerical stability of these algorithms will be examined as well. Geometric understanding of the LPP: Simplex method for the LPP. Sparse matrix LPP. Duality and postoptimality analysis. Extensions to the simplex algorithm. Principles of interior algorithms for the LPP. Prerequisite: Mathematics 2050, and one of COMP 2602 or 2710.

3754 Introduction to Information and Intelligent Systems (F) & (W) introduces students to application areas that are away from usual number-based and text-based processing. Students will learn the basic concepts and become aware of the historical developments and social and ethical issues related to such application areas as intelligent systems and information management. This exposure will help students to become knowledgeable about managing large volumes of data and dealing with problems that are well defined but whose algorithmic solutions are not feasible or problems that are fuzzily defined. Prerequisite: COMP 2711 and COMP 2742.

3790 Directed Readings - inactive course.

6.4.10.4 Fourth Year Courses

4711 Structure of Programming Languages covers programming language design considerations; syntactic and semantic structure; survey of typical features and operations; analysis of facilities for control and data structuring; language extensibility; execution models; formal specification of programming languages. Prerequisites: COMP 3719 and COMP 3724.

4712 Compiler Construction studies properties of formal grammars and languages; syntax-directed parsing and code generation; top-down and bottom-up parsing methods; LL(k) and LR(k) grammars and parsers; Code optimization; compiler writing tools. Prerequisites: COMP 3719 and COMP 3724.

4715 and 4717 Special Topics in Programming Languages

4718 Survey of Software Engineering surveys the major topics of software engineering. Areas covered include: requirements capture, system design and design approaches, verification and validation (including formal methods and testing), and management of the software development process. Prerequisite: COMP 3716.

4719 Software Specification - inactive course.
4721 Operating Systems studies the design and implementation of an operating system’s kernel. The main components used in operating system implementations include: context switches, process management, memory management, interprocess communication, file systems and system calls. The data structures and algorithms used in implementing the above components are studied. The different architectural styles of kernel implementation are also considered. Real-time operating systems are also discussed.
Prerequisite: COMP 3725.
Note: Credit may not be obtained for both COMP 4721 and Engineering 8894.

4723 Introduction to Microprocessors examines the architecture and instruction sets for several microprocessors. The use of microprocessors as device controllers; comparisons of hardware and programmed techniques; microprocessor interfacing with external devices; methods of I/O; bus structures; modern microprocessor support devices are discussed.
Prerequisite: COMP 3724.
Lecture: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Minimum of three hours per week. Practical experience with basic principles will be obtained through laboratory experience.

4725 Introduction to LSI Design (same as Engineering 8863) - inactive course.

4726-4729 Special Topics in Computer Systems

4734 Matrix Computations and Applications is an introduction to linear algebra; solution to linear systems; scaling, improving and estimating accuracy; the least squares problem; the eigenvalue problem; singular value decomposition of a matrix; the generalized eigenvalue problem.
Prerequisite: COMP 3731.

4735 Advanced Matrix Computations and Applications - inactive course.

4736-4739 Special Topics in Numerical Computations

4740 Design and Analysis of Algorithms will give an overview of techniques for the design of efficient optimal-solution and heuristics algorithms. It will include an introduction to various advanced data structures for set and string processing that are used to further optimize algorithm efficiency.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.

4741 Formal Languages and Computability is an in-depth study of various types of formal machines and their associated languages. Effective computability and other formalisms, such as lambda calculus will be studied as well.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of the former COMP 3740 or COMP 4741.

4742 Computational Complexity is an in-depth discussion of computational complexity theory. Topics covered in the course include: models of computation (for both serial and parallel computations); complexity classes; complexity classes (NP, PSPACE, NC, LOGSPACE and P); and randomized computations.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.

4743 Graph Algorithms and Combinatorial Optimization discusses classical problems in combinatorial optimization and graph algorithms, including matchings, colorability, independent sets, isomorphism, network flows and scheduling. Special families of graphs are discussed and algorithms that would otherwise be NP-hard or complete are shown to be polynomial time when restricted to such families.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.

4745-4749 (Excluding 4748) Special Topics in Theoretical Aspects

4748 Introduction to the Science of Complexity is an exploration of the fundamental aspects of modern sciences such as biology, economics, ecology, psychology, sociology, and the social sciences. The purpose of this course is to provide a general overview of the complex systems approach and the role of complexity theory in understanding the natural and social world.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.

4750 Computer Networks looks at how the operation of computer networks requires the following: a) communication between two computers, b) information transfer between two computers not directly connected, and c) services that need computer communication. This course focuses on the standard solutions and services used to fulfill the previous requirements. These include: physical transmission of signals, reliable communication based on unreliable communication channels, the routing of messages between connected computers to reach computers that are not directly connected, e-mail, file transfer, name servers, remote terminal access and the World Wide Web. Particular attention will be placed on the workings of the Internet.
Prerequisites: COMP 3715 and COMP 3725.

4751 Database Systems introduces students to database processing, database management systems and database design considerations. It will cover the theory and methodologies essential for the relational database design, implementation, manipulation and optimization and management.
Prerequisites: COMP 3725 and 3754.

4754 Database Systems introduces students to database processing, database management systems and database design considerations. It will cover the theory and methodologies essential for the relational database design, implementation, manipulation and optimization and management.
Prerequisites: COMP 3725 and 3754.

4756 Image Processing will centre on the key analytical and algorithmic tools and concepts of digital image processing. Topics will include Transformations, Enhancement, Encoding, Data Bases, Segmentation and Description.
In addition to three one-hour lectures, there will be a three hour laboratory per week, to be scheduled by the Department.
Prerequisite: COMP 3719.

4759 Computer Networks looks at how the operation of computer networks requires the following: a) communication between two computers, b) information transfer between two computers not directly connected, and c) services that need computer communication. This course focuses on the standard solutions and services used to fulfill the previous requirements. These include: physical transmission of signals, reliable communication based on unreliable communication channels, the routing of messages between connected computers to reach computers that are not directly connected, e-mail, file transfer, name servers, remote terminal access and the World Wide Web. Particular attention will be placed on the workings of the Internet.
Prerequisites: COMP 3715 and COMP 3725.

4761 Human-Computer Interaction emphasizes user interface design, distinguishing usability research from testing. Students identify usability issues, and then prototype and analyse their own solutions. Representative methods, techniques and tools related to design, testing and research are discussed. Specific topics may include: environments and toolkits, task analysis, user modelling, user psychology, qualitative and quantitative data analysis.
Prerequisites: COMP 2760 and 3719 and Statistics 2510.

4768 Introduction to Information Visualization and Applications focuses on the design and implementation of interactive visualization techniques for the analysis, comprehension, exploration, and explanation of large collections of abstract information. Topics to be covered include principles of visual perception, information data types, visual encodings of data, representation of relationships, interaction methods, understanding user goals and tasks, and evaluation techniques. Case studies of accepted techniques and the current state-of-the-art in information visualization will be presented.
Prerequisites: COMP 2760 and COMP 3719.

4770 Team Project has as its main objective to develop a working prototype of a software system as a team effort. A group of students will work on a project for a term, experiencing the advantages and difficulties of team projects.
Prerequisite: COMP 3716, COMP 3724, COMP 3754, and one other 3000-level course, preferably COMP 3715.

4780 Honours Project introduces computer science honours students to research activities, familiarizes them with a special problem in computer science, and provides independent study on an advanced topic under the direct supervision of a member of the computer science faculty. The topic is determined in consultation with the supervisor. The student is required to produce a written report on the project, to include the literature search on the topic, and to present this work at a departmental seminar prior to the last week of the semester.
Prerequisite: Consent of the Head of Department.
Note: This course is only available to students who have been accepted into the honours program.

4800-4825 Special Topics will be offered as departmental resources permit.
Prerequisites/Co-requisites: Special topics courses are not offered on a regular basis, but whenever departmental resources permit. For these reasons, the prerequisites can vary each time the courses are offered.
6.5 Earth Sciences

The following undergraduate programs are available:

120 credit hour programs
1. Honours or General degrees in Earth Sciences
2. Joint Honours in Earth Sciences/Physics
3. Joint Honours in Geography/Earth Sciences
4. Joint Honours in Geophysics/Physical Oceanography
5. Joint Major in Earth Sciences/Physics

135 credit hour programs
1. Joint Honours in Biology and Earth Sciences
2. Joint Honours in Earth Sciences/Chemistry

24 credit hour program
1. Minor in Earth Sciences

Although Honours programs can be completed in 120 credit hours, students who do not select the prescribed common block of required courses will normally need more than 120 credit hours to satisfy degree requirements.

Details of joint programs are given after the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science.

6.5.1 Undergraduate Handbook

Additional information about the undergraduate program, individual courses and suggested timetables can be found in the Department of Earth Sciences Undergraduate Handbook which is available on the web at www.mun.ca/earthsciences.

6.5.2 Entrance Requirements

In order to be formally admitted to major programs in Earth Sciences, students must have successfully completed 3 first-year credit hours in each of the following departments: English, Mathematics, Earth Sciences, Chemistry, and Physics. These courses must be selected from the list of required courses for degree programs in Earth Sciences. Students are encouraged to declare their major in their first year of study at the university.

Most of the 2000 level Earth Sciences courses that are required for major and minor programs in Earth Sciences have Physics and Chemistry prerequisites, and students are advised to complete these prerequisites in their first year of study.

Students will not normally be permitted entry to 3000 level (or above) Earth Sciences courses without having completed all 1000-level courses listed in the Common Block of Required Courses specified in Clause 1. in the Major Programs in Earth Sciences.

6.5.3 Minor in Earth Sciences

A Minor in Earth Sciences will consist of the following:

1. Earth Sciences 1000, 1002, 2030, 2031, 2401 or 2702.
2. Nine credit hours chosen from Earth Sciences courses at the 2000 level or higher with at least 3 credit hours from courses at the 3000 level or higher. Credit hours from Earth Sciences 2150, 2914, 2915, 2916, 4310 and 4950 cannot be used to fulfill this requirement.

Several of the courses at 3000 level or higher have Earth Sciences 2502 and 2905 as co- or prerequisites.

6.5.4 Major Programs in Earth Sciences

Programs in Earth Sciences consist of a common block of required courses (below), and additional courses that depend on the degree being sought.

Common Block of Required Courses:

All majors in Earth Sciences must complete those courses specified in Clauses 1. through 4. Students should examine prerequisites of 3000 level courses in order to decide which course to select under Clauses 3. and 4.

1. English 1080 and 1110 (or equivalent), Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Earth Sciences 1000 and 1002, one of Chemistry 1010 or 1050 (or equivalent) and one of Chemistry 1011 or 1051 (or equivalent), Physics 1050 and 1051 or Physics 1020* and 1021*.

   *Students who intend or are required to complete higher level Physics courses must complete Physics 1051 as well, since it is a prerequisite for higher level Physics courses. Students should refer to the Department of Physics calendar entry for these courses.

   Students will receive credit for only two first year Physics courses if they take Physics 1020, 1021 and 1051.

2. Earth Sciences 2030, 2031, 2401, 2502, 2702, 2905, 3420.
4. Biology 2120 (or Biology 1001 and 1002), or Physics 2055.

Students must ensure that the prerequisites for Earth Sciences courses are fulfilled. Great difficulties in timetabling may be encountered if the required first-year courses are not completed before the beginning of second year.

6.5.5 Honours B.Sc. Degree in Earth Sciences

Geoscientific careers vary widely in required background. The Honours B.Sc. program is designed with considerable choice in order that students may personalize their programs based on career goals. Note that the flexibility afforded by this program is not without limits. Some courses have prerequisites, and it is ultimately the student's responsibility to ensure that these prerequisites are satisfied. Students should consult faculty members and the departmental Student Handbook for guidance in selecting courses appropriate to particular career paths.

In addition to the Common Block of Required Courses listed under Major Programs in Earth Sciences, the following requirements must be completed to qualify for the Honours B.Sc. degree in Earth Sciences:

1. Earth Sciences 499A and 499B.
2. At least 28 additional credit hours from Earth Sciences courses at 3000 and/or 4000 levels with a minimum of 12 credit hours from courses at the 4000 level. Credit hours from Earth Sciences 2150, 2914, 2915, 2916, 4310 and 4950 cannot be used to fulfill this requirement.
3. Six credit hours from the Faculty of Science courses numbered 2000 or higher. Credit hours from Earth Sciences courses, Biology 3811 and the former Physics 2050 are excluded.
4. Additional credit hours selected to conform with regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor Science so as to achieve a total of 120 credit hours. Students are encouraged to complete a minor in another department.

6.5.6 General B.Sc. Degree in Earth Sciences
In addition to the Common Block of Required Courses listed under Major Programs in Earth Sciences, the following requirements must be completed to qualify for the General B.Sc. degree in Earth Sciences:
1. Eighteen additional credit hours from Earth Sciences courses at 3000 and/or 4000 levels with a minimum of 9 credit hours from courses at 4000 level. Credit hours from Earth Sciences 2150, 2914, 2915, 2916, 4310, 4950 and 499A/B cannot be used to fulfill this requirement.
2. Six credit hours from Science Faculty courses numbered 2000 or higher. Credit hours from Earth Sciences courses, Biology 3811 and the former Physics 2050 are excluded.
3. Additional credit hours selected to conform with regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor Science so as to achieve a total of 120 credit hours. Students are encouraged to complete a minor in another department.

Students are advised that this is the minimum requirement for the General B.Sc. in Earth Sciences. Many provinces, including Newfoundland and Labrador, have legislation requiring registration of professional geoscientists. A basic requirement for registration is, in most cases, the course equivalent of an Honours B.Sc. degree. Students intending to make a career in Earth Sciences should consider taking the Honours Degree program of courses, regardless of whether honours standing is maintained.

General notes for all Earth Sciences programs and courses
Notes: 1. Students wishing to pursue study within the programs offered by Earth Sciences are strongly advised to keep in close contact with the Department to discuss course programs before registration in order to maintain proper sequencing.
2. Students wishing to take some Earth Sciences courses without intending to major in Earth Sciences should consult with the Head of Department (or delegate) to determine the courses most suitable to their needs and capabilities. Earth Sciences 2914, 2915, 2916, 2917 and 2150 are especially suitable for such students and have no Earth Sciences prerequisites.
3. Most courses comprise six hours of instruction per week, usually three hours of lectures or seminars and a three-hour laboratory period; however, at an advanced level other methods of instruction may be adopted.
4. Consult the notes of field courses 2905, 3905 and 4905 for additional information. These courses require payment of a participation fee to cover costs for logistics and equipment. Registration for these courses will be by application only and may be competitive.
5. The prerequisites for courses 4302, 4902 and 4903 refer to core courses in the Faculty of Science. For the purposes of these prerequisite statements, core courses are defined as those courses that are specified by each department as mandatory to fulfill the course requirements for their General or Honours programs.
6. Certain of the 4000 level courses may not be offered every year.
6.5.8 Course Descriptions

The first digit of each course number designates the level (year) of the course. The second digit indicates the area of Earth Sciences into which the course best fits, as follows:

Second Digit

0 - mineralogy and petrology
1 - geophysics
2 - economic geology
3 - stratigraphy and marine geology
4 - structural geology and tectonics
5 - geochemistry
6 - technical fields and petroleum geology
7 - sedimentation, geomorphology
8 - paleontology
9 - general and dissertation

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Earth Sciences courses are designated by EASC.

6.5.8.1 First Year

1000 Earth Systems is a survey of the structure, function and interrelations of Earth’s lithosphere, hydrosphere, atmosphere and biosphere. Topics include an exploration of the physical and chemical properties of planetary materials, forces driving and sustaining Earth systems, and biological modifiers (including humankind) on the Earth today.

- Lectures: Three hours per week.
- Laboratories: Three hours per week.

1001 Evolution of Earth Systems - inactive course.

1002 Concepts and Methods in Earth Sciences provides an introduction to a broad range of concepts concerning the development of the geological record and the Earth; practical methods for collection of field based data; topics in map interpretation and geometric analysis, stratigraphy, paleontology, structure and petrology. The course is presented with an emphasis on the development of practical skills needed to pursue a career in Earth Sciences.

- Lectures: Three hours per week.
- Laboratories: Three hours per week.

Prerequisite: EASC 1000.

6.5.8.2 Second Year

2030 Mineralogy (F) provides an introduction to crystallography and the structure of minerals; introduction to crystal optics; study of the rock forming minerals and minerals of economic significance. Laboratory work comprises study of the structures and symmetries of minerals, chemistry of rock forming minerals, introduction to transmitted light microscopy of rocks, hand specimen recognition of common rocks and minerals.

- Prerequisites: EASC 1000, Chemistry 1011 (or 1051 or equivalent), Physics 1051 (or 1021 or 1054), and its Mathematics prerequisite is strongly recommended.
- Co-requisite: EASC 2502.
- Note: See credit restriction under EASC 2031.

2031 Mineralogy and Petrography (W) examines the optical and chemical properties of rock-forming minerals; the petrography and classification of igneous and metamorphic rocks and applications of relevant phase equilibrium to the study of minerals. Laboratory work comprises optical mineralogy and petrography of igneous and metamorphic rocks.

Prerequisite: EASC 2030 and 2502.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both EASC 203A/B and one or both of EASC 2030 and 2031.

2150 The Solar System (F) & (W) describes the basic astronomy of the Solar System, tracing the search to understand motion of the Sun, Moon and planets in the sky; modern observations of planets, moons, comets, asteroids, and meteors and what they tell us about the origin and evolution of the Solar System.

Prerequisite: EASC 2150 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject. Credit may not be obtained for both EASC 2150 and 2502.

Note: EASC 2150 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Earth Sciences.

2311 Geoscience Communication (W) - inactive course.

2401 Structural Geology (W) provides an introduction to basic concepts; the physicals of rock deformation, the classification and descriptive geometry of major and minor structures and their relationship to stress and strain. Laboratory work will concentrate on analysis of structural orientation data, and the analysis of structures in geological maps and cross-sections.

Prerequisite: EASC 2905 or permission of the Head of the Department. This course complements traditional disciplines such as history, economics, and political science and should be of particular interest to teachers. EASC 2915 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Earth Sciences.

2502 Introduction to Geochemistry (F) provides an overview of both low- and high-temperature geochemistry. Topics include: origin and classification of the Earth’s materials; chemical differentiation of the solar system and solid Earth; aqueous geochemistry and the stability of minerals; radogenic and stable isotopes. Geochemical concepts are illustrated using data and processes drawn from Earth systems. The laboratory component emphasizes the development of numerical skills needed in geochemistry.

- Prerequisites: EASC 1000, Chemistry 1011 (or 1051 or equivalent).
- Co-requisite: Mathematics 1001.

2702 Sedimentology and Stratigraphy (F) & (W) is a study of the origin and composition of sediments with a focus on depositional processes and resulting sedimentary structures. Study of environments of deposition and the stratigraphic framework of sedimentary successions. Laboratories involve local field trips and the study of hand samples of sedimentary rocks.

Prerequisite: EASC 1002.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both EASC 2702 and the former Geography 3070 or EASC 3070 or EASC 3701.

2905 Introduction to Geological Mapping (F) is a two credit hour course based on approximately 6 days of geological mapping in Precambrian rocks near St. John’s, and 2 days of in-class work preparing a digital map and written report. Emphasis is placed on the recognition and description of sedimentary and igneous rocks in the field, and techniques of geological mapping and the taking of field notes.

Prerequisite: EASC 1002.

Notes:

1. This course will be given during a special session immediately following the fall semester. Entry is by application to the Head of the Department (or delegate) only.
2. Credit may not be obtained for both EASC 2905 and the former EASC 2910 or EASC 2306.
3. Attendance for all of the field school days is required. Failure to attend may result in a failing grade or withdrawal from the course.

2914 The Earth’s Energy Resources: Past, Present and Future (F) (same as former Geology 2414 and EASC 2414) provides a scientific analysis of the Earth’s energy resources. The history of human exploitation of them; consequences for quality of life, and political and economic power; scenarios for the future.

Note: EASC 2914 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject. This course complements traditional disciplines such as history, economics, and political science and should be of particular interest to teachers. EASC 2914 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Earth Sciences.

2915 The Earth’s Material Resources: Past, Present and Future (W) (same as former Geology 2415 and EASC 2415) provides a scientific analysis of the Earth’s material resources (metals, non-metals, water). The history of human exploitation of them; consequences for quality of life, and political and economic power; scenarios for the future.

Note: EASC 2915 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject. This course complements traditional disciplines such as history, economics, and political science and should be of particular interest to teachers. EASC 2915 is not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Earth Sciences.

2916 Natural Hazards on a Dynamic Earth (W) describes the surface of the Earth being in a constant state of change, thereby posing risks and challenges for society. An understanding of geological processes in the past and present provides context for evaluating risks related to earthquakes, volcanic activity and mass movements, challenges related to water resources, land-use planning and waste disposal, and the background to interpret sources and consequences of climate change. The course will provide a broad perspective on contemporary issues facing society.

Note: EASC 2916 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject. This course complements traditional disciplines such as history, economics, and political science and should be of particular interest to teachers.

EASC 2917: Gems: the science and politics introduces students to precious and semiprecious gems. This examination of representative samples of their mineralogy and origin, and from the perspectives of geography and the socio-political issues of mining, recovery, trade and cartels. The properties that confer value upon gems (colour, clarity, cut and carat), the techniques used to enhance, fake and imitate gems and the techniques used to detect fraudulent gems will be covered. The course will include discussion of the diamond industry in Canada and consideration of some famous gems.

Credit Restriction: Not acceptable as one of the required courses for the Minor, Major or Honours programs in Earth Sciences.

Note: EASC 2917 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject. This course complements traditional disciplines such as history, economics, and political science and should be of particular interest to teachers.

6.5.8.3 Third Year

3030 Mineralogy and Materials Science provides a review of elementary crystallography, introduction to space groups and crystal structures, bonding, properties of minerals, semiconductors and insulators, crystallography, techniques of order-disorder, solid solution and mixing, crystal growth, chemical zoning and diffusion. Phase changes in the solid state (exsolution, polymorphism and polytypism). Students will be introduced to the software used to study solids (X-ray diffraction, scanning and transmission electron microscopy, electron-microprobe analysis, luminescence, and computer simulation). Laboratory work will emphasize practical skills using these techniques. Examples will be chosen from among mineralogists, semiconductors, metals and glass, making the course suitable for Earth Scientists, Engineers, Chemists and Physicists.

Prerequisites: EASC 2030 or equivalent; permission of instructor.

3054 High-Temperature Geochemistry and Igneous Petrology (F) is an integrated course dealing with the geochemistry, origin and classification of igneous rocks. Topics include trace element geochemistry, physical properties of magmas, physical and chemical processes in magma chambers (fractional crystallization, differentiation, assimilation and partial melting), phase equilibria and application to magmas, petrology of the mantle, formation of specific types of igneous rocks (settings (e.g. continental margins, continental lithosphere). Laboratories include geochemical calculations and examination of rock samples and thin sections.

Prerequisites: EASC 2031 and 2502.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for 3054 and the combination of 3053 and the former 2503.

3055 Thermodynamics and Metamorphic Petrology (W) is an integrated course dealing with the geochemistry, origin and classification of metamorphic rocks. Topics include thermodynamic background and key transfers of mass and energy in geological systems of the Earth's interior, thermodynamic laws, phase equilibria, solid-solution reaction, reaction rates; thermodynamic and kinetic parameters of specific types of reactions; reaction systems of specific types of rocks (settings (e.g. continental margins, continental lithosphere). Laboratories include thermodynamic and phase diagram problems, hand specimen and thin section study.

Prerequisites: EASC 2031 and 2502, Mathematics 1001.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for 3055 and the combination of 3053 and the former 2503.

3170 Exploration Geophysics I (W) examines fundamentals of seismic energy transmission in the Earth; basic methods in seismic exploration - ocean acquisition, processing and interpretation for refraction and reflection surveys; fundamentals of gravity and magnetic data acquisition, processing and interpretation; introduction to gravity and magnetic modelling. This course has a laboratory component.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 or Statistics 2510.

3172 Exploration Geophysics II (F) is an introduction to electrical and electromagnetic methods in geophysics applied in mineral exploration, petroleum well logging and environmental studies, and examples of application of various techniques; use of data processing and modelling techniques in interpretation; introduction to radiometric methods; use of and interpretation of results from magnetic and ground magnetic methods. This course has a laboratory component.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 or Statistics 2510.

3179 Geophysical Analysis covers Vector Calculus; curvilinear coordinate systems; line, surface and volume integration; integral theorems; the derivation and application of geophysically important partial differential equations - Laplace's equation to the Earth's gravity and magnetic fields, the diffusion equation to the Earth's heat flow, and the wave equation to electromagnetic and seismological phenomena; geophysical uses of Legendre functions; Fourier analysis in geophysics. This course has a laboratory component to familiarize the student with practical applications of the tools discussed.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

Laboratories: Three hours per week.

3210 Economic Mineral Deposits (W) is an introduction to the study of mineral deposits and definition of the basic physio-chemical parameters of ore formation. The course involves a systematic review of genetic models for the principal types of metallic mineral deposits, and links these models to a common theme of the relationship between lithosphere-hydrosphere-biosphere interactions and metallogeny. Laboratory exercises involve extensive use of suites of laboratory analysis from different types of metallic mineral deposits and provide an introduction to the use of reflected light microscopy.

Prerequisites: Either EASC 2031, 2502 and 2905; or EASC 2031 and Chemistry 3211; or Engineering 3610 and Engineering 3205.

3420 Global Tectonic Processes examines how horizontal and vertical motions of the Earth's surface are influenced by heat and mass transfer within its interior. Surface motions are described qualitatively and quantitatively within the framework of plate tectonics, and used to identify major controls on the igneous, metamorphic and sedimentary rock records. Laboratory exercises emphasize geologic and geophysical applications of the material developed in lectures.

Prerequisites: EASC 2031, 2401, 2502, 2702, Mathematics 1000 and 1001, Physics 1021 or 1051.

Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of EASC 3420, EASC 2070, EASC 2161, the former EASC 2400, Physics 2070.

3600 Environmental Geology (F) examines the application of basic concepts and fundamental principles of geochemistry in evaluating natural processes of weathering-induced change through time in the environment. The lithosphere, hydrosphere, atmosphere and biosphere; includes the effects of contaminants on global change. Laboratory time will be used for short field-based studies and for exercises examining the effects of contaminants on global change.

Prerequisites: Either EASC 2502; or EASC 1000, Chemistry 2210 and Chemistry 2300.

3611 Engineering Geology (W) examines basic concepts in soil, rock and fracture mechanics; classification of soil, rock and rock masses; special problems include the engineering and environmental aspects and issues of slope development and underground excavations in soils and rocks; the development of hydroelectric and irrigation projects; the nuclear fuel cycle; resource developments in sensitive terrains. This course includes a laboratory component.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 1001 or permission of instructor.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for EASC 3611 and the former EASC 4611.

3702 Lithification, Diagenesis and Sedimentary Rock Properties provides a conceptual and practical overview of the transformation of sediments into sedimentary rocks through compaction, cementation and mineral reactions, and the resultant modifications of rock composition, rock fabrics, and associated porous media characteristics (e.g. porosity). Both descriptive and analytical methods are integrated in laboratories that include carbonate and sandstone petrology (hand samples and thin sections), geological analysis of selected wireline logs, and the analysis of fluid inclusion and reservoir properties.

Prerequisites: EASC 2031, 2702 and 2905.

3811 Paleontology (W) outlines the major changes in life forms from Archean times through the Phanerzoic to the present day, including details of invertebrate and vertebrate faunas and major floral groups; mechanisms and effects of mega- and micro-evolution in the fossil record; biology and cladistic analysis of organisms and summaries of their geological significance in biostratigraphy, paleoecology and rock-building; relationships between major cycles of evolution and extinction to global processes. This course has a laboratory component.

Prerequisites: Either Biology 2120 (or Biology 1001 and 1002) and EASC 1002; OR Biology 2122 and 2210.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for EASC 3811 and Biology 3811, or either the former EASC 3801 or Biology 3800.

3905 Field Methods in Structural Geology and Stratigraphy (W) is a one credit hour course based on approximately 5 days of geological mapping in Precambrian rocks near St. John's. Emphasis is placed on application of hand specimen and thin section study, interpreting field data, and for exercises examining the effects of contaminants on global change.

Prerequisites: EASC 2401 and 2505.

Notes:
1. This course will be given during a special session immediately following the Winter semester examination period. Students are strongly advised to complete this course immediately following EASC 2401. Entry is by application to the Head of the Department (or delegate) only.
2. Attendance for all of the field school days is required. Failure to attend may result in a failing grade or withdrawal from the course.

6.5.8.4 Fourth Year

Note: Not all Fourth Year courses may be offered every year.

4053 Petrogenesis of Igneous Rocks investigates the origin of topical and important groups of igneous rocks based on experimental petrology, phase equilibrium and application of geochemical tools. It further investigates the classification of igneous rocks, including the study of plutonastic rocks and aspects of physical volcanology. The laboratory component of the 4054 Metamorphic Petrology examines relationships between metamorphic petrogenesis, formation and deformation. Note of metamorphic mineral assemblages using compositional phase diagrams and petrogenetic grids; equilibrium thermodynamics and thermobarometry; determination of P-T-T paths. Laboratories include use of the electron microscope to obtain data for use in calculating the composition of formation of metamorphic assemblages, and various types of software applicable to metamorphic petrology. Prerequisites: EASC 2401, 3055 and 3420.

4105 High Resolution Geophysics is a senior level field based course in high resolution geophysics with an emphasis on environmental applications. Topics include: Ground Penetrating Radar, methods for measuring seismic, high resolution magnetic surveys, microgravity surveys, electrical and electromagnetic methods. This course has a laboratory component which in which students conduct a series of surveys over a specific site and process and interpret the collected data. Prerequisites: EASC 3170, 3172 and 3179.

4171 Exploration Geophysics III examines techniques involved in the acquisition, processing and interpretation of multichannel seismic reflection data. Introduction to elastic properties of rocks. Introduction to advanced processing and interpretation techniques as applied to qualitative and quantitative evaluation of hydrocarbon reservoir characteristics. This course has a laboratory component designed to provide hands-on experience with data processing and interpretation. Prerequisites: EASC 3170 and 4179.

4173 Exploration Geophysics IV examines advanced techniques in electrical and electromagnetic exploration methods including advanced IP, airborne EM surveys, EM and IP modelling, and inversion techniques; advanced methods in gravity and magnetic field exploration techniques including 2D and 3D modeling, and core processing techniques, and excess mass determination. This course has a laboratory component. Prerequisites: EASC 3170 or 3172; and EASC 4179.

4179 Digital Signal Processing is an introduction to the theory and basic digital signal processing techniques of digital signals; geophysical data covered include: sampling, Fourier transformation, design and application of digital filters, deconvolution, spectral analysis, two dimensional signal processing, with emphasis on geophysical applications. Prerequisite: EASC 3179.

4211 Economic Geology provides a detailed look at the methodologies and techniques involved in the study of mineral deposits and their applications in case histories. Laboratory exercises involve solving problem sets using the various types of data from selected case studies. Prerequisites: EASC 3054 or 3055; and EASC 3210.

4302 Advanced Marine Geology examines the geology and geophysics of ocean basins; discussion of methods of ocean exploration, the history and development of the basin of ocean basins, interrelationships between ocean water, marine organisms, sedimentary and igneous processes. Prerequisites: EASC 1001 or 1002 and completion of any 15 credit hours in core courses at the 3000 and/or 4000 level (see General Note 5 in Biology, Biochemistry, Chemistry, Earth Sciences, Physics, or Geography).

4310 Earth Science Concepts, Materials and Techniques for Archaeologists - inactive course.

4400 Advanced Techniques in Structural Geology examines modern techniques of structural analysis applied to fold and fault systems including progressive deformation and strain analysis, fold mechanisms, foliation and classification, fold sections and profiles, superposed folding, fault geometry and morphology, brittle and ductile shear zones, and construction of balanced cross-sections. This course includes a laboratory component. Prerequisites: EASC 2401 and 3905 and a minimum of 6 credit hours in Earth Sciences at the 3000 level.

4502 Advanced Geochemistry focuses primarily on the application of trace, radiogenic and stable isotope geochemistry to constrain the origin, mass balance and chemical fluxes within the Earth's lithosphere and asthenosphere. The course permits students to complete assignments in aspects of geochemistry that reflect their career interests. Prerequisites: EASC 2031 and 2502 and a minimum of 6 credit hours in Earth Sciences at the 3000 level.

4503 Mineral Exploration Geochemistry is an examination of the application of geochemistry to mineral exploration, covering: the lithophile element characteristics of ore deposits, their host rocks, and element dispersion from them; the principles of sampling and analysis in exploration geochemistry; approaches to the statistical analysis, graphical presentation, and interpretation of survey results; and the design of effective geochemical surveys. Particular emphasis will be placed on case studies relevant to exploration in Newfoundland and Labrador. Laboratory/seminar sessions involve working with exemplary data sets, using computer-based software for statistical analysis and software for searching large databases and viewing the spatial relationships of different types of map data relevant to the mineral exploration industry. Prerequisite: EASC 3210.

4601 Petroleum Origin and Occurrence - inactive course.

4602 Sedimentary Basins and Hydrocarbon Exploration provides a review of sedimentary basin types and associated petroleum systems including concepts applicable to petroleum generation, migration and accumulation. Regional-scale stratigraphic and structural concepts, and modern techniques are presented as a framework for hydrocarbon fluid flow and entrapment. Laboratories include description and analysis of data typical of basin- and regional-scale exploration and appraisal of hydrocarbon resources using a variety of integrated, interdisciplinary techniques (geological, geophysical and geochemical). Prerequisites: EASC 2401, 2702, 3170 and 3420. Note: Credit may not be obtained for EASC 4601 and EASC 4602.

4603 Reservoir Characterization provides a review of the sedimentary, stratigraphic and structural setting of hydrocarbon reservoirs and the geological controls on reservoir capacity and fluid flow. Reservoir types and methods of study are presented to evaluate their key properties for the development and production of hydrocarbons. Laboratories include detailed subsurface correlation and mapping, log analysis, interpretation of reservoir data (e.g., capillary pressure, porosity, permeability and production data). Prerequisites: EASC 2401, 2702, 3170 and 3702. Note: Credit may not be obtained for EASC 4601 and EASC 4603.

4610 Hydrogeology examines geology and its relationship to groundwater occurrence and exploration: basic theory, groundwater flow systems, surficial groundwater interaction and processes, sampling equipment and techniques, hydrogeological aspects of water disposal and resource development. This course includes a laboratory component. Prerequisites: EASC 2502 or permission of instructor.

4700 Facies Models and Sequence Stratigraphy provides a detailed examination of sedimentary deposition of siliciclastic systems, and the application of these models to the interpretation of ancient records. The course emphasizes the practical aspects of igneous petrology including advanced methods in gravity and magnetic field exploration techniques including 2D and 3D modeling, and core processing techniques, and excess mass determination. This course has a laboratory component. Prerequisites: EASC 2401, 3055 and a minimum of 6 credit hours in Earth Sciences at the 3000 level. Note: Because of the several full-day field trips (usually on Thursday) and to avoid timetable conflicts, students are strongly advised not to take courses outside the department that have contact hours on the same day at the laboratories in this course.

4720 Carbonate Depositional Environments and Diagenesis examines carbonate environments and their diagenetic models with examples from modern and ancient settings. Diagenetic environments and diagenetic controls on rock properties, particularly porosity, are examined, as well as their application in the reconstruction of the diagenetic history of a sedimentary basin and in the characterization of hydrocarbon reservoirs. The application of chemostratigraphy to correlation is discussed. Laboratory exercises apply hand specimen, thin section and geochemical methods to investigate carbonates from different depositional settings and a wide spectrum of diagenetic environments covered in lectures. Prerequisites: EASC 2031 and 2702. Prerequisite or Corequisite: EASC 3811.

4800 Advanced Paleontology (same as Biology 4800) is a field, lecture, laboratory and seminar course dealing with selected topics in general paleontology. Topics include: the evolution of the vertebrates, population paleontology, functional morphology, paleoecology, statistical methods for paleontological studies, and applications in petroleum, mining, and environmental studies. Prerequisites: EASC 3811, and Statistics 2510 or Mathematics 2000.

4901 Tectonic Regimes (P) is a lecture and seminar course describing the tectonic regimes of the lithosphere, with emphasis on the interactions of structure, sedimentation, igneous-metamorphic petrology and paleogeography; topics covered include stress and deformation of the crust, and the evolution of passive, conservative and active margins; regional examples will stress North American geology. Prerequisites: EASC 2401 and 2702; and EASC 3054 or 3055. Note: Credit may not be obtained for EASC 4901 and the former EASC 4320.

4903 Global Change (W) is a lecture and seminar course that studies the interaction of the atmosphere, biosphere and lithosphere; topics covered include the evolution of the biosphere, fluid circulation, global geochemical budget, global environmental changes, and chemical evolution of the hydrosphere. Prerequisites: EASC 1001 or 1002, Biology 2120 or Biology 1001 and 1002 and completion of any 15 credit hours in core courses at the 3000 and/or 4000 levels (see General Note 5 in Biology, Biochemistry, Chemistry, Earth Sciences, or Physics; or permission of the instructor).

4905 Field Course in Geological Mapping and Regional Tectonics (P) is an intensive field course designed to allow application of the techniques introduced in the third year and to provide an introduction to the Appalachian geology of western and central Newfoundland. Reports must be submitted for grading during the fall semester. The course may be taken by others with the permission of the Head of the Department. Prerequisites: EASC 2401, 2702, 3055 and 3905.

4950 Technical Report on Geoscience Employment requires the preparation of a publication-quality technical report, about 50 pages in length, based on a study undertaken during geoscience employment. The topic and scope of the study must be approved by the Head of Department prior to its commencement. The same study cannot be used as the basis of a dissertation completed for course EASC 499A/B. Students will present a seminar or seminars on results of the project, and will be closely advised on proper organization and writing of scientific reports. Some directed reading will be required. This course can only be used as an "additional course" under point 3. of the regulations for General degrees, and under point 4. of the regulations for Honours degrees. Prerequisites: Completion of 9 credit hours in Earth Sciences at 3000 level, and permission of the Head of Department.

499A and 499B Dissertation is a 6 credit hour linked course based on independent study of an approved problem in the Earth Sciences. The subject of study will be decided in consultation with Faculty Advisors and must be approved in advance by the Head of Department. The dissertation cannot be based on the same study used to obtain credit for EASC 4950. The dissertation is obligatory for Honours students, but may be taken as Science credits by General students with permission of the Head. The first semester will normally involve directed reading, supervised field and/or laboratory work, and preparation of a dissertation outline and draft of a first chapter of the thesis. The second semester will be devoted to data synthesis and interpretation, to a seminar presenting the thesis results, and to preparation of a formal written report accompanied by appropriate illustrations, to be submitted for grading one week before the end of classes.

6.6 Economics
For Departmental Regulations and Course Descriptions, see Faculty of Arts section of the Calendar. The following programs are available in the Department of Economics:
1. Major in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)
2. Honours in Economics (B.A. or B.Sc.)
3. Honours in Economics (Co-operative), (B.A. or B.Sc.)
4. Minor in Economics
5. Joint Programs (B.Sc. Only)
6. Joint Program (Co-operative) (B.Sc. Only)
7. Major in Economics (Co-operative) (B.A. or B.Sc.)

6.7 Geography
For Departmental Regulations and Course Descriptions, see Faculty of Arts section in the Calendar. The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department of Geography:
1. Major in Geography (B.A., B.Sc)
2. Honours in Geography (B.A., B.Sc)
3. Minor in Geography (B.A., B.Sc)
4. Joint Programs
5. Focus Area in Geography
6. Diploma in Geographic Information Sciences

6.8 Mathematics and Statistics
From the point of view of degree regulations, Applied Mathematics, Pure Mathematics, and Statistics are considered to be one subject area.

The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:
1. Major in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. only)
2. Minor in Pure Mathematics
3. Major in Statistics
4. Honours in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. only)
5. Honours in Pure Mathematics
6. Honours in Statistics
7. Minor in Mathematics
8. Minor in Statistics
9. Pure Mathematics/Statistics Joint Honours
10. Applied Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
11. Applied Mathematics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
12. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
13. Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
14. Pure Mathematics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
15. Statistics/Computer Science Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
16. Statistics/Economics Joint Major (B.Sc. only)
17. Joint Major in Statistics and Economics (Co-operative) (B.Sc. only)
18. Applied Mathematics/Chemistry Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
19. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
20. Pure Mathematics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
21. Statistics/Computer Science Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)
22. Statistics/Biology Joint Honours (B.Sc. only)

Details of these programs are given after the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science.
6.8.1 Regulations
1. At most 9 credit hours in Mathematics will be given for courses completed from the following list subject to normal credit restrictions: Mathematics 1000, 1031, 1050, 1051, the former 1080, the former 1081, 1090, the former 1150 and 1151.
2. At most 6 credit hours in courses below the 2000 level can be used toward the course requirements in Mathematics and Statistics for the Major, Joint Major, Honours or Joint Honours in Applied Mathematics, Pure Mathematics or Statistics. In the program descriptions that follow, Mathematics 1000 may be replaced by the former Mathematics 1081.
3. Credit may be obtained for only one of Statistics 2500, 2510, 2550 and Psychology 2900. Credit may be obtained for only one of Statistics 2501, 2560 (former 2511), and Psychology 2901.
4. Students with credits in Mathematics or Statistics not listed in this Calendar must consult the department for equivalency before taking any course listed below.
5. The former Mathematics 1150 and Mathematics 1151 were courses designed specifically for students who intended to graduate with a degree in Primary or Elementary Education. No other students can receive credit for these courses. These courses are not acceptable as alternatives to any other First Year Mathematics course listed in this calendar. Students who have received credit for Education 125 or Mathematics 115/125 cannot receive additional credit for the former Mathematics 1150 or Mathematics 1151 or the current Mathematics 1050 or Mathematics 1051.
6. The Mathematics Placement Test (MPT) will be used to determine placement in the following courses: Mathematics 1000, Mathematics 1050, Mathematics 1051 and Mathematics 1090.

6.8.2 Faculty Advisors
Normally, the Undergraduate Officer will be the advisor for each student who has undertaken a major in Applied or Pure Mathematics, and the Deputy Head (Statistics) will be the advisor for any student involved in a major in Statistics. Students should consult with their advisor at least once each semester to ensure that their choice of courses is appropriate.

6.8.3 Course Numbering System
All undergraduate courses offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics are identified to year by the first digit and to subject area by the second digit as follows:

6.8.4 Major in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. Only)
Students shall complete the following requirements:
2. Three credit hours in Applied Mathematics courses numbered 3000 or higher.
3. A computing course, early in your program. Computer Science 1510 is highly recommended.
4. A designated technical writing course offered by a Science department. Applied Mathematics 2130 is recommended. The technical writing course is prerequisite to some 3000-level courses.
5. Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051.
6. A statistics course. Statistics 3410 is recommended.

6.8.5 Major in Pure Mathematics
Students shall complete the following requirements:
2. One of Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202, 3210, 3260;
3. One of Pure Mathematics 3330, 3370;
4. Twelve further credit hours in Pure Mathematics courses numbered 3000 or higher, at least 6 credit hours of which must be in courses numbered 4000 or higher;
5. A computing course. Computer Science 1510 is recommended.
6. A designated technical writing course offered by a Science department. Applied Mathematics 2130 is recommended.
7. A statistics course. Statistics 3410 is recommended.

6.8.6 Major in Statistics
Students shall complete the following requirements:
2. Nine further credit hours in Statistics courses numbered 3000 or higher at least 3 credit hours of which must be in a course numbered 4000 or higher excluding Statistics 4581;

3. Computer Science 2602.

4. Mathematics 3001 is recommended.

6.8.7 Honours in Applied Mathematics (B.Sc. Only)

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. Students shall complete the following:
2. At least one of Applied Mathematics 4162 or 4170;
3. Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3410;
4. Nine further credit hours in courses number 3000 or higher that are offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics, at least 3 of which must be in courses numbered 4000 or higher;
5. A computing course early in the program is required. Computer Science 1510 is recommended.
6. Physics 1050 (or 1020), 1051, 2620, 3220.

6.8.8 Honours in Pure Mathematics

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. Students shall complete the following requirements:
2. Either Pure Mathematics 3340 or 3370;
3. Either Pure Mathematics 4320 or 4321;
4. Twelve further credit hours in Pure Mathematics courses numbered 3000 or higher, at least 9 credit hours of which must be in courses numbered 4000 or higher;
5. A computing course early in the program is required. Computer Science 1510 is recommended.

6.8.9 Honours in Statistics

See General Regulations for Honours Degree. Students shall complete the following requirements:
2. Eighteen further credit hours in Statistics courses including at least 12 credit hours in courses numbered 4000 or higher excluding Statistics 4581;

6.8.10 Minor in Mathematics

A total of 24 credit hours in courses offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics is required of which only 6 credit hours shall be in courses at the 1000 level and at least 6 credit hours shall be in courses numbered 3000 or higher.

6.8.11 Minor in Statistics

The courses required for a minor in Statistics are:
1. Mathematics 1000, 1001; Statistics 2500 or 2510, Statistics 2501 or 2560.
2. Twelve further credit hours in Statistics courses numbered 3000 or higher excluding Statistics 4581.

It is recommended that Mathematics 2000 and Mathematics 2050 be taken since they are prerequisite to several further Statistics courses.

6.8.12 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

In the descriptions of the courses which follow, the symbol (F) represents the Fall and (W) represents Winter. These labels are intended to indicate the semester when the course is generally offered. Unlabelled courses are offered as demand or programs dictate and as resources permit. The department tries to offer a variety of 1000-, 2000- and 3000-level courses during the spring semester (or intersession or summer session) every year. Students are encouraged to consult the department regularly for specific planned offerings, semester by semester.

6.8.12.1 Foundation Courses

102F, 103F and 104F Mathematics Skills Program are non-credit courses intended for those students who either have a weak background in mathematics or are returning to the subject after some years. The program enables students to master mathematical operations such as those involving whole numbers, fractions, decimals, percents, integers, exponents, linear equations, algebraic and rational expressions, formulas, graphs, systems of linear equations, basic trigonometry, exponents and radicals, and quadratics.

6.8.12.2 Accelerated M103F/M1051 Mathematics Skills Program/Finite Mathematics II (W)

103F A non-credit course enabling students to master mathematics operations such as those involving algebraic and rational expressions, formulas, graphs, systems of linear equations, basic trigonometry and number systems. / 1051 is a credit course with topics including elementary matrices, linear programming, elementary number theory, mathematical systems and geometry. Meets for three 50 minute classes and two 75 minute classes per week.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites: Mathematics 102F and a recommendation by an MLC instructor resulting in approval by the MLC Director.

6.8.12.3 Common Core Mathematics Courses

1000 Calculus I (F) & (W) is an introduction to differential Calculus including logarithmic, exponential and trigonometric functions. Four hours per week.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 1090 or a combination of placement test and high school Mathematics scores acceptable to the department.

Note: Effective Winter 2000, the credit restriction between Mathematics 1000 and the former 1080 has been lifted. However, credit cannot be obtained for both Mathematics 1000 and the former 1081.

1001 Calculus II (F) & (W) is an introduction to integral Calculus with applications. In addition to three lectures per week there will be a one and one-half hour problem lab.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000 or 1081.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Mathematics 1001 and either the former Engineering 1411 or the former Engineering 2413.

1031 Mathematical Problem Solving - inactive course.

1050 Finite Mathematics I (F) & (W) covers topics which include sets, logic, permutations, combinations and elementary probability.

Four hours per week.

Prerequisite: A combination of placement test and high school mathematics scores acceptable to the department or Mathematics 103F.

Notes: 1. With the exception of those already admitted at the time of registration in this course to a B.Ed. program that requires this course, students who already have obtained credit for six or more Mathematics credit hours numbered 2000 or above are not permitted to register for this course nor can they receive credit for it.

2. Credit cannot be obtained for Mathematics 1050 and the former 1150.

1051 Finite Mathematics II (F) & (W) covers topics which include elementary matrices, linear programming, elementary number theory, mathematical systems, and geometry.

Four hours per week.

Prerequisite: A combination of placement test and high school Mathematics scores acceptable to the department or Mathematics 103F.

Notes: 1. With the exception of those already admitted at the time of registration in this course to a B.Ed. program that requires this course, students who already have obtained credit for six or more Mathematics credit hours numbered 2000 or above are not permitted to register for this course nor can they receive credit for it.

2. Credit cannot be obtained for Mathematics 1051 and the former 1151.

1090 Algebra and Trigonometry (F) & (W) provides students with the essential prerequisite elements for the study of an introductory course in calculus. Topics include algebraic functions, matrices, exponential and logarithmic functions, trigonometry, polar, cylindrical and spherical co-ordinates, Green's theorem, Stokes' theorem, divergence theorem, line integrals, arc length.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1001.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Mathematics 1090 and any of the former Engineering 1411, 1412, 2412, or 2413.

2000 Calculus III (F) & (W) is a study of the differential calculus of functions of two variables, an introduction to convergence of infinite sequences and series. In addition to three lectures per week there will be a one and one-half hour problem lab.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1001.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Mathematics 2000 and any of the former Engineering 1411, 1412, 2412, or 2413.

2050 Linear Algebra I (F) & (W) includes the topics: Euclidean n-space, vector operations in 2- and 3-space, complex numbers, linear transformations on n-space, matrices, determinants, and systems of linear equations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000 or six credit hours in first year Mathematics courses.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Mathematics 2050 and the former Engineering 2402.

2051 Linear Algebra II (F) & (W) includes the topics: real and complex vector spaces, linear independence, dimension, change of basis, eigenvectors, inner products, and diagonalization of Hermitian matrices.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2050.

2075 Introduction to the History of Mathematics - inactive course.

2090 Mathematics of Finance covers the topics: simple and compound interest and discount, forces of interest and discount, equations of value, annuities and perpetuities, amortization schedules and sinking funds, bonds and other securities, contingent payments.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1001.

2091 Introduction to Actuarial Mathematics - inactive course.

3000 Real Analysis I (F) & (W) covers proof techniques, structure of the real numbers, sequences, limits, continuity, uniform continuity, differentiation.

Three lecture hours and one laboratory hour per week.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2000.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Mathematics 3000 and the former Mathematics 2001.

3001 Real Analysis II (F) & (W) examines Infinite series of constants, sequences and series of functions, uniform convergence and its consequences, power series, Taylor series, Weierstrass Approximation Theorem.

Three lecture hours and one laboratory hour per week.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3000.

Note: Credit cannot be received for both Mathematics 3001 and the former Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3201.

6.8.12.4 Applied Mathematics Courses

2130 Technical Writing in Mathematics (W) is a project oriented course combining mathematical investigation and technical writing. By using computer programming, graphical and typesetting tools, students will explore mathematical concepts and will produce technical reports of professional quality. The latter will combine elements of writing and graphics to convey technical ideas in a clear and concise manner.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 1001 and (Computer Science 1510 or 2710 or 2790 or permission of the Head of Department).

Notes: 1. First priority for enrolment in this course is given to students who are Applied or Pure Mathematics majors. Other students wishing to register should direct inquiries to the head of department.

2. This course qualifies as a Research/Writing course in the Faculty of Arts.

3100 Introduction to Dynamical Systems (W) examines flows, stability, phase plane analysis, limit cycles, bifurcations, chaos, attractors, maps, fractals. Applications throughout.

Three lecture hours per week.

Prerequisite: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 2620.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Applied Mathematics 3100 and the former 3190.

3111 Applied Complex Analysis examines mapping by elementary functions, conformal mapping, applications of conformal mapping, Schwarz-Christoffel transformation, Poisson integral formula, poles and zeros, Laplace transforms and stability of systems, analytic continuation.

Prerequisite: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3210.

3132 Numerical Analysis I (W) is an introduction to numerical analysis, round-off error, iterative methods for nonlinear equations in one variable, interpolation and polynomial approximation, discrete least-squares approximation, numerical differentiation and integration.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 3000 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260, and a computing course (Computer Science 1510 is recommended).

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Applied Mathematics 3132 and Computer Science 3731.

Prerequisites: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202 and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260.

3202 Vector Calculus (F) & (W) deals with functions of several variables, Lagrange multipliers, vector valued functions, directional derivatives, gradient, divergence, curl, transformations, Jacobians, inverse and implicit function theorems, multiple integration including change of variables using polar, cylindrical and spherical co-ordinates, Green's theorem, Stokes' theorem, divergence theorem, line integrals, arc length.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 and 2050.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202 and Physics 3810.

3210 Introduction to Complex Analysis (F) examines complex numbers, analytic functions of a complex variable, differentiation of complex functions and Cauchy-Riemann equations, complex integration, Cauchy's theorem, Taylor and Laurent series, residue theory and applications.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3000.

3240 Applied Graph Theory (F) examines algorithms and complexity, definitions and basic properties of graphs, Eulerian and Hamiltonian chains, shortest path problems, graph colouring, planarity, trees, network flows, with emphasis on applications including scheduling problems, tournaments, and facilities design.

Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3240 and Computer Science 2741.

3260 Ordinary Differential Equations I (F) & (W) examines direction fields, equations of first order and first degree, higher order linear equations, variation of parameters, methods of undetermined coefficients, Laplace transforms, systems of differential equations. Applications include vibratory motion, satellite and rocket motion, pursuit problems, population models and chemical kinetics.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2000.

Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260 and Engineering 3411.

4100 Applied Functional Analysis - inactive course.

4102 Stochastic Methods in Applied Mathematics - inactive course.

4130 Introduction to General Relativity (same as Physics 4220) studies both the mathematical structure and physical content of Einstein’s theory of gravitation. Topics include the geometric formulation of special relativity, curved spacetimes, metrics, geodesics, causal structure, gravity as spacetime curvature, the weak-field limit, geometry outside a spherical star, Schwarzschild and Kerr black holes, Robertson-Walker cosmologies, gravitational waves, an instruction to tensor calculus, Einstein’s equations, and the stress-energy tensor.

Prerequisites: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202 and one of Physics 3220, Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 4230 or permission of the Head of Department. Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 4230 may be taken concurrently.

4131 Numerical Linear Algebra - inactive course.

4132 Introduction to Optimization - inactive course.

4133 Numerical Optimization - inactive course.

4140 Introduction to Mathematical Control Theory - inactive course.

4161 Integral Equations - inactive course.

4162 Numerical Methods for Partial Differential Equations cover finite differences, finite elements, discretization schemes, stability analysis. Applications to parabolic, elliptic and hyperbolic problems. Prerequisite: Applied Mathematics 3132, 4160.

4180 Introduction to Fluid Dynamics (same as Physics 4205) covers basic observations, mass conservation, vorticity, stress, hydrostatics, rate of strain, momentum conservation (Navier-Stokes equation), simple viscous and inviscid flows, Reynolds number, boundary layers, Bernoulli's and Kelvin's theorems, potential flows, water waves, thermodynamics. Prerequisites: Physics 3220 and either Applied Mathematics 4160 or Physics 3821.

4190 Mathematical Modelling (W) is intended to develop students' skills in mathematical modelling and competence in oral and written presentations. Case studies in modelling will be analysed. Students will develop a mathematical model and present it in both oral and report form. Prerequisite: Applied Mathematics 3100, 3161, Applied Mathematics 4160, and a technical writing course offered by a Science department (Applied Mathematics 2120 is recommended).

419A and 419B Applied Mathematics Honours Project is a two-semester linked, 6 credit hour course that requires the student, with supervision by a member of the Department, to prepare a dissertation in an area of Applied Mathematics. In addition to a written project, a one hour presentation will be given by the student at the end of the second semester. Prerequisite: Registration in an Honours or Joint Honours program in Applied Mathematics. Credit Restrictions: Applied Mathematics 419A/B with the former Applied Mathematics 4199

4230 Differential Geometry covers theory of curves, Frenet relations, curvature and torsion, singular points of curves, first and second quadratic forms, classification of points on a surface, Gaussian curvature, Gauss-Weingarten theorem, Christoffel's symbols, theorem of Gauss-Codazzi-Mainardi, internal geometry of surfaces, isometric and conformal mappings, geodesic curvature and torsion, parallel displacement, Gauss-Bonnet theorem. Prerequisite: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3262.

4240 Differential and Integral Calculus on Manifolds - inactive course.

4280-4290 Special Topics in Pure and Applied Mathematics will have the topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: Permission of Head of Department. Note: Consult the department for a list of titles and information regarding availability.

6.8.12.5 Pure Mathematics Courses

2320 Discrete Mathematics (F) & (W) covers basic concepts of mathematical reasoning, sets and set operations, functions, relations including equivalence relations and partial orders as illustrated through the notions of congruence and divisibility of integers, mathematical induction, principles of counting, permutations, combinations and the Binomial Theorem. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1001 or 2050. Note: Credit cannot be obtained for both Pure Mathematics 2320 and Computer Science 2740.

3202 Vector Calculus (F) & (W) see Applied Mathematics 3202.

3210 Introduction to Complex Analysis see Applied Mathematics 3210.

3240 Applied Graph Theory see Applied Mathematics 3240.

3260 Ordinary Differential Equations I see Applied Mathematics 3260.

3300 Set Theory is an introduction to Mathematical Logic, functions, equivalence relations, equipotence of sets, finite and infinite sets, countable and uncountable sets, Cantor's Theorem, Schroeder-Bernstein Theorem, ordered sets, introduction to cardinal and ordinal numbers, logical paradoxes, the axiom of choice. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3301 Integration and Metric Spaces is a brief review of the Riemann integral, Riemann-Stieljes integration, metric spaces, the Baire Category Theorem, uniform continuity, the Banach Contraction principle, the Weierstrass Approximation Theorem and the Stone-Weierstrass Theorem are covered. Prerequisite: Mathematics 3001.

3303 Introductory Geometric Topology covers graphs and the four colour problem, orientable and non-orientable surfaces, triangulation, Euler characteristic, classification and colouring of compact surfaces, basic point set topology, the fundamental group, including the fundamental groups of surfaces, knots, and the Wirtinger presentation of the knot group. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3320 Abstract Algebra (F) is an introduction to groups and group homomorphisms including cyclic groups, cosets, Lagrange's theorem, normal subgroups and quotient groups, introduction to rings and ring homomorphisms including ideals, prime and maximal ideals, quotient rings, integral domains and fields. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3321 Applied Algebra - inactive course.

3330 Euclidean Geometry (F) is classical Euclidean geometry of the triangle and circle, the inversion transformation, including the theorem of Feuerbach, Elliptic and hyperbolic geometries. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320 or Mathematics 2051.

3331 Projective Geometry includes course topics: projective space, the principle of duality, mappings in projective space, conics and quadrics. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320 or Mathematics 2051.

3340 Introductory Combinatorics (W) includes topics: distributions, the binomial and multinomial theorems, string numbers, recurrence relations, generating functions and the inclusion-exclusion principle. Emphasis will be on applications. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3370 Introductory Number Theory (F) examines perfect numbers and primes, divisibility, Euclidean algorithm, greatest common divisors, primes and the unique factorization theorem, congruences, cryptography (secret systems), Euler-Fermat theorems, perfect residues, primitive roots, arithmetic functions, Diophantine equations, topics above in the setting of the Gaussian integers. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

3410 Mathematical Statistics I (F) covers basic probability concepts, combinatorial analysis, conditional probability, independence, random variables, mean and variance, distribution function, mathematical expectation, Chebyshev's inequality, distribution of two random variables, binomial and related distributions, Poisson, gamma, normal, bivariate normal, t, and F distributions, transformations of variables including the moment-generating function approach. One and a half hour tutorial period weekly. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 2320.

4230 Differential Geometry see Applied Mathematics 4230.

4240 Differential and Integral Calculus on Manifolds see Applied Mathematics 4240.

4280-4290 Special Topics in Pure and Applied Mathematics will have the topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: Permission of Head of Department. Note: Consult the department for a list of titles and information regarding availability.

4300 General Topology examines topological structure on a set, neighbourhood, open and closed sets, continuity, sub-spaces and quotient spaces, connectedness, relation between topologies, base and sub-base, product spaces, applications to Euclidean spaces, Hausdorff, regular, normal and compact spaces, metric spaces, compacta and continua, and the Hausdorff Paracompactness Theorem. Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 3300 or 3301, or both Mathematics 3000 and Pure Mathematics 3303.

4301 Algebraic Topology - inactive course.

4302 Functional Analysis - inactive course.

4310 Complex Function Theory examines topology of C analytic functions, Cauchy's theorem with proof, Cauchy integral formula, singularities, argument principle, Rouche's theorem, maximum modulus principle, Schwarz's lemma, harmonic functions, Poisson integral formula, analytic continuation, entire functions, gamma function, Riemann-Zeta function, conformal mappings.

Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 3301 and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3210.

4320 Ring Theory examines factorization in integral domains, structure of finitely generated modules over a principal ideal domain with application to Abelian group homomorphism, vector space, quotient rings, prime ideals and idempotents, chain conditions, the Wedderburn-Artin theorem.

Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 3320.

4321 Group Theory examines permutation groups, Sylow theorems, normal series, solvable groups, solvability of polynomials by radicals, introduction to group representations.

Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 3320.

4331 Galois Theory - inactive course.

4340 Combinatorial Analysis continues most of the topics started in Pure Mathematics 3340 with further work on distributions, recurrence relations and generating functions. Generating functions are used to solve recurrence equations. Also included is a study of Polya's theorem with applications.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2000 and Pure Mathematics 3340.

4341 Combinatorial Designs includes the study of finite fields, Latin squares, finite projective planes and balanced incomplete block designs.

Prerequisite: Pure Mathematics 3320 or 3340.

4370 Number Theory - inactive course.

4375 History of Mathematics - inactive course.

4399 Pure Mathematics Dissertation requires the student, with supervision by a member of the department, to prepare a dissertation in an area of Pure Mathematics. The original research by the student will normally be expected, the student must show an ability to interest and learn and organize material independently. A one hour presentation at the end of the semester will be given by the student.

Prerequisite: Registration in an Honours or Joint Honours program in Pure Mathematics.

4400 Lebesgue Integration is a review of Riemann integration, outer measure, measure, measurable sets, measurable functions, the Lebesgue integral, properties of the Lebesgue integral, sequences of integrals, Fatou's theorem.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3001.

4401 Probability Theory examines abstract measure and integration, probability concepts, random variables, independence, Borel-Cantelli lemmas, sums of independent random variables.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3000 and Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3410.

4402 Stochastic Processes - inactive course.

4410 Mathematical Statistics II examines multivariate normal distribution theory, applications to ANOVA and regression, further topics such as sequential tests, distribution of order statistics, nonparametric statistics and decision theory.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2051 and Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411.

6.8.12.6 Statistics Courses

Note: All 2000 level statistics courses, Statistics 3410, 3411, 4590, and 4591 have a laboratory period weekly.

2500 Statistics for Business and Arts Students (F) & (W) covers descriptive statistics (including histograms, stem-and-leaf plots and box plots), elementary probability, discrete random variables, the binomial distribution, the normal distribution, sampling distribution, estimation and hypothesis testing including both one and two sample tests, paired comparisons, chi-square test, correlation and regression. Related applications.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000 or 6 credit hours in first year courses in Mathematics or registration in at least semester 3 of a B.N. program or permission of the head of department.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Statistics 2500, 2510, 2550, Psychology 2910, 2925 and the former 2900. Statistical computer packages will be used in the laboratory, but no prior computing experience is assumed.

2501 Further Statistics for Business and Arts Students (F) covers descriptive statistics, mathematics of probability, conditional probability, Bayes' Theorem, discrete random variables, cumulative distribution function, introduction to continuous random variables, mathematical expectation, estimation of mean, proportion and variance, hypothesis testing for one-sample case.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000 or 1081.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Statistics 2500, 2510, 2550, Psychology 2910, 2925, the former 2900, Engineering 3423 and 4421. Normally offered twice a year, including the fall.

2550 Statistics for Life Science Students (F) & (W) & (S) is an introduction to basic statistics methods with an emphasis on applications to life sciences and, in particular, to biology. Material includes descriptive statistics, elementary probability, binomial distribution, normal distribution, sampling distribution, estimation and hypothesis testing (both one and two sample cases), chi-square test, one way analysis of variance, correlation and simple linear regression.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000 or 1081.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Statistics 2500, 2510, 2550, Psychology 2910, 2925, and the former 2900. Statistical computer packages will be used in the laboratory, but no prior computing experience is assumed.

2560 Further Statistics for Science Students (W) (formerly 2511) covers estimation and hypothesis testing in the two-sample and paired sample cases, one way and two way analysis of variance, simple and multiple linear regression, chi-square tests, non-parametric tests including sign test, Wilcoxon signed rank test and Wilcoxon rank test.

Prerequisite: Statistics 2500 (with Mathematics 1000 or 1081) or Statistics 2510.

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Statistics 2501, 2560, the former 2511, Psychology 2911, 2950, and the former 2901. Statistical computer packages will be used in the laboratory, but no prior computing experience is assumed.

3410 Mathematical Statistics I see Pure Mathematics 3410.

3411 Mathematical Statistics II see Pure Mathematics 3411.

3520 Experimental Design I (F) is an introduction to basic concepts in experimental design, single-factor designs including completely randomized, randomized blocks, Latin square and related designs, multiple comparison tests, fixed and random effects models, introduction to factorial design.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2050 and either Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 or both Mathematics 2011 and one of Statistics 2501 or 2560 (former 2511).

Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of Statistics 3520, Psychology 3900 and 3950.

3521 Regression (W) covers inferences in linear regression analysis, matrix approach to regression analysis, multiple linear regression, model selection, polynomial regression, indicator variable, problem of simultaneous inferences, multicollinearity.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2050 and either Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 or both Mathematics 2011 and one of Statistics 2501 or 2560 or the former 2511.

3530 Survey Sampling I (F) covers basic concepts, randomization, sampling frames, stratified sampling, the analysis of subclasses, cluster sampling, stratified cluster sampling, unequal clusters, ratio estimates, selection with probabilities proportional to size.

Prerequisites: Either Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 or both Mathematics 1001 and one of Statistics 2501 or 2560 or the former 2511.

3540 Time Series I covers Covariance, autocorrelation and correlogram, stationarity, autoregressive, moving average and ARMA models, differencing, the integrated ARMA process, parameter estimation, model identification and diagnostic testing, forecasting, seasonal models, the use of data transformation.

Prerequisites: Either Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 or both Mathematics 1001 and one of Statistics 2501 or 2560 or the former 2511.

3570 Reliability and Quality Control is an analysis of life, mortality and failure data, standard parametric models in reliability, quality control charts and cumulative sum charts, tolerance limits, contingency tables, interactions, application of sequential sampling.

Prerequisites: Either Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 or both Mathematics 1001 and one of Statistics 2501 or 2560 or the former 2511.

3590 Statistics in Applied Research - inactive course.

4400 Lebesgue Integration see Pure Mathematics 4400.

4401 Probability Theory see Pure Mathematics 4401.

4402 Stochastic Processes see Pure Mathematics 4402.

4410 Mathematical Statistics III see Pure Mathematics 4410.

4520 Experimental Design II (W) covers selected topics in ANOVA and ANCOVA including factorial experiments and unbalanced designs.

Prerequisite: Statistics 3520.

4530 Survey Sampling II (W) covers area sampling, multi-stage sampling, two-phase sampling, ratio, regression and difference estimates, composite sampling designs, sampling from imperfect frames, bias and non-sampling errors.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 and Statistics 3520.

4540 Time Series II is an analysis of time series in the time domain, including stationary and non-stationary processes, autocovariance kernels and their estimators, analysis of autoregressive and moving average models, spectral analysis including the power spectrum and its estimators.
periodogram, smoothed and filtered estimators.
Prerequisites: Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411 and Statistics 3540.

4550 Non-parametric Statistics covers inferences concerning location based on one sample, paired samples or two samples, inferences concerning scale parameters, goodness-of-fit tests, association analysis, tests for randomness.
Prerequisites: one of Statistics 3520 or 3521, or Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411.

4560 Continuous Multivariate Analysis examines the multivariate normal distribution and its marginal and conditional distributions, properties of the Wishart distribution, Hotelling's T-squared statistic, a selection of techniques chosen from among MANOVA, multivariate regression, principal components, factor analysis, discrimination and classification, clustering.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 2051, Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3410 and one of Statistics 3520, or Pure Mathematics/Statistics 3411, or Statistics 3521.

4561 Discrete Multivariate Analysis is an analysis of cross-classified categorical data, chi-square test, measures of association, multidimensional contingency tables, hypotheses of partial and conditional independence, log-linear models for Poisson, multinomial and product-multinomial sampling schemes, iterative scaling technique for maximum likelihood estimation, step-wise model selection procedures, partitioning chi-square, explanatory and response variables in contingency tables, logit models.
Prerequisite: Statistics 3520 or 3521.

4580 History of Statistics - inactive course.

6.9 Physics and Physical Oceanography
The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department:

1. Major in Physics
2. Honours in Physics
3. Major in Environmental Physics
4. Honours in Environmental Physics
5. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Honours
6. Applied Mathematics/Physics Joint Major
7. Physics/Biochemistry Joint Honours
8. Physics/Chemistry Joint Honours
9. Physics/Computer Science Joint Honours
10. Physics/Computer Science Joint Major
11. Physics/Earth Sciences Joint Honours
12. Geophysics/Physical Oceanography Joint Honours
13. Physics/Earth Sciences Joint Major
14. Minor in Physics

Details of these joint programs are given after the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science. Other joint programs may be arranged in consultation with the departments concerned.

Notes: 1. The attention of students intending to follow any one of the programs listed above is drawn to the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), governing the appropriate degree. Additional Departmental requirements are given below.
2. Faculty advisors are available to provide advice to students who are registered in, or who are considering registering in, any of the programs. Students are urged to consult with these advisors at their earliest opportunity in order to ensure that they select appropriate courses and programs. Students with credits in Physics courses which are not listed in this calendar should consult with the Department.
3. The six course stream consisting of Physics 1020, 1021, 1051, 2053, 2055, 2750, and 2820 or alternatively the seven course stream of Physics 1020, 1050, 1051, 2053, 2055, 2750, and 2820 is intended to provide a cohesive overview of Physics for potential Physics majors.
4. Physics 1050 is open to and recommended for students who have completed Level II Physics, Level III Physics and Level III Advanced Mathematics. Mathematics 1000 must be taken at the same time as, or be completed prior to, taking Physics 1050. However, under certain circumstances, students enrolled in Mathematics 1090, will be allowed to register for Physics 1050 with the permission of the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography. Students who have completed Mathematics 1090 and Physics 1050, however, are required to complete Mathematics 1000 before registering for Physics 1051.
5. Physics 1020 is intended for students who do not qualify for Physics 1050, and while it may be taken by students who have no background in Physics it is recommended that students wishing to take Physics 1020 should have completed at least one of Level II and Level III Physics. Students who complete Physics 1020 and Mathematics 1000 are eligible for admission to Physics 1051. Students may receive credit for only one of Physics 1050 and 1020.
6. Students who have successfully completed Advanced Placement courses in both Physics and Mathematics will normally be eligible for direct entry into Physics 1051, 2053 and 2750, all of which are offered in the Fall semester. Such students are advised to consult the Department.
7. Where circumstances warrant, any prerequisites listed below may be waived by the Head of the Department.
8. Supplementary examinations will be allowed in certain Physics courses which have written final examinations. Students should refer to the Faculty of Science Degree regulations for details.

6.9.1 Minor in Physics
A minor in Physics will consist of 24 credit hours in Physics courses which must include Physics 1050 (or 1020), 1051, 2053, 2055, 2750, 2820. Only 6 credit hours at the 1000 level can be used to fulfill the 24 credit hours. For those students whose major is Chemistry or Biochemistry, the 24 credit hours in Physics will not include 2053.

6.9.2 Major in Physics
1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent).
2. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031).
5. Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051.
6. Physics 2053, 2055, 2750, 2820, 3220, 3400, 3500, 3750 and 3900.
7. An additional 12 credit hours in physics courses numbered 3000 or higher which shall include at least 6 credit hours selected from the courses numbered Physics 3000, 3150, 3300, 3410, 3550, 3600, 3751.
8. Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
Mathematics 1001, 2000 and 2050 are prerequisites to many Physics courses and should be completed by the end of second year. Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260 is co-requisite to Physics 3220 and should be completed before the winter of the third year. Those who intend to make a career in Physics should note that additional Physics courses are strongly recommended. Mathematics 2051 and Computer Science 1510 or 2602 are also recommended.

6.9.3 Honours in Physics
1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent).
2. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031).
4. Computer Science 1510.
6. Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051.
7. Physics 2053, 2055, 2750, 2820, 3220, 3300, 3410, 3550, 3600, 3750, 3820, 3821, 3900, 3920, 4500, 4850, 490A/B.
8. Physics 3810 or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202.
9. An additional 12 credit hours in physics courses numbered 3000 or higher which shall include at least 6 credit hours selected from physics courses numbered 4000 or higher.
10. Fifteen credit hours in applicable elective courses*

Note: Certain of the graduate courses may be taken in the final year of the Honours Program with the permission of the Head of the Department.

*Only 6 credit hours at the 1000 level in each of Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics can be used to fulfil the 120 credit hours required for the Honours program. The inclusion of Mathematics 1090, the sequence of Physics 1020, 1021, and 1051 or the substitution of Chemistry 1010, 1011 and 1031 for Chemistry 1050 and 1051 will each increase the number of credit hours required for the Honours Physics program by three.

An Honours thesis is to be presented on work undertaken by the candidate under the guidance of a Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography faculty member. The thesis comprises the 6 credit hour course Physics 490A/B. Students should seek departmental advice regarding a thesis project no later than the winter preceding the semester in which the project will be started.

The Honours Physics program in and beyond the third year requires a familiarity with computer programming and numerical analysis. In choosing electives for this program, the Department recommends that students supplement the prescribed program with the following courses Computer Science 2602 and 3731 (or Applied Mathematics 2130 and 3132). Mathematics 2051 and 3000 are also suitable electives. For specific courses and recommendations about electives, consultation with a faculty advisor in the Department is suggested.

The Department recommends that students wishing to complete the Honours Physics program in 120 credit hours follow the schedule given below. This schedule is intended for students who qualify for Physics 1050 and 1051. Other suggested course schedules are available from the Head of the Department.

6.9.4 Major in Environmental Physics
1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent).
2. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031).
5. Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051.
6. Physics 2053, 2055, 2750, 2820, 3220, 3820, 3300, 3340, 4340.
7. Physics 3400 or 3500.
8. Earth Sciences 1000, 1002, 2502, 3170, 3172
9. Geography 2102, 2195, 3120
10. Biology 2120, 2600

The Major degree offers students a fair degree of latitude in choosing electives, students are encouraged to take electives from Geography and Earth Sciences: of particular merit would be any of Earth Sciences 3600, 3611 or 4105.

6.9.5 Honours in Environmental Physics

1. English 1080 and English 1110 (or equivalent)
2. Chemistry 1050 and 1051 (or Chemistry 1010, 1011, and 1031)
3. Mathematics 1000 and 1001
5. Physics 1050 (or 1020) and 1051
6. Physics 2053, 2055, 2750, 2820, 3220, 3820, 3821, 3300, 3340, 4205, 4300, 4340, 490A/B
7. Physics 3400 or 3500
8. Earth Sciences 1000, 1002, 2502, 3170 and 3172
9. Geography 2102, 2195, 3120
10. Biology 2120, 2600

An honours thesis is to be presented on work undertaken by the candidate under the guidance of a Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography faculty member. The thesis comprises the 6 credit hour course Physics 490A/B. Students should seek departmental advice regarding a thesis project no later than the winter preceding the semester in which the project will be started.

The Department recommends that students wishing to complete the Honours Environmental Physics program in 120 credit hours follow the schedule given below. This schedule is intended for students who qualify for Physics 1050 and 1051. Other suggested course schedules are available from the Head of the Department.

Those courses in which a grade of “B” or better or an average of 75% or higher are required, as specified in Clause 6.a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, are 45 credit hours in Physics courses, and 15 credit hours in other courses (beyond the 1000 level) selected from the specified program courses in Earth Sciences, Geography and Biology.

Physics 1021 and the former Physics 1201 will be considered equivalent for prerequisite purposes. Physics 1051 and 2820 will be considered equivalent to the former Physics 1054 and 2054 for prerequisite purposes. Physics 1051 and the former Physics 1052 and 2050 will be considered equivalent for prerequisite purposes.
Not all courses are offered every year. Students should check with the Department prior to registration to plan programs.

6.9.6 Course Descriptions
In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Physics courses are designated by PHYS.

1020 Introductory Physics I (F) & (W) is a non-calculus based introduction to mechanics.
Prerequisites: Level III Advanced Mathematics or Mathematics 1090. Mathematics 1090 may be taken concurrently. It is recommended that students have completed at least one of level II and level III high school physics courses, however this course may be completed by someone who has no physics background provided some extra effort is made.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratories: Normally six laboratory sessions per semester, with each session lasting a maximum of three hours.
Tutorials: Optional tutorials will be available, on average one hour per week.
Note: Credit can be obtained for only one of PHYS 1020 and 1050.

1021 Introductory Physics II (F) & (W) is a non-calculus based introduction to fluids, wave motion, light, optics, electricity and magnetism.
Prerequisites: PHYS 1020 or 1050 and Mathematics 1000. Mathematics 1000 may be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratories: Normally six laboratory sessions per semester, with each session lasting a maximum of three hours.
Tutorials: Optional tutorials will be available, on average one hour per week.

1050 General Physics I: Mechanics (F) & (W) is a calculus based introduction to mechanics. The course will emphasize problem solving.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 1000, which may be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.
Tutorials: Optional tutorial sessions per semester, with each session lasting a maximum of three hours.
Note: For more details regarding PHYS 1050, see Note 4 under Physics and Physical Oceanography.

1051 General Physics II: Oscillations, Waves, Electromagnetism (F) & (S) is a calculus based introduction to oscillations, wave motion, physical optics and electromagnetism.
Prerequisites: PHYS 1050, or 1021, or 1020 (with a minimum grade of 65%) and Mathematics 1001. Mathematics 1001 may be taken concurrently.
Laboratories: Normally six laboratory sessions per semester, with each session lasting a maximum of three hours.
Tutorials: Optional tutorials will be available, on average one hour per week.

2053 Fluids and Thermal Physics (F) examines elasticity, fluid mechanics, thermodynamics, kinetic theory and statistical mechanics.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 1001 and PHYS 1051 which may be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

2055 Electricity and Magnetism (W) examines Gauss’ law, the electrostatic potential, capacitance, magnetic forces and the magnetic field, electromagnetic induction, magnetic materials, AC circuits, superconductivity, theorentical development and Maxwell’s equations.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000 and PHYS 1051. Mathematics 2000 may be taken concurrently.
Laboratory: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: Six credit hours in Mathematics courses at the first year level.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

2750 Modern Physics (F) covers special relativity, quanta of light, atomic structure and spectral lines, quantum structure of atoms and molecules, nuclei and elementary particles.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 1001 and PHYS 1051 which may be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

2752 Computational Mechanics (W) covers newtonian dynamics and celestial mechanics, numerical differentiation and integration, numerical solutions to mechanics problems, data and spectral analysis, Fourier series and normal modes, oscillations and vibrations, linear and non-linear oscillators, non-linear dynamics and chaos.
Prerequisites: PHYS 1051, Mathematics 2000 (Mathematics 2000 may be taken concurrently).

Lectures and Laboratories: Up to five hours per week.

Prerequisites: PHYS 2055 or registration in Academic Term 3 of the Electrical Engineering Program.

3150 Astrophysics I (W) is a review of macroscopic and microscopic physics. The sun: luminosity, mass, spectrum, photosphere, corona. Interior. Principles of stellar structure; radiative and convective transport of energy. The virial theorem. Thermoneutral fusion; temperature dependence; the solar neutrino problem. Nucleosynthesis; the curve of binding energy; the synthesis of heavy elements. White dwarfs, neutron stars, and black holes; degenerate electron and neutrino gases; Chandrasekhar’s Limit. Population I and Population II stars; the Hertzsprung-Russell diagram; relationships among luminosity, mass, and effective temperature for main sequence dwarfs. Evolution of post main sequence stars.
Prerequisites: PHYS 2053, 2750 (or 2056), and 2820.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

3151 Astrophysics II covers stellar spectra and classification of stars. Hertzsprung-Russell diagram; equations of stellar structure for a star in equilibrium; temperature and density dependences of nuclear processes. Formation and classification of binary stars; mass and energy transfer in binary star systems; semidetached binaries; cataclysmic variables, pulsars, etc. Galaxies and galactic structure, active galactic nuclei; cosmological redshift Cosmology.
Prerequisites: PHYS 3150 and 3220.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: PHYS 2820 and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 2360. Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260 may be taken concurrently.
Lectures: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: PHYS 3220 and 3810 (or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202) and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

3300 Introduction to Physical Oceanography (F) deals with the physics of processes in the ocean, but provides an integrated view of the whole field of oceanography. The importance of physical processes to other aspects of oceanography is treated.
Prerequisites: PHYS 2053 and Mathematics 2000.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

3340 Principles of Environmental Physics will explore the basic physical principles of light, heat, energy and sound in the natural environment. The principal key aspects of physics in the environment will be covered including climate and the physical evolution of the planet and the present role of the atmosphere and ocean spectroscopy in the atmosphere and measurement and interpretation of the atmosphere; principles of energy generation and pollution transport in the atmosphere and ocean.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2000, PHYS 2053 and PHYS 2750 or 2056.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: PHYS 3400 and 3750. PHYS 3750 may be taken concurrently.
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

3500 Electromagnetic Fields I (F) examines electrostatic Field: field, potential, Poisson’s equation, Laplace’s equation, capacitance, dielectrics, polarization, electric displacement, boundary conditions. Magnetic Field: electric current and magnetic field, vector potential, Lorentz force and relativity, changing magnetic field, inductance, magnetic materials, magnetization. Maxwell’s equations.
Prerequisites: PHYS 2055 and 3810 (or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202).
Laboratories: Three hours per week.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 2050, PHYS 2055 and Applied Mathematics/
3551 Analogue Electronics (S) is a review of network analysis, feedback, electron tubes, semiconductor diodes, introduction to transistors, introduction to amplifiers, small signal models, small signal analysis of operational amplifiers. Selected topics in circuit design such as biasing, voltage regulators and power circuits, noise. Prerequisites: PHYS 3550 and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260. Lectures and Laboratory: Not more than six hours per week. This course is recommended for students with an interest in experimental physics.

3750 Quantum Physics I (F) covers wave-particle duality of nature. Introduction to Quantum Mechanics. Schrödinger equation. One electron atoms. Quantum statistics. Prerequisites: PHYS 2750 (or 2056), 3220 and 3810 (or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202). PHYS 3220 and 3810 (or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202) may be taken concurrently. Lectures: Three hours per week.

3800 Computational Physics is a project-based course intended to train students to become functional in computational methods, by writing and compiling computer code (C/Fortran) in a Unix environment to solve problems in physics. Students will complete several projects selected from different areas of physics. Projects will cover areas as diverse as particle physics, cosmology, particle theory, plasma, and fluid dynamics. Prerequisites: PHYS 3500 and 3820. Lectures: Up to five hours per week. Tutorials: To be arranged.

3820 Mathematical Physics II (F) examines the functions of a complex variable: residue calculus, introduction to Cartesian tensor analysis, Matrix eigenvalues and eigenvectors, Diagonalization of tensors, Matrix formulation of quantum mechanics, Quantum mechanics in polar coordinates, Vector differential operators in curvilinear coordinate systems, Partial differential equations of Mathematical Physics and boundary value problems; derivation of the classical equations, separation of variables; Helmholtz equation in spherical polar coordinates. Prerequisites: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260, and PHYS 3810 (or Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202). Lectures: Three hours per week.

3821 Mathematical Physics III (F) covers further topics on partial differential equations of Mathematical Physics and boundary value problems; Sturm-Liouville theory, Fourier series, generalized Fourier series, introduction to the theory of distributions, Dirac delta function, Green's functions, Bessel functions, Legendre functions, spherical harmonics. Prerequisite: PHYS 3820. Lectures: Three hours per week.

3900 Physics Laboratory I (W) is a selection of experiments based primarily on material covered in the third year courses. Prerequisites: At least two of PHYS 2053, 2820, 2055, and PHYS 2750 (or 2056). Laboratory: Six hours per week.

3920 Physics Laboratory II (F) is a selection of experiments based primarily on Modern Physics at the intermediate level. Prerequisite: PHYS 3900. Laboratory: Six hours per week. Note: Prerequisite requirements for Physics courses numbered 4000 and higher may be waived by the instructor.

4000 Solid State Physics covers crystal structure and binding, phonons and lattice vibrations, thermal properties of solids. Electrons in solids, energy bands, semi-conductors, superconductivity, dielectric properties. Magnetic properties of solids. Prerequisites: PHYS 3400 and 3750. Lectures: Three hours per week.

4200 Classical Mechanics III - inactive course.

4205 Introduction to Fluid Dynamics (same as Applied Mathematics 4180) covers basic observations, mass conservation, vorticity, stress, hydrodynamic equations, rate of strain, Navier-Stokes equation, simple viscous and inviscid flows, Reynolds number, boundary layers, Bernoulli's and Kelvin's theorems, potential flows, water waves, thermodynamics. Prerequisites: PHYS 3220 and either Applied Mathematics 4160 or PHYS 3821. Lectures: Three hours per week.

4210 Continuum Mechanics - inactive course.

4220 Introduction to General Relativity (same as Applied Mathematics 4130) studies both the mathematical structure and physical content of Einstein's theory of gravity. Topics include the geometric formulation of special relativity, curved spacetimes, metrics, geodesics, causal structure, gravity as spacetime curvature, the weak-field limit, geometry outside a spherical star, Schwarzschild and Kerr black holes, Robertson-Walker cosmologies, gravitational waves, an instruction to tensor calculus, Einstein's equations, and the stress-energy tensor. Prerequisites: Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3202 and one of PHYS 3220, Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 4230 or permission of the Head of Department. Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 4230 may be taken concurrently.

4300 Advanced Physical Oceanography (W) covers fundamental properties of seawater and techniques of oceanographic measurement. The dynamical equations of oceanography are derived and solutions explored by consideration of ocean circulation with oceanic observations. Properties of waves in rotating and non-rotating fluids. Linear and non-linear wave theory are developed. Prerequisites: PHYS 3300 and 3820 or registration in Academic term 6 of the Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering program, or the permission of the instructor.

4330 Topics in Physical Oceanography - inactive course.

4340 Modelling in Environmental Physics covers the basic principles underlying environmental modelling will be developed and techniques for theoretical models and numerical models will be developed and simple numerical models will be developed for use in terrestrial, atmospheric and oceanic environments. Free and forced systems will be discussed and the transition to chaos and some aspects of chaotic dynamics. Lectures: Three hours per week. Prerequisites: PHYS 3340 and PHYS 3820 (or the permission of the instructor).

4600 Optics and Photonics II is a review of basic topics in wave optics. Phase sensitive imaging, Electromagnetic waves in anisotropic media. Scattering of electromagnetic waves. The physics of light sources and applications. Non-linear optics and applications. Prerequisites: PHYS 3500, 3600, and PHYS 3751 (PHYS 3751 may be taken concurrently). Lectures: Three hours per week.

4700 Atomic and Molecular Physics - inactive course.

4710 Nuclear Physics - inactive course.

4740 Mathematical Physics IV - inactive course.

4820 Mathematical Physics IV - inactive course.

4851 Advanced Quantum Mechanics (W) covers general formulation of quantum mechanics, measurement theory and operators. Hilbert spaces. Advanced topics selected from: electron in a strong magnetic field and the Aharonov-Bohm effect; advanced scattering theory; systems of identical particles; Feynman path integral formulation of quantum mechanics; relativistic quantum mechanics; second quantization; symmetry and group theory; density matrix and mixtures. Prerequisite: PHYS 4850 and 3821. Lectures: Three hours per week.

4900 Senior Laboratory - inactive course.
6.10 Psychology
The following undergraduate programs are available in the Department.

1. Major and Honours in Psychology (B.A. or B.Sc.)
2. Major and Honours in Behavioural Neuroscience (B.Sc. only)
3. Minor in Psychology (B.A. or B.Sc.)
4. Joint Honours in Psychology and Biology (B.Sc. Hons. only)
5. Joint Honours in Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) and Biology (B.Sc. Hons. only)
6. Joint Honours in Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) and Biochemistry (B.Sc. Hons. only)
7. Joint Honours in Psychology (Behavioural Neuroscience) and Biochemistry (Nutrition) (B.Sc. Hons. only)

Details of the joint honours programs are given under the Degree Regulations of the Faculty of Science.

6.10.1 Admission to Major Programs
Admission to the Major programs in the Department of Psychology is competitive and selective. Students who wish to enter these programs must submit a completed application form to the Psychology Department by June 1 for Fall semester registration and by October 1 for Winter semester. To be eligible for admission, students must have completed the 24 credit hours as listed below with an average of at least 65% in Psychology 1000/1001 and an overall average of at least 60% in Psychology, English, and Mathematics:

1. Psychology 1000, 1001
2. English 1080 and one of 1101, 1102, 1103, or 1110, or equivalents.
3. Mathematics 1000, or two of 1090, 1050, 1051 (or equivalents).
4. Six credit hours of electives (9 if only Mathematics 1000 is completed).

Students who fulfill the eligibility requirements compete for a limited number of available spaces. Selection is based on academic performance, normally cumulative average and performance in recent courses.

6.10.2 Admission to Honours Programs
The Honours programs in the Department of Psychology are designed for students who would like to concentrate their studies or pursue graduate work. Students who wish to be admitted to these programs must submit an "Application for Admission to Honours Program Faculties of Arts or Science" to the Psychology Department by June 1 for Fall semester registration and by October 1 for Winter semester. To be eligible for admission, students must have completed Psychology 2910, 2911, 2520, and 2570 and obtained in these courses a grade of "B" or better, or an average of 75% or higher. Students who fulfill the eligibility requirements compete for a limited number of available spaces. Selection is based on academic performance in the required courses. In special circumstances, students may be admitted to Honours Programs at times other than June and October.

Note: Students are advised to consult the general regulations for Honours in the Faculty of Arts or the Faculty of Science, as appropriate.

6.10.3 Requirements for a Major in Psychology
Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

1. Students may Major in Psychology as part of either a B.A. or a B.Sc. program. All Majors are required to complete a minimum of 42 credit hours of Psychology as listed below:
   a. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911
   b. Twelve credit hours in Psychology chosen from the following: 3050, 3100, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650, 3750, 3800 or 3801.
   c. Twelve credit hours of 4000-level courses in Psychology, of which at least one must be a research experience course and one must be a selected topics course.

2. Psychology Majors following the B.Sc. program are also required to complete the following:
   a. Mathematics 1000 (or equivalent).
   b. Biology 1001 and 1002
   c. Either Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051); OR Physics 1020 (or 1050) and 1021 (or 1051)
   d. Six credit hours of laboratory courses at the 2000 level or above in one of Biology, Chemistry, or Physics.
   Note: Biology/Psychology 3750 and Biology/Psychology 4701 cannot be used to satisfy the requirement of 6 laboratory credit hours at the 2000 level or above in either Biology, Chemistry, or Physics.

3. Psychology Majors following the B.A. program are also required to complete Mathematics 1000 or two of 1090, 1050, 1051 (or equivalents), and are encouraged to complete at least 6 credit hours in Biology.

6.10.4 Requirements for Honours in Psychology
Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

1. Honours students in Psychology are required to complete the 60 credit hours of Psychology as listed below:
   a. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3900, 4910, 499A/B
   b. Eighteen credit hours chosen from the alternatives listed in Clause 1. b. of the requirements for a Major in Psychology
   c. Twelve credit hours of 4000-level courses in Psychology, of which at least one must be a research experience course and one must be a selected topics course.
2. Honours students must also complete the requirements listed in either Clause 2. or Clause 3., as applicable, of the requirements for a Major in Psychology.

3. Honours students will be required to submit in their graduating year, an undergraduate thesis (Psychology 499A/B) which demonstrates their competence in Experimental Psychology.

6.10.5 Requirements for a Major in Behavioural Neuroscience (B.Sc. Only)

Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

A program is offered in the Psychology Department to provide an education in Behavioural Neuroscience. Students wishing to enroll in the program are advised to consult with the Head of the Department at the earliest opportunity. Students who intend to pursue graduate studies should take courses leading to the Honours degree.

The program for a Major in Behavioural Neuroscience shall include:

1. a. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3800, 3801
   b. Six credit hours in Psychology chosen from the following: 3050, 3100, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650, 3750.
   c. Six credit hours of 4000 level courses in Psychology, of which one must be a research experience course.

2. a. Mathematics 1000 (or equivalent) and 1001
   b. Chemistry 1010 and 1011 (or 1050 and 1051), and 2440 (or 2400/2401)
   c. Physics 1020 (or 1050) and 1021 (or 1051).
   d. Biology 1001 and 1002
   e. English 1080 and one of 1101, 1102, 1103, or 1110, or equivalents

3. Eighteen credit hours from the following courses chosen from at least two different sciences:
   b. Biology: 2060, 2210, 2250, 2900, 3050, 3160, 3202, 3295, 3401, 3500, 3530, 3540, 3750, 4200, 4241, 4245, 4250, 4402, 4450, 4601, 4605, 4701, 4900 (see note below)
   c. Chemistry: 2210, 2300 or any 3000 or 4000 level course
   d. Computer Science: Any 2000, 3000, or 4000 level course except 2650 and 2801
   e. Mathematics: 2000, 2050, 2051, 3000, 3001 or any 3000 or 4000 level pure or applied mathematics course
   f. Physics: Any 2000, 3000, or 4000 level course except 2151, 3150, 3151

Notes:
1. Credit may not be obtained for both Biology 3750 and either Psychology 3750 or Psychology 4770, or for both Biology 4701 and Psychology 4701.
2. The courses listed under Clause 3 may have prerequisites. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that all prerequisites have been met, or that waivers have been obtained, before registering for these courses.

6.10.6 Requirements for Honours in Behavioural Neuroscience (B.Sc. Only)

Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

1. Honours students in Behavioural Neuroscience are required to complete the following Psychology courses: 1000, 1001, 2520, 2570, 2910, 2911, 3800, 3801, 3900, 499A/B; two further courses in Psychology chosen from the following: 3050, 3100, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3620, 3650, 3750; two 4000 level courses in Psychology of which one must be a research experience course.

2. Honours students in Behavioural Neuroscience must also complete the requirements listed in Clauses 2. and 3. of the requirements for a Major in Behavioural Neuroscience.

3. In accordance with Clause 6. a. of the Regulations for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science, Honours candidates must obtain a grade of “B” or better, OR an average of 75% or higher in all the required courses listed in Clauses 1. and 3. of the requirements for a Major in Behavioural Neuroscience.

6.10.7 Requirements for a Minor in Psychology

Students who Minor in Psychology are required to complete a minimum of 24 credit hours of Psychology as follows:

a. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2920
b. Fifteen other credit hours of Psychology.

d. Computer Science: Any 2000, 3000, or 4000 level course except 2650 and 2801

e. Mathematics: 2000, 2050, 2051, 3000, 3001 or any 3000 or 4000 level pure or applied mathematics course

6.10.8 Course Descriptions

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Department.

Psychology courses are designated by PSYC.

6.10.8.1 Non-Restricted Courses

Note: These courses are open to all students who have the appropriate prerequisites. PSYC 1000 and 1001 are prerequisites for all Psychology courses. Students who intend to major in Psychology should note that each course marked with an asterisk is credit-restricted with a Majors course; consequently, taking these courses will reduce your options in the Majors program.

1000 and 1001 Introduction to Psychology is an introduction to Psychology as a biological and social science. Topics shall include research methodology, physiological processes, perception, learning, memory and cognition, human development, animal behaviour, emotion, motivation, consciousness, personality and individuality, psychological disorders and treatment, and social psychology.

PSYC 1000 is a prerequisite for PSYC 1001.

2010 The Psychology of Human Development I* is a survey of principles underlying human development from the prenatal stage to adolescence. Topics covered will include sensorimotor, linguistic, perceptual, cognitive and motivational changes. Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1001.

2011 The Psychology of Human Development II is an examination of relevant research on socialization and personality development with special emphasis on attachment, imitation, sex role and moral development in childhood and adolescence. Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1001.

2012 The Psychology of Human Development III is concerned with the major physical, intellectual and interpersonal changes associated with maturity and aging. It completes the study of the life-span development of the human organism initiated in PSYC 2010 and 2011. Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1001.

2100 Attitudes and Social Cognition* is an examination of the concepts and principles involved in the interaction between the individual and others.
Emphasis will be on the theoretical and empirical concerns of attitude formation and change, social perception, and social cognition.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1001.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2100 and either of the following: PSYC 3100, PSYC 2125.

2120 Interpersonal and Group Processes - inactive course.

2150 Introduction to Forensic Psychology will provide an in-depth overview of the relationship between psychology and the law. A variety of topics will be discussed and critically evaluated, including the use and misuse of psychology-based investigative methods such as offender and geographic profiling, detection of deception, investigative interviewing, eyewitness testimony, jury decision-making, corrections and treatment, risk assessment, and criminal responsibility.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2240 Survey of Learning is a survey of learning phenomena and learning theories. Topics to be studied will include a selection of the following: the evolutionary context of learning, habituation and sensitization, Pavlovian conditioning, instrumental learning, generalization and discrimination in learning, and neural mechanisms of learning.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2440 Human Memory and Cognition* is an introduction to the basic principles of human memory and information processing. Topics covered will include encoding, storage, retrieval, and forgetting, attention, memory, perception, and thought processes.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2440 and any of the following: PSYC 2250, PSYC 2225, the former PSYC 2400, the former PSYC 3150.

2530 Mathematical Psychology - inactive course.

2540 Psychology of Gender is an examination of the influence of gender on development and socialization, attitude formation, cognition, personality and mental health.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2560 Intelligenec - inactive course.

2610 Personality* is a review of the research and theory pertaining to a psychological understanding of human personality.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2610 and any of the following: PSYC 3450, PSYC 4462, PSYC 2425.

2800 Drugs and Behaviour is an examination of the neurophysiology of drug action, the measurable effect of drugs on experimentally controlled behaviour, and a survey of information available on common self-administered drugs and their immediate and long-term effects.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2810 Brain and Behaviour* is a broad survey of physiological psychology at an elementary level. Topics will include the following: structure of the nervous system, sensory systems, behaviour, the role of hormones, aggression, feeding and drinking, sleep and arousal, pleasure and pain, learning and memory.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2810 and any of the following: PSYC 3620, PSYC 2625, the former PSYC 2620.

2920 Research Methods in Psychology for Non-Majors* provides an introduction to the design, understanding, and application of psychological research. Topics covered include understanding and applying scientific methods, constructing and testing hypotheses, constructing reliable and valid experiments, and the proper use of controls. An emphasis will be placed on thinking critically about psychology and common errors of judgment.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Psychology majors and students in any Psychology honours or joint honours program cannot receive credit for PSYC 2920.

3430 The Psychology of Thinking will present theories and experimental studies of problem solving, creativity and decision making. Topics covered will include the difficulties encountered in problem solving and solutions such as strategies for organizing and representing information, the production of ideas, transfer and discovery learning.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for PSYC 3430 and the former PSYC 2430.

3501 Industrial Psychology is an examination of the theories and concepts of industrial psychology. Topics covered will include research and testing methods, measuring job and performance appraisal systems, personnel selection methods, personnel training and development, work motivation, work stress, design work for people, and human engineering.

Prerequisite: Any 2000-level course in Psychology.

3533 Sexual Behaviour is a psychological analysis of sexual behaviour. The course will examine the physiological, behavioural, social and personality bases of the male and female sexual response, heterosexuality and homosexuality and other sexual behaviour. Other topics may include the social precursors of human sexual behaviour, sex therapy, pregnancy and childbirth, and nonhuman sexual behaviour.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for PSYC 3350 and the former PSYC 3300.

3577 Program Evaluation - inactive course.

3640 The Psychology of Abnormal Behaviour* covers problems of definition, the history of beliefs about abnormal behaviour and the implication of a behavioural model for the understanding and control of behaviour problems.

Prerequisite: Any 2000 level course in Psychology.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3640 and any of the following: PSYC 3650, PSYC 3826, and the former PSYC 3680.

4810 Human Neuropsychology - inactive course.

6.10.8.2 Majors Courses

Note: These courses are restricted to Majors in Psychology and Behavioural Neuroscience. Minors are permitted to take PSYC 2520 and 2570 if space permits.

2520 Mind and Brain covers cognitive and neuroscience perspectives on two different themes (processing of visual information and awareness of the visual world). These themes will be used to convey the logic and methods used in modern-day psychological research, the development and use of theory to guide further research, and the utility of multiple research perspectives for developing a full understanding of psychological issues, and basic concepts in cognition and neuroscience.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2570 Understanding Individual Differences uses current conceptualizations of personality and ability as a focus. The course will review issues related to the measurement of individual differences, including test characteristics and ethics. Research from a variety of perspectives will be used to illustrate the contributions of different areas of psychology to our understanding of individual differences.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011.

2910 Research Methods in Psychology I is an introduction to the design and application of psychological research with particular concentration on understanding and applying scientific method, creating and testing hypotheses, constructing reliable and valid experiments, managing and analysing data sets, using statistical software, and scientific writing. Specific topics include descriptive statistics including measures of central tendency, variability and relative standing, inferential statistics such as t-tests for one and two sample designs, correlation and regression, and non-parametric statistics.

Prerequisites: PSYC 1000 and 1011; Mathematics 1090 or two of 1090, 1050 and 1051 (or equivalents).

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2910 and any of the following: Statistics 2500, 2510, 2550, PSYC 2900, 2925.

2911 Research Methods in Psychology II covers research methods in psychology with a focus on more complex research designs and statistical approaches, within the realm of experimentation and beyond the laboratory. Specific topics include controlling participant variables, using between and repeated measures designs with the context of Analysis of Variance (ANOVA). Particular ANOVA approaches include one-way and factorial designs, within subject design, and two-way mixed designs.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2910 Laboratory period weekly.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 2911 and any of the following: Statistics 2501, 2560, PSYC 2901, 2950.

3050 Developmental Psychology is an examination of the methods and study of an evaluation of current findings and theoretical issues of importance to an understanding of development. Topics will be drawn from perception, learning, cognition, social learning, memory and language development.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3650 and PSYC 3050.

3100 Social Psychology is an examination of the concepts and principles involved in social behaviour. Topics covered will include attitudes, social cognition, interpersonal relations, and group processes.

Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3100 and PSYC 2100.

3250 Learning (formerly 2250) examines how organisms adjust their behaviour to regularities in the environment as a result of experience.

Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3250 and PSYC 2225 or the former PSYC 2250.

3350 Perception (formerly 2360) is a broad survey of theory and research in sensation and perception.

Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911.

Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3350 and the former PSYC 2360.

3450 Human Cognition is an introduction to the experimental study of the mental representations and processes involved in human cognition. Topics such as attention, perception and pattern recognition, concepts and the organization of knowledge, language processes, mental imagery, reasoning, problem solving, decision making and skilled performance will be covered with an emphasis on experimental analysis and techniques. Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3450 and either of the following: PSYC 2440, PSYC 2425.

3620 Personality Theory and Research is a survey of personality theory and research. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3620 and any of the following: PSYC 2610, PSYC 2625, and the former PSYC 2620.

3650 Abnormal Psychology is an examination of the nature, explanation and treatment of psychological disorders with an emphasis on research methods and current findings. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3650 and either of the following: PSYC 3640, PSYC 3626.

3750 Animal Behaviour I is an introduction to the mechanisms, development, function and evolution of behaviour in animals. Topics include the history of ethology and comparative psychology, and behavioural ecology; methods of animal behaviour study, behaviour of animals in relation to the environment, communication, mating systems, and other areas in Biology and Psychology. Prerequisites: Biology 1001, 1002 and PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911. Note: Credit may be obtained for only one of PSYC 3750 and Biology 3750.

3800 Neuroscience addresses the structure and function of neurons and neural circuits and examines principles of electrochemical neural communication at the macroscopic, microscopic and molecular level. The relevance of this knowledge to understanding brain mechanisms of normal and diseased brain functions will be touched upon. The molecular basis of the formation of some types of memories will be explored. Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911.

3801 Behavioural Neuroscience is a survey of knowledge about brain mechanisms of behaviour. Topics will include the following: basic neuroanatomy and neurophysiology, somatosensory systems and pain, reward, mental illness, sleep and arousal, developmental neurobiology, sexual development and behaviour, regulation of eating and body weight, learning and memory, and cortical function, including cortical mediation of language. Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570 and 2911. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3801 and any of the following: PSYC 2810, PSYC 2825, the former PSYC 2850.

3900 Design and Analysis III is a course on complex and specialized research design in Psychology. Multifactor research designs that employ both between- and within-subjects independent variables. Advantages and disadvantages of using multifactor research designs to test psychological hypotheses. Hierarchical designs and incomplete factorials. The use of covariates and blocking to increase experimental precision. Problems created when analyzing data. Single subject designs. How to answer specific psychological questions in the context of complex designs. The design and analysis of non-experimental psychological research. Applications of such techniques as the analysis of variance and multiple linear regression to the data obtained with these research designs, with special attention to problems inherent in psychological research. Prerequisite: PSYC 2911. Laboratory period weekly. Note: Credit may not be obtained for both PSYC 3900 and any of the following: PSYC 3950, Statistics 3520.

4050 Selected Topics in Developmental Psychology I Prerequisite: PSYC 3050 or 3051.

4051 Selected Topics in Developmental Psychology II Prerequisite: PSYC 3050 or 3051.

4070 Research Experience in Development Psychology allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of developmental psychology. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911; and 3050.

4150 Selected Topics in Social Psychology I Prerequisite: PSYC 3100 or the former PSYC 3160.

4151 Selected Topics in Social Psychology II - inactive course.

4152 Selected Topics in Applied Social Psychology - inactive course.

4160 Psychology and the Law allows students, upon completion of this course, to demonstrate an advanced understanding of psychology and the law. Specifically, students will be able to discuss and critically evaluate topics related to the Canadian legal system, police investigations, memory in legal contexts, selection, jury decision-making, sentencing, parole, offender assessment and treatment, fitness to stand trial, and forensic civil psychology. Prerequisite: PSYC 3100 or the former PSYC 3160.

4170 Research Experience in Social Psychology will provide research experience in a selection of areas typically studied by social psychologists such as attitudes, prejudice, groups and social cognition. Students will acquire experience with research methods that are used to advance the body of knowledge in social psychology. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911, and 3100.

4250 Selected Topics in Learning and Motivation I Prerequisite: PSYC 3250 or the former PSYC 2250.

4251 Selected Topics in Learning and Motivation II Prerequisite: PSYC 3250 or the former PSYC 2250.

4260 Learning Processes and Drug Effects focuses on explanations of the behavioural effects of drugs that can be found in learning and conditioning theory. This course will provide a careful examination of such processes as drug state conditioning and discrimination, drug effects on operant behaviour, drug self-administration and tolerance. Prerequisite: PSYC 3250 or the former PSYC 2250.

4270 Research Experience in Learning allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of learning. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911, and 3250.

4350 Selected Topics in Perception I is an intensive examination of a specific topic of current interest in perception. Prerequisites: PSYC 3350 or the former PSYC 2360.

4351 Selected Topics in Perception II is an intensive examination of a specific topic of current interest in perception. Prerequisites: PSYC 3350 or the former PSYC 2360.

4370 Research Experience in Perception allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of perception. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911 and 3350.

4400 Selected Topics in Cognition I Prerequisite: PSYC 3450.

4401 Selected Topics in Cognition II Prerequisite: PSYC 3450.

4402 Selected Topics in Cognitive Science provides an in-depth examination of current issues in cognitive science from a psychological perspective. Prerequisites: Two courses from PSYC 3050, 3250, 3350, 3450, 3801.

4452 Selected Topics in Cognition: Reading is a survey of the research literature on the development of reading skills including a discussion of dyslexia. Prerequisites: PSYC 3450 and a course in Linguistics.

4461 Psycholinguistics (formerly 3400) is the psychological approach to the study of language concentrating particularly on the areas of speech, meaning, grammar and communication. The research topics to be discussed include the child's acquisition of language, bilingualism, teaching language to animals, and social factors in language use. Prerequisites: PSYC 3050 or 3450.

4462 Human Memory surveys theories and research about how humans remember information and why they forget. Topics include research on sensory memory, short-term working memory, amnesia, forgetting, memory development, and semantic memory as well as practical issues such as how to improve memory. Prerequisite: PSYC 3450.

4470 Research Experience in Cognition allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of cognition. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911, and 3450.

4610 Selected Topics in Personality I Prerequisite: PSYC 3620 or the former PSYC 2620.

4620 Selected Topics in Personality II Prerequisite: PSYC 3620 or the former PSYC 2620.

4650 Selected Topics in Abnormal Behaviour I Prerequisite: PSYC 3650.

4651 Selected Topics in Abnormal Behaviour II Prerequisite: PSYC 3650.

4660 Developmental Psychopathology is a review of current theory and research related to the developmental course of maladaptive behaviours in children and adolescents. Topics will include behavioural, emotional and developmental disorders. Research concerning the role of individual, family, community and cultural factors will be discussed. Prerequisite: PSYC 3650.

4661 Family Psychology is a study of the reciprocal relationship between family processes and abnormal behaviour. The course will focus on the role of family dynamics in the etiology of abnormal behaviour, the impact of psychological disorders on family functioning and the application of family therapy to create therapeutic change. Prerequisite: PSYC 3650, or all of 2520, 2570, 2911 and 3640.

4662 Clinical Psychology and Theories of Psychotherapy will introduce students to the science and profession of clinical and counselling psychology. Course content will include a review of approaches to assessment and psychotherapy and a look at some of the major research questions and findings in this area.
Prerequisite: PSYC 3650.

4670 Research Experience in Abnormal Psychology allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of clinical psychology. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911 and 3650.

4671 Research Experience in Personality allows students to gain experience in selected areas of personality research. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911 and 3620.

4701 Animal Behaviour II - inactive course.

4750 Selected Topics in Animal Behaviour I will examine in detail a specific topic of current interest in animal behaviour. Prerequisite: PSYC 3750; or Biology 3750.

4751 Selected Topics in Animal Behaviour II will have the topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: PSYC 3750; or Biology 3750.

4770 Research Experience in Animal Behaviour allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of animal behaviour. Prerequisite: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911 and 3750.

4850 Selected Topics in Behavioural Neuroscience I will have the topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: PSYC 2810, 3800 or 3801.

4851 Selected Topics in Behavioural Neuroscience II will have the topics to be studied announced by the Department. Prerequisite: PSYC 2810, 3800, or 3801.

4870 Neuroscience Research allows students to gain research experience in selected areas of neuroscience. Prerequisites: PSYC 2520, 2570, 2911, and either 3800 or 3801.

4910 Systems in Contemporary Psychology is a study of paradigms and explanations in contemporary psychology in the context of their historical antecedents. Prerequisite: Thirty credit hours in Psychology courses required in the majors program.

499A and 499B Honours Dissertation is a 6 credit hours linked course based on independent study of an approved problem in Psychology. The topic will be chosen in consultation with the Faculty Advisor. The first semester will normally involve directed reading in this area, and preparation of a dissertation proposal. The second semester will be devoted to conducting the study, gathering data, data analysis and preparation of a formal written report. The dissertation must be submitted for grading before the end of the tenth week of the semester in which the student is registered for 499B. Prerequisite: Admission to the Honours Program.

6.11 Science

6.11.1 Course Descriptions

1000 Introduction to Science I is a liberal science course for Arts students, which reflects the way scientists think and work through historical, philosophical and social considerations of the environment we live in. Typical course content includes: the concepts of matter, motion and energy; the chemical basis for life and the interdependence of organisms; and the abundance and distribution of the Earth’s natural resources. Three lectures a week. No laboratory.

1001 Introduction to Science II is continuation of Science 1000. Prerequisite: Science 1000. Note: Science 1000/1001 may not be used to fulfill any of the Science course requirements for the Honours and General Degrees in Science.

1150 and 1151 Introduction to Physical and Life Sciences (formerly Science 115A/B) (1150 (F) and 1151 (W)) is an introduction to some concepts in the Physical and Life Sciences. These courses are primarily intended for the non-science major (B.A.; B.Ed. (Primary/Elementary)). Note: Science 1150 and 1151 are not acceptable as prerequisites for 2000 level courses in Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Geography or Earth Sciences. Credit may not be obtained for both Science 115A and Science 1150 or for Science 115B and Science 1151.

5998 Exchange Programs in Science will be available only to students attending Memorial University of Newfoundland as part of a formal exchange agreement, memorandum of understanding, or other special arrangement. Admission is by permission of the Dean of Science. Credit hours: 3 - 15, to be determined for each offering by the Dean in consultation with the appropriate Head of Department or Co-ordinator. This course may be repeated for credit once. This course will normally be offered twice a year, from March to August and September to February.

3 General Information

The College, a campus of Memorial University of Newfoundland, was established in September 1975. In 1979 it was named Sir Wilfred Grenfell College honouring the memory of the medical missionary who pioneered medicine in northern Newfoundland and along the coast of Labrador until his death in 1940.

Four year degree programs in arts, science, business administration, fine arts, nursing and resource management may be completed at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. The Bachelor of Arts degree is available in English, environmental studies, historical studies, humanities, psychology, social/cultural studies and tourism and the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) may be obtained in psychology. The Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Science (Honours) are offered in environmental science, general science, and psychology, and the University's four year Nursing degree is offered in conjunction with the Western Regional School of Nursing in Corner Brook. Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees are conferred in visual arts and theatre. These programs are different from programs offered on the St. John's campus and most are available only at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

Students at Grenfell may also complete the first year requirements of several programs offered at the St. John's Campus. It is recommended that students meet with an academic adviser concerning course selection for specific programs.

Students have the option of completing distance and web-based credit courses offered by Distance Education and Learning Technologies (DELT) at Memorial University of Newfoundland. As well, the Division of Community Education and College Relations also offers a wide variety of non-credit courses to the students at the College and to the general public.

The College campus affords a spectacular view of the city of Corner Brook and the scenic Bay of Islands. The Arts and Science Building houses administrative and academic units, a bookstore, an athletics and recreation wing, a student residence and the Student Centre. The Library and Computing Building includes the Femina Hodggett Library, a computer lab and a high tech lecture theatre. The Fine Arts Building contains facilities for students of theatre and visual arts, the college community and the general public. It features a 225 seat “black box” theatre, dressing rooms, scenery, costume and properties workshops, as well as an actors’ green room and a rehearsal hall. The Fine Arts Building also includes an art gallery, art storage vault, studios for drawing, painting, sculpture, multi-media and photography, darkrooms, and workshops for lithography, intaglio and serigraphy. The Forest Centre is a shared facility housing classroom, laboratory and research facilities for the College as well as the Newfoundland Division of the Canadian Forestry Service. All campus buildings are connected, mostly by skywalks.

Additional information regarding Sir Wilfred Grenfell College is available at www.swgc.mun.ca/Pages/default.aspx.

3.1 Student Services

The mission of Student Services is to promote the intellectual, social, spiritual, and physical development of all students. By advocating for students, providing the highest quality service, and involving students in leadership roles, Student Services strives to help students realize their full potential—to become successful students, caring individuals, and productive citizens.

Student Services offers many programs and activities which support this mission, such as student employment programs, scholarships, bursaries and awards, orientation, recreation and wellness, academic support, and student housing.

Students are encouraged to bring concerns and issues associated with life at University to Student Services. Staff are always interested in suggestions for new initiatives which will meet students’ needs.

Student Services is located in the Student Services Centre, AS 234 at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Further information may be obtained by telephone to (709) 637-6232, or by e-mail at saffairs@swgc.mun.ca or through the website at www.swgc.mun.ca/student.

3.2 The Learning Centre

One of the most utilized components of Student Services is the Learning Centre, Grenfell College’s one-stop shop for academic support. Staff in the Centre assist students with career planning and provide writing and math help. The Learning Centre also offers Peer Tutoring and runs the Supplemental Instruction program.

The co-ordinator of the Learning Centre is also responsible for helping students who require accommodations because of a disability.

The Learning Centre is located in AS 235. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Centre by telephone to (709) 637-6268 or through the website at www.swgc.mun.ca/lcentre.

3.3 Student Housing

Student Housing currently offers accommodation for 400 students in a suite-style residence mainly for 1st year students and in chalet apartments for families and students beyond their first year. In our residence every two rooms form a suite, where two students share a fridge and bathroom. In each apartment, four students share a living room, kitchen and one-and-a-half baths, but like the residence, each student has his/her own room. Individual phones and Internet ports are provided.

Student Housing facilitates a variety of programs and activities to meet the diverse interests of residents and encourages students to get involved.

The off-campus office assists students seeking accommodation in the Corner Brook area. An online database of boarding houses’ apartments is available. The office also offers services and programs throughout the year for student living off campus.

Further information may be obtained by telephone to (709) 637-6266, or by e-mail at resinfo@swgc.mun.ca, or through the website at www.swgc.mun.ca/university-calendar.
3.4 Recreation and Wellness

Sir Wilfred Grenfell College offers a distinctive program of recreation and wellness activities that contributes to the well-being and personal and social development of students. The college has a 25 metre pool, a gymnasium and an outdoor multi-use court. Through a partnership with the Pepsi Centre, students are able to access a fitness facility, ice rinks and a walking track. Students also have the opportunity to use various recreational facilities on the west coast of this province. Students are able to participate in a variety of recreation programs such as intramural sports, step aerobics, and “learn to” programs that include activities like downhill skiing, kayaking and swimming.

Through a partnership with the Western Regional School of Nursing, a Wellness Centre operates at Grenfell on a part-time basis during the academic year.

The role of the centre is to enhance education and awareness of various lifestyle, health and well-being issues relevant to students at university.

3.5 Grenfell College Student Union

The Grenfell College Student Union (GCSU), Local 36, CFS, represents students’ interests to the College administration and on a provincial and national level through the Canadian Federation of Students. The GCSU also promotes artistic, literary, educational, social, recreational, charitable, and sporting activities for the enhancement of the students of the College.

All full and part-time students pay GCSU fees and upon registration become members of the Grenfell College Student Union.

3.6 Counselling Services

The College has two professional counsellors available to assist students with their concerns. The counsellors provide a free and confidential service that includes career, academic, and personal counselling. The counsellors meet with their clients individually and assist them with a wide range of concerns. When necessary, the counsellors can arrange referrals to other professionals in the community.

3.7 Library

The Ferriss Hodgett Library is located on levels 2 and 3 of the Library and Computing Building, with seating for 203 users and includes group study rooms, audio-visual carrels and an information commons. The Library holds over 120,000 books and 450 current subscriptions, along with collections of audio-visual materials, government documents, microforms and periodicals, and access to many e-journals and e-books.

A full range of public services is available including reference assistance, orientation tours and interlibrary loans, as well as access to electronic information resources, internet, spreadsheet, word processing and presentation software.

As a branch of the University Library, the Ferriss Hodgett Library also provides its users with access to the collections and services of all other Memorial University of Newfoundland libraries.

3.8 Statement of Academic Purpose

Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, as part of Memorial University of Newfoundland, is a four year undergraduate degree granting institution offering a liberal education in arts and science and a professional education in nursing, theatre and visual arts. In addition, the College continues to accommodate students who wish to complete their degrees at Memorial University of Newfoundland in St. John's or at universities elsewhere.

At Sir Wilfred Grenfell College a liberal education means a critical and open-minded pursuit of knowledge providing students with the intellectual tools to enable them to respond to a rapidly changing world. A liberal education marks the start of preparation for a career and it may lead to graduate work in a number of fields. In a broader sense it is intended to build a foundation for social, cultural and recreational interests that will help students move toward a meaningful personal and professional life. Academically, the aim of Sir Wilfred Grenfell College is to enable students to be open to new ways of thinking and to gain a lasting intellectual self-confidence so that they may have both the ability and the desire to be life-long learners.

At Sir Wilfred Grenfell College the goal of high quality education is reflected in the following commitments:
1. to teach students in a variety of challenging contexts and in general provide them with a personalized learning environment;
2. to maintain high academic standards;
3. to foster excellence in teaching, to encourage scholarship, research, performance and artistic endeavour, and to engage students, where appropriate, in these activities.

4 Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Core Program Requirements

Students completing the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Resource Management, and Bachelor of Science degree programs at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College must complete Core program requirements as follows:

1. Literacy Requirement

Thirty credit hours in Writing courses which must include 6 credit hours in first-year English. Up to 6 credit hours in languages other than English may be used to satisfy the literacy requirement. Courses in this group are identified with the designation W and are listed in the table, Designated Writing Courses (W).

Courses in this category must either be completed through on-campus offerings at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College or be demonstrated to be equivalent to Grenfell writing courses.

2. Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis Requirement

Six credit hours in Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis courses. Courses in this group are identified with the designation QRA and are listed in the table, Designated Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis Courses (QRA).

3. Breadth of Knowledge Requirement

Six credit hours from each of the three groups identified below for a total of 18 credit hours. The courses chosen can be any courses within the disciplines identified. However, students are not permitted to use these courses to meet the Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis requirement nor the first-year English requirements.

- Group A: Art History, Classics, English, History, Humanities, Languages, Philosophy, Religious Studies, Theatre, Visual Arts

Note: Courses will be designated Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis by the Academic Studies Committee. The Quantitative Reasoning and Analysis (QRA) Requirement is intended to help students develop a degree of appreciation of numerical, statistical and/or symbolic modes of representation, as well as an appreciation of the analysis, interpretation and broader quantitative application of such representations.

5 The Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science Degree Programs

Sir Wilfred Grenfell College reserves the right to limit the number of spaces available in each Major/Minor program. A student may not use the same course to satisfy the requirements for both a Major and a Minor.

Students may devise a Major/Minor of their own choosing in close consultation with a faculty advisor and with approval of appropriate head(s). Such "open" programs must be approved by the Academic Studies Committee.

Course prerequisites may be waived by division heads or program chairs of the disciplines or programs in question. In special circumstances the Academic Studies Committee may waive the requirements that apply to these degree programs. Courses listed for a Major or for a Minor may require prerequisite courses not listed in the program requirements. Please consult all course descriptions for prerequisites.

5.1 General Regulations

For the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College students must complete a minimum of 120 credit hours made up of the following components:

1. Core Program Requirements (see above)
2. An approved concentration of courses known as a Major
3. An approved concentration of courses known as a Minor. A Minor is not required for interdisciplinary programs or for Bachelor of Science in Psychology. However, students in such programs may choose to complete a Minor
4. Elective courses

5.2 Major

1. The requirements for a Major can be fulfilled in one of two ways:
   a. minimum of 36 credit hours in a single discipline or
   b. minimum of 72 credit hours in an interdisciplinary area

   Students choosing a single discipline major (with the exception of Bachelor of Science in Psychology) must complete one of the following: (i) minor or (ii) with the permission of the appropriate program chair(s), a second major.

   Actual credit hours required for specific disciplines will vary.

2. All Majors require a minimum of 12 credit hours in 3000-level courses, 6 credit hours in 4000-level courses and 3 credit hours in a 4000-level senior project.

3. A candidate must follow the specific requirements for each major program as set forth in the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College section of the University Calendar

4. Single discipline majors are available in following areas:
   - Division of Arts: English, Historical Studies
   - Division of Social Science: Psychology (B.A. and B.Sc.); Tourism Studies
   - Interdisciplinary majors are available in following areas:
   - Division of Arts: Humanities
   - Division of Social Science: Environmental Studies, Social/Cultural Studies, Sustainable Resource Management
   - Division of Science: Environmental Science, General Science

5.3 Minor

A minimum of 24 credit hours must be completed in a single discipline or interdisciplinary area other than that of the Major. Minors are available in the following areas:
Division of Arts: Classics, English, French, Historical Studies, Humanities, Philosophy, Religious Studies
Division of Social Science: Business, Canadian Studies, Environmental Studies, Folklore, Geography, Psychology, Social/Cultural Studies, Sociology; Tourism Studies
Division of Fine Arts: Art History
Division of Science: Environmental Science, Mathematics, Science
A candidate must follow the requirements for the Minor program as set forth in the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College section of the University Calendar.

As an alternative to a Minor, a second Major may be completed and students must meet all general and departmental or program regulations for both Majors.

Any student enrolled in the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College BA Degree with a Major in English who has completed the BFA (Theatre) Degree at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College will be considered to have fulfilled the requirements for a Minor in Theatre.

5.4 Electives
Courses to make up the total of 120 credit hours, other than those required for the core program and Major/Minor requirements, may be chosen according to the following guidelines:
1. Any courses in arts, social science, science and fine arts
2. Up to 15 credit hours in other subject areas.

5.5 Advice to Students on Planning a Program
When planning the sequence of courses for a Major or Minor Program, students should seek advice from the Office of the Registrar or the appropriate Division Office.

6 Regulations for the Honours Degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College

Programs are offered leading to the Honours Degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. An Honours degree requires, over and above the requirement of the General degree, a concentration at an advanced level in an approved field, consisting of a subject or subjects of specialization and/or related subjects, and a high quality of work throughout the program. An Honours degree is of distinct advantage to candidates who plan advanced work or careers in their chosen fields and also to those who have a clear commitment to some special field of study. An Honours degree with first or second class standing is, in many cases, a prerequisite for admission to a graduate program.

6.1 Admission and Registration
1. Admission to the Honours degree is competitive and limited, depending upon available resources. Candidates should consult the criteria established for the program in question. To be considered for admission to an Honours program a candidate shall complete an "Application For Admission to the Honours Program" form. The application must be approved by the Program Chair of the Major before the candidates can be admitted to the program.

A candidate who wishes to enter an honours program is strongly advised to consult the Program Chair at the earliest possible date, as it may not be possible to complete the requirements for the degree in the normal time if the decision to embark on the program is delayed beyond the end of the second year.

2. Students who have been awarded the General Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College may convert it to an Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science by following procedure outlined in 1. above.

3. Before registering for any semester or any session, the candidate is strongly advised to consult with the Program Chair on the student's choice of courses. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in denial of access to certain courses.

6.2 Majors
The Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts is available in Psychology and the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Science is available in Environmental Science, General Science, and Psychology.

6.3 Course Requirements
Candidates for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science shall complete a program of studies which shall consist of not fewer than 120 credit hours subject to the following regulations:
1. All candidates are required to complete the Core Program requirements governing the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees at Sir Wilfred College.

2. All candidates must also submit an Honours thesis or dissertation on an approved topic which may be followed by an oral examination thereon. Two copies of the Honours thesis/dissertation must be submitted to the University Library upon completion. All Honours theses/dissertations in the University Library shall be available for unrestricted consultation by students and faculty except under very exceptional circumstances which must be approved by the Academic Studies Committee. Copyright remains with the author. A signed release form must accompany a thesis or dissertation when it is submitted to the University Library.

3. Further courses shall be chosen:
   a. minimum 60 credit hours in the major and, where applicable, not fewer than 24 credit hours in the minor; and
   b. courses to make up a minimum of 120 credit hours, other than those required for the Core Program, major and minor, shall be chosen as follows:
      i. any courses in Arts, Science, Social Science and Fine Arts
      ii. up to 15 credit hours in other subject areas.

6.4 Program Regulations
Candidates for Honours degrees must comply with such additional requirements of the appropriate Program(s) as approved by the Senate and printed in the University Calendar.
6.5 Residence Requirements
To qualify for an Honours degree in Arts or Science, a candidate shall attend this University for a minimum of four semesters as a full-time student in the program of specialization except with the permission of the Academic Studies Committee.

6.6 Academic Standing
In order to graduate with an Honours degree, a candidate shall obtain:
1. A grade of 'B' 70% or better, or an average of 75% or higher in the courses that comprise the minimum number of credit hours in the Honours subject(s) prescribed by the program concerned as outlined under the regulations governing specific Honours degree programs, excluding 1000-level courses. Students who wish to fulfil this requirement using repeated or substituted courses must obtain approval of the Program Chair and the Academic Studies Committee. The Honours thesis or dissertation may not be repeated or substituted. A grade of 70% or better must be obtained in the Honours dissertation; and
2. An average of at least 2.75 points per credit hour in the courses required for the degree. (see UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate), for explanation of the point system.)

6.7 Classification of Degrees
1. If a candidate’s general average is 3.5 points or better per credit hour in required courses and his/her average is 3.5 per credit hour in the courses in the Honours subject (excluding 1000-level courses), the candidate shall be awarded an Honours degree with First Class standing.
2. If a candidate fulfils the conditions of 6.6 but not of clause 6.7, 1., the candidate shall be awarded an Honours degree with Second Class standing.
3. No classification will be given to the degree awarded a candidate who has completed (i) fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University, or (ii) who has completed fewer than one half of the courses required for the degree at this University since 1959. All candidates for such degrees shall, however, fulfil the condition of paragraph 6 on the courses taken at this University since September 1959 in order to qualify for the degree.
4. A declared candidate for an Honours degree who fails to attain the academic standing specified in clause 6, but fulfils the academic requirements for a General degree shall be awarded a General degree, the classification of which shall be determined in accordance with UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - General Academic Regulations (Undergraduate).

In these regulations, all references to the Program Chair are to be read as “Program Chair or delegate”.

8.2.1 Requirements for Honours in Psychology

Students completing this program cannot receive credit for Psychology 2920.

The Honours B.A. and B.Sc. degrees in Psychology offer greater concentration in the discipline and also require a higher level of academic achievement than is required for the completion of a degree. The Honours degrees in Psychology at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College are 120 credit hour programs normally requiring four years for completion (See regulations for the Honours degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College).

The following requirements govern the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) and the Bachelor of Science (Honours) degrees in Psychology:

1. Course Requirements
   a. Students must meet the General Regulations for Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree.
   b. Candidates must also complete:
      i. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2025, 2125, 2225, 2425, 2625, 2825, 2925, 2950, 3950, 4910, 4925
      ii. Fifteen credit hours from Psychology 3025, 3125, 3225, 3325, 3425, 3525, 3625, 3626, 3627, 3628, 3725, 3825
      iii. A two-semester research project, Psychology 4951 and 4959.
   c. Candidates for the Bachelor of Science (Honours) degree in Psychology shall also complete an additional 27 credit hours as follows:
      i. Six credit hours in Mathematics, which must include Mathematics 1000
      ii. Biology 1001 and 1002
      iii. Chemistry 1200 and 1001 OR Physics 1020 (or 1050) and 1021 (or 1051)
      iv. Nine credit hours at the 2000 level or above (two courses of which must be laboratory courses) in ONE of the following subjects: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Environmental Science or Physics.

2. Honours Thesis

The Honours project sequence (Psychology 4951 and 4959) involves the production of an Honours thesis. This thesis will be evaluated by the thesis supervisor and an additional faculty member selected by mutual consent of the candidate and the supervisor.

8.3 Major in Social/Cultural Studies

Program Chair: Dr. D. Klassen

The Major consists of 78 credit hours as follows:

Anthropology 1031, 2210, 3140, 3083, 3520
Folklore 1000, 2100, 2300, 2401
History 1100, 1101
Social/Cultural Studies 4000, 4100, 4950

Eighteen additional credit hours from Sociology and/or Folklore and/or Anthropology

8.4 Major in Tourism Studies

8.4.1 Admission Modes and Requirements

Direct Entry (for High School Students)

Students may apply for admission into the first year of the Bachelor of Arts in Tourism Studies program (BA (TS)) directly from high school by indicating this in the appropriate place on their Undergraduate Application for Admission/Readmission to Memorial University of Newfoundland. Direct entry from high school is subject to the applicant’s final acceptance to the University.

Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students)

1. Students may apply for admission with Advanced Standing into the BA (TS) program. A student's placement within the program, and requirements needed to complete the program, will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission. Students applying for admission with advanced standing must complete and submit the Application for Admission to the Chair of the Tourism Studies program. The deadline for submission of applications for consideration of admission is March 1 for Fall admission.

2. Admission with Advanced Standing is limited and competitive. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission with advanced standing is overall academic achievement. Selection, therefore, will be based on a student's overall academic performance.
Transfers From Other Post-Secondary Institutions

1. Students who are transferring from other universities must apply for admission to the University on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program, to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of transfer credits. The acceptance of transfer students into the BBA (TS) program is subject to the same conditions outlined under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above.

2. Subject to item 2. under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above, graduates of a three year community college tourism-related diploma program may also be considered for admission with advanced standing into the BA (TS) program. Specific course requirements will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission.

Students may apply for admission with Advanced Standing into the BA (TS) program beyond Year 1.

Regulations for a Major in Tourism Studies

The Major consists of a Tourism core which provides a broad appreciation of the implications of tourism activity in the context of social, cultural and physical environments.

The Tourism Studies program requires a total of 120 credit hours.

1. Students must successfully complete 60 credit hours as follows:
   a. French 1501 and 1502
   b. Economics 2010 and 2020
   c. Business 1000;
   d. three credit hours chosen from Geography 3222, Psychology 2925, Sociology 3040, Statistics 2500, Statistics 2550
   e. Thirty-three credit hours in Tourism consisting of Tourism Studies 1000, 1100, 2000, 2201, 3100, 3240, 3800, 3900, 4010, 3 credit hours from 4900-4910, and 4950.
   f. Three additional credit hours in Tourism Studies electives taken at the 2000 level.
   g. Six additional credit hours in Tourism Studies electives taken at the 3000 or 4000 levels.

2. A minimum of 24 credit hours in an approved minor concentration area other than that of the Major.

3. Courses to make up the total of 120 credit hours, other than those required for the core program. Of these courses, not more than 6 credit hours shall be from courses in the Tourism Studies program.

8.5 Bachelor of Business Administration

8.5.1 Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

The Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree program at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College is designed to deliver a comprehensive foundation in the fundamental areas of business and decision making. Students also have an opportunity to further specialize in areas of contemporary business studies, small business and entrepreneurship, or economic development.

8.5.2 Admission Modes and Requirements

8.5.2.1 Direct Entry (for High School Students)

Students may apply for admission into the BBA program directly from high school by indicating this in the appropriate place on the Undergraduate Application for Admission/Readmission to Memorial University of Newfoundland. Direct admission from high school is subject to the applicant’s final acceptance to the University.

8.5.2.2 Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students)

1. Current Memorial University of Newfoundland students may apply for admission to the BBA program with advanced standing after the successful completion of the 30 credit hours specified under The Curriculum, 2. below with an overall average of at least 65% in those specified 30 credit hours.

2. Students applying for advanced standing in the BBA Program must complete and submit an Application for Admission/Readmission to the Chair of the Business Administration program.

3. Admission with Advanced Standing is limited and competitive. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission/readmission with advanced standing is overall academic achievement. Selection, therefore, will be based on a student’s overall academic performance.

8.5.2.3 Transfers from Other Post-Secondary Institutions

1. Students who are transferring from other universities must apply for admission to the University on or before the deadlines specified in the University Diary for the semester in which they intend to begin their program, to allow sufficient time for the evaluation of transfer credits. The acceptance of transfer students into the BBA program is subject to the same conditions outlined under Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students) above.

2. Subject to Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students), 3. above, graduates of a three year community college business diploma program may also be considered for admission with advanced standing into the BBA program. To be eligible for the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration such students will be required to complete a minimum of 45 credit hours from Memorial University of Newfoundland. Specific course requirements will be determined on an individual basis at the time of admission.

8.5.3 The Curriculum

1. The Bachelor of Business Administration requires a total of 120 credit hours.

2. Students who have gained direct entry to the BBA program must successfully complete the following 30 credit hours by the end of Spring semester of their first year for continuance in the program:
   a. Business 1000 and 2000
   b. Economics 2010 and 2020
   c. Six credit hours in first year English
   d. Math 1000

3. Admission with Advanced Standing is limited and competitive. The primary criterion used in reaching decisions on applications for admission/readmission with advanced standing is overall academic achievement.
e. Nine additional credit hours in non-business elective courses.

3. 48 credit hours as follows:
   Business 1101, 1201, 1600, 2101, 2301, 2401, 2700, 3401, 4000, 4320, 4500, 5301, 7000, 7010, 7025, and Statistics 2500.

4. Students must choose one of the following areas of concentration:
   a. Contemporary Business Studies
      i. 12 credit hours:
         • one of Business 2808, Philosophy 1600, or Philosophy 2230
         • Business 7050
         • Business 7302
         • one of Economics 3030 or 3150
   b. Small Business and Entrepreneurship
      i. 9 credit hours:
         • Business 2201
         • Business 5600
         • Business 7600
      ii. 6 credit hours chosen from:
         • Business 6200
         • Business 6500
         • Business 6600
         • Business 6610
         • Business 7610
   c. Regional Economic Development
      i. 9 credit hours:
         • Business 3320
         • Business 4010
         • Business 4020
      ii. 6 credit hours chosen from:
         • Business 5010
         • Business 6800
         • Economics 4010
         • Economics 4011
         • Social/Cultural Studies 3210
         • Tourism Studies 4020

5. Additional courses to make up the total of 120 credit hours. When selecting these courses, students are reminded that the Core Requirements for a Sir Wilfred Grenfell College degree program must be met. In addition, if students choose to complete a minor within the BBA program, they are advised to select their electives carefully so that they will also meet the requirements for the chosen Minor program as set forth in the University Calendar.

6. For graduation, a student must be enrolled in the BBA program, have obtained a minimum overall average of 60% on the program courses specified under the Curriculum, 3. and 4. above, and must have successfully completed other courses to make up the total of 120 credit hours.

8.5.4 Minor from another Academic Unit

Students enrolled in the BBA program are not required to complete minor programs; however, students may choose to pursue a minor in other non-business academic units (where minor programs exist) with permission of that academic unit.

Students are advised to refer to the requirements for the chosen Minor program as set forth in the University Calendar, and it is recommended that students seek academic advice when planning their program.

8.5.5 Continuation

1. The standing of every student will be assessed at the end of each academic term by the Program Chair of Business. The decisions of the Chair will be issued to the individual students by the Office of the Registrar.

2. Students gaining direct entry to the BBA program and those with advanced standing must maintain a 65% overall average in the 30 credit hours specified under The Curriculum, 2. above for continuance in the program.

3. Students who have been required to withdraw following the completion of The Curriculum, 2. may be considered for readmission to the program in accordance with the entry under Admission Modes and Requirements above, with the heading Advanced Standing (for Current Memorial University of Newfoundland Students).

4. Following the completion of The Curriculum, 2. students must qualify for continuation after each term of study. For continuation, students must have an overall average of 60% over their last ten courses taken. In the event that a student has more courses than needed in the earliest term used, the courses with the highest grades in that term will be used.

Students who fail to achieve these standards will be required to withdraw from the program. They may be considered for readmission after a lapse of two semesters. In order to be considered for readmission, students must formally re-apply to the Program for readmission using the appropriate application form.

A required withdrawal will be reflected on a student's transcript.

5. Students who are required to withdraw a second time under 4 above are not eligible for readmission into the program.

6. The Academic Studies Committee may allow a student, who fails to achieve the standards outlined under 4 above, to continue in the

8.6 Bachelor of Resource Management

8.6.1 Regulations for the General Degree of Bachelor of Resource Management

The program consists of a Sustainable Resource Management core which provides an interdisciplinary understanding of management activities within the context of the physical, social and economic environments.

The program requires a total of 120 credit hours as follows:

1. The interdisciplinary Major in Sustainable Resource Management consisting of 84 credit hours.
   a. Biology 1001, 1002, 2600
   b. Chemistry 1200 and 1001, or equivalent
   c. Economics 2010
   d. Environmental Studies 2000, 3000, 3001, 4000
   e. Geography 1000, 1001, 2425
   g. One of Philosophy 2809, Religious Studies 3880, Political Science 3550
   h. Two of Environmental Science 2371, Environmental Science 2369, Biology 2010, Biology 2122, Biology 2210
   i. Statistics 2500
   j. One of Environmental Science 3072, 3110, 3130, 3131, 4132, Earth Science 3811
2. 6 credit hours in first-year English
3. 30 credit hours in elective courses. When selecting electives, students are reminded that the Core Requirements for a Sir Wilfred Grenfell College degree program must be met.

8.7 Minor Programs - Division of Social Science

Minor programs require 24 credit hours

1. Regulations for a Minor in Business
   a. Students who are completing degrees in the Divisions of Arts, Science, or Social Science may complete a minor in Business.
   b. Students applying for admission to the Business minor program must have completed a minimum of 30 credit hours. Application is made in the space provided on the Change of Academic Program Form, which must then be approved by the Chair of the BBA Program.
   c. Admission into the minor program is limited and competitive: at the time of application a student must have a cumulative average of at least 65% on the last 30 credit hours completed.

d. A minor in Business consists of 24 credit hours. Students must complete 18 credit hours as follows: Business 1000, 1101, 1201, 2301, 4500, and 7010. The remaining 6 credit hours must be chosen from Business 1600, 2101, 2201, 4000, 4320, or 7302.

e. Course prerequisites to all Business courses will apply to a Business minor. Students should note, for example, that the prerequisites for Business 4500 are Business 1101, Statistics 2500 and Economics 2010, and that enrolment in Business 7010 requires permission of the Chair of Business. It should be noted that some courses are not offered every semester.

2. Minor in Canadian Studies

A Minor in Canadian Studies shall consist of 24 credit hours as follows:

   - History 4254
   - Political Science 3731
   - Sociology 3395

3. Environmental Studies Minor:

a. Environmental Studies 1000 and 9 credit hours from those designated as Environmental Studies core courses

b. Twelve credit hours from one of the Environmental Studies concentrations or a combination of courses taken from both concentrations. The courses chosen must be chosen from at least three subject areas.

4. Folklore Minor:

a. Folklore 1000, 2100, 2300, 2401, 2500

b. Nine additional credit hours in Folklore

5. Geography Minor:

a. Geography 1000, 1001, 2001, 2102, 3222

b. Nine additional credit hours in Geography; at least 6 credit hours of which must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

6. Psychology Minor:

a. Psychology 1000, 1001, 2925

b. Nine credit hours in Psychology at the 2000 level

c. Six credit hours in Psychology at the 3000 level

7. Social/Cultural Studies Minor:

a. Anthropology 1031, Sociology 2000, Folklore 1000

b. Anthropology 2410 or Sociology 3150

c. Folklore 2100 or Sociology 3040

d. Three additional credit hours in each of Sociology, Anthropology and Folklore

8. Sociology Minor:

a. Sociology 2000, 3040, 3150

b. Fifteen credit hours in Sociology; at least 6 credit hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level

9. Regulations for a Minor in Tourism Studies

a. Students who are completing degrees in Arts, Science, and/or Business Administration may complete a minor in Tourism Studies.

b. Students who wish to undertake the Tourism Studies minor program must have completed a minimum of 18 credit hours. Application is made in the space provided on the Change of Academic Program Form, which must then be approved by the Chair of the Tourism Studies program. Admission into the minor program is limited and competitive.

c. A minor in Tourism shall consist of 24 credit hours comprising the following courses: Tourism 1000, 1100, 2000, 3100, 3900, 3 credit hours chosen from a 2000-level or 3000-level Tourism elective, 3 credit hours chosen from a 4000-level Tourism course, and three credit hours chosen from Geography 3222, Psychology 2925, Sociology 3040, Statistics 2500, Statistics 2550.

d. Course prerequisites to all Tourism courses shall apply to a Tourism Studies minor.
10. Regulations for an Advanced Diploma in Tourism Studies

The Advanced Diploma in Tourism Studies is designed for individuals already possessing a post-secondary diploma or degree in any relevant field who wish to acquire the knowledge and skills required to work in today's tourism industries. The program will benefit individuals from a wide variety of backgrounds including, Business, Environmental Science, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Historical Studies, Social/Cultural Studies, and Sustainable Resource Management (proposed).

a. Students who wish to undertake the Advanced Diploma in Tourism Studies must have completed a post-secondary diploma or degree in any field, or possess at least five years of full-time, relevant work experience or equivalent. Application is made in the space provided on the Change of Academic Program Form, which must then be approved by the Chair of the Tourism Studies Program. Admission into this program is limited and competitive.

b. The Advanced Diploma in Tourism Studies shall consist of 30 credit hours comprising the following courses: Tourism 1000, 1100, 2000, 3100, 3900, 12 credit hours chosen from a 2000-level or 3000-level Tourism electives, and 3 credit hours chosen from a 4000-level Tourism course.

c. Prerequisites for all Tourism courses may be waived after consultation with, and permission of, the Chair of the Tourism Studies program.

8.8 Articulation Agreement With the College of the North Atlantic

8.8.1 For Graduates of the Two-Year Adventure Tourism Diploma Program

Students who have graduated from the two-year Adventure Tourism Diploma Program offered by the College of the North Atlantic, Corner Brook Campus, or who are in their final semester of this program, can apply for entry with advanced standing into the Environmental Studies Degree Program (EVST) offered by Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

Students who are entering the Environmental Studies Program will be given a total of 60 credit hours towards the 120 credit-hour degree program. Of the 60 credit hours, students taking the Outdoor Environmental Pursuits Concentration will receive credit for EVST 2210, EVST 2220, EVST 3210, HKR 3555, and HKR 4555 as well as 18 unspecified credit hours towards the concentration requirements. Of the 60 credit hours, students taking the Environmental Perspectives Concentration will receive 21 unspecified credit hours towards the concentration requirements.

Students will receive 3 credit hours for unspecified writing courses, 6 unspecified credit hours towards the Group B and 6 credit hours towards Group C breadth of knowledge requirement. The remaining credit hours will be deemed to be unspecified electives.

In addition to the general requirements for the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College B.A. degree, students will be required to complete the following requirements for the Environmental Studies major:

Environmental Studies Core
- Economics 2010
- Environmental Studies 2000
- Environmental Studies 3000
- Environmental Studies 3001
- Environmental Studies 4010
- Environmental Studies 4950
- Geography 3222
- Philosophy 2809

Additional Requirements Based on Concentration

For Students taking the Outdoor Environmental Pursuits Option:
Fifteen credit hours of the following courses of which at least 9 credit hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level:

- Anthropology 3083
- Biology 1001 and 1002
- Biology 2041
- Biology 2600
- Chemistry 1001
- Chemistry 1200
- Earth Sciences 1000
- Earth Sciences 1002
- Environmental Science 2261
- Environmental Science 2360
- Environmental Science 2370
- Environmental Studies 4020-4039
- Environmental Studies 4000
- Folklore 2600
- Forestry 1010 and 1011
- Geography 1001
- Geography 2102
- Geography 2425
- Political Science 3731
- Religious Studies 3880

For Students taking the Environmental Perspectives Concentration:
27 credit hours of the following courses of which 18 must be at the 3000 or 4000 level:

- Anthropology 3080
- Anthropology 3083
- Biology 1001 and 1002
- Biology 2041
- Biology 2600
- Chemistry 1001
- Chemistry 1200
- Earth Sciences 1000
- Earth Sciences 1002
- Environmental Science 2261
- Environmental Science 2360
9 Division of Science

Bachelor of Science (General and Honours) degrees are available in Environmental Science, General Science and Psychology. Minors are available in Environmental Science, Mathematics, Science.

An articulation agreement has been established with the College of the North Atlantic for those students who have completed the three-year Environmental Technology diploma program and who wish to obtain a Bachelor of Science degree (Major in Environmental Science).

9.1 Major in Environmental Science

Program Chair: Dr. Don-Roger Parkinson

The Major consists of an Environmental Science Core which provides a broad appreciation of the interrelationships inherent in any study of the environment and one of two possible streams which provide the depth and focus for the degree program.

1. Environmental Science Core

The student must complete at least 45 credit hours as follows:

a. Biology 1001, 1002, 2600
   Earth Science 1000
   Mathematics 1000* (or 1080 and 1081), Stats 2550 or equivalent
   One of Physics 1020* or 1050* and one of Physics 1021* or 1051*
   Environmental Science 4000
   Environmental Science 4950 (or 4951, see Honours section)

b. At least two of:
   Anthropology 3083
   Economics 2010
   Environmental Studies 3000
   Environmental Studies 4000
   Philosophy 2809
   Political Science 3550
   Political Science 3731
   Religious Studies 3880

c. At least three of:
   Environmental Science 2261
   Environmental Science 2360
   Environmental Science 2370
   Environmental Science 2371
   Environmental Science 2430
   Environmental Science 2450
   Environmental Science 3072
   Environmental Science 3470
   Environmental Studies 2000 **

*It is strongly recommended that students considering the Chemistry stream of the Environmental Science program complete these courses in their first year.

This course is strongly recommended for the Biology Stream of the Environmental Science program.

2. Environmental Science Streams

Students must complete at least 39 credit hours in one of the following streams:

a. Biology stream

   Biology 2010, 2122
   Chemistry 1200/1001 sequence or Chemistry 1011/1031 sequence or Chemistry 1050/1051 sequence, and one of Chemistry 2210 or 2300 or 2440 or 2400/2401 sequence, or Chemistry 1010/1011 sequence and Chemistry 2440
   ENVS 3110, 3130 3131, 4132, 4140 (or equivalent field course)
   Two of Envs 4069, 4131, 4133, 4240, 4479 one additional laboratory (Science/Statistics/GIS) course beyond the first year level excluding Environmental Science Core courses. A course used to fulfill a stream requirement cannot also be used as a Group c. course in the Environmental Science Core.

b. Chemistry stream

   Chemistry 1200/1001 sequence or Chemistry 1011/1031 sequence or Chemistry 1050/1051 sequence. It is strongly
9.2 Requirements for Honours in Environmental Science (B.Sc.)

The Bachelor of Science (Honours) degree in Environmental Science offers greater concentration in the discipline and also requires a higher level of academic achievement than is required for completion of the general degree. The Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Environmental Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College is a 120 credit hour program normally requiring four years for completion. (See regulations for a Honours degree in Arts and Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.) Students will normally not be allowed to repeat courses to fulfill the academic standing criteria for the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Environmental Science. For students completing an Honours degree in "open" programs the appropriate courses to be used in calculation of academic standing will be determined by the program unit and will be approved by the Academic Studies Committee.

The following requirements govern the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Environmental Science:

1. Course Requirements
   a. Students must meet the General Regulations for Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Bachelor of Science degree.
   b. Candidates must also complete:
      i. the Environmental Science Core requirements
      ii. the course requirements of a specific stream
   c. Candidates must complete 3 additional credit hours in courses at the 4000 level. These courses normally will be drawn from the candidate's honours stream as follows:
      i. For the Honours Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (Biology), a further course chosen from: Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4240, 4479
      ii. For the Honours Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (Chemistry), a further course chosen from: Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4240, 4479
   d. Students, in close consultation with a faculty advisor and the agreement of the Chair of the Program, may select fourth-year honours requirement courses in place of those required in Section 1.c. (above), so long as such selections are consistent with the Major to which they are added. Such honours selections will be subject to approval by the Academic Studies committee.
   e. Honours graduates of the Environmental Science Program will have also completed a two-semester research project consisting of a research proposal and literature review course (Environmental Science 4951) and a research project course (Environmental Science 4959).

2. Honours Dissertation

The honours project sequence (Environmental Science 4951 and 4959) involves the production of an honours dissertation. This dissertation will be evaluated by a three member committee that includes the dissertation supervisor(s) and that is approved by the Environmental Science faculty unit.

3. Academic Standing

In order to graduate with an Honours degree, the candidate must satisfy the regulations regarding academic standing as specified under Regulations for Honours degree of Bachelor of Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College.

Courses used to calculate the academic standing as outlined in the General Regulations for an Honours Degree at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College include all required Environmental Science and Chemistry courses for the Chemistry stream students and all required Environmental Science and Biology courses for the Biology stream students, excluding, in both cases, 1000 level courses.

More specifically, courses normally used for calculations would be:

Biology stream:
- Biology 2010, 2122, 2600
- Three of: Environmental Science 2261, 2360, 2370, 2371, 2430, 2450, 3072, 3470, or Environmental Studies 2000
- Environmental Science 3110, 3130, 3131, 4132, 4140 (or equivalent)
- Three of Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4133, 4240, 4479
- Environmental Science 4000, 4951, 4959

Chemistry stream:
- Chemistry 2210, 2300, 2400, 2401
- Two of: Environmental Science 2360, 2370, 2371, 2430, 2450, 3072, 3470, or Environmental Studies 2000.
- Environmental Science 2261, 3210, 3211, 3260, 3261, 4230
- Three of: Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4240, 4249, 4479
- Environmental Science 4000, 4951, 4959

9.3 Major in General Science

Program Chair: Dr. Georg Gunther

Students completing the Major in General Science will complete a General Science Core. In addition, they will complete a minimum of 24 credit hours (or 18 credit hours in the case of Mathematics) in each of three streams chosen from Biology, Chemistry, Earth Systems, Mathematics or Physics. A student may not use the same course to satisfy the requirements of more than one stream. Students planning their course selection should be aware of the fact that most senior level science courses have one or more specified prerequisites.

The allowable courses that can be chosen from each stream are listed below.

1. General Science Core
   Students must complete:
   a. Course Requirements
      - Mathematics 1000, 1001
      - Science 4000 (General Science Seminar)
2. General Science Streams

Students must complete at least 24 credit hours in each of three streams, chosen from the following list of courses:

Biology:

Biology 1001, 1002
Eighteen credit hours from Biology 2010, 2122, 2210, 2250, 2600, Environmental Science 3072, 3110, 3130, 3131, 4140 (or equivalent field course) where at least 6 credit hours must be beyond the 2000 level.

Chemistry:

Chemistry 1001, 1200, 2210, 2300
Either Chemistry 2440 or both 2400 and 2401
Students who have completed Chemistry 2440 must complete another 9 credit hours from Environmental Science 2261, 3210, 3211, 3261, 4230, 4240; students who have completed Chemistry 2401 must complete another 6 credit hours from Environmental Science 3210, 3211, 3260, 4230, 4240.

Earth Systems:

Earth Science 1000, 1001 or 1002
Any 18 credit hours (six courses) from the following list, at least two courses of which are beyond the 2000 level: Environmental Studies 2000, 3001, Environmental Science 2360, 2370, 2371, 2450, 3072, 3470, 4069, 4479, Earth Science 3811.

Mathematics:

Mathematics 1000, 1001, 2000, 2050, Pure Mathematics 2320
Nine additional credit hours beyond the 1000 level chosen from Applied Mathematics, Mathematics, Pure Mathematics or Statistics, at least 6 of which must be beyond the 2000 level.

Physics:

Physics 1050, 1051, 2056, 2065, 3060, 3220
Two of Physics 2151, 3160, Earth Science 2150, Environmental Science 2430, 2450, 3470, 4479

9.4 Requirements for Honours in the General Science Degree

The Bachelor of Science (Honours) degree in General Science requires students to gain greater depth in one or more of their three chosen streams. It also requires a higher level of academic achievement than is required for the general degree. The Bachelor of Science (Honours) in General Science is a 120 credit hour program normally requiring four years for completion (see regulations for an Honours degree in Arts and Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College).

The following requirements govern the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in General Science:

1. Course Requirements
   a. General Science Core:
      Students must complete all of the course requirements of the General Science Core.
   b. General Science Streams:
      In addition to the courses required under the General Degree regulations, students must complete two additional courses from at least one of their three chosen streams. These additional courses must come from the list of courses given in the stream requirements, and must both be beyond the 2000 level.

2. Honours Dissertation:
   For students doing Honours, the Independent Project Science 4950 will be replaced by a two-semester Honours Project, Science 4951/Science 4959.

3. Academic Standing:
   In order to graduate with an Honours degree, a student must satisfy the regulations regarding academic standing as specified under Regulations for Honours degree of Bachelor of Science at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Courses used to calculate the academic standing as outlined in the General Regulations for an Honours Degree at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College include all courses listed in the stream requirements, with the exception of all 1000 level courses.

9.5 Minor Programs - Division of Science

Environmental Science Minor:

Students may choose one of the following three options:

1. Environmental Science
   a. Biology 1001, 1002 and 2600 or Chemistry 1200, 1001, and one of Chemistry 2440 or Environmental Science 2261
   b. Additional 15 credit hours in science courses within the Environmental Science program of which at least 6 credit hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level

2. Environmental Science-Biology
   a. Biology 1001, 1002, 2010, 2122, 2600
   b. Three credit hours from Environmental Science 3110, 3130, 3131, 4131
   c. An additional 6 credit hours in courses with the Environmental Science designation of which at least 3 credit hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

3. Environmental Science-Chemistry
   a. Chemistry 1200, 1001, 2210, 2300, 2440
   b. Three credit hours from Environmental Science 3210, 3261, 4240
   c. An additional 6 credit hours in courses with the Environmental Science designation of which at least 3 credit hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level

Mathematics Minor:

1. Mathematics 1000, 1001 (The only other course at the 1000 level which carries credit toward a Minor in Mathematics is Computer Science 1700.)
2. 18 additional credit hours in Mathematics, Pure Mathematics, and Applied Mathematics courses beyond 1000 level or 15 additional credit hours Mathematics, Pure Mathematics, and Applied Mathematics courses beyond 1000 level and 3 credit hours in Statistics or Computer Science courses.

At least 6 credit hours will be in courses at the 3000 level or higher.

Science Minor:

Students pursuing the Minor in Science may choose courses from the following disciplines: Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Science, Environmental Science, Mathematics, Physics, Science, and Statistics. Students who have completed courses drawn from other Science disciplines must obtain approval of the Head of Science.

1. Mathematics 1000
2. Six additional credit hours in first year science courses (At least 3 credit hours must be in a laboratory course chosen from any science discipline except mathematics).
3. Five science courses beyond the 1000 level, at least 6 credit hours of which must be beyond the 2000 level. (Mathematics 1001 may be substituted for one of the 2000 level science courses).

9.6 Articulation Agreement With the College of the North Atlantic

9.6.1 For Graduates of the Three-Year Environmental Technology Diploma Program

Students who have graduated from the three-year Environmental Technology Diploma Program offered by the College of the North Atlantic, or who are in their final semester of this program, can apply for entry with advanced standing into the Environmental Science Degree Program offered at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Upon admission to the university, such students will enter the second year of either stream of the Environmental Science Degree Program.

They will be given unspecified credit for 45 credit hours towards the 120 credit-hour degree program. Included in these 45 credit hours will be 9 credit hours for unspecified writing courses, of which 6 credit hours will be at the 1000 level and three will be at the 2000 level. In addition, 6 of these credit hours will be for unspecified credit at the 2000 level satisfying Group B, breadth of knowledge requirement.

Students gaining entry into the Environmental Science Degree Program at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College will need to satisfy all other core program requirements specified for Grenfell degree programs. As well, they will need to satisfy all other course requirements specified for their specific stream in Environmental Science.

Upon admission into the second year of the Environmental Science Degree Program, students will be required to complete the following:

Core Program Requirements:

Six credit hours from Group A Breadth of Knowledge Requirement

21 credit hours in additional designated Writing (W) courses which may include Environmental Science core and stream courses

Environmental Science Core:

Biology 2600 (W)

Environmental Science 4000 (W)

Environmental Science 4950 (W) (students who intend to complete the honours option will complete Environmental Science 4951 (W) and Environmental Science 4959 (W))

Statistics 2550 or equivalent

1. At least two of:
   - Anthropology 3083
   - Economics 2010
   - Environmental Studies 3000
   - Philosophy 2809 (W)
   - Political Science 3731, 3550
   - Religious Studies 3880 (W)

2. At least three of:
   - Environmental Science 2261, 2360, 2370(W), 2371(W), 2430, 2450, 3072, 3470
   - Environmental Studies 2000 or equivalent

Biology Stream:

Biology 2010, 2122 (W)

Chemistry 2300 or 2440 or 2400/2401

Environmental Science 3110, 3130, 3131, 4132, 4140 (or an equivalent field course)

Six credit hours from Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4133, 4240, 4479 (Honours students must complete 9 credit hours from this list)

Three credit hours in an additional science or statistics laboratory course at the 2000 level or higher, excluding Environmental Science core courses

Chemistry Stream:

Chemistry 2210(W), 2300, 2400, 2401

Environmental Science 2261, 3210(W), 3211(W), 3260, 3261, 4230

Six credit hours from Environmental Science 4069, 4131, 4240, 4249, 4479 (Honours students must complete 9 credit hours from this list)

10 Division of Fine Arts

Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees are available in Theatre and in Visual Arts. Students completing a Fine Arts degree are not required to follow the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Core program requirements.

The Minor Program is available in Art History.

10.1 Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre)

The Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) program is designed to educate and train the student in the history, theory and practice of the theatre arts. The degree provides an undergraduate training, delivered by theatre professionals, that will prepare students to enter a professional graduate school of theatre, theatre conservatory or an apprenticeship in the theatre profession. The degree also provides a broad liberal arts education with a strong component of dramatic literature, enabling the graduate to pursue a variety of careers outside the theatre profession.
In recognition of the relative isolation of the Sir Wilfred Grenfell Campus and the need for students of the performing arts to be exposed to examples of excellence in their field of study, provision will be made for students in their senior years to visit major theatre centres outside the province (e.g. the Harlow Campus will be utilized for studies in London and Stratford).

10.1.1 Admission Requirements

1. Academic Requirements
   Applicants must meet the general admission requirements of the University.

2. Audition
   In addition to meeting the general admission requirements of the University, applicants for the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) must undergo an audition/interview to the satisfaction of the department. Enrollment in the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) is limited and selection is competitive.

3. The deadline for submission of Theatre application forms is April 30th of the year in which admission is sought.

10.1.2 Academic Performance

1. Attendance and participation in all studio courses and production rehearsals is vital to the collaborative nature of the program of study in Theatre. Absence from classes or rehearsals of any one student could jeopardize a production. The proper dissemination of practical skills and the overall safety of the students. Therefore attendance at all studio classes, rehearsals and crew calls will be compulsory.

2. Students who fail a studio course shall not take more advanced courses in that discipline until the failed course has been satisfactorily completed.

3. Students shall complete all 1000 level Theatre courses before advancing to any 2000 level Theatre course.

4. A candidate whose average in the Theatre courses for the BFA degree falls below 65 percent in any semester will be placed on probation within the program. A student placed on probation at the end of the final semester of the Theatre program will not be recommended for graduation.

5. A candidate will be required to withdraw from the program if the candidate’s average in Theatre courses falls below 65 percent in each of two consecutive semesters of his/her enrollment in the program.

6. Candidates who have withdrawn or who have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) program and wish to re-enter the program must re-apply in competition after a lapse of two semesters by April 30 for the upcoming Fall semester, or by August 30 for the upcoming Winter semester.

7. Candidates who have been required to withdraw twice from the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) program shall be ineligible for further admission.

8. The Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) program is intended for full-time students only. Students will be expected to take the full course load as prescribed each semester and so progress through the degree in clearly defined blocks of courses. A student failing to take the full number of courses in a given semester would seriously jeopardize his/her ability to complete the degree.

10.1.3 Degree Regulations

Where circumstances warrant any prerequisite(s) for Theatre courses may be waived by the Head of the Division of Fine Arts.

Students in their first year will not be allowed to participate in theatre productions. Exceptions will be made only with the permission of the Head of the Division of Fine Arts, and permission will be given only where a student demonstrates satisfactory performance.

Where circumstances warrant, a student in second or third year may be given the opportunity for advanced responsibilities in production with the permission of the Head of the Division of Fine Arts. Permission will be given only where a student demonstrates above average academic performance as well as exceptional theatrical ability.

Productions will constitute the designated number of rehearsal hours as described below. However, the final week of rehearsals (technical rehearsals) will include ten hour days on Saturday and Sunday. All performances will take place in the evenings with the possible exceptions of occasional matinees.

Any departmental regulations may be waived by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon request of the Head of the Division of Fine Arts by the appropriate Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

To be awarded the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Theatre) a student shall successfully complete 120 credit hours which would normally be completed over a four-year period and must be chosen in accordance with the following pattern:

1. English 1000 and 1001 or equivalent
2. Visual Arts 2700 and 2701
3. Eighteen credit hours in dramatic literature as follows:
   - English 2350 and 2351 (Surveys of major dramatic texts)
   - English 3205 or 3200 or 3201 (Shakespeare)
   - English 3275 (Modern Drama)
   - Two Dramatic Literature courses to be selected from the following: English 3021, 3022, 3156, 3171, 3181, 3206, 3260, 4210, 4211, 4301, 4305, 4307, 4308, 4316, 4317
4. Fifteen credit hours in academic elective courses
5. Seventy-five credit hours in Theatre chosen in accordance with the following pattern:
   - Theatre 1110, 2010, 2011, 2080, 2081, 3010, 3011, 3070, 3071, 3080, 3081, 4010, 4070, and 4080
   - or
   - Stagecraft:
     Theatre 1120, 2020, 2021, 2090, 2091, 3020, 3021, 3060, 3061, 3090, 3091, 4020, 4060, and 4090

10.2 Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts)

The Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) degree program is a professional program designed to educate and train the student in the history, theory and practice of the Visual Arts. Courses are offered in Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Printmaking, Photography, Multimedia, Digital Imaging and Digital Multi-Media, and Art History. The curriculum is devised with the aim of producing well-rounded generalists with a solid grounding in all aspects of the Visual Arts. It illustrates the philosophy that artistic freedom and creative expression require both technical skill and intellectual vision, acquired through a disciplined application of effort and a critical awareness of artistic issues, past and present.

In addition to Studio and Art History courses, the student will take a number of appropriate academic courses from disciplines other than Visual Arts, chosen in consultation with the program chair. It is intended that academic courses be chosen which will enhance the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program and provide, as far as possible, a broad exposure to the liberal arts. The first year of the program consists of intensive foundation of co-requisite courses in Drawing, Two-Dimensional Design and Three-Dimensional Design in preparation for Introductory studio courses in the second year and intermediate studio courses in the third year. In the fourth year, the 4950/4951 studio courses are conducted as tutorials, that is, students will work independently on projects and confer regularly with instructors.

It is recognized that students in the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program must have occasional opportunities to view important works of art first-hand. Arrangements will therefore be made where possible for students to visit major art centres.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program is rigorous and demanding and it is assumed that students will normally be enrolled for full-time study. A student who withdraws from a course may put his/her program in jeopardy or be unable to complete the degree in the normally allotted time. Where circumstances warrant, any prerequisite(s) or co-requisite(s) for Visual Arts courses may be waived by the Program Chair. Any Visual Arts regulations may be waived by the Committee on Undergraduate Studies upon request of the Program Chair.

10.2.1 Admission Requirements

1. Academic Requirements
   - Applicants must meet the general admission requirements of the University.

2. Portfolio Submission
   - In addition to meeting the general admission requirements of the University, all applicants will be required to submit a portfolio of previous art work and a completed Visual Arts application form before April 15th of the year in which entry is sought. Although it is assumed that applicants will have had no previous formal training in art, evidence of suitability for study in the visual arts is required.
   - Instructions for the submission of portfolios will be provided by the Fine Arts Division upon request. Enrollment in the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program is limited and selection is competitive.

3. Transfers From Other Universities/Colleges
   - See UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Admission/Readmission to the University (Undergraduate).

10.2.2 Academic Performance

1. Attendance at all studio courses is considered vital to the program and will be required. It will be used as part of the evaluation.

2. a. Students who fail a course in a studio discipline shall not take more advanced courses in that discipline until the failed course has been satisfactorily completed.
   - Students who fail any studio course will be required to repeat that course and obtain a grade of at least 65%.
   - Students must normally complete all 1000 level studio courses before advancing to any 2000 level studio course.
4. A candidate whose average in Visual Arts courses falls below 65% in any semester will be placed on probation by the Visual Arts program.

5. A candidate will be required to withdraw from the program if:
   a. The candidate's cumulative average in Visual Arts courses required for the program falls below 65%. OR
   b. The candidate's average in Visual Arts courses falls below 65% in each of two consecutive semesters of enrolment in the program.

6. A candidate will be denied graduation if, at the end of the final semester of the Visual Arts Program:
   a. The candidate's cumulative average in Visual Arts courses required for the program falls below 65%. OR
   b. The candidate's term average in Visual Arts courses falls below 65% in each of his/her last two consecutive semesters of enrolment in the program.

   A candidate denied graduation for either of these reasons will be permitted to register for Visual Arts courses without a waiting period and re-application, and is not bound by Regulation 8 (below).

7. Students who have voluntarily withdrawn from the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program and wish to re-enter must re-apply in competition by April 15th for the upcoming Fall semester, or by August 30th for the upcoming Winter semester.

8. Students who have been required to withdraw from the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program and wish to re-enter must re-apply in competition after a lapse of two semesters by April 15th for the upcoming academic year.

9. Candidates who have been required to withdraw twice from the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) program shall be ineligible for further admission.

10. Students denied promotion with a cumulative average below 60% in Visual Arts courses who are re-admitted to the program will normally be required to repeat all the Visual Arts courses of the term, including all the courses which have been passed (in a semester when the courses are normally offered).

11. Students denied promotion with a cumulative average of at least 60% in Visual Arts courses who are re-admitted to the program will be required to repeat the failed Visual Arts courses only (in a semester when such courses are normally offered).

10.2.3 Degree Regulations

Visual Arts 1000 and 1001 and Visual Arts 2300 and 2301 are not accepted as credits towards the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) degree. One work of art done during the fourth year will be selected by the Visual Arts Program, in consultation with the student, and retained for the permanent collection of the College.

To be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts (Visual Arts) a student shall successfully complete 120 credit hours as follows:

1. Six credit hours in English courses.
2. Eighteen credit hours in academic elective courses chosen from Disciplines other than Visual Arts.
3. Visual Arts 2700, 2701 and an additional 18 credit hours in Art History.

5. Studio Courses

   Forty-two credit hours in studio courses as follows:
   a. 18 credit hours at the 2000 level.
   b. 18 credit hours at the 3000 level.
   c. Six additional credit hours in studio electives at 2000 or 3000 level.

   Studio courses are offered in the following subjects: Drawing, Two-dimensional design, Three-dimensional design, Painting, Sculpture, Printmaking, Printmedia, Photography and Multi-media, Digital Imaging and Digital Multi-media. Courses in a studio subject consist of six hours of practical work in a studio class each week. Assigned projects will require that considerable additional studio work be done outside scheduled class time. Students will supply their own art materials. Some courses may not be offered every year. Please consult with the Fine Arts Division prior to registration to confirm course offerings.

6. Visual Arts 4950/4951

10.3 Minor Program - Fine Arts

Art History Minor
Visual Arts 2700 and 2701
11 Course Descriptions

Prerequisites may be waived by the Head/Program Chair of the course area in question. Upon the recommendation of the appropriate Program Chair(s), any Major requirements may be waived by the Academic Studies Committee.

Some of the courses in this section of the Calendar are available only at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College. Students who choose to transfer from Grenfell to the St. John's campus should see their faculty advisor to determine the extent to which such courses can be applied to their new program.

11.1 Anthropology

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Division.

Anthropology 1030 and Anthropology 1031 or an equivalent course or courses are required of all students wishing to concentrate in anthropology.

The following courses, cross-listed with the Department of Sociology and identified by the prefix "S/A", are also taught at the introductory level: 2200, 2210, 2220, 2230, 2240, 2260, 2270, 2280, and 2350. These courses can be taken as first courses or may be taken following an Anthropology introductory course.

1030 Introduction to Archaeology and Physical Anthropology is a broad overview of Archaeology and Physical Anthropology introducing the concepts of human biological and cultural evolution and the methods and techniques by which these are investigated. The course is designed to provide the basis for further study in the disciplines.

CR: the former Anthropology 1000 or 2000

1031 Introduction to Social and Cultural Anthropology is a general introduction to Anthropology emphasizing different forms of society and culture. Cultures within and outside the Western tradition will be examined, ranging from small-scale to more complex pre-industrial societies.

CR: the former Anthropology 1000 or 2000

2200 Communities (S/A 2200) is an interdisciplinary examination of the concept of Community. Readings will include community studies from North America and Europe.

2210 Communication and Culture (S/A 2210) is an examination of verbal and non-verbal systems of communication, and the influence of language on human cognition.

2230 Newfoundland Society and Culture (S/A 2230) (same as Folklore 2230. Sociology and Anthropology of the Island of Newfoundland. The focus is on social and cultural aspects of contemporary island Newfoundland: CR: Folklore 2230)

2240 Canadian Society and Culture (S/A 2240) is a descriptive and analytic approach to the development of Canadian society and culture.

2260 War and Aggression (S/A 2260) is a critical review of ethological, psychologists and sociological approaches to the understanding of violence and organized aggression.

2270 Families (S/A 2270) is a comparative and historical perspective on the family as a social institution, the range of variation in its structure and the determinants of its development.

2300 Newfoundland Folklore (same as Folklore 2300) is a survey of the various types of Folklore: tale, song, rhyme, riddle, proverb, belief, custom, chidlore and others, with stress on their function in the Newfoundland community culture. Individual, culture, and a comparative analysis of materials from the students’ home communities, supplemented by data from the Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive.

CR: the former Folklore 3420; Folklore 2200
PR: Folklore 1000 or Folklore 2000, or Anthropology 1031

2350 Religious Institutions (S/A 2350) (same as Religious Studies 2350) is a comparative study of religious institutions and beliefs, calendrical feasts and solemnities, religious roles and hierarchies, ritual innovation and revitalization.

CR: Religious Studies 2350

2410 Classics in Social and Cultural Anthropology is an examination of selected milestone monographs, ground-breaking studies for subdisciplinary specialties and major syntheses.

2411 Anthropologists in the Field base many of their ideas on theories they have while living in other cultures. This course examines the human relationships through which anthropologists explore cultures and how in turn these relationships affect the anthropologists and the development of their discipline.

2412 Threatened Peoples is an examination of key social and cultural factors involved in the global extinction of small-scale societies; the intrusive influences the small-scale societies can have on larger-scale societies, such as disease, economic and military incursion; the role of international non-governmental agencies in aid of threatened peoples; and the role of the anthropologist in this human crisis.

2413 Modern World Cultures is an examination of significant studies of 20th century populations and their implications for understanding the human condition.

2430 Physical Anthropology: The Human Animal investigates the human animal as we exist now and as we developed through time. Students will discover how the study of fossil remains, living and extinct primates, and the applications of the principles of genetics, adaptation and variation of human evolution help to provide an understanding of how Biology and culture have interacted to produce modern humans.

PR: Anthropology 1030

2500 Folk Literature (same as Folklore 2500) is an examination of the major genres of folk literature: folk narrative, folk poetry and song, folk beliefs and the traditional generic forms within folk literature. The student learns to use the material by the textual, comparative and contextual methods of analysis. The literature discussed will be international in scope:

CR: Folklore 2500; the former Folklore 3400, English 3400, Sociology/ Anthropology 3400.

PR: Folklore 1000 or Folklore 2000, or Anthropology 1031

11.4 Business

Enrolment in Business courses is limited and first priority will be given to students registered in Sir Wilfred Grenfell College’s Business Administration programs and Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Faculty of Business Administration programs.

11.4.1 Core Program Course Descriptions

1000 Introduction to Business is an overview of business in the Canadian environment is presented in the course with emphasis on the stakeholders involved and the issues confronting managers. The course examines the functional areas of the enterprise (finance, marketing, production, and human resources management) in addition to providing an overview of the business system. An analysis of actual business situations provides a framework of study.

CR: the former Business 2001

1101 Principles of Accounting (QRA) emphasize the concepts and issues of introductory financial accounting as they relate to the Canadian conceptual framework, and will also address the strengths and weaknesses of financial reporting at an introductory level. The student will be introduced to the accounting process and analysis of the balance sheet, income statement, and the statement of changes in financial position.

CR: the former Business 3100 and the former Business 2100

1201 Principles of Marketing (W) provides an overview of the marketing function, emphasizing customer satisfaction as the focal point of an organization’s activities. The course examines customer characteristics and behaviours as a crucial element in the design of effective marketing strategies and programs. The course also deals in detail with the elements of the marketing mix; products and services, pricing; distribution channels, and promotion.

CR: the former Business 3200, Tourism Studies 2201
PR: Business 1000 or the former Business 2001

1400 Introduction to Entrepreneurship is an introductory course designed to give students a broad understanding of the field of entrepreneurship and the role that entrepreneurship plays in society. Topics will include the nature and theories of entrepreneurship, the characteristics and behaviours of entrepreneurs, and the entrepreneurial process in small and large firms. Students will get to think and act in a creative manner, obtain exposure to local entrepreneurs, assess their potential for entrepreneurial careers and develop attitudes and skills that will be useful in any organization. The course is also useful for those who will be dealing with smaller firms in the context of larger organizations and for those who will be working for entrepreneurs.

PR: Business 1000

2000 Business Communications (W) focuses on the development of written and oral communication skills critical in the workplace. The common communications media are reviewed with emphasis on electronic and written correspondence. Students learn how to prepare comprehensive analytical reports including proposal writing. Attention is also given to building confidence in delivering oral presentations and preparing appropriate employment packages. A highly interactive design encourages student practice and participation.

2101 Managerial Accounting (QRA) provides an overview of the use of financial data for managerial decision making. The student will be introduced to basic budgeting and analysis techniques for both service-oriented and manufacturing businesses.

CR: the former Business 4100
PR: Business 1101
2301 Organisational Behaviour focuses on the study of individual and group processes in formal organizations. The student is introduced to the nature of work, the systematic approach to the study of behaviour, organizational roles and socialization, motivation, leadership, communication, and group dynamics.

CO: the former Business 4300

2401 Quantitative Methods for Business (QRA) includes series, probability, linear algebra with applications, graphing (including two-variable linear optimization), and business applications of differential calculus; where applicable, spreadsheets will be used.

PR: Mathematics 1000 or the former Mathematics 1081; a knowledge of the basic operations of spreadsheets is required 2700 Computing and Information Systems for Business serves to introduce computer applications in document processing, spreadsheet and database management, and basic web design and technology. Students will also examine the role of information systems and their design and management in supporting business decision making, and ethical issues surrounding technology in the workplace.

CR: Computer Science 1600, Computer Science 2650, Computer Science 2801

AR: can be used as a Business elective in programs offered by the Faculty of Business Administration 3401 Operations Management presents and discusses the fundamental concepts necessary to understand the nature and management of the operations function in organizations. The course will focus on forecasting for operations and production planning, capacity, aggregate and requirements planning; operations scheduling; quality management and continuous improvement; just-in-time systems; product and service design. Case studies will be used.

CR: the former Business 5400

PR: Statistics 2500 and Business 2401

4000 Business Law I is a course dealing with the law relating to certain aspects of business activity; includes introductory material on the nature of law and legal processes, together with a detailed study of certain aspects of the law of contract, examination of the general principles of the law of agency as they affect business operations; introduction to selected topics in the law of business associations. The course will also examine the role of information systems and their design and management in supporting business decision making, and ethical issues surrounding technology in the workplace.

CR: the former Business 1300

4320 Human Resource Management introduces the student to the design, operation, and management of P/HRM processes, their evaluation, and their contribution to employee and organizational effectiveness. The processes considered are staffing, development, employment relations, and compensation. Consideration of the influence of relevant organizational and external conditions on P/HRM is included. The course views the management of human resources as the joint responsibility of line and P/HRM managers.

PR: Business 2301

4500 Financial Management I (QRA) is designed to introduce the student to the financial management of business, financial analysis techniques, working capital management, and long-term and short-term financing.

CR: the former Business 4110

PR: Business 1101, Statistics 2500, and Economics 2010

5301 Organizational Theory focuses on the organization, its environment, and its subsystems. From providing a basic appreciation of the role and contribution of research in organizations, study extends to measures of organizational effectiveness, determinants of structure and design, power and politics, intergroup conflicts and conflict resolution, and organizational development and change.

CR: the former Business 5300

PR: Business 2301

7000 Organizational Strategy (W) emphasizes the concepts of business and organizational strategy, and the formulation and implementation of strategy. These will be discussed from a senior management perspective and in the context of the development of research tools and techniques for decision-making. Students will be expected to develop a facility in the strategic analysis of business and other types of organizations, and in strategy formulation and implementation.

Theoretical concepts will be discussed and will be explored through case analysis.

CR: Business 2101, 2201, 3320, 3401, 3700, 4000, 4320, 4500, and 5301

PR: permission of the Chair of Business at SWGC

7100 Business and Society (W) examines the inter-relationships among business, government, society, and the environment. Topics include: the social responsibility of business, market failures, capital formation, the role of business in the political process, corporate social responsibility, business ethics, stakeholder and issues management, and selected current issues in business.

PR: Term 7 standing or permission of the Chair of Business at SWGC

7025 Management Decision Making (W) is a case-based course that takes a critical look at the decision-making process and examines the complexities of the business environment that affect both the effectiveness and efficiency of decision making, including environmental uncertainty, and competing stakeholder interests. Through case analysis, students will have an opportunity to evaluate and practice both qualitative and quantitative managerial decision making skills as they apply to areas such as marketing, human resources, production and operations, and business planning. Topics to be covered may include: decision theory, evaluating risk and uncertainty, game theory, and creative problem solving.

CR: Business 4401, the former Business 3400

PR: Business 2401; restricted to Bachelor of Business Administration students who have completed at least 75 credit hours

UL: can not be used to satisfy the requirement of Business 4401 in any program

11.4.2 Business Electives

All existing business courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland that are not included in the SWGC BBA core will be considered business electives. When selecting electives, students must ensure that they satisfy requirements for one of the three concentrations under The Curriculum.

2201 Marketing Applications applies the principles learned in Business 1201 in a variety of contexts and organizations. Students gain an appreciation for the application of marketing principles in specialist application areas such as, marketing for services; not-for-profit and public sector organizations, and in an international context. In addition, an overview and appraisal of the marketing function and of marketing performance is addressed through the marketing planning process.

CR: the former Business 2200

2808 Business Ethics (W) examines the implications of business conduct using ethics as a framework, and will provide the tools to anticipate, critically analyse, appropriately respond to, and provide personal and professional leadership regarding critical ethical issues that will arise both during professional and personal careers.

3101 Accounting Applications continues the study of accounting on a more in-depth and detailed basis. Building on the theory and concepts of Business 1101 and 2101, Business 3101 will emphasize the procedures and techniques required for the preparation and presentation of accounting information and general purpose financial statements.

CR: the former Business 3100, or the former Business 2100

3100 Greek Literature in Translation - inactive course.

3110 Latin Literature in Translation - inactive course.

3130 Greek and Roman Mythology (same as Folklore 3130) is a comparative study of the major myths of Greece and Rome as embodied in the literary and artistic remains of the ancient world with reference to their origins and their influence on later art and literature.

CR: Folklore 3130

4000 Seminar in Greek History and Society will have the topics to be studied announced.

4010 Seminar in Roman History and Society will have the topics to be studied announced.

4020 Seminar in Greek Literature and Culture will have the topics to be studied announced.

4030 Seminar in Roman Literature and Culture will have the topics to be studied announced.

11.7 Computer Science

1600 Basic Computing and Information Technology (F and W) offers an overview of computers and information technology. It provides students with the knowledge necessary to answer questions, such as: What is a computer system? How does it work? How is it used? This is done through the use of popular spreadsheet, word processing and database software packages and the Internet. Social issues and implications will also be included.

AR = Attendance requirement; CR = Credit hours are 3 unless otherwise noted; CO = Co-requisite(s); CR = Credit can be retained for only one course from the set(s) consisting of the course being described and the course(s) listed; LC = Lecture hours per week are 3 unless otherwise noted; LH = Laboratory hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usage limitation(s).
1700 Introduction to Computer Science (F and W) lays the foundation for the art and the science of computing. The course contains fundamental and topical issues in computers, languages, programming and applications. This course is designed for potential Computer Science majors without a background in programming, but is also available for non-majors.

CO: Mathematics 1090 (or equivalent), or Mathematics 1000

11.8 Earth Sciences

1000 Earth Systems is a survey of the structure, function and interrelations of Earth's lithosphere, hydrosphere, atmosphere and biosphere. Topics include an exploration of the physical and chemical properties of planetary materials, forces driving and sustaining Earth systems, and biological modifiers (including humankind) on the Earth today.

LH: 3

1001 Evolution of Earth Systems - inactive course.

1002 Concepts and Methods in Earth Sciences is an introduction to a broad range of concepts concerning the development of the geological record and the Earth; practical methods for collection of field based data; topics include an exploration of interpretation and stratigraphy, paleontology, structure and petrology. The course is presented with an emphasis on the development of practical skills needed to pursue a career in Earth Sciences.

LH: 3

PR: Earth Sciences 1000

2150 The Solar System (F and W) is basic astronomy of the Solar System, tracing the search to understand motion of the Sun, Moon and planets in the sky: modern observations of planets, moons, comets, asteroids and meteors and what they tell us about the origin and evolution of the Solar System.

PR: Mathematics 1000 (or Mathematics 1081)

UL: Earth Sciences 2150 is designed for students taking Earth Sciences as an elective subject and may only be used as a non-Science elective for Earth Sciences Majors and Earth Sciences Honours students.

LH: 3

3811 Palaeontology (W) is an outline of the major changes in life forms from Archaean times through the Phanerzoic to the present day, including details of invertebrate and vertebrate faunas and major floral groups; mechanisms and effects of mega- and microevolution in the fossil record; Biology and classification of organisms and summaries of their geological significance in biostratigraphy, paleoecology and rock-building; relationships between major cycles of evolution and extinction to global processes. This course has a laboratory component.

CR: Biology 3811, the former Earth Sciences 3801, the former Biology 3800

LH: 3

PR: either Biology 2120 (or Biology 1001 and Biology 1002) and Earth Sciences 1002; or Biology 2122 and Biology 2210

11.9 Economics

2020 Introduction to Macroeconomics is national income accounting, aggregate income analysis, money, banking and foreign trade.

PR: Economics 2010

3000 Intermediate Micro Theory I is the basic microeconomic theory course; consumer demand, indifference curve analysis, theory of production and the factor substitution, and the theory of the firm under perfect competition and monopoly.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

3010 Intermediate Macro Theory I is aggregate analysis including consumer, investment, government and international sectors, the role of money, determinants of aggregate supply, and the effects of autonomous behavioural changes and fiscal and monetary policies on unemployment, price levels and the balance of payments.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

3030 International Economics - Issues and Problems in a Canadian Context is an intermediate course in international economics. The course covers the comparative advantage, the structure and policy issues of the Canadian balance of payments, the foreign exchange market and the institutional aspects of international commerce.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

3050 Economic Forecasting: Methods and Applications aims to present the statistical techniques that are useful for preparing individual business forecasts and long-term business plans by focussing on the application of techniques used by managers in the decision-making process. It involves exploring data patterns, data mining, linear regression, time series, and managing forecasting processes.

PRerequisite: Economics 2550

Note: Knowledge of the basic operations of spreadsheets is recommended.

3070 The Structure and Problems of the Newfoundland Economy is an analysis of the structure of the economy of Newfoundland. Basic economic theory will be applied to current economic issues and problems in Newfoundland.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

3150 Money and Banking is the operation of the money and banking system, with special emphasis on Canadian problems. Monetary theory will be treated in relation to income theory and foreign trade.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

3550 Mathematical Economics I examines linear algebra and differential calculus, with applications to economics.

PR: Mathematics 1000 or equivalent with a "B" standing, or Mathematics 2050 and Economics 2010 and Economics 2020.

4010 Economics of Development in Less Developed Countries is a problem and policy approach to the economics of development, with emphasis on the issues of poverty, inequality and unemployment. General economic principles, theories and models are examined in the context of less developed economies, and local, institutional and structural implications are drawn.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

4011 Economic Planning and Development is the examination of issues in the theory and practice of planning, principles of plan implementation, economic growth in a planned economy, food and models of planning. Alternative approaches to planning are considered, e.g., traditional central planning, indirect financial planning, indicative planning, and economic development planning.

PR: Economics 2010 and Economics 2020

11.10 English Language and Literature

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Division.

One of English 1000, 1050, the former 1100 and one of English 1001, 1051, 1110 are prerequisites for all other courses.

Students cannot receive credit for more than one of English 1000, 1050, 1080, 1100 or for more than one of 1001, 1051, 1101, 1102, 1103, and 1110.

A student cannot receive credit for more than 6 credit hours at the first year level. This includes unspecified transfer credits.

No students shall register in any course having an initial digit “3” unless they have successfully completed at least 6 credit hours in courses having an initial digit “2”.

No students shall register in any course having an initial digit “4” unless they have successfully completed at least 6 credit hours in courses having an initial digit “3”.

11.10.1 English Core Courses

1000 Introduction to English I is an introduction to English literature and to the use of the English language with a particular emphasis on composition.

1001 Introduction to English II is a continuation of the studies begun in English 1000.

PR: English 1000, English 1050, the former English 1100

1110 Comprehension, Writing and Prose Style is an introduction to the analysis of prose and to writing for various purposes, including exposition.

CR: English 1020, English 1030, English 1090.

PR: English 1000, English 1050, English 1080, the former English 1100

2005 Literary Survey I (The beginnings to 1660) introduces students to the major writers by detailed study of selected texts. The course will include such authors as Chaucer, Mallory, Shakespeare, Spenser, Bacon, Webster, Donne and works such as Beowulf, the Old English Elegies and Gawaine
CR: English 2000, English 2110

2006 Literary Survey II (1660-1837) introduces students to the major writers by detailed study of selected texts. The course will include such authors as Dryden, Pope, Swift, Johnson, Fielding, Blake, Wordsworth, Austen, Byron, Keats and Shelley. Recommended for English specialization students that English 2006 be taken second in the 2005-2006-2007 sequence.
CR: English 2001, English 2111

2007 Literary Survey III (1837 to the present) introduces students to the major writers by detailed study of selected texts. The course will include such authors as Tennyson, Browning, Arnold, Hardy, George Eliot, Dickens, Yeats, T.S. Eliot and Dylan Thomas. Recommended for English specialization students that English 2007 be taken third in the English 2005-2006-2007 sequence.
PR: Two second-year English courses

3025 Shakespeare and the Classical Tradition is a study of the relationship between Shakespeare and his major classical sources, with a particular focus on the use of classical literature in the Renaissance.
CR: English 3200, English 3201, English 3206
PR: Two second-year English courses

3395 The Literary Uses of English from the Earliest Times to the Present is an exploration of the development of the English language, as evidenced by its literary uses.
CR: English 2401

4105 Critical Approaches and Theory is a survey of critical approaches to English Literature, particularly those adopted by twentieth century readers. The course will attempt to give an account of the theories on which these approaches are based and some attention will be paid to the application of different approaches to specific works of literature.
CR: English 4101

4950 Individual Project in English is an individual project of a creative, or a critical, or a research character on a topic which is subject to the approval of the Program Chair. The topic will be prepared under the supervision of a designated faculty member or members.
CR: English 4990

11.10.2 Dramatic Literature

2350 Introduction to Drama I is a survey of the major plays in the history of western drama from the Greeks to the end of the eighteenth century.
CR: English 2350

2351 Introduction to Drama II is a survey of the major plays in the history of western drama from the 19th Century to the present.
CR: English 2002

3021 English Drama to 1580 is a study of the development of English drama from the Middle Ages to 1580. The course may also consider the popular arts, such as folk plays and mumming.
CR: English 3170, English 3180

3170 Anglo-Irish Drama is a study of representative Anglo-Irish drama by such authors as Wilde, Shaw, Yeats, Synge, Lady Gregory, O'Casey, Behan, Friel and Molloy.
CR: English 3170, English 3180

3181 Drama of the Restoration and Eighteenth Century is a study of major dramatic texts from 1660 to the end of the eighteenth century.
CR: English 3180

3275 Modern Drama (1830-1930) is a study of western drama and performance during the period 1830-1930, with a focus on theatrical and dramatic texts and movements, as well as artistic, social, political, technological, and philosophical influences.
CR: the former English 3300, English 4300

4302 Contemporary British Drama is a study of representative dramatic works of contemporary British drama.
PR: English 3275.

4305 Contemporary Drama is a study of modern and post-modern western drama and performance from 1930 to the present, with a focus on theatrical and dramatic texts and movements, as well as artistic, social, political, technological and philosophical influences. Recommended previous course: English 3275.
CR: English 4301, the former English 3301

4307 Contemporary Canadian Drama is a study of contemporary drama and performance in Canada, focussing on texts representative of Canada's cultural and regional diversity.
CR: English 3156

4308 20th Century American Drama is a study of American drama and performance from the turn of the century to the present, focussing on the theatre's historic role in the definition, reinforcement and scrutinizing of American mythlogy.
CR: English 3260

4317 Elizabethan-Jacobean Drama is a survey of Shakespeare’s dramatic rivals and the Elizabethan and Jacobean repertoires.
CR: English 3022
PR: English 3200 or English 3201

4836-4848 Special Topics in Drama is supervised study in specialized areas of dramatic literature. Course topic, design, and requirements to be determined through consultation by the student with the instructor.
PR: permission of the instructor

11.10.3 Canadian Literature

2146 Canadian Prose after 1949 is a study of the outstanding works of Canadian prose from 1949 to the present.
CR: English 2130, English 2131, the former English 3146
PR: two first-year English courses.

2155 Newfoundland Literature is a study of Newfoundland literature with emphasis on representative writers since 1949.
CR: English 3155

2156 Canadian Short Stories is a study of Canadian short stories which aims to give the student a heightened appreciation of individual short stories, and some sense of the range of Canadian accomplishment in the genre.
CR: English 3200, English 3201, the former English 3146

3145 Canadian Fiction to 1949 is a study of outstanding works of Canadian fiction from the beginnings to 1949.
CR: English 3145

3147 Canadian Poetry to 1949 is a study of representative Canadian poetry from the pre-confederation period to 1949.
CR: English 3147

3148 Canadian Poetry After 1949 is a study of Canadian poetry from 1949 to the present, with emphasis on the work of major poets and an examination of the various styles and theories of poetry developed during the period.
Note: Students can only receive credit for only one of English 4850 and 3148.

3149 Canadian Prose is a study of selected works of Canadian prose, covering both fiction and non-fiction.
CR: English 3156

4825-4835 Special Topics in Canadian Literature is a variety of topics to be offered at resources permit.

11.10.4 Modern Literature

2215 American Literature to 1800 is a study of the historical origins and development of nineteenth century American Literature, concentrating on a selection of works within their political, social and artistic contexts.
CR: English 2215

2242 Science Fiction is a survey of Science Fiction from its earliest days to the present. Subjects that will be considered include the evolution of the genre, the relations among humans, technology and multinational capitalism, and the significance of memory and space.
CR: English 2811
PR: successful completion a first-year English sequence

2243 Introduction to Humour in Literature begins with a survey of humour theories from antiquity to the present, and proceeds to a study of various forms and strategies of humour through a selection of works in English. Students will study texts exploring the roles that humour plays in relation to topics such as transgression, iconoclasm, class, sexuality, gender, ethnicity, culture, politics and religion.
CR: English 2121
PR: 6 credit hours in first-year English

2705 Modern World Literature in Translation is a study of modern world literature in English translation, with focus on writers of the twentieth century who have attained international stature.
CR: English 3158

2805 Women's Writing to 1900 is a study of writing by women in the British Isles and North America from the Middle Ages to 1900, including such items as letters and journals as well as fiction, poetry, and drama.
Note: Students can receive credit for English 2805  and only one of English 3810 or English 3830. (This credit restriction note replaces the note in earlier calendars and is retroactive to September 1, 1993.)

2870 Children's Literature is an introduction to literature written for children and young people. Beginning with an examination of the history of children's literature in English translation, the course will attempt to give an account of the theories on which these uses are based and some attention will be paid to the application of different approaches to specific works of literature.
CR: English 4101

AR = Attendance requirement; CH = Credit hours are 3 unless otherwise noted; CO = Co-requisite(s); CR = Credit can be retained for only one course from the set(s) consisting of the course being described and the course(s) listed; LG = Lecture hours per week are 3 unless otherwise noted; LH = Laboratory hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usage limitation(s).
literature in the British Isles and North America, the course will focus on twentieth century and contemporary works, touching on a broad range of genres, audiences, and reading levels.

2905 Introduction to Creative Writing will introduce students to three main areas of creative writing: poetry, prose fiction, and creative non-fiction (travel writing, autobiography, journalism). Much of the emphasis will be on writing as a medium of communication. For this reason, some of the instruction will be the workshop system in which students act as each other’s readers and audiences.

PR: 6 credit hours in first-year English.

3215 20th Century American Literature is a study of American poetry and fiction from 1900 to 1960. CR: English 4260, English 4261, English 4270.

3216 20th Century British and Irish Literature is a study of British and Anglo-Irish poetry and fiction from 1900 to 1960.

3810 20th Century Non-Fiction Writing by Women is a study of twentieth century topical writing by women, including writing about social, political, and artistic and literary questions. Non-traditional as well as traditional genres will be studied.

Note: Students can receive credit for English 3810 and only one of English 2805 or English 3830. (This credit restriction note replaces the note in earlier calendars and is retroactive to September 1, 1993.)

PR: English 2805 or permission of the instructor.

3905 Creative Writing is a workshop course for aspiring writers of poetry and/or fiction. Limited enrollment. Applicants will be required to submit a sampling of their previous and current work.

Note: Students can receive credit for only two of English 3900, English 3901, and English 3905.

PR: permission of the instructor.

4245 Contemporary Fiction in English is an in-depth study of a selection of recent short fiction and novels in English. The focus will be on recent developments in American, British, Irish, and Commonwealth fiction (excluding Canadian).

4246 Contemporary Poetry in English is an in-depth study of contemporary poetry in English. The focus will be on major poets and developments in the U.S.A., Britain, Ireland, and the Commonwealth (excluding Canada) since 1945.

4905 Advanced Creative Writing is a workshop course for creative writers who have demonstrated considerable talent and skill in poetry and/or prose fiction. Limited enrollment.

PR: permission of the instructor.

11.11.5 English Courses for Non-Major Students

2010 Comprehension Writing and Prose Style (I) will chiefly emphasize the development of (a) the capacity to understand and appreciate the varieties of prose through close analysis of a wide range of examples, and (b) the ability to write expository and other kinds of prose.

CR: English 1110.

3110 Greek Literature in Translation (same as Classics 3110) is representative readings in English of the principal literary forms of Classical Greece. The literary achievement of the Greeks and their contributions to Western letters and culture.

CR: Classics 3110.

3111 Latin Literature in Translation (same as Classics 3111) is representative readings in English of the principal literary forms of Republican and Imperial Rome. The literary achievement of the Romans and their contribution to Western letters and culture.

CR: Classics 3111.

11.11 Environmental Science

For existing Memorial University of Newfoundland courses, the numbers remain the same. For new courses in Environmental Science, the following four-digit scheme is used:

1st digit = Year
2nd digit = Parent Discipline:
0 = Multidisciplinary
1 = Biology
2 = Chemistry
3 = Earth Science
4 = Physics
9 = Project
3rd digit = Subdiscipline:

(Biology): 1 = Botany 5 = Analytical 7 = Research
(Chemistry): 2 = Zoology 2 = Inorganic 8 = Science Writing (Multidisciplinary): 3 = Ecology 3 = Physical 6 = Environmental 4 = Organic

4th digit = Numerical Sequence.

Courses specifically designed for the environmental science program(s) are given the designation “Envs”. Thus, for example, in the Winter semester of the 2nd year, Environmental Chemistry is offered, with a course number = Envs 2261.

11.11.1 Environmental Biology

3110 Taxonomy of Flowering Plants is a study of the biodiversity of flowering vascular plants (Magnoliophyta) through the practical identification of Newfoundland families, genera, and species. Related taxonomic and biogeographical principles will be stressed.

CR: Biology 3041

LH: 3 laboratory periods of integrated practice and theory

OR: Students must submit a collection of flowering plants identified to the species level. Detailed instructions should be obtained from the instructor in the spring/summer prior to the commencement of this course.

PR: Biology 2010 or equivalent.

3130 Freshwater Ecology is the study of freshwater ecosystems (lakes, rivers, streams, peatlands) included are abiotic components, community structures, energy flow, biogeochemical cycles, and the evolution of natural and altered aquatic ecosystems. Emphasis will be placed on field and laboratory studies of the ecology of freshwater organisms and systems in eastern Newfoundland.

CR: Biology 1011

LH: 3

PR: Biology 2010, Biology 2122, Biology 2600; one of Chemistry 1001 or Chemistry 1011.

3131 Impacted Terrestrial Ecosystems is an examination of ecological and evolutionary responses by organisms in terrestrial ecosystems to human-derived and natural perturbations. Advanced conceptual, empirical, and experimental approaches will be used, with an emphasis on sampling local habitats.

CR: Biology 2610

PR: Biology 2600; and two of Biology 2010, Biology 2122, Biology 2210 or the permission of the instructor and Program Chair.

4132 Analytical Ecology states that the assessment of environmental impacts on higher-level ecological systems requires a critical analysis of scientific reports, along with the ability to evaluate ecological terminology and concepts and associated statistical methodologies. Students in this course will critically read and analyse recent scientific literature in Environmental Biology, with selected topics at the community, ecosystem and landscape level, and examine related univariate and multivariate statistical procedures.

CR: Biology 2600, Statistics 2550 (or equivalent), with 6 credit hours from the Environmental Science Core.

4133 Conservation Biology will bring together the principles of ecology and conservation Biology at an advanced level. Current issues and techniques will be discussed with an aim towards understanding how populations of native flora and fauna can be managed for long-term conservation in the face of habitat degradation and loss.

CR: Biology 2600, Statistics 2550 (or equivalent), with 6 credit hours from the Environmental Science Core.

4140 Environmental Science Field Course is a course providing practical experience in the observation, collection, identification and quantification of organisms and the various environmental parameters which affect them in pristine and disturbed habitats. Combinations of freshwater, marine and terrestrial habitats will be studied using techniques from various scientific disciplines. The actual combination of habitats, organisms, and techniques will vary from year to year.

CR: Biology 2600, Statistics 2550, with a minimum of 80 credit hours from Environmental Science Program (or equivalents) and permission of the instructor and Program Chair.

11.11.2 Environmental Chemistry

2261 Survey of Environmental Chemistry is an introduction to environmental problems, underlying chemistry and approaches to pollution prevention. Stratospheric chemistry and the ozone layer. Ground level air pollution. Global warming and the greenhouse effect. Sources and fate of toxic chemicals (TOCs), including herbicides, pesticides. Toxicology of PCBs, dioxins and furans. Chemistry of natural waters. Bioaccumulation of heavy metals. Energy production and its impact on the environment, including nuclear energy, fossil fuels, hydrogen.
2360 Industrial Chemistry is chemical principles used in the manufacture of inorganic and organic chemical products; electrochemical, petrochemical, polymer, pulp and paper, agricultural, cement, cosmetics, detergent and paint industries, specific properties of current interest: iron, mercury, nitrogen oxides, sulfur dioxide gases, lead etc. and organic (e.g. PCBs, chlorinated hydrocarbons, freons, pesticides/herbicides). Industrial sources and analytical methods of detection will be studied.

LC: not more than seven hours per week
LH: not more than seven hours per week
PR: Environmental Science 3210 (or equivalent)

3260 Atmospheric Chemistry is an introduction to the roles of the atmosphere in the chemical cycles of the major elements, which are governed by its mixing, turbulent transport, chemical processes, and the importance of the natural and anthropogenic sources and sinks of a wide range of trace gases and particles. Topics include: gases, aerosols, clouds, radiation, climate, and the atmosphere's role in the global carbon cycle.

LC: not more than seven hours per week
LH: not more than seven hours per week
PR: Chemistry 2210, Chemistry 2401, and Chemistry 2440 or permission of the instructor and Program Chair

2371 Oceanography is a course that introduces students to the physical, chemical, and biological aspects of the oceans. Topics covered include: the physical processes that govern ocean circulation and weather, the chemical composition of seawater, the biological productivity of the oceans, and the role of the oceans in the global carbon cycle.

LC: not more than seven hours per week
LH: not more than seven hours per week
PR: Environmental Science 2260 or the permission of the instructor and Program Chair

11.11.3 Other Environmental Science

1000 Introduction to Environmental Science is an introduction to the study of the environment. Environmental principles, issues and problems will be described and placed in a historical and societal context.

AR = Attendance requirement; CH = Credit hours are 3 unless otherwise noted; CO = Co-requisite(s); CR = Credit can be retained for only one course from the set(s) consisting of the course being described and the course(s) listed; LG = Lecture hours per week are 3 unless otherwise noted; LH = Laboratory hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usage limitation(s).

2360 Geological Hazards and Natural Disasters will introduce students to the geological aspects of the natural environment and the impacts that natural geological processes and phenomena may have on humanity. The impact of geological hazards and natural disasters on human society and behaviour will be examined through case studies.

PR: 15 credit hours or more

2369 Introduction to Soils provides a broad background knowledge about soils. Topics covered include: the origin of soils; physical, biochemical, and engineering aspects of soils; influence on humans and their food production; soil pollution and degradation; and management and conservation of soils.

PR: Earth Science 1000 or Geography 1000

2370 Global Environmental Change is a survey of the Earth as a dynamic system. Discussion of interacting cycles that define the Earth's environment. Material cycles and energy concepts. Evolution of the atmosphere in response to lithospheric, biotic, and hydrospheric changes. Major global environmental changes from Earth's formation to present. Emphasis on self-regulating ability of the Earth system.

PR: 30 credit hours or more

2371 Oceanography is a review of oceanography. Earth and Earth systems (including the ocean). Marine sediments and sedimentary environments. Chemical and physical properties of seawater. The atmosphere and the oceans, ocean circulation. Waves and tides, coastal environments, distribution of organisms. Applied oceanography.

PR: 30 credit hours or more

2430 Energy and the Environment considers energy, energy conversion, heat transfer, the laws of thermodynamics, nuclear power, wind, solar, and geothermal energy. Practical problems such as the energy shortage, human influences on climate, resource extraction, nuclear power etc. will be discussed.

PR: Mathematics 1081 or Mathematics 1000; Physics 1021 or co-requisite Physics 1051

2450 Meteorology is an introduction to the study of the atmosphere. Meteorological dynamics in the global, synoptic, meso- and micro-scales. An introduction to atmospheric radiation and thermodynamics, clouds and precipitation. Vertical soundings and the analysis and interpretation of surface and upper-air weather maps.

CO: Physics 1051 or prerequisite Physics 1021
PR: Physics 1021 or co-requisite Physics 1051

3072 Comparative Marine Environments will investigate the physical, chemical, biological characteristics of the major marine environments from the coastal zone to the abyss and from the equator to the poles. The objective of the course will be an integrated study of the parameters that define the various environments. Emphasis will be placed on the interaction of organism and environment. The influence of the environment on the form, function and behaviour or organisms and the influence of the organism in modification of the physical environment will be stressed.

PR: Environmental Science 2371

PR: Mathematics 1001, Physics 1020 and Physics 1021 or Physics 1050 and Physics 1051

4000 Environmental Science Seminar reviews current topics in environmental science and discusses in a seminar format. Seminars will be presented on current research and environmental issues by faculty, students and guest speakers from universities, government, and industry.

PR: Environmental Science students who have completed at least 80 credit hours or more, to include Biology 2600, Statistics 2550 and one of Chemistry 2440, Chemistry 2401, Chemistry 2210 or Chemistry 2300 4069 Fundamentals of Soil Systems is the physics, chemistry and biology of soil, including inorganic soil components, chemistry of organic soil matter, soil microbiology, sorption phenomena on soils, ion exchange processes, kinetics of soil processes, redox chemistry of soils, soil acidity, salinity and sodic soils, organic pollutants, trace and toxic elements in soils, soil organisms, organic matter cycling, nutrient cycling and fertility, soil conservation and sustainable agriculture.

LC: not more than six hours per week
LH: not more than six hours per week. The laboratory will cover a number of key physical, chemical and biological processes and procedures used in soil analyses. One or more field trips will be scheduled during laboratory sessions.

PR: Biology 2600, Earth Sciences 1000, one of Chemistry 2210, Chemistry 2300, Chemistry 2401, Chemistry 2440 and 8 credit hours selected from Environmental Science Core. It is recommended that students complete at least 80 credit hours before registering for this course.

4131 Environmental Restoration and Waste Management focuses on procedures aimed at restoring and rehabilitating ecosystems, with an examination of the interdisciplinary scientific basis underlying these procedures. The efficacy of management options, e.g., biomagnification, microbial degradation and chemical treatments, involved in restoration and waste management will be evaluated. Applications and practical case studies of both aquatic and terrestrial ecosystems will be covered.

PR: Biological 2600, one of Chemistry 2210, Chemistry 2300, Chemistry 2401, Chemistry 2440 and 6 credit hours selected from Environmental Science courses. It is recommended that students complete at least 90 credit hours before registering for this course.

PR: Environmental Science 3470 or the permission of the instructor and Program Chair

4910-4930 Special Topics in Environmental Science are special topics courses in Environmental Science normally taken by students beyond the second year.

4950 Research Project in Environmental Science is a course, with the guidance of a faculty member, where students will conduct a scientific study based upon original research or a critical review of extant data in an appropriate area. Students are required to submit a report and give a presentation. This project fulfills the Core requirement for a fourth-year individual project in the area of specialization.

PR: permission of Program Chair

4951 Honours Project in Environmental Science I is a course, under the guidance of a designated supervisor (or supervisors), where the student will prepare a proposal including a comprehensive literature review of the subject of their Honours thesis. Students will present the results of their work in both written and oral form.

PR: restricted to Environmental Science students who have been accepted into the Honours option 4952 Honours Research Project in Environmental Science II is a continuation of Environmental Science 4951 specifically for Honours students. Under the supervision of faculty member(s), students will carry out an original research project in environmental science. Students will present both a thesis and seminar on their research.

PR: Environmental Science 4951 and admission to the honours program

11.12 Environmental Studies

New Course Numbering

For existing Memorial University of Newfoundland courses the numbers remain the same. For new courses in Environmental Studies the following scheme is used:

1st digit = year
2nd digit = Program Concentration
0 = common to both concentrations
1 = Environmental Perspectives Concentration
2 = Outdoor Environmental Pursuits Concentration
9 = Project

1000 An Introduction to Environmental Studies is an introduction to a variety of major issues in environmental studies through an examination of a range of case studies including both local problems, such as the impact of outdoor recreation activities on the environment, and global threats, such as stratospheric ozone depletion.

2000 Introduction to Mapping, Remote Sensing, and Geographical Information Systems is an introduction to maps, global positioning systems, remote sensing, and geographic information systems. Applications to a broad range of environmental issues will be discussed.

LC: 3
LH: 3
PR: Geography 1000 or Earth Sciences 1001

2210 Outdoor Environmental Pursuits I is the theoretical rationale and practical skills needed to demonstrate basic proficiency in several of the following activities: minimal impact camping, wilderness cooking, hiking, kayaking, canoeing, navigating with map and compass, outdoor safety, search and rescue, and group management. The major focus of this course will be the practical application of learned skills.

AR: attendance is required
CO: basic first aid and CPR course
OR: 3 hours of practicum per week

2220 Outdoor Environmental Pursuits II is the theoretical rationale and practical skills needed to demonstrate basic proficiency in several of the following activities: cross-country skiing, telemark skiing, downhill skiing, snowshoeing, winter camping, and winter survival techniques. The major focus of this course will be the practical application of learned skills.

AR: attendance is required
OR: 3 hours of practicum per week

3000 Issues in Environmental Economics is an analysis of current issues concerning the effects of the economic activities of production and consumption on the natural environment. The concepts of scarcity, abundance, demand, supply, opportunity cost, trade-offs, externalities, marginal benefits and marginal costs will be utilized in examining environmental problems. The social and economic implications of various approaches will also be analysed.

OR: Economics 2010

3001 Environmental and Resource Management: Applications of Geographic Information Systems is applied GIS knowledge and skills in environmental and resource management. The topics cover GIS data sources, data conversions, database design, spatial analysis and decision support systems. Examples of GIS applications in the private and public sectors will be provided.

LH: 3
PR: Environmental Studies 2000

3210 Expedition will consist of one or more extensive expeditions into wilderness areas. A variety of applied topics related to environmental issues, outdoor leadership, and outdoor survival will be covered using an experiential approach. Expedition, Two weeks (Summer term).

AR: attendance is required
PR: Environmental Studies 2210 and Environmental Studies 2220

4000 Environmental Impact Assessment will include an analysis of the different methods of assessing the impacts that investment projects or decision-making processes have on the environment. Environmental Impact Assessments (EIAs) vary with individual projects and are a vital tool to use in integrated planning of development proposals, policies and programs. Emphasis will be given to assessing the socio-economic impact of development projects.

PR: permission of the Environmental Studies Program Chair

4010 Seminar in Environmental Studies is a senior seminar in which selected environmental issues will be examined from several disciplinary perspectives.

LH: 3
PR: Environmental Studies 2000

4020-4039 Special Topics in Environmental Studies has a range of special topics in Environmental Studies. This course is normally taken by students beyond the second year.

4950 Independent Research Project is a course, under the supervision of a faculty member, where each student will carry out an approved project in environmental studies and prepare a major paper based on independent research.

11.13 Folklore

Folklore 1000 (or 2000) is the prerequisite for all other courses in Folklore, except Folklore 1050, Folklore 1060 and those courses cross-listed with other subject areas.

1000 Introduction to Folklore is the role that tradition plays in communication, art and society will be discussed through an examination of folklore materials from Newfoundland and the English-speaking world. Readings and "listenings" will emphasize the use of folklore in context, e.g., the proverb in speech and the folksong in childrearing. Students will be urged to analyze the traditions in their own lives through special assignments.

PR: Folklore 2000

1050 Folklore Studies is an examination of specific folklore studies illustrating important themes and approaches in folkloristics. These will include antiquarian, nationalistic, diffusionist, historic-contextual, functional, structural, and performance analyses as typified in selected readings from the works of leading folklorists.

PR: permission of the Environmental Studies Program Chair

There is no prerequisite for this course. However, students should note that they will need to take Folklore 1000 (or Folklore 2000) before they can advance to other courses.

2100 Folklore Research Methods - An Introduction is designed to provide the basic introduction to the research resources, tools and methods regularly employed in the area of Folklore. On the one hand, the course will examine what types of Library and Archive resources can be useful to the folklorist and, on the other hand, it will explore how folklorists in fieldwork situations should handle people, and how they can capture for posterity a record of the interviews that they have conducted and the events that they have observed. It is strongly recommended that majors and minors take this course before taking 3000 and 4000 level courses.

2230 Newfoundland Society and Culture (same as Sociology/ Anthropology 2230) is the Sociology and Anthropology of the Island of Newfoundland and includes a basic first aid and CPR course.

11.19 Mathematics and Statistics

REGULATIONS
At most 9 credit hours in Mathematics will be given for courses completed from the following list subject to normal credit restrictions: Mathematics 1000, 1031, 1050, 1080, 1081, 1090, 1150, 1151.

102F, 103F and 104F Mathematics Skills Program are non-credit courses intended for those students who either have a weak background in mathematics or are returning to the subject after some years. The program enables students to master mathematical operations such as those involving whole numbers, fractions, decimals, percents, integers, exponents, linear equations, algebraic and rational expressions, formulas, graphs, systems of linear equations, basic trigonometry, exponents and radicals, and quadratics.

1000 Calculus I is an introduction to differential Calculus including logarithmic, exponential and trigonometric functions.

CR: Mathematics 1081

LH: 1.5

PR: Mathematics 1090 or a combination of placement test and high school Mathematics scores acceptable to the Department 1001 Calculus II is an introduction to integral Calculus with applications. In addition to three lectures per week there will be a one and one-half hour problem lab.

CR: Engineering 1411 and Engineering 2413

PR: Mathematics 1000 or Mathematics 1081

1050 Finite Mathematics I covers topics which include sets, logic, permutations, combinations, and elementary probability.

CR: the former Mathematics 1150. With the exception of those already admitted at the time of registration in this course to a Bachelor of Education program that requires this course, students who already have obtained credit for 6 or more Mathematics credit hours numbered 2000 or above are not permitted to register for this course nor can they receive credit for it.

LH: 4

PR: a combination of placement test and high school mathematics scores acceptable to the department, or Mathematics 103F

1051 Finite Mathematics II covers topics which include elementary matrices, linear programming, elementary number theory, mathematical systems and geometry.

CR: the former Mathematics 1151. With the exception of those already admitted at the time of registration in this course to a Bachelor of Education program that requires this course, students who already have obtained credit for 6 or more Mathematics credit hours numbered 2000 or above are not permitted to register for this course nor can they receive credit for it.

LH: 1.5

PR: a combination of placement test and high school Mathematics scores acceptable to the department, or Mathematics 103F

1090 Algebra and Trigonometry (F and W) provides students with the essential prerequisite elements for the study of an introductory course in Calculus. Topics include algebra, functions and their graphs, exponential and logarithmic functions, trigonometry, polynomials, and rational functions.

CR: Mathematics 1000, Mathematics 1001, Mathematics 1080, or Mathematics 1081

LH: 1.5

PR: a combination of placement test and high school Mathematics scores acceptable to the department or Mathematics 104F

2000 Calculus III is a study of the differential calculus of functions of two variables, an introduction to convergence of infinite sequences and series.

CR: Engineering 1411, Engineering 1412, Engineering 2412, Engineering 2413

LH: 1.5

PR: Mathematics 1001

2050 Linear Algebra I includes the topics of Euclidean n-space, vector operations in 2- and 3-space, complex numbers, linear transformations on n-space, matrices, determinants, and systems of linear equations.

CR: Engineering 2402

PR: Mathematics 1000 or 6 credit hours in first year Mathematics courses

2051 Linear Algebra II includes the topics of real and complex vector spaces, basis, dimension, change of basis, eigenvectors, inner products, and diagonalization of Hermitian matrices.

PR: Mathematics 2050

2090 Mathematics of Finance covers the following topics: simple and compound interest and discount, forces of interest and discount, equations of value, annuities and perpetuities, amortization schedules and sinking funds, bonds and other securities, contingent payments.

PR: Mathematics 1001

2320 Discrete Mathematics are basic concepts of mathematical reasoning, sets and set operations, functions; relations including equivalence relations and partial orders as illustrated through the notions of congruence and divisibility of integers, mathematical induction, principles of counting, permutations, combinations and the Binomial Theorem.

CR: Computer Science 2740

PR: Mathematics 1001 or Mathematics 2050

2500 Statistics for Business and Arts Students is descriptive statistics (including histograms, stem-and-leaf plots and box plots), elementary probability, discrete random variables, the binomial distribution, the normal distribution, sampling distribution, estimation and hypothesis testing (both one and two sample cases), paired comparisons, chi-square test, correlation and regression. Related applications.

CR: Statistics 2510, Statistics 2550, and Psychology 2900

LH: 1.5

PR: Mathematics 1000 or 6 credit hours in first year courses in Mathematics or registration in at least semester 3 of a Bachelor of Nursing program or permission of the Head of Department.

2550 Statistics for Life Science Students is an introduction to basic statistics methods with an emphasis on applications to life sciences and, in particular, to biology. Material includes descriptive statistics, elementary probability, binomial distribution, normal distribution, sampling distributed; estimation and hypothesis testing (both one and two sample cases), chi-square test, one way analysis of variance, correlation and simple linear regression.

CR: Statistics 2500, Statistics 2510, Statistics 2550, and Psychology 2900

Statistical computer package will be used in the laboratory, but no prior computing experience is assumed.

LH: 1.5

OR: Statistical computer package will be used in the laboratory, but no prior computing experience is assumed

PR: Mathematics 1000 or Mathematics 1081

3000 Real Analysis I (F and W) is proof techniques, structure of R, sequences, limits, continuity, uniform continuity, differentiation.

CR: the former Mathematics 2001

LH: 1

PR: Mathematics 2000

3202 Vector Calculus is functions of several variables, Lagrange multipliers, vector valued functions, directional derivatives, gradient, divergence, curl, transformations, Jacobians, inverse and implicit function theorems, multiple integration including change of variables using polar, cylindrical and spherical co-ordinates, Green’s theorem, Stokes’ theorem, divergence theorem, line integrals, arc length.

AR = Attendance requirement; CH = Credit hours are 3 unless otherwise noted; CO = Co-requisite(s); CR = Credit can be retained for only one course from the set(s) consisting of the course being described and the course(s) listed; LC = Lecture hours per week are 3 unless otherwise noted; LH = Laboratory hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usage limitation(s).
11.20 Philosophy

In accordance with Senate's Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Division.

1001 Philosophy of Human Nature is an approach to philosophical thinking by way of analysis and critique of theories of human nature, classical and modern, and the world views associated with them.

1200 Principles of Philosophy is a general introduction to the study of Philosophy both as a contemporary intellectual discipline and as a body of knowledge. The course covers the main divisions, fundamental questions and essential terminology of Philosophy through a reading of classical texts (It is a required course for further courses in Philosophy programs. It is intended for students in first year who have completed one semester of university education).

1600 Philosophy of Human Nature is an approach to philosophical thinking by way of analysis and critique of theories of human nature, classical and modern, and the world views associated with them.

2200 Principles of Philosophy (same as Philosophy 1200) is offered to students beyond first year. CR: former Philosophy 1001

2210 Logic is an introduction to traditional and modern logic open in any year to all students wishing acquaintance with basic logical skills.

2220 Principles of Human Knowledge are various concepts of knowledge - empirical, rational, transcendental, systematic. Their metaphysical grounds and implications. The concept of scientific knowledge; real and abstract entities; objectivity and subjectivity.

2230 Moral Philosophy is the sources and validity of ethical principles which underlie individual and social action.

2701 History of Ancient Philosophy (same as Classics 2701) is a survey of the origin and development of Western philosophy among the Greeks and Romans.

2702 History of Modern Philosophy is a survey of the development of Western Philosophy since the seventeenth century. CR: Philosophy 3700, Philosophy 3701, and Philosophy 2702

2800-2810 Contemporary Issues is defined by its aim: to provide students with an opportunity to develop the philosophical dimension primarily, in areas of practical concern. Issues dealt with are chiefly contemporary ones: technology, bioethics, leisure, professional ethics, role of education, materialism, human rights and others of the kind.

3400 Political Philosophy is leading philosophical ideas concerning the origin and justification of political institutions.

3600 Philosophy of the Humanities is expression and interpretation in the humanistic disciplines: theology, history, art and literature, language, and essential terminology of Philosophy through a reading of classical texts.

3610 Philosophy and Literature is a study of the interrelationship of thought and imagination in philosophical and literary forms of writing.

3730 Plato is selections from the works of the Greek "lovers of wisdom" - the first philosophers - particularly Plato.

3740 Aristotle is the works and legacy of perhaps the most influential systematic thinker of all time.

3800 Descartes is a systematic introduction to the study of philosophy and thought of the "father of modern philosophy".

3840 Hume is a study of the work and influence of Hume on theories of knowledge, metaphysics and moral philosophy.

3850 Kant's Theory of Knowledge is an introduction to the work of one of the most influential thinkers of the modern era, concentrating on his theory of knowledge, particularly as stated in the Critique of Pure Reason.

3860 Hegel is selections from Hegel's system with emphasis on the nature of dialectical and speculative philosophy and its enormous influence in the present time.

3940 Existentialism is the philosophy and literature of Existentialism from Kierkegaard, Nietzsche and Dostoevsky to Sartre, de Beauvoir and Camus. CR: Philosophy 3940

4250 Seminar in Metaphysics and Epistemology

4700 Seminar in Special Authors and Texts will have topics to be studied announced by the Department.

11.21 Physics

1020 Introductory Physics I (F) is a non-calculus based introduction to mechanics.

1090 Introductory Physics I (F) is a non-calculus based introduction to mechanics.

PR: Level III Advanced Mathematics or Mathematics 1090. It is recommended that students have completed at least one of level II and level III high school physics courses, however this course may be completed by someone who has no physics background provided some extra effort is made.

1021 Introductory Physics II (W) is a calculus based introduction to fluids, wave motion, light, optics, electricity and magnetism.

PR: Physics 1020 or Physics 1050 and Mathematics 1000.

1050 General Physics I: Mechanics is a calculus based introduction to mechanics. The course will emphasize problem solving.

PR: Mathematics 1000

1051 General Physics II: Oscillations, Waves, Electromagnetism is a calculus based introduction to oscillations, wave motion, physical optics and electromagnetism.

PR: Mathematics 1001

1056 General Physics II: Modern Physics (W) is a special relativity, quanta of light, atomic structure and spectral lines, quantum structure of atoms and molecules, nuclei and elementary particles.

PR: Mathematics 1001 and Physics 1051

4200 Seminar in Metaphysics and Epistemology
2065 Experimental and Computational Physics is laboratory techniques, including experimental method and design. Data analysis, including application of statistics to experimental physics. Numerical analysis using Maple, and an introduction to modelling in physics. Topics are introduced through experiments, complementary lectures, and library research of some of the great experiments of physics.

CO: Mathematics 2500

PR: Physics 1051 (or Physics 2054), Mathematics 1001, and Mathematics 2050. Students who have completed Physics 2010-2012 will be allowed to register for Physics 2065 with the permission of the Instructor and the Program Chair.

PR: six credit hours in Mathematics at the first year level

3060 Electricity and Magnetism is point charges; Coulomb’s law; electrostatic field and potential; Gauss’ law; conductors; magnetostatics; Ampère’s law; Biot-Savart law; dielectric and magnetic materials; electrostatic and magnetostatic energy; Lorentz force; time varying fields; Faraday’s law; Lenz’s law; Maxwell’s equations.

CO: Applied Mathematics 3260

PR: Physics 1051 and Applied Mathematics 3260.

3160 Stellar and Galactic Astronomy is the physics and mathematics of stars and galaxies. Orbits and the two-body problem, radiation and matter, theory of stellar atmospheres, structure and evolution of stars. Galaxies: Morphology, kinematics, Milky Way kinematics and structure, large-scale star formation, the distribution of interstellar matter in galaxies. Starburst and active galaxies. An introduction to cosmology.

CR: Physics 3150 and Mathematics 3151

PR: Physics 2056, 2151 and Mathematics 2000, Physics 3220 is recommended.

CO: Applied Mathematics 3260

PR: Physics 2820 and Applied Mathematics/Pure Mathematics 3260.

11.22 Political Science

1000 Introduction to Politics is an introduction to basic concepts in the study of politics, emphasizing the Canadian system of government and its relationship with the Canadian society.

1010 Canadian Political Problems is analysis of the operation of the Canadian political system through close examination of three selected policy problems, such as poverty in Canada, Canadian-United States relations and Canadian political system through close examination of three selected policy.

is analysis of the operation of the Canadian society and political institutions. Topics to be examined include: political culture, political parties, the electoral system, voting behaviour, interest groups, the mass media and politics, protest movements, and elites and social classes.

CR: Political Science 2710 and the former Political Science 2700

3550 Politics and the Environment is an examination of the environmentalist movement, interest groups, and green parties; the impact of environmentalism on conventional parties and public opinion; the role of public opinion in shaping policy; the role of environmentalism in Canadian politics; the role of environmentalism in Canadian society.

3731 Environmental Policy is an examination of the implementation, and impact of public policies concerning the environment including an examination of different policy approaches and the problems of environmental regulation.

11.23 Psychology

Psychology 1000 and Psychology 1001 are prerequisites for all Psychology courses.

1000 and 1001 Introduction to Psychology is an introduction to psychology as a biological and social science. Topics will include research methodology, psychological processes, perception, learning, memory and cognition, human development, animal behaviour, emotion, motivation, consciousness, personality and individuality, psychological disorders and treatment, and social psychology.

PR: Psychology 1000 is a prerequisite for Psychology 1001

2925 Research Methods and Data Analysis in Psychology II will cover basic research methods and supporting statistical concepts and techniques. Basic methods will include observational techniques, correlational studies, and surveys. Supporting statistical concepts will include populations and samples, measures of central tendency and variability, basic probability, correlation, simple linear regression and validity and reliability. Supporting statistical techniques will include producing tables and graphs, and the calculation and interpretation of measures of central tendency, variability, probabilities, correlation, and simple linear regression. Students will also learn how to write a description of a simple study in basic APA style, and how to use a statistical package to analyse surveys and calculate correlation. Basic ethical principles in conducting research will be introduced. This course includes a weekly laboratory.

PR: Mathematics 1000 or any two of the following courses: Mathematics 1090, Mathematics 1050, Mathematics 1051.

2950 Research Methods and Data Analysis in Psychology II will cover basic experimental methods and supporting statistical concepts and techniques. Basic designs will include one factor designs (independent and repeated measures). Supporting statistical concepts will include statistical sampling distributions (t and F), internal and external validity, hypothesis testing, and simple interactions. Supporting statistical techniques will include independent and repeated measures t-tests, one-factor independent and repeated measures ANOVA, and selected multiple comparisons techniques. Students will also learn how to write a description of an experiment in APA style, how to critically analyse a report of an experiment, how to use and interpret a statistical package to analyse experimental data, and how to conduct literature searches.

CR: Psychology 2901, Statistics 2501, and Statistics 2560

PR: Psychology 2925 or equivalent

3850 Research Methods and Data Analysis in Psychology III will cover advanced research methods, including survey methods, and supporting statistical concepts and techniques. Designs will include single factor designs and multi-factor designs with both random and fixed factors. Supporting statistical concepts will include analysis of variance (ANOVA) from a linear model perspective, statistical power, and multiple regression, including model building. There may be a general introduction to multivariate statistical techniques. Ethical issues in research will be discussed in detail. Students will be required to design and carry out at least one research project from the design to the writeup stage, including an ethics review.

CR: Psychology 3900, Statistics 3520, the former Psychology 3520

PR: Psychology 3925 or equivalent

PR: Psychology 3925 or equivalent

11.23.1 Survey Courses

2025 Survey of Developmental Psychology is a survey of the cognitive, social, and personality development of people. Development will be tracked from the prenatal stage to old age. Topics to be studied shall include: research methodology, genetics, prenatal development, environmental effects during prenatal development, attachment, emotional development, language development, intelligence, cognitive development, socialization, sex-roles and gender identity, adolescence, adulthood and aging.

CR: Psychology 2010 and Psychology 2011

AR = Attendance requirement; CH = Credit hours; LR = Lecture hours per week; OR = Other requirements of the course such as tutorials, practical sessions, or seminars; PR = Prerequisite(s); UL = Usual limitation(s).
2125 Survey of Social Psychology is a survey of how the behaviour of individuals is influenced by others. Topics to be studied shall include: methodology and ethics, social cognition, social perception, attitude formation and change, interpersonal attraction, social influence, group processes and leadership. Additional topics may include: aggression, prosocial behaviour, sex and gender, environmental effects, organizational behaviour, health, stress and psychology and the law.
CR: Psychology 2120 and Psychology 2120

2225 Survey of Learning is a survey of learning phenomena and learning theories. Topics to be studied shall include: the evolutionary context of learning, habitation and sensitization, imprinting, Pavlovian conditioning, instrumental learning, generalization and discrimination in learning and neural mechanisms of learning.
CR: Psychology 2240 and Psychology 2250

2425 Survey of Cognitive Psychology is a survey of how humans process and retain information. Topics to be studied shall include: perception and pattern recognition, attentional processes and memory. The influence of stored information on selected behaviours will be considered. Selected behaviours may include language processing, concept formation, problem solving, decision making and practiced and skilled performance.
CR: Psychology 2440 and Psychology 3450

2625 Survey of Personality is a survey of the theories of personality and relevant selected areas of research in the area of personality. Issues related to the application of this information to understanding abnormal behaviour will also be discussed. Theoretical systems covered will include: psychodynamic theory, behaviourism, and cognitive-behavioural theory, humanism, traits and dispositions, social learning theory, psychological constructivism, information processing and biological theories of personality.
CR: Psychology 2610, Psychology 2620, and the former Psychology 2200.

2825 Survey of Biological Psychology is a survey of the biological bases of behaviour. Topics to be studied shall include: the structure and function of the nervous system, sensory structures and sensory coding, homeostasis, emotions, circadian rhythms and sleep, sexual behaviour, psychopharmacology, consciousness and language, behavioural evolution and behaviour genetics.
CR: Psychology 2810 and Psychology 2850

11.23.2 Contemporary Issues Courses

3025 Contemporary Issues in Developmental Psychology
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2925

3125 Contemporary Issues in Social Psychology
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2125

3225 Contemporary Issues in Learning
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2225

3325 Contemporary Issues in Sensation and Perception
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2425 or Psychology 2825

3425 Contemporary Issues in Memory and Cognition
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2425

3525 Contemporary Issues in Emotion
PR: Psychology 2925 and any Survey Course in Psychology from the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Psychology Program

3625 Contemporary Issues in Personality
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2625

3626 Contemporary Issues in Abnormal Psychology
CR: Psychology 3640, Psychology 3650, and the former Psychology 3600
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2625

3627 Contemporary Issues in Psychotherapy
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2625

3628 Contemporary Issues in Psychological Testing and Measurement
PR: Psychology 2925 and any one of Psychology 2925, Psychology 2125, Psychology 2425, Psychology 2625.

3725 Contemporary Issues in Animal Behaviour
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2825 or Psychology 2225

3825 Contemporary Issues in Physiological Psychology
PR: Psychology 2925 and Psychology 2825

11.23.3 Senior Courses

4910 Systems of Psychology is a study of paradigms and explanations in contemporary psychology in the context of their historical antecedents. PR: 78 credit hours in University courses including (a) 6 credit hours in Psychology laboratory courses from Clause 1(b) of the Requirements for a Major in Psychology or (b) Psychology 3425 or Psychology 3950

4925 Senior Seminar in Psychology is weekly seminars for faculty and senior students in Psychology. Current issues in academic and professional psychology shall be discussed.
PR: 30 credit hours in Psychology including Psychology 3950 or permission of the Chair of Psychology 4950 Independent Project in Psychology is under the supervision of a Faculty member where students will independently carry out approved projects and prepare reports of their findings.

CR: Psychology 4951
PR: 20 credit hours in Psychology including Psychology 3950 or permission of the Chair of Psychology

4951 Honours Project in Psychology I is under the supervision of a Faculty member and each student will independently review an area of psychology and prepare a thesis proposal for further investigation.
CR: Psychology 4951
PR: 30 credit hours in Psychology including Psychology 3950 or permission of the Chair of Psychology and admission to the Honours program in Psychology 4959 Honours Project in Psychology II is a continuation of Psychology 4951. Under the supervision of a Faculty member, each student will independently carry out an approved project which will result in an honours thesis.

PR: Psychology 4951 or the permission of the Chair of Psychology and admission to the Honours program in Psychology

11.24 Religious Studies

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Division.

1000 The Religions of the World is an introduction to the basic beliefs and practices of the world’s great religions.
CR: the former Religious Studies 2010

1032 Introduction to Asian Religions and Culture is a broadly based survey course introducing students to the religions, culture, and societies of Asia. Traditions explored may include those of India (Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Jainism), China (Daoism, Confucianism, Buddhism), Japan (Shinto, Zen Buddhism), and Korea.

2013 Introduction to Christianity is a study of the Christian tradition, its development and variety. The course will include an examination of the beliefs and practices of both Eastern and Western Christianity and a study of the major differences among the major Western denominations.

2050 Introduction to the Old Testament is an introduction to the historical, background, literary structure, and content of the Old Testament. Emphasis will be placed on the authorship and dating of the various texts that comprise the Old Testament, as well as on major themes, figures, and events. This course may qualify as a Research/Writing course. Consult each semester’s registration materials for the R/W designation.

2051 Introduction to the New Testament is an introduction to the history and literary structure of the documents comprising the New Testament. Emphasis will be placed on the major themes found in these documents and on the distinctiveness of approach of the individual writers.

2350 Religious Institutions (same as Sociology/Anthropology 2350) is psychological, anthropological, and sociological approaches to the nature of religion. Comparative study of religious institutions and beliefs, calendrical feasts and solemnities, the nature of sacrifice and the sacred, religious roles and hierarchies, ritual innovation and revitalization.
CR: Sociology/Anthropology 2350

2400 Introduction to Buddhism is a study of the history of the Buddhist tradition in India and China, the development of the main lines of Buddhist thought, and the nature of the Chinese transformation of Buddhism.
CR: the former Religious Studies 3400

2410 Introduction to Hinduism involves a study of the religious thought and history of India, the literature of Hinduism, the major thinkers in Hindu philosophy, and the role of Hinduism in the culture and society of India.
CR: the former Religious Studies 3410

2610 Introduction to Religious Ethics is an introduction to religious ethics through the systematic study of selected writers and issues in biomecianic, human sexuality, and social justice. Possible topics for discussion include euthanasia, abortion, poverty, and unemployment.

CR: Religious Studies 2600 and the former Religious Studies 2601

3010 Greek Religion (same as Classics 3010) is a study of the role of religion in the private and public life of the Greek world.

CR: Classics 3010 and the former Religious Studies/Classics 3121

3020 Roman Religion (same as Classics 3020) is a study of the role of religion in the private and public life of the Roman world.

CR: Classics 3020 and the former Religious Studies/Classics 3121

3200 Jesus: His Life and Teaching is a study of the ministry and thought of Jesus of Nazareth as contained in the Gospels and other New Testament writings. Attention will be given to the methods and conclusions of recent scholarship as applied to his principal teachings and to the study of the historical Jesus.

3210 Paul and His Writings is a study of the Pauline writings and an appraisal of the contribution to Christianity of his mission and theology on the basis of New Testament and other relevant material. Particular attention will be given to such related themes as salvation, reconciliation, grace, and justification.

3310 Judaism at the Beginning of the Christian Era will explore the developments in Jewish thought, institutions, beliefs, and practices during the time when Greek and Jewish cultures encountered one another and in which Jesus of Nazareth lived.

CR: the former Religious Studies 3220

3401 Zen, Buddhist Meditation, and Buddhist Psychology examines the relationship between meditation and theories of human psychology in Buddhism from its origins to its formulation in Zen.

3820 Religion and the Arts (same as Visual Arts 3820) is an examination of the role of art in the expression of religious ideas, together with a study of specific religious themes and concerns in one or more of the following: literature, film, music, painting, sculpture and dance.

CR: Visual Arts 3820

3831 Religious Themes in Contemporary Songwriting is a study of religious themes in contemporary songwriting through the in-depth examination of the work of a selection of contemporary songwriters. The course will explore how religious questions and themes are handled in contemporary song and explore how song is an artistic medium expressing religious meaning. Songwriters to be explored may include the following: Bob Dylan, Bob Marley, Joni Mitchell, Leonard Cohen, Van Morrison, Tori Amos, Nick Cave, Alannis Morissette, Julie Miller, the Lovin’ Brothers, the Stanley Brothers, Hank Williams, etc.

3880 Spirituality and the Earth is an examination of the attitudes of various religious traditions towards the environment. Special attention will be paid to Native American spirituality.

CR: 3 credit hours in Religious Studies beyond the first year level or departmental permission

11.25 Science

3000 Concepts, Methods and Issues in Science I is the origin of the universe, formation of matter and its nature, origin of the solar system, evolution of the earth and its biosphere, theories of origin of life, mechanisms of evolution and speciation.

PR: at least 45 credit hours

UL: may not be used towards fulfillment of the 78 Science credit hours required for the Bachelor of Science Degree

3001 Concepts, Methods and Issues in Science II is genetic and molecular engineering, behavioural biology, genetic determinant versus environmentalism, artificial intelligence, the paradoxes of the quantum world, the scientific method, science and pseudoscience.

PR: completion of at least 45 credit hours

UL: may not be used towards fulfillment of the 78 Science credit hours required for the Bachelor of Science Degree 4000 Senior Science Seminar is a review of current topics in science discussed in a seminar format. Seminars will be presented by faculty, students and others.

This will be a designated Writing Course.

PR: Permission of the Program Chair. This course is restricted to students in the General Science program who have completed 80 credit hours or more.

4950 Senior Project requires students to work either individually or in pairs on developing a poster presentation on specific scientific topics of current interest. This will require a detailed proposal, followed by the necessary relevant research in appropriate journals and Internet sources. Participants in this course will organize a mini-conference, to be held at the end of the semester. These posters will be presented. Where appropriate, students will be encouraged to integrate knowledge from at least two different scientific disciplines in the development of this project. This will be a designated Writing Course.

PR: This course is restricted to students in the General Science program who have completed 80 credit hours or more.

4951 Honours Project I is the preparation of a project proposal under the guidance of a faculty supervisor, including a comprehensive bibliographical review, with the aim of producing a well-annotated Bibliography. This will be a designated Writing Course.

PR: Permission of the Program Chair. This course is restricted to students in the General Science program who have completed 80 credit hours or more.

4959 Honours Project II is a continuation of Science 4951. Under the supervision of a Faculty Advisor, students will prepare an Honours Thesis. The preparation of this course will entail some original research, and will require the student to integrate knowledge from at least two disciplines. This will be a designated Writing Course.

PR: Science 4951 and permission of the Program Chair

11.26 Social/Cultural Studies

4000 Interdisciplinary Seminar in Social Cultural Studies is conducted through faculty presentations, assigned readings and group discussions and students will learn how to engage and evaluate the broad debates within Anthropology, Folklore and Sociology. Rather than focus on narrow substantive material from the disciplines, this seminar will emphasize the larger shifts and challenges which have led to new topics and methods of analysis within the social sciences.

PR: completion of 90 credit hours or more and admission to Social/Cultural Studies

4100 Issues in Cultural Studies represents an examination of the concept of culture, as it is presently used within Anthropology, Folklore and Sociology. Particular attention will be paid to the area of Cultural Studies, and the ways in which that approach has re-energized an interest in the role of culture in modern society.

PR: completion of 90 credit hours or more and admission to Social/Cultural Studies

4950 Independent Project in Social/Cultural Studies is under the supervision of a faculty member and students will independently carry out approved projects of direct relevance to social and cultural phenomena, and prepare reports of their findings.

PR: Social Cultural Studies 4000

11.27 Sociology

In accordance with Senate’s Policy Regarding Inactive Courses, the course descriptions for courses which have not been offered in the previous three academic years and which are not scheduled to be offered in the current academic year have been removed from the following listing. For information about any of these inactive courses, please contact the Head of the Division.

Sociology 1000 or Sociology 2000 are prerequisites for all further Sociology courses except Sociology 2250 and those cross-listed with Anthropology. Credit is not given for both Sociology 1000 and Sociology 2000. Before taking 3000-level courses, students should have taken at least 9 credit hours in courses below the 3000 level. Courses at the 4000 level will normally be taken by students who have previously taken at least 9 credit hours in courses at the 3000 level.

The following courses, cross-listed with Anthropology and identified by the prefix “S/A”, are also taught at the introductory level: 2200, 2210, 2220, 2230, 2240, 2260, 2270, 2280, and 2350. A minimum of two of these courses is prerequisite to further cross-listed courses. These courses are open to be taken as first courses or may be taken to follow up a Sociology introductory course.

2000 Introduction to Sociology is an introduction to the concepts, background, and topics of Sociology. This course is restricted primarily to first-year students.

CR: Sociology 2000

2100 Social Inequality introduces the subject of social inequality and stratification, examines social inequality in historical perspective, reviews major theories about social inequality, and considers key social developments in contemporary societies in the area of social inequality.

2120 Technology and Society is an examination of the role of technology in society. Topics may include the emergence of modern technological society, the impact of new technologies on social organization and culture and the institutionalization of science and the production of scientific knowledge. The course also explores the ideological functions of science and technology in advanced industrial societies as well as the question of

School of Social Work 2008-2009

1 School Description

A social work program at Memorial University of Newfoundland commenced in 1963 with the offering of a two-year diploma in public welfare. In 1965 the Bachelor of Arts (Social Welfare) degree was initiated, continuing until 1970 when the Bachelor of Social Work was established. The Bachelor of Social Work program is accredited by the Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work (CASSW). The program is accredited to 2010 having received the highest possible accreditation of seven years. The School also offers an undergraduate diploma and graduate degrees at the master and doctoral level.

Social work courses are designed for delivery on a philosophical base of humanism and social justice. This is accomplished in an empowering teaching and learning environment, through the practice of anti-oppression principles, within the context of critical thinking. The curriculum in social work draws upon the substance and analytical processes of the social and behavioural sciences and of the humanities. It reflects Memorial University of Newfoundland and the School of Social Work's traditional commitments to serve the people of Newfoundland and Labrador within a global context.

Additional information regarding the School of Social Work is available at www.mun.ca/socwrk/home/.

Students must meet all regulations of the School of Social Work in addition to those stated in the general regulations. For information concerning fees and charges, admission/readmission to the University, and general academic regulations (undergraduate), refer to UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS.

1.1 Vision

The School of Social Work strives to strengthen human relationships and promote social justice through academic excellence.

1.2 Mission

The School of Social Work promotes social justice by providing social work education, conducting scholarly inquiry, disseminating knowledge and contributing to public policy and practice thereby addressing the needs and aspirations of the local and global communities with whom we collaborate and interact.

2 Description of Programs

All courses of the School are designated by the abbreviation SCWK.

2.1 Bachelor of Social Work

The Bachelor of Social Work is a full-time program comprised of course work and two internships. The degree qualifies graduates for beginning professional practice in social work settings. The objectives of the undergraduate program are to prepare students to: promote social justice and social well being and creatively challenge oppression; acquire and apply knowledge, skills, values, professional ethics and critical thinking abilities; recognize limitations and strengths as a beginning social work practitioner; integrate reflexively critical self-awareness; assume leadership in collaboration and interdisciplinary practice; utilize and participate in innovative and traditional inquiry and research models; creatively practice with diverse individuals and collectives; promote and critique the social work profession on, regional, provincial, national and global levels; commit to the process of lifelong learning; participate collaboratively and respectfully in innovative teaching and learning processes; and address issues of transition and crisis in diverse contexts (individuals, families, communities, formal organizations and society).

The aim of the program is to develop social workers with generically based skills for working with individuals, families, communities, and groups. Students receive an education which prepares them to work in urban centres and rural settings. A special emphasis is placed on the importance of identifying local needs and developing the means of meeting these needs in the context of available resources.

There is a residency regulation requiring students to take specific courses on the St. John's campus. Although the majority of courses are taught on-campus, selected courses are occasionally taught by distance delivery, which uses a variety of teaching methods including web-based format, traditional correspondence (reading packages, mailed assignments), and teleconference.
The School of Social Work has undertaken a major re-design of the Bachelor of Social Work program whereby students will be considered for formal entry to the new program starting in Fall of 2009 in accordance with the admission requirements and regulations detailed under Admission/Readmission Regulations for the Bachelor of Social Work Program, Admission Requirements.

Students formally admitted or readmitted to the Bachelor of Social Work program prior to Fall 2009 and who intend to complete the requirements of the degree as in effect at the time of their acceptance are required to complete their program no later than April 30, 2011. Social Work courses applicable to this program will be phased out as the corresponding year of the revised program is introduced. Only the Social Work courses associated with the revised program will be available after April 30, 2011.

2.1.1 Social Work Internships
- In addition to their course work, students are required to complete two supervised internships.
- Although consideration will be given to all factors affecting the location and type of internship, the final decision regarding placement rests with the School.
- Students are responsible for all costs associated with internships including travel and accommodation.
- Placements for most students will include residence in a location away from urban centres.

2.2 Diploma in Social Work
Pending availability of resources, a program leading to the Diploma in Social Work may be designed for groups of students with particular needs. Admission of individual students to a diploma program is competitive and selective. Groups can obtain information about diploma programs by contacting the Director of the School of Social Work.

3 Admission/Readmission Regulations for the Bachelor of Social Work Program
The School of Social Work has undertaken a major re-design of the Bachelor of Social Work program. Students will be considered for formal entry to the new program starting in the Fall of 2009 in accordance with the Admission requirements and regulations detailed under Admission Requirements.

In addition to meeting the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS students must meet the admission/readmission regulations for the School of Social Work.

3.1 General Information
1. Entry to the program is competitive for a limited number of placements.
2. Selection of candidates will be based on academic standing, relevant work/volunteer experience, and personal suitability for a career in social work. The School reserves the right to deny admission/readmission to any student, if in the judgment of the Admissions Committee the student is deemed unsuitable for admission/readmission to the program.
3. The School may, at its discretion, give preference to applicants with special needs, provided that they have met the minimum grade and course requirements for admission to the program.
4. Students applying for readmission must meet all admission and promotion requirements of the School of Social Work.

3.2 Application Forms and Deadlines
1. All programs of the School commence in the Fall semester. The deadline for application for admission is March 1. Students are encouraged to submit their applications as early as possible.
2. Applications received after the deadline, and incomplete applications will not be considered.
3. Application forms are available in person from the School and the Office of the Registrar. Application forms may be obtained by writing the School of Social Work, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL, A1C 5S7 or the Office of the Registrar, Admissions Office, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL, A1C 5S7.
4. Applicants for readmission to the School of Social Work must submit a School of Social Work application to the Office of the Registrar by March 1 for Fall semester readmission, February 1 for Spring semester readmission, and October 1 for Winter semester readmission. Applications received after these deadlines will be considered only if a place is available in the School of Social Work.
5. All applications for admission or readmission must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar. A complete application package includes an application to the University (for those who have not attended Memorial University of Newfoundland in the two preceding semesters), an application to the School and any other required documentation.
3.3 Admission Requirements

Students formally admitted to the Bachelor of Social Work program in Fall 2008 will be considered for admission in accordance with admission regulations in effect in 2007 and will complete the Bachelor of Social Work program requirements as outlined under Program Regulations, Program of Study for Students Formally Admitted/Readmitted Prior to Fall 2009.

1. To be considered for admission to the Bachelor of Social Work program in Fall 2009, applicants must have completed the 30 credit hours outlined below with an average of at least 65%. These courses and credits must have been taken at Memorial University of Newfoundland or accepted for transfer credit from a recognized university or university college. The 30 credit hours are:
   - six credit hours in English
   - Psychology 1000 and 1001
   - Sociology 1000 or 2000
   - Social Work 1710 (or the former 2700)
   - 12 credit hours in non-social work elective courses. No more than 6 of these credit hours can be taken from areas other than arts and science.

2. In addition to other criteria used in the selection process, applicants for admission will be ranked according to their academic performance, which will be based on the cumulative average, together with the average on the last 30 credit hours for which a grade was given and the overall average on the 30 prerequisite credit hours noted above. Applicants for admission who have satisfied academic admission requirements in effect prior to 2008 - 2009 will be ranked using the better of:
   - the academic performance as calculated using the above criteria, OR
   - the academic performance as calculated using the cumulative average, together with the average on the last 30 credit hours for which a grade was given and the overall average on the 45 credit hours formerly prescribed for admission consideration.

3. Successful candidates completing courses during the spring semester will be required to meet the Academic Requirements and Promotion Regulations of the School of Social Work.

4. A student will not be considered for admission if he/she has attempted and failed to receive a grade of 65% or higher in two or more SCWK courses or has failed to receive a grade of 65% or higher in the same social work course twice.

3.4 Acceptance Procedures for Admission

1. Applicants will normally be notified of admission decisions by May 15. Approved applicants to the School of Social Work will be admitted in Fall semester only.

3.5 Readmission Requirements

In addition to requirements specified in Admission/Readmission Regulations for the Bachelor of Social Work Program, applicants for readmission to the Bachelor of Social Work program will be assessed for eligibility in accordance with Academic Requirements and Promotion Regulations and contingent upon availability of a seat in the semester for which readmission is sought.
4 Program Regulations

1 General Information and Regulations Governing All Graduate Students

The graduate degrees of Doctor of Philosophy, Master of Applied Social Psychology (Co-operative), Master of Arts, Master of Business Administration, Master of Education, Master of Engineering, Master of Music, Master of Nursing, Master of Philosophy, Master of Physical Education, Master of Science, Master of Science in Kinesiology, Master of Science in Medicine, Master of Science in Pharmacy and Master of Social Work are awarded by the University. Graduate diplomas are offered in Clinical Epidemiology, Community Health and Humanities, Fisheries Resource Management, Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education) and Post Masters Nurse Practitioner.

Interdisciplinary study is encouraged by the University, and prospective applicants should make enquiries about their interests from all the areas of study concerned. Interdisciplinary programs offered are: Master of Applied Science (Computer Engineering, Environmental Engineering and Applied Science, and Environmental Systems Engineering and Management), Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in Ethnomusicology, Master of Employment Relations, Master of Environmental Science, Master of Marine Studies, Master of Oil and Gas Studies, Master of Science (Aquaculture), Master of Science (Computational Science), Master of Science (Computational Science - Co-operative), Master of Science (Environmental Science), Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy (Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology), Doctor of Philosophy (Theoretical Physics), Master of Philosophy (Humanities), Master of Women's Studies and Doctor of Philosophy (Interdisciplinary).

Additional information regarding the School of Graduate Studies is available at www.mun.ca/sgs/home/.

Note: Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the General Regulations, the Degree Regulations and any additional requirements of the appropriate Department.

1.1 Definition and Explanation of Terms Used in this Calendar

1.1.1 Special/Selected Topics Courses

Where a block of courses has been approved under a general heading such as selected topics, special areas, directed readings or like heading, each new course offered from that block of courses shall be approved in advance by the Faculty/School Council (or delegated Graduate Studies Committee). To ensure an orderly use of the courses and non-duplication between course numbers, titles and contents, the Council (or Committee) shall require the same quality and type of information as is needed for the approval of a regular course. (Consult the School of Graduate Studies or Deputy Registrar for administrative procedures.)

1.1.2 Dean of Graduate Studies

In all regulations following, reference to "the Dean" refers specifically to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

1.1.3 Credit Hour

A credit hour is the measure used to reflect the relative weight of a given course towards the fulfillment of appropriate degree, diploma, certificate, major, minor, or other program requirements. Normally, a course has a credit value of 3 credit hours. A weight of one credit hour normally means that the course meets for lectures one hour per week for the duration of a semester or two hours per week for the duration of a session. The number of hours of required instruction, outside of lecture time, such as laboratory instruction, tutorials, etc. may or may not impact on the number of credit hours assigned to a particular course and academic units may recommend to the Senate a greater or lesser whole number of credit hours for a particular course.

1.1.4 Graduate Course

1. A graduate course comprises a unit/units of work in a particular subject normally extending through one semester, the completion of which carries credit toward the fulfillment of the requirements for a postbaccalaureate degree, diploma or certificate.
2. Accelerated courses are not normally permissible in graduate programs.
3. Courses required as part of a graduate student's program are known as program courses. Tuition for such courses is covered by the semester fee.
4. Courses which are not required as part of a graduate student's program are known as non-program courses. Students registering for such courses will be required to pay the appropriate per-course fee.

1.1.5 Policy Governing the Auditing of Courses

1. In order to audit any course, an individual must receive permission from the instructor in that course, the Supervisor/advisor and the administrative Head of the unit in which the course is offered. Matters to be considered shall include class size, impact on students registered for credit and other factors judged relevant by the academic unit; and permission cannot be given until the number of registrations for credit is known.
2. Individuals auditing courses shall limit their participation to that deemed appropriate by the instructor; auditors are not permitted to write formal examinations, nor to have their work formally assessed.
3. Students who require a testamur of audition may request the same from the instructor of the course. Students will not register for audit courses nor will a record of audit courses appear on students' transcripts.

1.1.6 Semester

A semester means a period of approximately 14 consecutive weeks during which the University is in regular session and in which period there are at least 12 teaching weeks as defined by the Senate. Normally the Fall semester commences in early September, the Winter semester in early January, and the Spring semester in early May.
1.1.7 Academic Year
The academic year is from September 1 of one year to August 31 of the following year.

1.1.8 Graduate Student
A graduate student is one who has been admitted to a graduate degree or a graduate diploma program.
A full-time graduate student is one who registers as such, devotes full time to his or her academic program and may not commit more than 24 hours a week working time, including teaching assistant or research assistant duties, to matters other than the degree program.
A part-time graduate student is one who is registered for the duration of a semester and is not classified as full-time.

1.1.9 Visiting Research Student
1. A student who is registered in good standing in a graduate program at another recognized institution who comes to Memorial University of Newfoundland to conduct research under the supervision of Memorial University of Newfoundland faculty members is considered to be a visiting research student. In order to obtain access to University resources, and where applicable, a study permit, such a student will be required to register each semester of their visit for GRAD 9900 using a Course Change Form.
2. To be eligible to register, a visiting research student must submit an Application for Admission form to the School of Graduate Studies, accompanied by: a) a letter from their home institution verifying graduate student status, and b) a letter from the host faculty member confirming the duration of the visit. The student will then be admitted to the School of Graduate Studies to a "non-degree" program.
3. Visiting research students will be exempt from tuition fees. However, all international students will be required, as a condition of registration, to purchase health insurance (contact the International Student Advisor). If a visiting research student wishes to register for a course while at Memorial University of Newfoundland, s/he must meet the University admission requirements and pay the undergraduate per course fee as indicated under the UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Fees and Charges in the University Calendar.

Note: A student enrolled in a graduate program at another university who wishes to complete courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland for transfer to their university of origin or of citizenship status, applicants will be required to demonstrate proficiency in the English language. This demonstration may take one of the following forms:

1.1.10 Program
1. A program, whether it comprises courses only, courses and comprehensive examination, or courses, internship, project, thesis research, paper folio is defined for each graduate student in accordance with Departmental and University Regulations. Each program of study is recommended by the appropriate academic unit, and must be approved in writing by the Dean of Graduate Studies before the beginning of the graduate student’s second year of study.
2. Responsibility for the administration of the program shall rest with the Dean acting on behalf of the School.

Note: The following general statements concerning admission and Degree requirements should be supplemented by the detailed regulations governing each program.

1.2 General Regulations

1.2.1 Qualifications for Admission

1.2.1.1 Graduate Diploma Programs
To be considered for admission to a Graduate Diploma program, the minimum requirements will normally be a second-class degree from a university of recognized standing, in an appropriate area of study.
A candidate admitted to a Graduate Diploma program, who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Faculty/School/Department concerned their ability to pursue research at the master's level, may be permitted subsequently to transfer his/her candidature to that of a master's in the affiliated program area and will thereafter be awarded only the master's at the end of his/her candidature.

1.2.1.2 Master’s Program
To be considered for admission to a Master's program, the minimum requirements will normally be a second-class degree from a university of recognized standing, in an appropriate area of study.

1.2.1.3 Ph.D. Program
To be considered for admission to a Ph.D. program, the minimum requirements will normally be a Master's degree from a university of recognized standing, in an appropriate area of study.
Other students may be considered for admission to a Ph.D. program provided that:
1. they have been registered in a Master's program for a minimum of 12 months, and have demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Faculty/School/Department concerned their ability to pursue research at the Doctoral level. Such transfer should take place no later than the 5th semester of the student's Master's program as indicated under UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS - Fees and Charges in the University Calendar; or
2. they hold a Bachelor's Degree with Honours, or equivalent, from a university of recognized standing, and that the Faculty/School/Department is satisfied of the students' ability to pursue research at the Doctoral level.

1.2.1.4 Applicants Not Meeting Qualifications
Only in exceptional circumstances, and only upon the recommendation of the Faculty/School/Department concerned, will the Dean consider applicants who do not meet the requirements in 1. or 2. above.

1.2.1.5 English Proficiency Requirements
Since English is the primary language of instruction at this University, all applicants seeking admission to the School of Graduate Studies must possess an adequate knowledge of written and spoken English as a prerequisite to admission. Regardless of country of origin or of citizenship status, applicants will be required to demonstrate proficiency in the English language. This demonstration may take one of the following forms:
1. Successful completion of the equivalent of three years of full-time instruction in an English language secondary institution as recognized by Memorial University of Newfoundland including successful completion of at least two courses in English Language and/or Literature at the Grade XII (or equivalent) level. Please note that these courses must be other than English as a Second Language (E.S.L.) courses.

2. Successful completion of a baccalaureate degree from a recognized University where English is the language of instruction and from which transfer of credit may be allowed by Memorial University of Newfoundland.

3. Successful completion of a post-graduate degree program at a recognized University where English is the language of instruction and from which transfer of credit may be allowed by Memorial University of Newfoundland.

4. Submission of official results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a paper-based score of 550 (or higher)/computer-based score of 213 (or higher) or Internet-based with a score of 80 (or higher) and the Test of Written English (TWE) with a score of 4 (or higher).

5. Submission of the official results of the Michigan Test of English Proficiency with a score of 85% (or higher).

6. Submission of the official results of the English Language Testing Service (ELTS) Test with an average band score of 6.5 or higher.

7. Submission of official results of the Carleton Academic English Language (CAEL) Assessment with a minimum score of between 50 and 60 in each of four bands, with at least 2 band scores of 60.

8. Submission of official results of the Canadian Test of English for Scholars and Trainees (CanTEST) with a Band Level 4.5 in the listening comprehension and reading comprehension sub-tests and a score of 4 in writing.

9. Only in exceptional circumstances and only upon the recommendation of the Department/Faculty/School concerned, will the Dean consider applicants who do not meet one of the requirements listed in 1-8 above.

1.2.1.6 Additional Requirements

Particular Departments/Faculties/Schools may require greater strength in English communicative skills than is indicated by the achievement of minimum scores outlined in 4., 5., 6., 7., and 8. above. Any such additional requirements are detailed in the appropriate section of the Calendar.

1.2.1.7 English Language Requirements Subsequent to Admission

1. Students who have been admitted under English Proficiency Requirements, Clauses 4. - 8. above, will be required to take an English language placement test on arrival at Memorial University of Newfoundland. On the basis of the test results, students may be required to complete successfully a course of language study designed to bring their English, in any or all of listening, speaking, reading, and writing, to a level required for graduate studies. A final assessment of the students' proficiency in these areas will normally be made no later than the end of the third semester following their first registration in the School of Graduate Studies. As a result of this assessment, and in consultation with the student's academic unit and the Department of English Language and Literature, there may be a recommendation for termination of the student's program.

2. Notwithstanding Additional Requirements above, if a student's Department is not satisfied with the student's ability to communicate in English, then the student may be required to complete successfully the relevant component(s) of the course of study referred to in Additional Requirements. The Department will be required to take this action within three semesters of the student's admission to a graduate program. At the end of this period the Department may recommend, but not require this procedure.

Note: Information regarding the TOEFL program is available from the Educational Testing Service, Box 899, Princeton, New Jersey, U.S.A., 08540; from U.S. embassies or consulates, or from offices of the U.S. Information Services. Information on the Michigan Test of English may be obtained from the Testing and Certificate Service, University of Michigan, 2001 North University Building, Ann Arbor, Michigan, U.S.A. Information regarding the ELTS Test is available from the offices of the British Council, 10 Spring Gardens, London, SW1A 2BN, England.

1.2.1.8 Foreign Degree Transcripts

Students who have completed undergraduate programs at universities which issue documents in languages other than English or French shall submit notarized English translations of all supporting documentation, including, but not limited to, transcripts, degrees, and diplomas.

1.2.2 Procedure for Admission

1. Application for admission to graduate studies must be made either online or on the appropriate form in duplicate to the School of Graduate Studies. The application must be supported by an official transcript of the applicant's university record. If the applicant is a graduate of another university or college, a copy of the Calendar of that institution must be included upon request.

Most graduate programs have September start dates; however, some programs accept students for January and/or May admission. Deadlines for submission of applications can be as early as November for the following September; therefore, applicants should inquire about program start dates and application deadlines of the academic program of interest (see www.mun.ca/sgs). Non-Canadian applicants should allow four to six months for processing of official documents with Immigration authorities.

2. Admission to graduate studies shall be upon acceptance by the Dean after assessment of the qualifications of the applicant but no candidate will be admitted unless the academic unit of specialization recommends acceptance along with a proposed program of study and a proposed Supervisor or advisor or, where appropriate, a tutor. Successful applicants will be notified by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

3. The applicant may be required to appear for an interview before a final offer of admission is made.

4. It is recommended that the applicant refer to the appropriate section of this Calendar to ascertain if additional testing information or documentation is required when making initial application, e.g., in Social Work, Business Administration, Engineering and Applied Science, History, and Music.

5. The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant.

1.2.3 Registration

1.2.3.1 Program Registration

1. All graduate students must be registered in each semester for the graduate program registration appropriate to their discipline (see note) until all academic requirements for the degree have been met, except during periods for which leaves of absence have been granted (see Leaves of Absence).

Note: e.g., Linguistics 9000, Chemistry 9000 or, in the case of Medicine, Medicine 9900.

2. A student registered in a graduate diploma, Master's or Ph.D. program may not concurrently pursue studies leading to any other
1.2.3.2 Program Withdrawal
Students intending to withdraw from their program must inform the Dean of Graduate Studies in writing. The period of withdrawal from a program without incurring liability for that semester's fees is three weeks after the first day of lectures in the semester in question, as stated in the University Diary. Requests received after the end of the regular registration period, and approved, will be charged an administration fee (see Fees and Charges).

1.2.3.3 Course Registration
Note: For interdisciplinary programs, the Head of the academic unit is the Dean or Director of the Faculty/School administering the program.
1. Students will register for courses at the times indicated in the University Diary.
2. Students not admitted to a graduate program may enroll in graduate courses with the permission of the Head of the appropriate academic unit.

1.2.3.4 Changes in Course Registrations
Note: For interdisciplinary programs, the Head of the academic unit is the Dean or Director of the Faculty/School administering the program.
1. Within two weeks following the first day of lectures in any semester, as stated in the University Diary, a graduate student may, upon the approval of the appropriate Head of academic unit, add a course or courses to his or her registration for that semester.
2. Within seven weeks after the first day of lectures in any semester, as stated in the University Diary, a graduate student may, upon the approval of the appropriate Head of academic unit, drop a course or courses from his or her registration for that semester without prejudice.
3. After the period described in 2. above has expired, and up until the last day of lectures, any student who is prevented from completing a course by illness, bereavement or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated in writing may, upon the recommendation of the Head of the appropriate academic unit, drop that course without academic prejudice.

1.2.3.5 Period of Study
1. Each student in graduate studies shall spend such time in the program as decided by the academic unit of specialization and approved by the Dean, and be subject to the following minimum residency.
   a. Except where provided for elsewhere in this calendar, each student for a Master's Degree shall normally spend at least two semesters in residence as a graduate student at this University.
   b. Except where provided for elsewhere in this calendar, each student for a Ph.D. shall normally spend at least three semesters in residence as a graduate student at this University.

   To be resident as a graduate student of this university a student must be registered as a graduate student at Memorial University of Newfoundland and participate in a community of learners and instructors (formally or informally) who are joined together by the practices and standards of a profession or an academic discipline. For most students this will involve taking courses or engaging in research while resident on campus. These attributes may, however, be found elsewhere and it is possible therefore that the residency requirement may be satisfied in an off campus location. In such cases the Dean of Graduate Studies must be satisfied that the attributes are met.
   c. Except where provided for elsewhere in this calendar, each student for a graduate diploma shall normally spend at least one semester in residence as a graduate student at this University.
2. The maximum period of a graduate program shall be seven years beyond first registration.

1.2.3.6 Leaves of Absence
1. General
   a. A leave of absence is a period of time during which a student is not required to register; no fees are assessed; and the time granted is not counted in the maximum time period permitted for a graduate program (see Period of Study).
   b. In the event that circumstances prevent a student from pursuing his/her program, the student may apply to the Dean of Graduate Studies for a leave of absence.
   c. A student may normally apply for only one leave of absence during his/her program. The maximum leave of absence shall normally not exceed 12 months.
   d. An application for leave will normally be made before the end of the registration period in the first semester for which leave is requested. Requests received after the end of the regular registration period, and approved, will be charged an administration fee (see Fees and Charges).
2. Parental
   A student may apply for a leave of absence in the case of pregnancy/birth/adoption of a child. (Such leave will be considered separately from 1.c. above).

1.2.4 Program Requirements
Note: Every candidate shall complete a program of study as recommended by the Head of the academic unit, in consultation with the Supervisory Committee and approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies. See Procedure For Admission, Clause 2.

1.2.4.1 Graduate Diploma and Master's Programs
1. Candidates should consult the appropriate Degree and Department/Faculty/School regulations for information concerning the specific program requirements.
2. Graduate diploma programs shall not normally comprise more than 50% of the master's in the same area.

1.2.4.2 Ph.D. Program
1. Each candidate is required to pass a comprehensive examination (see Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination).
2. Each candidate shall present a thesis embodying the results of original research.
3. Candidates should consult the appropriate Department/Faculty/School regulations for information concerning the number and specific credit hours that may be required for a program.

4. Candidates may pursue a specified part of their research elsewhere provided that prior permission has been obtained from the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of the academic unit in consultation with the Supervisory Committee.

1.2.4.3 English Writing Requirement

Given the analytical and scholarly demands of study at the graduate level, graduate students are expected to demonstrate an advanced facility with written English in meeting the demands of their coursework and, where applicable, in the writing of any end-of-program research report, folio, comprehensive examination, or thesis.

1.2.4.4 Changes in Programs

Any changes in the candidate's program of studies must be approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the appropriate academic unit.

1.2.4.5 Research Involving Animals

The Animal Care Unit offers a seminar in animal care at least once annually. The seminar is administered by the School of Graduate Studies. All graduate students whose degree requirements involve experimentation on living vertebrate animals are required to attend this seminar normally at the first offering following commencement of their program.

1.2.4.6 Graduate Research Integrity Requirement

All graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Research Integrity Program (GRIP), which is administered by the School of Graduate Studies and offered annually in the Winter semester. Successful completion of GRIP is normally required in the first offering following program commencement and will be annotated on the student's transcript.

1.2.4.7 Year of Degree and Departmental Regulations

1. A student completing a graduate degree program in the School of Graduate Studies will follow the degree and Faculty/School/Department regulations in effect in the year in which the student first registers for his/her current program. However, students may elect to follow regulations introduced subsequent to their initial registration.

Note: The foregoing notwithstanding, in the case of students who have submitted a thesis/report/folio, or students in a non-thesis program who have taken a comprehensive examination, the option of changing regulations is no longer available.

2. When there is doubt as to which degree or Departmental regulations may be followed, the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies will decide which are the appropriate regulations.

3. Notwithstanding these guidelines, the University may place limits on the time permitted to complete a program under any given set of regulations. In addition, detailed scheduling of courses and/or work periods may be changed as the University deems appropriate or necessary.

1.2.4.8 Transfer of Course Credits

All such transfers require the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Head of the appropriate academic unit.

1. A student who has successfully completed graduate courses at Memorial University of Newfoundland prior to admission to a graduate program may apply to transfer appropriate courses to that program, provided such courses have not been used to satisfy other Degree requirements.

2. A student who has successfully completed graduate courses as part of one graduate program at Memorial University of Newfoundland, and who is subsequently admitted to another program, may apply to transfer appropriate courses to the current program, provided such courses have not been used to satisfy other Degree requirements.

3. A student who has successfully completed graduate courses at another institution recognized by Senate may, on admission to a graduate program at Memorial University of Newfoundland, apply to transfer appropriate courses to the current program, provided such courses have not been used to satisfy other Degree requirements.

4. Students who successfully complete a graduate diploma program may transfer the course credits earned in that program towards a master’s degree if these credits meet the requirements of the master's in the affiliated area in which the graduate diploma was granted.

Affiliated Master's programs for graduate diploma programs currently offered by the School of Graduate Studies are as follows:

Medicine
- Graduate Diploma in Clinical Epidemiology - Master of Science in Medicine (Clinical Epidemiology)
- Graduate Diploma in Community Health - Master of Science in Medicine (Community Health)

Education
- Graduate Diploma in Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education) - Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies)

Marine Studies
- Graduate Diploma in Fisheries Resource Management - Master of Marine Studies (Fisheries Resource Management)

5. In programs requiring a minimum of 12 credit hours or more, transfer of credit hours in graduate courses referred to in 1, 2, and 3 above shall not exceed 30% of the total number of credit hours required. In programs requiring fewer than 12 credit hours, a maximum of 3 credit hours in graduate courses referred to in 1, 2, and 3. above shall be considered eligible for transfer.

6. Graduate courses referred to in 1, 2, 3., and 4. above shall not be considered eligible for transfer if they have been completed more than seven years prior to the date of admission into the current program.

1.2.5 Provision for Waiver of Regulations

Academic regulations notwithstanding, the University reserves the right in special circumstances, to modify, alter or waive any regulation in its application to individual students where, in the judgement of the appropriate University Officer or Committee, there is sufficient justification for doing so.

1. Waivers of course prerequisites/co-requisites may be granted by the Head of an academic unit.
2. Requests for waiver of a degree or general regulation must be submitted to the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies.

1.2.6 Appeals Procedures

Students have the right to appeal against decisions of the Head of an Academic Unit, the Dean or Academic Council. Appeals must be made in writing clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed as follows:

1. Appeals against decisions of the Head of an Academic Unit will be made directly to the Dean of Graduate Studies.
2. Appeals against decisions of the Dean may be made to the Academic Council, School of Graduate Studies. Letters of appeal should be directed to the Chair of the Appeals Committee, c/o School of Graduate Studies.
3. Appeals against decisions of the Executive Committee of the Academic Council may be made to the Academic Council, School of Graduate Studies. Letters of appeal should be directed to the Chair of the Appeals Committee, c/o School of Graduate Studies.
4. Appeals against decisions of Academic Council may be made to the Senate of the University. Letters of appeal should be directed to the Secretary of Senate, c/o Office of the Registrar.

Note: Students whose appeals are denied will be advised in the letter of denial of the next avenue of appeal that may be taken. Should a student's appeal be denied by the Senate, he/she will be advised that, within the University, no further appeal is possible. For assistance in the appeals process, students are advised to consult with the Office of the Registrar, regarding appeals to Senate.

1.2.7 Evaluation

Note: For interdisciplinary programs, the Head of the academic unit is the Dean or Director of the Faculty/School administering the program.

1.2.7.1 Evaluation Methods and Grading

1. Students shall write their examinations in graduate courses at a time to be determined by the Head of the academic unit on the recommendation of the Faculty member(s) concerned.
2. A written copy of the course outline, including method of evaluation in the course shall be provided to each student in the course as early as possible, and in any case not later than two weeks after the start of the course.
3. The final evaluation submitted to the Registrar shall consist of one of the following letter grades with the appropriate numerical equivalent:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grades</th>
<th>Numeric Grades</th>
<th>Points Per Credit Hour</th>
</tr>

1.2.7.2 Evaluation of Graduate Students

1. Failure to attain a final passing grade of A or B in a program course shall lead to termination of a student's program unless:
   a. the regulations for a particular degree allow the student to repeat the course. Only one such repeat will be permitted in a student's program. Failure to obtain a grade of A or B in the repeated course shall lead to termination of the student's program.
   b. the Dean of Graduate Studies approves a repeat of the course, upon the recommendation of the Supervisor and the Supervisory Committee supported by the Head of the Academic Unit, where 1.a. above does not apply. Such recommendations must provide sufficient grounds for a repeat. Only one such repeat will be permitted in a student's program. Failure to obtain a grade of A or B in the repeated course shall lead to termination of the student's program.

   Note: In exceptional circumstances, the Dean of Graduate Studies may approve a substitute course in place of the repeat upon the recommendation of the Supervisory Committee and Supervisor supported by the Head of the Academic Unit. Failure to obtain a grade of A or B in the substituted course shall lead to termination of the student's program.

2. Failure in a non-program course will not normally result in termination of a student's program.
3. The Supervisor and the Supervisory Committee may recommend that a candidate be required to withdraw from the program, if after consultation with the candidate, the candidate's non-coursework is deemed to have fallen below a satisfactory level.
4. When Departmental requirements for a degree requires an examination of a candidate's reading knowledge of a language(s) other than English, the examination shall be set and marked by the appropriate language Department, or by an authority as determined by the Head of the academic unit and Dean. The results of the examination will be transmitted to the candidate by the Dean.

1.2.7.3 Deferral of Examinations

1. Graduate students who are prevented by illness, bereavement or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated, from writing final examinations may apply, with supporting documents within one week of the original examination date to the appropriate Head of the academic unit to have their examinations deferred.

2. The Department's decision, including information on the appeals route open to the student in the case of a negative decision, must be communicated in writing to the student and to the Dean of Graduate Studies within one week of the receipt of the student's complete application.

3. In those cases where the Department accepts the extenuating circumstances the student may be permitted to write a deferred examination or, with the consent of both the Department and the student, the grade submitted may be based on term work alone.

4. An interim grade of 'ABS' will be assigned by the academic unit in the case of a student granted a deferred examination. This grade will be replaced by the final grade which must be received by the Office of the Registrar within one week following the commencement of classes in the next academic semester or session.

5. Students who are prevented by illness or bereavement or other acceptable cause, duly authenticated, from writing a deferred examination, may apply, in writing, with supporting documents within one week of the scheduled date of the deferred examination to the appropriate Department Head to have the examination postponed to a time not later than the last date for examinations in the semester following that in which the student was enrolled in the course.

6. The Department's decision, including information on the appeals route open to the student in the case of a negative decision, must be communicated to the Registrar, to the student and to the Dean of Graduate Studies within one week of the receipt of the student's complete application.

1.2.7.4 Incomplete Grades/Change of Grade

1. For good cause a grade of 'Incomplete' may, with the approval of the appropriate Department or academic unit, be submitted. This 'Incomplete' grade shall, however, be valid only for one week following the commencement of classes in the next academic session as stated in the University Diary. In the event that a mark has not been received by the Registrar within the prescribed deadline, the 'Incomplete' grade shall be changed to '0 F'.

2. Clause 1. notwithstanding, for acceptable cause an extension of time not exceeding the end of the semester following that in which the 'Incomplete' was given may be permitted by the Head of the academic unit. "Acceptable cause" in these cases must be duly authenticated and will be illness, bereavement, serious problems of a personal nature or the like.

3. Changes in grades for graduate courses must be submitted on the appropriate form, which must be signed by the course instructor and approved by the Head of the appropriate academic unit who will submit such changes to the Registrar.

Note: A grade of less than 65% cannot be changed without the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

1.2.7.5 Re-Reading of Examination Papers

1. Students may apply to have a final examination paper re-read whether or not they have obtained a passing grade in that course.

2. Students who wish to have a final examination paper re-read must make written application to the Registrar enclosing a fee of $50.00 per paper within one month of the release by the University of the grade reports. If the mark is raised after re-reading, the fee is refunded. If the mark is unchanged or lowered, the fee is forfeited.

1.2.8 Comprehensive Examinations

1.2.8.1 Master's Comprehensive Examination

1. The composition of the Comprehensive Examination Committee is specified in the Degree and Departmental regulations, and the Committee is appointed by the Dean. The Dean of Graduate Studies or delegate may exercise the right to attend. All members of the Committee including the Chairperson, but excluding the Dean of Graduate Studies, shall be voting members.

2. In this examination the candidates must demonstrate an advanced knowledge of the academic discipline as defined by the academic unit in which they are students. Therefore, in order to be eligible to sit the examination, all course requirements must be completed.

3. Members of the Comprehensive Examination Committee shall decide the results of the comprehensive examination as indicated in a.-d. below:

a. The category of 'pass with distinction' will be awarded to candidates who demonstrate superior knowledge of their chosen field. This category requires unanimous support of the Comprehensive Examination Committee.

b. The category of 'pass' will be awarded to candidates who demonstrate an acceptable knowledge of their chosen area and requires a simple majority vote.

c. The category of "re-examination" selects those candidates with an understanding of their research area that lacks sufficient depth and scope as indicated by a simple majority of the Comprehensive Examination Committee. Only one such re-examination is possible and students in this category are not eligible for the award of 'pass with distinction'. If a re-examination is to be held, it must be conducted not less than one month and not more than six months after the first examination. The decision of the voting members of the Committee following this re-examination can only be 'pass' or 'fail' decided by simple majority. Failure will lead to immediate termination of the candidate's program. There is no option for further re-examination.

d. Students awarded a "fail" are deemed, by unanimous vote of the Comprehensive Examination Committee, to be unable to demonstrate an adequate understanding of their research area. The candidate's program is terminated. A simple majority vote will default to the award of "re-examination".

4. The Chairperson of the Comprehensive Examination Committee shall report to the Head of the academic unit who shall report to the Dean. The result of the comprehensive examination(s) shall be reported to the candidate by the Dean.

1.2.8.2 Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination

1. The candidate shall submit to a comprehensive examination, which may be written or oral or both as determined by the academic unit. Candidates shall normally take the examination no later than the end of the seventh semester in the doctoral program. Unless an extension is approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies, failure to take the examination at this time will result in the termination of the candidate's program.

2. This examination, whether written or oral, shall be conducted by a Committee appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the academic unit. It shall consist of the Head of the academic unit (or delegate) who shall be the Chairperson, the candidate's Supervisor [or, where a Supervisor has not yet been appointed, the Graduate Officer or Chair of the Graduate Studies (or equivalent) Committee], the Dean of Graduate Studies (or delegate), and at least three other members, the total voting members to be an odd number. All members of the Committee including the Chairperson, but excluding the Dean of Graduate Studies, shall be voting members.
3. In this examination, the candidate must demonstrate a mastery of those sub-disciplines appropriate to his/her research area, as defined by the academic unit in which they are students. Those sub-disciplines upon which the candidate will be examined should be made known to the candidate no later than three months prior to the examination. The candidate must further be able to relate the specialization of his/her research to the larger context of these sub-disciplines.

4. Members of the Comprehensive Examination Committee shall decide the results of the comprehensive examination as indicated in a-d below:
   a. The category of ‘pass with distinction’ will be awarded to candidates who demonstrate superior knowledge of their chosen field. This category requires unanimous support of the Comprehensive Examination Committee.
   b. The category of ‘pass’ will be awarded to candidates who demonstrate an acceptable knowledge of their chosen area and requires a simple majority vote.
   c. The category of ‘re-examination’ selects those candidates with an understanding of their research area that lacks sufficient depth and scope as indicated by a simple majority of the Comprehensive Examination Committee. Only one such re-examination is possible and students in this category are not eligible for the award of ‘pass with distinction’. If a re-examination is to be held, it must be conducted not less than one month and not more than six months after the first examination. The decision of the voting members of the Committee following this re-examination can only be ‘pass’ or ‘fail’ decided by simple majority. Failure will lead to immediate termination of the candidate’s program. There is no option for further re-examination.
   d. Students awarded a “fail” are deemed, by unanimous vote of the Comprehensive Examination Committee, to be unable to demonstrate an adequate understanding of their research area. The candidate’s program is terminated. A simple majority vote will default to the award of “re-examination”.

5. The Chairperson of the Comprehensive Examination Committee shall report to the Head of the academic unit who shall report to the Dean. The result of the comprehensive examination(s) shall be reported to the candidate by the Dean.

1.2.9 Supervision

1.2.9.1 Master’s Candidates

Each Master’s candidate shall be assigned a Supervisor by the Dean, on the recommendation of the Head of the academic unit, or the Dean of the faculty concerned.

1.2.9.2 Ph.D. Candidates

1. Each candidate shall be assigned a Supervisor by the Dean, on the recommendation of the Head of the academic unit or the Dean of the faculty concerned.
2. A Supervisory Committee shall be appointed for each candidate by the Dean. The Supervisory Committee shall consist of the Supervisor (co-supervisors) who shall act as Chair, and normally at least two other members. In no circumstances may the Committee membership be fewer than two members. The membership of the Committee shall be nominated by the Head of the Department or the Dean of the faculty concerned, after consultation with the Supervisor and the candidate.
3. The Supervisory Committee shall forward its reports and recommendations to the Dean via the Head of the Department or the Dean of the faculty concerned.

4. The functions of the Supervisory Committee shall be, inter alia:
   a. to decide, in consultation with candidates, the program of study, the subject of research, and the title of the thesis, and to recommend these for approval to the Dean;
   b. to monitor the candidate’s progress in their course programs and their research;
   c. to report at least annually to the Dean on the candidates’ progress and, at the same time, to advise on their continuation in the program; and to make such other reports and recommendations about the candidates to the Dean as it may deem necessary.
   d. to recommend to the Dean, after consultation with the candidates, necessary changes in the program of study, the subject of research, or the title of the thesis;
   e. to recommend to the Head of the academic unit or Dean of the faculty the timing of the comprehensive examination;
   f. to report to the Dean that the thesis is ready for examination by completing a Supervisor Approval Form, which is to accompany the thesis upon its submission to the School of Graduate Studies.
   g. to recommend to the Dean suitable persons to act as members of the Thesis Examining Board.

1.2.9.3 Supervisory Reports

1. At least annually, the Supervisor, Supervisory Committee or the Department shall make evaluations of a student’s progress in a program. Recommendations concerning continuation, amendment, or termination (see Termination of a Graduate Program) of a candidate’s program, are sent to the Dean, who shall take appropriate action. Students shall be advised of the contents of this evaluation and the subsequent recommendation(s).
2. The Supervisor, Supervisory Committee or the Department, shall forward its reports and recommendations to the Dean via the Head of the academic unit or the Dean of the faculty concerned.

1.2.10 Theses and Reports

1.2.10.1 Thesis/Report Guide Supplement

The Thesis/Report Guide Supplement (www.mun.ca/sgs/go/guid_policies/guidelinesIntro.php), approved by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies, provides the details for the examination process, general form and style of the thesis/report, required forms, number of copies, etc., required under this regulation.

1.2.10.2 Submission

1. Candidates must submit the thesis/report at least four months before the University Convocation at which the award of the Degree is expected (see University Diary in current edition of University Calendar for exact date). The School of Graduate Studies does not accept any responsibility for completing the prescribed procedure in time for the nearest Convocation unless theses or reports are submitted by the prescribed dates in any current academic year.
2. A thesis/report may not be submitted until the candidate has fulfilled:
   a. All course requirements, if any
b. All language requirements, if any

c. The comprehensive examination, if required, and

d. All other academic requirements of the academic unit concerned.

1.2.10.3 Evaluation of Master's Theses and Reports

1. Final examiners for the thesis/report will be appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the academic unit. There will be two examiners for a Master's thesis. Examiners shall normally be those who have completed a graduate degree at the doctoral level, including a thesis, in the discipline or cognate area. Those serving as examiners shall not have been involved in the preparation of the thesis/report.

2. Examination of the thesis/report will result in one of the following recommendations by each examiner. The thesis/report is:

a. acceptable without modifications; or

b. acceptable, modifications are required but the thesis does not have to be re-examined*; or

c. unacceptable. The thesis/report requires modification and re-examination; or

d. totally unacceptable - the thesis/report is failed.

*Modifications may include corrections of typographical errors and errors in nomenclature, improvement in phrasing, or rewriting of sections of the thesis/report. Modifications may be indicated in the text or listed separately;

Modifications might include (but are not limited to) the rectification of one or more of the following deficiencies: (1) misinterpretation and/or misuse of the matter covered, omission of relevant materials, unfounded conclusions, illogicality of argument, improper analysis of data and the like; (2) bad writing, (3) unacceptable physical presentation. A detailed list of problems should be included with the report;

A detailed list of the reason(s) for failure must be included in the report.

3. If all examiners recommend that the thesis/report is totally unacceptable, then the thesis will be failed, and shall not be re-examined.

4. If an examiner recommends that the thesis/report is unacceptable, and this recommendation is accepted by the Dean, then the student may apply to the Dean for permission to resubmit the thesis for re-examination in one of the following ways:

a. to submit a modified thesis/report to the original examiners.

b. to submit a modified thesis/report to new examiners.

c. to submit the original thesis/report to an Examination Board to be appointed by the Dean.

5. If a thesis/report is re-examined, the candidate will not be awarded a pass unless all examiners find the thesis acceptable.

6. Under no circumstances may a thesis/report be re-examined more than once.

1.2.10.4 Evaluation of Ph.D. Theses

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy must submit a written dissertation deemed acceptable by the University, and demonstrate their ability to defend their work in a public oral examination. For this reason, the final decision on whether a candidate will be recommended for the award of the degree is made only at the conclusion of the oral examination (see The Examination Process).

1. Responsibilities of the Thesis Examining Board

The work of each candidate will be assessed by a Thesis Examining Board. Its first responsibility is to determine whether the thesis successfully demonstrates the candidate's competence to undertake independent research work. The Board must be satisfied that the work contributes significantly to knowledge in the field of study; that the contribution is of high scholarly merit; that the candidate is aware of the pertinent published literature; that it is written in a satisfactory style; and that it is free from typographical and other mechanical errors. The second responsibility of the Board is to conduct a final oral examination of the candidate and to then recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies whether the candidate should be awarded the Degree.

2. Composition of the Thesis Examining Board

The members of the Thesis Examining Board will be appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of the academic unit who will have consulted with the supervisory committee. The Board shall consist of four members. Normally these will be the candidate's Supervisor (who serves on the Board in a non-voting capacity), two examiners from within the University, and one from outside the University. However, when circumstances warrant, a second external examiner may be substituted for one of the internal examiners with permission of the Dean. Examiners shall normally be those who have completed a graduate degree at the doctoral level, including a thesis, in the discipline or cognate area. Members of the supervisory committee other than the Supervisor are ineligible for appointment to the Board. Those serving as examiners shall not have been involved in the preparation of the thesis/report.

3. The Examination Process

a. The voting members of the Board shall submit written reports on the thesis containing an assessment of the quality of the written work and a recommendation as to whether the candidate should be permitted to proceed to an oral examination and defence of the work. An examiner may recommend:

i. that the candidate be allowed to proceed to the oral defence of the thesis*, or;

ii. that the candidate not be allowed to proceed to the oral defence at this time, or;

iii. that the candidate should be failed.

*Any suggested corrections or revisions should be outlined in the examiner's report. It is understood that it will be the responsibility of the Supervisory Committee to discuss the suggested changes with the candidate, to determine which should be incorporated in the thesis before its final submission.

This recommendation reflects the examiner's opinion that further research, re-analysis of data, or thorough rewriting of the material is required. The thesis may, however, be re-submitted for examination.

b. No candidate will be permitted to re-submit a thesis more than once. If the Dean decides that the thesis must be revised before it can be orally defended (as specified in 3.a.ii.) the resubmitted thesis will be examined by a Board which may differ in whole or in part from the original. In the case of a re-submitted thesis an examiner may recommend only:

i. that the candidate be allowed to proceed to the oral defence of the thesis, or;

ii. that the candidate should be failed.

c. After receiving the reports from all three voting members of the Board the Dean will consider the recommendations and determine whether an oral defence of the thesis will be scheduled.

d. The Final Oral Examination and Defence of Thesis will take place at a time and place to be determined by the Dean of Graduate Studies and will be chaired by the Dean or his/her delegate. The presence of all members of the Examining Board is normally required.

e. Following the defence, the Board will meet in camera to render a final assessment of the thesis and the candidate's ability to defend his/her work. The Board may recommend one of the following outcomes:

i. Passed with distinction (Awarded to candidates who demonstrate superior knowledge of their chosen field; this category requires unanimous support of the Board. A simple majority vote will result in a recommendation of "passed").

ii. Passed

iii. Passed Subject to Conditions

iv. Re-examination required

v. Failed

*This recommendation may have attached to it the requirement that the candidate complete certain specified revisions to the satisfaction of the Supervisory Committee, the Head of the academic unit and the Dean. These revisions must have been specified in the written appraisal submitted prior to the Oral Examination.

This recommendation is made if there are revisions beyond those specified in the written appraisal submitted prior to the Oral Examination. This recommendation must have the conditions attached and cannot include the option of re-examination.

The members of the Thesis Examination Board may attach to this recommendation a list of any requirements which they feel are appropriate.

*Re-examination not permitted.

f. If the members of the Board are unanimous in their recommendation, the Chair of the Examination may accept this recommendation and inform the candidate of the decision. In any other case, however, the delivering of any final decision shall be deferred pending further consultation within the School of Graduate Studies.

g. No candidate shall be permitted more than two Oral Examinations.

1.2.10.5 Time Limit for Revision

The final version of Master's and Ph.D. theses/reports found acceptable with or without corrections shall be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies within 6 months of the date on which the thesis/report and the student's examiners' reports are returned to the student's academic unit. If a corrected thesis/report is not submitted within 6 months the student is considered to have withdrawn from the program. After this time, the student must apply to be readmitted.

Master's and Ph.D. theses/reports requiring re-examination shall be resubmitted to the School of Graduate Studies within 12 months of the date on which the thesis/report and the examiner's reports are returned to the student. Students requiring resubmission and re-examination of theses/reports must maintain their registration during this period. Failure to resubmit the revised thesis/report within 12 months will result in the termination of the student's program.

Note: Please refer to Registration for regulations governing program registration.

1.2.10.6 Prepublication

Publication of material before submission of the thesis/report for examination is permitted. The School of Graduate Studies and Supervisor should be informed of such publication.

1.2.11 Graduation Procedure

Candidates expecting to graduate at any particular Convocation must apply online to the Office of the Registrar at www.mun.ca/regoff/ at least by the time of the submission of the Thesis, Project Report or Internship Report required by their program, or, if applicable, by the date of the final comprehensive examination.

1.2.12 Academic Behaviour

1.2.12.1 Principles

In the course of a graduate degree program students are expected to learn those principles which constitute proper academic behaviour. Within the University Community there is a collective responsibility to maintain a high level of scholarly integrity. Dishonesty has no place in the academic community. Academic misconduct cannot be condoned or even appear to be condoned. Students have the responsibility to ascertain those actions which could be construed as dishonest or improper. Certain flagrant violations are listed below under Academic Dishonesty. Students are reminded that for guidance on proper scholarly behaviour they should seek assistance from their instructors and supervisors. The Graduate Students’ Union will provide students with information on their legal rights and the information that advice about acceptable writing standards is available through the Writing Centre.

1.2.12.2 Academic Dishonesty: Offences

Note: In the following section the plural shall be deemed to include the singular.

Academic offences shall be deemed to include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

1. Cheating: Cheating on examinations, theses, assignments, work term reports, projects, internship reports, or any other tests.

   Cheating includes copying from another student's work or allowing another student to copy from one's own work, consulting with any unauthorized person during an examination or test, or using unauthorized aids; or knowingly recording or reporting false empirical or statistical data. The work referred to includes examinations, theses, assignments, work term reports, projects, internship reports, or any other tests which are to be used in judging the student's performance in a course or program of study, or on any special tests which the University may offer.

2. Impersonation: Impersonating another student or allowing oneself to be impersonated.

   By impersonation is meant the imitation of a student or entrance into an arrangement with another person to be impersonated for purposes of taking examinations or tests or carrying out laboratory or other assignments.

3. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the act of presenting the ideas or works of another as one's own. This applies to all material such as theses, essays, laboratory reports, work term reports, design projects, seminar presentations, statistical data, computer programs and research results. The properly acknowledged use of sources is an accepted and important part of scholarship. Use of such material without acknowledgment, however, is contrary to accepted norms of academic behaviour.

4. Theft of examination papers or other material: By theft is meant obtaining by an improper means examination papers, tests, or any other such material.

5. Use and/or distribution of stolen material: The use of material which the student knows to have been improperly obtained and/or the distribution of such material is considered to be an academic offence.

6. Submitting false information: This offence includes falsifying, submitting or causing to submit false academic transcripts, forms or records, credentials, medical or other certificates, or making a false or incomplete declaration to the University.

7. Submitting work for one course which has been or is being submitted to another course without express permission to do so: This includes the presentation of an essay, report or assignment to satisfy some or all of the requirements of a course when that essay, report, or assignment has been previously submitted or is concurrently being submitted for another course without the express permission of the professor(s) involved.

1.2.12.3 General Procedure

1. When a member of the University community has grounds for belief that an academic offence has been committed, that person will report the matter without delay to the Head of the Department or the appropriate academic officer (i.e., Dean or Director) of the unit in which the offence occurred. In the case of non-academic units, such as the Office of the Registrar, Library and Computing Services, the matter shall be referred through the University Officer in charge of that unit. The student should be informed of the suspicion as soon as possible in an effort to avoid further improper behaviour. There should then be an immediate direct attempt to resolve minor offences between the instructor or Supervisor and the student(s) concerned at the Departmental level. Only if resolution proves impossible, or one party is dissatisfied with the resolution, should the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer become further involved.

2. If, in the judgment of the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer (in consultation with his Dean of Faculty) the alleged offence against University regulations is such as to warrant resolution through the School of Graduate Studies, the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer will refer the matter to the Dean of Graduate Studies, and procedures for resolution by the School of Graduate Studies will be implemented.

3. If, in the judgment of the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer, the offence warrants resolution through Departmental procedures, the individuals involved will be advised to attempt to resolve the matter without proceeding to a formal hearing. In the event that no resolution is possible between the individual parties, the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer will institute proceedings through the School of Graduate Studies. In all cases, it is the responsibility of the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer to ensure that fairness and impartiality are achieved in the treatment of students.

4. The principle of anonymity shall apply. All written documents shall refer to the student by number and the faculty member by letter.

1.2.12.4 Procedure for Departmental Resolution

If, upon receiving a report of an alleged academic offence the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer, decide that an attempt should be made to resolve that matter within the Department the following procedures shall apply:

1. The Department Head or other appropriate academic officer shall request that the accusor and the accused meet with him (or her) and at the meeting the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer shall state the allegation, indicate the range of applicable penalties, and arrange a second meeting between the accusor and the accused only.

2. At the second meeting the parties (accusor and accused) shall endeavour to obtain a mutually satisfactory resolution of the matter.

3. The parties (accusor and accused) shall report jointly to the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer on the result of their second meeting.

4. If the report is of a resolution which the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer considers to be fair and equitable the matter shall be considered closed. If the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer considers the reported resolution to be unfair and/or inequitable he or she will endeavour to obtain an alternative satisfactory resolution directly with the parties.

5. Should all reasonable efforts to obtain a Departmental resolution fail, the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer will refer the case to the Dean of Graduate Studies and shall inform the accusor and the accused accordingly. From this stage onward procedures for resolution by the School of Graduate Studies will apply.

Notes:

1. The accused or accusor may request, during the procedures for an informal resolution, that the case be referred to the Dean of Graduate Studies and thereafter the procedures for resolution by the School of Graduate Studies will apply.

2. Procedures for Departmental Resolution will not be applied to cases involving alleged offences on final examinations.

3. If at any stage of the procedures for either Departmental or Graduate Studies resolution, the accused fails to appear or to respond to a charge, without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification of an allegation, action may be taken on the charge in the absence of the accused.

4. If at any stage of the procedures for either Departmental or Graduate Studies resolution, the accused fails to appear at a scheduled hearing to defend an allegation without reasonable cause, within two weeks of notification by the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer, the action will be dismissed.

1.2.12.5 Procedures for Resolution by the School of Graduate Studies

If the matter cannot be resolved following the Procedure for Departmental Resolution as outlined above, or if the allegation involves a major breach of University regulations, the following procedures shall apply:

1. If the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer (in consultation with the Dean of his faculty) is satisfied that the student has a serious case to answer, he or she shall inform the student in writing of the nature of the case against him or her. In addition, the Department Head or other appropriate academic officer shall report to the Dean of Graduate Studies who shall immediately appoint a disinterested Investigator from the membership of the Academic Council of Graduate Studies. The Investigator will interview separately the accusor and accused and relevant witnesses. At these interviews, the Investigator, the accusor, the accused and relevant witnesses all have the right to be accompanied by a registered student or a member of the Faculty or Staff of the University.

2. Upon completion of these interviews, the Investigator shall submit a written report of all findings to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

3. The Dean of Graduate Studies shall present this report to both the accusor and accused for perusal and comment. Once in receipt of this report, the accusor and accused shall have two weeks in which to submit to the Dean of Graduate Studies any additional comments on the report that he or she wishes to be considered.

4. Upon receipt of all information from the Investigator as well as comments from the accusor and accused, the Dean of Graduate Studies shall strike an ad hoc committee to review the case and make recommendations to the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies. The Investigator may be asked to attend the meetings of the ad hoc committee to answer questions and provide information pertinent to the case, but shall be absent from the formal discussion and voting.

5. The Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies shall take appropriate action in accordance with the section headed "Penalties".
1.2.12.6 Penalties

The imposition of any of the penalties listed below does not preclude further action under the Criminal Code of Canada. A student who has been found guilty of an academic offence shall be subject to a penalty or penalties commensurate with the offence. The range of penalties and their determination is given below. Enforcement of penalties resulting from Procedures for Resolution by the School of Graduate Studies will be overseen by the Registrar. Some cases may warrant more than one penalty for the same offence, and previous academic misconduct will be taken into account in determining penalties. Penalties resulting from Department resolution shall be limited to 1. and 2. Penalties shall be imposed on the basis of the student's status at the time of the offence.

1. Reprimand: This shall be in the nature of a warning by the Department Head, or appropriate academic officer or an appropriate Committee to the student that his/her behaviour has been unacceptable to the University.

2. Reduction of grade: A reduction of grade will apply to an examination, test, or assignment to which an offence is relevant, and will be decided by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Department concerned in the case of a resolution by the School of Graduate Studies, or by a Department Head, or appropriate academic officer in the case of a Departmental resolution. Since graduate students must obtain a B grade in required courses and a pass in additional courses a reduction of grade could lead to revision of program.

3. Probation: The period of probation will be determined by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies. The impact of being placed on probation is that the commission of any further academic offence during the period of probation may lead to suspension or expulsion.

4. Suspension: Suspension will apply to a course, department, faculty, school, or the University. The period of suspension will be determined by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies and shall not exceed three consecutive semesters, and shall be part of the allowable time for a graduate program.

5. Expulsion: The recommendation for expulsion from the University will be made by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies to the President for his/her final decision. Prior to the President's decision, the Secretary of the Academic Council will notify the accused, in writing, of the recommendation for expulsion from the University. The accused will be allowed a period of two weeks following the date of release of such notification to lodge an appeal before the President's final decision concerning expulsion from the University. Any such appeal should be made in writing to the Executive Committee of Senate.

6. Revocation of Degree: The recommendation will be made by the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies that the Senate rescind a degree that has been obtained by submission of fraudulent or plagiarized work.

7. Rescinding of Admission and Degree Revocation: The submission of false information (see Academic Dishonesty Offences) in support of an application for admission to Memorial University of Newfoundland is an Academic Dishonesty Offence. In the event that this offence is discovered after the granting of a degree, the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies may recommend to the Senate that the student's admission be rescinded and that the degree(s) granted to the student be revoked.

In the event that a student has been found guilty of an Academic Dishonesty Offence and when a penalty has been determined, a notation on the student's transcript may be made by the Registrar as provided for in Transcript Entries below.

1.2.12.7 Transcript Entries

Transcript entries shall relate to the penalty(ies) imposed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Penalty</th>

</table>

* The transcript entries for 'probation' or 'suspension' will be removed entirely upon the expiration of the penalty.

1.2.12.8 Disposition of Documentation

The disposition of documents relating to allegations under these procedures shall be as follows:

1. The cases where the allegation was either found "not proven" or "unfounded" no documentation shall be retained.

2. In the case of a resolution effected through the procedures for Departmental resolution, all documentation shall be retained in the office of the relevant Department Head or other appropriate academic officer.

3. In the case of a resolution effected through the procedures for resolution by the School of Graduate Studies all documentation shall be forwarded to the Office of the Registrar.

1.2.12.9 Right of Appeal

Appeals against decisions of the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies made under Procedures for Resolution by the School of Graduate Studies shall be directed to the Executive Committee of Senate.

Notes:

1. These procedures shall apply to all academic offences relating to graduate studies involving, but not limited to, those students who either have been or who are enrolled at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Notification of an allegation of academic dishonesty will be forwarded to the last known mailing address of the student as noted on the files of the School of Graduate Studies. The University reserves the right to implement action under these procedures where an allegation has been made against a student but where reasonable efforts to contact the student have failed.

2. While a student can continue in a program of studies, if eligible, while an investigation under these procedures is being carried out, the University does not accept liability for any consequences to the student's progress including retroactive effect on grades and promotion within a program, arising from an investigation and any negative decision rendered. However, the University may take these consequences into account as appropriate, and to the extent feasible, in cases where charges are dropped or the student is found not guilty.
1.2.13 Termination of a Graduate Program

Grounds for termination of a Graduate Program are as follows:

1. a. Failure to obtain the required grades in courses as stated in the appropriate Degree regulations (see Evaluation);
   b. Failure in comprehensive examinations (see Comprehensive Examinations);
   c. Recommendation of the Supervisory Committee (see Supervision);
   d. Failure of Thesis, Project or Internship (see Theses and Reports);
   e. Failure to register in any semester by the final date for adding courses (see Registration, Program Registration, 1.);
   f. Lack of progress in a program;
   g. Failure to comply with the conditions of admission into a program, unless the conditions of admission have been changed with approval of the academic unit and the School of Graduate Studies;
   h. Academic misconduct as outlined under General Regulation Academic Behaviour governing the School of Graduate Studies.

2. The foregoing notwithstanding the University reserves the right to require students to discontinue their program or to deny them admission where, in the opinion of the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies, following appropriate professional consultation, there is a reasonable likelihood that a student's health or conduct could result in endangering the lives, health or safety of other persons on campus or in settings related to the student's university studies.

3. The foregoing notwithstanding, the School of Graduate Studies reserves the right to require students to discontinue their studies, or to deny them re-admission, where a student has been determined to have engaged in unprofessional conduct. The code of ethics of each profession will serve as the guideline as to what constitutes unprofessional conduct. However, should there not be any statements of what constitutes unprofessional conduct, the following standard will apply:

Unprofessional Conduct: That conduct which involves a breach of the duties required by professional ethics.

Notes: 1. If the University or a School or Faculty requires a student to discontinue his/her studies, that student must be advised of the nature of the case against him/her, must be provided with an opportunity to answer the case against him/her and must be advised of the right to appeal before the penalty imposed takes effect.
   2. Appeals against actions taken under Clause 2. should be directed to the Senate of the University. Any such appeal should be made in writing clearly stating the basis for the appeal and should be directed to the Secretary of Senate, c/o the Office of the Registrar.
   3. Appeals against actions taken under Clause 3. should be directed to the Academic Council of the School of Graduate Studies.

1.2.14 Provision for Reaplication

1. A student whose program of studies has been terminated for any of the reasons outlined under Termination of a Graduate Program may apply for admission to a new program of studies leading to the same degree.

2. Notwithstanding the above, a student whose program of studies has been terminated under Termination of a Graduate Program, i.e., shall be readmitted to the existing program only under the following conditions:

a. on the recommendation of the appropriate academic unit;
   b. on the payment to the University of those registration fees which would have been payable had the student remained in continuous registration during the period since the termination of the program;
   c. on the understanding that the time period during which the student was not registered shall be considered as part of the maximum time permitted for the completion of the degree.

1.2.15 Graduate Diplomas

1. Clinical Epidemiology - See Master of Science in Medicine
2. Community Health and Humanities - See Master of Science in Medicine
3. Fisheries Resource Management - See Master of Marine Studies
4. Health Professional Education - See Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies)
5. Post Masters Nurse Practitioner - See Master of Nursing

2 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Applied Science

The Degree of Master of Applied Science (M.A.Sc.) is a course-based Degree offered in three areas: Computer Engineering, Environmental Engineering and Applied Science, and Environmental Systems Engineering and Management. For information on the research-focused Master of Engineering program, refer to the regulations governing the Degree of Master of Engineering.

2.1 Computer Engineering

2.1.1 Program of Study

1. The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a course-based program in Computer Engineering leading to the Degree of Master of Applied Science in Computer Engineering (M.A.Sc.). The program is available only on a full-time basis.

2. The program is offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and will be administered by a Board of Studies appointed by the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science.

2.1.2 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission to the program is limited and competitive.
2. To be eligible for consideration for admission, applicants will have at least a second class engineering Degree in Computer Engineering, computer science or electrical engineering; they will have background in many of the following areas: object-oriented programming, data structures, digital logic, computer organization, circuits and electronics, systems and signals, communications, discrete mathematics, probability and statistics and engineering design.
3. To be eligible for consideration for admission, applicants will meet the English Proficiency Requirements described under English Proficiency Requirements.
2.1.3 Degree Requirements

1. The degree program requires the completion of 36 credit hours, 6 of which comprise a project course.
   a. Students are required to complete 9801, 9859, 9861, 9865, 9867, 9871, 9874 and 9876.
   b. Three elective courses must be selected; each term the Board of Studies for the program will provide a selection of eligible courses, which may include ENGR 9821, ENGR 9822, ENGR 9868, ENGR 9869, ENGR 9872, ENGR 9875, ENGR 9877, ENGR 9878, 9879, ENGR 9880/83, ENGR 9888/91, CS 6752, CS 6756, PHYS 6102, and others designated by the Board of Studies for the program.

2. Normally students will take courses as shown in Table I. Students wishing to take courses in another sequence must request approval from the Board of Studies for the program.

2.1.4 Evaluation

Students must obtain a grade of at least 65% in all program courses to receive credit for the course towards their program requirements. Any student who fails to receive 65% or more in a course must repeat the course in the case of core courses, or must either repeat or replace the course with another program course in the case of elective courses. Any student who receives a grade of less than 65% in two courses or in a repeated course will be required to withdraw from the program.

Courses
9801 Computer Engineering Project (6 credit hours)
9802/05 Special Topics in Computer Engineering
9806/09 Special Topics in Communications Engineering
9821 Digital Signal Processing
9822 Nonlinear Digital Image Processing and Analysis
9859 Computer Engineering Fundamentals
9861 High-Performance Computer Architecture
9865 Advanced Digital Systems
9867 Advanced Computing Concepts for Engineering
9868 ASIC Design
9869 Advanced Concurrent Programming
9871 Information Theory and Coding
9872 Digital Communications
9874 Software Design and Specification
9875 Embedded and Real-Time Systems Design
9876 Advanced Data Networks
9877 Computer and Communications Security
9878 Wireless and Mobile Communications
9879 Formal Specification and Development
9880-83 Special Topics in Computer Engineering
9889-91 Special Topics in Communications Engineering
Computer Science 6752 Applications of Computer Graphics
Computer Science 6756 Digital Image Processing
Physics 6102 Optics and Photonics

2.2 Environmental Engineering and Applied Science

2.2.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission, applicants shall normally hold a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering or an Honours Degree in Science with at least second class standing, or equivalent from an institution recognized by the Senate or shall have qualifications and/or experience acceptable to the Dean of Graduate Studies and the Board of Studies. The Board of Studies will make recommendations on admission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

2. The Board of Studies will oversee academic aspects of students' programs on behalf of the Faculty Council of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

2.2.2 Program of Study

1. The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a program in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science leading to the Degree of Master of Applied Science (M.A.Sc.). The program is available on a full-time or part-time basis and full-time students will normally complete the program in one year. Admission is open to students with Engineering or Science backgrounds. No financial support will be available to students admitted to the program.

2. The program is offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and will be administered by a Board of Studies appointed by the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science.

3. The Master of Applied Science Degree is a multi-disciplinary, professionally oriented Degree which provides an advanced education for students who are already working, or who intend to work, in the environmental industry.

2.2.3 Degree Requirements

1. To the extent that resources permit, individual programs will be developed to suit students' interests and needs. However, all programs must be approved by the Board of Studies and the Dean of Graduate Studies. All General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies shall apply to this Degree.
2. The Degree program requires the completion of 27 credit hours, 6 of which comprise a project course.
   a. Students are required to complete 960A and 960B.
   b. the remaining courses must be selected so that 6 credit hours are selected from 9601, 9603, 9609, and 9624; 3 credit hours are selected from 9605 and 9621; and 12 credit hours are selected from 9622, 9625, ENVE/ENVS 6000, ENVE/ENVS 6001, ENVE/ENVS 6002, ENVE/ENVS 6003, and Geography 6250.

Courses
960A/B Environmental Engineering Project
9601 Environmental Pollution and Mitigation (cross-listed as ENVS 6004)
9603 Environmental Sampling and Pollutant Analysis (cross-listed as ENVS 6005)
9605 Advanced Wastewater Treatment
9609 Environmental Risk Assessment (same as ENVS 6007)
9610-9615 Special Topics in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science
9621 Soil Remediation Engineering
9622 Environmental Statistics
9624 Air Pollution (same as ENVS 6008)
9625 Environmental Impact of Offshore Operations
ENVE/ENVS 6000 Environmental Science and Technology
ENVE/ENVS 6001 Earth and Ocean Systems
ENVE/ENVS 6002 Environmental Chemistry and Toxicology
ENVE/ENVS 6003 Applied Ecology
Geography 6250 Conservation of Natural Resources

2.3 Environmental Systems Engineering and Management

2.3.1 Program of Study
1. The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a program in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science leading to the Degree of Master of Applied Science in Environmental Systems Engineering and Management (ESEM). The program is available on a full-time basis.
2. The program is offered by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and will be administered by a Board of Studies appointed by the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science.

2.3.2 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission is limited and competitive.
2. To be considered for admission, applicants shall normally hold a Bachelor’s Degree in engineering preferably in civil/environment/chemical/processing/petroleum engineering or equivalent from a recognized university with an aggregate mark of 75% or above.
3. To be eligible for consideration for admission, applicants will meet the English Proficiency Requirements described under General Regulations Qualification for Admission.

2.3.3 Degree Requirements
1. The Degree program requires the completion of 30 credit hours.
   a. 6 credit hours comprising a project course 9600.
   b. 15 credit hours comprised of 9601, 9609, 9626, 9627, and 9628.
   c. 6 credit hours (two courses) to be selected from 9603, 9621, 9622, 9624, 9625, 9629, and 9630, 9605, 9610-9615.
   d. 3 credit hours (one course) from ENVE/ENVS 6001, ENVE/ENVS 6002, ENVE/ENVS 6003, Geography 6250.

2.3.4 Evaluation
Students must obtain a grade of at least 65% in all program courses to receive credit for the course towards their program requirements. Any student who fails to receive 65% or more in a course, must repeat the course in the case of core courses, or must either repeat or replace the course with another program course in the case of elective courses. Any student who receives a grade of less than 65% in two courses or in a repeated course will be required to withdraw from the program.

3 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Applied Social Psychology (Co-operative)

This program is designed to meet the needs of both students and employers. Students will gain the skills and knowledge necessary to ask appropriate questions and conduct research in a variety of applied settings (e.g., business, government, health care, etc.). Students completing the program will be qualified for either immediate employment or further education. Students' and employers' needs will be met by a program that combines training in basic scientific methods and social psychological theory with practical experience in a variety of work settings. The training in methods and theory will be provided by the academic component of the program and the practical experience will be provided by the cooperative, work term component.

3.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission to the program is competitive and selective. To be considered for admission to the Master of Applied Social Psychology (Cooperative) an applicant shall normally hold at least a high second class Honours degree or its equivalent, both in achievement and depth of study, from an institution recognized by the Senate.

2. Applications
   a. All applicants are required to submit results from the General section of the Graduate Record Examinations.
   b. Applicants are required to submit with their applications an example of their academic writing. This could include, but is not limited to, papers submitted in class, honour's thesis, etc.
   c. At least one letter of reference should come from someone who is familiar with the applicant's research capability.

3. Election will be based on an applicant's overall academic performance, scores on the Graduate Record Examinations and letters of reference.

4. Admission to the program shall be upon acceptance by the Dean of Graduate Studies after recommendation by the Head of the Department of Psychology which will include a proposed program of study and a proposed Supervisor.

3.2 Program of Study

1. Students should note that it is possible to enter Academic Term 1 only in the Fall semester commencing in September of each year.

2. Every candidate shall complete four Academic Terms in the Cooperative Program and shall normally be required to complete two Work Terms.

3. Courses shall be taken in Academic Terms of "blocks" in the sequence, order, and course load as follows:
   - Fall: 6402, 6403, Winter: Work term 2, Spring: 6404

3.3 Evaluation and Advancement

1. In order to continue in good standing in the program and in order to qualify for the Master's Degree, a candidate shall obtain a grade of A or B for program courses, and complete two Work Terms.

2. The dates for starting and finishing each Work Term are shown in the University Diary. Successful completion of the Work Term requirements is a prerequisite to graduation.

3. A competition for Work Term employment is organized by the Co-operative Education Services Centre (CESC). Students may also obtain their own Work Term jobs outside the competition. Such jobs must be confirmed by letter from the employer and approved by the Head of Psychology and by the CESC on or before the first day of the Work Term.

   Work Term jobs may be outside St. John's and possibly outside Newfoundland and Labrador. Students who do not wish to accept a Work Term job arranged by CESC shall be responsible for finding an alternative acceptable to the Head of Psychology and the CESC.

4. By entering the competition, students give permission for the CESC to supply their University transcripts to potential employers.

5. The overall evaluation of the Work Term is the responsibility of the CESC. The Work Term evaluation shall consist of two components:
   a. On-the-Job Student Performance:
      i. Job performance shall be assessed by a co-ordinator using information gathered during the Work Term and input from the employer towards the end of the Work Term. Formal written documentation from the employer shall be sought.
   b. The Work Report:
      i. Work term reports shall be evaluated by a member of the CESC or a member of faculty in the Department of Psychology. If an employer designates a report to be of a confidential nature, both employer and co-ordinator must agree as to the methods to protect the confidentiality of such a report before the report may be accepted for evaluation.
      ii. Reports must be prepared according to American Psychological Association specifications and contain original work related to the Work Term placement. The topic must relate to the work experience and will be chosen by the student in consultation with the employer. For promotion from the Work Term, a student must obtain at least 65% in each component.

5. If a student fails to achieve the Work Term standards specified above the student will be required to withdraw from the program.

6. Students are not permitted to drop Work Terms without prior approval of the Graduate Studies Committee of the Department of Psychology, upon the recommendation of the CESC. The Graduate Studies Committee will make a recommendation to the Head of Department who will make the final decision. Students who drop a Work Term without permission, or who fail to honour an agreement to work with an employer, or who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause their discharge from the job, will normally be awarded a failed grade for the Work Term. Permission to drop a Work Term does not constitute a waiver of degree requirements, and students who have obtained such permission must complete an approved Work Term in lieu of the one dropped.

6000 Advanced Statistics in Psychology
6001 Research Design
601W Work Term 1
602W Work Term 2
6400 Theory and Methods in Social Psychology
4 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Applied Statistics

The Degree of Master of Applied Statistics (M.A.S.) is a highly structured program incorporating 18 credit hours in program courses and a practicum in applied statistics. The Degree is offered in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics by full-time or part-time study.

4.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission to the Master of Applied Statistics program, an applicant shall normally hold at least a high second class Honours Degree or its equivalent, both in achievement and depth of study, from an institution recognized by the Senate.

2. In addition, an applicant shall normally have completed undergraduate courses in statistics which cover the material of Statistics 3521, 3530, 4410, 4520, 4560, 4561, 4590, 4591. If necessary, an applicant may be required to demonstrate a satisfactory knowledge of the above courses in an examination administered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

3. Applicants who do not meet these requirements should consult the Department of Mathematics and Statistics about a program of further undergraduate courses. Such a program is intended to provide the candidate with an adequate statistical background. Such courses may not be used to fulfill the program course requirements of the Master of Applied Statistics Degree.

4. Admission to the program shall be upon acceptance by the Dean of Graduate Studies after recommendation by the Head of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics along with a proposed program of study and a proposed Supervisor.

4.2 Program of Study

The minimum requirements for the Degree of Master of Applied Statistics are completion of the following:

1. Six credit hours from the following courses:
   - 6510 Mathematical Statistics
   - 6520 Linear Models
   - 6560 Continuous Multivariate Analysis
   - 6561 Categorical Data Analysis

2. 6590 A course in Statistical Consulting

3. Nine additional credit hours selected from 6503-6589.

4. A practicum: An applied statistics project and an associated report. The report must demonstrate a satisfactory general mastery of statistical knowledge.

4.3 Evaluation

1. In order to continue in graduate studies and in order to qualify for a Master’s Degree, a candidate shall obtain an A or B for program courses and complete successfully the practicum requirement.

2. Statistics 6590 will be evaluated by the course co-ordinator in consultation with associated statistical consultants.

3. Evaluation of the practicum shall follow that of Masters Theses and Reports in Graduate Studies General Regulations.

Note: Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the General Regulations, the Degree Regulations and any additional requirements of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

Mathematics

- 6100 Dynamical Systems
- 6101 Modern Perturbation Theory
- 6102-6119 Special Topics in Applied Mathematics
- 6104 Infinite Dimensional Dynamical Systems
- 6120 The Theoretical Fluid Dynamics
- 6121 Functional Differential Equations
- 6130 Introduction to General Relativity
- 6160 Partial Differential Equations
- 6212 Numerical Methods for Initial Value Problems
- 6201 Numerical Methods for Partial Differential Equations
- 6202-6209 Special Topics in Numerical Analysis
- 6210 Numerical Solution of Differential Equations (for Computational Science students only - required core course)
- 6300 Algebraic Topology I (Homology Theory)
- 6301 Algebraic Topology II (Homotopy Theory)
- 6302 Algebraic Topology III (Theory of Fibre Bundles)
- 6332 Point Set Topology
- 6330-6339 Special Topics in Topology
- 6331 Functional Analysis
- 6311 Complex Analysis
- 6312 Measure Theory
- 6313-6319 Special Topics in Analysis
- 6320 Group Theory
- 6321 Ring Theory
- 6322 Nonassociative Algebra
- 6323 Homological Algebra
- 6324-6329 Special Topics in Algebra
- 6330 Analytic Number Theory
- 6331 Algebraic Number Theory
- 6340 Graph Theory
- 6341 Combinatorial Design Theory
- 6342 Advanced Enumeration

6401 Social Cognition
6402 Group Processes
6403 Advanced Methods in Applied Social Psychological Research
6404 Project in Applied Social Psychology
5 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Arts and Specific Program Regulations

Professor and Dean of Arts
R. Tremblay

Associate Professor and Associate Dean (Graduate and Research)
F. White

The Degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) is offered in Anthropology, Archaeology, Classics, Economics, English Language and Literature, Ethnomusicology, Folklore, French Studies, Geography, German Language and Literature, History, Linguistics, Philosophy, Political Science, Religious Studies and Sociology. Applicants are advised to consult, in addition to the regulations governing the Degree of Master of Arts, both the General Regulations and the particular regulations of the appropriate Departments.

5.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission an applicant shall hold a Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent from an institution recognized by the Senate and shall have a knowledge of the proposed field of specialization satisfactory to the Department concerned (or Departments, when interdisciplinary study is intended) and to the Dean.

2. Preference will normally be given to applicants who hold an appropriate Honours Degree, either from Memorial University of Newfoundland, or from another university whose Honours Degree is of comparable standing. Any other applicant who holds a Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent will be considered for admission provided that:
   a. the applicant's undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least grade B in courses in the proposed field of specialization.
   b. the applicant's overall undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least grade B in all courses taken, and
   c. the Department concerned satisfies the Dean that the applicant's work exhibits evidence of academic excellence.

3. Only in exceptional circumstances, and only on the recommendation of the Department concerned, will the Dean consider applicants who do not meet the requirements in a. and b. Such applicants, however, must meet the requirements in c.

4. An applicant may be required to demonstrate a satisfactory knowledge of the proposed field of study in an examination administered by the Department or Departments.

5. In most cases instruction is in English, and examinations and theses are to be written in English. (Language Departments, however, give instruction in the pertinent language and often require examinations and theses to be written in the language. In addition, other Departments may permit or even require examinations and/or theses to be written in a language other than English.)

5.2 Program of Study and Research

1. The program of study for the Master of Arts Degree shall consist of the successful completion of a program of courses and, in accordance with Departmental regulations, either of a thesis embodying systematic research or of a Comprehensive Examination. For programs requiring 24 credit hours or more, the academic unit may choose not to require a thesis or comprehensive examination.

2. Every candidate shall read at least 12 credit hours in program courses at the graduate level in one subject or in closely related subjects. Departmental regulations may require more courses than the minimum and this higher number is listed where applicable in the regulations of the Department.

3. Students may, with the approval of the Dean, augment their program with a limited number of other courses of their choice. Passing grades are not required in these non-program courses in order to continue in graduate studies or obtain a Master's Degree.

4. Candidates submitting a thesis on an approved topic shall conduct systematic research under the direction of a Supervisor recommended by the appropriate Department or Departments and approved by the Dean. The candidate may be required to take an oral examination.

5. Changes in either the program of courses or the topic of the thesis require the approval of the Dean.

6. On the recommendation of the Head of the Department, the Dean may waive, in part, the course requirements for a Master's Degree.

7. Application for transfer from the Master of Arts to the Master of Philosophy is to be made to the Dean before the end of the second semester in the case of full-time students, and in the case of part-time students before 18 graduate credit hours have been completed.

8. The Dean may approve an application to transfer from the M.A. to the M.Phil. only when a new integrated program, acceptable to the Dean, is submitted.

5.3 Evaluation
1. In order to continue in the School of Graduate Studies and in order to qualify for a Master's Degree, a candidate shall obtain an A or B grade in each regulation course. Some candidates may be required to read a specified number of additional graduate or undergraduate courses for which a passing grade must be achieved.

2. Students registered for credit shall write their examinations in their graduate courses at a time to be determined by the Dean on the recommendation of the Department.

3. Students registered in undergraduate courses shall satisfy examination requirements in these courses.

4. When, on a basis of consultation with the candidate, the instructors in graduate courses, and the thesis Supervisor, the Head of a Department has determined that the candidate's work has fallen below a satisfactory level, the Head may recommend to the Dean that the candidate be required to withdraw from the program.

5.4 Thesis or Report
See General Regulation, Theses and Reports

5.5 Anthropology and Archaeology
Professor and Head of the Department
P Pope

The Degree of Master of Arts is offered in Anthropology and in Archaeology by either full-time or part-time study.

1. Candidates may specialize in either:
   a. social and cultural anthropology or
   b. archaeology and physical anthropology.

2. The choice of specialty will govern the selection of Supervisor(s), courses, and thesis or research paper topics. When candidates are accepted into the program, they will be assigned one or more supervisors. Candidates' programs shall be the responsibility of their Supervisor(s), the graduate co-ordinator(s), and the Head of the Department.

3. If candidates' records suggest a deficiency in some area(s), the Department reserves the right to require that they complete additional undergraduate courses before beginning program courses.

4. Candidates in social and cultural anthropology may choose between a thesis and a non-thesis option.

M.A. With Thesis

1. Normally, the M.A. program should take two academic years to complete, of which the first year will be spent in (a) completing coursework, (b) writing and orally defending a thesis proposal before members of the faculty, and (c) beginning to carry out research. The second academic year will be spent in (d) completing research, (e) presenting an oral research report to the Department, and (f) completing a thesis.

2. Candidates for the Degree of a Master of Arts in Anthropology or in Archaeology will be required to complete not fewer than 12 credit hours, nor more than 18 credit hours of courses at the graduate level.

3. Most Department graduate courses are taught in either a seminar or tutorial framework; all courses require intensive reading, regular oral communication of ideas to faculty and other students, and preparation of written research papers and other assignments.

4. Normally, during the second semester of the first year of study in the program, a written thesis proposal which has been approved by the student's Supervisor(s) will be circulated to all members of the Department. The written thesis proposal should be made available to faculty members at least two weeks prior to the scheduled date of a student's oral presentation and defense of the proposal.

5. Shortly following the completion of their research, candidates will be required to present an oral research report on their findings to the Department.

6. A final draft of the thesis will be evaluated in accordance with the requirements of the School of Graduate Studies.

M.A. Without Thesis

Normally, the M.A. program without thesis should take one academic year to complete. Candidates in social and cultural anthropology who choose to do the M.A. without thesis must normally complete 24 credit hours in graduate program courses; 15 of which will normally be from ANTH 6440, ANTH 6890 and ANTH 6300. Nine additional credit hours are to be selected from the S/C graduate courses offered by the Department.

Note: ANTH 6440 will be worth 9 credit hours. This course will normally be based on secondary literature and will be supervised by a faculty member.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Archaeology/Physical Anthropology Courses (ARCH)
6020 Physical Anthropology
6040 Human Osteology
6095 Advanced Studies in Ethnohistory (same as Hist 6095)
6111 Palaeoethnobotany
6181 Palaeoeskimo Cultures of the Eastern Arctic
6182 Advances in Material Culture Analysis
6187 Readings in Maritime Provinces Prehistory
6189 Palaeopathology
6191 Approaches to Early Modern Material Culture
6192 Conservation Method and Theory
6250 Newfoundland and Labrador Prehistory
6310 Economic Analyses in Archaeology
6320 Ethnoarchaeology
5.6 Classics

Associate Professor and Interim Head of the Department
T.J. Allen

The Department of Classics offers an M.A. in Classics, with an emphasis on classical texts and research methods, which suitably prepared students may complete in 1 year of full-time study, normally beginning in September.

1. Applicants should have an Honours Degree in Classics or a related field, including at least two years study in both Greek and Latin. Students expecting to complete the M.A. Degree within 12 months must have at least 24 undergraduate credit hours in one language (Greek or Latin) and 18 undergraduate credit hours in the other. Other applicants may be required to take 3 or more credit hours at the undergraduate level, in addition to their graduate coursework.

2. Students will complete 18 credit hours in courses at the 6000 level (including 6100 and 6101) plus any additional courses the Department may deem necessary. The required courses 6100 and 6101 involve the intensive reading of ancient texts and also introduce students systematically to the most important research methods in Classics, including palaeography, textual criticism, bibliography, and historiography. Texts and methods chosen may vary according to the availability of instructors.

3. Students are also required to complete one of the following:
   a. Research Essay
      Students will complete a research essay (approximately 15,000 words), normally in the third semester of their program of study. The essay will be graded by two members of faculty and will be assigned a PASS/FAIL grade.
   b. Translation Examination
      Students will be required to pass two exams based on a reading list of Greek and Roman authors. One exam will be on Greek authors and one on Latin authors. The exams test students’ ability to translate from Greek and Latin texts into English and will also require some commentary on the set texts. Students are expected to write these exams in the third semester of their program of study. The exam will be graded by two members of faculty and will be assigned a PASS/FAIL grade.

4. Students are required to complete an examination testing their competence in German, Italian or French, as early as possible in their program of study. This examination will be assigned a PASS/FAIL grade. (See Evaluation, Evaluation of Graduate Students, 4.)

Courses
6010 Greek Literature: Prose
6020 Latin Literature: Prose
6030 Greek Literature: Poetry
6040 Latin Literature: Poetry
6050 Greek History
6060 Roman History
6080 Ancient Philosophical Authors
6100 Greek Literature/Research Methods
6101 Latin Literature/Research Methods

Note: The prerequisite of all 6000-level courses is at least three courses numbered 3000 and above (or equivalent) in the appropriate language.

5.7 Economics

Professor and Head of the Department
N. Roy

The Degree of Master of Arts is offered in Economics. The focus of the program is applied economics. The non-thesis option is designed so that suitably qualified full-time students can complete it in one year. The thesis option normally takes more than one year.
5.7.1 Qualifications for Admission
To be considered for admission, an applicant must normally have completed an undergraduate Degree in Economics at a Canadian university with at least second-class Honours standing, or its equivalent. Satisfaction of this criterion does not guarantee admission and, if admitted, students may be required to complete specified undergraduate courses as deemed necessary by the Department.

5.7.2 Programs of Study
1. Non-Thesis Option
   a. The program of study requires, in addition to any specified undergraduate courses, completion of 26 credit hours in graduate economics courses, including a master's essay course. The maximum time normally permitted for students to satisfy these requirements is three years.
   b. The 26 credit hours in graduate courses consist of the following:
      i. 11 credit hours in core courses, which shall normally be completed in the first term of the program: Economics 6000, 6001, 6002, and 6009;
      ii. 12 credit hours in other courses selected from those offered by the Department;
      iii. Masters Essay course: Economics 6999. Normally, all other required graduate courses must be completed before the essay.
   c. The master's essay, Economics 6999, must be in the area relating to the courses taken by the student. Students will be assigned a Supervisor, who will approve the topic; the essay will be graded by the Supervisor and one other member of the Department. The essay must be completed during the semester in which the student is registered in Economics 6999. During that time, students may be required to give a Departmental seminar on their essays.

2. Thesis Option
   a. The thesis option consists of 20 credit hours and a thesis. The thesis will consist of a comprehensive study in the area of the student's field courses. The thesis must embody systematic research and demonstrate a mastery of economic principles and their application. Thesis work will be completed under a Supervisor from the Department.
   b. The thesis must normally be completed within the two years following completion of 20 required credit hours, which must include Economics 6000, 6001, 6002 and 6009.
   c. The thesis will normally be evaluated internally and in accordance with the requirements of the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses
The following courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as resources of the Department will allow.

Core Courses
6000 Advanced Micro-economic Theory
6001 Advanced Macro-economic Theory
6002 Econometrics
6009 Graduate Seminar (2 credit hours)

Elective Courses
6010 Taxation
6011 Expenditure
6012 Cost-benefit Analysis
6013 Fiscal Federalism
6014 Topics in Public Sector Economics
6020 Economics of Nonrenewable Natural Resources
6021 Economics of Renewable Natural Resources
6022 Environmental Economics
6023 Advanced Fisheries Economics
6024 Topics in Resource Economics
6040 Industrial Economics

Master's Essay Course
6999 Master's Essay

Note: Additional courses may be arranged, so far as the exigencies of the Department allow, to meet the particular needs of candidates.

5.8 English Language and Literature
Associate Professor and Interim Head of the Department
F. Balish
The degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in English Language and Literature.
Candidates for the M.A. in English may complete the program as either part-time or full-time students. Candidates for the Ph.D. in English must be in attendance as full-time students for at least three semesters of the program.

5.8.1 Master of Arts
1. Admission to the M.A. in English is limited and competitive. Applicants should have an Honours B.A. in English (or the equivalent, 60 credit hours in English with an appropriate range of courses) and a strong academic record.
2. Strong candidates who have come close to achieving Honours equivalency may be admitted on the condition that they complete such undergraduate courses as the Department may deem necessary, in addition to the required graduate courses.
3. Candidates who have not completed English 4900 or an equivalent course will be required to complete English 5900 which will not count as one of the required courses for the M.A. The course will be graded “pass” or “fail”. As in other graduate courses a grade of 65 or above is considered a pass.

5.8.2 Program of Study
1. Thesis Option
   a. Candidates completing the M.A. with thesis will complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in graduate courses, which will normally include English 7003, and a thesis.
   b. Candidates must submit a thesis proposal which includes a statement of topic, a working title, a plan of research, and a preliminary bibliography. The proposal should be approved by the Supervisor or Supervisors and submitted to the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee for its approval by the end of the candidate's third semester. The Departmental Graduate Studies Committee shall return the thesis proposal to the candidate no later than one month after receiving it.
School of Graduate Studies 2008-2009

c. Full-time students who choose the thesis option will usually complete their degree in two years.

2. Non-Thesis Option

a. Candidates completing the M.A. without thesis will complete a minimum of 24 credit hours in graduate courses, which will normally include English 7003.

b. Full-time students who choose the non-thesis option will usually complete their degree in one year.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Notes:

1. Since it is impossible to list in detail the many topics that may from time to time be offered, the titles below refer only to the major periods and general subject areas in which specific courses may be available. The content and approach in specific courses will vary according to the research interests of students and faculty involved in the course. Students should consult the Department's annual Graduate Student Guide (or the Graduate Co-ordinator) for detailed descriptions of specific course offerings. Normally, no fewer than ten graduate courses are offered in any given academic year.

2. English 5900 cannot be counted as one of the required graduate courses in any program.

3. All students will normally take English 7003 - Trends in Contemporary Literary Theory, usually in their first semester.

4. Students who took graduate courses in English at Memorial University of Newfoundland before 1997 should consult with the Department before selecting further courses.

5.9 Ethnomusicology
Professor and Director of the School of Music
T. Gordon

Associate Professor and Associate Director of the School of Music
M. Cheramy

The Master of Arts program in Ethnomusicology is administered by the School of Music in consultation with the Department of Folklore, and generally in response to recommendations from an Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee with representation from both academic units, chaired by the Program Co-ordinator.

The Degree of Master of Arts in Ethnomusicology is offered by part-time and full-time study. While it is normally a coursework degree, a thesis option is available upon application. Fieldwork is often a requirement both for independent research and coursework. The resources of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive are available to graduate students in Ethnomusicology.

5.9.1 Qualifications for Admission

Applicants may be admitted to the program if they have at least a B+ average with a B.Mus. Degree or other Degree in the Humanities or Social Sciences with evidence of specialization in music. Applicants whose professional music training took place outside the university system are also encouraged to apply, provided they have the academic equivalent of the qualifications described above. Applicants from a discipline other than Music will be expected to demonstrate the following skills:
- Competent performance in any musical tradition, as judged by a musician knowledgeable about that tradition.
- Knowledge of culturally appropriate language for discussion of performance techniques in that tradition.
- Ability to discuss musical details on the basis of aural and/or written sources, as appropriate to that tradition.

Candidates for admission may, at the discretion of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee, be required to write diagnostic examinations measuring skills and knowledge in music literacy, theory, or aural perception. Candidates with deficiencies in any of these areas may be required to take remedial coursework prior or in addition to the required program.

5.9.2 Program Requirements

The M.A. program will normally be completed within five consecutive semesters of full-time study. The degree is normally taken by completing coursework and a major research paper. In special circumstances, a student may apply to complete the degree by completing coursework and a thesis. Demonstration of competence in a language other than English may be required if warranted by the research proposed by the student.

1. coursework M.A.
   a. Students must normally complete a minimum of 24 credit hours plus a major research paper (Music 7002). Further courses beyond the minimum number may be required, depending on the background of the student. The required courses are:
      i. Music 7001; Folklore 6010, 6030.
      ii. One of Folklore 6100 or Music 6002.
      iii. One area or genre studies course (3 credit hours) relevant to the research of the student.
      iv. Nine credit hours to be selected from the Music and Folklore courses listed below (with the approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee); one elective (3 credit hours) may be a relevant course offered in another discipline (with the approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee).
   b. Research paper (Music 7002) on a topic chosen by the student with his/her supervisor's approval. Proposals for topics and supervisors will be vetted by the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee no later than the beginning of the third term of study. The paper will normally demonstrate the student's ability to apply methodologies and theoretical constructs, learned in the courses taken, to a specific repertory, or performance context.

2. Thesis M.A. (available by special application to the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee)
   a. Students must normally complete a minimum of 21 credit hours plus a thesis. The required courses are:
      i. Music 7001; Folklore 6010, 6030.
      ii. One of Folklore 6100 or Music 6002.
      iii. One area or genre studies course (3 credit hours) relevant to the research of the student.
      iv. Six credit hours to be selected from the Music and Folklore courses listed below (with the approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee); one elective (3 credit hours) may be a relevant course offered in another discipline (with the approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee).
   b. Thesis submitted in accordance with General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies. A thesis proposal, consisting of a statement of topic, working title, plan of research, and preliminary bibliography, with the name of the preferred Supervisor, shall be submitted by the candidate to the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee no later than the beginning of the third term of study.

5.10 Folklore

Associate Professor and Head of the Department
D. Tye

The Degree of Master of Arts in Folklore is offered by part-time and full-time study and is a combined coursework and research degree. The program normally requires extensive fieldwork research in Newfoundland and/or the Maritimes. Integral to the teaching of the Department of Folklore is work of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive.

5.10.1 Master of Arts

1. Applicants may be admitted to the graduate program if they have an average of at least grade ‘B’ in no fewer than 36 credit hours in Folklore or in any other discipline in the Humanities or Social Sciences.
2. The M.A. program will normally be completed within six consecutive semesters (i.e. a two-year period). The Degree of Master of Arts in Folklore may be taken by coursework and comprehensive examination or by coursework and thesis. Both options are available to full-time and part-time students.

a. M.A. with thesis:
   i. Students choosing to do the M.A. with thesis must normally complete a minimum of 24 credit hours plus a thesis. The required courses are:
      - 6010, 6020, and 6030, normally taken as an integrated foundation in the Fall semester.
      - At least one of the following: 6100, 6120, 6130, 6200, 6210, 6220, 6250, 6260, 6360, 6720.
      - At least one of the following: 6300, 6310, 6350, 6370, 6400, 6410, 6420, 6430.
      - Nine additional credit hours to be selected from courses in the groups listed above or from the other courses offered by the Department.
   ii. A brief thesis pre-proposal, including a statement of topic, working title, plan of research, ethics statement, preliminary bibliography, and the name of a preferred Supervisor, shall be submitted no later than the end of the candidate’s second semester. A full proposal shall normally be submitted to the Department of Folklore at the end of the candidate’s fourth semester. Following approval of the thesis proposal and consultation with the candidate, the Supervisor and thesis topic will be recommended to the Dean.

b. M.A. without thesis:
   i. Students choosing to do the M.A. without thesis must normally complete a minimum of 30 credit hours plus comprehensive examination. The required courses are:
      - 6010, 6020, and 6030, normally taken as an integrated foundation in the Fall semester.
      - At least one of the following: 6100, 6120, 6130, 6200, 6210, 6220, 6250, 6260, 6360, 6720.
      - At least one of the following: 6300, 6310, 6350, 6370, 6400, 6410, 6420, 6430.
      - Fifteen additional credit hours to be selected from courses in the groups listed above or from the other courses offered by the Department.
   ii. Each candidate selecting the M.A. without thesis option shall normally submit, by the end of the candidate’s second semester, written notification of intention to take comprehensives.
   iii. Each candidate selecting the non-thesis option shall normally write the comprehensive examination at the end of the candidate’s fifth semester in the program. The comprehensive examination will be graded by a comprehensive examination committee appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head of the Department, in accordance with General Regulations governing the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, normally after consultation with the Head of the Department or the Graduate Studies Administrator, and as far as the resources of the Department will allow. Courses are structured according to the categories of: Theories and Methods, Issues, Form and Performance, Special Topics, Regional, National and International Heritage, Social Identities, Public and Applied Folklore, Interdisciplinary Perspectives, and Required (Ph.D.):

Theories and Methods
- 6010 Survey of Folklore Genres and Processes

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive was a joint creation of the Departments of Folklore and English Language and Literature. It was set up to coordinate diverse research in Newfoundland studies undertaken in both Departments, to facilitate the mutually use of common material, to organize it for research and publication, and to make a permanent documented record for future generations. The Folklore and Language Archive is an integral part of the teaching and research activities of the Department of Folklore on both the graduate and undergraduate levels.

The Archive comprises extensive collections of Newfoundland and Labrador folksongs and music, folk narratives of many kinds, oral history, folk customs, beliefs and practices, childlore and descriptions of material culture. It has special collections of the Newfoundland vocabulary, proverbs and riddles and collections towards a linguistic atlas. The materials have been collected by a variety of means: by questionnaires, by student contributions in manuscript, by extensive fieldwork utilizing tape recorders, and by searching printed sources.

The Archive is housed in the G.A. Hickman Building. Associated with it is a recording room, with facilities for copying tapes and records and for the making of recordings. The specially excerpted collection in language is housed in the English Language Research Centre of the Department of English Language and Literature. Newfoundland French language and folklore materials are housed in the Centre d’Etudes Franco-Terreneuviennes in the Department of Folklore. Each Department has a working library associated with the archival material.

5.11 French

Professor and Head of Department
M. O’Reilly

1. The Degree of Master of Arts in French Studies may be completed by full-time or part-time study. “French Studies” may take the form of the study of the French language or of francophone literature, including the study of literary history, criticism or theory. It may also include the study of French-language cinema or of other aspects of francophone civilization.

2. Applicants for the M.A. program in French Studies are normally expected to have completed the Honours Degree with a second-class standing or better. An applicant who does not hold an Honours Degree or its equivalent may be required to complete such additional undergraduate courses as the Department considers necessary, prior to admission or as part of the program.

3. The M.A. program in French Studies will consist of 15 credit hours in graduate courses (normally requiring 2 or 3 semesters of full-time study), plus research activities and a thesis of approximately 80 pages. The 15 credit hours shall include 6008 and 6009, normally completed in consecutive semesters. The remaining 9 credit hours shall be obtained by completion of three courses chosen from those in three of the five groups listed in the Courses section below. The language of the thesis will be French. The thesis proposal, after being approved by the Supervisor, will be submitted by the candidate, normally before the end of the third semestre de studies, to the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee, who will decide whether or not to grant its approval.

4. Each candidate's program of study must be approved by the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee.

5. A paper drawn from the thesis will be presented at a Departmental seminar or in another forum approved by the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee. Normally, this presentation will take place at some time between submission of the final draft thesis to the Supervisor and the submission of the thesis to the School of Graduate Studies.

6. The approval of the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee must be obtained before the thesis is forwarded to the School of Graduate Studies for examination.

7. In the final version of the M.A. thesis and other written assignments for M.A. courses, the quality of written French must be of a standard acceptable to the Department as represented by the Graduate Studies Committee. Normally, this will mean that the final version of such assignments will be free of spelling, lexical, and grammatical errors, and of improper use of stylistic conventions. In the case of the M.A. thesis, this requirement applies to the version submitted for examination.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet candidates' requirements, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

Français
Professeur et directeur du département
M. O'Reilly

1. Le diplôme de Maîtrise ès Arts en Études françaises sanctionne des études à temps plein ou à temps partiel. Les études françaises comprennent l'étude de la langue et de la littérature, et l'étude de l'histoire, de la critique ou de théorie littéraire, ainsi que l'étude du cinéma ou d'autres aspects des civilisations francophones.

2. Pour être admis au programme de Maîtrise ès Arts en Études françaises, l'étudiant doit normalement détenir un diplôme de baccalauréat avec une spécialisation en Études françaises et une note moyenne d'au moins B. Le département pourra obliger toute personne ne détenant pas ce diplôme ou son équivalent à suivre certains cours du premier cycle avant d'être admis au programme de deuxième cycle ou pendant ses études de maîtrise.

3. L'option en Études littéraires comprend quinze crédits de cours, ce qui exigera normalement 2 ou 3 trimestres d'études à temps plein et un mémoire d'environ 80 pages rédigé en français. Tous les candidats compléteront et le Fr.6008 et le Fr.6009. Normalement, ces deux cours devront être complétés en deux trimestres consécutifs. En plus, il faudra compléter 3 cours choisis parmi ceux qui font partie de 3 des 5 groupes identifiés dans la section COURS. Le projet de mémoire, qui est approuvé par son directeur, doit être officiellement présenté par le candidat au Comité des Études de deuxième cycle, avant la fin du troisième trimestre, pour son approbation.

4. Le programme d'études du candidat doit être approuvé par le Comité des Études de deuxième cycle.

5. Une communication tirée du mémoire sera présentée dans le cadre des séminaires départementaux ou dans une autre réunion approuvée par le Comité des Études de deuxième cycle. Normalement, cette présentation se fera entre la soumission à son directeur et sa soumission définitive à l'École des Études supérieures.

6. Avant d'être soumis à l'École des Études supérieures, le mémoire doit être proposé au Comité des Études de deuxième cycle, qui doit en autoriser le dépôt.

7. Dans la version finale du mémoire et des autres travaux préparés pour les cours de maîtrise, la qualité du français écrit doit être d'un niveau acceptable au département, qui est représenté par le Comité des Études de deuxième cycle. Ainsi, la version finale de ces travaux ne contiendra-t-elle pas, normalement, d'erreurs orthographiques, lexicales, grammaticales, stylistiques et protocolaires. Pour ce qui est du mémoire, cette exigence s'applique à la version remise aux examinateurs.

Cours
Un choix des cours de deuxième cycle suivants sera offert afin de répondre aux besoins des étudiants inscrits au programme de maîtrise selon les ressources disponibles au département:

6008* Méthodologie et théorie de la littérature (Méthodes critiques et théoriques I) 6009* Méthodologie et théorie de la littérature (Méthodes critiques et théoriques II)

6150-59 Sujets spéciaux

*Nota / Note: Les étudiants ne peuvent obtenir de crédit pour le Français 6008 et le Français 6006 (désormais supprimé) ni pour le Français 6009 et le Français 6006.

5.12 Geography
Associate Professor and Interim Head of the Department
K. Butler

1. The degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Science are offered in Geography by full-time or part-time study.

2. Admission requirements are set forth in the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and Degree Regulations for Master of Arts and Master of Science.

3. The deadline for submission of applications for admission is January 15. Candidates will normally commence their programs in the Fall semester.

4. An applicant will be admitted to a graduate program only if a faculty member agrees to act as Supervisor. A supervisory committee will be established after admission, normally consisting of the Supervisor and two other individuals, one of whom will normally be a member of the Department.

5. Major research areas for graduate study at the master's level are cultural, political, historical, economic, urban, resource management, community and regional development, geomorphology, Quaternary environments, climatology and geographic information sciences.

6. Candidates will register for the M.A. program if their fields of interest lie in an area of Human Geography or for the M.Sc. if their fields of interest are in Physical Geography or Geographic Information Sciences.

7. It is expected that the program of study and research for the M.A. or M.Sc. will normally be completed in a maximum of two years of full-time work, or three years of part-time work.

8. Candidates must successfully complete a minimum of 12 credit hours of graduate program courses with a minimum grade of B in each. Geography 6000 and 6001 will be required courses for all candidates who have not already completed equivalent courses at the Honours or post-graduate level.

9. Candidates whose undergraduate degree is not in geography will normally be required to complete some additional undergraduate program courses during their first year of study, in addition to the required graduate program courses. Normally four such undergraduate courses will be required, and a minimum grade of 70% must be obtained in each.

10. Each candidate will be required to present a seminar on their research to the Department.

11. Each candidate must submit a thesis based on their own original research. This thesis will be examined in accordance with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

5.15 Linguistics

Associate Professor and Head of the Department
M. Mackenzie

The degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Linguistics.

5.15.1 Master of Arts

1. The Linguistics Department offers the M.A. program with both a thesis and a non-thesis option. The M.A. with thesis option is intended for those who have completed an undergraduate major in Linguistics with satisfactory standing (a B+ average in Linguistics courses). Students interested in the thesis option who have an excellent undergraduate record and a well-defined research plan, yet who do not possess the equivalent of an undergraduate major, will be required to take additional undergraduate and/or graduate courses in Linguistics. Other students are encouraged to apply for the M.A. without thesis option.

2. The M.A. with thesis option is normally a two-year program consisting of at least 15 credit hours of graduate courses (including Linguistics 7000 and 7001), plus a thesis.

3. The M.A. without thesis option is normally a two-year program consisting of at least 21 credit hours of graduate courses (including Linguistics 7000 and 7001), plus a research project (Linguistics 6999), which consists of a major research paper in an approved area followed by an oral examination.

4. The M.A. in Linguistics requires proficiency in a language other than the candidate’s first language, as demonstrated by a minimum B grade in a second-year undergraduate language course, or performance satisfactory to the Department in an arranged reading proficiency test. A working or structural knowledge of other languages may also be required for particular programs (e.g., Latin, Greek or Sanskrit for historical Indo-European linguistics, or courses in the series Linguistics 6050-59 or the former 6010-6041).

5. All M.A. students are advised to consult the Linguistics department’s Graduate Handbook for details on program requirements and for general information relating to the graduate program.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of students, as far as the resources of the Department will allow. Full information is to be found in the Department’s Graduate Handbook.

- 6001 Issues in Morphosyntax

5.17 Political Science

Professor and Head of the Department
R. Levy

The Degree of Master of Arts is offered in Political Science by full-time and part-time study.

Master of Arts

The Degree of Master of Arts in Political Science may be taken by coursework and thesis, coursework and internship, or coursework only. The thesis and internship options are available to full-time and part-time students. Both options are one-year programs for full-time students. The coursework option is available only to part-time students.
School of Graduate Studies 2008-2009

1. M.A. with thesis:
   a. Students choosing the M.A. with thesis must normally complete a minimum of 18 credit hours in graduate program courses. Twelve credit hours are from required courses: 6000, 6010, 6020, and a subfield course (one of 6100, 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500, 6600, or 6700). Further courses beyond the minimum number may be required, depending on the background and needs of the student.
   b. Each student choosing the thesis option will submit a thesis on a subject that has been approved by the supervisory committee of the Department.
   c. Students applying for the thesis option must submit a brief (one page maximum) statement of their research interest with their application.

2. M.A. with internship:
   a. Students choosing the M.A. with internship must normally complete a minimum of 24 credit hours in graduate program courses. Fifteen credit hours are from required courses: 6000, 6010, 6031, 6790, and a subfield course (one of 6100, 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500, 6600, or 6700). Further courses beyond the minimum number may be required, depending on the background and needs of the student.
   b. Each student choosing this option will complete, normally in the Spring Semester, a one-semester, full-time internship, 6030, with a political organization, government agency, or voluntary agency. Students registering for 6030 must also register for its co-requisite, 6031. The placement must normally be selected from a list of approved organizations that is maintained by the Department.

3. M.A. with essay:
   a. This option is restricted to part-time students. Students choosing the M.A. with coursework will complete 24 credit hours in graduate program courses and an essay (6999). Fifteen credit hours are from required courses: 6000, 6010, 6020, a subfield seminar (one of 6100, 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500, 6600, or 6700), and 6790. Further courses beyond the minimum number may be required, depending on the background and needs of the student.
   b. The essay will be in an area relating to the courses taken by the student and will normally apply Political Science concepts and methods to a practical issue in public affairs. Each student will be assigned a Supervisor who will approve the topic and direct the research. The essay will be graded by the Supervisor and one other member of the Department. The essay must be completed in the term in which the student is registered for Political Science 6999.

5.18 Religious Studies
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
M.P. DeRoche

The Degree of Master of Arts is offered in Religious Studies.

1. Admission requirements are set forth in the General Regulations governing the Degree of Master of Arts. An applicant should have completed a minimum of 45 credit hours in Religious Studies courses at the undergraduate level with at least the grade of B in each. An applicant's overall undergraduate program must represent, to the satisfaction of the Department, a solid groundwork for graduate studies.

2. A candidate who does not hold an Honours Degree or its equivalent shall be required to complete such additional undergraduate courses as the Department may deem necessary. These courses may be required as prerequisites to admission to the program, or as an additional constituent part of the program, at the discretion of the Department.

3. Upon acceptance into the program, each candidate will be assigned a Supervisor, whose duty it shall be to assist the candidate.

4. Normally, the Master of Arts program should take two years to complete, the first of which is to be spent primarily on coursework and preparation of a thesis proposal. A student accepted on a part-time basis would normally be expected to take three to five years to complete the program.

5. Students shall normally complete a thesis and a minimum of 12 credit hours in coursework.

6. 5.19 Sociology

Professor and Head of the Department
S.H. Riggins

The degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Sociology by full-time or part-time study. The Department has developed foci at the doctoral level in the areas of Maritime Sociology, Gender, and Work and Development but other fields of specialization are available at the Master's level including Social Theory, Sociology of Knowledge, Social Inequality and Criminology. Graduate courses are taught as tutorials or small seminars.

5.19.1 Master of Arts

1. Minimum admission requirements are a B average in undergraduate studies with a good undergraduate background in Sociology.

2. The M.A. Degree with thesis requires the completion of 12 credit hours in graduate courses, normally including the Graduate Seminar (6880) and Methods of Sociological Research (6040), and a thesis. In the case of full-time students, the M.A. with thesis is normally completed in two years. The first year is devoted to the completion of the required courses and the definition of the thesis research topic. The second year is devoted to the completion of the thesis.

3. The M.A. Degree by coursework requires the completion of 24 credit hours, normally including the Graduate Seminar (6880), Methods of Sociological Research (6040), Social Theory (6150), Master's Research Paper (6900) and three electives. These courses should be taken during the first two semesters of full-time study. The research paper (Sociology 6900) will be supervised by a faculty member and must be presented at a Departmental seminar. The Supervisor and one other member of Department will grade the paper. The research paper should be written in the third semester of full-time study.

Associate Professor and Dean
G. Gorman

Associate Professor and Associate Dean (Academic Programs)
T. Clift

Director of Graduate Programs (Business)
P.A. Coady

The Degree of Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) is offered by full-time or part-time study. These regulations must be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

6.1 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission to the Master of Business Administration program, an applicant shall normally hold at least a Bachelor’s Degree, with a minimum ‘B’ standing, from an institution recognized by Senate. Applicants must achieve a satisfactory total score on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT), as well as an appropriate balance of verbal and quantitative GMAT score components. Specific information regarding test centres, dates, registration procedure and deadlines can be obtained by contacting the Graduate Management Admission Council at www.mba.com. Qualified applicants with relevant employment experience will normally receive preference during the evaluation of applications.

2. In exceptional cases, applicants who have not completed an undergraduate degree, but who meet all other requirements, may be considered for admission. Preference will be given to those who present a high GMAT score, have a minimum of 10 years of full-time managerial and executive experience, and have completed several years of university studies. The Faculty may also take into account relevant professional credentials. Applicants who do not meet normal admission requirements may be required to complete, with a high level of achievement, certain undergraduate courses before being considered for admission.

3. When circumstances warrant, and only on the strong recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration, consideration may be given to candidates who do not meet some of the above requirements.

4. Applicants who did not complete a four-year baccalaureate degree at a recognized university where English is the primary language of instruction must normally complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and achieve a paper-based score of 580 (or higher)/computer-based score of 237 (or higher)/internet based score of 93-93 (or higher). Those submitting results of the Test of Written English (TWE) as well, with a score of 4 or better, will receive preference in the evaluation of English proficiency. Information regarding both tests is available from the Educational Testing Service at www.ets.org. It is noted that other equivalent tests acceptable to the School of Graduate Studies will also be considered.

6.2 Deadlines for Applications
Applications and all supporting documents must be received not later than March 15 from Canadian applicants wishing to enter full-time or part-time studies in the Fall Semester. Full-time and international applicants are normally considered for entry in the Fall semester. International applicants must submit complete documentation by February 1. Part-time applicants planning to enter in the Winter (January) or Spring (May) semester must apply prior to October 15 and January 15, respectively. Individuals submitting applications later than the above dates are not assured of consideration for admission to the program in the semester desired; their applications will be processed only if time and resources permit.

6.3 Procedure for Admission
1. Applications for admission to the M.B.A. program must be made on the appropriate form to the School of Graduate Studies.

2. The following documents must be submitted in support of the official application form:
   a. Letters of appraisal from three referees, at least one of whom has had close professional contact with the applicant within the last two years, and at least one of whom is capable of appraising the applicant’s academic potential as a graduate student.
   b. Two copies of the Faculty’s Employment Experience Information Form.
   c. Two official transcripts from each university or other post-secondary institution previously attended, to be sent directly by its Registrar (or equivalent officer) to the School of Graduate Studies. If not recorded on the transcript, official evidence of completion of undergraduate degree must also be submitted.
   d. The official GMAT score report, to be sent directly by the Graduate Management Admission Council. The code number for Memorial University of Newfoundland is LTT-6W-51.
   e. Where applicable, an official TOEFL score report (or another equivalent test acceptable to the School of Graduate Studies), to be forwarded directly by the Educational Testing Service.
   f. Application files are evaluated only when all required items have been received.

3. Admission shall be by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration. Upon notification from the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies of acceptance into the M.B.A. program, applicants must give written notice to the Office of the Dean within 30 days of notification of acceptance, or three weeks prior to semester registration.

6.4 Direct Entry and Advanced Standing
1. Students who have an undergraduate degree in business with significantly high academic standing may apply for direct entry into the second year of the M.B.A. Program. Their course load will be 8107, 8209, 3 credit hours chosen from 8208 or 8322 or another approved strategy course; 3 credit hours chosen from 9020, 9325, or 9326 or another approved international course; plus 18-credit hours in electives from the schedule of M.B.A. electives listed in Table III. Direct entry will normally be considered if the undergraduate business degree with significantly high academic standing was awarded within seven years of the year for which admission is being sought. The Committee on Graduate Studies reserves the right to require additional courses where there are noted deficiencies in a student’s undergraduate record.

2. The Faculty’s Committee on Graduate Studies may recommend advanced standing for students who do not qualify for direct entry at the time of admission to the M.B.A. program. After admission and normally no later than one week after registration, all other students may apply for advanced standing for 8000 level courses in the M.B.A. program. Advanced standing for any 8000 level
M.B.A. course would normally require that the student had achieved a 'B+' or better in a letter grade system or the equivalent to a grade of 75% or better at Memorial University of Newfoundland in undergraduate courses required for advanced standing. Courses will normally be considered for advanced standing if they are part of a degree that has been awarded within seven years of the year in which admission is being sought. Advanced standing will not be granted for 8107, 8208, 8209 and 8203.

3. The following information must be submitted to the Associate Dean, Faculty of Business Administration, for evaluation by the Committee:
   a. a detailed course outline for each course to be considered in the application for advanced standing;
   b. a description of the method of evaluation used in each such course, the grades received, and the completion dates.

4. Students who enter the M.B.A. program with previous graduate degrees may be granted transfer credit for two non-business, non-specified elective courses by the Faculty’s Committee on Graduate Studies. The remaining electives will be chosen from courses offered by the Faculty of Business Administration. This will reduce their program from 20 courses to 18 courses. This does not apply to students with degrees such as the LLB and Medical Doctor degrees that are not master’s degrees. Courses will normally be considered for advanced standing if they are part of a degree that has been awarded within seven years of the year for which admission is being sought.

6.5 Programs of Study

1. The programs of study include:
   a. a 60 credit hour all-course program for candidates entering with an undergraduate degree in any area other than business. Thirty-six credit hours in program courses are required courses and are specified in Table I; the remaining 24 credit hours in program courses are electives chosen in accordance with the electives noted below. It is noted that of the 24 credit hours in electives candidates are required to complete 3 credit hours in the area of international business chosen from 9020, 9325, 9326 or another approved international course;
   b. a 48 credit hour thesis option program for candidates entering with an undergraduate degree in any area other than business. Thirty-six credit hours in program courses are compulsory and are specified in Table I; the remaining 12 credit hours in program courses shall consist of 9103. 9 credit hours in courses agreed upon by the student and his or her Supervisor, plus a thesis. Additional courses, which may enhance the research area of the candidate, may be recommended by the Supervisor to the Committee on Graduate Studies.
   c. a 30 credit hour all-course program for direct entry candidates. Twelve credit hours of the program courses are required and are specified in Table II; the remaining 18 credit hours for candidates in the all-course program are electives chosen in accordance with the electives noted below.
   d. a 18 credit hour thesis option program for direct entry candidates. Courses shall normally consist of the following 12 credit hours: 8107, 8208, 8209 and 9103, and 6 credit hours in courses agreed upon by the student and his or her Supervisor, plus a thesis. Additional courses, which may enhance the research area of the candidate, may be recommended by the Supervisor to the Committee on Graduate Studies.

2. Electives in the all-course programs may be chosen from the following:
   a. approved business electives as listed in Table III;
   b. up to 6 credit hours in courses from other graduate programs within the School of Graduate Studies, as approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration;
   c. a Research Project or projects, which may be assigned up to 9 credit hours, as approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration;
   d. any other course or project deemed to be of satisfactory content and rigour as approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration.

3. The Faculty’s Committee on Graduate Studies reserves the right to restrict candidates from taking particular M.B.A. courses if it is deemed that those courses do not add sufficient value beyond courses that the candidate has completed at the undergraduate level.

4. Students are required to observe certain approved co- or prerequisites in scheduling their courses. These are indicated in Table V.

5. Students shall successfully complete the requirements of Business 8103 as part of the first 36 credit hours of their programs.

6. Changes to a student’s prescribed program, including the specified course load, may have the prior approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Business Administration.

6.6 Evaluation

1. The Faculty Council of the Faculty of Business Administration constitutes the examining body for all examinations in Business courses. In addition, the standing of every student will be assessed by the Committee on Graduate Studies in accordance with the requirements outlined in all the clauses below.

2. Credit towards the M.B.A. Degree will be granted only for those courses which have been approved as constituting part of the student’s program of study and in which the candidate has obtained a mark of 65% or higher.

3. A candidate is required to withdraw from the M.B.A. program if:
   a. a final grade of 'D' or 'F' is obtained in two courses, or
   b. a final grade of 'C' or less is obtained in three courses, or
   c. a final grade of 'C' or less is obtained in a repeated course.

4. The above clause notwithstanding:
   a. to remain in the program, a candidate who obtains a final grade of 'C' or less in any course must normally repeat that course when next offered, and is permitted to repeat that course only once. In the case of an elective course, a replacement course approved by the Committee on Graduate Studies may be substituted for the failed course. Only one such repetition/replacement of an elective course shall be permitted in the candidate’s graduate program.
   b. in some instances, at the discretion of the course instructor, and with the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic Programs, Faculty of Business Administration, a student who has received a grade of 'C' or less in any course may be permitted to complete remedial work and may be re-examined. A student who passes after re-examination will have “passed on the basis of re-examination” recorded on their transcript, and the original grade will remain. A student who receives a grade of 'C' or less after re-examination will be required to withdraw from the program. The original grade will count as part of the total number of final grades of 'C' or less permitted before a student is required to withdraw as specified above. The pursuit of remedial work may not be offered more than twice to an individual student.

7 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Business Administration (Executive Option in Petroleum)

The Degree of Master of Business Administration (Executive Option in Petroleum), or EMBA (Petroleum), is cohort-driven. These regulations must be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The EMBA (Petroleum) is a comprehensive program that provides an international understanding of the entire nature of the oil and gas industry value chain.

The EMBA (Petroleum) program is offered by full-time study and involves 17 courses (54 credit hours) over four semesters. It should be noted that the OGS 6099 Project is a six credit-hour course that is offered over the third and fourth semesters.

Administration
1. The program shall be administered by an Academic Director, who shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies following discussion with the Dean of Business Administration and the Executive Director of the Oil and Gas Development Partnership (OGDP).
2. The Academic Director shall be the Chair of a Board of Studies for EMBA (Petroleum) for the purposes of administering the program. The Board of Studies will consist of three members from the Faculty of Business Administration, the Associate Dean (Academic Programs) of Business Administration and the Executive Director of the OGDP as ex officio members. Appointments of the members of the Board of Studies will be by the Dean of Business Administration following discussion with the Executive Director of the OGDP. Normally all appointments will be for a period of three years.

7.1 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission to the EMBA (Petroleum) program, an applicant shall normally hold at least a bachelor's degree, with a minimum 'B' standing, from an institution recognized by Memorial University of Newfoundland.
2. Applicants must achieve a satisfactory total score on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT), as well as an appropriate balance of verbal and quantitative GMAT score components. Specific information regarding test centres, dates and deadlines can be obtained by contacting the Graduate Management Admissions Council at www.mba.com.

3. Applicants with substantial management experience in the oil and gas sector will receive preference during evaluation of applications. Normally, a minimum of five years experience in the oil and gas sector is required.

4. Applicants who did not complete a four-year bachelor’s degree at a recognized university where English is the primary language of instruction must submit an acceptable score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Information regarding this test is available from the Educational Testing Service at www.ets.org.

5. Although all the criteria noted above are important, the Board of Studies will assess the applicant’s entire profile when making its final decision. Significant strengths in one area may help compensate for weaknesses in another area.

6. In selecting candidates for any particular cohort, the Board of Studies will attempt to ensure that there is a breadth of managerial experience and practical backgrounds within the cohort as this is important to the students’ learning environment. Student experience is expected to contribute to and enhance the learning experience for the entire cohort.

7.2 Deadlines for Application Submissions

1. Applications and all supporting documents must be received by June 15 from Canadian applicants. Application from foreign students should be complete at least four months before the proposed commencement date. Individuals submitting applications later than the above dates are not assured of consideration for admission to the cohort desired; their applications will be processed only if time and resources permit. Normally, the cohort will commence study during the Fall Semester but the University reserves the right to commence a cohort during any semester.

2. The Board of Studies reserves the right to offer an EMBA (Petroleum) program during any period where there is deemed to be sufficient demand. Further, the Board of Studies reserves the right to restrict the size of any cohort of students admitted to the EMBA (Petroleum) program.

7.3 Procedure for Admission

1. Applications for admission to the EMBA (Petroleum) program must be made on the appropriate form to the School of Graduate Studies.

2. Application files are evaluated only when all required items have been received. The following documents must be submitted in support of the official application form:
   a. Letter of appraisal from two work-related referees.
   b. Two copies of the Employment Experience Information form.
   c. Two official transcripts from each university or other post-secondary institution previously attended, to be sent directly to the School of Graduate Studies.
   d. The official GMAT score report and TOEFL results, if required, are to be sent directly to the University by the applicable Testing Service.

3. Admission shall be by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Board of Studies. Upon notification of acceptance into the EMBA (Petroleum) program, applicants must give written notice to the School of Graduate Studies of their intention to register. Such notice must be received by the Office of the Dean within 30 days of notification of acceptance or three weeks prior to semester registration. In order to confirm admission, the admitted student will be required to submit a deposit with the notice. The amount of the deposit will be specified in the letter of admission and will reflect the current tuition for the program that will be determined on the basis of tuition plus an administrative fee for the program. In the event that the applicant decides not to enter the program (at any point in time after his or her application has been approved and the deposit received), this deposit will be considered to have been forfeited.

7.4 Programs of Study

1. The EMBA (Petroleum) program is a cohort-driven and structured so that students complete a 17 course, 54 credit-hour program of study. It should be noted that the OGS 6099 Project is a six credit-hour course that is offered over the third and fourth semesters. The program will normally be delivered over four academic terms, and the contact time per course will be 30 hours, recognizing the experience of the candidates and the extended time between classes which will allow the assignment of more course-related work to be completed outside of the classroom environment. In some instances the program may be offered over a shorter duration. The 17 course, 54 credit-hour program structure is outlined in Table I - Master of Business Administration (Executive Option in Petroleum) Program of Study.

7.5 Evaluation

1. The Board of Studies for the EMBA (Petroleum) program constitutes the examining body for all courses in this program and shall
2. Credit towards the EMBA (Petroleum) Degree will be granted only for those courses which have been approved as constituting part of the student’s program of study and in which the candidate has obtained a mark of 65% or higher.

3. A candidate is required to withdraw from the EMBA (Petroleum) program if:
   a. a final grade of ‘D’ or ‘F’ is obtained in two courses, or
   b. a final grade of ‘C’ or less is obtained in three courses, or
   c. a final grade of ‘C’ or less is obtained in a repeated course.

4. The above clause notwithstanding:
   a. to remain in the program, a candidate who obtains a final grade of ‘C’ or less in any course must normally repeat that course when next offered, and is permitted to repeat that course only once.
   b. in some instances, at the discretion of the course instructor, and with the approval of the Board of Studies, a student who has received a grade of ‘C’ or less in any course may be permitted to complete remedial work and may be re-examined. A student who passes after re-examination will have “passed on the basis of a re-examination” recorded on his/her transcript and the original grade will remain. A student who receives a grade of ‘C’ or less after re-examination will be required to withdraw from the program. The original grade will count as part of the total number of final grades of ‘C’ or less permitted before a student is required to withdraw as specified above. The pursuit of remedial work may not be offered more than twice to an individual student.

8 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Education

Professor and Dean
A. Collins

Associate Professor and Associate Dean
T. Seifert

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) is offered in the following areas: Educational Leadership Studies, Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies, Counselling Psychology, Post-Secondary Studies and Information Technology.

In the case of the following general program regulations and the specific program regulations, which govern all Master of Education Degree programs, Dean refers to the Dean of Graduate Studies, Dean of Education refers to the Office of the Dean, Faculty of Education, and Faculty refers to the Faculty of Education, through its various operating committees.

Students taking any of the Master of Education Degree programs are advised that a Bachelor of Education Degree is required for employment in the K-12 system.

8.1 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission to the Master of Education is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission to a graduate program in Education, an applicant shall:
   a. have from a recognized institution, either (i) an undergraduate degree with at least second class standing, or (ii) an undergraduate degree and an average of at least 70% in the last 90 attempted undergraduate credit hours.
   b. meet the requirements set forth in the specific program regulations.

2. Only in exceptional circumstances, and only on the recommendation of the Dean of Education, shall the Dean consider applicants who do not meet the requirements in 1.

3. Please refer to Specific Programs regulations for additional admission requirements.

8.2 Program of Study
1. Candidates for the Master of Education (Educational Leadership Studies, Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies) shall be required to complete a minimum of:
   a. 18 credit hours plus a thesis; or
   b. 24 credit hours plus an internship report, a project report or a paper folio; or
   c. 30 credit hours on the comprehensive-course route.

Candidates for the Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies) shall be required to complete a minimum of:
   a. 18 credit hours plus a thesis; or
   b. 24 credit hours plus an internship; or
   c. 30 credit hours on the comprehensive-course route

Candidates for the Master of Education (Counselling Psychology) shall be required to complete a minimum of:
   a. 30 credit hours (which include an internship) plus a thesis; or
   b. 36 credit hours (which include an internship) on the comprehensive-course route.

Unless otherwise indicated, all courses have a 3-credit hour value.

Programs for some candidates may exceed the above minimum.

2. Candidates may apply for transfer of course credits. All course transfers require the approval of the Dean, on the recommendation of the Dean of Education, and are subject to General Regulation, Program Requirements, Transfer of Course Credits of the School of Graduate Studies.

3. a. A candidate with full-time status may register for a maximum of 12 credit hours in any regular semester and a maximum of 6 credit hours in intersession or summer session.
   b. A candidate with part-time status may register for a maximum of 3 credit hours in any semester or session, excluding summer session, when 6 credit hours are permitted.
   c. Candidates may register for additional courses in a semester or session with the permission of the Office of the Associate Dean of Graduate Programs in Education.

4. Before submission of the proposal for thesis, project, internship, or paper folio, a Supervisory Committee shall be recommended by the Dean of Education, in consultation with the candidate, and approved by the Dean. The Supervisory Committee shall consist of the Supervisor and at least one other member.

The function of the Supervisory Committee shall be to approve the proposal for the thesis, project, internship, or paper folio, and to exercise supervision in the conduct of the study on behalf of the Faculty, subject to the final approval of the Dean.

8.3 Period of Study

The period of the study for a graduate program shall not normally exceed six years beyond first registration. Completion of some program components may require full-time study on the University campus.

8.4 Evaluation

1. In order to continue as a candidate for the Master of Education Degree, a candidate who receives a final grade of ‘C’ in any program course must repeat that course and obtain a minimum grade of ‘B’. In the case of an elective course a suitable replacement course, acceptable to the Faculty, may be substituted for the failed course. Only one such repetition/replacement shall be permitted on the candidate’s graduate program. Should a grade of less than ‘B’ be obtained in the repeated course, replacement course, or any other program course, the candidate shall be required to withdraw from the program.

2. When the Faculty has determined, through consultation with the candidate, the instructors of graduate courses, and the program advisor or thesis Supervisor that the candidate’s work has fallen below satisfactory level, it may request that the Dean of Education recommend to the Dean that the candidate’s program be terminated.

8.5 Thesis

See School of Graduate Studies General Regulation, Theses and Reports.

8.6 Program Regulations

Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations, the Degree Regulations Program of Study, and the specific program regulations as outlined in Specific Programs.

8.7 Appeals and Waivers Procedures

Candidates are advised that appeals and waivers of any regulations governing the Degree of Master of Education are governed by School of Graduate Studies General Regulations Provision For Waiver of Regulations and Appeal Procedures.

8.8 Specific Programs

1. Educational Leadership Studies

Educational Leadership Studies is designed to prepare candidates for leadership in Education.

a. Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the requirements in the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations,

i. students must have completed a range and number of courses in Education deemed appropriate by the Faculty and Dean of Education.

ii. a minimum of two years of teaching/leadership experience is recommended.

b. Program Requirements

i. all students in the Master of Education Program (Educational Leadership Studies) must complete:

   • 6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education
   • 6204 Educational Administration: Theory and Practice
   • 6205 Educational Policy: Theory and Practice and one of the following:
   • 6 credit hours (thesis route) within closed electives as listed in v. below
   • 9 credit hours (internship, paper folio, project, comprehensive course route) within closed electives as listed in v. below

ii. students on the thesis route must complete at least one of the research courses listed below (6100 is prerequisite):

   • 6466 Qualitative Research Methods
   • 6467 Quantitative Research Methods
   • 6468 Critical Approaches to Educational Research
   • 6469 Theoretical and Methodological Foundations of Action Research

iii. students on the comprehensive-course route must complete 6290 Research and Development Seminar in Educational Leadership Studies. Normally students would be permitted to register for this course only after all other course requirements have been met, or during the student's last semester of studies.

iv. to meet total credit hour requirements students may choose electives from any university graduate offering provided that those chosen are appropriate to the student's program:

   • students on the thesis route must complete a total of at least 18 credit hours
   • students on the internship, paper folio, or project route must complete a total of at least 24 credit hours and the appropriate course option 6291 Internship in Educational Leadership Studies (6 credit hours), 6292 Project in Educational Leadership Studies (6 credit hours), or 6293 Paper Folio in Educational Leadership Studies (6 credit hours)
   • students on the comprehensive-course route must complete a total of at least 30 credit hours

v. Closed electives are those listed below:

6202 Social Context of Educational Leadership
6203 Leadership: Theory and Practice
621 Supervisory Processes in Education
6330 Educational Finance
6335 Legal Foundations of Educational Administration
6410 Seminar on Philosophical Issues in Educational Policy and Leadership 6420 Ethical Issues and Perspectives in Educational Practice and Policy
6425 Comparative Perspectives in Public Education, Reform and Leadership
2. Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies

The Master of Education in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies provides opportunities for students to investigate pertinent issues in these interrelated areas from a variety of perspectives: philosophical, historical, social, cultural, cognitive, and technological. The conceptual bases of curriculum, teaching, and learning are explored and analysed along with related examples of historical and current policies and practices. The program encourages the development of broad-based insights into issues related to these areas through an emphasis on critical inquiry and reflective practice. It supports students in the development and enhancement of research capabilities and professional expertise and practice.

Students may choose between two program options in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies:

Option One

Option Two

In consultation with a faculty advisor, students may choose to design a program speciality which addresses their research interests. Specialty foci within Curriculum, Teaching, and Learning Studies are numerous and may include technology and web-based education, arts education, rural and multi-age education, cultural studies and critical theory, and social justice education. Students may alternatively select appropriate courses from other Master of Education program offerings to develop a program to meet their learning goals. Students interested in this option are strongly encouraged to explore and to focus their research and study interests and to discuss these interests with a faculty advisor.

a. Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the requirements in the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations,

i. students must have completed a range and number of courses in Education deemed appropriate by the Faculty and Dean of Education.

ii. a minimum of two years of teaching or related experience is recommended.

iii. for a specialization in special education, a completed Bachelor of Special Education Degree or equivalent is required and enrollment will be limited to applicants articulating a research focus for which appropriate thesis supervision is available.

b. Program Requirements

i. all students in the Master of Education Program (Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies) shall be required to complete:
   - 6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education
   - 6300 Teaching and Learning
   - 6602 Curriculum Studies

ii. students on the thesis route must complete at least one of the research courses listed below (6100 is prerequisite):
   - 6466 Qualitative Research Methods
   - 6467 Quantitative Research Methods
   - 6468 Critical Approaches to Educational Research
   - 6469 Theoretical and Methodological Foundations of Action Research

iii. students choosing Option One on the internship, paper folio, project route, and comprehensive-course route must complete at least 2 courses within one particular specialty area from the list in viii. below.

iv. students choosing Option Two must choose courses that have been designated through consultation with faculty advisor during the first semester of studies in this program.

v. students choosing the Special Education specialization within Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies must complete a thesis and at least two of the required Special Education specialty courses.

vi. students on the comprehensive-course route must complete one of the following courses: E6390 Research and Development Seminar in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies or E6394 Biographical Explorations of Teaching and Learning or 6913 Classroom Inquiry and Action Research. Normally students would be permitted to register for one of these courses only after all other course requirements have been met, or during the student's last semester of studies.

vii. to meet total credit hour requirements students may choose electives from any university graduate offering provided that those chosen are appropriate to the student's program:
   - students on the thesis route must complete a total of at least 18 credit hours
   - students on the internship, paper folio, project route must complete a total of at least 24 credit hours and the appropriate course option 6391 Internship in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies (6 credit hours), 6392 Project in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies (6 credit hours), or 6393 Paper Folio in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Studies (6 credit hours)
   - students on the comprehensive-course route must complete a total of at least 30 credit hours

viii. core speciality courses in the study of curriculum, teaching and learning areas are those listed below:

Computers in Education
6610 Research on Computers in the Curriculum
6620 Issues and Trends in Educational Computing

Language and Literacy Studies
6106 Reading and Teaching Popular Culture
3. Counselling Psychology

The mission of the program in Counselling Psychology is to prepare highly knowledgeable, skilled, dedicated, and ethical professional practitioners, who will endeavour to enhance human potential throughout the life span and who can effectively practice within a variety of settings.

The Counselling Psychology faculty promotes counselling as an effective, viable means of assisting individuals throughout the life span. The counselling psychologist, regardless of his or her theoretical stance or work setting, functions as a change agent who is sensitive to and knowledgeable about the range of human development reflected in individual differences and cultural and linguistic diversity. Effective and positive change is brought about by assisting clients to: examine and modify their behaviour for more effective living; cope with, adjust to, or otherwise negotiate the environments affecting their psychosocial well-being; and effect change in the larger society.

The practice of Counselling Psychology is based on theory and research, an understanding of ethical practices, and a set of professional and interpersonal skills. It is essential that graduate students study a variety of conceptual frameworks and research findings as preparation for collaborative work with other helping professionals, paraprofessionals, and a variety of self-help groups.

The Counselling Psychology faculty, while representing a range of views, agree that the uniqueness of the individual and his or her personal strengths must be acknowledged and respected. To fully explore professional issues and personal values, a trusting and open atmosphere must be present.

Individuals from a wide variety of personal, social, and educational backgrounds are encouraged to apply to the Counselling Psychology program. The program provides a broad-based sequence of studies and supervised experiences that will prepare graduate students to be knowledgeable and skilled practitioners who can function in a variety of settings. By the time they have completed this program, students will have acquired knowledge and competencies in the following general areas: individual and group counselling theory and techniques, legal and ethical aspects of counselling, human development and learning, social, cultural, and linguistic diversity, career education and counselling, program development and implementation, measurement and appraisal, research and program evaluation, and application of current technology service delivery in rural areas.

a. Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the requirements in the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations, students:

i. must have completed Education 3210, Introduction to Counselling.

ii. should have completed at least one undergraduate course on each of the following topics: statistics (Education 2900), assessment (Education 3280, 3290, 3950, 3955 or 4950), introduction to career education (Education 3211), introduction to exceptionality (Education 3220 or 3230). (Or their equivalent)

Note: Many of these courses are prerequisites to specific graduate courses and must be completed before taking those courses.

iii. should normally have at least one year of teaching (or related work) experience.

iv. must submit a resume that contains a concise rationale for the application (500 words or less) and three letters of recommendation (preferably one from each of the following: previous university instructors, supervisors, or employers).

v. should note admission is selective and controlled by an admission committee of faculty members involved in the program.

An interview may be required if deemed necessary.

vi. should note the Graduate Record Examination may be required.
b. Program Requirements

i. all students in the Master of Education (Counselling Psychology) program shall be required to complete:
   - 6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education (Prerequisite: Education 2900)
   - 6702 Counselling: Theory and Practice (Prerequisite: Education 3210)
   - 6706 Career Education and Career Counselling (Prerequisite: Education 3211)
   - 6708 Group Counselling: Theory and Practice (Prerequisite: Education 6702)
   - 6700 Ethical and Legal Issues in Counselling
   - 6720 Internship in Counselling Psychology (Prerequisite: Normally completion of all courses) (9 credit hours)

ii. Students on the thesis route must complete the core courses listed above (24 credit hours) as well as a minimum of 6 credit hours from the closed electives indicated below for a total of 30 credit hours.

iii. Students on the comprehensive-course route must complete the core courses listed above (24 credit hours) as well as a minimum of 6 credit hours from the closed electives and 6 credit hours from any university graduate offering provided that those chosen are appropriate to the student's program for a total of 36 credit hours.

iv. All students in the Counselling Psychology program must complete 6720. The Internship may be fulfilled full-time or part-time and must comprise 600 clock hours with 240 hours of direct service with clients. It cannot be completed as part of your regular employment. It is strongly recommended that students take no other course during the full-time internship.

v. Closed electives are those listed below:
   - 6703 Personal and Professional Development Group
   - 6705 Nature and Development of School Counselling Services
   - 6707 Assessment for Counsellors
   - 6708 Assessment of Intelligence and Learning Skills (Prerequisite: 3600 or its graduate equivalent 6707. Normally, students in Counselling Psychology will not enroll in this course until the latter part of their program). Candidates intending to pursue a career in the K-12 school system in Newfoundland and Labrador are urged to take this course and the prerequisite.
   - 6710 Issues in Development and Implementation of Special Education Policy and Practices
   - 6712 The Nature and Assessment of Behaviour Disorders in Children and Adolescents
   - 6713 Educational Applications of Contemporary Cognitive Psychology
   - 6714 Principles and Practices in Exceptionality
   - 6716 Working with Families and Parents
   - 6717 Counselling Adolescents
   - 6718 Elementary School Counselling
   - 6719 Cultural Issues in Counselling
   - 6802 Adult Learning and Development

Notes:

1. Student membership in the Canadian Counselling Association (CCA) or other appropriate professional organizations is strongly recommended for all students in the program.
2. Students who plan to work in the school system should be aware of the Department of Education regulations to be eligible to work as a school counsellor.
3. Students who plan to become registered psychologists in Newfoundland and Labrador should review the requirements of the Newfoundland Board of Examiners in Psychology.

4. Post-Secondary Studies

The graduate programs in Post-Secondary Studies are designed to prepare candidates to function in a variety of roles in informal and formal post-secondary learning environments (including academic, technical, professional, adult education, health professional education, and student services/development). These programs facilitate a study of the post-secondary educational systems through an examination of their foundations, directions, organization and administration; and through curriculum and instructional development options for occupational preparation and adult education.

a. Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the requirements in the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations,

i. candidates must have completed an undergraduate course in statistics (Education 2900), adult learning (Education 2801), and post-secondary education (Education 2720), or have accumulated the equivalent experiences in each of the above three areas as approved by the Head of the Academic Unit;

ii. two years of successful experience in working with adult learners is recommended;

iii. and for the Graduate Diploma in Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education) program, candidates must have appropriate academic qualifications and work experience in a health-related field.

b. Program Requirements (M. ED.)

i. Candidates for the Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies) are required to complete courses that form the program core.
   - 6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education
   - 6801 Foundations of Post-Secondary Programs
   - 6802 Adult Learning and Development
   - 6803 Research in Post-Secondary Education
   - and no fewer than 6 credit hours from closed electives in vii. below.

ii. Students holding the Graduate Diploma in Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education) and accepted in the Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies) will complete up to 12 fewer credit hours dependent upon the chosen program route and the completion date of the Graduate Diploma.

iii. Students on the comprehensive-course route must complete 6890 Research and Development Seminar in Post-Secondary Studies.

iv. Students on the internship route must complete 6891 Internship in Post-Secondary Studies (6 credit hours).

v. Normally, students will be permitted to register for 6890 and 6891 only after all other course requirements have been met.

vi. To meet total credit hour requirements students may choose courses from other graduate offerings within the Faculty, the University, or other universities provided the courses chosen are appropriate to the student's program. Students on the thesis route must complete a total of at least 18 credit hours; and those on the internship or comprehensive-course route a total of at least 30 credit hours.

vii. Closed electives are those listed below:
Program Requirements for Graduate Diploma in Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education)

The Graduate Diploma in post-secondary studies, specialization in health professional education, which was created in collaboration with the Centre for Collaborative Health Professional Education, is designed to enhance health professionals' abilities as educators and leaders in educational program design, development, evaluation and administration. The Graduate Diploma is intended for educators and educational leaders of formal and informal post-secondary health professional education programs.

Participants will engage in an in-depth study of the structure and organization of the post-secondary education system, theories and philosophies of adult learning and development; and through elective courses pursue studies of program development models, instructional design frameworks, evaluation and assessment techniques, teaching methods, and research design principles in post-secondary teaching and learning. Opportunities will exist for the guided study of these topics as they relate to health professional education.

i. Candidates for the Graduate Diploma in Post-Secondary Studies (Health Professional Education) are required to complete courses that form the program core:
   - E601 Foundations of Post-Secondary Programs
   - E602 Adult Learning and Development
   - E606 Interprofessional Education in the Health Professions
   - and not fewer than 3 credit hours from closed electives in b. vii. above or from:
     - 6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education
     - 6803 Research in Post-Secondary Education

ii. Students are encouraged to relate their assignments in these courses to health professional education.

iii. Students enrolled in the Graduate Diploma program may request transfer to the Master of Education (Post-Secondary Studies). Courses for both the Graduate Diploma and the Degree must be appropriate to the program and chosen in consultation with the student's advisor.

5. Information Technology

The graduate program in Information Technology is offered in partnership with the Cape Breton University (CBU). It is designed to facilitate the educational use of information technology in a wide variety of settings. The program will be of interest to educators at all levels including K-12 teachers, school administrators, those in the post-secondary system, business and industry, as well as those in most other adult learning situations.

Information technology in this Master of Education program encompasses computer, communications, networking and multi-media applications. The overall intent of the program is to:

- provide educators with skill sets and pedagogical expertise that will enable them to address computer and related information technology in a teaching/learning situation;
- develop potential information technology leaders for the educational system;
- develop instructional designers, for a variety of educational settings, who are able to combine information technology with learning theory to enhance curriculum development and delivery;
- provide a basis for the continued professional development of educators in the area of information technology;
- develop an awareness of the applications of information technology in a wide variety of educational contexts; and
- develop research expertise and potential in the use and application of information technology for teaching and learning purposes.

Candidates for the program will have attained, prior to acceptance, some fundamental knowledge and skills with respect to information technology through pre-requisite experiences, and have attained a recognized undergraduate degree in an appropriate discipline with at least a second class standing (see specific regulations for details). The program components are designed to enable candidates to build on their prior experience through the development of pedagogical links and information technology applications. It is intended that the program be offered primarily as a part-time program through distance delivered courses, with other delivery formats to be considered/utilized where feasible. Access to specific computer hardware, software, and the internet is required and will be the responsibility of each candidate.

A steering committee comprised of three members from each of the Faculty of Education at Memorial University of Newfoundland and the Institute for Education at CBU is responsible to the Associate Dean of Graduate Programs and Research, Faculty of Education, for selected aspects of the program. The latter include assessing student applications, recommending approval of instructors who are not regular faculty members at either CBU or Memorial University of Newfoundland, and recommending course or program changes. This committee is to be co-chaired by the Associate Dean of Graduate Programs and Research, Faculty of Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland and the Director of the Institute for Education at CBU, or their designate(s).

CBU courses offered as part of this program are indicated by the prefix “CBU EDU” followed by the specific course number.

a. Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the requirements in the School of Graduate Studies General Regulations, Faculty of Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland, candidates must have successfully completed:

i. one of a diploma or certificate in information technology from an accredited institution; CBU EDU 530; Memorial University of Newfoundland E2751 and E3751; or equivalent as determined by the program steering committee.

b. Program Requirements

i. all candidates for the Master of Education (Information Technology) must complete E6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education.

ii. candidates on the thesis route must complete:
three credit hours from:
6610 Research on Computers in the Curriculum
6615 Educational Software Prototyping and Evaluation
6620 Issues and Trends in Educational Computing

nine credit hours selected from the core elective CBU courses approved for this program:
CBU EDU 531 Assessment of Software and Information Technology Applications for Education
CBU EDU 533 Integration of Instructional Design and Information Technology
CBU EDU 535 Applications of Learning Theory in Educational Multi-media Design
CBU EDU 537 Designing Web-based Learning
CBU EDU 539 Technology Planning for Educational Environments
CBU EDU 541 Information Management for Educational Environments

three credit hours from: 6822, 6823, 6802, E6426, or from other Memorial University of Newfoundland, Faculty of Education graduate course offerings as deemed appropriate for each candidate's program and approved by the program steering committee.

iii. candidates on the comprehensive-course route must complete:
  • six credit hours selected from E6610, E6615, E6620 listed in ii. above
  • twelve credit hours selected from CBU EDU 531, EDU 533, EDU 535, EDU 537, EDU 539, EDU 541 listed in ii. above
  • E6590 Research and Development Seminar in Information Technology in Education
  • three credit hours from E6822, E6823, E6802, E6426, or from other Memorial University of Newfoundland, Faculty of Education
  • graduate course offerings as deemed appropriate for each candidate's program and approved by the program steering committee
  • additional credit hours appropriate to a candidate's program, and approved by the program steering committee, to be chosen from graduate course offerings at Memorial University of Newfoundland, CBU, or any other university to complete the required 30 credit hours for the comprehensive course route

iv. normally, candidates will be permitted to register for E6590 only after all other course requirements have been met

v. candidates who have successfully completed the CBU graduate level Certificate in Education (Technology) will be given advanced standing credit for the 9 CBU EDU course credit requirements for the thesis route or 12 CBU EDU course credit requirements for the comprehensive course-route on this program

vi. candidates who have successfully completed the former CBU EDU 534 and/or EDU 543 with at least a CBU grade of B (70%) toward the CBU graduate level Certificate in Education (Technology) prior to September 2000, will receive up to 12 advanced standing credit hours appropriate to their Degree option (EDU 534 will be considered equivalent to EDU 531 and EDU 533, and EDU 543 equivalent to EDU 535 and EDU 537)

vii. thesis-route candidates will be subject to Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies, Memorial University of Newfoundland, supervised by a faculty member at Memorial University of Newfoundland, and where feasible co-supervised by a CBU faculty member.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses shall be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Faculty allow:
6100 Research Designs and Methods in Education
6105 Social and Cultural Difference and Education
6106 Reading and Teaching Popular Culture

9 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Employment Relations

Professor and Director
S. Cadigan

The Master of Employment Relations (M.E.R.) is a multi-disciplinary program providing advanced level study of all aspects of the employment relationship.

The M.E.R. program is offered by full-time or part-time study and involves 33 credit hours of coursework, including a major supervised paper. Candidates registered on a full-time basis will normally complete the program in one academic year.

The following regulations must be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

9.1 Administration
1. The program shall be administered by a Director, who shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Deans of Arts and Business Administration. In making this recommendation, the Deans of Arts and Business Administration shall consult with the employment relations community both within and outside the University.
2. The Director shall be responsible to a Graduate Committee in Employment Relations (GCER) for the purposes of administering the program. The GCER shall consist of five members appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Director. The GCER will include the Director, who shall Chair the committee, and two faculty members from each of the Faculties of Arts and Business Administration.
3. An Advisory Board in Employment Relations (ABER) shall be established for the purposes of consulting with and obtaining feedback from the employment relations community. The ABER will consist of a broad cross-section of members from the employment relations community both within and outside the University who shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Director.

9.2 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission is limited and competitive.
2. To be considered for admission to the M.E.R. program, an applicant shall have:
   a. An undergraduate degree, with a minimum B standing, from an institution recognized by Senate; and
   b. An undergraduate course in organizational behaviour and microeconomics, from an institution recognized by Senate, with a minimum B standing in each course.
3. In exceptional cases, applicants who have not completed an undergraduate degree, but who meet all other requirements, may be considered for admission. Preference will be given to those who have a minimum of 10 years of full-time professional experience, including demonstrated success in employment relations, and who have successfully completed substantial university coursework including several courses at an advanced undergraduate level from an institution recognized by Senate. Applicants without an undergraduate degree must have completed one or more undergraduate courses in organizational behavioural and microeconomics, from an institution recognized by Senate, with a minimum B standing in each course. Any applicants who do not meet normal admission requirements, may also be required to successfully complete the GMAT or the GRE with an acceptable score and/or additional undergraduate courses before being considered for admission.
4. Applicants are strongly encouraged to complete an introductory course in statistics prior to admission.

9.3 Deadlines for Applications
1. Applicants seeking full-time enrolment will normally only be admitted to the program in the Fall (September) semester.
2. Applications must be postmarked no later than February 15 for applicants wishing to enter full-time or part-time studies in the Fall (September) semester.
3. Applications must be postmarked no later than August 15 for applicants wishing to enter part-time studies in the Winter (January) semester.
4. Individuals submitting applications later than the above dates are not assured of consideration for admission to the program in the semester desired; their applications will be processed only if time and resources permit.

9.4 Procedure for Admission
1. Applications for admission to the M.E.R. program must be made on the appropriate form and submitted to the School of Graduate Studies.
2. The following documents must be submitted in support of the official application form:
   a. Letter of appraisal from three referees, at least one of whom is capable of appraising the applicant's academic potential as a graduate student, and at least one of whom is capable of appraising the applicant's professional experience and/or actual or likely success in a career in employment relations.
   b. Two copies of the M.E.R. Employment Experience Information Form.
   c. Two official transcripts from each university or other post-secondary institution previously attended, to be sent directly by its Registrar (or equivalent officer) to the School of Graduate Studies. If not recorded on the transcript, official evidence of completion of undergraduate degree must also be submitted.
3. Application files are normally evaluated after the deadline dates for application noted above and only when all required documentation has been received.
4. Admission shall be by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the GCER. Upon notification from the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies of acceptance into the M.E.R. program, applicants must give written notice to the School of Graduate Studies of their intention to register.

9.5 Program of Study
1. The M.E.R. program consists of 33 credit hours of coursework as specified in Table I. These include 27 credit hours of compulsory courses and 6 credit hours of elective courses. The compulsory courses are comprised of 18 credit hours of core courses specified... in Table II and 9 credit hours for a research seminar.

2. The compulsory core courses introduce students to the three main areas of study in the program: labour-management relations; human resources management; and labour market and social policy analysis.

3. Electives allow students to specialize in one or more of the three main areas of study. Electives must be chosen from the list of approved electives specified in Table III. Other courses may be approved and added to Table III from time to time by the GCER.

4. Candidates are responsible for fulfilling all pre-requisites and may require special permission from the Department offering an elective to enrol in the course.

5. The Research Seminar in Employment Relations provides students with both quantitative and qualitative research skills and requires the identification of a research problem, the development and execution of a methodology appropriate to addressing the problem, analysis of results, and completion of final report. The Research Seminar involves 3 credit hours of coursework in each of the Fall, Winter and Spring semesters.

6. Candidates enrolled in Research Seminar in Employment Relations will normally have completed an introductory course in statistics. If candidates' records suggest a deficiency in statistics, the GCER reserves the right to require that they complete a foundation course in statistics as part of, and to be completed during, their program.

7. The prerequisites for EMRE 6030 are EMRE 6010 and EMRE 6020. In addition, students will normally complete six M.E.R. courses before registering for EMRE 6030. There are no prerequisites for EMRE 6010 and EMRE 6020 but students are advised to take these courses late in their programs, just before taking EMRE 6030. For the core courses, the prerequisite for BUSI 9329 is BUSI 8210. For the remaining core courses, there are no prerequisites. For the elective courses, Departmental regulations that specify particular courses as prerequisites will apply but the Departmental requirement to have completed a number of courses will not apply.

8. A waiver of a core course may be granted by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the GCER if the candidate can demonstrate that the material in the course has been substantially covered by other courses taken at this or another recognized university. In such cases, the course must be replaced by another course offered by Memorial University of Newfoundland in consultation with the candidate, and approved by the GCER. The maximum number of core courses that can be waived is 3 and all replacement courses must be taken during the candidate's period of enrollment in the program.

9. Each student's program of study must be approved by the GCER. The GCER reserves the right to restrict candidates from taking particular courses if it is deemed that those courses do not add sufficient value beyond courses that the candidate has completed at the undergraduate level.

9.6 Evaluation

1. Candidates for the M.E.R. Degree must obtain a grade of B or better in all program courses.

2. Candidates who receive a grade of less than B in a program course will be permitted to remain in the program, provided the course is repeated and passed with a grade of B or better. Alternatively, the candidate may, on the recommendation of the GCER, and with the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies, substitute another graduate course. Only one course repetition or substitution will be permitted during the candidate's program after which the candidate shall be required to withdraw from the program.

10 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Engineering

Professor and Dean
R. Gosine

Professor and Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research)
R. Venkatesan

The Degree of Master of Engineering (M.Eng.) is a research-focused Degree and may be obtained either through full-time or part-time studies. The M.Eng. Degree can be obtained through programs in the following: Civil Engineering; Computer Engineering; Electrical Engineering; Mechanical Engineering; Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering; and Oil and Gas Engineering. At present, the following interdisciplinary research areas are active in the Faculty: Engineering Analysis; Environmental and Water Resources; Manufacturing and Robotics; Mechanics, Structures and Materials; and Ocean Engineering. The interdisciplinary area of Ocean Engineering has been and continues to be a major strength for graduate studies and research in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

10.1 Qualifications for Admission

To be considered for admission, an applicant shall meet the requirements set out in General Regulation, Qualification for Admission, or shall have qualifications and/or engineering experience that is acceptable to the Dean of Graduate Studies and to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

Admission to the M.Eng. program is limited and competitive. All applicants must meet the minimum qualifications set out in the above paragraph. Decisions on admission, however, will also take into account such things as the applicant's rank in class, referees' assessments, general performance throughout the applicant's undergraduate academic program and the availability of supervisors in the area of the applicant's interest.

Normally applicants will be considered in January for admission to the following September. In special cases applicants may also be considered in April and August. Applications should be made sufficiently far in advance to permit the University to obtain all relevant documents and review the application.

10.2 Program of Study and Research

1. Students enrolled in the Master of Engineering program will work in one of the following areas: Civil Engineering; Computer Engineering; Electrical Engineering; Mechanical Engineering; Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering; and Oil and Gas Engineering.

2. A program shall normally consist of:
   a. a thesis related to the area of study
   b. a minimum of 15 credit hours, at least 12 credit hours of which must be from graduate courses. Three credit hours may be taken from undergraduate courses approved for the student's program by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science
   c. Seminar course 9100
   d. such other courses as may be required in an individual's program.

For students enrolled in the Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Ocean and Naval Architectural Engineering disciplines, or Oil and Gas Engineering, a program shall normally include at least 9 credit hours from courses chosen from the core courses listed below.

3. The following are core courses:
   ENG. 9002, 9015, 9110, 9113, 9114, 9115, 9210, 9411, 9420, 9501, 9505, 9516, 9520, 9550, 9609, 9627, 9816, 9821, 9826, 9827, 9834, 9847, 9861, 9865, 9867, 9871, 9874, 9876, 9901, 9902, 9940.

4. The thesis is to contain the results of a systematic investigation which has been conducted by the candidate under the direction of the Supervisor.

5. With the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies and on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, credit towards the course requirements may be considered for graduate courses previously taken by the student in accordance with General Regulations for course credit transfers.

10.3 Supervision

1. Each student shall be assigned to a Supervisor approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

2. The Supervisor shall propose a tentative program of study and topic of investigation which must be approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies acting on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, before the acceptance of a student in the program.

3. At the end of each semester, the Supervisor shall report on the student's progress to the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science for onward transmission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

4. A temporary or permanent change of Supervisor for a student already in a program shall be permitted only with the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies and the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science.

5. The Supervisor shall advise the student in the preparation and presentation of a seminar on the student's topic of investigation as described in Thesis, 2. below.

10.4 Industrial Internship Option

The Faculty encourages graduate students to undertake internships of work in industry. Internships in industry will permit students either (a) to focus on the practicalities of research projects which have been well defined before the student enters an internship, or (b) to develop and define a research project from problems experienced during the internship. Encouragement to undertake an internship will be given only where it is clear that one of these expectations can be met.

Students registered in the M.Eng. program may, with the permission of their Supervisor, the Dean of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, and the Dean of Graduate Studies select the Industrial Internship Option. Students registered in the option must satisfy the degree regulations for an M.Eng. program. In addition, students in the Industrial Internship Option:
- must take at least 9 credit hours of the courses required for their program on campus; the remaining required courses may be taken on or away from campus: those taken at other universities require pre-approval by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science
- shall normally spend 8 to 12 months of their program at an internship in industry
- shall normally spend at least two semesters on campus on a full-time basis as a graduate student at this university
- shall submit a concise progress report to their supervisors, no later than the end of each semester while on an internship

10.5 Fast-Track Option

Students registered in academic term 7 of a Memorial University of Newfoundland undergraduate engineering program are eligible to apply for admission to an M.Eng. fast-track option. The purpose of the option is to encourage students interested in pursuing graduate studies to begin their research-related activities while still registered as an undergraduate student. Normally, to be considered for admission to the option, students must have achieved at least a 70% average over academic terms 1 to 6 of their undergraduate engineering program. While enrolled in the option, a student may complete some of the M.Eng. Degree requirements and, hence, potentially be able to graduate earlier from the M.Eng. program.

Students shall enroll in the M.Eng. fast-track option concurrently with their undergraduate program during the fall semester prior to academic term 8. Prior to entering the fast-track option, students must apply for and receive an exemption from work term 6. While enrolled in the option a student must be registered in full-time graduate studies during the fall semester prior to academic term 8; during academic term 8, the student must take a leave of absence from the graduate program. A student enrolled in the fast-track option shall undertake research related to their field of study and shall normally complete at least 3 credit hours from the courses listed for their M.Eng. program in the fall semester prior to academic term 8.

In the Fall semester following academic term 7, fast-track option students will pay only the graduate fees appropriate to graduate students following plan A of Fees and Charges (i.e., the 6 semester plan). In the succeeding winter semester, while completing academic term 8 of their undergraduate program, fast-track option students will pay only the appropriate undergraduate fees. Upon completion of their undergraduate program, students may register in the M.Eng. program on a full-time basis. All courses taken as part of their graduate program while enrolled in the M.Eng. fast-track option are credited towards the M.Eng. Degree course credit hour requirements. Courses taken as credit towards a student's undergraduate degree may not be credited towards a student's graduate degree; courses credited towards a student's graduate degree may not be credited towards a student's undergraduate degree. Students who do not complete their undergraduate degree within one year of entering the fast-track option will normally be required to withdraw from their M.Eng. program.

10.6 Course Evaluation

1. In order to continue in the program, a student shall obtain an A or B grade in each course taken for credit.

2. The student's achievement in the program must be to the satisfaction of the Dean of Graduate Studies and the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. When it has been determined on the basis of consultations with the student, the course instructors and the Supervisor, that a student's work has fallen below satisfactory level, he/she may be required to withdraw from the program.

10.7 Thesis

1. A student who expects to graduate must inform the Dean of Graduate Studies of this intention at least three months before the University Convocation at which the award of the degree is expected.

2. Before the thesis is submitted, the student shall present an open seminar on the topic of investigation to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. Any serious deficiencies noticed at this stage should be carefully considered, in consultation with the Supervisor, for rectification.

3. Three copies of the thesis shall be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies through the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, in a form and format as specified in the Thesis Guide issued by the School of Graduate Studies and the Presentation of Theses Guide issued by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. A submission which does not meet the specifications will be returned to the candidate.

4. Examiners shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science soon after the student has expressed an intention to submit the thesis.

10.8 Evaluation of Theses

Theses evaluation shall be carried out in accordance with Theses and Reports of the General Regulations governing all students in the School of Graduate Studies.

The Theses Guide issued by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. A submission which does not meet the specifications will be returned to the candidate on rectification.

When it has been determined on the basis of consultations with the student, the course instructors and the Supervisor, that a student's work has fallen below satisfactory level, he/she may be required to withdraw from the program.

1. A student who expects to graduate must inform the Dean of Graduate Studies of this intention at least three months before the University Convocation at which the award of the degree is expected.

2. Before the thesis is submitted, the student shall present an open seminar on the topic of investigation to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. Any serious deficiencies noticed at this stage should be carefully considered, in consultation with the Supervisor, for rectification.

3. Three copies of the thesis shall be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies through the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, in a form and format as specified in the Thesis Guide issued by the School of Graduate Studies and the Presentation of Theses Guide issued by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. A submission which does not meet the specifications will be returned to the candidate.

4. Examiners shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science soon after the student has expressed an intention to submit the thesis.

10.8 Evaluation of Theses

Theses evaluation shall be carried out in accordance with Theses and Reports of the General Regulations governing all students in the School of Graduate Studies.
10.9 Recommendation for Awarding Degree

When a student has completed all the requirements for the M.Eng. Degree, the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science shall forward a recommendation to the Dean of Graduate Studies for the award of the Degree.

10.10 Program in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a program in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science. The program is available on a full-time or part-time basis and is open to students with a Science or Engineering background. For details of program requirements for the M.A.Sc. Degree in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science refer to the regulations governing the Degree of Master of Applied Science in Engineering and Applied Science.

10.11 Course-Based Program in Computer Engineering

In addition to the research-focussed M.Eng. Degree in Computer Engineering, the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a course-based program in Computer Engineering leading to a Master of Applied Science Degree in Computer Engineering. For details of program requirements for the M.A.Sc. Degree in Computer Engineering, refer to the regulations governing the Degree of Master of Applied Science.

10.12 Program in Environmental Systems Engineering and Management

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science offers a program in Environmental Systems Engineering and Management. For the details of the program requirements for the M.A.Sc. Degree in Environmental Systems Engineering and Management refer to the regulations governing the Degree of Master of Applied Science in Environmental Systems Engineering and Management.

10.13 Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of the candidates, as far as the resources of the Faculty will allow.

Required Courses:

9100 Engineering Graduate Seminar (1 cr. hr.)

Core Courses*:

9002 Ocean Engineering Structures
9015 Ocean Engineering Hydrodynamics
9110 Advanced Petroleum Production Engineering
9113 Phase Behaviour of Petroleum Reservoir Fluids
9114 Advanced Reservoir Engineering
9115 Safety and Risk Engineering
9411 Probabilistic Methods in Engineering
9420 Engineering Analysis
9501 Finite Element Analysis with Engineering Applications
9505 Structural Dynamics and Vibrations
9516 Similitude, Modelling and Experimental Data Analysis
9520 Solid and Structural Mechanics
9550 Fatigue, Fracture and Corrosion
9609 Environmental Risk Assessment
9627 Environmental Systems Engineering
9816 Antenna Theory
9821 Digital Signal Processing
9826 Advanced Control Systems
9827 Continuous and Discrete-Event Systems
9834 Advanced Power Electronics
9847 Computer and Control Methods in Power Systems
9861 High-Performance Computer Architecture
9865 Advanced Digital Systems
9867 Advanced Computing Concepts for Engineering
9871 Information Theory and Coding
9874 Software Design and Specification
9876 Advanced Data Networks
9901 Fundamentals of Fluid Dynamics
9902 Advanced Transport Phenomena
9940 Optimization Principles in Engineering
9970 Advanced Remote Sensing
9990/99 Special Topics in Ocean Engineering
9991 Well Testing
9992 Multiphase Flow
9993 Reliability Engineering
9995/99 Special Topics in Oil and Gas Engineering
9210 Advanced Engineering Materials
9390/94 Special Topics in Engineering Management
9440 Applied Remote Sensing
9500 Environmental Pollution and Mitigation (cross-listed as ENVS 6004)
9603 Environmental Sampling and Pollutant Analysis (cross-listed as ENVS 6005)
9605 Advanced Waste Water Treatment
9610/15 Special Topics in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science
9621 Soil Remediation Engineering

12 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Environmental Science

(see also Master of Science in Environmental Science and Master of Applied Science in Environmental Engineering and Applied Science)

Professor and Chair, Board of Studies
Dr. Chris Parrish

12.1 Program of Study

1. The Environmental Science Program is an interdisciplinary graduate program involving the science-based departments of Memorial University of Newfoundland and along with the Environmental Engineering Program makes up Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Environmental Studies Graduate Program. There are two Environmental Science Graduate Degree streams, the Master of Science (M.Sc., Environmental Science) and the Master of Environmental Science (M.Env.Sc.)

   The program is available on a full-time or part-time basis. Admission is open to students with Science or Engineering backgrounds.

2. The program is offered by the Faculty of Science and is administered by a Board of Studies appointed by the Dean of Science.

12.2 Qualifications for Admission

Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission applicants shall normally hold an Honours Degree in Science with at least second class standing, or equivalent, or a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering from an institution recognized by the Senate or shall have qualifications and/or environmental experience acceptable to the Dean of Graduate Studies and the Board of Studies. The Board of Studies will make recommendations on admission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

12.3 Degree Requirements

1. To the extent that resources permit, individual programs will be developed to suit students’ interests and needs. However all programs must be approved by the Board of Studies and by the Dean of Graduate Studies. All General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies shall apply to these degrees.
2. Master of Environmental Science
   a. The Master of Environmental Science is a multidisciplinary course-based degree, focussed on environmental issues. The Degree program provides for both multidisciplinary courses and for courses focussed on the student's specific area of interest.
   b. The Degree program requires completion of 27 credit hours.
      i. Students will be required to take a minimum of 15 credit hours in program courses, 9 credit hours of which must be ENVE/ENVS 6000, ENVS 6009 and ENVS 6010 and 6 credit hours from ENVE/ENVS 6001, 6002 and 6003.
      ii. Students will be required to take a minimum of 12 credit hours in elective courses approved by the Board of Studies, 9 credit hours of which will normally be selected from graduate courses offered by the Faculties of Science and Engineering and Applied Science. Students are advised to consult with instructors and Faculties regarding necessary prerequisites and availability.

3. Master of Science (Environmental Science)
   a. The Master of Science (Environmental Science) is a research degree which includes a thesis and coursework. The thesis research will focus on environmental topics relevant to the student's background, and will be supervised by appropriate faculty, normally in the Faculties of Science and/or Engineering and Applied Science. The course component has two aims: to broaden the students' understanding of environmental issues; and to provide further training in areas of research specialization for the thesis.
   b. Each student will have a Supervisory Committee normally consisting of a Supervisor and two others. The Supervisory Committee will be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Board of Studies for Environmental Science.
   c. The program of each student will consist of a minimum of 15 credit hours in program courses which will include ENVE/ENVS 6000 and ENVS 6010. Of the 9 credit hours remaining in program courses, 3 credit hours will be from ENVE/ENVS 6001, 6002 and 6003 and the other credit hours will be related to the student's specialty and will normally be chosen from graduate courses offered by the Faculties of Science, and Engineering and Applied Science.
   d. All students will be required to submit a thesis embodying the results of systematic research on an approved topic. The thesis will be evaluated according to procedures outlined in General Regulation Theses and Reports.

Courses
ENVE/ENVS 6000 Environmental Science and Technology
ENVE/ENVS 6001 Earth and Ocean Systems
ENVE/ENVS 6002 Environmental Chemistry and Toxicology
ENVE/ENVS 6003 Applied Ecology
ENVS 6004 Environmental Pollution and Mitigation (cross-listed as Eng 9601)
ENVS 6005 Environmental Sampling and Pollutant Analysis (cross-listed as Eng 9603)
ENVS 6007 Environmental Risk Assessment (same as Eng 9609)
ENVS 6008 Air Pollution (same as Eng 9624)
ENVS 6009 Environmental Science Project

13 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Marine Studies (Fisheries Resource Management)

Program Committee
Dr. Peter Fisher (Fisheries and Marine Institute) - Chair
Dr. Michael Wernerheim (Department of Economics, Faculty of Arts)
Mr. Cyr Couturier (Fisheries and Marine Institute)
Ms. Donna Stapleton (Faculty of Business Administration)
Dr. Joe Wroblewski (Ocean Sciences Centre)

13.1 Programs
There are two graduate programs in Fisheries Resource Management: the Graduate Diploma and the Master of Marine Studies. The Master's Degree requires successful completion of 8 courses plus a major report. The Graduate Diploma requires completion of 6 courses.

The programs are aimed at professionals working in or intending to enter careers in fisheries management. The programs are administered by a Program Committee consisting of five members appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

13.2 Graduate Diploma
The Graduate Diploma in Fisheries Resource Management provides an opportunity for fisheries professionals to enhance their perspective on fishery issues from a variety of disciplines.

1. Admission Requirements
   To be admitted to the Graduate Diploma in Fisheries Resource Management, a student must be eligible to register in the Master of Marine Studies program (see Master of Marine Studies, Admission Requirements below).

2. Program of Study
   The program consists of 18 credit hours. Students must complete 6001 plus five other courses chosen from 6002, 6003, 6004, 6005, 6006 and 6007.

3. Evaluation
   Candidates for the Graduate Diploma in Fisheries Resource Management must obtain a grade of B or better in all program courses.

13.3 Master of Marine Studies
The Degree of Master of Marine Studies (Fisheries Resource Management) (M.M.S.) is a multi-disciplinary program of study that will provide the candidate with exposure to all dimensions of modern fisheries resource management. The program is aimed at professionals working in or intending to enter careers in fisheries management and is available on a full-time or part-time basis. All candidates must take the full complement of 24 credit hours, including a required seminar, plus a major report. Candidates registered on a full-time basis... may complete the program in one academic year. Students who have successfully completed the requirements for the Graduate Diploma may elect to continue their program of study in order to earn the Degree.

1. Admission Requirements
   a. Admission to the program is on a competitive basis. To be considered for admission to the program an applicant must normally have an undergraduate degree with a minimum of a high second class standing from an institution recognized by the Senate.
   b. In addition to the academic requirements in a. applicants will normally have a demonstrated commitment to fisheries through employment or experience in a sector of the fishery, in a regulatory agency or government Department connected to fisheries, in a non-governmental agency, or through self-employment or consulting activities related to fisheries.
   c. Applicants must submit, along with the normal academic application form, a letter outlining their reasons for applying for admission to the program, their expectations of the program and its anticipated impact on their work and career progression.
   d. In exceptional cases persons who do not meet the requirements specified in a. but who have a significant connection to fisheries and demonstrated equivalent experience acceptable to the Program Committee may be admitted. Such persons will undergo an interview by the Program Committee before being admitted.
   e. Applications for admission in September must be received no later than April 30 of the year in which admission is sought.

2. Program of Study
   a. The program consists of 24 credit hours made up of the courses numbered 6001-6008 listed below, plus a major report. Courses will normally be offered only once in an academic year with four courses offered in the Fall semester and four, including the Seminar course offered in the Winter. Full-time candidates are expected to undertake and complete the work required for the report during the Spring semester.
   b. A waiver of a program course may be granted by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Program Committee if the candidate can demonstrate to the Program Committee that the course material has been substantially covered by a course taken at this or another recognized university. In such cases the course must be replaced by another course approved by the Program Committee. This replacement course must be taken during the candidate's period of enrolment in the program.

3. Evaluation
   a. Candidates for the Master's Degree must obtain a grade of B or better in all program courses and successfully complete the seminar.
   b. Candidates who have received a grade less than a B in a program course will be permitted to remain in the program, provided the course is retaken and passed with a grade of B or better. Alternatively the candidate may, on the recommendation of the Program Committee, substitute another graduate course. Only one such repeat or substitution will be permitted in the program.
   c. The major report is a fundamental component of the program and will normally be undertaken in the final semester of the program. The topic of the report and a faculty Supervisor will be chosen by the candidate in consultation with the Program Committee. The report provides an opportunity to synthesise an original perspective on a selected fisheries issue through the examination of appropriate literature and other sources of information. Normally the report will be multi-disciplinary in nature and will result in a document equivalent to a publishable periodical journal article or a consultant's report on a particular issue. It will be assessed in accordance with General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies.

14 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Music
Professor and Director
T. Gordon
Associate Professor and Associate Director
M. Cheramy

The Degree of Master of Music (M.Mus.) is offered by full-time study, normally commencing in the Fall semester. Three areas of specialization are offered: Conducting, Performance and Performance/pedagogy. The specialization of Ethnomusicology is available through the degrees Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy. See the section Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Arts and Specific Program Regulations and the section Regulations Governing the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy and Specific Program Regulations, respectively.

Within the three broad areas of specialization offered for the M.Mus., there is considerable flexibility available to further focus the program to meet specific interests and needs. These programs offer the musician the tools to make accelerated advances in comprehension, skills and abilities as a performing musician or conductor while offering at the same time, insights and experience into the métier of the musician/entrepreneur in the modern world. The School of Music has forged active partnerships with many of the professional music organizations and institutions within the arts community in the greater St. John's region which afford an exceptional range of professional experiences to its graduate students. Included among these partners are the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra, the Canadian Broadcasting Company, Heritage Canada, the Newfoundland and Labrador Arts Council and many others.

Graduate instruction is offered in instrumental and choral conducting, as well as in the following performance media: voice, piano, organ, flute, clarinet, saxophone, oboe, bassoon, trumpet, euphonium, trombone, tuba, percussion, guitar, violin, viola, cello and double bass.

14.1 Qualifications for Admission
1. Admission regulations and procedures are outlined in the General Regulations Governing the School of Graduate Studies and apply to the Master of Music Degree. Candidates for admission will normally hold a Bachelor of Music Degree with first-class standing from a recognized university. Applicants with other types of preparation should enquire with the School of Music regarding the likelihood of admission. Entrance auditions are normally held in late February or early March.
2. In addition to meeting the requirements above, admission is further determined by audition and diagnostic examinations.
a. Auditions for September entry will be held in February of each year on the St. John’s campus. Where exceptional circumstances prevail and with the approval of the Director, the audition may be submitted as an audio or video recording. The audition program should display a range of performance styles and repertoire. Prospective Candidates should contact the School of Music for details on length of audition and appropriate repertoire. Applicants to the M.Mus. in Conducting program should submit professional quality video recordings of their work with a minimum of two different types of ensembles. These video recordings should include both rehearsals and performances.

b. Candidates for admission will be required to write diagnostic examinations measuring their skills and knowledge in the standard areas of musical literacy. These include music theory and analysis, aural skills, and music history and literature which includes repertoire knowledge in the performance area. Candidates who display deficiencies in any of these areas may still be considered for admission. Once admitted, however, they will be required to take remedial coursework in addition to the required program. Voice and choral conducting applicants will have language competency assessed during the audition. Students admitted in voice and in choral conducting who lack sufficient background in English, German, French and Italian will be required to take remedial undergraduate coursework.

14.2 Program of Study

1. All candidates for the Degree of Master of Music will be required to register for courses which combine coursework, performance or work-study internships and which can normally be completed over two years by full-time study. Recital requirements as specified within each specific program option are considered as thesis equivalents. Comprehensive examinations are not administered. The normal residency period in Conducting may, in some instances, be reduced through summer and intersession study or through a reduction of the credit requirements based on prior professional experience. Candidates for the Degree are required to complete the core courses in the first year of the program. Principal and secondary applied course credits make up the largest concentration of program requirements and are intended to be taken over two years. Courses in secondary concentrations and electives make up the balance of the program.

2. All candidates for the M.Mus. Degree must complete 36 credit hours which include MU 6001 and MU 6002.

   a. All candidates in Conducting (Choral Conducting, Instrumental Conducting or Choral/Instrumental Conducting) must also complete the following courses: 6210, 6310, 6100; one of 6006, 6007 or 6008; and a total of six credits chosen from 6211, 7210, 6212, 6213, 6311, 7310, 6312 or 6313. Of the remaining 12 credit hours in electives, and with the approval of the Associate Director for Graduate Studies in the School of Music, 3 credit hours may be from related disciplines.

   b. All candidates in Performance (solo voice, instrument or chamber music) must also complete 645A/B, 745A/B; 6700, 6750; 6005 or 6009; and 4 credits chosen from 646A/B or 6500-6503. Of the remaining 6 credit hours in electives, and with the approval of the Associate Director for Graduate Studies in the School of Music, 3 credit hours may be from related disciplines.

   c. All candidates in Performance/Pedagogy (solo voice or instrument) must also complete 647A/B, 747A/B, 6400, 6600, 6650 and 4 credits chosen from 646A/B or 6500-6503. Of the remaining 6 credit hours in electives, and with the approval of the Associate Director for Graduate Studies in the School of Music, 3 credit hours may be from related disciplines.

   d. Further courses may be required depending on the background of the individual student.

15 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Nursing

Associate Professor and Director
S. LeFort

Professor and Associate Director (Graduate Program and Research)
S. Solberg

15.1 Program
1. The responsibility for the administration of all graduate programs shall reside with the Dean of Graduate Studies.
2. Applicants for the program shall be required to apply for admission to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies and shall be expected to follow the regulations, policies and practices required of the School. Deadline for receipt of applications should be no later than February 15. If space is available, students who apply after the deadline date may be accepted.
3. The School of Nursing offers a Master of Nursing (M.N.) program with three options: (thesis, non-thesis and nurse practitioner) as well as a Post Masters Nurse Practitioner Graduate Diploma.

15.2 Qualifications for Admission
1. Applicants to the Master of Nursing program in any of the three options listed above must have a baccalaureate Degree in nursing, or an equivalent from an institution recognized by the University and a knowledge of nursing satisfactory to the School of Nursing.
2. Admission to the program is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission, the applicant must have maintained at least a grade B standing in the baccalaureate program.
3. Applicants are also required to have a minimum of one year's experience in nursing practice, and to have completed an undergraduate nursing research course, and a statistics course normally within the last 5 years such as Statistics 2500 or Education 2900 or their equivalents.
4. Applicants must hold a practising licence from the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador or must be currently registered as a practising nurse in another Canadian jurisdiction. Applicants from other countries who do not meet the above criteria will be assessed on an individual basis. However, they must submit proof of registration as a practising nurse (or an equivalency) from their country or jurisdiction.
5. In addition to the above requirements, candidates seeking admission to the MN-Nurse Practitioner Degree option must have two years of clinical experience preferably in their chosen specialty area. As well, candidates must have a letter from a health care agency and clinical preceptor guaranteeing the candidate a preceptored clinical placement for the final semester of their program.
6. In addition to requirements 1 and 4, candidates seeking admission to the Post Masters Nurse Practitioner Graduate Diploma program must have completed a Masters Degree in Nursing or an equivalent degree with a nursing focus and have two years of clinical nursing experience preferably in their chosen specialty area. As well, candidates must have a letter from a health care agency and clinical preceptor guaranteeing the candidate a preceptored clinical placement for the final semester of their program.
7. Only in exceptional circumstances and only on the recommendation of the School of Nursing shall the Dean of Graduate Studies consider applicants who do not meet admission requirements listed above.

15.3 Registration
See School of Graduate Studies General Regulation Registration.

15.4 Programs of Study
There are three routes offered that lead to a Master of Nursing Degree: 1. Thesis option, 2. Non-thesis option, and 3. Nurse Practitioner option. Normally the program will require two years to complete when taken on a full-time basis.
In addition to the M.N. Degree program, the School of Nursing also offers a Post Masters Nurse Practitioner Graduate Diploma.
1. Thesis Option
a. Candidates must complete an approved program of study consisting of a minimum of 19 credit hours in graduate program courses and a thesis.
Required courses:
6010 Research in Nursing I: Quantitative Methods
6011 Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations of Nursing
6100 Research in Nursing II: Qualitative Methods
Either 6200 Nursing Individuals and Families through Life Transitions, and N6210 Nursing Therapeutics for Individuals and Families OR 6220 Concepts for Population-based Nursing, and 6230 Interventions for Population-based Nursing
One nursing elective
b. Candidates shall submit a thesis on an approved subject in which systematic research has been conducted under the direction of a Supervisor recommended by the Director and approved by the Dean.
c. The program of each candidate shall be approved by the Dean on the recommendation of the Director.

2. Non-thesis Option
a. Candidates must complete an approved program of study consisting of a minimum of 28 credit hours in graduate program courses and 6 credit hours in a consolidated practicum.

Required courses:
6010 Research in Nursing I: Quantitative Methods
6011 Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations of Nursing
6100 Research in Nursing II: Qualitative Methods
6040 Nursing Informatics
Either 6200 Nursing Individuals and Families through Life Transitions and 6210 Nursing Therapeutics for Individuals and Families, OR 6220 Concepts for Population-based Nursing, and 6230 Interventions for Population-based Nursing

Three of the following courses:
6020 Program Development in Nursing
6031 Education in Nursing
6050 Leadership in Nursing
6060 Policy and Politics in Nursing and Health Care
Other approved electives

One of the following consolidated practicums:
6610, 6611 Practicum in Advanced Clinical Practice
6620, 6621 Practicum in Nursing Administration
6630, 6631 Practicum in Nursing Research/Research Utilization 6640, 6641 Practicum in Health Policy
6650, 6651 Practicum in Nursing Education
The consolidated practicum will normally consist of 300 hours of field experience.
b. The program of each candidate shall be approved by the Dean on the recommendation of the Director.

3. Nurse Practitioner Option
a. Candidates must complete an approved program of studies consisting of a minimum of 32 credit hours in graduate program courses and an integrated clinical practice experience, comprising 15 credit hours.

Required courses:
6010 Research in Nursing I: Quantitative Methods
6011 Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations of Nursing
6100 Research in Nursing II: Qualitative Methods
6020 Program Development in Nursing
6200 Nursing Individuals and Families through Life Transitions and 6210 Nursing Therapeutics for Individuals and Families
6700 Clinical Decision Making (6 credit hours)
6701 Advanced Practice Issues and Role Development (2 credit hours)
6702 Advanced Clinical Practicum I (96 hours of clinical practice in various health care settings) (3 credit hours)
One of 6800 to 6809 Nursing Specialty Option Courses (3 credit hours)
690X Advanced Clinical Practicum II (The integrated practice component will normally consist of a minimum of 500 hours of preceptored specialty clinical practice and biweekly seminars) (15 credit hours)
b. The program of each candidate shall be approved by the Dean on the recommendation of the Director.

4. Post Masters Nurse Practitioner Graduate Diploma
a. Candidates with a Master's Degree in Nursing or an equivalent Degree with a nursing focus must complete an approved program of study consisting of a minimum of 14 credit hours in graduate program courses and integrated clinical practice experience, comprising 15 credit hours.

Required courses:
6700 Clinical Decision Making (6 credit hours)
6701 Advanced Practice Issues and Role Development (2 credit hours)
6702 Advanced Clinical Practicum I (96 hours of clinical practice in various health care settings) (3 credit hours)
One of 6800 to 6809 Nursing Specialty Option Courses (3 credit hours)
690X Advanced Clinical Practicum II (The integrated practice component will normally consist of a minimum of 500 hours of preceptored specialty clinical practice and biweekly seminars) (15 credit hours)
b. Programs for some candidates may exceed the above minimum requirements.
c. The program for each candidate shall be approved by the Dean on the recommendation of the Director.

15.5 Evaluation
1. In order to continue in graduate studies and in order to qualify for a Master's Degree, a candidate shall obtain an A or B grade in each program course.
2. If the candidate is in the Non-thesis Option, the candidate must obtain a Pass grade for the practicum component of the program.
3. When the Director of the School of Nursing has determined on the basis of consultation with the candidate, the Associate Director, Graduate Program and Research, and the thesis or practicum Supervisor, that a candidate has fallen below a satisfactory level, the Director may recommend to the Dean that such a candidate be required to withdraw from the program.
4. To remain in good standing candidates are required to maintain professional behaviour consistent with the current Code of Ethics of
15.6 Thesis

See School of Graduate Studies General Regulation Theses and Reports.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the School of Nursing will allow:

- 6101 Research in Nursing: Quantitative Methods (4 credit hours)
- 6102 Research in Nursing: Qualitative Methods (3 credit hours)
- 6103 Education in Nursing (3 credit hours) Pre or co-requisite: 6101

- 6230 Interventions for Population-Based Nursing (3 credit hours) Pre or co-requisite: 6220
- 6310-6350 Special Topics in Nursing (electives)
- 6501-6620 Individual Readings and Research in Special Areas
- 6610-6611 Practicum in Advanced Clinical Practice (6 credit hours) Prerequisite: All required and elective courses including 6020 and 6050
- 6620-6621 Practicum in Nursing Administration (6 credit hours) Prerequisite: All required and elective courses including 6050 and 6060
- 6630-6631 Practicum in Nursing Research/Research Utilization (6 credit hours) Prerequisite: All required and elective courses including 6060
- 6640-6641 Practicum in Health Policy (6 credit hours) Prerequisite: All required and elective courses including 6050 and 6060
- 6650-6651 Practicum in Nursing Education (6 credit hours) Prerequisite: All required and elective courses including 6020 and 6031
- 6700 Clinical Decision Making (6 credit hours)
- 6701 Advanced Practice Issues and Role Development (2 credit hours)
- 6702 Advanced Clinical Practicum I (96 hours of clinical practice in various health care settings) (3 credit hours)
- One of: 6800 to 6809 Nursing Specialty Option Courses (3 credit hours)
- 690X Advanced Clinical Practicum II (The integrated practice component will normally consist of a minimum of 500 hours of preceptored specialty clinical practice and biweekly seminars) (15 credit hours)

16 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Oil and Gas Studies

Professor and Academic Director

A. Faseruk

The Master of Oil and Gas Studies (M.O.G.S.) is a comprehensive, multi-disciplinary academic program that provides a broad and fundamental knowledge of the entire oil and gas industry value chain.

The M.O.G.S. program is offered by full-time study and involves 31 credit hours of coursework, including a seminar course and an integrative case study. Candidates registered on a full-time basis will normally complete the program in one academic year.

The following regulations must be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

16.1 Administration

1. The program shall be administered by an Academic Director, who shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies following discussion with the Executive Director of the Oil and Gas Development Partnership (OGDP).

2. The Academic Director shall be the Chair of a Board of Studies for M.O.G.S. for the purposes of administering the program. The Board of Studies will consist of one member from each of the Faculties of Arts, Business Administration, Engineering and Applied Science, and the Executive Director of the OGDP (ex officio). Appointments of the members of the Board of Studies will be by the Dean of Graduate Studies following discussion with the Executive Director OGDP. Normally all appointments will be for a period of three (3) years.

3. A M.O.G.S. Advisory Board, composed of a broad cross-section of members from both industry and Memorial University of Newfoundland, shall be appointed. This Advisory Board will consult with industry and provide feedback on the contents, instruction and future direction of the M.O.G.S. program. The Academic Director and the Executive Director OGDP will be ex officio members of the Advisory Board, and will recommend the appointment of the Advisory Board members to the Dean of Graduate Studies, who will also be an ex officio member of the Advisory Board.

16.2 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive.

2. To be considered for admission to the M.O.G.S. program, an applicant shall normally have:
   a. An undergraduate degree, in an oil and gas cognate discipline, with a minimum B standing, from an institution recognized by Senate; and
   b. A minimum of five (5) years employment experience in the oil and gas sector.

3. In exceptional cases, applicants who have not completed an undergraduate degree may be considered for admission. Non-degree holding applicants must demonstrate significant professional experience and success in the oil and gas sector and have completed a significant portion of discipline related courses of the undergraduate degree program that meets the criteria in regulation 2.a. above.

16.3 Deadlines for Applications

While the deadline for submission of applications for candidates wishing to enter full-time studies in the Fall (September) Semester is March 15, applications received after that date will be considered as time and resources permit.

16.4 Procedure for Admission

1. Applications for admission to the M.O.G.S. program must be made on the appropriate form and submitted to the School of Graduate Studies.

2. The following documents must be submitted in support of the official application form:
   a. Letter of appraisal from three referees, at least one of whom is capable of appraising the applicant's academic potential as a graduate student, and at least one of whom is capable of appraising the applicant's professional experience and/or actual or likely success in a career in the oil and gas sector.
   b. Two official transcripts from each university or other post-secondary institution previously attended, to be sent directly by its Registrar (or equivalent officer) to the School of Graduate Studies. If not recorded on the transcript, official evidence of completion of an undergraduate degree must also be submitted.

3. Application files are normally evaluated after the deadline dates for application noted above and only when all required documentation has been received.

4. Admission shall be by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Board of Studies. Upon notification from the Dean of Graduate Studies of acceptance into the M.O.G.S. program, applicants must, within thirty (calendar) days, give written notice to the School of Graduate Studies of their intention to register.

16.5 Program of Study

1. The M.O.G.S. program consists of 31 credit hours of coursework. These include four compulsory, core courses (12 credit hours) shown in Table I; three elective courses (9 credit hours) drawn from Table II; a compulsory, integrative case study (3 credit hours); a compulsory seminar course (1 credit hour); and compulsory project course (6 credit hours).

2. The compulsory core courses (Table I) introduce students to the four main areas of study in the program: petroleum management, petroleum production, petroleum exploration, and petroleum policy and planning.

3. Electives allow students to specialize in one or more of the four main areas of study. Electives must be chosen from the list in Table II. The Board of Studies may from time to time and following approval add other courses to Table II.

4. The integrative case study will involve all students and a number of instructors from the different disciplines in M.O.G.S.. It is intended to integrate the decision-making process in a specific petroleum prospect from play concept, to discovery, to production and finally to product and market. A case study shall be chosen by the instructors of the four compulsory, core courses.

5. The seminar course requires students to research a specific topic in an area of interest and present the results of their research both as an oral and written presentation. Participation in the seminar course is compulsory for all students.

6. The project course will span two semesters. Normally the project course will be conducted as a group exercise to enhance the interdisciplinary nature of the project. At the beginning of the second semester, each team identifies the topic of the project, conducts the relevant literature survey, writes a proposal, and identifies a mentor or mentors. In the third semester, the team completes the project, and writes the final report. An oral presentation of the final paper is generally required. The mentor(s) provides the team with technical support and guidance.

7. A waiver of a core course may be granted by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Academic Director if the candidate can demonstrate that the material in the course has been substantially covered by other courses taken at this or another recognized university. In such cases, the course must be replaced by another graduate course offered by Memorial University of Newfoundland. The selection of the replacement course shall be made in consultation with the candidate, and approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies on recommendation of the Academic Director. The maximum number of core courses that can be waived is one and the replacement course must be taken during the candidate's period of enrollment in the program.

8. Each student's program of study must be approved by the Academic Director and the Dean of Graduate Studies.

16.6 Evaluation

1. Candidates for the Master of Oil and Gas Studies (M.O.G.S.) Degree must obtain a grade of B or better in all program courses.

2. Candidates who receive a grade of less than B in any course will be permitted to remain in the program provided the course is repeated and passed with a grade of B or better. Alternatively, the candidate may, on the recommendation of the Academic Director, and with the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies, substitute another graduate course. Only one course repetition or substitution will be permitted during the candidate's program after which the candidate shall be required to withdraw from the program.

17 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Philosophy and Specific Program Regulations

Programs leading to the Degree of Master of Philosophy (M.Phil.) are offered at present in German Language and Literature, Humanities, and in Sociology.

17.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission an applicant shall hold a Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent from an institution recognized by the Senate and shall have a knowledge of his or her proposed field of specialization satisfactory to the Department(s) concerned when interdisciplinary study is intended or to the Board of Studies in the case of the program in Humanities, and to the Dean.

2. Preference will normally be given to applicants who hold an appropriate Honours Degree either from Memorial University of Newfoundland, or from another university whose Honours Degree is of comparable standing. Any other applicant who holds a Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent will be considered for admission provided that:
   a. the applicant's undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least grade B in courses in the proposed field of specialization.
   b. the applicant's overall undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least grade B in all courses taken, and
   c. the Department or Board of Studies satisfies the Dean that the applicant's work exhibits evidence of academic excellence.

3. An applicant may be required to demonstrate a satisfactory knowledge of the proposed field of study in an examination administered by the Department(s), or Board of Studies.

4. Applicants whose mother tongue is not English are reminded that a high degree of literacy in English is required of students at the University. In most cases instruction is in English, and examinations are to be written in English. (Language departments, however, give instruction in the pertinent language and often require examinations to be written in that language. In addition, other departments may permit and even require examinations to be written in a language other than English).

5. An applicant may be required to pass a qualifying examination.

Note: Some Departments have particular regulations in addition to these, and applicants are advised to turn to the relevant parts of this Calendar and acquaint themselves with both the General Regulations and the regulations of the program in which they are interested.

17.2 Program of Study

1. Every candidate shall read at least 30 credit hours in program courses in one subject or in a combination of closely related subjects as recommended by the Department(s) or Board of Studies, and approved by the Dean.

2. A candidate may be required also to take additional credit hours in program courses, which must be recommended by the Department(s) or Board of Studies, and approved by the Dean.

3. Students registered in the program in Humanities will be required to maintain and submit for evaluation a program Journal (See Program of Study, 3. of the Regulations for the Degree of Master of Philosophy in Humanities).

4. No candidate while classified as a part-time student may take more than 6 credit hours in any one semester.

5. No candidate may take more than 9 credit hours in graduate courses in a single semester, nor any credit hours in undergraduate courses at the same time as 9 credit hours in graduate courses; in no case may graduate and undergraduate credit hours combined exceed 12 in any one semester.

6. The course program will culminate in a general comprehensive examination (see Evaluation - General Comprehensive Examination below).

7. Every candidate shall be assigned to a tutor recommended by the Department(s) or Board of Studies and approved by the Dean.

8. The Dean may approve an application to transfer from the M.Phil. to the M.A. only when a new integrated program, acceptable to the Dean, is submitted.

17.3 Period of Study

The period of study for the Master of Philosophy Degree shall not normally exceed three years, during which time the candidate shall spend at least two semesters in full-time attendance as a graduate student at this University.

17.4 Evaluation

See also Evaluation under General Regulations

1. Students registered in undergraduate courses shall satisfy examination requirements in these courses.

2. The academic requirements for the Degree of Master of Philosophy shall be met when the candidate has successfully completed all course requirements of the program and has passed a general examination which consists of both written and oral parts. The Dean, on the recommendation of the Department(s) or Board of Studies, shall determine the times and places for general examinations; and, on the recommendation of the Department(s) or Board of Studies, shall appoint examiners, one of whom shall be from outside the Department(s) concerned. In the M.Phil. in Humanities, a program Journal is also required.

17.5 Evaluation - General Comprehensive Examination
1. Each candidate must pass a general comprehensive examination.
2. The examination committee shall be appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the Department(s) or Board of Studies. The committee shall consist of either three or five members, at least one of whom must come from outside the Department(s) concerned. The candidate shall be informed of the names of the committee well before the examination.
3. The candidate and the tutor will normally agree when the candidate may sit the general comprehensive examination. However, the Department(s) or Board of Studies must accede to the candidate's request to sit a comprehensive examination, except that in no circumstances may a candidate attempt the general comprehensive examination before his or her course program is completed.
4. The schedule for the examination shall be agreed by the candidate, the tutor, and the examining committee, and shall be promulgated by the Dean.
5. The examination shall consist of a written part and an oral part. The time between the written and the oral parts shall normally be from one to four weeks.
6. The oral examination shall be from one to three hours in length, and shall be conducted by the examining committee, and shall be open to the examining committee and to members of the Department(s) or Board of Studies only.
7. A candidate must satisfy the examining committee in both parts of the examination to obtain a pass.
8. The successful completion of the comprehensive examination is the final academic requirement for the Master of Philosophy Degree.

17.6 Departmental Regulations
Every candidate in a graduate program shall comply with any additional program requirements and with the General Regulations.

17.7 German
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
E. Warkentin

The degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Philosophy are offered in German Language and Literature and may be taken by full-time or part-time study. No graduate work is offered in Russian at this time.
1. In addition to the general requirements, candidates will be expected to have acquired a superior knowledge of the spoken and written language and may, depending on their academic background and field of specialization, be asked to take advanced undergraduate courses.
2. All candidates will complete at least 15 credit hours and a thesis for the M.A. and at least 30 credit hours for the M.Phil., and the entire program of study and research will normally be of two-years' duration.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

17.8 Humanities
Director, Board of Studies
P. Trnika

The Master of Philosophy in Humanities has been designed for students from any discipline. It is directed to students who hold an Honours bachelor's Degree or its equivalent. The object of the M.Phil. in Humanities program is to provide students with an opportunity to see the historical and logical context of their own disciplinary points of view. The program is based on the interaction of a group of students of varying backgrounds and interests studying a common core of texts in a shared set of courses.

The program draws scholarly participation from faculty members in a range of academic disciplines within the School of Graduate Studies. The program is administered by a Board of Studies with membership appointed by the Dean of Arts, chosen from the participating faculty.

Master of Philosophy

In addition to meeting these regulations students must also meet the General Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Philosophy. This program is offered by the Faculty of Arts, and will draw scholarly participation chosen from those appropriately qualified faculty members wishing to participate, regardless of Department or Faculty affiliation.

17.8.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. The number of students admitted to the program will be strictly limited to ensure small classes and maximum student-faculty contact. To be considered for admission an applicant will normally hold an Honours Bachelor's Degree (or equivalent) from an institution recognized by the Senate, and will have a breadth of knowledge in one or more of the Humanities disciplines satisfactory to the Board of Studies, and to the Dean.

2. Applicants who do not hold an Honours Degree (or equivalent) will be required to complete, prior to admission, a number of undergraduate courses, the nature and number of which will be determined on the basis of the applicants' undergraduate record by the Director of Studies in consultation with the Board of Studies. Candidates will be required to complete such designated pre-admission courses with a minimum overall average of 70%.

17.8.2 Administration

1. The program will be administered by a Board of Studies, the members of which will be appointed by the Dean of Arts chosen from the participating faculty.

2. There will be a Director of Studies who will be an ex officio of the Board of Studies and will make recommendations to the Dean concerning admission, financial support for students, and all other matters pertaining to the program.

3. Responsibility for the allocation of teaching and the support of related research will be managed by agreement between the Deans of the appropriate Faculties, the Heads of Departments of participating faculty members, and the Director of Studies, in consultation with the Dean of Graduate Studies.

4. The Board of Studies will be empowered to secure external grant funding where appropriate, and to manage all related administrative and financial matters as necessary.

17.8.3 Program of Study

1. Every candidate shall normally read 30 credit hours in the 10 regulation courses listed below.

2. With permission of the Director of Studies, a candidate may elect to substitute up to two of these courses with courses from other graduate programs in this University. Attendance in other programs requires the permission of the departments involved. (See also School of Graduate Studies General Regulation Program Requirements, Transfer of Course Credits which allows for further transfer of credits already taken but not yet applied to a graduate degree.)

3. Every candidate shall be required to maintain and submit a program Journal which will be monitored and evaluated by the Board of Studies. The Journal will comprise the candidate's critical reflections arising out of analyses of designated key themes common to the several disciplines which constitute the program.

17.8.4 Comprehensive Examination

1. Each candidate must pass a general comprehensive examination.

2. The Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Board of Studies. The Committee shall normally consist of three members. One member of the Committee is normally the tutor. The candidate shall be informed of the names of the committee well before the examination.

3. The candidate and the tutor will normally agree when the candidate may sit the general comprehensive examination. However, the Board of Studies must accede to the candidate's request to sit a comprehensive examination, except that in no circumstances may a candidate attempt the general comprehensive examination before his or her course program is completed.

4. The schedule for the examination shall be agreed by the candidate, the tutor, and the Examining Committee, and shall be promulgated by the Dean.

5. The examination shall consist of a written part and an oral part. The time between the written and the oral parts shall normally be from one to four weeks.

6. The program journal is an extended paper or series of linked papers which analyses and reflects critically on issues encountered by the candidate during the course of the program. Papers and/or projects completed during courses may be incorporated into the program journal, but shall not, of themselves, constitute the entire journal.

7. The oral examination shall be from one to three hours in length, shall be conducted by the Examining Committee, and shall be open only to the Examination Committee, members of the Board of Studies and members of the Departments concerned.

8. A candidate must satisfy the Examining Committee in both parts of the examination to obtain a pass.

9. The successful completion of the comprehensive examination is the final academic requirement for the Master of Philosophy Degree.

18 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Physical Education

Professor and Director of the School
M. Bluechardt

The Degree of Master of Physical Education (M.P.E.) is offered by full-time and part-time study. Part-time study is available through Internet-based distance education technology.
18.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. The deadline for receipt of applications is March 1 for admission into the subsequent fall semester. To be considered for admission an applicant shall normally hold a Bachelor’s Degree in Physical Education, Recreation and Leisure Studies or a related discipline, with at least second class standing, from an institution recognized by Senate. In addition to the above, preference will be given to applicants with work experience, obtained either through Cooperative Education programs or through employment deemed appropriate.

2. Any other applicant who holds a Bachelor of Physical Education or Recreation and Leisure Studies Degree or its equivalent may be considered for admission provided that:
   a. the applicant's undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least grade B in physical education and/or recreation and leisure studies courses, OR
   b. the applicant has raised his/her overall academic standing to second class following the completion of the undergraduate degree, through the successful completion of an approved pattern of undergraduate courses.

3. Only in exceptional circumstances and only on the recommendation of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation shall the Dean of Graduate Studies consider applicants who do not meet these admission requirements.

18.2 Program of Study and Research

1. The Degree of Master of Physical Education is offered under three options:
   - Option I. The program shall consist of a minimum of 15 credit hours in graduate courses plus a thesis. The thesis shall be on an approved subject in which systematic research has been conducted by the candidate under the direction of the Supervisor.
   - Option II. The program shall consist of a minimum of 18 credit hours in graduate courses plus a project report. The project shall be on an approved subject in which action-research has been conducted by the candidate under the direction of the Supervisor.
   - Option III. The program shall consist of a minimum of 24 credit hours in graduate courses plus a comprehensive examination in the candidate's major area of study.

2. The candidate's major area of study shall be Administration, Curriculum and Supervision in Physical Education.

In conjunction and collaboration with other Faculties and Schools of Memorial University of Newfoundland, students may pursue their special interests through an interdisciplinary course of study. The student's interests may be accommodated through individual reading and research in these special areas.

3. The required courses for the degree shall normally include:
   - Option I: HKR 6500, one of 6000 or 6001, 6120, plus two of 6003, 6111, 6121, 6122, 6123, 6124, 6125, 6610-6615 (plus thesis)
   - Option II: HKR 6500, one of 6000 or 6001, 6120, plus 3 of 6003, 6111, 6121, 6122, 6123, 6124, 6125, 6610-6615 (plus project)
   - Option III: HKR 6500, one of 6000 or 6001, 6120, plus 5 of 6003, 6111, 6121, 6122, 6123, 6124, 6125, 6610-6615 (plus comprehensive examination)

Equivalent courses may be substituted from other Faculties or Schools subject to the approval of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation Graduate Studies Committee. In addition, all on-campus candidates shall be required to complete four semester-length seminar courses (HKR 6510-6513). Off-campus or part-time candidates who cannot attend the on-campus seminar series can substitute 24 hours of participation (over their two year tenure) and present once at national, provincial or regional conferences, workshops, professional development seminars or equivalent activities.

18.3 Evaluation

1. Candidates must obtain an A or B grade in each program course. In accordance with General Regulation Evaluation, Evaluation of Graduate Students only one course may be repeated.

2. When the Director has determined, on the basis of consultation with the candidate and the instructors, that a candidate's work has fallen below a satisfactory level, he or she may recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies that the candidate be required to withdraw from the program.

18.4 Thesis and Project Report

1. Evaluation of the thesis or project report shall be governed by Graduate Studies General Regulation Theses and Reports. The thesis or project report shall normally be evaluated by two examiners approved by the Dean.

2. When the thesis or project report has been completed to the satisfaction of the Dean, the Dean shall recommend that the candidate be awarded the degree.

18.5 Comprehensive Examinations

1. Candidates electing to qualify for the Degree under Option III must write a comprehensive examination. The comprehensive examination shall examine the candidate's ability to integrate and apply material from all coursework completed during study for the Degree. The candidate may be required to appear for an oral examination.

2. The comprehensive examination shall normally be constructed and evaluated by an examining committee of three examiners, at least two of whom shall be faculty members of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the Director of the School.

3. A candidate may not write the examination before completing the coursework for the Degree.

Note: Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the General Regulations, the Degree Regulations and any additional requirements of the Department.

Courses

- 6000 Quantitative Methods in Physical Education
- 6001 Qualitative Research Methods in Physical Education
- 6002 Scientific and Cultural Foundations of Physical Education
- 6003 Physical Education, Culture and Society
- 6110 Physical Education, Recreation and Sport Management
- 6111 Canadian Delivery Systems in Physical Education, Recreation and Sport
- 6120 Curriculum Development in Physical Education
- 6121 Physical Education Leadership
19 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Science and Specific Program Regulations

Professor and Dean
C.R. Lucas

Professor and Associate Dean (Graduate and Research)
M. Courage

Tuition leading to the Degree of Master of Science (M.Sc.) is offered in present Aquaculture, Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology, Computational Science, Computational Science (Co-operative), Computer Science, Earth Sciences (Geology), Earth Sciences (Geophysics), Environmental Science, Experimental Psychology, Food Science, Geography, Instrumental Analysis, Marine Biology, Mathematics, Physical Oceanography, Physics, Statistics. Interdisciplinary studies are encouraged; applicants should consult the academic unit concerned.

19.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission an applicant will normally hold at least a high second class Honours Degree, or an M.D. Degree, or the equivalent of either, both in achievement and depth of study, from an institution recognized by the Senate, and shall have knowledge of the proposed field of specialization satisfactory to the Dean.

2. Any other applicant may be considered for admission provided that:
   a. the applicant's undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least Grade B in courses in the proposed field of specialization.
   b. the applicant's overall undergraduate record after the first year shows an average of at least Grade B in all courses taken.

3. Only in exceptional circumstances, and only on the recommendation of the academic unit concerned, will the Dean consider applicants who do not meet these requirements of Clause 2.

4. Applicants who do not possess the prerequisite academic qualifications should consult the appropriate academic unit about a program of further undergraduate courses. Such a program will be intended to raise their qualifications to a level considered academically equivalent to Honours. Such courses may not be used to fulfill the regulation course requirements of the M.Sc. Degree.

5. A high degree of literacy in English is required of all graduate students in the University.

Note: Some Departments have specific regulations in addition to those outlined above, and prospective applicants are advised to turn to the relevant part of this Calendar and acquaint themselves with the regulations of the Department or appropriate academic unit in which they are interested.

19.2 Program of Study and Research

1. The program of study for the Master of Science Degree shall consist of the successful completion of a program of courses and, in accordance with the specific program regulations, either of a thesis embodying original research or of a project and report.

2. Every candidate shall read at least 6 credit hours in graduate program courses in one subject or in closely related subjects, and such other courses as may be required in an individual program. Undergraduate courses may, if necessary, be included as additional courses.

3. Where Departmental regulations require more than the minimum number of credit hours, the Dean, on the recommendation of the appropriate academic unit, may waive in part the credit hour requirements for a Master's Degree, provided that no student may take less than the 6 required credit hours in graduate program courses.

4. Students may, with the approval of the Dean, augment their studies with 6 credit hours in other courses as may be required in an individual program. Undergraduate courses may, if necessary, be included as additional courses.

5. Every candidate shall submit a thesis or report on an approved subject in which systematic research has been conducted under the direction of a Supervisor recommended by the academic unit concerned and approved by the Dean. The candidate may be required to take an oral examination.

6. The program of courses, the thesis or report topic and the Supervisor, and all changes in these, must be approved by the Dean.

19.3 Evaluation

1. In order to continue in the School of Graduate Studies and in order to qualify for a Master's Degree, a candidate shall obtain an A or B grade in each program course. (See General Regulation Evaluation, Evaluation of Graduate Students).

2. When it has been determined, on the basis of consultation with the candidate, the instructors in graduate courses, and the thesis or report Supervisor, that a candidate's work has fallen below a satisfactory level, the Supervisor or the Head of the appropriate academic unit may recommend to the Dean that such a candidate be required to withdraw from the program.

19.5 Aquaculture

Administrative Committee
C. Couturier, Fisheries and Marine Institute - Interim Chair
K. Gamperl, Ocean Sciences Centre
L. Halfyard, Fisheries and Marine Institute
C. Parrish, Ocean Sciences Centre
F. Shahidi, Department of Biochemistry

The program of study leading to the Master of Science in Aquaculture is designed to instruct students in research using scientific principles derived from a wide range of disciplines including Biology, Biochemistry and Food Science. Research problems may involve field and laboratory studies on various marine and freshwater flora and fauna. The Aquaculture group consists of faculty members from the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland, the Ocean Sciences Centre (OSC), and the Departments of Biology and Biochemistry of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The Aquaculture Administrative Committee is responsible for the program. This Committee is composed of five appointed members, two from the OSC, two from the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland, and one member from an appropriate academic unit at Memorial University of Newfoundland. In addition, the Heads of the Departments of Biochemistry and Biology, the Director of the OSC and the Head of the School of Fisheries of the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland are ex-officio members. The Committee is appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the appropriate Heads and Directors. The Committee makes recommendations to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies concerning the academic requirements of the program: admission, course programs of individual students, financial support, composition of supervisory committees, and theses examiners. The Chair of the Committee will also ensure that a supervisory report form for each student in the program is submitted annually to the Dean.

19.5.1 Qualifications for Admission

To be considered for admission to the Master of Science in Aquaculture, an applicant shall normally hold one of the following: at least a second class Honours degree, or an equivalent both in achievement and depth of study, from an institution recognized by the Senate, or successful completion of the Diploma in Aquaculture offered by the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University of Newfoundland, with academic standing deemed appropriate by the Committee.

19.5.2 Program of Study

1. The Master of Science Degree requires the successful completion of a program of courses and a thesis embodying original research.
2. All candidates will be required to take 6 credit hours in graduate courses which will normally be Aquaculture 6000 - Shellfish Culture and Enhancement, and Aquaculture 6100 - Finfish Aquaculture.
3. Candidates who do not hold the Diploma in Aquaculture will be required to complete successfully a selection of its component courses.
4. Further courses may be required depending on the background of the individual student.
5. Once in the program, M.Sc. students must achieve a minimum grade of 65% in all required courses.
6. Before the thesis is submitted, the student shall present an open seminar on the topic of investigation to the appropriate academic units, as recommended by the Administrative Committee. Any serious deficiencies in the thesis noticed at this stage should be carefully considered, in consultation with the Supervisor, for rectification.
7. The student will be required to comply with all other regulations governing the graduate Degree of Master of Science.

Courses

6000 Shellfish Culture and Enhancement
6100 Finfish Aquaculture
6200 Aquaculture and the Environment
6201-6209 Special Topics in Aquaculture (Prerequisite: Permission of Chair of Program)

Note: Consult the Program for a list of titles and information regarding availability.

19.6 Biochemistry

Professor and Head
M. Mulligan

1. The Degree of Master of Science is offered in Biochemistry or Food Science to full-time and part-time students.
2. The admission requirements for the graduate programs in Biochemistry and Food Science are as given under General Regulations governing M.Sc. degrees. Depending on the background and/or area of specialization, a candidate's program may include additional courses taken for credit in Biochemistry, Food Science or related subjects.
3. The program of a candidate for the M.Sc. Degree shall be the responsibility of the supervisory committee, composed of the Supervisor and at least two other faculty members recommended with the concurrence of the Supervisor by the Head of the Department or delegate.
4. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange regular meetings with their supervisory committee. An annual report, prepared by the Supervisor and signed by all members of the supervisory committee, is required to be given to the Head of the Department or delegate.
5. All graduate students are expected to attend and participate in the Departmental seminars.
6. A student completing an M.Sc. Degree will be required to present a seminar on his/her research area. The seminar will normally take place during the last semester of the student's program.

Courses

A series of advanced courses in the areas outlined below will be offered. Normally only one course will be offered per semester.
6200 Current Biochemical Research Topics I
6210 Current Biochemical Research Topics II
6400 Control of Intermediary Metabolism
6410 Molecular Endocrinology
6420 DNA: The Structure and Function of Genes (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6421 RNA: Structure, Function and Synthesis (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6422 Regulation of Protein Synthesis (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6430 Bioenergetics
6440 Membranes
6450 Proteins
6500 Enzymology
6520 Nutritional Biochemistry
6550 Food Biochemistry
6590 Molecular Biology I (cross-listed as Biology 6590 and Medicine 6590) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6591 Molecular Biology II (cross-listed as Biology 6591 and Medicine 6591) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6592 Bacterial Genetics (cross-listed as Biology 6592) Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6593 Selected Readings in Molecular Biology (cross-listed as Biology 6593) Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/ Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591 (or equivalent)
6600 Metabolic Toxicology
6610 Comparative Biochemistry
6620 Biochemical Adaptation
6630 Marine Biochemistry
6640 Biochemistry of Cancer
6650 Science and Technology of Seafoods
6660 Industrial Microbiology
6670 Biological Waste Treatment
6680 Processing and Quality of Foods

19.7 Biology

Associate Professor and Head
P. Marino

The Degree of Master of Science is offered in Biology and Marine Biology to full-time and part-time students. Students interested in animal behaviour should also consult the section in the Calendar describing the Master of Science in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology program. In addition, a Master of Science Degree is offered in Aquaculture. See appropriate sections of this Calendar.

19.7.1 Biology

1. The program of a candidate shall be the responsibility of a Supervisory Committee composed of the Supervisor and at least two other appropriate members recommended to the Dean by the Head (or delegate) of the Department with the concurrence of the Supervisor.
2. The Supervisory Committee shall interview the student normally within a month of first registration, to discuss the student’s program and to explore any areas of weakness in the candidate’s biological knowledge, especially where these relate to the intended areas of research.
3. A student will be required to take a minimum of 6 credit hours.
4. It is the function of a Supervisory Committee to have regular meetings, at least annually, with its graduate student. A meeting report, signed by all members of the Supervisory Committee and student, must be given to the Department. A copy will be sent to the graduate student and to the Dean of Graduate Studies.
5. The candidate will present a tentative outline of the proposed research to the Supervisory Committee, with a copy to the Department by the end of the second semester, and preferably prior to commencement of the research.
6. The student will present a research seminar to the Department, normally by the end of the second semester following admission, to describe the research topic being investigated and the methodologies to be employed. This seminar provides an opportunity for the student to receive constructive input from the broad biological community.
7. The candidate must present a thesis seminar of 30-40 minutes duration to the Department prior to submission of the thesis to the School of Graduate Studies. The candidate will be questioned by a panel approved by the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee, in consultation with the student’s Supervisory Committee. All others in attendance will be invited to question the candidate before adjournment. Deficiencies noted at this stage should be carefully considered by the student and the Supervisory Committee prior to submission of the thesis for final examination.
Under exceptional circumstances, this requirement may be waived by the Head of the Department (or delegate).
8. Each Master’s candidate shall spend at least one semester in residence as a full-time student within the Department during the program. It is recommended that this semester be at the beginning of the program.
Under exceptional circumstances, this requirement may be waived by the Head of the Department (or delegate).
9. If candidates, in the opinion of the Supervisor, Committee and Department, are not making satisfactory progress, they will be required to withdraw from the program.
10. Theses shall conform to Theses and Reports of the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and to the regulations in the Departmental Guidelines.

19.7.2 Marine Biology

1. A program of study leading to a Degree of Master of Science with a specialization in Marine Biology is governed by the above regulations.
2. Students will be required to take graduate courses comprising a minimum of 12 credit hours. These 12 credit hours must include Biological Oceanography 7531, and at least two of 6710, 7535, 7540, 7541, 7551, 7560, and 7561. The remaining credit hours may be selected from any other Biology graduate courses or relevant graduate courses in other Departments.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

- 6000 Research Topics in Microbiology
- 6100 Modern Problems in Botany
- 6110 Advanced Phycology
- 6120 Mycology
- 6130 Behavioural Ontogeny (Cross-listed as Psychology 6350)
- 6351 Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology (Cross-listed as Psychology 6351)
- 6355 Field Course in Animal Behaviour (Cross-listed as Psychology 6355)
- 6400 Parasitic Protozoology
- 6410 Helminthology
- 6420 Parasitic Arthropods
- 6590 Molecular Biology I (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6590 and Medicine 6590) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 6591 Molecular Biology II (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6591 and Medicine 6591) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 6592 Bacterial Genetics (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6592 Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 6593 Selected Reading in Molecular Biology (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6593 Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591 (or equivalent)
- 6700 Biology of the Molluscs
- 6710 Marine Benthic Biology
- 6900 Entomology
- 6910 Applied Entomology
- 7110 Cellular Physiology and Cytology
- 7140 Physiology of Parasitism
- 7210 Arctic and Subarctic Biology
- 7220 Quantitative Methods in Biology
- 7250 Topics in Wildlife Biology
- 7270 Ecology of Newfoundland
- 7300 Ornithology
- 7590 Molecular Biology I (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6590 and Medicine 6590) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 7591 Molecular Biology II (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6591 and Medicine 6591) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 7592 Bacterial Genetics (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6592 Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 7593 Selected Reading in Molecular Biology (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6593 Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591 (or equivalent)
- 6700 Biology of the Molluscs
- 6710 Marine Benthic Biology
- 6900 Entomology

- 7592 Bacterial Genetics (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6592 Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
- 7593 Selected Reading in Molecular Biology (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6593 Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591 (or equivalent)

19.8 Chemistry

Associate Professor and Head of the Department

R. Davis

1. The Degree of Master of Science in Chemistry is offered as full-time or part-time study.
   a. Preference for admission will be given to students with a B.Sc. (Honours) Degree in Chemistry from a recognized university.
   b. Students holding a B.Sc. Degree in Chemistry from a university of recognized standing with a minimum overall average of 65% and minimum average of 65% in all Chemistry courses taken after the first year will be considered for admission to the Chemistry M.Sc. program. Students not admissible under 1.a. may, on the advice of the Supervisory Committee, be required to pass qualifying exams and/or supplementary undergraduate courses with a minimum B grade.
   c. Students with a first class B.Sc. in an area other than Chemistry will also be considered for admission. Students not acceptable under 1.a. or 1.b. who have a strong background in an appropriate area of specialization may, on the advice of the Supervisory Committee, be required to pass qualifying exams and/or supplementary undergraduate courses with a minimum B grade.
   d. Candidates are normally required to write American Chemical Society (ACS) placement test(s) in the first two weeks of the initial semester of registration in order to determine an appropriate course program.
2. Candidates will be assigned a Supervisory Committee consisting of the Supervisor and at least two other appropriate faculty members appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chemistry Deputy Head (Graduate Studies).
3. The program of a candidate must be arranged by the Supervisor before the second semester of registration in consultation with the Supervisory Committee and the student. It is the responsibility of the Supervisory Committee to meet at least annually with the student, to provide guidance at all stages of the candidate’s program, and, in consultation with the student, to prepare written annual progress reports for submission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.
4. Candidates are normally required to successfully complete Chemistry 6001 (Master’s Seminar) and a minimum of 6 credit hours of graduate Chemistry courses with a minimum B grade. Additional program courses may be assigned by the Supervisory Committee.
5. Candidates are required to attend Departmental seminars.
6. Candidates must submit a thesis deemed acceptable to two examiners as described in the M.Sc. general regulations. An oral defence is not required.

Courses

- 6001 Master's Seminar
19.8.1 Instrumental Analysis

1. Program of Study
   a. The Department of Chemistry in collaboration with other faculty in Science offers a course-based program in instrumental analysis leading to the Degree of Master of Science. The program is available on a full-time or part-time basis and will normally require four semesters of study. The program is designed for students who wish to pursue career opportunities in all areas of applied science which require in-depth knowledge and laboratory expertise in analytical instrumentation.
   b. The program will be administered by a Program Committee consisting of the Deputy Head (Graduate Studies) who will be chair, the Program Co-ordinator (Chemistry) and a third faculty member from another science Department. The Program Committee will be responsible for overseeing that a level of standards be maintained.
   c. The Program Co-ordinator will be responsible for coordinating the course offerings and for soliciting student projects for the program to be approved by the Program Committee.

2. Qualifications For Admission
   Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission, applicants shall normally hold a Bachelor’s Degree in Science (with at least a minor in Chemistry, and having completed Chemistry 4100 or equivalent) with at least a second class standing from an institution recognized by the Senate. The Program Committee will make recommendations on admission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

3. Program Requirements
   a. All programs must be approved by the Program Committee and by the Dean of Graduate Studies. All General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies shall apply to this Degree.
   b. The program requires the completion of the 24 credit hours representing the eight required program courses, one project seminar, and a project report. Normally, completion of the program will require four semesters of study.
   c. A project seminar will be given to the Department of Chemistry at the end of the student’s program.
   d. Students will be required to complete a research project, the scope of which will normally require no more than two semesters of full-time effort. The Project Report shall be evaluated according to the procedures outlined in Theses and Reports.

4. Required Courses
   6004 Project Seminar
   6110 Analytical Chemistry II
   6150 Advanced Spectroscopic Techniques
   6151 Analytical Separations and Organic Mass Spectrometry
   6152 Electroanalytical Techniques
   6153 Techniques in Sampling, Trace Analysis and Chemometrics
   6154 Business Management and Good Laboratory Practice
   6155 Computers in Instrumental Analysis and Basic Electronics (same as Medicine 6070)
   6160 Laboratory Projects in Sampling, Electroanalysis and Trace Analysis
   6201 Bioinorganic Chemistry
   6202 Main Group Chemistry
   6204 Mechanisms in Catalysis
   6205 Photochemistry of Transition Metal Complexes
   6210 Organometallic Chemistry
   6290-9 Selected Topics in Inorganic Chemistry
   6300 Quantum Chemistry I
   6301 Quantum Chemistry II
   6302 Molecular Spectroscopy
   6304 Computational Chemistry I
   6310 Electronic Structure Theory
   6323 Chemical Thermodynamics I
   6324 Chemical Thermodynamics II
   6350 Electrochemical Kinetics
   6360 Solid State Chemistry
   6380 Adsorption on Surfaces
   6381 Surface and Interface Science
   6390-8 Selected Topics in Physical Chemistry
   6399 Chemical Kinetics and Dynamics
   6401 Organic Spectroscopic Analysis I
   6402 Organic Spectroscopic Analysis II
   6421 Natural Products Chemistry
   6460 Organic Synthesis
   6470 Physical Organic Chemistry
   6490-9 Selected Topics in Organic Chemistry
   6600 Applications of Inorganic and Organometallic Chemistry to Toxicology
19.9 Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Program

Administrative Committee
Dr. Rita Anderson (Psychology)
Dr. Edward Miller (Biology)
Dr. William Montevetchi (Psychology - Chair)
Dr. Paul Snellgrove (Biology)
Dr. Ian Warkentin (Grenfell College)

One Graduate Student from the Program

1. The Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Program is interdisciplinary and designed to train students in research that integrates cognitive and behavioural studies at the ecological level. Molecular, developmental and evolutionary aspects of cognition and behaviour are also studies. Supervisors include faculty from the Departments of Biology and Psychology, the Ocean Sciences Centre, the Faculty of Medicine and the Environmental Science Program at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, as well as adjunct faculty from the Canadian Wildlife Service, Department of Fisheries and Oceans, the Newfoundland and Labrador Forestry and Wildlife Divisions and Parks Canada. The Departments of Biology and Psychology jointly offer the Master of Science and the Doctor of Philosophy degrees in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology.

2. The Administrative Committee is responsible for the Program. Committee members are appointed by the Dean of Science, on the recommendation of the Chair of the Committee and of the Heads of Biology and Psychology. The Committee Chair is elected by the committee members and appointed by the Dean of Science. The Committee makes recommendations to the Dean of Graduate Studies concerning admissions and academic requirements. In consultation with supervisors, recommendations are made concerning course programs, financial support, thesis committees, comprehensive and thesis topics, examiners and students' annual progress. Upon program completion, the Committee certifies that all requirements for the appropriate degree have been met. The Department of the Supervisor ensures that adequate facilities are provided for each candidate. Students in the Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Program are considered for teaching assistantships in the Psychology or Biology Departments.

19.9.1 Master of Science

1. Students normally take four courses (12 credit hours) in the first year. Students will be required to take Quantitative Methods in Biology (BIOL 7220) or Advanced Statistics in Psychology (6000) unless they have already passed an equivalent graduate or Honours course, Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology (CABE 6351), Field Course in Animal Behaviour (CABE 7000) and one elective, in consultation with the Supervisor.

2. Upon completion but before submission of the thesis, the student is required to give a formal thesis presentation.

3. The student will be required to comply with all other regulations governing the graduate Degree of Master of Science.

Courses
Biology 7220 Quantitative Methods in Biology
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 6240 Special Topics
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 6350 Behavioural Ontogeny
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 6351 Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 7000 Field and Lab Methods in Animal Behaviour and Behavioural Ecology
Psychology 6000 Advanced Statistics in Psychology

19.10 Computational Science Program

Professor and Program Chair
G. Miminis

19.10.1 Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee, appointed by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Science, consists of at least one representative of each participating academic unit, and one member external to the University.

19.10.2 Participating Departments and Organizations

This interdisciplinary program offers the Master of Science Degree in both Computational Science and Computational Science (Cooperative). The departments of Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Sciences, Mathematics and Statistics, Physics and Physical Oceanography and the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science are participants in this program. Other departments and faculties may be involved, depending on the nature of the thesis or project. External organizations may provide placements for co-op students, jointly supervise students, share computing resources and participate in teaching courses.

19.10.3 Admission Criteria and Procedures

1. The criteria for acceptance of an applicant are: his or her anticipated successful and timely completion of the program, and the willingness of a participating faculty member to supervise the applicant.

2. The assessment of an applicant's likelihood of success will be carried out in a variety of ways. Students will normally hold a B.Sc. (Honours) Degree, or equivalent, with a strong computational orientation. A general B.Sc. Degree, complemented by relevant experience, may also be acceptable. At the time of application, the student will be invited to demonstrate his or her background in...
1. The Computational Science Program is designed to train students in the state-of-the-art numerical methods, high performance computer architectures, use of software development tools for parallel and vector computers, use of graphics and multimedia tools and application of these techniques to at least one scientific or engineering discipline.

2. The Program is offered in thesis and project (non-thesis) versions, with the option of a co-operative education program. It is intended that the overall level of student effort and performance required in each version will be comparable.

3. The work for the thesis or project will be carried out under the guidance of a supervisory committee appointed by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Administrative Committee. Before submission of the thesis or project report to the School of Graduate Studies for examination, each student must present a seminar suitable for an interdisciplinary audience.

4. All student programs will contain a core of 9 credit hours in prescribed graduate courses. Additional courses, in an area of scientific specialization must also be completed. The course requirements for each student will be approved by the Administrative Committee on the recommendation of the student's supervisory committee, and will reflect the interdisciplinary nature of the program.

   a. The three core courses are: Computational Science 6910, Matrix Computations and Applications; Computational Science 6930, Numerical Linear Algebra for High-Performance Computers; Mathematics 6210, Numerical Solution of Differential Equations. The three core courses will normally be taken from the list of approved courses.

   b. The thesis version requires the completion of 15 credit hours in graduate courses numbered 6000 or higher including 9 credit hours in prescribed core courses, and the submission of an acceptable thesis to the School of Graduate Studies for final examination. The thesis is to contain an original scholarly contribution. The two additional courses will normally be chosen from the list of approved courses and be in the same field as the thesis work.

   c. The project version requires the completion of 24 credit hours in graduate courses, including 9 credit hours in prescribed core courses, plus a project and an acceptable project report which must be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies for final examination. At least 9 credit hours of the additional 15 credit hours will normally be chosen from the list of approved courses. Nine of the 15 additional credit hours will normally be in the same field as the project. The project, which will include an in-depth written report, shall require the equivalent of at least one and no more than two semesters of full time work.

19.10.5 Co-operative Education Option

1. A co-operative education option will be available. Students in this option may follow the thesis or non-thesis version of the program. It is expected to take up to 24 months to complete. Students will be asked to indicate if they wish to follow this option at the time of application.

2. Students who are accepted into the M.Sc. program may be provisionally accepted into the co-op option. During their first two semesters, such students will interview with the Co-operative Education Services Centre and with prospective work term employers. Satisfactory performance in this phase of the program will lead to confirmation of acceptance into the co-op option, and allow the student to spend two of the next three terms working in industrial or government settings. Upon completion of each work term, the student must submit an acceptable work report.

3. Following the completion of the two work terms, each student must complete any remaining course requirements and project report or thesis. Assuming that prior written authorization of the employer and the supervisory committee was obtained and submitted to the School of Graduate Studies, students may include material from the work terms in their reports or theses. For students following the non-thesis version of the program, the two work-term reports may be combined into a single, integrated report for this purpose. All other students must write a thesis on a research project which may be based on research completed during the work terms.

4. Students who are accepted into the co-op option are not guaranteed placements. In the event that a student fails to obtain two semesters of placements, but successfully completes all other requirements of the Degree, he or she will still be eligible for graduation, but without the designation of a co-op degree.

Courses
The core courses are:
Computational Science 6910. Matrix Computations and Applications
Computational Science 6930. Numerical Linear Algebra for High-Performance Computers
Mathematics 6210. Numerical Solution of Differential Equations

The following courses are identified as suitable for students in this program. Other courses may be permitted.

Department of Chemistry
6301 Quantum Chemistry II
6310 Electronic Structure Theory

Computational Science
601W Work Term 1
602W Work Term 2
6900-6909 Special Topics
6910 Matrix Computations and Applications
6920 Scientific Programming
6925 Tools of the Trade for Programming High Performance Computers
6930 Numerical Linear Algebra for High-Performance Computers
6940 Computer Based Research Tools and Applications

Department of Computer Science
6713 Software Engineering
6722 Advanced Computer Architectures
6728-6729 Special Topics in Computer Systems - Computer Networks
6731 Topics in Numerical Methods
6738-39 Special Topics in Numerical Methods
6752 Applications of Computer Graphics
19.11 Computer Science

Professor and Head of the Department
W. Banzhaf

The degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Computer Science.

19.11.1 Master of Science

1. Each candidate admitted into the program shall hold an Honours Degree or equivalent in Computer Science or a closely related discipline. An applicant whose undergraduate degree was not in Computer Science, but who has obtained some academic standing in Computer Science, may be recommended for admission to the M.Sc. program and in addition, will be required to take a prescribed set of undergraduate Computer Science courses which may be taken in parallel with the regulation graduate courses. International applicants are strongly encouraged to submit results of the (general) Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Test.

2. Candidates are required to complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in graduate program courses. A candidate may take 3 credit hours in courses offered by another academic unit as one of the courses.

3. Each candidate is required to submit an acceptable thesis. The thesis project may involve a theoretical investigation and/or the development of an original, practical system. Each candidate is required to present a tentative outline of his/her proposed research to the Supervisor, with a copy to the Department Committee on Graduate Studies, by the end of his/her third semester in the program (sixth semester for part-time students).

4. Prior to submission of a thesis, normally in the last semester of the program, candidates are required to present a seminar on the thesis topic, methods employed and research results.

5. All candidates are expected to take an active part in seminars and other aspects of the academic life of the Department of Computer Science.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

Programming Languages

6711 Syntax and Semantics of Programming Languages
6712 Compiling Techniques
6713 Software Engineering
6714 Functional Programming
6715 Logic Programming
6716 Concurrent Programming
6718-6719 Special Topics in Programming Languages

Computer Systems

6720 Distributed and Parallel Computing
6721 Operating Systems Design
6722 Advanced Computer Architectures
6723 Microprocessor Systems
6724 VLSI Design (same as Engineering 9863)
6725 Computational Aspects of VLSI (same as Engineering 9864)
6726 Modelling and Analysis of Computing Systems
6727 Introduction to High Performance Computer Systems
6728-6729 Special Topics in Computer Systems - Computer Networks

Numerical Computations
6731 Topics in Numerical Methods
6732 Matrix Computations
6738-6739 Special Topics in Numerical Methods

Theoretical Aspects
6741 Advanced Automata Theory
6742 Theory of Databases
6743 Complexity of Computational Problems
6745 Special Topics - Advanced Computational Geometry
6748-6749 Special Topics in Theoretical Computer Science

Applications
6751 Database Technology and Information Retrieval
6752 Applications of Computer Graphics
6753 Artificial Intelligence
6754 Post-Genomic Computational Biology
6755 Knowledge-Based Systems
6756 Digital Image Processing
6758-6759 Special Topics in Computer Applications
6770-6790 Special Topics in Computer Science

---

19.12 Earth Sciences

Professor and Head of the Department
J. H. Hanchar

The degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Earth Sciences (Geology) and Earth Sciences (Geophysics) by full-time and part-time study.

19.12.1 Master of Science

1. Admission into a Master’s Degree program in Earth Sciences (Geology) and Earth Sciences (Geophysics) is restricted to candidates holding at least a B.Sc. Degree with second class Honours. When circumstances warrant, this requirement may be waived by the School of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head of the Department.

2. Each candidate will be assigned a multi-member supervisory committee. This committee shall consist of the Supervisor and at least one other member. Within two weeks of the first registration in the M.Sc. Degree program, a candidate will meet with his/her supervisory committee. Within six months, the student and the supervisory committee will agree on a written thesis proposal outlining the objectives, methods, timetable and funding for the project, and provide the proposal (signed by the student and supervisory committee) to the Head for inclusion in the student’s file.

3. A candidate for the M.Sc. Degree must complete a minimum of 6 credit hours in program courses. The courses must be selected from the overview and general courses below or with the approval of the supervisory committee and Head of the Department, other graduate level courses including those offered by other departments. Depending on background and/or area of specialization, a candidate also may be required to complete additional courses in earth sciences or related subjects.

4. All course requirements should be completed within one year from the date of first registration in the M.Sc. Degree program.

5. A candidate is required to give an oral presentation to the Department on the results of his/her research. This presentation must be given during the second year of the program.

6. The M.Sc. Degree program will conclude with a thesis examination as prescribed in the General Regulations governing the M.Sc. Degree.

7. The Supervisor and the Head of the Department may recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies that a candidate who is not making satisfactory progress be required to withdraw from the program.

Courses
A selection of courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Overview Courses
7110 Physics of the Solid Earth
7120 Crustal Geophysics
7300 Changes in Global Paleoenvironment
7400 Tectonic Regimes
7410 Engineering and Environmental Geology
7472-7479 Special Topics in Earth Sciences
7810 Paleooecology (same as the former 6810. Credit may be obtained for only one of 7810 or 6810)

General Courses
6070 Quantitative Techniques in Mineralogy and Metamorphic Petrology
6141 Rotation of the Earth
6142 Theory of Global Geodynamics
6152 Paleomagnetism
6171 Advanced Exploration Seismology
6172 Borehole Seismic
6175 Gravity and Magnetic Methods
6177 Mathematical Formulations of Seismic Wave Phenomena
6210 Genesis of Mineral Deposits
6320 Marine Geology
6400 Flow and Transport in Fractured Rock
6410 Advanced Engineering and Environmental Geology
19.13 Environmental Science Program
Professor and Chair, Board of Studies
Dr. Chris Parrish

19.13.1 Program of Study
1. The Environmental Science Program is an interdisciplinary graduate program involving the science-based departments of Memorial University of Newfoundland and along with the Environmental Engineering Program makes up Memorial's Environmental Studies Graduate Program. There are two Environmental Science Graduate Degree streams, the Master of Science (M.Sc., Environmental Science) and the Master of Environmental Science (M.Env. Sci.).

The program is available on a full-time or part-time basis. Admission is open to students with Science or Engineering backgrounds.

2. The program is offered by the Faculty of Science and is administered by a Board of Studies appointed by the Dean of Science.

19.13.2 Qualifications for Admission
Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission applicants shall normally hold an Honours Degree in Science with at least second class standing, or equivalent, or a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering from an institution recognized by the Senate or shall have qualifications and/or environmental experience acceptable to the Dean of Graduate Studies and the Board of Studies. The Board of Studies will make recommendations on admission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

19.13.3 Degree Requirements
1. To the extent that resources permit, individual programs will be developed to suit students' interests and needs. However all programs must be approved by the Board of Studies and by the Dean of Graduate Studies. All General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies shall apply to these degrees.

2. Master of Environmental Science
   a. The Master of Environmental Science is a multidisciplinary course-based Degree, focussed on environmental issues. The Degree program provides for both multidisciplinary courses and for courses focussed on the student's specific area of interest.
   b. The Degree program requires the completion of 27 credit hours.
      i. Students will be required to take a minimum of 15 credit hours in program courses, 9 credit hours of which must be ENVE/ENVS 6000, ENVS 6009 and ENVS 6010 and 6 credit hours from ENVE/ENVS 6001, 6002 and 6003.
      ii. Students will be required to take a minimum of 12 credit hours in elective courses approved by the Board of Studies, 9 credit hours of which will normally be selected from graduate courses offered by the Faculties of Science, and Engineering and Applied Science. Students are advised to consult with instructors and Faculties regarding necessary prerequisites and availability.
   c. The program of each student will consist of a minimum of 15 credit hours in program courses which will include ENVE/ENVS 6000 and ENVS 6010. Of the 9 credit hours remaining in program courses, 3 credit hours will be from ENVE/ENVS 6001, 6002 and 6003 and the other credit hours will be related to the student's specialty and will normally be chosen from graduate courses offered by the Faculties of Science, and Engineering and Applied Science.
   d. All students will be required to submit a thesis embodying the results of systematic research on an approved topic. The thesis will be evaluated according to procedures outlined in General Regulation Theses and Reports.

Courses
ENVE/ENVS 6000 Environmental Science and Technology
ENVE/ENVS 6001 Earth and Ocean Systems
ENVE/ENVS 6002 Environmental Chemistry and Toxicology
ENVE/ENVS 6003 Applied Ecology
ENVS 6004 Environmental Pollution and Mitigation (cross-listed as Eng 9601)
ENVS 6005 Environmental Sampling and Pollutant Analysis (cross-listed as Eng 9603)
ENVS 6007 Environmental Risk Assessment (same as Eng 9609)
ENVS 6008 Air Pollution (same as Eng 9624)
ENVS 6009 Environmental Science Project
ENVS 6910 Environmental Seminar
ENVS 6291-6210 Special Topics in Environmental Science
19.14 Food Science
See Biochemistry.

19.15 Geography

Associate Professor and Interim Head of the Department
K. Butler

1. The degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Science are offered in Geography by full-time or part-time study.
2. Admission requirements are set forth in the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and Degree Regulations for Master of Arts and Master of Science.
3. The deadline for submission of applications for admission is January 15. Candidates will normally commence their programs in the Fall semester.
4. An applicant will be admitted to a graduate program only if a faculty member agrees to act as Supervisor. A supervisory committee will be established after admission, normally consisting of the Supervisor and two other individuals, one of whom will normally be a member of the Department.
5. Major research areas for graduate study at the master's level are cultural, political, historical, economic, urban, resource management, community and regional development, geomorphology, Quaternary environments, climatology and geographic information sciences.
6. Candidates will register for the M.A. program if their fields of interest lie in an area of Human Geography or for the M.Sc. if their fields of interest are in Physical Geography or Geographic Information Sciences.
7. It is expected that the program of study and research for the M.A. or M.Sc. will normally be completed in a maximum of two years of full-time work, or three years of part-time work.
8. Candidates must successfully complete a minimum of 12 credit hours of graduate program courses with a minimum grade of B in each. Geography 6000 and 6001 will be required courses for all candidates who have not already completed equivalent courses at the Honours or post-graduate level.
9. Candidates whose undergraduate Degree is not in geography will normally be required to complete some additional undergraduate program courses during their first year of study, in addition to the required graduate program courses. Normally four such undergraduate courses will be required, and a minimum grade of 70% must be obtained in each.
10. Each candidate will be required to present a seminar on their research to the Department.
11. Each candidate must submit a thesis based on their own original research. This thesis will be examined in accordance with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow:
6000 Development of Geographical Thought and Practice I
6001 Development of Geographical Thought and Practice II
6002 Directed Readings in Geography
6100 Research Techniques in A Selected Field of Geography I
6101 Research Techniques in A Selected Field of Geography II
6120 Geospatial Modelling and Analysis
6150 Environmental Remote Sensing and Image Analysis
6200 Economic Geography I
6201 Economic Geography II
6204 Sustainable Community and Regional Development

The degrees of Master of Applied Statistics (see appropriate calendar entry), Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. The Masters' degrees are offered by full-time and part-time studies.

Specific Requirements for the M.Sc. in Mathematics

Every candidate for the M.Sc. in Mathematics is required to take at least 18 credit hours in graduate courses, at most 3 credit hours of which may be from seminar courses. At least 9 credit hours must be from courses selected from the list below with at least 3 credit hours in each of three of the indicated subject areas. A thesis is required.

Algebra: 6320, 6321
Analysis: 6310, 6311, 6312
Applied Mathematics: 6201 or 6212, 6100
Combinatorics: 6340, 6341, 6342
Topology: 6300 or 6301, 6332

Specific Requirements for the M.Sc. in Statistics

Every candidate for the M.Sc. in Statistics is required to take at least 18 credit hours in graduate courses, at most 3 credit hours of which may be from seminar courses. A thesis is required.

19.20 Physics and Physical Oceanography

Professor and Head of the Department
B. de Young

Programs leading to the Degree of Master of Science in Physics and in Physical Oceanography are offered to both full and part-time students. Because Oceanography is multidisciplinary in nature, undergraduate students who plan to undertake Physical Oceanography studies are urged to consult the faculty member in charge of Physical Oceanography programs at their earliest opportunity, in order to ensure the appropriateness of their undergraduate course selections. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Physics is offered through both full-time and part-time study in Atomic and Molecular Physics, Condensed Matter Physics, and Physical Oceanography. The following Departmental Regulations are supplementary to the General Regulations governing the M.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees. A thorough familiarity with the latter Regulations should be regarded as the prerequisite to further reading in this section.

The Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography compiles, and regularly reviews, a brochure which contains reasonably detailed descriptions of currently active research projects, as well as a comprehensive listing of recent research publications, and other material which may be of interest to prospective graduate students.

19.20.1 Master of Science

1. Admission to a M.Sc. program in the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography is normally restricted to candidates holding an Honours B.Sc. Degree in Physics. However, depending on background and area of specialization and with particular reference to Physical Oceanography, other Baccalaureate degrees in science, applied science or mathematics, may be accepted.

2. A program of study for the M.Sc. Degree in Physics or Physical Oceanography shall normally include a minimum of 12 graduate credit hours. However, depending on the student's background and area of specialization, more or fewer graduate and/or undergraduate courses may be required.

3. Except with the special permission of the Department and the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies, a candidate may not take any courses in addition to those approved for his/her M.Sc. program.

4. Before submission of the thesis to the School of Graduate Studies for examination, the student must present a seminar on the topic of his/her thesis research.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

- 6000 Condensed Matter Physics I
- 6001 Condensed Matter Physics II
- 6002 Superconductivity
- 6003 Path Integral Techniques in Condensed Matter Physics
- 6010-19 Special Topics in Condensed Matter Physics

- 6810-19 Special Topics in Theoretical and Mathematical Physics
- 6850 Quantum Mechanics I
- 6851 Quantum Mechanics II

Archived Previous Calendar

Current University Calendar available at mun.ca/university-calendar
Members of the Department carry out research in several areas of experimental and theoretical physics, including atomic and molecular physics, condensed matter physics, physical oceanography, theoretical geophysics and applied nuclear physics. In atomic and molecular physics, there are experimental programs in collision-induced infrared absorption spectroscopy, electron emission spectroscopy of simple molecules, molecular ions and free radicals, laser-induced fluorescence spectroscopy and Raman spectroscopy, and theoretical work on atomic and molecular collisions. The work in condensed matter physics includes experimental programs in solid state nuclear magnetic resonance on systems of biophysical interest, Raman spectroscopy of lipid bilayers and membranes, studies of phase transitions using Brillouin and Raman spectroscopy, studies of instabilities and pattern formation in simple fluid dynamical systems, and spectroscopic studies of molecular crystals. Theoretical condensed matter physics research involves studies of magnetism, superconductivity, and the statistical mechanics of polymers and lipid bilayers. The physical oceanography group carries out field and laboratory research on several projects which take advantage of Newfoundland’s unique oceanographic environment, using acoustic and other remote sensing techniques. These include studies of circulation on the Newfoundland and Labrador shelves, Labrador current dynamics, fjord dynamics, submarine canyons and sediment transport dynamics in the nearshore zone and on the shelf. Theoretical oceanographic studies involve the modelling of ocean circulation, gravity wave phenomena and other aspects of ocean dynamics. Research in theoretical geophysics is concentrated on whole-Earth dynamics, with special emphasis on the physics of the liquid core (the Earth’s “third ocean”) as inferred from its wave spectrum and the associated momentum transfer to the deformable solid parts of the Earth. In nuclear physics, research is done on the atmospheric concentrations of radioactive elements and on dosimetry for medical applications.

19.21 Psychology
Professor and Head of the Department
I. Neath

The Degree of Master of Science is offered in Experimental Psychology. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Experimental Psychology. Interested students may wish to consult the sections in the Calendar describing the Master of Applied Social Psychology (Cooperative) program and the Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology programs.

Applications

All applicants are required to submit results from the General section of the Graduate Record Examinations. At least one letter of reference should come from someone who is familiar with the applicant’s research capability. Applicants applying to programs in Cognitive, Perception and Animal Learning are required to submit with their applications an example of their academic writing. This could include, but is not limited to, papers submitted in class, Honour's thesis, etc.

19.21.1 Master of Science

A candidate may be accepted into a program leading to the M.Sc. in Experimental Psychology.

Experimental Psychology

The areas of specialization offered are: Animal Behaviour (see Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Program), Behavioural Neuroscience, Cognitive Psychology, Developmental Psychology and Social Psychology. Candidates in Behavioural Neuroscience shall normally complete 12 credit hours. Candidates in other areas of Experimental Psychology shall normally complete 18 credit hours. At the beginning of his/her program, the student will normally be required to take Advanced Statistics in Psychology (6000) unless he or she has already passed an equivalent Honours or graduate course. Other courses in statistics (6001) may be required on an individual student’s program. The courses which make up the balance of the individual’s program will be chosen to best suit the area of specialization. In addition, every candidate shall submit an original thesis based upon an approved experimental research topic.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

(Credit may be obtained for only one course from each of the pairs of courses listed in this table.)
The Degree of Master of Science in Kinesiology (M.Sc. (Kinesiology)) is offered to qualified full-time and part-time students by the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland outlined in the current Calendar, and the Degree Regulations of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation outlined below will apply to the Master of Science in Kinesiology program.

20 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Science in Kinesiology

Professor and Director of the School
M. Bluechardt

The Degree of Master of Science in Kinesiology is offered in the areas of Exercise and Work Physiology, Biomechanics/Ergonomics and Sport Psychology.

1. The admission requirements for the Master of Science in Kinesiology are as given under the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies. Admission is limited and competitive. Preference for admission may be given to students with undergraduate degrees in relevant disciplines, with a minimum overall B average. Applications submitted through the School of Graduate Studies will be evaluated by the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation. Admission of a candidate to the program shall be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

2. Only in exceptional circumstances, and only on the recommendation of the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, shall the Dean of Graduate Studies consider applicants who do not meet the requirements above.

20.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. A student completing a Master of Science in Kinesiology will be required to present a thesis proposal for his or her proposed thesis work. A minimum of three courses or 9 credit hours completed in the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation (or delegate) is required by the School of Graduate Studies.

2. Candidates for the Master of Science in Kinesiology shall be required to withdraw from the program.

3. Only in exceptional circumstances, and only on the recommendation of the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, shall the Dean of Graduate Studies consider applicants who do not meet the requirements above.

20.2 Program and Degree Requirements

1. The Degree of Master of Science in Kinesiology is offered in the areas of Exercise and Work Physiology, Biomechanics/Ergonomics and Sport Psychology.

2. The program of a candidate for the Master of Science in Kinesiology shall be the responsibility of the Supervisory Committee, composed of the Supervisor and at least one other faculty member recommended with the concurrence of the Supervisor by the Director of the School, or delegate.

3. Candidates for the Master of Science in Kinesiology shall be required to complete a minimum of 15 credit hours plus a thesis. HKR 6000 is normally required for all candidates. In addition, all on-campus candidates shall be required to complete four semester-length seminar courses (HKR 6510-6513). Off-campus or part-time candidates who cannot attend the on campus seminar series can substitute 24 hours of participation in (over their two year tenure) and one presentation at national, provincial or regional conferences, workshops, professional development seminars or equivalent activities. The remaining course requirements will be selected, in agreement with the Supervisory Committee, to reflect the kinesiology areas of specializations offered with the School.

4. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange regular meetings with their supervisory committee. An annual report, prepared by the Supervisor and signed by all members of the Supervisory Committee and the student, is submitted to the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation (or delegate) as required by the School of Graduate Studies.

5. Depending on the background of the candidate or his/her area of intended specialization, a candidate's program may be modified. Such modifications may include a reduction in course requirements where a student demonstrates that he or she brings graduate level competency to their program in specific areas, or may include additional graduate or undergraduate courses, as specified by the student's Supervisory Committee. A minimum of three courses or 9 credit hours completed in the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation is mandatory.

6. A student completing a Master of Science in Kinesiology will be required to present a thesis proposal for his or her proposed thesis normally by the end of the third semester of study. Candidates will be questioned on their proposal by a three-member panel appointed by the Director in consultation with the Supervisory Committee. Any deficiencies noted during the proposal should be carefully considered by the student and the Supervisory Committee prior to approval of the thesis topic.

7. All graduate students are expected to attend and participate in the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation seminars and thesis proposal presentations.

8. In conjunction and collaboration with other Faculties and Schools of Memorial University of Newfoundland, students may pursue their special interests through electives from departments/schools outside the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation. These courses must be approved by the Graduate Studies Committee and the Dean of Graduate Studies in the preceding semester.

20.3 Courses

1. In order to continue as a candidate for a Master of Science in Kinesiology Degree, a candidate who receives a final grade of 'C' or less in a program course must repeat that course and obtain a minimum grade of 'B'. In the case of an elective course a suitable replacement course, acceptable to the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, may be substituted for the failed course. Only one such repetition/replacement shall be permitted in the candidate's graduate program. Should a grade of lower than 'B' be obtained in the repeated course/replacement course, or any other program course, the candidate shall be required to withdraw from the program.
2. When the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation has determined, through consultation with the candidate, the instructors of graduate courses and the program advisor or thesis Supervisor that the candidate's work has fallen below satisfactory level, it may request that the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies that the candidate's program be terminated.

3. Candidates may apply for transfer course credits. All course transfers require the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation, and are subject to General Regulation Program Requirements, Transfer of Course Credits of the School of Graduate Studies.

20.4 Period of Study
The period of study for a graduate program shall not normally exceed seven years beyond first registration.

1. A candidate in full-time attendance may register for a maximum of 12 credit hours in any regular semester and a maximum of 6 credit hours in intersession or summer session.

2. A candidate in part-time attendance may register for a maximum of 3 credit hours in any semester, including intersession or summer session.

20.5 Thesis
The School of Graduate Studies General Regulation describes the requirements in Theses and Reports.

21 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Science in Medicine
Professor of Medicine and Dean
J. Rourke

Professor and Associate Dean
D. McKay

There are eight program areas in the Faculty of Medicine: Applied Health Services Research, Cancer Research, Cardiovascular and Renal Science, Clinical Epidemiology, Community Health and Humanities, Human Genetics, Immunology and Infectious Diseases, and Neurosciences. Each program area has a Co-ordinator who is responsible to communicate the interests of the programs to the Faculty of Medicine Graduate Studies Committee and participates in the admission of graduate students into the program in Medicine.

The Degree of Master of Science in Medicine (in all of the programs excluding the Applied Health Services Research Program) is offered in the Faculty of Medicine to full-time and part-time students. The Applied Health Services Research program is offered by full-time study only. The graduate diploma programs in Community Health and Humanities and Clinical Epidemiology are offered by part-time study only.

The following regulations will apply in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies.

21.1 Master of Science in Medicine

21.1.1 Qualification for Admission
The admission requirements for each of the M.Sc. Program areas in Medicine are described under Programs of Study.

21.1.2 General Program Requirements
1. The program of study for the M.Sc. in Medicine Degree is the responsibility of the Supervisory Committee composed of a Supervisor and at least two other faculty members.

2. It is the responsibility of the supervisory committee to meet regularly (at least annually) with the student and to provide guidance at all stages of the candidate's program. An annual report prepared by the Supervisor and signed by the student and all members of the committee is required to be submitted to the Assistant Dean of Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine).

3. Course requirements are set by each of the program areas and are described under Programs of Study. In addition, all students will be required to complete GRAD 9991 (Graduate Research Integrity Program).

4. In addition to courses and research, graduate students are expected to participate in Faculty of Medicine seminars and journal clubs.

21.1.3 Programs of Study
1. Applied Health Services Research
The Applied Health Services Research program is jointly offered by the University of New Brunswick (UNB), Memorial University of Newfoundland and Dalhousie University (Dal). Students will be educated in an interdisciplinary environment and will develop a substantive understanding of: the Canadian health system, the conduct of ethical research, critical appraisal, appropriateness of research design for particular policy questions and determinants of health models. They will also gain first-hand exposure in a decision-making/policy environment. Access to specific computer software and the Internet is required and will be the responsibility of each student.

a. Administration
i. An Executive Committee, consisting of the Deans of Graduate Studies, the Program Directors and student representation from UNB, Memorial University of Newfoundland and Dal will oversee the academic program across the Universities and ensure program integrity.

ii. A Program Management Committee, consisting of the Program Directors and Site Co-ordinators from UNB, Memorial University of Newfoundland and Dal will oversee the operation of the program.

iii. At Memorial University of Newfoundland, the program shall be administered through the Office of Research and Graduate Studies (Faculty of Medicine) by a Program Director who shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Medicine.

b. Qualifications for Admission

i. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission to the program, an applicant shall normally have a bachelor's degree with a minimum B+ average or GPA of 3.3 from an institution recognized by the Senate. Normally, students should have completed an undergraduate course in statistics.

ii. Students are normally admitted to the Fall semester (September). The deadline for receipt of applications is April 1. Late applications will only be considered if admissions decisions have not yet been made.

c. Program Requirements

i. All students will be required to complete eight core courses, the Graduate Research Integrity Program, a four-month residency placement and a thesis. In addition, candidates must participate in three conference workshops each of a week's duration.

ii. Prior to submission of the thesis to the School of Graduate Studies for examination (see General Regulation Theses and Reports), candidates shall present an open seminar.

2. Cancer Research

The graduate program in cancer research offers study in fundamental cell and molecular biological areas including viral oncogenesis, growth factors and oncogenes in developmental models, programmed cell death and drug resistance.

a. Qualifications for Admission

The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. All courses in the program have as a prerequisite, successful completion of an advanced, upper-level biochemistry, biology or medical course, with an emphasis on molecular biology or medicine.

b. Program Requirements

i. All students are required to attend, for credit, and participate in the Cancer Research Journal Club (Cancer Seminars, MED 6400-6403) for a minimum of four semesters. One other graduate course (chosen from MED 6580, 6590, 6591, 6340, 6341 or 6342) is required for M.Sc. Medicine students although other courses may be required in individual cases.

ii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

3. Cardiovascular and Renal Science

The graduate program in cardiovascular and renal science enables students to pursue research and academic studies in selected topics including hypertension and stroke, neural control of vasculature, heart and blood pressure. The faculty participating in the program consist of basic cardiovascular scientists and renal clinicians. Teaching within the program is integrated with the M.D. program.

a. Qualifications for Admission

The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees.

b. Program Requirements

i. Students will be required to take a minimum of two graduate courses. Basic Cardiovascular and Renal Physiology (MED 6140) is required and must be taken in the first year of the program. Students will choose a second course from MED 6141, 6142, 6143 or 6144.

ii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

4. Clinical Epidemiology

The program in clinical epidemiology is aimed at university graduates intending a career in health services, faculty members seeking advanced training in clinical epidemiology, medical doctors and health care professionals interested in health care delivery research.

a. Qualifications for Admission

The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. In exceptional circumstances, a professional equivalent qualification will be considered for admission.

b. Program Requirements
i. Students are required to take four courses: Biostatistics I (MED 6200), Basic Clinical Epidemiology (MED 6250), Clinical Research Design (MED 6255) and Applied Data Analysis for Epidemiology (MED 6260). In addition students are required to attend scheduled epidemiology seminars.
ii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

5. Community Health and Humanities
The graduate program in community health and humanities enables students to pursue research and academic studies in selected topics including community health and humanities, epidemiology, socio-behavioural health, biostatistics, health services utilization, health policy and health promotion.

a. Qualifications for Admission
The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. In exceptional circumstances, a professional equivalent qualification will be considered. Students are expected to have successfully completed at least one basic university-level statistics course.

b. Program Requirements
i. Students are required to take four core courses: Introduction to Community Health (MED 6220), Biostatistics I (MED 6200), Epidemiology I (MED 6270) and Community Health Research Methods (MED 6280) and to attend, for credit, and participate in four semester-length seminar courses (MED 6400-6403).
ii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

6. Human Genetics
The graduate program in human genetics will enable students to pursue academic studies and research in a number of areas of genetics including cancer genetics, genetic epidemiology, gene mapping, medical genetics, birth defects and population genetics. Faculty members from all three divisions of the Faculty of Medicine (Basic Sciences, Community Health and Clinical Sciences) participate in the program.

a. Qualifications for Admission
The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. Applicants with backgrounds in the fields of genetics, biochemistry and biology are preferred.

b. Program Requirements
i. Students will be required to complete a minimum of two graduate courses. Within the Human Genetics program the following courses are offered: Human Molecular Genetics (MED 6393), Human Population Genetics (MED 6390), Applied Human Genetics (MED 6392) and Selected Topics in Human Genetics (MED 6391). In addition, there are a number of courses in other graduate programs which could be suitable for some students in this program, including Epidemiology I (MED 6270), Molecular Biology of Cancer (MED 6580), Molecular Biology I (MED 6590) and Molecular Biology II (MED 6591). Course selection for each student is determined by the supervisory committee in consultation with the student and is based on the area of study and past course credits.
ii. Students are expected to participate in the activities of the genetics group. These include the weekly Journal Club/Research Discussion Group and the Genetics Seminar Series.
iii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

7. Immunology and Infectious Diseases
The immunology and infectious diseases group has an interdisciplinary character and consists of faculty from biomedical science, clinical sciences and oncology research. The graduate programs are designed to provide individualized training oriented towards basic research and a solid scientific background in the discipline of immunology and infectious diseases.

a. Qualifications for Admission
The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. A Bachelor of Science Degree or equivalent is required.

b. Program Requirements
i. Students in the program are required to take three core courses: Immunology I (MED 6127), Immunology II (MED 6128) and Advanced Immunological Methods (MED 6130). Some students may be required to take additional courses depending upon their thesis topic. The immunology course for pharmacy students (PHAR 4105) is a required course for students who have not previously taken an undergraduate immunology course. All students are required to attend, for credit, and participate in the Immunology Journal Club (MED 6400-6403) for a minimum of three semesters.
ii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

8. Neurosciences
The Neuroscience Program offers graduate studies in an interdisciplinary setting including faculty from biomedical science within the Faculty of Medicine and Department of Psychology in the Faculty of Science. Graduate students may pursue research in a number of specialty areas including the physiological basis of learning and memory, stroke and neuroplasticity, neuroregeneration, signal transduction mechanisms, neural circuitry and membrane physiology. The Neuroscience Program is a Chapter of the Society for Neuroscience.

a. Qualifications for Admission
The admission requirements are as given under the General Regulations governing Master's degrees. It is expected that the students will have had courses in biochemistry, biology and/or psychology with some exposure to basic university-level statistics.

b. Program Requirements
i. Students in the program are required to take two core courses in Neuroscience: Cellular Neuroscience (MED 6197) and Systems Neuroscience (MED 6196). Some students may be required to take additional coursework depending on their background qualifications.
ii. Students are expected to attend and participate in the activities of the neuroscience group including the weekly seminar and journal club.
iii. The M.Sc. in Medicine requires the completion of a research project and a written thesis.

21.2 Graduate Diploma
The Faculty of Medicine offers a Graduate Diploma providing an opportunity for professionals and individuals within the health sector to obtain or upgrade their training in Community Health and Humanities or Clinical Epidemiology.
21.2.1 Qualifications for Admission
To be admitted to the graduate diploma program a student must be eligible to register as a graduate student, as given under the General Regulations governing M.Sc. degrees. In special circumstances, and upon the recommendation of the Community Health and Humanities, or Clinical Epidemiology Co-ordinator, a suitable combination of training and professional experience relevant to the program may be acceptable for admission.

21.2.2 Program Requirements
A Graduate Diploma in Community Health and Humanities requires successful completion of Medicine 6200, 6220 and 6270. A Graduate Diploma in Clinical Epidemiology requires successful completion of Medicine 6200, 6250 and 6255.

Courses
6070 Seminars in Physiological Instrumentation
6090-6119 Special Topics
6127 Immunology I
6128 Immunology II (Prerequisite: Medicine 6127)
6130 Advanced Immunological Methods
6131-6139 Special Topics
6141 Basic Cardiovascular and Renal Physiology
6142 Selected Topics in Cardiovascular and Renal Physiology
6143 Cardiovascular Anatomy
6144 Current Concepts in Cardiovascular and Renal Pathophysiology 6180 Structure, Function and Pharmacology of Muscle
6190 General Pharmacology
6192 Pharmacology of Receptors and Receptor Effector Coupling Processes
6193 Advanced Topics in Neuroscience
6194 Advanced Topics in Physiology
6195 Neurobiology of Nervous System Diseases
6196 Systems Neuroscience
6197 Cellular Neuroscience
6200 Biostatistics I
6201 Elementary Statistics (one-credit hour)
6202 Univariate Inference (Prerequisite: 6201) (one-credit hour)
6203 Multivariate Inference (Prerequisite: 6202) (one-credit hour)
6220 Introduction to Community Health
6221 Concepts of Public Health (one-credit hour)
6222 Health Protection and Disease Prevention (Prerequisite: 6221) (one-credit hour)
6223 Health Promotion (Prerequisite: 6222) (one-credit hour)
6230 Basic Clinical Epidemiology
6231 Introduction to Clinical Epidemiology (one-credit hour)
6232 Critical Appraisal (Prerequisite: 6231) (one-credit hour)
6233 Clinical Measurement (Prerequisite: 6232) (one-credit hour)
6234 Clinical Research Design
6260 Applied Data Analysis for Clinical Epidemiology
6270 Epidemiology I
6271 Principles of Epidemiology (one-credit hour)
6272 Observational Study Design (Prerequisite: 6271) (one-credit hour)
6273 Survey Methodology (Prerequisite: 6272) (one-credit hour)
6274 Chronic Disease Epidemiology
6275 Epidemiology II
6280 Community Health Research Methods
6282 Canadian Health Care System
6284 Research and Evaluation Design and Methods
6286 Ethical Foundations of Applied Health Research
6288 Policy and Decision Making
6290 Determinants of Health: Healthy Public Policy
6292 Qualitative and Quantitative Methods for Health Services Research
6293 Knowledge Transfer and Research Uptake 6294 Advanced Qualitative Methods
6295 Advanced Quantitative Methods
6296 Residency
6340 Research Topics in Cancer I
6341 Research Topics in Cancer II
6342 Basic Principles of the Pathology of Cancer

22 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Science in Pharmacy

Associate Professor and Director of the School of Pharmacy
L.R. Hensman

The Degree of Master of Science in Pharmacy (M.Sc. (Pharm.)) is offered to qualified full-time and part-time students by the School of Pharmacy. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland outlined in the current Calendar, and the Degree Regulations of the School of Pharmacy outlined below will apply to the M.Sc. (Pharm.) program. Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the General Regulations, the Degree Regulations and all additional requirements of the School of Pharmacy.

22.1 Qualifications for Admission

Admission to the M.Sc. (Pharm.) program will be offered on the basis of academic excellence. The basic requirements for admission are those established by the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland. The minimum qualification for admission is a recognized four-year undergraduate degree in Pharmacy, or a recognized four-year undergraduate degree in physical, chemical or biological science, or equivalent, with an overall B average.

Applications submitted through the School of Graduate Studies will be evaluated by the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Pharmacy. No candidate will be admitted to the program without a recommendation of acceptance by the Graduate Studies Committee. Admission of a candidate to the M.Sc. (Pharm.) program shall be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

22.2 Formulation of Program of Study

Upon acceptance to the program, the Supervisor will assess the student's research interests, background, strengths and weaknesses. The Supervisor will formulate a program of study (see below) and select a supervisory committee for the student. The program of study will be selected on the basis of the thesis research, the background of the student, and the perceived need for specific graduate courses that will complement the student's working knowledge in his/her area of research. The supervisory committee will include the Supervisor, one other academic staff person from the School of Pharmacy, and one external academic staff person from Memorial University of Newfoundland. This committee will advise the student about his/her thesis research. Accordingly, they will meet with the student within two months of his/her initial registration, at the end of the second semester (8th month of study), at the end of the fourth semester (16th month), and immediately before the student begins to write the thesis. Both the program of study and the supervisory committee must be approved by the Graduate Studies Committee.

22.3 Program of Study

1. Minimum requirements for the M.Sc. (Pharm.) Degree will be the successful completion of:
   a. Six credit hours in program graduate courses chosen from those available in Pharmacy, Medicine or Biochemistry.
   b. Pharmacy Seminar
   c. A thesis embodying original research

2. Graduate courses will be chosen based on the academic background of the student and the area of his/her area of research.

   Note: Qualified students accepted into the program who are considered to have an insufficient background for their thesis research may be required to successfully complete additional courses as selected by their Supervisor.

3. Pharmacy Seminar: All candidates for the Degree of M.Sc. (Pharm.) will be required to participate in the Pharmacy Seminar during the first two years of their program. Selected topics in pharmaceutical sciences will be presented and discussed by faculty, students and visiting speakers. Graduate students will be required to present one seminar each year. In the second year of study, the graduate student will present a progress report of his/her research in the seminar. Upon successful completion of the seminar the Chair of the Graduate Studies Committee will so notify the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Courses

Permission of the instructor and the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Pharmacy is required for admission to any of the graduate Pharmacy courses.

6000 Medicinal Chemistry
6001 Advanced Physical Pharmacy
6002 Dosage Form Design and Novel Drug Delivery Systems
6003 Pharmacokinetic Modelling
6004 Principles of General Pharmacology
6005 Toxicology of Therapeutic Agents and Chemicals
6100-6104 Special Topics in Pharmacy

M.Sc. (Pharm.) Thesis

Every candidate shall submit a thesis to the School of Graduate Studies. The thesis shall contain original research conducted by the candidate and approved by the supervisory committee.

In preparation for the thesis examination, the candidate will provide a copy of the thesis to each member of the supervisory committee. Each member of this committee will submit a written report to the Chairman of the Graduate Studies Committee.

Before the thesis is submitted, the student shall present an open seminar on the topic of investigation to the School of Pharmacy. Any serious deficiencies noticed at this stage should be carefully considered, in consultation with the supervisory committee, for revision.

Three copies of the thesis shall be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies through the School of Pharmacy, in a form and format as specified by the School of Graduate Studies.

As specified in General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies, the written thesis will be reviewed by examiners appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Director of the School of Pharmacy or the Chairman of the Graduate Studies Committee.
23 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Social Work

Associate Professor and Director
S. Birnie-Lefcovitch

The degrees of Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in social work. The M.S.W. may be completed by part-time or full-time study. All program components are offered by distance format, and not in a regular classroom format. “Distance delivery” includes course delivery using any or all of web-based format, traditional correspondence (readings packages, mailed assignments), and/or teleconferencing, audio-conferencing, and/or videoconferencing.

The Degree of M.S.W. is offered in selected specializations. The program allows professionally qualified social workers holding the Degree of BSW or an equivalent professional undergraduate degree in Social Work to undertake intensive advanced work in a specialized area of social work knowledge and practice. The particular specializations offered may change from time to time, according to resources, societal needs, the state of knowledge and trends in professional practice. Currently, advanced clinical practice is the specialization offered.

The program is designed to be accessible to students in remote and rural areas, and assumes that: (1) students will have a computer and internet access; and, (2) can travel to St. John's for the institute portion of the three practice courses. Students studying outside St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, will be expected to purchase Internet service or to incur long distance charges for accessing their Memorial University of Newfoundland Internet account.

The deadline date for receipt of applications for admission in September of each year is February 28. All application forms and accompanying documents for admission to the program (e.g., transcripts, referees' letters, certificates of conduct) must be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies on or before the deadline of February 28 in any year. Under special circumstances, late applications and admissions in other semesters may be considered.

Entrance into all courses and the offering of any course in an academic year is by approval of the School, consistent with the student's program. Students are admitted only into a designated program of studies in an area of specialization.

The School of Social Work may deliver special offerings of the M.S.W. and/or other programs of the School to identified groups of out-of-province students where numbers warrant. These offerings will be self supporting, and therefore subject to an additional one-time non-refundable tuition fee as approved by the Board of Regents and payable on first registration following formal admission to the program. Students will also pay appropriate tuition fees for each semester during their tenure in the program. Admission to the special offerings of these programs will be competitive, using the same procedures and standards that are in place for students applying to the St. John's campus program(s).

Subject to approval by the Graduate Studies Committee for the School of Social Work, students admitted to an out-of-province program offering may apply to transfer to the equivalent program on the St. John's campus. In such instances, the fee structure under which the student was admitted will not change. Subject to approval by the Graduate Studies Committee for the School of Social Work, students admitted to a St. John's based program may apply to transfer to the equivalent out-of-province program. In these instances, students transferring from the St. John's based program offerings to an equivalent out-of-province offering will be required to pay a pro-rated one-time fee upon formal transfer to the special offering.

23.1 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited, selective and competitive.

2. To be considered for admission an applicant shall hold a Bachelor of Social Work Degree from an institution recognized by the Senate, with at least second class standing, and an average of at least 70% in the last 60 undergraduate credit hours, or an equivalent professional undergraduate degree in social work approved by the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Social Work for recommendation to the Dean.

3. In addition to the stated academic requirements, the applicant must have completed, subsequent to obtaining the BSW Degree, at least two years employment in professional social work practice or in a comparable human service discipline or activity. Extensive relevant experience prior to undergraduate degree work may be recognized in full or partial fulfillment of this requirement.

23.2 Procedure for Admission

1. Applicants must submit an application for admission with supporting documentation to the School of Graduate Studies. The supporting documentation will consist of: an official transcript of the applicant's previous academic record submitted directly from the institution(s) attended; a certificate of conduct (criminal record check); a statement of previous professional employment; a list of any published or unpublished works; a declaration of program emphasis and educational objectives; and three letters of appraisal, to be submitted by three referees, at least one assessing the applicant's previous academic performance and at least one assessing the applicant's previous practice performance. Letters of appraisal are to be submitted directly to the School of Graduate Studies.

2. The Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Social Work may require the applicant to appear for a personal interview with a faculty member or members.

3. A student who meets the basic admission requirements under Qualifications for Admission above, may, space permitting, take no more than 6 credit hours in Social Work graduate courses, SCWK 6011, 6412, and graduate Social Work electives, without applying for and being admitted to the M.S.W. program. Students wishing to take courses under this provision must contact the M.S.W. Student Services Coordinator at least 2 months prior to the semester in which the course is scheduled. If there are available seats in the course, the student will need to submit an application to the School of Social Work the appropriate form requesting permission to register in a graduate course with evidence of BSW graduation, academic transcripts, and a brief professional resume, and apply or reapply for admission to Memorial University of Newfoundland as an undergraduate.

4. A person who has completed an M.S.W. Degree is eligible to register in any M.S.W. course offering, space permitting.

23.3 Plan of Study

1. A student's plan of study will be developed cooperatively by the student and the M.S.W. Student Services Coordinator.

2. Specified supplementary studies may be required to ensure requisite knowledge pertinent to the specialization.

3. A student electing a thesis program shall be assigned a Supervisor by the Director of the School in consultation with the student. It is recommended that a thesis Supervisor be assigned as early in the program as possible. The thesis Supervisor, when assigned, shall normally assume the duties of faculty advisor.

4. Students admitted to the M.S.W. Program in Advanced Clinical Practice thesis route must complete a thesis and a minimum of 21 credit hours consisting of 6011, 6312, 6322, 6332, 6412, 6422 and 6912. In addition to these courses, course route students also must complete 6432 and 6442 and a 3 credit hour graduate elective in social work or a related discipline as requested by the student...
23.4 Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the School will allow.

Core Courses
6011 Critical Thinking and Ethical Evaluation for Assessment and Intervention (3 credit hours)
6312 Crisis Intervention, Brief and Integrated Therapies for Diverse Individuals (3 credit hours) (Prerequisite/Co-requisite 6011)
6322 Family Therapy: Promotion of Strengths and Prevention of Violence in Diverse Families (3 credit hours) (Prerequisite 6011)
6332 Social Work Perspectives in Interdisciplinary Team Development and Group Therapy (3 credit hours) (Prerequisite 6011)
6412 Research Design for Social Work Assessment and Evaluation (3 credit hours) (Prerequisite/Co-requisite 6011)
6422 Data Analysis for Social Work Assessment and Evaluation (3 credit hours) (Prerequisite 6011 and 6412)
6432 Research Internship (2 credit hours) (Prerequisite 6011, 6412 and 6422)
6442 Colloquium Presentation Integrating Theory and Research in Advanced Clinical Practice (1 credit hour) (following completion of all other program components)

Electives (3 credit hours)
6210 Seminar in Community Development
6220 Seminar in Social Administration: Evaluation of Policies and Programs
6540 Supervision in Professional and Clinical Practice
6550 Feminist Therapy in Social Work Practice

Although the School does not currently offer a program in Social Policy and Administration, it has faculty expertise in these areas and may, resources permitting and given sufficient student interest, offer the following elective courses:

6210 Seminar in Social Planning and Social Development
6220 Seminar in Organization Development
6510 Seminar in Social Administration: Social Policy Analysis, Development and Administration
6520 Seminar in Social Administration: Program Design and Development
6520-29 Individual Reading and Research in Special Areas

Thesis

See General Regulations, Theses and Reports.

Note: Every candidate shall comply with the General Regulations governing the School of Graduate Studies and the M.S.W. Degree Regulations.

23.5 Field Internship

Each M.S.W. student is required to complete a field internship that is to be conducted in a setting and supervised by a field instructor approved by the School of Social Work. The M.S.W. Field Coordinator is responsible for facilitating appropriate matches between the student, field instructor, and field internship setting. Acceptable field instructors must have as a minimum qualification an M.S.W. Degree and a minimum of two years post-MSW social work employment. Although consideration will be given to all factors affecting the location and type of social work field internships, final approval of a field internship rests with the School of Social Work. The School cannot guarantee the availability of M.S.W. field instruction in all communities and at all times.

Students are responsible for their own financial support during the field internship. Part-time field internships of two semesters will require approval from the proposed agency, field instructor, and the M.S.W. Field Coordinator.

At least four months prior to the commencement of the semester in which they intend to begin SCWK 6912, the 500 hour field internship, all students shall submit the prescribed form indicating an intent to register in M.S.W. Field Internship. At least six weeks before the internship commences, students shall submit the M.S.W. Field Internship Proposal. Evaluation of the field internship will be on a PAS/FAL basis.

Students who voluntarily withdraw from the field internship without prior approval of the M.S.W. Field Coordinator or who conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause the agency and the M.S.W. Field Coordinator to terminate the placement, will normally be awarded a grade of PAS or FAL.

Students who voluntarily withdraw from the field internship with prior approval of the M.S.W. Field Coordinator cannot be guaranteed a second internship during that semester. In this case, the student shall be awarded a grade of INC for the field internship. The student shall normally complete a field internship the following semester.

23.6 Course Format

To increase accessibility for students in remote and rural practice, we offer courses in the following formats:

1. 6011, 6412, 6422, and social work electives will be offered by distance delivery; that is, not in a regular classroom format.
2. 6312, 6322 and 6332: By residential institute consisting of 36 hours of classroom instruction. These courses also include home-study and teleconference and/or internet components scheduled prior to and/or following the institute. Students must be available on a full-time basis to attend classes and complete assignments and group projects during the institute portion of these courses. It is recommended that students take leave from their employment for the duration of a residential institute which may be scheduled in a combination of weekday, evening and weekend hours within a two week time period. The final decision regarding the residential institute schedule rests with the School of Social Work.
3. 6912 and 6432 can be completed in St. John's, or in a student's home community where appropriate supervision is available.
4. 6442 may be conducted in St. John's or in a student's home community, provided suitable audio-visual recording facilities are available.
5. In exceptional circumstances, and contingent upon student numbers and school resources, additional course sections may be offered in a regular classroom format.

23.7 Period of Study

For students admitted to the program outlined under Plan of Study:

1. For part-time students, the program is designed to permit completion of all degree requirements within three academic years (nine semesters) or two academic years (six semesters).
2. For full-time students, course route, the program is designed to permit completion of all degree requirements within one academic year.
23.8 Evaluation

1. Failure to attain a final passing grade of A or B in a program course, or PAS in a Pass/Fail course, shall lead to termination of the student’s program, unless a re-read has been requested. Failure to obtain the required grades in the re-read shall lead to termination of the student’s program.

2. To remain in good standing students are required to maintain professional behaviour consistent with the current Code of Ethics of the Canadian Association of Social Workers as indicated at www.casw-acts.ca. Students who are registered in their home province are required to comply with the current code of ethics of their provincial association of social workers. Students who are not registered in their home province are required to comply with the current Code of Ethics of the Canadian Association of Social Workers. Students who fail to meet this requirement will be required to withdraw from the School upon the recommendation of the Graduate Studies Committee.

24 Regulations Governing the Degree of Master of Women’s Studies

Associate Professor and Co-ordinator

K. Side

The Degree of Master of Women’s Studies (M.W.S.) is designed for students from any discipline who have an appropriate background in Women’s Studies. The objectives of the program are:

- to provide students with advanced courses in a broad range of Women’s Studies specialties and particularly in Women’s Studies theories and methods;
- to equip students with the practical, theoretical and methodological skills to carry out independent research at the master’s level; and
- to foster interdisciplinary approaches to the study of women.

The program is administered by the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee, the members of which are appointed by the Dean of Arts on the advice of the Women’s Studies Council. The members of the Graduate Committee are drawn from faculty teaching in the Women’s Studies Program.

The Graduate Co-ordinator, on behalf of the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee, makes recommendations to the Dean of Graduate Studies concerning admission, and financial support for students, and administers all other matters pertaining to the graduate program.

24.1 Master of Women’s Studies Degree

The Degree of Master of Women’s Studies is offered by full- or part-time study. Candidates may choose a thesis or non-thesis (project or internship) program. The program draws scholarly participation from faculty members in a range of academic disciplines within the School of Graduate Studies.

24.2 Qualifications for Admission

1. Admission is limited and competitive. To be considered for admission, an applicant will normally hold an Honours Degree or equivalent, and will have a breadth of knowledge in Women’s Studies satisfactory to the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee.

2. Applicants who do not have an adequate background in Women’s Studies may be required to complete Women’s Studies 4000 or equivalent normally with a grade of 75% or higher.

24.3 Program of Study

1. Upon admission each graduate student on the thesis program will be assigned two supervisors from different disciplinary units. For students selecting the non-thesis option, one supervisor will be assigned.

2. All candidates are required to complete Women’s Studies 6000, 6100, 6200 and 6300.

3. Three to 9 additional elective credit hours approved by the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee and the student’s supervisor(s) will be required. These elective credit hours will comprise courses selected from graduate courses in cognate academic units, and/or Women’s Studies 6380, 6500 and/or from the block of special topics courses in Women’s Studies 6400-6409.

4. Each student will be required to give a public seminar on her/his thesis research, project or internship before submission of her/his work.

24.4 Thesis

1. Candidates for the Degree of Master of Women’s Studies (thesis option) will be required to complete a minimum of 15 credit hours. Candidates will also be required to complete a thesis.

2. A thesis proposal, approved by the student’s supervisors, will be presented to the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee for its approval. The thesis proposal must normally be approved by the Women’s Studies Graduate Committee no later than the end of the candidate’s third semester in the program.

3. The thesis will be evaluated in accordance with the procedures outlined in General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies.

24.5 Project

1. Candidates for the Degree of Master of Women’s Studies (project option) will be required to complete a minimum of 18 credit hours. Candidates will also be required to complete a project.

2. The Master’s project must be interdisciplinary in nature and aimed at linking theoretical and practical knowledge: by recognizing and articulating a problem to which Women’s Studies knowledge can be applied; by developing and justifying practical approaches which seek to resolve the problem; and by creating a product that could be implemented in the community. The project report should consist of the project (e.g., a CD-ROM; a computer project; a manual or guidebook; a kit of learning resources; photographs; audio or videotape, etc.) as well as a literature-based rationale, theoretical basis and justification for its use. The length of the written portion of the project should be 50-70 pages. Regardless of the form that the project takes (e.g., a CD-ROM; a computer program; a manual or guidebook; a kit of learning resources; photographs; audio or videotape, etc.), there must be a written project report.

3. A project proposal, approved by the student's Supervisor, will be presented to the Women's Studies Graduate Committee for its approval. The project proposal must normally be approved by the Women's Studies Graduate Committee no later than the end of the candidate's third semester in the program.

4. The project will be evaluated in accordance with procedures outlined in General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies.

24.6 Internship

1. Candidates for the Degree of Master of Women's Studies (internship option) will complete a minimum of 18 credit hours. Candidates will also be required to complete an internship.

2. Internship placements shall be for one semester. Part-time internships of two semesters will require approval from the proposed agency or institution and the Women's Studies Graduate Studies Committee.

3. Students, in consultation with their Supervisor and the Women's Studies Graduate Co-ordinator, will explore internship options and locate an eligible person to provide field instruction during their internship. Although consideration will be given to all factors affecting the location and type of all Women's Studies internships, the final decision regarding internship rests with the Women's Studies Program and the Dean of Graduate Studies.

4. Factors affecting the type and location of the internship include: the number of immersion hours per week; the extent to which the intern takes up a trainee, supervisory and/or research role and whether the intern would be working directly or indirectly with clients of the agency or institution.

5. Each internship shall be supervised by a Supervisory Committee of at least three members, including the candidate's Supervisor, the field Supervisor and Women's Studies Graduate Co-ordinator or her/his delegate.

6. The Supervisory Committee will meet with the intern and field instructor at least once during the internship period to make an assessment of the nature and quality of the intern's progress, and to approve any modifications to the internship.

7. The internship proposal, approved by the student's supervisors, will be presented to the Women's Studies Graduate Committee for its approval. The proposal must normally be approved by the Women's Studies Graduate Committee no later than the end of the candidate's third semester in the program.

8. Regardless of the form that the internship takes, there must be a written internship report (35-50 pages). When the candidate completes the internship report, the Supervisory Committee will recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies a grade of pass or fail. A candidate will be permitted to submit an internship report only after the Committee has determined that the internship placement has been fully completed.

9. Should the Women's Studies Co-ordinator, on the recommendation of the Supervisory Committee, terminate the internship prior to its completion, it may recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies one of the following:
   a. submission of a new internship proposal for a different field setting (once only);
   b. selection of the thesis or project option;
   c. termination of the student's program.

Courses

6000 Feminist Theory
6100 Epistemological and Methodological Approaches to Women’s Studies
6200 Graduate Seminar in Women's Studies
6300 Feminism as Community
6380 Women, Nature, Science and Technology (cross-listed as Sociology 6380)
6400-6409 Special Topics in Women's Studies
6500 Women and Communication Studies

25 Regulations Governing the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy and Specific Program Regulations

In this and following regulations and notes, “Head” and “Department” shall be understood to mean “Dean or Director” and “Faculty or School” respectively, applying the regulations to a Faculty or School in which there are no Departmental divisions.

Students should consult the General Information and Regulations Governing All Graduate Students for information concerning the number of courses required for specific programs, students should consult the following listing for the appropriate Department.

Tuition leading to the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is offered in selected areas in Anthropology, Archaeology, Atomic and Molecular Physics, Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology, Computer Science, Condensed Matter Physics, Earth Sciences (Geology), Earth Sciences (Geophysics), Education, Engineering, English Language and Literature, Ethnomusicology, Experimental Psychology, Folklore, Food Science, Geography, History, Interdisciplinary, Linguistics, Management, Marine Biology, Mathematics, Medicine, Pharmacy, Physical Oceanography, Social Work, Sociology, Statistics and Theoretical Physics.

25.1 Anthropology and Archaeology

Professor and Head of the Department

P. Pope

1. The Ph.D. in Archaeology is offered in prehistoric and historic archaeology of Northeastern North America and the Arctic. The Ph.D. in Anthropology is offered in historical anthropology and ethnography of Newfoundland and Labrador, and Western Europe.

2. An applicant must normally hold a Master's Degree with a specialization in archaeology or social and cultural anthropology. In exceptional circumstances, a student who has spent three semesters in the M.A. program may be recommended for transfer into the Ph.D. stream.

3. Residency: the Department requires a minimum residency of two years for Ph.D. students.
4. A supervisory committee will be established for each student as per General Regulation Supervision, Ph.D. Candidate, 2.

5. Program of study:
   a. Students will normally be required to successfully complete two courses during their first three semesters in the program.
      i. Archaeology: 6700, 6411
      ii. Anthropology: 6300, 6890
   b. The supervisory committee may require the candidates to complete additional graduate courses.

6. All candidates must demonstrate a reading knowledge of a second language to be determined in consultation with the supervisory committee. This language will normally be a language in which there is a substantial body of literature in either Archaeology or Social and Cultural Anthropology. It could also be a field language pertinent to the candidate's project. The exam will be set and marked by an authority determined by the Head of the Department and the Dean of Graduate Studies (see General Regulation Evaluation, Evaluation of Graduate Students, 4.) and will normally be completed before the Comprehensive Examination is undertaken.

7. The Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination shall be administered in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations. The examination may be oral, written or both, and shall consist normally of three sessions, each of up to three hours duration, within a one week period, or three (3) one week take home examinations. Candidates will prepare for these examinations by undertaking supervised readings in three fields prescribed by the three members of the comprehensive exam committee. The examination will deal with specified areas of either archaeology or social/cultural anthropology. The examination will normally be scheduled in the third week of November each year in the second year of the candidate's program.

8. The candidate must submit a written thesis proposal for presentation to the Department two months following completion of his/her comprehensive examination.

9. As stated in the General Regulations for Graduate Studies, the time limit for completion of the Degree is 7 years.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Archaeology/Physical Anthropology Courses (ARCH)
6020 Physical Anthropology
6040 Human Osteology
6095 Advanced Studies in Ethnohistory (same as History 6095)
6151 Palaeoethnobotany
6181 Palaeoeskimo Cultures of the Eastern Arctic
6182 Advances in Material Culture Analysis
6187 Readings in Maritime Provinces Prehistory
6189 Palaeopathology
6191 Approaches to Early Modern Material Culture
6192 Conservation Method and Theory
6290 Newfoundland and Labrador Prehistory
6310 Economic Analyses in Archaeology
6320 Ethnoarchaeology
6330 Archaeological Field Conservation
6409 History of Archaeology
6411 Theory and Method in the Study of Archaeology and Prehistory
6500 Special Topics in Historical Archaeology (Prerequisite 6191)
6680-6699 Special Topics in Anthropology and Prehistory
6700 Interpretative Methods in Archaeology
6701 Interpretative Methods in Historical Archaeology
6890 Graduate Seminar

Social/Cultural Anthropology Courses (ANTH)
6010 Cultural Ecology
6071 Health and Illness: Cultural Contexts and Constructions
6081 Anthropology of Gender
6089 Anthropology of Underclass Life
6100 Social Organization
6110 Culture and Personality
6140 The Community
6210 Language and Culture
6240 Atlantic Regional Studies
6260 Social and Economic Development
6280 Newfoundland Ethnography
6281 Labrador Ethnography
6282 Ethnography of a Single Region
6300 Fieldwork and Interpretation of Culture
6400 Current Themes in Cultural Anthropology
6410 History of Anthropology
6412 Anthropological Theory
6413 Applied Anthropology
6430 Audiovisual Anthropology
6440 Master's Research Paper (9 credit hours)
6580-6599 Special Areas in Anthropology
6600 Contemporary Debates in Anthropology
6890 Graduate Seminar
25.2 Biochemistry
Professor and Head of the Department
M. Mulligan

1. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Biochemistry or Food Science to full-time and part-time students.

2. The admission requirements for the graduate programs in Biochemistry and Food Science are as given under General Regulations. Depending on the background and/or area of specialization, a candidate’s program may include additional courses taken for credit in Biochemistry, Food Science or related subjects.

3. The program of a candidate for the Ph.D. Degree shall be the responsibility of the supervisory committee, composed of the Supervisor and at least two other faculty members recommended with the concurrence of the Supervisor by the Head.

4. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange regular meetings with their graduate supervisory committee. An annual report, prepared by the Supervisor and signed by all members of the supervisory committee, is required to be given to the Head.

5. All candidates for the Ph.D. Degree shall be required to attend and participate in Departmental seminars.

6. A candidate for the Ph.D. will be required to present a seminar on his/her research area within 18 months of starting the program and again immediately prior to the submission of thesis.

Additional Regulations for Each Program
Biochemistry (Additional)

7. A candidate for the Ph.D. in Biochemistry shall take the Comprehensive Examination normally within the first 6 months of his or her program and under no circumstances later than the first anniversary of enrolment in the doctoral program. The examination will be both written and oral. Students will be examined on their general knowledge in Biochemistry as well as in the area of their research specialization. Failure of this examination will result in the termination of the candidate’s program.

Food Science (Additional)

8. A candidate for the Ph.D. Degree in Food Science shall be required to take the comprehensive examination normally within three semesters of his/her enrolment in the doctoral program and under no circumstances later than six semesters. The examination shall consist of two parts:
   a. A written examination covering the following areas of food science.
      Food Chemistry
      Food Processing
      Food Microbiology and Biotechnology
      Biochemical and Food Engineering
      Food Analysis
      Nutrition Fundamentals
   b. The candidate shall be required to defend orally an assigned research topic that may be related to his/her area of concentration. The candidate shall be required to provide a written submission of the research topic to the examination committee at least three weeks before the date of the oral examination. The comprehensive examination committee shall examine the candidate orally on any or all aspect(s) of the research topic and the written examination.
   c. In order to pass the comprehensive examination, the candidate is required to pass both the written and oral segments.

Courses
A series of advanced courses in the areas outlined below will be offered. Normally only one course will be offered per semester.

6200 Current Biochemical Research Topics I
6210 Current Biochemical Research Topics II
6400 Control of Intermediary Metabolism
6410 Molecular Endocrinology
6420 DNA: The Structure and Function of Genes (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6421 RNA: Structure, Function and Synthesis (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6422 Regulation of Protein Synthesis (Prerequisite: An introductory course in molecular biology, or its equivalent, at the senior undergraduate level, e.g., Biochemistry 4100)
6430 Bioenergetics
6440 Membranes
6450 Proteins
6500 Enzymology
6520 Nutritional Biochemistry
6530 Food Biochemistry
6590 Molecular Biology I (cross-listed as Biology 6590 and Medicine 6590) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6591 Molecular Biology II (cross-listed as Biology 6591 and Medicine 6591) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6592 Bacterial Genetics (cross-listed as Biology 6592) Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6593 Selected Readings in Molecular Biology (cross-listed as Biology 6593) Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/ Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591 (or equivalent)
6600 Metabolic Toxicology
6610 Comparative Biochemistry
6620 Biochemical Adaptation
6630 Marine Biochemistry
6640 Biochemistry of Cancer
6650 Science and Technology of Seafoods
6660 Industrial Microbiology
6670 Biological Waste Treatment
6680 Processing and Quality of Foods
25.3 Biology
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
P. Marino

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Biology to full-time and part-time students in Biology and Marine Biology. Students interested in animal behaviour should also consult the section in the Calendar describing the Doctoral programs in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology.

25.3.1 Biology

1. Admission to a Ph.D. program in Biology shall not normally take place until after the completion of the course requirements and the submission of the thesis for the M.Sc. Degree. However, on the recommendation of the Department, this requirement may be waived by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

2. The program of a candidate shall be the responsibility of a Supervisory Committee composed of the Supervisor and at least two other appropriate members recommended to the Dean by the Head (or delegate) of the Department with the concurrence of the Supervisor.

3. The Supervisory Committee shall interview the student normally within a month of first registration, to discuss the student's program and to explore any areas of weakness in the candidate's biological knowledge, especially where these relate to the intended areas of research. The Supervisory Committee will recommend a student's subdiscipline within Biology to the Department in writing after this meeting.

4. It is the function of a Supervisory Committee to have regular meetings, at least annually, with its graduate student. A meeting report, signed by all members of the Supervisory Committee and student, must be given to the Department. A copy will be sent to the student and to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

5. The candidate will present a tentative outline of the proposed research to the Supervisory Committee, with a copy to the Department by the end of the second semester, and preferably prior to commencement of the research.

6. The student will present a research seminar to the Department, normally by the end of the second semester following admission, to describe the research topic being investigated and the methodologies to be employed. This seminar provides an opportunity for the student to receive constructive input from the broad biological community.

7. When the Supervisory Committee deems it necessary, a working knowledge of a language other than English may be required.

8. Comprehensive Examination

a. Timing of Examination

i. Timing of the comprehensive examination shall follow General Regulation, 1. under Comprehensive Examination, Ph.D.

b. Examination Committee

The Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Department of Biology according to Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, 2. of the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies. No more than two members of the Examination Committee may be members of the candidate’s Supervisory Committee. The committee shall meet and recommend to the Department in writing an examination seminar topic within the student's previously determined subdiscipline.

c. Examination Procedure

The Department shall provide the student the examination date and the seminar topic in writing not more than six nor less than four weeks prior to the examination. The student shall provide each member of the Examination Committee a written paper on the seminar topic one week prior to the examination. The Examination Committee shall evaluate the candidate's presentation and response to questions put to him/her during the Oral Examination both on the seminar and within the student's subdiscipline of Biology.

d. Subsequent Action

The Examination Committee will meet in camera to arrive at its conclusions. The Chair shall report the results of the Examination to the Head and the Dean of Graduate Studies for transmission to the candidate. The report will include one of the following decisions: a) the student passed with distinction, passed or failed. b) if failed and it is the first examination whether the student may be re-examined.

e. Re-examination

Comprehensive Re-examination if permitted will occur not sooner than one month and not more than six months after the first. The candidate and his or her Supervisory Committee shall be informed of the deficiencies found. The format for the second examination will be determined by the Examination Committee with the approval of the Biology Graduate Studies Committee. The candidate will be informed of the topic and format four to six weeks prior to the examination. The examination will follow the procedure outlined in 8c and d above. A failure will require the student to withdraw from the program.

9. Theses shall conform to Theses and Reports of the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and the Departmental Guidelines.

25.3.2 Marine Biology

1. A program of study leading to a Doctor of Philosophy with a specialization in Marine Biology is governed by the above regulations.

2. To be considered for admission, applicants must have a background equivalent to that provided by the M.Sc. specialization in Marine Biology.

3. Normally students will be required to take 6 credit hours in Biology courses from the following group: 6710, 7531, 7535, 7540, 7541, 7551, 7560 and 7561.

4. Depending on the student's area of research and background additional courses may be required.
Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

6000 Research Topics in Microbiology
6100 Modern Problems in Botany
6110 Advanced Phycology
6120 Mycology
6350 Behavioural Ontogeny (Cross-listed as Psychology 6350)
6351 Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology (Cross-listed as Psychology 6351)
6355 Field Course in Animal Behaviour (Cross-listed as Psychology 6355)
6400 Parasitic Protozoology
6410 Helminthology
6420 Parasitic Arthropods
6590 Molecular Biology I (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6590 and Medicine 6590) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6591 Molecular Biology II (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6591 and Medicine 6591) Prerequisites: Biology 4241, Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6592 Bacterial Genetics (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6592) Prerequisite: Biology 4241 or Biochemistry 4100 (or equivalent)
6593 Selected Readings in Molecular Biology (Cross-listed as Biochemistry 6593) Prerequisites or Co-requisites: Biology 6590, 6591/Biochemistry 6590, 6591/Medicine 6590, 6591, (or equivalent)
6700 Biology of the Molluscs
6710 Marine Benthic Biology
6720 Entomology
6730 The Molecular Basis of Development
7110 Cellular Physiology and Cytology
7140 Physiology of Parasitism
7210 Arctic and Subarctic Biology
7220 Quantitative Methods in Biology
7250 Topics in Wildlife Biology
7270 Ecology of Newfoundland
7300 Ornithology
7510 Ichthyology
7520 Advances in Fish Biology
7530 The Molecular Basis of Development
7531 Biological Oceanography
7535 Research Methods in Marine Science
7540 Plankton Dynamics
7541 Physiological Ecology of Phytoplankton
7550 Fishery Biology
7551 Fisheries Resource Management
7560 Physiology of Marine Invertebrates
7561 Physiology of Marine Vertebrates
7570 Marine Benthic Biology
7600 Effect of Organic and Inorganic Pollutants on Biological Systems
7910 Community and Ecosystem Ecology
7920-7940 Special Topics in Biology

25.4 Chemistry
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
R. Davis

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Chemistry is offered as full-time or part-time study.

A Master's Degree in Chemistry or related area from a recognized university is normally required for entry into the Ph.D. program. Students holding a Bachelor's Degree (Honours or equivalent) in Chemistry may be considered for direct admission into the Ph.D. program. Students currently registered in the Memorial University of Newfoundland's Chemistry M.Sc. program for a minimum of three semesters may request transfer into a Ph.D. program. The transfer should be supported by the Supervisor and the Supervisory Committee and subsequent to satisfactory presentation of a written progress report and Ph.D. research proposal.

1. Candidates are normally required to write American Chemical Society (ACS) placement test(s) in the first two weeks of the initial semester of registration in order to determine an appropriate course program.
2. Candidates will be assigned a Supervisory Committee consisting of the Supervisor and at least two other appropriate faculty members appointed by the Dean on recommendation of the Chemistry Deputy Head (Graduate Studies).
3. The program of a candidate must be arranged by the Supervisor in consultation with the Supervisory Committee and the student before the second semester of registration. It is the responsibility of the Supervisory Committee to meet at least annually with the student, to provide guidance at all stages of the candidate's program, and, in consultation with the student, to prepare annual written progress reports for submission to the Dean of Graduate Studies.
4. Candidates holding a Master's Degree from a recognized university are normally required to successfully complete a minimum of 6 credit hours of graduate Chemistry courses with a minimum grade of B and to present a Departmental seminar on a topic not directly related to the candidate's research (Chemistry 6002) as well as a seminar describing the candidate's research (Chemistry 6003). Courses taken towards a Master's Degree may not be repeated. Candidates not holding a Master's Degree must successfully complete at least 12 credit hours of graduate Chemistry courses with a minimum grade of B in addition to Chemistry 6002 and 6003.
5. Candidates are required to attend Departmental seminars.
6. Candidates must pass a comprehensive examination, as described in the General Regulations, consisting of a three-hour written part covering topics in a chosen branch of Chemistry and, subsequent to the written exam at the discretion of the comprehensive examination committee, an oral exam designed to explore areas of perceived deficiency.
7. Candidates must submit and successfully defend a thesis deemed acceptable by two internal and one external examiner as outlined in the General Regulations.

25.5 Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Program

Administrative Committee
- Dr. Rita Anderson (Psychology)
- Dr. Edward Miller (Biology)
- Dr. William Montevacchi (Psychology - Chair)
- Dr. Paul Snelgrove (Biology)
- Dr. Ian Warkentin (Grenfell College)
- One Graduate Student from the Program

25.5.1 Program
1. The Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Graduate Program focuses on interdisciplinary animal behaviour research. Research integrates mechanistic, developmental, evolutionary and ecological perspectives on behaviour through molecular, individual and population levels of analysis. Supervisors include faculty from the Departments of Biology and Psychology, the Ocean Sciences Centre, the Faculty of Medicine and the Environmental Science Program at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, as well as adjunct faculty from the Canadian Wildlife Service, Department of Fisheries and Oceans, the Newfoundland and Labrador Forestry and Wildlife Divisions and Parks Canada. The Departments of Biology and Psychology jointly offer the Master of Science and the Doctor of Philosophy degrees in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology.

2. The Administrative Committee is responsible for the Program. Committee members are appointed by the Dean of Science, on the recommendation of the Chair of the Committee and of the Heads of Biology and Psychology. The Committee Chair is elected by the committee members and appointed by the Dean of Science. The Committee makes recommendations to the Dean of Graduate Studies concerning admissions and academic requirements. In consultation with supervisors, recommendations are made concerning course programs, financial support, thesis committees, comprehensive and thesis topics, examiners and students’ annual progress. Upon program completion, the Committee certifies that all requirements for the appropriate degree have been met. The Department of the Supervisor ensures that adequate facilities are provided for each candidate. Students in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology are considered for teaching assistantships in the Psychology or Biology Departments.

25.5.2 Regulations - Doctor of Philosophy
1. There are no required courses for the doctoral program. However, the Doctoral Seminar (CABE 6992) and/or other courses tailored for individual students may be included in the student's program by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Chair of the Committee.

2. The comprehensive examination should be taken during the first year of the program. An Examination Committee will be struck in accordance with General Regulations. At least one member of the Department of Biology and of the Department of Psychology (other than the Supervisor) must be on the Examination Committee. The candidate's Supervisor will be on the Examination Committee and will be the only examiner from the candidate's Thesis Supervisory Committee. The Head of the Department of the Supervisor of his/her delegate is invited to serve on the Comprehensive Examination Committee. The Examination Committee is chaired by the Chair of the Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology Committee. The examination will include a comprehensive, integrative review paper on a research topic in Animal Behaviour. The review topic is assigned by the Examination Committee, which also determines the submission date for the paper, and the date of the examination. Normally, the student will write the paper in four months, and the oral examination will occur within six weeks of the paper's submission. This paper will form the basis of a public seminar. The Examination Committee will question the candidate about the paper, the topic and its broader relationship with Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology.

Courses
Biology 7220 Quantitative Methods in Biology
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 6240 Special Topics
Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology 6350 Behavioural Ontogeny

25.6 Computer Science
Professor and Head of the Department
W. Banzhaf

The degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Computer Science.

25.6.1 Doctor of Philosophy
1. Admission into the Ph.D. program in Computer Science is normally restricted to candidates holding a Master's Degree (or equivalent) in Computer Science or a closely related area. Others may be considered for admission. See Qualifications for Admission of the General Regulations. International applicants are strongly encouraged to submit results of the (general) Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Test.

2. Each candidate for the Ph.D. shall complete a program of graduate courses prescribed by the supervisory committee. The normal minimum will be 9 credit hours.

3. The candidate shall take the Comprehensive Examination within the time limits specified in Comprehensive Examinations of the General Regulations. Students should consult the Departmental guidelines for a detailed description of the content of the Comprehensive Examination.

4. The Ph.D. Degree program will conclude with an oral defence of the thesis as described in Theses and Reports of the General Regulations.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

Programming Languages
6711 Syntax and Semantics of Programming Languages
6712 Compiling Techniques
6713 Software Engineering
6714 Functional Programming
6715 Logic Programming
6716 Concurrent Programming
6718-6719 Special Topics in Programming Languages

Computer Systems
6720 Distributed and Parallel Computing
6721 Operating Systems Design
6722 Advanced Computer Architectures
6723 Microprocessor Systems
6724 VLSI Design (same as Engineering 9863)
6725 Computational Aspects of VLSI (same as Engineering 9864)
6726 Modelling and Analysis of Computing Systems
6727 Introduction to High Performance Computer Systems
6728-6729 Special Topics in Computer Systems - Computer Networks

Numerical Computations
6731 Topics in Numerical Methods
6732 Matrix Computations
6738-6739 Special Topics in Numerical Methods

Theoretical Aspects
6741 Advanced Automata Theory
6742 Theory of Databases
6743 Complexity of Computational Problems
6745 Special Topics - Advanced Computational Geometry
6748-6749 Special Topics in Theoretical Computer Science

Applications
6751 Database Technology and Information Retrieval
6752 Applications of Computer Graphics
25.7 Earth Sciences

Professor and Head of the Department

J. H. Hanchar

The degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Earth Sciences (Geology) and Earth Sciences (Geophysics) by full-time and part-time study.

25.7.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. Admission into a Ph.D. program in Earth Sciences (Geology) and Earth Sciences (Geophysics) is normally restricted to candidates holding a Master's Degree or its equivalent. Candidates holding B.Sc. (Honours) degrees who show evidence of exceptional ability may be considered for a direct entry into a Ph.D. program. In exceptional circumstances, a candidate with a B.Sc. (Honours) degree who has spent not less than 12 months in an M.Sc. Degree program may be recommended for transfer into a Ph.D. program, provided that the candidate can demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Department of Earth Sciences, his/her ability to pursue research at the doctoral level.

2. Prior to the date of first registration in the Ph.D. program, a candidate will meet with his/her Supervisory Committee. The purpose of this meeting is to draw up the candidate's program of study and research.

3. Within two weeks of first registration in the Ph.D. program candidates will normally take the Ph.D. Entry Evaluation. This requirement may be waived by the Dean of Graduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Head, for students who either hold a M.Sc. Degree from Memorial University of Newfoundland or have a background that is already deemed satisfactory by the Supervisory Committee.

4. A candidate for the Ph.D. Degree is normally required to complete 6 credit hours in addition to the credit hours required for the M.Sc. Degree. The courses must be selected from the overview and general courses below or with the approval of the supervisory committee and Head of Department, other graduate level courses including those offered by other departments. Depending on background and/or area of specialization, a candidate also may be required to complete additional courses in earth sciences or related subjects. All course requirements should be completed within 12 months from the date of the first registration in the Ph.D. program.

5. The Ph.D. Candidacy Examination consists of two parts: The Comprehensive Examination and the Thesis Proposal Examination. The candidate shall normally take these examinations not later than one year from the date of first registration in the Ph.D. program.

6. The Ph.D. Degree program will conclude with a thesis examination and an oral defence of thesis as prescribed in the General Regulations.

7. The Supervisor and the Head of the Department may recommend to the Dean of Graduate Studies that a candidate who is not making satisfactory progress be required to withdraw from the program.

8. A candidate is required to give an oral presentation to the Department on the results of his/her research. This presentation must be given during the second or third year of the program.

Courses

A selection of courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Overview Courses

7110 Physics of the Solid Earth
7120 Crustal Geophysics
7300 Changes in Global Paleoenvironment
7400 Tectonic Regimes
7410 Engineering and Environmental Geology
7500 Chemical Fluxes in the Earth
7810 Palaeoecology (same as former 6810. Credit may be obtained for only one of 7810 or 6810)

General Courses

6070 Quantitative Techniques in Mineralogy and Metamorphic Petrology
6141 Rotation of the Earth
6142 Theory of Global Geodynamics
6152 Paleomagnetism
6171 Advanced Exploration Seismology
6172 Borehole Seismic
6175 Gravity and Magnetic Methods
6177 Mathematical Formulations of Seismic Wave Phenomena
6210 Genesis of Mineral Deposits
6320 Marine Geology
6400 Flow and Transport in Fractured Rock
6410 Advanced Engineering and Environmental Geology
6420 Deformation Mechanisms
6500 Stable Isotope Geochemistry
6510 Trace Element Geochemistry
6520 Methods in Advanced Research in Geochemistry
6540 Radiogenic Isotope Geochemistry
6550 Biogeochemistry
6600 Petroleum Geology
6740 Modern and Ancient Sedimentary Environments
6750 Sequence Stratigraphy
6820 Palynology and Paleobotany
6990-6999 Special Topics in Earth Sciences
25.8 Education

Professor and Dean

A. Collins

Associate Professor and Associate Dean

T. Seltert

The degrees of Master of Education and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Education.

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Education is offered to qualified candidates, normally by full-time study. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland outlined in the current Calendar, and the Degree Regulations of the Faculty of Education outlined below will apply.

25.8.1 Admission to the Ph.D. Program

General qualifications for admission to the Ph.D. Programs at Memorial University of Newfoundland are set out in the University Calendar under School of Graduate Studies, General Regulation Qualifications for Admission, Ph.D. Program.

In addition, the following admission requirements apply:

1. an 'A' standing in a Master's Degree in Education or in an equivalent Master's Degree from an accredited university;
2. evidence of scholarly work, such as a master's thesis, directed research project, or qualifying research paper;
3. normally, completion of two years of professional experience in an educational setting.

25.8.2 Supervisory Committee

Each candidate will have a supervisory committee comprised of a minimum of three members, at least two of whom shall be members of the Faculty of Education. The thesis Supervisor shall be a faculty member in the Faculty of Education, Memorial University of Newfoundland.

25.8.3 Components of Study

1. Courses
   a. Students are required to successfully complete two courses on the doctoral program:
      Education 7001 - Doctoral Seminar in Education: Area of Specialization Education 7002 - Advanced Educational Research
   b. Based on a consideration of educational background and research interest, students may be required to complete (or have completed at the masters level) as many as two (2) additional courses in research related to their program focus and specialty.
   c. Normally, no more than four courses may be undertaken on a candidate's program.
   d. Education 7003-30 - Special Topics (offered as required)

2. Comprehensive Examination
   The candidate shall undertake a written and an oral comprehensive examination, which will follow General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination which sets out the procedures for the comprehensive examination.
   a. A candidate in a Ph.D. program in Education shall normally take the written Comprehensive Examination prior to the seventh semester of the program. The candidate will have completed required courses prior to taking the Comprehensive Examination. In preparation for the Comprehensive Examination, the doctoral candidate, with the guidance of the candidate's Supervisor, will undertake study of the sub-disciplines/areas of concentration identified by the candidate and supervisory committee and approved by the Doctoral Committee. Normally, these will include the candidate's area of concentration and two additional sub-disciplines/areas of concentration.
   b. Such study of sub-disciplines will normally include but not be limited to developing a reading list of important historical and current publications within the sub-disciplines, identifying emerging research emphases within the sub-disciplines, and writing scholarly review papers of these publications.
   c. In preparation for the written comprehensive examination, the doctoral candidate and the supervisory committee will agree on the topics to be examined. The examination will be written over a two day period.
   d. Normally, the oral comprehensive examination will occur within six weeks of the written examination, which if judged to be successful by the Comprehensive Examination Committee, will form the basis of an oral comprehensive examination.
   e. The procedure for scheduling the Comprehensive Examination shall be initiated by the candidate's Supervisor who will notify, in writing, the Dean of Education of the candidate's readiness. The date of both the written examination and the oral examination will be determined by the Dean of Education. The candidate will receive a written notice of the scheduled date for both examinations from the Dean of Education.
   f. The Comprehensive Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies in accordance with School of Graduate Studies General Regulation Comprehensive Examination, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Education. There will be six members of the Comprehensive Examination Committee as follows:
      Dean of Education or delegate (Chair)
      Chair of the Doctoral Committee of the Faculty Council of Education
      Candidate's Supervisor
      Second member of candidate's supervisory committee
      Dean of School of Graduate Studies or delegate (non-voting)
      Member of the Faculty of Education or educational community selected by the Dean of Education.
      In the event that the Chair of the Doctoral Committee is the candidate's Supervisor, the Dean of Education shall appoint an additional member.

3. Ph.D. Thesis Regulations
   a. The candidate must submit a thesis proposal based on his/her own research interest to all members of the Supervisory Committee for critical evaluation. Normally, the proposal must be approved prior to the eighth semester of the program. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Committee will inform the candidate within one month of its acceptance, rejection or acceptance
The Comprehensive Examination for Ph.D. candidates shall consist of two parts, a research examination and a general examination.

Part II - Composition of the Examination Committee

The Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Engineering and Applied Science. It shall consist of:

1. The Dean of Engineering and Applied Science (or delegate) who shall be the Chair and a voting member.
2. The Dean of Graduate Studies or delegate.
3. Four additional voting members nominated by the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. The candidate's Supervisor and not the Dean of Graduate Studies.
4. A maximum of 6 credit hours consisting of graduate courses recommended by the student's supervisory committee.
5. A thesis satisfying the requirements of the General Regulations for Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination.

Part III - Content of Comprehensive Examination

The Comprehensive Examination for Ph.D. candidates shall consist of two parts, a research examination and a general examination.

1. Research Examination

The candidate will provide a written submission to the Examination Committee outlining the proposed research program. In this brief, the candidate must demonstrate an acceptable understanding of the proposed research and indicate the availability of the facilities necessary to carry out the work.

2. General Examination

The Comprehensive Examination Committee shall examine the candidate orally on any or all aspect(s) of the research proposal.
Within two weeks after the Research Examination the candidate shall submit to another oral examination by the same Committee. The candidate will be expected to demonstrate a mastery of the subdisciplines of engineering as defined in General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination.

At least one week in advance of the first oral examination, the Chair of the Examination Committee will issue a notice to faculty and graduate students in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, notifying the date and place of the examinations. Both oral examinations shall be open. After the candidate has been examined by the Examination Committee, others in the audience will be given an opportunity to question the candidate.

At the conclusion of the public portion of the oral examination, the Committee may meet in private to further question the candidate and may ask the candidate to appear for a written examination on specified topics within 14 days after the general oral examination. The candidate shall be given at least 7 days notice before such written examination.

The Examination Committee will meet in camera to arrive at its recommendations. After the Committee has considered the candidate's performance on all portions of the examination, the Chair shall report the result of the examination to the Dean of Graduate Studies. The report will be in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination.

25.10.1 Doctor of Philosophy
1. Admission to the Ph.D. in English is limited and competitive. Applicants should have a Master’s Degree in English or its equivalent from a recognized university and should have an outstanding academic record.
2. All candidates will be required to complete 15 credit hours in graduate courses. These courses will be selected by the candidate in consultation with the candidate’s Supervisory Committee.

While candidates will normally be free to choose graduate courses of interest to them, it will be a primary responsibility of their Supervisory Committees to ensure that any serious deficiencies in their record of previous courses, graduate and undergraduate, are remedied, particularly in the area of proposed thesis research.
3. Candidates who have not previously taken English 7003 or its equivalent will take English 7003, which will count as one of the required courses for the Ph.D. Students who have taken English 7003 or its equivalent before entering the Ph.D. program must still complete 15 credit hours.
4. Candidates who have not completed English 4900 or English 5900 or an equivalent course will be required to complete English 5900, which will not count as one of the required courses for the Ph.D. The course will be graded “pass” or “fail”. As in other graduate courses a grade of 65B or above is considered a pass.
5. Candidates must submit a thesis proposal which includes a statement of topic, a working title, a plan of research and a preliminary bibliography. The thesis proposal should be approved by the Supervisory Committee and submitted to the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee for its approval before the Comprehensive Examination and before the end of the fifth semester. The Departmental Graduate Studies Committee shall return the thesis proposal to the candidate no later than one month after receiving it.
6. Reading knowledge of a second language will be required of all candidates. Reading knowledge is defined as a minimum B grade in a second-year language course taken within the previous five years, a passing grade in an approved second-language course for graduate students, or performance satisfactory to the Department in an arranged reading proficiency test (in which a dictionary may be used).

The language requirement should be completed before the Comprehensive Examination is taken.

The second language will normally be French. In exceptional circumstances, and on the recommendation of the Supervisory Committee and the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee, a language other than French may be substituted.

The Supervisory Committee may also require a demonstrated reading knowledge of an additional language (other than French or the substituted language) if such knowledge is deemed necessary for the student’s research interests.
7. The Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination in English is a written examination prepared by the candidate’s Comprehensive Examination Committee.

In accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, the candidate’s Comprehensive Examination Committee will include the Head (or the Head’s delegate, usually the Graduate Co-ordinator), the candidate’s Supervisor, and three other members of the Department.

The written examination shall consist of three parts: a four-hour examination in the student’s area of concentration and two three-hour examinations in two other specified areas. In accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, the examination shall take place before the end of the seventh semester.

Candidates will be graded “pass with distinction”, “pass”, “re-examination”, or “fail”, in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination. 4. Candidates who are marked for “re-examination” will be re-examined in the area or areas in which the Comprehensive Examination Committee has determined that the candidate’s performance is deficient. The nature of this re-examination (and whether it will be written or oral) is left to the discretion of the Comprehensive Examination Committee.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow.

Notes: 1. Since it is impossible to list in detail the many topics that may from time to time be offered, the titles below refer only to the major periods and general subject areas in which specific courses may be available. The content and approach in specific courses will vary according to the research interests of students and faculty involved in the course. Students should consult the Department's annual Graduate Student Guide (or the Graduate Co-ordinator) for detailed descriptions of specific course offerings. Normally, no fewer than 30 credit hours in graduate courses are offered in any given academic year.

2. English 5900 cannot be counted as one of the required graduate courses in any program.
3. All students will normally take English 7003 - Trends in Contemporary Literary Theory, usually in their first semester.
4. Students who took graduate courses in English at Memorial University of Newfoundland before 1997 should consult with the Department before selecting further courses.

25.11 Ethnomusicology
Professor and Director of the School of Music
T. Gordon

Associate Professor and Associate Director of the School of Music
M. Cheramy

The Doctor of Philosophy program in Ethnomusicology is administered by the School of Music in consultation with the Department of Folklore, and generally in response to recommendations from an Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee with representation from both academic units, chaired by the Program Co-ordinator.

The Degree of Ph.D. in Ethnomusicology is offered by part-time and full-time study. This program is a research Degree, generally involving extended fieldwork. The resources of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive are available to graduate students in Ethnomusicology.

25.11.1 Qualifications for Admission

Applicants may be admitted to the program if they have at least a B+ average in a M.A. Degree in Ethnomusicology, another field of Music, or other relevant discipline in the Humanities or Social Sciences with evidence of specialization in music. Applicants from a discipline other than Music will be expected to demonstrate the following skills:

- Competent performance in any musical tradition, as judged by a musician knowledgeable about that tradition.
- Knowledge of culturally appropriate language for discussion of performance techniques in that tradition.
- Ability to discuss musical details on the basis of aural and/or written sources, as appropriate to that tradition.

Candidates for admission may, at the discretion of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee, be required to write diagnostic examinations measuring skills and knowledge in music literacy, theory, or aural perception. Candidates with deficiencies in any of these areas may be required to take remedial coursework prior or in addition to the required program.

Upon completion of M.A. coursework, students who have attained an A average may wish to be considered for transfer to the Ph.D. program. Students who seek this option must apply to the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee to be considered for transfer one month prior to the completion of their M.A. courses or by the end of the 5th semester. (See General Regulation Qualifications for Admission, Master’s Program).

25.11.2 Program Requirements

The Ph.D. program may be completed within twelve to fifteen consecutive semesters of full-time study, depending on fieldwork requirements. The Degree is normally taken by completing coursework, comprehensive examinations, a language proficiency requirement, and a Ph.D. thesis, defended in accordance with General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies.

1. Students must complete a minimum of 21 credit hours of coursework. If required courses have been completed at the M.A. level, electives may be substituted (with approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee). The required courses are:
   a. Music 8001; Folklore 6010, 6030.
   b. One of Music 6002 or Folklore 7100.
   c. Nine credit hours of electives selected from courses listed below or from relevant courses offered in another discipline (with the approval of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee). Ph.D. students may take up to two courses (6 credit hours) in a cognate discipline.
   d. Reading proficiency in one language other than English, relevant to the research area, demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee. The choice of language must be approved by the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee. The language exam should normally be completed before the comprehensive exams.

2. Comprehensive examinations will be administered in a major area, minor area, and theoretical/interdisciplinary area; a component of the comprehensive examination will test audio-visual skills. Bibliographies and discographies for several focussed topics will be developed by the student in consultation with his/her supervisory committee and will be the basis of examination questions. The written portion of the examination will be scheduled over a one-week period. An oral defence of the written essays will be scheduled normally within one month following the completion of the written examination. (See General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination).

3. Students must complete a thesis, examined and defended in accordance with General Regulation Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies. A thesis proposal, including a working title, statement of purpose and research scope, outline of theoretical and methodological approach, working plan, and preliminary bibliography, together with proposed membership of the supervisory committee, must be submitted to the Interdisciplinary Advisory Committee no later than the fifth semester of study. The thesis shall demonstrate the candidate’s ability to carry out original and independent research, develop the necessary theoretical and methodological framework, and present the findings in a scholarly manner.

25.12 Folklore
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
D. Tye

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Folklore is offered by part-time and full-time study and is primarily a research Degree. The program normally requires extensive fieldwork research in Newfoundland and/or the Maritimes.

Integral to the teaching of the Department of Folklore is the work of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Folklore and Language Archive; see section under Master of Arts, Folklore.

25.12.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. An applicant for admission to the Ph.D. program in Folklore must hold an M.A. Degree in Folklore, or its equivalent as determined by the Head of the Department and the Dean, with an average grade in M.A. courses of not less than 80%.

2. All Ph.D. students in the Folklore program must complete at least 18 credit hours in program graduate courses which shall include Folklore 7000 and 7100. Candidates will normally be free to choose graduate courses of interest to them in Folklore or related disciplines, though it will be a primary responsibility of their committees to ensure that any serious deficiencies are made good. At the end of the second semester the program and further status of the candidate will be reviewed.

3. Second Language Requirements:
   a. All Ph.D. candidates are required to demonstrate an adequate reading knowledge of a second language - normally a common, modern language.
   b. Reading knowledge is defined as a minimum B grade in a second-year language course taken within the previous five years, or performance satisfactory to the Department in an arranged reading proficiency test.
   c. The selection of a second language can be based on the student's research requirements.
   d. The selection of a second language must be made in consultation with the student's faculty advisor or Supervisor. Confirmation that the choice is acceptable must be obtained from the Department.
   e. The language requirement must normally be fulfilled before a student takes the Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination.

4. Comprehensive Examination for the Ph.D.:
a. The Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination shall be administered in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examination. The examination may be oral, written, or both, and shall consist of three sessions, each of three hours' duration, within a one-week period. The examination will deal with all areas of folklore and folklife scholarship;

b. The examination can be taken only upon completion of the second language requirements and no earlier than the end of the first year after admission to candidacy but not later than one year after the completion of the program courses. The examination will normally be scheduled in the third week of March or of November.

5. Ph.D. Thesis:

a. The candidate will normally submit a thesis proposal based on his/her own interests no later than the end of the fourth semester of the program. The thesis proposal will include a working title, names of preferred Supervisor and two other committee members, statement of topic, plan of research, statement of methodological and theoretical approach, a brief review of the literature and a preliminary bibliography. The proposal will be circulated to the Department for critical evaluation on the basis of which the candidate will be informed, within one month, by the Supervisor, of its acceptance, rejection, or acceptance with recommended changes.

b. The thesis shall give evidence of the candidate's ability to carry out independent and original research, develop the necessary theoretical and methodological framework and present the findings in a scholarly manner.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, normally after consultation with the Head of the Department or the Graduate Studies Administrator, and as far as the resources of the Department will allow. Courses are structured according to the categories of: Theories and Methods, Issues, Form and Performance, Special Topics, Regional, National and International Heritage, Social Identities, Public and Applied Folklore, Interdisciplinary Perspectives and Required (Ph.D.).

25.14 Geography
Associate Professor and Interim Head of the Department
K. Butler

25.14.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. To be admitted to the program, an applicant must have completed either a Master of Arts or a Master of Science Degree, or its equivalent, in Geography or a related discipline. In exceptional circumstances, a candidate who has completed either a B.A. (Honours) or B.Sc. (Honours) Degree, and who has spent not less than 12 months in a M.A. or M.Sc. Degree program may apply for transfer into a Ph.D. program. A successful application for transfer will require that the candidate demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department an ability to pursue research at the doctoral level.

2. The deadline for submission of applications for admission is January 15. Candidates will normally commence their programs in the Fall semester.

3. Research areas for graduate study at the Doctoral level are cultural, political and historical geography, economic geography, resource management, community and regional development, physical geography and geographic information sciences.

4. An applicant will be admitted to a doctoral program only if a faculty member agrees to act as Supervisor, and at least two other individuals are willing to serve on the supervisory committee.

5. All candidates must successfully complete Geography 6000 and 6001 if these courses, or equivalent courses, have not been included in their Master's program. In addition, all candidates are required to successfully complete a minimum of 3 credit hours in graduate program courses.

6. The supervisory committee may decide that a candidate successfully completes an examination for reading or speaking a language other than English.

7. After the successful completion of all required courses, candidates must take a comprehensive examination which will have both a written and an oral component.

8. Following successful completion of the comprehensive examination the candidate will submit a written research proposal to the supervisory committee. The proposal must then be approved by the Committee prior to the commencement of research by the candidate.

9. Each candidate will be required to present a seminar on their research to the Department.

10. The Ph.D. program will conclude with the examination and oral defence of the completed thesis in accordance with the appropriate sections of the General Regulations governing the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

6000 Development of Geographical Thought and Practice I
6001 Development of Geographical Thought and Practice II
6002 Directed Readings in Geography
6100 Research Techniques in A Selected Field of Geography I
6101 Research Techniques in A Selected Field of Geography II
6120 Geospatial Modelling and Analysis
6150 Environmental Remote Sensing and Image Analysis
6200 Economic Geography I
6201 Economic Geography II
6204 Sustainable Community and Regional Development
6250 Conservation and Sustainability of Natural Resources
6251 Survey Design, Questionnaire Development and Techniques of Data Collection
6300 Problems in Fisheries Geography
6400 Fluvial Geomorphology
6401 Glacial Geomorphology
6402 Coastal Geomorphology
6410 Climatology
6420 Quaternary Geography
6430 Biogeography
6500 Cultural Geography
6600 Historical Geography
6700 Political Geography
6800 Urban Geography
6821 Advanced Computer Mapping
6900 Graduate Seminar in Regional Geography
6990-95 Special Topics in Geography
25.15 Geology

25.17 History
Professor and Head of the Department
C. Youé

The degrees of Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Arts are offered in History by full-time or part-time study.

25.17.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. The Ph.D. Degree in History is offered in the following areas:
   a. Canadian History
   b. Maritime History
   c. Newfoundland History

2. An applicant must hold either a Master's Degree in History or a Bachelor's Degree in History with first-class Honours or their equivalents as determined by the Head of the Department and the Dean.

3. All candidates must successfully complete History 7000 and 7001 in the first year of the program. The Supervisory Committee may require the candidate to complete additional graduate courses.

4. All candidates must demonstrate in accordance with regulations established by the School of Graduate Studies a reading knowledge of French before taking the comprehensive examination. On the recommendation of the Supervisory Committee a modern language other than French may be substituted. In addition, the Supervisory Committee may require a demonstrated reading knowledge of a second language other than French or English (or the substitute language).

5. Candidates will undertake supervised reading in fields prescribed by the Department. The Supervisors of these programs of reading, along with the thesis Supervisor, will comprise the student’s Supervisory Committee. This reading will prepare the student for the comprehensive oral examination.

6. Candidates must submit a thesis proposal, deemed acceptable by the Supervisory Committee, to the Department before sitting the comprehensive examination.

7. Candidates will normally sit the comprehensive oral examination in the second year of the program.

8. Interested applicants are urged to consult with the Head of the Department on these prerequisites and other requirements before filing an application for admission.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

- 6000 Advanced Studies in Newfoundland History
- 6010 Advanced Studies in Canadian History
- 6020 Advanced Studies in the History of the United States
- 6030 Advanced Studies in French History
- 6040 Advanced Studies in British History
- 6050 Advanced Studies in German History
- 6060 Advanced Studies in North Atlantic History
- 6070 Advanced Studies in Social History
- 6075 Advanced Studies in Labour and Working Class History
- 6080 Advanced Studies in Intellectual History
- 6090 Advanced Studies in Women’s History
- 6095 Advanced Studies in Ethnohistory
- 6100 Advanced Studies in Military History
- 6105 Advanced Studies in Diplomatic History
- 6110 Advanced Studies in Maritime History
- 6120 Advanced Studies in Economic and Business History
- 6125 Medical Science and Social Responsibility in Health Care: Aspects of Medical History (Cross-listed as Medicine 6420)
- 6130 Quantification and Measurement in History
- 6140-59 Research in Special Topics
- 6160-79 Reading Courses (Special Topics)
- 6180 Seminar in Historiography
- 6200 Masters Seminar I
- 6210 Sources, Methods and Criticism: Practising History
- 6999 Masters Research Paper (9 credit hours)
- 7000 Ph.D. Seminar I
- 7001 Ph.D. Seminar II

25.18 Interdisciplinary

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Interdisciplinary) is offered by part-time and full-time study. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and the regulations outlined below will apply.

25.18.1 Administration

1. The program shall be administered by a Director, together with the School of Graduate Studies Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Committee (ID Ph.D. Committee).

2. The program of study of each student will be guided for the duration of the program by a Supervisory Committee of either three (3) or five (5) faculty members, appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the ID Ph.D. Committee at the time of admission.
In addition, the Director shall be an ex officio member of each Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Supervisory Committee.
Duties of this Committee shall involve supervising the overall program of study, including the recommendation of appropriate courses, the setting and scheduling of comprehensive examinations, the development of a research proposal, and the thesis-writing and final examination.
The Supervisory Committee is also responsible for recommending fellowship support to the ID Ph.D. Committee and to the Dean of Graduate Studies at the time of admission and throughout the student’s program.
3. Normally, the “academic home” for the student is in the Department or faculty/school of the primary Supervisor.

25.18.2 Deadlines for Applications
1. The deadline for fall admission is March 1 for commencement in September, October 1 for commencement in January, and February 1 for commencement in May. Students seeking admission to the program should start preparing their admission file well in advance of the application deadline.
Admissions shall be considered by the ID Ph.D. Committee and recommendations shall be made to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

25.18.3 Admission
1. Prospective students should normally hold a Master’s Degree and have an excellent academic record. Applications for admission must include:
a. Three letters of reference
b. A detailed research proposal
c. Letters expressing a commitment to the research project and to supervisory duties from three Memorial University faculty members, one of whom is prepared to assume the role of academic Supervisor or co-supervisor and at least one whose unit of primary responsibility is a Ph.D. granting Department.
d. Letters of endorsement from the administrative heads of each of the units involved in the proposed program.
e. A statement from the University Librarian indicating the adequacy of Library resources to satisfy the demands of the research program.

25.18.4 Program of Study
1. a. Students will normally be required to take 12-18 credit hours of courses to be determined by the Supervisory Committee. These must include at least one course from each participating discipline. Directed reading courses may be included to support the development of the thesis work.
b. Where appropriate, extra language and/or methodology courses may be prescribed. See Evaluation, Evaluation of Graduate Students, 4. c. concerning language(s) requirement.
2. Comprehensives
The scope, format, and number of required comprehensive examinations shall be determined by the Supervisory Committee in consultation with the student and in accordance with the needs of his/her particular program of study. Students will be required to take a comprehensive examination after the completion of all required coursework, which can be no later than the end of the seventh semester of study. Comprehensive examinations shall follow procedures in accordance with General Regulation, Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, with the exception of 2.
3. Thesis
a. A thesis proposal, including a working title, statement of purpose and research scope, outline of theoretical and methodological approach, working plan and preliminary bibliography must be submitted to the Supervisory Committee no later than the end of the fifth semester of study. If approved by the Committee, the proposal shall be recommended to the ID Ph.D. Committee for final approval.
b. Students must complete a thesis, examined and defended in accordance with General Regulation, Theses and Reports of the School of Graduate Studies. The thesis shall give evidence of the candidate’s ability to develop independent and original research.

25.19 Linguistics
Associate Professor and Head of the Department
M. Mackenzie
The degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Linguistics.

25.19.1 Doctor of Philosophy
1. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in the following areas:
a. Languages in which the Department has demonstrated expertise, especially languages of the Newfoundland and Labrador Area.
b. Historical and Comparative Linguistics.
c. Language Variation and Language Contact.
2. In order to be admitted to the Ph.D. in Linguistics, a student shall normally hold a Master's Degree in Linguistics. In the case of a student who does not meet the above requirement but who holds a language-oriented Master's Degree, a program of additional linguistics courses, the setting and scheduling of comprehensive examinations, the development of a research proposal, and the thesis-writing and final examination.
3. The program of each candidate must be approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Supervisory Committee in consultation with the Head of the Department.
4. Candidates who fulfill the requirement in Clause 2 and who otherwise possess the qualifications of Ph.D. candidates will embark on a program approved on an individual basis. This will normally include not less than 18 credit hours in graduate courses, at least 6 credit hours of which must be at the 7000-level.
5. Where needed, each program will include appropriate courses to ensure that the student will have completed 9 credit hours from graduate courses in each of two required fields selected from the following:
a. Phonetics and Phonology
6. The comprehensive examination (see Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination of the General Regulations) includes two written and two oral examinations. Students must meet all language requirements prior to undertaking their comprehensive examination.

a. The written examinations consist of two separate research papers. These papers will be submitted to the Examination Committee. At least one of the papers must be in one of the core areas of phonetics/phonology, morphology, syntax or semantics. The topic selected for each paper must obtain the prior approval of the Graduate Studies Committee of the Department. In each of these papers, candidates must demonstrate knowledge of the literature on the topic selected, general mastery of the discipline of linguistics and ability to undertake independent research.

b. The Examination Committee will examine the candidate orally, on each paper, within one month of submission. Questioning can be as wide-ranging as the Committee deems necessary to ensure that the student displays a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the area in question.

c. The Examination Committee shall consist of the Head of Department (or delegate) who shall Chair the Committee, the Supervisor, the Dean of Graduate Studies (or delegate), and other members necessary to satisfy General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, 2., who may normally include the members of the Supervisory Committee. If the Head of Department is also a member of the Supervisory Committee, an additional representative of the Department shall be appointed to chair the Examination Committee.

7. Initially, candidates must obtain approval for their Ph.D. thesis topics from the Graduate Studies Committee of the Department, in consultation with the Supervisory Committee. The thesis topic is normally selected before the end of the second full year in the program. Once the topic is approved, a more detailed thesis proposal must be presented to the Department in both written and oral format, and must receive formal Departmental approval prior to the writing of the thesis.

8. Proficiency in a language other than the candidate’s first language will be required, as demonstrated by a minimum B grade in a second-year language course, or performance satisfactory to the Department in an arranged reading proficiency test. A structural knowledge of a non-Indo-European language is also required, as demonstrated by a minimum B grade in a field methods/language structure course or other performance satisfactory to the Department. Depending on the program, a reading knowledge of one or more additional languages may be required. Students must meet all language requirements before undertaking their comprehensive examinations.

9. All Ph.D. students are advised to consult the Linguistics department’s Graduate Handbook for details on program requirements and for general information relating to the graduate program.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of students, as far as the resources of the Department will allow. Full information is to be found in the Department’s Graduate Brochure.

6001 Issues in Morphosyntax
6050-54 Structure of a North American Aboriginal Language (Credit restriction: Except where an exemption is supplied by the Head of the Department, a student may not obtain credit for more than one course in the 6050-54 series. Students may not obtain credit for any of the previously offered 6010, 6011, 6020, 6021, 6030, 6031, 6040, 6041 in addition to a course in the 6050-54 series.)
6055-59 Structure of an Uncommonly-Taught Language (Credit restriction: Except where an exemption is supplied by the Head of the Department, a student may not obtain credit for more than one course in the 6055-59 series.)

6110 Selected Topics in Transformational Grammar
6115 Topics in the Syntax of A Selected Language (Prerequisite: 6001 or 6110)
6150 Principles of Language Acquisition
6151 Selected Topics in Language Acquisition (Prerequisite: 6150)
6200 Generative Phonology
6201 Selected Topics in Phonology (Prerequisite: 6200)
6210 Sociolinguistics (Credit restriction: A student may not obtain credit for both 6210 or the former 6211)
6212 Selected Topics in Language and Gender
6220 Areal and Temporal Variations in Language
6300-99 Special Subjects
6350 General Romance Linguistics
6390 Franco-Canadian
6400 Comparative and Historical Linguistics
6401 Morphosyntactic Change (Prerequisite: 6400)
6403 Etymology (cross-listed as English 6403)
6410 Comparative Structure of a Selected Language Family (Prerequisite: 6011 or 6031 or 6403)
6420 English Dialectology I
6421 English Dialectology II
6430 Selected Topics in Linguistic Variation (Prerequisite: 6220 or the former 6211)
6500 Field Methods
6601 Modern Linguistic Theories
6700 Experimental Phonetics
6701 Selected Topics in Experimental Phonetics (Prerequisites: 6200, 6700)
6800 Selected Topics in Morphology
6880 Selected Topics in Semantics
7000 Seminar in Research Methods
7001 Analytical issues in Linguistics
7100 Topics in North American Native Languages (Prerequisites: a course from series 6050-6054 or the former 6011, 6031, 6041)
7200 Advanced Topics in Syntax (Prerequisites: 6110, plus either 6001 or 6115)
7400 Seminar in Comparative and Historical Linguistics (Prerequisite: 6400 or 6410)
7430 Seminar in Linguistic Variation (Prerequisite: 6430)
7800 Seminar in Morpho-semantics (Prerequisite: 6800)
7900-93 Special Topics in Linguistics

Note: Appropriate equivalent credits may be given for courses taken at the Summer Institute of the Linguistic Society of America, or a similar institute. Students are encouraged to attend these institutes. They should, however, consult the Head of the Department as to what courses may be appropriate for credit.
25.20 Management
Associate Professor and Dean, Faculty of Business Administration
G. Gorman
The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Management is offered in the Faculty of Business Administration. The designation refers to management in the broad context. The Degree will offer specializations corresponding to functional areas in management. The Degree currently is offered with specializations in: (i) operations and information management, and (ii) organizational behaviour and human resources management.

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Management is offered by full-time study to qualified candidates. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and the Degree Regulations of the Faculty of Business Administration outlined below, will apply.

25.20.1 Admission to the Ph.D. Program
Admission is limited and competitive. General qualifications for admission to the Ph.D. Programs at Memorial University of Newfoundland are set out under General Regulations, Qualifications for Admission. Applicants from all disciplines will be considered.

In addition, applicants must have completed the GMAT with a minimum score of 600 (or GRE with a combined score of 1100).

25.20.2 Supervisory Committee
Until a supervisory committee has been formed, the Ph.D. Program Director will be the designated advisor of each Ph.D. student. Each candidate will have a supervisory committee consisting of three or more members, at least two of whom shall be members of the Faculty of Business Administration. The thesis Supervisor shall be a doctorally qualified faculty member in the Faculty of Business Administration, Memorial University of Newfoundland, having a recent (past five years) research track record suitable to provide research supervision at the Ph.D. level. The supervisory committee will be appointed no later than the end of the first year of studies.

Students are encouraged to find a Supervisor within the first year of the program and, together with the Supervisor, find the remaining committee members by the time all required courses are completed.

25.20.3 Components of Study

25.20.3.1 Courses
Students are required to complete successfully a program of courses, normally over the first two years of the program. Students without an adequate background in the functional areas of business may be required to take additional breadth courses. Such determination will be made by the Ph.D. Admission Committee when a student is accepted into the program.

1. Required for all Specializations
   Philosophy 6015 Theory of Knowledge
   Business 9901 Approaches to Management Research

2. One of Business 9902 Modelling Methods in Management Research Business 9903 Quantitative Methods in Management Research*
   Business 9904 Qualitative Methods in Management Research
   Business 9901 is to be completed before any of Business 9902, 9903, 9904 is attempted.

3. Graduate Research Integrity Program (non-credit)
   *Alternatively, students may elect to take Education 6467 if Business 9903 is not offered in a particular year, on the approval of the Ph.D. Program Director.
   Alternatively, students may elect to take Education 6466 if Business 9904 is not offered in a particular year, on the approval of the Ph.D. Program Director.

Operations and Information Management (OIM) Specialization Courses
In addition to the above-noted courses required for all specializations, the following courses are required for the Operations and Information Management specialization:

Business 9910 Optimization
Business 9911 Data and Process Models in Information Systems Development Business 9912 Probabilistic Models
Business 9913 Human-Computer Interaction and Decision Support Systems
Business 9914 Supply Chains: Models and Management
Business 9915 Electronic Commerce
Business 991A/B Seminar in Operations and Information Management Research A/B
Business 9917 Special Topics in Operations Management
Business 9918 Special Topics in Information Systems

Organizational Behaviour and Human Resources Management Specialization Courses

In addition to the above-noted courses required for all specializations, the following courses are required for the Organizational Behaviour and Human Resources Management specialization.

1. Required courses:
   - Business 9920 Foundations in Organizational Behaviour
   - Business 9921 Foundations in Human Resources Management
   - Business 9922 Foundations in Industrial Relations
   - Business 9923 Foundations in Organization Theory

   Note: Waivers shall not be granted in the Ph.D. program for previously completed course work at either the undergraduate or master’s level.

2. Four of:
   - Business 9924 Current Issues in Organizational Behaviour
   - Business 9925 Current Issues in Human Resources Management
   - Business 9926 Current Issues in Industrial Relations
   - Business 9927 Current Issues in Organizational Theory
   - Business 9928 Special Topics in Organizational Behaviour/Organization Theory
   - Business 9929 Special Topics in Human Resources Management/Industrial Relations
   - Any other graduate course subject to the approval of the Supervisor

25.20.3.2 Summer Research Project

During the first summer in the program, students will complete a research project under the supervision of a qualified faculty member in the area of specialization. Projects must be presented in the course BUSI 991B Seminar in Operations and Information Management Research during the second year of the program or an equivalent course in other specializations.

25.20.3.3 Comprehensive Examination

Students shall undertake a mandatory written comprehensive examination, following General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, which sets out the procedures for the comprehensive examination.

In addition:

1. A candidate in the Ph.D. Program in Management shall normally take the written Comprehensive Examination by the end of the seventh semester of the program. The candidate must have successfully completed all required courses prior to writing the Comprehensive Examination. The scope of the Comprehensive Examination will be determined by the Examining Committee (as defined in General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination) under the guidance of the Supervisory Committee.

2. A list of topics/areas for the Comprehensive Examination will be provided to the student no later than three months prior to the date of the examination.

3. The written examination will take place in three phases over a one-week period.

4. Based on the results of the written examination, the Examining Committee may schedule a supplementary oral examination on any topics covered on the written examination. The oral examination request must be made to the Dean within two weeks of completion of the written examination. The oral examination, if any, must take place within six weeks of completion of the written examination.

5. The scheduling of the Comprehensive Examination will be initiated by the student’s Supervisor who will notify the Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration. The date of the written examination will be determined by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies. The student will be provided with written notice of the scheduled dates of the written examinations. In the case of oral examinations, requests will be initiated by the Examining Committee or the student (as described above in 4.) through the School of Graduate Studies.

25.20.3.4 Ph.D. Thesis Regulations

1. The candidate must submit a thesis proposal to all members of the Supervisory Committee for evaluation and approval by the end of the eighth semester of the program. Within one month of submitting the proposal, the Candidate will give a public oral presentation of the proposal, attended by the Committee. The presentation will provide the Committee and others in attendance with an opportunity to raise questions about the proposal research. Immediately following the presentation, the Supervisory Committee will meet to assess the proposal. Assessment will result in one of the following three outcomes: (1) accept; (2) accept with changes; or (3) reject. The results of this assessment will be provided to the student following the meeting. Assessments of accept with changes or reject will be accompanied by written comments within one week of the proposal presentation.

2. If the proposal is rejected, the candidate will be permitted a second proposal. This proposal must be submitted and deemed acceptable by the Supervisory Committee within four months of the original proposal presentation. Failure to resubmit within this time period will lead to termination of the candidate’s program.

3. The Ph.D. thesis will constitute an independent and original research contribution.

4. The Ph.D. thesis will be evaluated according to the process established in General Regulation Theses and Reports, Evaluation of Ph.D. Theses governing the School of Graduate Studies.

25.21 Mathematics and Statistics

Professor and Head of the Department
C. Radford

The degrees of Master of Applied Statistics (see appropriate calendar entry), Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. The Masters' degrees are offered by full-time and part-time studies. The Department also participates in the interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Theoretical Physics.

25.21.1 Doctor of Philosophy

The following regulations should be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies.

1. Candidates shall be assigned a supervisory committee consisting of the Supervisor (or Co-Supervisors) and at least two other members of faculty appointed by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head.

2. A candidate shall complete at least 6 credit hours in graduate courses in the area of specialization. Candidates not holding a Masters Degree shall, in addition, complete, or have already completed successfully, the course requirements for a Memorial University of Newfoundland Master's Degree in mathematics or in statistics, as appropriate. Any candidate may be required to take additional courses.

3. The Comprehensive Examination consists of two parts, called the “qualifying review” and the “intermediate review”. Successful completion of both the qualifying and intermediate reviews constitutes successful completion of the Comprehensive Examination in the sense of General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations.

   a. The qualifying review consists of written examinations and takes place as soon as the Supervisory Committee deems appropriate, but not later than the end of the candidate's third semester in the doctoral program. Its main purpose is to ensure that the candidate has a reasonably broad general knowledge of mathematics or of statistics, as appropriate.

   b. The intermediate review consists of an oral presentation on the candidate’s thesis topic followed by an oral examination based on the presentation although questions of a general nature relating to the field of specialization are also permitted. It must take place no later than the end of the candidate's seventh semester in the doctoral program. Its purpose is to ensure that the candidate has specialized knowledge in his/her chosen area sufficient to do original research of a high level.

More details concerning the Department's comprehensive examinations can be obtained from the Department.

25.21.2 Specific Regulations for the Ph.D. in Mathematics

A Master's Degree in mathematics or related area from a recognized university is normally required for entry into the Ph.D. program. Students holding a Bachelor's Degree (Honours or equivalent) in mathematics may be considered for direct admission into the Ph.D. program. Students currently registered in Memorial University of Newfoundland's M.Sc. program in mathematics may request a transfer into a Ph.D. program. Such transfer must be supported by the intended Ph.D. supervisory committee and the Graduate Studies Committee.

25.21.3 Specific Regulations for the Ph.D. in Statistics

A Master's Degree in statistics from a recognized university is normally required for entry into the Ph.D. program. Students currently registered in Memorial University of Newfoundland’s MAS or M.Sc. program in statistics may request a transfer into a Ph.D. program. Such transfer must be supported by the intended Ph.D. supervisory committee and the Graduate Studies Committee.

In addition to general Departmental requirements, each candidate for the Ph.D. in statistics will be required to present at least one paper at a graduate seminar on a topic to be approved by his or her Supervisor.
25.21.4 Specific Regulations for the Ph.D. in Theoretical Physics

The interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Theoretical Physics is offered jointly with the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

Mathematics
6100 Dynamical Systems
6101 Modern Perturbation Theory
6104 Infinite Dimensional Dynamical Systems
6102-6119 Special Topics in Applied Mathematics
6120 The Theoretical Fluid Dynamics
6121 Functional Differential Equations
6130 Introduction to General Relativity
6160 Partial Differential Equations
6201 Numerical Methods for Partial Differential Equations
6202-6209 Special Topics in Numerical Analysis
6210 Numerical Solution of Differential Equations (for Computational Science students only - required core course)
6212 Numerical Methods for Initial Value Problems
6300 Algebraic Topology I (Homology Theory)
6301 Algebraic Topology II (Homotopy Theory)
6302 Algebraic Topology III (Theory of Fibre Bundles)
6304-6309 Special Topics in Topology
6310 Functional Analysis
6311 Complex Analysis
6312 Measure Theory
6313-6319 Special Topics in Analysis
6320 Group Theory
6321 Ring Theory
6322 Nonassociative Algebra
6323 Homological Algebra
6324-6329 Special Topics in Algebra
6330 Analytic Number Theory
6331 Algebraic Number Theory
6332 Point Set Topology
6340 Graph Theory
6341 Combinatorial Design Theory
6342 Advanced Enumeration
6343-6349 Special Topics in Combinatorics
6910 Topology Seminar
6930 Statistics Seminar
6940 Analysis Seminar
6950 Algebra Seminar

Statistics
6503 Stochastic Processes
6505 Survival Analysis
6510 Mathematical Statistics
6520 Linear Models
6530 Generalized Linear Longitudinal Mixed Models
6540 Time Series Analysis
6545 Statistical Computing
6550 Nonparametric Statistics
6560 Continuous Multivariate Analysis
6561 Categorical Data Analysis
6570-6589 Selected Topics in Statistics and Probability 6590 A Course in Statistical Consulting

25.22 Medicine

Professor of Medicine and Dean
J. Rourke

Professor and Associate Dean
D. McKay

There are eight program areas in the Faculty of Medicine: Applied Health Services Research, Cancer Research, Cardiovascular and Renal Science, Clinical Epidemiology, Community Health and Humanities, Human Genetics, Immunology and Infectious Diseases and Neurosciences. Each program area has a Co-ordinator who is responsible to communicate the interests of the program to the Faculty of Medicine Graduate Studies Committee and participate in the admission of graduate students into the graduate program in Medicine. Full descriptions of each of the programs is available at www.med.mun.ca/graduate/.

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy (in all programs excluding Applied Health Services Research) is offered in the Faculty of Medicine by full-time and part-time study. The Faculty of Medicine also offers the opportunity for students registered in the M.D. program to obtain a Ph.D. in a combined and integrated M.D.-Ph.D. program.

25.22.1 Doctor of Philosophy

Qualifications for Admission

The admission requirements for the Ph.D. Degree in Medicine are as given under the General Regulations governing Ph.D. degrees.

Program of Study and Research

1. The program of study for a Ph.D. Degree is the responsibility of the supervisory committee composed of a Supervisor and at least two other faculty members.
2. It is the responsibility of the supervisory committee to meet regularly (at least annually) with the student and to provide guidance at all stages of the candidate’s program. An annual report prepared by the Supervisor and signed by the student and all members of the committee is required to be submitted to the Assistant Dean of Research and Graduate Studies (Medicine).
3. Graduate students are expected to participate in Faculty of Medicine seminars and journal clubs.
4. Graduate students in the Ph.D. Degree normally take the comprehensive examination before the end of the seventh semester. The comprehensive examination consists of both a written and oral component and is in accordance with the General Regulations governing Ph.D. degrees.

25.22.2 M.D.-Ph.D. Program

The M.D.-Ph.D. program is offered by full-time study to highly motivated students with an excellent academic record who are interested in a research career in academic medicine and wish to receive both of these degrees.

The purpose of the M.D.-Ph.D. program is to provide medical education, including clinical skills and training in health research. The integrated program is designed to increase the efficiency of obtaining both degrees, and the student is required to fulfill the complete requirements of both the M.D. and Ph.D. degrees.

M.D.-Ph.D. students are jointly enrolled in the M.D. program and the Ph.D. program which is overseen by the M.D.-Ph.D. Program Committee (Faculty of Medicine).

Qualifications for Admission

1. To be admitted into the M.D.-Ph.D. program, applicants must meet the admission requirements of both the M.D. and Ph.D. programs. Admission shall be by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Research and Graduate Studies (Faculty of Medicine), and the Dean of Medicine on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean, Admissions (Faculty of Medicine).
2. Normally, students will enter the M.D.-Ph.D. program from the M.D. program after successful completion of the pre-clerkship phase or from the Ph.D. program after one or two years of the graduate program and acceptance into the M.D. program.

25.22.3 Program of Study and Research

1. The program of study for the Ph.D. is described in the preceding section and follows the General Regulations governing the Ph.D. Degree. For the purposes of timing of the comprehensive examination, only the semesters in the Ph.D. component of the program will be counted.
2. The program of study for the M.D. follows the General Regulations governing the M.D. Degree.
3. During the Ph.D. component, students are expected to maintain clinical skills by arrangement with the M.D.-Ph.D. Program Committee. Before resuming full-time studies in the clerkship phase of the M.D. component, students will be required to demonstrate competency in clinical skills.
4. During the M.D.-Ph.D. program (including the clerkship phase), students are expected to participate in Faculty of Medicine seminars and journal clubs in their area of research specialization.
5. The Ph.D. will be awarded to students in the M.D.-Ph.D. program on completion of all academic requirements appropriate to the Ph.D. Degree. The M.D. will be awarded to students in the M.D.-Ph.D. program on completion of all academic requirements appropriate to the M.D. Degree.

25.22.4 Evaluation

Failure to maintain academic standing in either the Ph.D. or M.D. components will lead to termination of the M.D.-Ph.D. program which will be annotated on the student’s transcript. On failure of the M.D. component, the Dean of Graduate Studies may approve transfer to a Ph.D. program on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean (Research and Graduate Studies), Faculty of Medicine. On failure of the Ph.D. component, the Dean of Medicine may approve transfer to a M.D. program on the recommendation of the Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Medical Education.

Courses

For a list of courses offered by the Faculty of Medicine refer to Courses offered for the Master of Science in Medicine.
25.23 Pharmacy

Associate Professor and Director of the School of Pharmacy

L.R. Hensman

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Pharmacy is offered to qualified candidates normally by full-time study. The General Regulations of the School of Graduate Studies of Memorial University of Newfoundland outlined in the current Calendar, and the Degree Regulations of the School of Pharmacy outlined below will apply. Every candidate in graduate studies shall comply with the General Regulations, Degree Regulations and all additional requirements of the School of Pharmacy.

25.23.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. Qualifications For Admission
   a. Admission to the Ph.D. program is limited and competitive. Applicants must have completed an M.Sc. Degree in Pharmacy, or its equivalent in a related discipline, from a university of recognized standing.
   b. Other students may be considered for admission to a Ph.D. provided that they have been registered in a M.Sc. Pharmacy program for a minimum of 12 months, and have demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Pharmacy an ability to pursue research at the doctoral level. Students wishing to transfer from the M.Sc. to the Ph.D. will have completed 6 credit hours. Prior to admittance to the Ph.D. program, a written thesis proposal will be submitted for assessment by the Supervisory Committee plus one additional faculty member. The recommendation of this Committee will be forwarded to the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Pharmacy.
   c. On admission to the program, a Supervisory Committee shall be appointed in accordance with General Regulation Supervision governing the School of Graduate Studies.

2. Program Of Study And Research
   a. As a minimum, each candidate shall successfully complete 6 credit hours as well as Pharmacy 6999 (Pharmacy Research Seminar). A minimum grade of 65% will be required in each course. Candidates shall complete additional undergraduate courses in Pharmacy or other related areas where the Supervisory Committee considers there to be a deficiency in the academic record. Candidates may select these courses in consultation with the Supervisory Committee. However, it will be the primary responsibility of the Supervisory Committee to ensure that deficiencies in the academic record are rectified.
   b. All candidates must submit a thesis proposal to the Supervisory Committee for approval no later than the second semester of study after admission to the program.
   c. All candidates must complete a comprehensive examination on or before the end of the sixth semester of study after admission to the program. The comprehensive examination will consist of two components: a written examination and an oral examination. The oral examination will normally be held no later than two weeks after successful completion of the written examination.
   d. A Comprehensive Examination Committee shall be appointed in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examination. The Committee will be responsible for preparing the questions for the written and oral examinations and evaluating the candidate's performance in the subject area. The Committee will consist of the Dean of Graduate Studies (or delegate), the Supervisor, and three other members, one of whom may be a member of the Supervisory Committee. All shall be voting members of the Committee except the Dean of Graduate Studies (or delegate).
   e. Successful completion of the Ph.D program will require formal examination of the written thesis and an oral defence of the research, as prescribed in the General Regulation Theses and Reports. Final approval of the thesis shall be the responsibility of the School of Graduate Studies.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates as far as the resources of the School will allow. Permission of the instructor and the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Pharmacy is required for admission to any graduate Pharmacy course.

6000 Medicinal Chemistry
6001 Advanced Physical Pharmacy
6002 Dosage Form Design and Novel Drug Delivery Systems
6003 Pharmacokinetic Modelling
6004 Principles of General Pharmacology
6005 Toxicology of Therapeutic Agents and Chemicals
6100-6104 Special Topics Courses
6999 Pharmacy Research Seminar

25.24 Physics and Physical Oceanography

Professor and Head of the Department

B. de Young

The following Departmental Regulations are supplementary to the General Regulations governing the M.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees. A thorough familiarity with the latter Regulations should be regarded as the prerequisite to further reading in this section.

The Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography compiles, and regularly reviews, a brochure which contains reasonably detailed descriptions of currently active research projects, as well as a comprehensive listing of recent research publications, and other material which may be of interest to prospective graduate students.

25.24.1 Doctor of Philosophy

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Atomic and Molecular Physics, in Physical Oceanography, in Condensed Matter Physics and in Theoretical Physics.

1. A program of study for the Ph.D. Degree in Atomic and Molecular Physics, Condensed Matter Physics or Physical Oceanography shall normally include a minimum of 9 graduate credit hours, beyond those required for the M.Sc. Degree. However, depending on the student's background and area of specialization, more or fewer graduate and/or undergraduate courses may be required.

2. A Comprehensive Examination (as prescribed under General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations) shall be an oral one, and may include the presentation of a written research proposal.

3. The Ph.D. Program in Theoretical Physics is an interdisciplinary program offered jointly with the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.
Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

6000 Condensed Matter Physics I
6001 Condensed Matter Physics II
6002 Superconductivity
6003 Path Integral Techniques in Condensed Matter Physics
6010-19 Special Topics in Condensed Matter Physics
6040 Biophysics
6060-69 Special Topics in Interdisciplinary Areas
6200 Nonlinear Dynamics
6308 Ocean Dynamics I
6309 Ocean Dynamics II
6310 Physical Oceanography
6313 Physical Fluid Dynamics
6315 Polar Oceanography
6316 Ocean Measurements and Data Analysis
6317 Ocean Acoustics
6318 Numerical Modelling
6319 Climate Dynamics

6323 Stability Theory
6324 Models in Ocean Ecology
6360-69 (excluding 6363) Special Topics in Physical Oceanography
6363 Laboratory Experiments in Geophysical Fluid Dynamics
6400 Statistical Mechanics
6402 Theory of Phase Transitions
6403 Stochastic Processes, Time-Dependent and Non-Equilibrium Statistical Mechanics
6502 Electrodynamics
6720 Theory of Molecules
6721 Molecular Spectroscopy
6722 Light Scattering Spectroscopy
6730 Molecular Theory of Liquids and Compressed Gases
6740 Physics of Atomic Collisions
6760-69 Special Topics in Atomic and Molecular Physics
6800 Group Theory
6810-19 Special Topics in Theoretical and Mathematical Physics
6850 Quantum Mechanics I
6851 Quantum Mechanics II
6910-19 Special Topics in Experimental and Applied Physics

Members of the Department carry out research in several areas of experimental and theoretical physics, including atomic and molecular physics, condensed matter physics, physical oceanography, theoretical geophysics and applied nuclear physics. In atomic and molecular physics, there are experimental programs in collision-induced infrared absorption spectroscopy, electron emission spectroscopy of simple molecules, molecular ions and free radicals, laser-induced fluorescence spectroscopy, and Raman spectroscopy, and theoretical work on atomic and molecular collisions. The work in condensed matter physics includes experimental programs in solid state nuclear magnetic resonance on systems of biophysical interest, Raman spectroscopy of lipid bilayers and membranes, studies of phase transitions using Brillouin and Raman spectroscopy, studies of instabilities and pattern formation in simple fluid dynamical systems, and spectroscopic studies of molecular crystals. Theoretical condensed matter physics research involves studies of magnetism, superconductivity, and the statistical mechanics of polymers and lipid bilayers. The Physical Oceanography group carries out field and laboratory research on several projects which take advantage of Newfoundland’s unique oceanographic environment, using acoustic and other remote sensing techniques. These include studies of circulation on the Newfoundland and Labrador shelves, Labrador current dynamics, fjord dynamics, submarine canyons and sediment transport dynamics in the nearshore zone and on the shelf. Theoretical oceanographic studies involve the modelling of ocean circulation, gravity wave phenomena and other aspects of ocean dynamics. Research in theoretical geophysics is concentrated on whole-Earth dynamics, with special emphasis on the physics of the liquid core (the Earth’s “third ocean”) as inferred from its wave spectrum and the associated momentum transfer to the deformable solid parts of the Earth. In nuclear physics, research is done on the atmospheric concentrations of radioactive elements and... on dosimetry for medical applications.

25.25 Psychology
Professor and Head of the Department
I. Neath

The Degree of Master of Science is offered in Experimental Psychology. Interested students should also see the Master of Science in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Experimental Psychology. Interested students may wish to consult the section in the Calendar describing the Doctor of Philosophy in Cognitive and Behavioural Ecology program.

Applications
1. All applicants are required to submit results from the General section of the Graduate Record Examinations.
2. At least one letter of reference should come from someone who is familiar with the applicant's research capability.
3. Applicants applying to programs in Cognitive, Perception and Animal Learning are required to submit with their applications an example of their academic writing. This could include, but is not limited to, papers submitted in class, honour's thesis, etc.

25.25.1 Doctor of Philosophy
1. An applicant must hold either a Master's Degree or an Honours Bachelor's Degree with first class standing to be considered for admission. The program of study will be specified at the time of admission. Decisions on (a) whether to include courses in the program, and if so, (b) which specific courses are to be included will be based on the student's background and the proposed thesis topic.
2. Comprehensive Examination
The Ph.D. comprehensive in Experimental Psychology shall be taken during the first year of the student's program. The examination will consist of two parts: (1) an essay, the topic of which is different from the subject of the thesis, and (2) an oral examination which tests the candidate's ability to integrate the essay into the broad area of Psychology. The essay topic will be assigned by the Examining Committee in consultation with the student and Supervisor. The essay should not be a précis of the literature, but a critical appraisal of a subject. This should identify important unresolved issues, and where possible, suggest solutions to them. Themes for questions for the oral examination will be provided to the student three weeks in advance of the examination.

Courses
A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:
6000 Advanced Statistics in Psychology
6001 Research Design
6100-6114 Special Topics in Experimental Psychology
6200 Learning I
6201 Learning II
6203 Behavioural Pharmacology
6210 Behavioural Analysis of Toxins
6350 Behavioural Ontogeny (Cross-listed as Biology 6350)
6351 Behavioural Ecology and Sociobiology (Cross-listed as Biology 6351)
6355 Field Course in Animal Behaviour (Cross-listed as Biology 6355)
6400 Theory and Methods in Social Psychology
6401 Social Cognition
6402 Group Processes
6403 Advanced Methods in Applied Social Psychological Research
6404 Project in Applied Social Psychology NOTE: This course is open only to students in the Master of Applied Social Psychology
6500 Developmental Psychology I
6501 Developmental Psychology II
6502 Developmental Changes During Old Age
6700 Perception
6710 Human Information Processing
6720 Human Memory
6800 Behavioural Neuroscience I
6801 Behavioural Neuroscience II
6810 Psychometrics
6910 Personality
6990 Doctoral Seminar I
6991 Doctoral Seminar II
6992 Doctoral Seminar in Biopsychology

25.26 Social Work
Associate Professor and Director
S. Birnie-Lefcovitch

25.26.1 Doctor of Philosophy
The degrees of Master of Social Work and Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Social Work.

coursework commences in the Spring Semester and is completed over five semesters. The program includes two Spring Semester residencies, at which time students must attend on a full-time basis, and Fall and Winter semester courses which can be taken on or away from campus.
1. An applicant for admission to the Ph.D. program in Social Work must hold a Master's Degree in social work, or equivalent professional social work Degree as determined by the Graduate Studies Committee of the School of Social Work. All applicants should also have a minimum of three years post-B.S.W. practice experience.
2. All Ph.D. students in the social work program must complete at least 24 credit hours in regulation graduate courses. These include:
3. Comprehensive Examination

a. A candidate registered in a Ph.D. program in Social Work shall normally take the Comprehensive Examination no later than the seventh semester in the program. Prior to proceeding to the Comprehensive Examination, candidates must have completed all required coursework and the internship.

b. The Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Director (School of Social Work). It shall consist of:
   i. the Ph.D. Program Co-ordinator who will serve as representative of the Director of the School of Social Work and who shall occupy the Chair
   ii. the candidate's Supervisor
   iii. the Dean of Graduate Studies or delegate
   iv. three other members recommended by the Director of the School of Social Work. One of these normally will be on the candidate's Supervisory Committee.

Including the Supervisor, no more than two members of the Examination Committee may be nominated from the candidate's Supervisory Committee. All members of the Examination Committee, including the Chair, but excluding the Dean of Graduate Studies or delegate, shall be voting members.

c. The Ph.D. Comprehensive in Social Work will consist of a written paper which has two main parts. The first part will contextualize the student's substantive area through a comprehensive analysis and discussion of its place in and development from social work theory and the profession's history. This part should demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of competing theoretical frameworks and orientations in social work and should demonstrate appreciation for historical developments generally as well as specifically to the student's substantive area of interest. The second part of the paper will focus specifically on the student's substantive area. In consultation with the Examination Committee, the student will identify an area of empirical research that may be undertaken and will prepare a written statement that includes: an introduction and formulation of at least two related research questions; a literature review that is consistent with these questions, which presents a critical evaluation of the literature, and that synthesizes the literature into the student's own theoretical framework; two competing research designs for answering the research question and a critical compare and contrast that leads to an argument for one design over the other. The focus and content of the written work will be defined by the Examination Committee in consultation with the student, and will be approved by the Ph.D. Program Co-ordinator in the School of Social Work. The written product shall be no less than 50 pages and not more than 75 pages. It will be orally defended. The student shall have up to one semester (13 weeks) to submit the paper.

d. The Ph.D. examination procedure shall be initiated by the candidate's Supervisor who will notify, in writing, the Director (School of Social Work) of the candidate's readiness. The candidate's Examination Committee will then be appointed according to section 3.b. (above).

e. Following the oral defence, the Examination Committee shall meet in camera to arrive at its conclusions. Evaluation of the candidate will be based on the following criteria:
   i. demonstration of knowledge of social work theory, research, and issues relevant to the topic of inquiry in both the written and oral presentation.
   ii. coherency of oral presentation and written paper (i.e. conceptualization, cogent argumentation, sufficient referencing of statements, clear writing style).

f. The Chair shall report the results of the examination to the Dean of Graduate Studies in accordance with General Regulation Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination, 4.

4. Ph.D. Thesis

a. A Supervisory Committee will be appointed for each student as indicated under the General Regulation Supervision.

b. The candidate must submit a thesis proposal to the Supervisory Committee based on her/his own interest, and normally the proposal must be approved by the end of the eighth semester of the program. The proposal will be circulated to the Supervisory Committee for critical evaluation. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Committee will inform the candidate within one month of its acceptance, rejection, or acceptance with recommended changes.

c. If the proposal is not acceptable, the candidate will normally be permitted a second attempt. The revised proposal must be submitted within a semester. Failure to resubmit within this time period will lead to termination of the candidate's program.

d. The thesis shall give evidence of the candidate's ability to carry out independent and original research, develop the necessary theoretical and methodological framework and analyses and present the findings in a scholarly manner.

Courses

The following courses that are offered during the spring semester residency will be offered every other year, as far as the resources of the School will allow:

- 7010 Philosophical and Historical Base of Social Work Practice (S*)
- 7020 Critical Thinking for Social Work Practice (S)
- 7310 Tutorial on Field of Practice (F or W)
- 7320 Tutorial in Advanced Social Work Practice (S)
- 7411 Philosophy of Science and Research Design (S)
- 7421 Qualitative Data Analysis (S)
- 7431 Quantitative Data Analysis (S)
- 7510 Social Work Education (S)
- 7610 Internship on Advanced Social Work Practice (F)
- 7920 Internship on Social Work Education (F)
- 7930 Internship on Applied Social Work Research (F)

*S = Spring Semester, F = Fall Semester, W = Winter Semester
25.27 Sociology
Professor and Head of the Department
S.H. Riggins

The Doctor of Philosophy is offered in Sociology by full-time and part-time study. Graduate courses are taught as tutorials or small seminars.

25.27.1 Doctor of Philosophy

1. The Ph.D. Degree in Sociology is offered in accordance with the general regulations in the following areas:
   a. Maritime Sociology
   b. Gender
   c. Work and Development
   d. Any combination of these three specialties.

2. To be admitted to the program an applicant must have completed either a Master of Arts or Master of Philosophy Degree or hold an equivalent qualification.

3. All Ph.D. candidates must complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in graduate courses, including the Sociology Graduate Seminar (6880), Social Theory (6150) and Methods of Sociological Research (6040) if these have not been taken previously. Students specializing in Maritime Sociology must also take 6300, 6340, and 6350. Students specializing in Gender must take 6320, 6370 and 6380. Students specializing in Work and Development must take 6130, 6280, and 6360. Students combining specialties will take 9 credit hours in subjects to be determined by the Sociology graduate committee after consultation with the student's Supervisor.

4. Proficiency in a second language will be required when the candidate's supervisory committee determines that knowledge of this second language is necessary for the purpose of the proposed doctoral research.

5. A written comprehensive examination, which may be followed by a supplementary oral examination, shall be completed by full-time students no later than the end of the second year of the program. Normally, part-time students shall take the examination within one year of the completion of prescribed courses. In accordance with General Regulations, candidates must demonstrate knowledge of their special areas of research within the context of the discipline of Sociology. The examination shall consist of three parts: social theory, research methods, and a special area.

6. No more than two years after having been admitted to the program the candidate must submit a thesis proposal that is considered satisfactory by the Supervisory Committee.

Courses

A selection of the following graduate courses will be offered to meet the requirements of candidates, as far as the resources of the Department will allow:

- 6040 Methods of Sociological Research
- 6090-94 Special Area in Sociology
- 6120 Social Organization
- 6130 Social Stratification
- 6140 The Community
- 6150 Social Theory
- 6160 Theory Construction and Explanation in Sociology
- 6240 Sociology in Medicine
- 6280 Social and Economic Development
- 6300 Maritime Sociology
- 6310 Political Sociology
- 6320 Gender and Society
- 6330 Science and Technology
- 6340 Comparative North Atlantic Societies
- 6350 Environmental Sociology
- 6360 Sociology of Work
- 6370 Feminist Theory and Methods
- 6380 Women, Nature, Science and Technology (cross-listed as Women's Studies 6380)
- 6610 Socialization
- 6620 Current Topics in Social Behaviour
- 6880 Sociology Graduate Seminar

25.28 Theoretical Physics

Board of Studies
Dr. I. Booth (Mathematics and Statistics)
Dr. C. Radford (Mathematics and Statistics)
Dr. J. Whitehead (Physics and Physical Oceanography)
Dr. I. Afanassiev (Physics and Physical Oceanography)

25.28.1 Program

1. The Theoretical Physics Program is an interdisciplinary Doctor of Philosophy program offered jointly by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography. It is broadly based and includes several subdisciplines with the common denominator that each applies advanced mathematical techniques to the study of physical problems. The subdisciplines include, though are not necessarily limited to, theoretical astrophysics, general relativity, partial differential equations of mathematical physics, quantum mechanics, classical and quantum field theory, theoretical condensed matter physics, many-body theory, advanced classical mechanics and non-linear processes, and theoretical and geophysical fluid mechanics.

2. The program is administered by the Board of Studies which is appointed by the Dean of Science in consultation with those faculty members active in the program. The Board of Studies will consist of two members from the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography and two members from the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. The Program Chair is elected by the Board of Studies and appointed by the Dean of Science. Responsibilities of the Board include making recommendations to the School of Graduate Studies concerning admissions to the program, determining course requirements, and administering comprehensive exams. It also determines minimum levels of funding, administers the School of Graduate Studies and Graduate Teaching Assistant budgets, and monitors' students' annual progress through the submission of annual supervisory committee reports.

25.28.2 Regulations

The following regulations should be read in conjunction with the General Regulations:

1. A program of study for the Ph.D. Degree in Theoretical Physics shall normally include a minimum of 9 graduate credit hours in courses offered by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and/or the Department of Physics and Physical Oceanography. The courses will be determined by the student’s supervisory committee in consultation with the Program Chair and approved by the Board of Studies. In special circumstances more or fewer graduate courses and/or undergraduate courses may be required.

2. Students are required to pass a single Comprehensive Examination as prescribed under Comprehensive Examinations, Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination. This shall be an oral one, and may include the presentation of a written research proposal.

3. The most important requirement is the writing of a doctoral thesis which demonstrates the student’s ability to independently and originally attack and solve a significant problem in theoretical physics. The thesis must definitively advance the subject which it treats.

1 General Information

Various types of awards are available to students of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Included are scholarships, bursaries, fellowships, studentships, prizes, medals and loans.

A scholarship is based on academic performance and is awarded to the student with the highest average meeting the conditions of the scholarship. Scholarship standing is required for all scholarships.

A bursary is based primarily on financial need and may be awarded to full-time students who have a minimum GPA of 2 (out of a possible 4) and meet the other conditions of the bursary.

An award is offered to recognize special achievements or to assist with special projects or travel. Awards may be given to students with a minimum of clear standing (as defined by the University) and meeting the other conditions of the award.

A grant is an award for which need is a prime consideration, normally with the provision that the recipient be, or remain, in good academic standing. Grants are issued at the discretion of the Director of Student Affairs and Services.

Scholarship standing for undergraduate entrance students (who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents graduating from secondary schools within Canada) is defined as a 75% average compiled from the final grades received in secondary school courses.

Scholarship standing for undergraduate entrance students is defined as a 75% average at the end of two out of the last three semesters in the preceding four semesters in which they must have been enrolled as regular full-time students. Those who fail an academic course or work term during the four semester period will not be eligible for scholarships.

Not all students who meet the above definitions of scholarship standing will receive a scholarship.

Students transferring to Memorial University of Newfoundland from Universities/Colleges in Canada which are members of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) and who meet scholarship standing as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland will be eligible for undergraduate scholarships in the year in which they transfer. Such students must notify the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office in writing of their intention to transfer and provide a complete transcript for the year in question.

Awards must be taken during the scholarship year for which they are awarded and the student must be registered full time or in a recognized work term in order to receive their scholarship, unless stated otherwise in the terms of reference. The scholarship year runs from May 1st - April 30th.

A student may receive in any one scholarship year one general award of any value administered by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards or more than one award to a combined value of 1.5 times the per semester tuition for 15 credit hours. In addition, students may receive, upon recommendation of the appropriate academic unit, awards administered by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards such that the total of general and academic unit specific awards does not exceed three times the per semester tuition for 15 credit hours.

Students who have obtained scholarship standing as defined above need not apply for general scholarships. Inquiries from students with special circumstances and/or concerning scholarships with special terms should be referred to the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, University Centre, Room 4018, or by telephone to (709) 737-3956.

Students attending the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College in Corner Brook are eligible for all General Scholarships. You may make scholarship inquiries at the Student Affairs Office on that campus or the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office.

Students wishing to apply for awards administered by other authorities should consult the appropriate section of the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards portion of the Calendar and/or the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office.

In addition to undergraduate awards listed herein, limited information is included concerning Studentships, Fellowships and Graduate Awards. Further inquiries may be made to the Scholarship Committee, though students are advised to consult the Heads of their Departments, the Dean of the Faculty or the Dean of Graduate Studies concerning these particular awards.

If you would like access to information on these and other post-secondary scholarships, awards, and bursaries available through the Internet, visit the Scholarships Office website at mun.ca/scholarships.

1.1 Government Assistance

Students who have a demonstrated financial need may, upon application, receive financial support from the Canada Student Loan Plan and if they so qualify, from the Provincial Government Student Assistance Program. A single application form for both sources of support is available in writing to The Student Aid Division, Department of Education, Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, Box 8700, St. John's, NL, A1B 4J6 or by telephone to (709) 729-4244.

2 Scholarships, Bursaries, and Awards Administered By the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards for Which Entrance Students May Qualify

Anthony Group Limited Entrance Scholarship

This scholarship is the result of a generous endowment to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Anthony Group Limited in memory of Robert C. Anthony B founder of Anthony Insurance Inc. and the Insurance Corporation of Newfoundland. Mr. Anthony, an inductee of the Newfoundland and Labrador Business Hall of Fame, started his career as a teacher in rural Newfoundland and placed great emphasis on the value of education. The scholarship is intended to help a deserving, high school graduate attend Memorial University of Newfoundland who would otherwise find it difficult due to financial considerations. The value of the scholarship is full-time tuition for one semester. Eligible candidates must have graduated from a Newfoundland and Labrador high school with a minimum of 75% in Level III courses and must intend to enroll at Memorial University of Newfoundland on a full-time basis. Additional scholarships may be awarded annually as endowment fund growth permits. These scholarships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Arnold’s Cove, Come By Chance, North Harbour Fishers and Newfoundland Transshipment Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Newfoundland Transshipment Limited (NTL) as part of an agreement between them and the Fishers Liaison Committee (FLC) of the Arnold’s Cove, Come By Chance and the North Harbour area. This scholarship, valued at the annual interest on the initial endowment to a maximum of $500 per student, will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to a Fisher or his/her descendant(s) who is registered as a full-time student at Memorial University of Newfoundland in any year or field of study. In the event that no applicants are received from Fishers or Fishers’ descendants in a given year, the scholarship may be awarded to another student from above noted geographic areas. Eligibility of applicants under the above criteria will be verified by the Fishers Liaison Committee (FLC) of Memorial University of Newfoundland. Students are notified of their status in the Arnold’s Cove, Come By Chance, North Harbour Fishers and Newfoundland Transshipment Scholarship by the Scholarship Committee. Further information can be found on the web site of the Centre for Marine Biodiversity.

The Atlantic Canada Marine Biodiversity Essay Contest Tuition Scholarship

Memorial University of Newfoundland is a participant in the Atlantic Canada Marine Biodiversity Essay Contest which is operated by the Centre for Marine Biodiversity. This contest is open to Grade 12 students from across Atlantic Canada. The first prize winner receives a waiver of tuition fees for two semesters if he or she attends Memorial University of Newfoundland. The two runners up receive partial waiver of tuition fees if they attend Memorial University of Newfoundland. Students are notified of their status in the Essay Contest by the Centre for Marine Biodiversity and the successful candidates are informed of their tuition scholarship by the university, after the Centre for Marine Biodiversity informs the university of the contest winners. Further information can be found on the web site of the Centre.

The Mary L. (Mollie) and Peter T. Bailey Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, donated by the family of the late Mary L. (Mollie) and Peter T. Bailey, has a value of at least $500.00. It is open to students entering first-year studies who are required to move away from home to attend Memorial University of Newfoundland. In making the award, scholarship standing and need will be considered.

The Baird-Stephenson Scholarship

This Scholarship, valued at $1,000.00 is to be awarded annually to a Memorial University of Newfoundland student in any year or field of study. It is named for Mrs. Edna Baird-Stephenson and her late husband, both of whom were former members of Memorial University of Newfoundland’s faculty. The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence.

The Warren and Catherine Ball Memorial Entrance Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2005 by a generous donation from the estate of Dr. and Mrs. Ball. The endowment will provide scholarships at the value of $7,500.00 per annum for up to four years of study to students entering Memorial University of Newfoundland for the first time. The number of the annual scholarships will be based on a portion of the annual income, as per the Awards Program Spending Policy. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing.

The Donald M. Balsom Award

The Newfoundland Brain Injury Association (NBIA) has established this award to honour Donald M. Balsom, former Associate Director of Memorial University of Newfoundland’s School of Continuing Education and brain injury survivor. Valued at $500.00, it will be awarded annually to a brain injured undergraduate student who is registered either part-time or full-time, in any year or field of study at Memorial University of Newfoundland, who has some volunteer experience with the NBIA and who is in clear academic standing at the University. In the event that no applications are received from brain injured students the award may be given to a student who has made a significant contribution as a volunteer to the Brain Injured Association. In special circumstances, the award may be held for more than one year. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards in consultation with NBIA as needed.

Bank of Montreal Scholarship

These scholarships are the result of a generous endowment to Memorial University of Newfoundland by the Bank of Montreal. Interest on the fund will provide several scholarships to full-time students entering Memorial University of Newfoundland in any field of study who... have scholarship standing and demonstrated financial need. These scholarships will be valued at two semesters tuition for five courses. They are renewable for up to four years provided the candidate(s) maintains first class and scholarship standing.

The Birks Family Foundation Bursaries

The Birks Family Foundation has established a plan of annual contributions to the student aid funds of recognized Canadian universities for the creation of the Birks Family Foundation Bursaries. The Bursaries are awarded by the Foundation on the recommendation of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards and are not restricted to faculty or year and may be renewed. The number and amount of such awards may vary annually, depending upon the funds available for the purpose from the Foundation.

The Glenn Roy Blundon Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at $500.00, has been established by the family, friends and fellow students of the late Glenn Roy Blundon, a former student of Memorial University of Newfoundland who, despite his severe physical disability, succeeded in his studies and made a significant contribution to student life. In the awarding of this scholarship, preference will be given to academically qualified students with disabilities but those enrolled in the Special Education Program may be considered when no candidates are available from the first group. A special application is required and may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956.

The Gary Bourne Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship is the result of an endowment to the University funded largely by donations resulting from fundraising efforts of Gary’s colleagues at the Office of Financial and Administrative Services. Valued at a portion of the annual accrued interest on the endowment it will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to an undergraduate student who is a dependent of a current, retired or deceased staff member of Memorial University of Newfoundland. A special application is required and may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956.

The Edward Patrick Browne Memorial Scholarships

In his will, Edward Browne, a distinguished and beloved member of the University community and a life-long supporter of the growth and development of the sport of basketball at provincial and national levels, left a bequest to Memorial University of Newfoundland for the awarding of scholarships to students. These scholarships are awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the advice of the Director of the School of Human Kinetics and Recreation.

The Greg Campbell Memorial Entrance Scholarship

These scholarships are the result of a generous donation by Eleanor Swanson to commemorate the memory of her late husband, J. Gregory Campbell. Interest on the fund will provide two scholarships to full time undergraduate students entering first year of any faculty or school at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing and financial need.

The William Campbell Memorial Alumni Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at a portion of the income on the investment, will be awarded annually to a student entering any first year program offered at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The recipient must be a graduate of Menihek High School. If the selected candidate pursues the College Transfer Program at the Labrador West Campus of the College of the North Atlantic, the scholarship may be deferred for one year on the condition that the student enters Memorial University of Newfoundland the following year. This scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards based on scholarship standing as defined by the University.

The Canadian Federation of University Women St. John's Bursaries

Two bursaries, valued at $1500.00 each, are offered annually by the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) St John's to female students in full-time or part-time studies. The awards are made on the basis of scholarship standing and financial need and are not restricted to any particular faculty or year of study. The first of these bursaries is named in memory of Dr. Edith M. Manuel, well-known Newfoundland educator and charter member of CFUW St John's who died in 1984. The second is named for Olga Anderson, a long-time member of CFUW St John's. Further information regarding the CFUW is available at www.cfuw.org.

The William J. and Florence Carew Labrador Student Scholarship/Bursary

A Scholarship/Bursary, established in 1975 by Miss Helen F. Carew, was renamed in 1990 in memory of her parents William J. and Florence Carew and is valued at $600.00 annually. The award shall be made to a student from Labrador entering Memorial University of Newfoundland. In making the award, need as well as academic standing, will be considered.

Corporate Express Scholarship

This scholarship is made possible by a generous four year commitment by Corporate Express Canada, the world's largest business to business supplier of office supplies, information products and office furniture. Five scholarships, valued at $1000.00 each will be awarded to students entering Memorial University of Newfoundland who are registered for full-time studies. These scholarships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing.

Country Ribbon Scholarship

This scholarship is available to dependents (sons, daughters or wards) of employees of Country Ribbon. Valued at $1,000.00 annually it will be awarded, with first preference, to an entrance student registered for full-time studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. If no suitable candidate can be identified from the first group the scholarship may be awarded to an undergraduate student registered for full-time studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Based on scholarship standing it will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. A special application is required and may be obtained from the Scholarships and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956.

The Dr. Clarence B. Crumley Memorial Entrance Scholarship

This scholarship is in memory of the late Dr. Clarence Crumney, Jubilee Scholar of the first graduating class of Memorial University College 1927. c. Possess scholarship standing as defined by the University; and

d. Hold no other concurrent scholarship.

Preference will be given to entrance students; however, if there is no eligible candidate enrolled in first year studies, then the scholarship may be awarded to a senior undergraduate student attending Memorial University of Newfoundland who fulfills the above criteria. In deciding between candidates of equal academic attainment need will be the determining factor.

Further information and application forms are available in writing from A. Harvey & Company Limited, 87 Water Street, P.O. Box 5128, St. John's, NL, A1C 5V6

The Judge Higgins Memorial Entrance Scholarship
This scholarship was established in memory of the late Judge William Higgins and is valued at a portion of the annual interest on the endowment. It will be open to all students entering first-year studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. In making the award, scholarship standing and financial need will be considered. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Imperial Tobacco Canada Entrance Scholarship
This scholarship was made possible by a donation in 1998 to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Imperial Tobacco Canada in support of the Opportunity Fund Campaign. The scholarship is valued at a minimum of $2,000.00 annually. It will be awarded to an entrance student on the basis of scholarship standing.

The Irving Oil Limited Scholarships
These scholarships are the result of a generous endowment to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Irving Oil Limited in 1999 as a part of the Opportunity Fund Campaign. Interest on the endowment will provide several scholarships to full-time students entering Memorial University of Newfoundland in any field of study who have scholarship standing. Where two or more students are tied academically, financial need will be the determining factor. Two scholarships, valued at $6,000.00 each, will be awarded annually to the general entering student population and, as funds permit, one or more scholarships valued at approximately $3,000.00 each will be awarded with preference to students who are dependents of full-time permanent employees of Irving Oil Limited. The latter will be split equally between the Eastern and Western regions of the province with Grand Falls-Windsor providing the boundary line. Communities west of Grand Falls-Windsor (including Labrador) will be considered part of the western region and those east and south of Grand Falls-Windsor (including Grand Falls-Windsor itself) will be considered part of the eastern region. If in a given year there are not enough eligible candidates from the employees’ dependant pool, these scholarships will also be open to the general entrance student population. All candidates must be residents of Newfoundland and Labrador (a person who has maintained permanent residence in the province for a period of 12 months immediately prior to enrolment at Memorial University of Newfoundland).

The P.F. Kearney Memorial Scholarship
A minimum of two scholarships will be provided annually from the interest on a bequest to the University in memory of Mr. P.F. Kearney. The scholarships will be awarded to students attending Memorial University of Newfoundland from schools within geographic boundaries of the Exploits Valley Integrated and Exploits White Bay Roman Catholic School Boards. Preference will be given to entering students but in the event that no entering students are eligible in a given year they may be awarded to undergraduates in any year or field of study on the basis of scholarship standing.

Key Tag Scholarships
Up to three scholarships, valued at $500.00 per annum, are donated by the Newfoundland Branch of the War Amputees of Canada, and are to be known as the Key Tag Scholarships. These scholarships are awarded annually to amputee students in any year or field of study at Memorial University of Newfoundland. In the event that no applications are received from amputee students, the Committee may consider other physically disabled students. In making the awards, financial need, initiative and scholastic achievement will be considered. In special circumstances, the scholarships may be held for more than one year. A special application is required and may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956.

The Killam American Undergraduate Scholarship
This scholarship fund is the result of gifts to Memorial University of Newfoundland in memory of Isaac Walton Killam of Nova Scotia made by the charitable trusts of his sisters in Massachusetts. The fund will provide one or more non-renewable entrance scholarships, valued up to $3,000.00 (Canadian), to undergraduate students from the United States wishing to study at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Eligible candidates will be citizens of the United States who meet current admission requirements to Memorial University of Newfoundland and demonstrate scholarship standing comparable to that prescribed for Newfoundland and Labrador and Canadian applicants. Recipients will be required to have fewer than 31 credit hours of transfer credits and to register at Memorial University of Newfoundland as full-time undergraduate students for at least four courses in each of two semesters in their first academic year at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The scholarship(s) will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of a recommendation from the Director of Student Recruitment.

The Iris Kirby Memorial Scholarship
This award, valued at $850.00 annually, has been established by the friends and colleagues of the late Iris Kirby. Iris was an active feminist and advocate of encouraging women to develop their fullest potential. The scholarship is open to women enrolling in full-time undergraduate studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland who are entering or returning after at least five years out of full-time study. Applicants should have been resident in Newfoundland for at least one year before applying. The scholarship will be awarded in the Winter semester on the basis of the Fall semester’s results. In deciding on candidates of equal academic attainment, a commitment to the goal of equal status for women in our society will be considered. A special application is required and may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956.

Korea Veterans’ Association Scholarship
Twenty-six thousand, seven hundred and ninety-one (26,791) Canadians served in the Korean Theatre between the beginning of hostilities in 1950 and the signing of the cease-fire in 1953. Another 7,000 served between the cease-fire and the end of 1955. This

One scholarship of $500 is awarded annually to a student who meets the following criteria: A full-time first year student at Memorial University of Newfoundland who is the child or grandchild of a Canadian Korea War Veteran and who has scholarship standing. In a year when there is no eligible child or grandchild in first year, the scholarship may be awarded to a child or grandchild beyond first year studies. If there is still no eligible student, the scholarship may be awarded to any first year student at Memorial who has scholarship standing. This scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of an application which is available from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Rm. 4018, University Centre.

The Labrador Fishermen’s Union Shrimp Company Memorial Scholarship
These scholarships, two valued at $2,500.00 each annually, were created in honour of the six crew members who died in the 1990 airplane crash in Greenland. They will be awarded to entrance students from Coastal Labrador on the basis of scholarship standing. The first scholarship will be to a student from the Red Bay to Lance au Clair area and the second one to a student from the Lodge Bay to Cartwright area.

The Locke’s Electrical Limited 50th Anniversary Scholarship
This scholarship is the result of an endowment established by Locke’s Electrical Limited, Corner Brook, on the occasion of their 50th anniversary. Valued at the interest on the endowment, it will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to an undergraduate student in any year of study who is a child or grandchild of a current or retired staff member of Locke’s Electrical Limited or one of its affiliates. If the scholarship is not awarded in one year then two may be awarded the following year. An application is required and may be obtained from, and returned to, Locke’s Electrical Limited, Corner Brook.

The Thelma Marsh Scholarship
This scholarship is a result of an ongoing gift to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Mrs. Thelma Marsh of St. John’s. The scholarship, valued at $2,000.00 annually, is to be awarded to an entrance student from Newfoundland and Labrador. It will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing and financial need.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland 50th Anniversary Scholarships
These scholarships are a result of donations made to the Memorial University of Newfoundland Opportunity Fund Campaign. Established in 1999, they are awarded annually to students entering the University in Fall semester who have received a provincial government scholarship. The University will offer a scholarship of matching value to students who receive The Junior Jubilee, The Constable W. C. Moss, The Centenary of Responsible Government and the Provincial Electoral District Scholarships.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Alumni Entrance Scholarship
This scholarship is made possible by a donation from the Memorial University of Newfoundland Alumni Association. The scholarship is valued at $5,000.00 per year and is renewable to a maximum of an additional four years provided first class and scholarship standing are maintained. The scholarship is tenable in all undergraduate programs at this University.

Memorial University of Newfoundland Endowment Scholarships
These scholarships, established by Memorial University of Newfoundland, are awarded annually to students in any year or faculty with approximately 50% of those awarded in a given year allocated for Entrance Students. The number and value of the annual scholarships vary depending on the interest earned. They are awarded on the basis of scholarship standing.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Faculty Association Scholarship Fund
The Memorial University of Newfoundland Faculty Association has established a trust fund to provide scholarships and bursaries to needy students in good academic standing. Assistance from this fund is available to entering students as well as to those further along in their studies and may be re-applied for in subsequent years. The first of the MUNFA Scholarships awarded each year is the Ditte Koster Memorial Scholarship. This award honours the late Ditte Koster who, up to the time of her death, was a professional librarian at the University. As a contribution to the Opportunity Fund in 1999, the Faculty Association pledged to pay the University the interest from their trust for the period January 1, 2000 to March 31, 2004. The matching money from this pledge will be contributed to the University’s general Scholarship Endowment Fund allowing the University to award additional general scholarships.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland International Entrance Scholarship
These scholarships have been established by Memorial University of Newfoundland as part of an agreement by the Board of Regents, in May 2003, that a portion of the tuition fees for international undergraduate students would be set aside for International Scholarships. The values will vary but will not exceed $2,000.00 each annually. To be considered for these scholarships, a student must be eligible to pay the international undergraduate fee, must register for at least four courses in each of two semesters in their first academic year at Memorial University of Newfoundland, should normally have fewer than 31 credit hours of transfer credits and meet scholarship standing (comparable to that prescribed for Newfoundland and Labrador and Canadian applicants). These scholarships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of a recommendation from the Director, Office of Student Recruitment.

The G.H. Morgan and Son Scholarship
This scholarship is the interest on a sum donated by a member of the Morgan Printing Co., Ltd., in memory of the founders of the firm, the late G.H. Morgan, Esq., and his son, the late Albert MacGregor Morgan, Esq. At the request of the donor, it is awarded annually based on the University final admission average. It will be awarded with first preference to a student from Coley’s Point. If no eligible student from Coley’s Point can be identified, preference will be given to students from (a) Bay Roberts, (b) the entire district of Port-de-Grave.

The Jacob and Floral Morgan Scholarship Fund
This fund has been established by relatives and friends of the late Jacob Morgan, a teacher for thirty years in the outports of this province, and of his wife Floral. One or more scholarships, valued at not less than $2,500.00 each will be awarded annually. Preference will be given to students from the smaller outports, primarily to those who are entering Memorial University of Newfoundland for the first time.

The Julia E. Morgan Scholarship Fund

They have been funded in part by a donation received from the Albatross Hotel of Gander and the Mount Peyton Hotel of Grand Falls. They will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence.

The Edward G. Mullins Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship valued at $500.00 annually has been established by the Newfoundland and Labrador Branch of the Kidney Foundation of Canada. It honours the memory of the late Edward G. Mullins who had kidney disease and was a dedicated volunteer of the Foundation. Preference will be given to applicants who have kidney disease, who have completed a minimum of 18 credit hours over two semesters in the previous scholarship year with a minimum average of 75% in the courses which comprise those credit hours and are enrolled full time at the University. However, if in a given year such an applicant(s) is not available, dependents of someone who has/had kidney disease may qualify. Such applicants must be enrolled full time at Memorial University of Newfoundland and have scholarship standing. In deciding on candidates of equal academic attainment from the latter group, need may be the determining factor. In some cases the scholarship may be held for more than one year. A special application is required and must be submitted to the scholarship office. Applications may be obtained in writing to The Kidney Foundation of Canada, Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Newfoundland & Labrador Branch, Room 4018, University Centre, P.O. Box 7342, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1E 3Y5, or by telephone to (709) 753-8999 or (709) 737-3956.

The MUNSU Undergraduate Scholarship

3 Scholarships, Bursaries, and Awards Administered By the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards for Which Undergraduate Students Already in Attendance at the University May Qualify

3.1 General

The following are not specific to an academic discipline.

Affinity NL (Ottawa) Scholarship

This scholarship is made possible by the fund raising efforts of the Ottawa Affinity Newfoundland and Labrador group and is valued at a portion of the income on the investment according to Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Awards Program Spending Policy. Based on scholarship standing (academic excellence), it will be awarded in an alternating fashion to a first year undergraduate student (entering their second year) and then a first-year graduate student (entering the first year of either a Master's or Ph.D. program). The student must be from a rural community in Newfoundland and Labrador, express an interest in returning to work in rural Newfoundland, and be registered for full-time studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Rural is defined as outside St. John's and Corner Brook as determined by the Centre for Institutional Analysis and Planning, or an equivalent University or Government body. When awarded to an undergraduate student, the Scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. When awarded to a graduate student, it will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Awards and Medals Committee.

The Arnold’s Cove, Come By Chance, North Harbour Fishers and Newfoundland Transshipment Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Newfoundland Transshipment Limited (NTL) as part of an agreement between them and the Fishers Liaison Committee (FLC) of the Arnold’s Cove, Come By Chance and the North Harbour area. This scholarship, valued at the annual interest on the initial endowment to a maximum of $500 per student, will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to a Fishers’ descendant(s) who is registered as a full-time student at Memorial University of Newfoundland in any year or field of study. In the event that no applicants are received from Fishers or Fishers’ descendants in a given year, the scholarship may be awarded to another student from above noted geographic areas. Eligibility of applicants under the above criteria will be verified by the Fisheries Liaison Committee (FLC). Memorial University of Newfoundland is encouraged to ensure that the scholarship is alternated between communities and their eligible students. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of an application which may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre or by calling (709) 737-3956. Completed applications must be returned to the FLC for appropriate verification.

The Edward G. Mullins Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship was established by the Newfoundland and Labrador Branch of the Kidney Foundation of Canada. It honours the memory of the late Edward G. Mullins who had kidney disease and was a dedicated volunteer of the Foundation. Successful applicants must be residents of Newfoundland and Labrador (a person who has maintained permanent residence in the province for a minimum of twelve months immediately prior to entering the University). Preference will be given to applicants who have kidney disease, who have completed a minimum of 18 credit hours over two semesters in the previous scholarship year with a minimum average of 75% in the courses which comprise those credit hours and are enrolled full time at the University. However, if in a given year such an applicant(s) is not available, dependents of someone who has/had kidney disease may qualify. Such applicants will be enrolled full time at Memorial University of Newfoundland and have scholarship standing. In deciding on candidates of equal academic attainment from the latter group, need may be the determining factor. In some cases the scholarship may be held for more than one year. A special application is required and must be submitted to the scholarship office. Applications may be obtained from The Foundation of Canada, Newfoundland & Labrador Branch, 58 Kenmount Rd. St. John’s, NL, A1B 1W2, or by telephone to (709) 753-8999, or from the Scholarships and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre, Memorial University of Newfoundland or by telephone to (709) 737-3956.

The MUNSU Undergraduate Scholarship
This scholarship fund is the result of an endowment which began in 1996 as a part of the Opportunity Fund Campaign. Women in Engineering Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship has been established to commemorate the sudden and tragic deaths of fourteen women at L'Ecole Polytechnique in Montreal on December 6, 1989. Thirteen of the women who died so violently were pursuing studies in engineering, historically a non-traditional field for women. It is hoped this annual $2,500.00 scholarship will encourage more women to study and work in this profession, thereby increasing the contribution of women to engineering and scientific endeavours. Funding support is provided by the Faculty of Engineering & Applied Science, C-CORE, Memorial University of Newfoundland Alumni Association and individual contributions. This award is tenable at Memorial University of Newfoundland to female students regardless of age, who are entering the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. To be eligible, applicants must demonstrate a commitment to the advancement of women in Engineering fields and an active involvement in wider issues of social concern to women, as well as sound scholastic ability. The committee may also consider applications from female students already enrolled in Engineering studies, provided they meet the eligibility criteria above. A special committee, consisting of representatives from the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, C-CORE, Memorial University of Newfoundland's Alumni Association, Women's Studies and Women in Science and Engineering meets annually to consider applications for this scholarship. The award will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of this committee.

3.6 Faculty of Medicine

3.7 Faculty of Science
The following are available to Faculty of Science students based on a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Science or the appropriate Director or Department Head.

The Dr. H.J. Anderson Departmental Awards in Chemistry
Four awards have been established through the Department of Chemistry to honour retired Faculty member and Professor Emeritus, Dr. H.J. Anderson. The recipients of these awards will have demonstrated academic excellence in Chemistry courses. Best Marks in Chemistry 2400 and 2401, Best Third Year Performance by a Chemistry Major, Second Best Third Year Performance by a Chemistry Major, and Best Fourth Year Performance by a Chemistry Major (not receiving a convocation award). These awards will be presented in May and June of each year based on the most recent year’s academic performance. They will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Chemistry.

The Hugh J. Anderson Chemistry Scholarship
The scholarship is valued at $5,000, and is provided via a contribution to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Mr. Darryl Fry. It will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing and need to residents of Newfoundland and Labrador who have completed first year chemistry at Memorial University of Newfoundland and are declared majors in Chemistry. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards based on a recommendation from the Dean, Department of Chemistry.

The Dr. Cater W. Andrews Scholarship
This scholarship, valued at a minimum of $1,000.00, the gift of former students and colleagues of the late Dr. C.W. Andrews, is awarded to a Memorial University of Newfoundland student graduating with a B.Sc. in Biology who plans to pursue graduate work at Memorial University of Newfoundland in marine and/or freshwater biology. The scholarship is awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head of the Biology Department. In making the selection, exceptional industry and interest in the field, together with scholarship standing, will be the main criteria taken into account.

The Astrazeneca Undergraduate Scholarship
This scholarship, valued at $4,000.00 annually, has been established by Astrazeneca Canada Inc. It will be awarded to Bachelor of Science students in their final year of the Honours program. It will be awarded on an annually rotating basis between Biology, Biochemistry and Chemistry respectively. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing and a recommendation from the Head of the appropriate department.

The Atlantic Canada Marine Biodiversity Essay Contest Tuition Scholarship
Memorial University of Newfoundland is a participant in the Atlantic Canada Marine Biodiversity Essay Contest which is operated by the Centre for Marine Biodiversity. This contest is open to Grade 12 students from across Atlantic Canada. The first prize winner receives a waiver of tuition fees for two semesters if he or she attends Memorial University of Newfoundland. The two runners up receive partial waiver of tuition fees if they attend Memorial University of Newfoundland. Students are notified of their status in the Essay Contest by the Centre for Marine Biodiversity and the successful candidates are informed of their tuition scholarship by the university, after the Centre for Marine Biodiversity informs the university of the contest winners. Further information can be found on the web site of the Centre www.marinebiodiversity.ca. The scholarship is awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards based on a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Science.

The Atreya-Haritha Scholarship in Mathematics
This scholarship is the result of a generous donation by Dr. K.R. and Nandini Kothandaraman. Valued at $1000 annually, it will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to a full-time student, either a senior level undergraduate or a graduate student in Mathematics and/or Statistics. In the case of an undergraduate student, the scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards upon recommendation of the Head, Department of Mathematics and Statistics. In the case of a graduate student, it will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies, also upon recommendation of the head, Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

The Au Family Scholarship in Biochemistry
This scholarship is valued at the interest accruing annually on an endowment given to Memorial University of Newfoundland by the Au family. It is open to students entering their final year of study in the Biochemistry program who, during their studies, combined a record of high academic achievement and scholarship standing with active involvement in extracurricular activities within the University, including athletic prowess at the varsity level. The award is made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Biochemistry.

Donald and Evelyn Barton Chemistry Scholarship
This scholarship is the result of an endowment to Memorial University of Newfoundland in memory of Dr. Donald Barton who was a faculty member with the Department of Chemistry from 1962 to 1992. This scholarship, valued at a portion of the annual income, will be awarded to a student majoring in Chemistry who is beyond their first year of study and who has demonstrated scholarship standing. It will be awarded by the Senate committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards, upon the recommendation of the Dean, Department of Chemistry in consultation with the Chemistry Department Scholarships Committee.

The Bennett/Khan Bursary in Biology
This bursary is made possible through a fund established by an anonymous donor in honour of Dr’s Gordon Bennett and Rasul Khan.
Valued at the interest on the initial endowment, it will be awarded annually to a full time student beyond second year who is majoring in Biology with particular reference to parasitology or another branch of invertebrate zoology. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Biology.

The E.A. Bishop (1889-1953) Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, established to honour the memory of E.A. Bishop, a teacher in Newfoundland and Labrador, is the result of a generous donation to Memorial University of Newfoundland by his son, John. Interest on the fund will provide a scholarship to full-time undergraduate students after completion of their first year at Memorial University of Newfoundland who are dependants of teachers in the public school system of Newfoundland and Labrador. Applicants must be students in the Faculties of Arts or Science and be of scholarship standing. The scholarship is valued at approximately two semesters tuition for five courses. If, in any year, there is no eligible candidate, the scholarship will not be awarded; however, a student may be awarded the scholarship more than once. It will be awarded on the basis of a special application which may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards office, room 4018, University Centre, telephone (709) 737-3956.

The W.J. Blundon Scholarship, in memory of Professor W.J. Blundon, Head of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics from 1948 to 1976, will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence to students majoring in Mathematics and/or Statistics. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

BP Canada Energy Company Scholarships in Earth Sciences

These Scholarships, the gift of BP Canada Energy Company, are valued at $2,500.00 each annually and are awarded to two students in the Earth Sciences program at Memorial University of Newfoundland. One scholarship will be awarded to a student in Geology and one to a student in Geophysics. Normally students must be registered full-time in the year for which these scholarships are granted, however, in the case of a student who has met all academic requirements for their Honours degree, except the Honours dissertation, part-time registration will be accepted. Candidates must have demonstrated high academic achievement and an interest in oil and gas exploration and development. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences.

The Dr. S. W. Brecken Scholarship in Physics

This scholarship, valued at $1000.00, is the gift of former students and colleagues of Dr. Brecken and is awarded to the full-time honours Physics student who has the best overall academic performance upon completion of the third or fourth year honours Physics program and subsequent enrollment in the following year.

The award is made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Physics. Applications should be directed to the Head of the Department of Physics.

The Murray H. Brooker Scholarship for Excellence in Chemistry

The scholarship is valued at the annual interest on an endowment established in memory of Dr. Murray H. Brooker who was a professor in the Department of Chemistry when he passed away in 2000. It will be awarded to a student who is beyond first year at Memorial University of Newfoundland, who is a declared major in Chemistry and who has been accepted to work in a Chemistry Laboratory for the current/next summe. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing and a recommendation from the Head, Department of Chemistry.

The Dr. Werner D. Bruckner Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at $500.00, honours the memory of Werner D. Bruckner, Head of the Department of Geology at this University from 1959 to 1968, J. P. Howley Research Professor from 1968 to 1977 and Professor Emeritus, 1978. It is awarded annually to an undergraduate student majoring in Earth Sciences.

The award will be based upon scholarship standing but, in recognition of other concerns held as particularly important by Dr. Bruckner, financial need and qualities of character will also be considered. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences.

The Bruton Scholarship Fund

Dr. F.A. Bruton, friend and colleague of J.L. Paton, taught Nature Study to teachers in three successive Memorial University College summer schools, from 1926-28, at Paton's request. At his death in 1930, Dr. Bruton made a bequest to the College from which two awards are awarded. These scholarships, valued at $500.00 each, are awarded annually to students who have demonstrated interest in Plant Biology. One award will be available to a student majoring in Biology whose special interest is in the field of Plant Biology. The second award will be available to an Education student whose main area of interest is in the teaching of science, in particular, plant biology. In the absence of a suitable candidate from the one department, two awards may be made by the other department in accordance with the above conditions. Academic ability and financial need will be taken into consideration in making these awards. They will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards acting on the advice of the department concerned.

Buchans Scholarship Fund of ASARCO Incorporated

ASARCO Incorporated has established a scholarship fund, the annual interest on which will provide for students enrolled in the Department of Earth Sciences, Memorial University of Newfoundland, either a scholarship for post-graduate study and research, valued at $5000.00; or two scholarships for undergraduate study, valued at $500.00 each. The latter scholarships will be available only when no suitable candidate can be found for the former. In order to qualify for these awards, students must be native-born Newfoundlanders or graduates of Newfoundland high schools. In the case of the graduate scholarship, the award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences; in the case of the undergraduate scholarships, by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences. Should no candidates be available in any year, the awards may be held over.

The Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (Newfoundland Branch) Golden Jubilee Scholarship

This scholarship valued at a portion of the income on the investment, will be awarded to a student entering the final year of undergraduate studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Based on scholarship standing, the scholarship will be available to a student majoring in a field of study that is covered by the fields of interest of the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum specifically; Earth Sciences, Geophysics, Geography, Economics, Environmental Science, Engineering, Business and Commerce. Financial need may be taken into consideration. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (Newfoundland Branch) Silver Jubilee Scholarship

This $1,500.00 annual award is available to students in the final or penultimate year in Earth Sciences at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Scholaristic achievement is the principal requirement governing the award but economic need and character may be taken into account. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.
acting on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Earth Sciences.

The Chevron Canada Resources Scholarship in Geology and Geophysics
This scholarship, valued at a portion of the annual income on an endowment created at Memorial University of Newfoundland by Chevron Canada Resources, will be awarded annually to an undergraduate 3rd or 4th year student studying Geology or Geophysics in the Department of Earth Sciences. It will be awarded on the basis of scholastic standing and financial need to a student who graduated from a high school in Newfoundland and Labrador. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences.

The Marion (Ward Hue) Christian Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship, valued at a portion of the income from the endowment, is the result of a generous donation by Dr. David Ward, and is established in memory of his mother, Marion (Ward Hue) Christian. Original from Trinity, Trinity Bay, Marion worked with the Department of Public Health helping elderly adults learn to read before going on to Columbia University and Emory College to study special education and geriatrics. She later served as the Deputy Director of the Hoyles Home, St. John’s until her retirement. The scholarship recipient will be a full-time undergraduate student beyond first year who must demonstrate financial need as well as scholarship standing. The student must be from an area of Newfoundland and Labrador outside of metropolitan St. John’s and Corner Brook. Although students in all areas of study are eligible, preference will be given to those studying in the sciences. The Scholarship will be awarded by the Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Churchill Falls (Labrador) Corporation Limited Science Scholarship
These scholarships valued at approximately $2,500.00 each annually, are the result of an endowment to The Opportunity Fund by the Churchill Falls (Labrador) Corporation Limited. They will be awarded to second year students or beyond entering the Faculty of Science. The scholarships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing and a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Science. All else being equal, preference will be given to students from Labrador.

The Canadian Society for Chemistry 1996 Conference and Exhibition Scholarship

The fund will provide several scholarships valued at a minimum of $1,500.00 each annually. They will be awarded to Chemistry students entering their third year of a Bachelor of Chemistry program (General or Honours). If there are not enough eligible third year students in a given year, it will be open to those in their fourth year. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing. The student must be from an area of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Ernst R. Deutsch Memorial Scholarship in Geophysics
This scholarship is named in honour of Dr. Deutsch, a long-time faculty member at Memorial University of Newfoundland who passed away in 2000. Valued at a portion of the income on the investment the scholarship will be awarded annually to a senior undergraduate student in the Earth Sciences (or related field of Physics) whose concentration is Geophysics. If there is no qualified undergraduate student, the scholarship will be awarded to a full-time graduate student in Earth Sciences who has received an undergraduate degree from Memorial University of Newfoundland and whose area of concentration is Geophysics. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the basis of scholarship standing and a recommendation from the Head, Department of Earth Sciences in the case of an undergraduate student; in the case of a Graduate Student it will be awarded by the Dean of Research and Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head, Department of Earth Sciences.

The Faculty of Science Opportunity Fund Scholarship
This scholarship is the result of an endowment created from several general donations to the Opportunity Fund by various alumni and friends of the University and in particular of the Faculty of Science. Valued at the annual interest on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a student beyond first year in the Faculty of Science at Memorial University of Newfoundland on the basis of scholarship standing. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Science.

Dr. L.A.W. Feltham Scholarship
This scholarship began with fundraising within the Biochemistry Department during the 1996 Opportunity Fund Campaign. It is named for Dr. Feltham, the founding head of the department. The interest on the endowment will provide a scholarship for a student in the B.Sc. Program in Biochemistry. It will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards to a student beyond second year on the basis of scholarship standing and a recommendation from the Head, Department of Biochemistry.

The Daniel Freeman Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship was established from the contributions of many family members, friends, and fellow students in memory of Danny Freeman, a former Engineering student at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The scholarship, valued at a portion of the accrued interest, will be awarded annually, on a rotating basis, to students enrolled in either Engineering or Mathematics. Preference will be given to students with disabilities or consideration for quality of character and overall perseverance. If a successful candidate is not recommended by the discipline on rotation in a given year an eligible student from the other discipline may be awarded the scholarship for that year. If no candidates are available from the first group any student enrolled in either Engineering or Mathematics (discipline to be determined by the rotation schedule in a given year) will be considered. This scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Engineering or the Head, Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Other things being equal, the prize will be awarded to a student who has produced original work of literary merit.

6 Scholarships, Bursaries, and Awards Available for Undergraduate Students for Study Outside Newfoundland and Labrador

The Gordon Billard Award in Education
A donation has been made to Memorial University of Newfoundland by Mr. Gordon Billard for the purpose of establishing a fund to provide financial assistance to Education students who live at the University's Harlow campus while undertaking approved studies in Great Britain. The award is intended to enhance the student’s educational experience in Britain. Its value will be based on the annual interest on the fund. It will be awarded during the Spring Semester by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards upon the recommendation of the Dean, Student Affairs and Services. Academic achievement and financial need will be considered.

The Coca-Cola Scholarship for International Studies
This scholarship, valued at the annual interest on its endowment, has been established from contributions to the University's Opportunity Fund Campaign by The Coca-Cola Foundation. It will be awarded to a student who has completed at least two years of a degree program at Memorial University of Newfoundland and who has been accepted to attend a recognized university outside Canada for one or two semesters of study for transfer credit to Memorial University of Newfoundland towards completion of his/her undergraduate degree.

The Harlow Development Corporation Scholarship
The Harlow Development Corporation, Harlow, England, has made a grant to establish a scholarship fund to financially assist students from Memorial University of Newfoundland who wish to live at the University's Harlow campus while undertaking approved studies in Great Britain. The fund will also provide scholarships to students who are residents of Harlow and who wish to study at Memorial University of Newfoundland, or some other institute of learning, in Newfoundland. It is hoped that interest on the fund will finance five or six annual scholarships at £250 each.

Harlow Travel Awards
A number of travel awards, each valued to a maximum of £250 will be awarded to full-time undergraduate students registered at the Harlow Campus in a Memorial University of Newfoundland approved program. Preference will be given to students who are permanent residents of the province of Newfoundland and Labrador and are attending the Harlow Campus for a minimum of six consecutive weeks residing on the campus for the duration of the award. Eligibility for these awards requires a minimum of clear academic standing in the previous scholarship year. The awards will be made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards upon the recommendation of the Harlow Scholarship Trustees. Application forms are available in-person or by writing the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C5S7, or by telephone to (709) 737-3956, or on the Harlow Campus web site at www.mun.ca/harlow.

The H.H. Jackson Travel Scholarship in German
This scholarship was established upon the retirement of Dr. Herbert H. Jackson, Professor Emeritus and first Head of the Department of German and Russian from 1967 to 1980, through the generosity of his colleagues and students. The scholarship has a minimum value of $500.00 and is awarded annually by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards, upon the recommendation of the Department Head, to a candidate who has completed at least the second year of study at Memorial University of Newfoundland, has demonstrated a high level of academic performance in German, and is planning to undertake a program of studies and/or work assignment in a German-speaking country.

The Arthur and Sonia May Scholarship
The scholarship, which is expected to be between $4,000 and $5,000 (based on the annual interest on its endowment), has been established by Arthur and Sonia May on the occasion of the University's 50th Anniversary as a degree granting institution, and in gratitude for the outstanding experience they enjoyed as students. It will be awarded to a student who has completed at least two years of a degree program at Memorial University of Newfoundland and who has been accepted to attend a recognized university outside Canada for one or two semesters of study to transfer credit to Memorial University of Newfoundland towards completion of his/her undergraduate degree. Applications may be made to the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre on or before March 31.

The Dr. M.O. and Grace Morgan Harlow Bursary
This bursary, valued at a portion of the annual accrued interest on an endowment to Memorial University of Newfoundland from the estate of Dr. and Mrs. Morgan, was established to encourage and assist undergraduate students to attend the University's Harlow Campus. It is open to full-time Memorial University of Newfoundland students attending the Harlow Campus. Up to three bursaries of equal value will be awarded annually to two students in the Faculty of Education (one each in the Spring and Fall semesters) and one to a student in any field of study (in the Winter semester). An application is required to identify those students planning to attend Harlow in the winter semester only and may be obtained from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre. Bursaries awarded in fall and spring will be based on a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Education. These bursaries will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Patti Lynn Noonan Memorial Harlow Travel Bursary
This Bursary, valued at a portion of the income from the endowment, is established in memory of Patti Lynn Noonan by her family. Patti-Lynn's motto was "Live life to the fullest and appreciate it and always tell the people you love that you love them". Patti Lynn will always be remembered for her smile, her laughter, her love of life, her devotion to family, friends and the students in her care, her courage and her determination. Patti Lynn's experience at Harlow was a highlight of her time at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The purpose of the Bursary is to enable the recipient to travel outside of Harlow while studying at Memorial University of Newfoundland's Harlow Campus. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated need for good academic standing, and are accepted to study at the Harlow campus. Preference will be given to students enrolled in the Faculty of Education. The bursary will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The Rhodes Scholarship
A Rhodes Scholarship is tenable at the University of Oxford and may be held for three years. Since, however, the majority of Rhodes Scholars obtain standing which enables them to take a degree in two years, appointments are made for two years in the first instance. Scholars may, however, hold the Scholarship for only 1 year. Those Scholars who elect to read for a D.Phil. at the time of admission may apply for a third-year on stipend. The Rhodes Scholar must present a definite plan of study for that period satisfactory to his/her College and to the Rhodes Trustees. A Rhodes Scholar may apply to any one of the courses of study available at the University of Oxford, subject to the consent of the college or, in the case of graduate study, the relevant faculty or department. The stipend of a Rhodes Scholarship consists of a direct payment to the University and to the Scholar's College of approved fees (such as matriculation, tuition, laboratory fees, and certain other set charges), plus a maintenance allowance, which is paid directly to the Scholar at the rate of at least £3,480 per annum to cover board, lodging and other expenses. The sum provided should be sufficient to enable a Scholar to meet the necessary expenses for term-time and vacations, but those who can afford to supplement it to a modest extent from their own resources are advised to do so. Reasonable travel expenses to and from Oxford will be paid by the Trust. Application forms containing full particulars can be obtained from the Secretary of the Selection Committee for the Province of Newfoundland or from the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Inquiries may be directed to the Secretary of the Selection Committee to Dr. S. Ann Colbourne, 88 Hugh’s Pond Road, Portugal Cove-St. Philips, NL, A1M 2C6, by telephone to (709) 777-5219, by fax to (709) 777-5849, or by email to acolbourne@nl.rogers.com.

The Rothermere Harlow Travel Bursary
This bursary was established by the Rothermere Foundation to enable full-time undergraduate students to attend a complete semester of study at the Harlow Campus of the University of London. Four bursaries, valued at £2,500 each, are awarded annually to students in financial need who have a minimum GPA of 2 (out of a possible 4). The first preference in awarding this bursary will be to students from communities in central Newfoundland. If there are not enough eligible candidates from central Newfoundland in a given year then students from other regions of Newfoundland and Labrador may be considered. The bursaries will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards based on a recommendation from the Scholarship Committee of the Harlow Campus Trust. A special application is required which may be obtained from the Scholarships and Awards Office, Room 4018, Smallwood Centre, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL A1B 5S7 or online at www.mun.ca/scholarships.

Dr. Edmund de Rothschild Harlow Travel Bursary
This bursary was established to enhance the student’s educational experience while studying at Memorial University of Newfoundland’s Harlow Campus, by providing funds to defray cost of travel and field work. Travel bursaries valued at a portion of the accrued interest on the endowment to a maximum of £250.00 will be awarded to full-time, undergraduate students registered at the Harlow Campus in a program approved by Memorial University of Newfoundland. The bursary will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards and will be based on need. Eligibility for a bursary requires a minimum overall cumulative GPA of 2. Application forms are available in-person or by writing the Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Office, Room 4018, University Centre, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John’s, NL A1B 5S7, or by telephone to (709) 737-3956. Applications must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation from a faculty member, including confirmation that the travel is in support of the approved program.

The Scotiabank Bursaries for International Study
These bursaries, funded by a generous donation from Scotiabank to The Opportunity Fund, are intended to help students broaden their educational experience and cultivate an international perspective through study abroad while pursuing studies in the Faculty of Arts at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Fifteen or more bursaries will be available with approximately ten at the undergraduate level valued at $1,000.00 each and five at the graduate level valued at $2,000.00 each. The undergraduate bursaries will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to full-time students who are participating in one of the overseas Field Schools or study abroad opportunities sponsored by the Faculty of Arts. These include the Arts semester in Harlow (every Fall) as well as Summer programs at Harlow and in other countries such as Ireland, Malta, Russia, etc. In addition, students wishing to participate in formal exchange programs through the faculty of Arts, such as those with the University of Keele, will also qualify. The graduate bursaries will be based on academics as well and will assist full-time Faculty of Arts master’s and doctoral students (including those in interdisciplinary programs) to travel to other countries for the purpose of thesis research and thesis-related study. In both cases financial need may be taken into consideration. In the case of undergraduates the bursaries will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards, and in the case of graduates they will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases the bursaries will be awarded on the basis of a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Arts.

Prize in Psychiatry
To be awarded by the Psychiatry Department to the most outstanding student in Psychiatry in the Clinical Clerkship Year (Third-Year Medical Studies).

The Pro Vice-Chancellor's Prize
The Strategic Framework for Memorial University of Newfoundland states that Memorial will enrich undergraduate education by helping students to experience the excitement of intellectual discovery, introducing undergraduates more effectively to the wider academic enterprise. In encouragement of this objective and in recognition of superior writing and scholarship by undergraduate students that deserves a wider audience, the Vice-President (Academic) and Pro Vice-Chancellor has established a series of prizes for the best undergraduate scholarship done each year at the University.

Instructors are invited to nominate examples of their undergraduate students' course work for the Pro Vice-Chancellor's Prize. The professor will certify that the work is original and the student's own work, and submit it to his/her head/director who will transmit it to the committee. Students may also submit their own course work for consideration. Instructors' comments should not appear. In accepting nomination or making application, students agree to publication.

Nominations and applications will be assessed by a selection committee consisting of five academic staff members and chaired by the Associate Vice-President (Academic). The committee will adjudicate entries for their intellectual originality, cogency, facility of expression, and adherence to principles of scientific inquiry and critical thinking.

The value of the prize is $500 cash or a $1000 scholarship tenable in a graduate program at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Up to five prizes will be awarded each year. At the discretion of the selection committee, honourable mention may be accorded to entries beyond the available number of prizes.

Rixon Rafter Scholarship Fund
This fund was established in memory of Rixon Rafter, a former student of the Ontario School for the Blind, who became a successful newspaper owner in Ontario. Awards from this fund are intended to supplement, but not replace assistance available to students from existing sources. The amount granted to students from this fund is determined by the Rixon Rafter Scholarship Committee and financial need is taken into consideration. Registered blind students may request assistance from the fund by contacting the nearest Canadian National Institute for the Blind office in their area.

The Rhodes Scholarship
A Rhodes Scholarship is tenable at the University of Oxford and may be held for three years. Since, however, the majority of Rhodes Scholars obtain standing which enables them to take a degree in two years, appointments are made for two years in the first instance. Scholars, however, hold the Scholarship for only 1 year. Those Scholars who elect to read for a DPhil at the time of admission may apply for a third year on stipend. The Rhodes Scholar must present a definite plan of study for that period satisfactory to his/her College and to the Rhodes Trustees. A Rhodes Scholar may apply to any one of the courses of study available at the University of Oxford, subject to the consent of the college or, in the case of graduate study, the relevant faculty or department.

The stipend of a Rhodes Scholarship consists of a direct payment to the University and to the Scholar's College of approved fees (such as matriculation, tuition, laboratory fees, and certain other set charges), plus a maintenance allowance, which is paid directly to the Scholar at the rate of at least 73,480 per annum to cover board, lodging and other expenses. The sum provided should be sufficient to enable the candidate to meet the necessary academic and financial need for full-time and vacation expenses, but those who can afford to supplement it to a modest extent from their own resources are advised to do so. Reasonable travel expenses to and from Oxford will be paid by the Trust. Diana Lemire Savidant Memorial Bursary Diana Lemire Savidant (1943-1994) was born and raised in Rouyn, Quebec and moved to Prince Edward Island in 1973. Always an avid student, she also gained respect as an art teacher. Applications for the scholarship will be accepted from female residents of Prince County 18 years of age and older. The award will be given to the applicant who displays the most potential for development and that sense of exploration in the visual arts epitomized by Diana Lemire Savidant's own career. Financial need will be an important factor in determining the recipient but not necessarily the only one. Applicants are expected to be pursuing the arts as a career option or serious avocation. Eligible programs include: study in the visual arts at recognized post-secondary institutions; summer schools or professional level courses and advanced workshops and seminars, minimum duration of five days.

The bursary will be awarded in June of each year commencing in 1996 and the amount of the bursary will be determined each year based on the return on the capital fund invested. The award will be presented in the form of a cheque or bank draft payable jointly to the successful applicant and the educational institution. The Awards Committee may vary this rule if it is not applicable. No award will be made with respect to expenses already incurred. Should the program applied for be cancelled or the recipient withdraw or fail to enroll, the funds must be returned to the East Prince Women's Information Centre. Applicants will be invited in March of each year through public announcements and other means with an application deadline of May 15. All applications must be accompanied by a resume and a full description of the program being pursued. The applicant should include a one page summary of personal background in art achievement and what goals are being pursued by following the study program for which support is being requested. Applicants selected for a finalist interview must be prepared to display a small portfolio of work, preferably in more than one medium. Where the program is more than one year in duration applicants are eligible to re-apply. Applications will be received until May 15 and may be obtained in writing to East Prince Women's Information Centre, 75 Central Street, Summerside, PE C1N 3L2 or by telephone to (902) 436-9856.

The Fund is administered by the Director, Student Support Programs through the Manager, Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards, and within guidelines already developed by the office for awards to financially needy students. These awards will not normally exceed $300.00.

Canada Student Loans Program Newfoundland and Labrador Student Loans Program
The Canada and Newfoundland and Labrador Student Loans Programs have been instituted by the Federal and Provincial Governments to provide assistance for students at universities and other institutions of post-secondary education.

The authorizing agency for Newfoundland and Labrador may be contacted in writing to Student Financial Services Division, Department of Youth Services and Post-Secondary Education, P.O. Box 8700, St. John's, NL, A1B 4J6 or by telephone to (709) 729-5849 or by fax to (709) 729-2298 or by e-mail to studentaid@mail.gov.nl.ca or website: www.edu.gov.nl.ca/studentaid.

The procedure is as follows:

1. Students seeking financial assistance must apply on an official application form for the academic year in which they are requesting assistance. Students may choose to apply on a paper application or via the Internet. It is the students' responsibility to ensure all required documentation has been submitted to our office.

2. If applications are successful, each student will be given certificates of eligibility for their federal and provincial student loans. In general, to receive a federal student loan, applicants must be enrolled in at least 60% of a full course load. In order to receive a provincial student loan, applicants must be enrolled in at least 80% of a full course load.

3. Having received the certificates of eligibility, students may then approach a designated postal outlet to negotiate the Canada Student Loan and the provincial authorized agency/lender to negotiate the Newfoundland and Labrador Student Loan.

4. A Canada Student Loan up to a maximum of $165 per week of study may be granted. A Newfoundland and Labrador Student Loan up to a maximum of $110 per week of study may be granted (up to $200 per week provincial student loan for Memorial University of Newfoundland Medical Students).

5. As long as students maintain full-time studies the interest on the loan will be paid by the government. Repayment will begin 6 months after a student ceases full-time studies.

Canadian Forces Personnel Assistance Fund
Education Assistance Loan Program
1. The Canadian Forces Personnel Assistance Fund offers an Education Assistance Loan Program to assist serving and former members and their dependants with costs of full-time postsecondary education. This program consists of low interest loans of $1,200 and $1,500, then in $500 increments up to a maximum of $4,000 per student, per year, up to a maximum of $16,000 lifetime per student. It should be noted that a period of 12 months must elapse before a new application can be considered.

2. Serving or former members are eligible to apply; they must have served in the Canadian Army, after 1st October 1946, or in the Canadian Forces, after 31 January 1968, and have a minimum of one year Regular Force military service. Selection may be based on family income, years of service and individual family circumstances.

3. Loans are repaid by the member over a twelve, twenty-four, thirty-six or forty-eight month period.

4. Application forms are available on our website at http://sisip.com/en/Downloads_e/ealp_e.asp, or from the Canadian Forces Base Financial Counsellors, district offices of Veterans Affairs Canada, and the Provincial Command offices of the Royal Canadian Legion. They may also be obtained by contacting the CFPF office at 234 Laurier Avenue West, Ottawa, Ontario, K1P 6K6, telephone 6137603447 or toll free 8887539828.

5. For those who wish to obtain their loan in time for the semester beginning in September, your submission should arrive at CFPF by 30 June. Otherwise, applications will be accepted throughout the year until the funds allotted for the EALP are exhausted.

The Rothermere Foundation Fellowships

These Fellowships, the gift of the first Chancellor of the University, have been established to aid and encourage students who have taken their first degree at this University to pursue their studies for a British higher degree at a university of their choice in the United Kingdom. They are intended that students who have obtained most of their education in Britain be eligible for a Fellowship. Awards are made by the Rothermere Fellowships Trust, on the recommendation of the President of Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The conditions of the award are as follows:

1. Candidates shall have completed a bachelor's degree at Memorial University of Newfoundland and have completed or be about to complete a master's degree either at Memorial University of Newfoundland or at another university in North America.
2. Fellowships will be awarded only to candidates who are proceeding to the United Kingdom to work for a British higher degree. Fellowships will not be awarded to candidates who wish to extend their stay in Britain to obtain a further British higher degree. Persons who are full-time members of a faculty of Memorial University of Newfoundland are not eligible for a Rothermere Fellowship.
3. The awards will be restricted to a maximum tenure of three years or the period requested in the candidate's application, whichever is the lesser. Continuation beyond the first year will depend on certification of competence and satisfactory progress.
4. Candidates must accept and complete the term of years for which the Fellowship has been awarded unless the requirements for the qualifications for which the Fellowship was awarded have been completed before the term expires. No interruption of tenure or postponement of the date of commencement of the Fellowship will be allowed.
5. One Fellowship is usually awarded each year.
6. The value of the stipend is currently £12,500 per annum, plus tuition fees. The fees will be paid direct to the university concerned upon receipt of an invoice. The stipend will be credited to the Fellow's banking account in quarterly instalments.
7. The Trust will pay for a return airfare, economy class, for Fellows from Newfoundland to England, and back to Newfoundland in each year of their Fellowship (a year being twelve months from the start of the Fellowship and every twelve months of the Fellowship thereafter). Flights must be economy return. The Trust will reimburse the air fare in the final year of award, on the proviso that the student must use the return portion to travel back to Newfoundland within one month of completing the Fellowship.
8. Completed applications must be submitted in duplicate to this office before the 30th of November and must be accompanied by the following documentation, also in duplicate:
   a. an official transcript of marks from Memorial University of Newfoundland and from any other university attended;
   b. a letter of recommendation from the dean of the faculty or school in which the applicant was registered as an undergraduate at...
Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards 2008-2009

Memorial University of Newfoundland;

c. a letter of recommendation from the head of the department in which applicant majored as an undergraduate at Memorial University of Newfoundland; and

d. a letter of recommendation from the applicant's present master's level supervisor;

e. as indicated in Section 15 of the application, applicants must submit a personal statement on how their research will contribute or be of value to Newfoundland and Labrador. The statement must also contain a section on the candidate's commitment to Newfoundland and Labrador.

Note that additional letters of recommendation and other information in support of the application may be submitted at the applicant's discretion.

Applicants are encouraged to begin the process of applying to universities in the United Kingdom before submitting the Rothermere Fellowship application.

Fifteen or more bursaries will be available with approximately ten at the undergraduate level valued at $1,000 and five at the graduate level valued at $2,000. Each. The undergraduate bursaries will be awarded on the basis of scholarship standing to full-time students who are participating in one of the overseas Field Schools or study abroad opportunities sponsored by the Faculty of Arts. These include the Arts semester in Harlow (every Fall) as well as Summer programs at Harlow and in other countries such as Ireland, Malta, Russia, etc. In addition, students wishing to participate in formal exchange programs through the faculty of Arts, such as those with the University of Keele, will also qualify. The graduate bursaries will be based on academics as well and will assist full-time Faculty of Arts master's and doctoral students (including those in interdisciplinary programs) to travel to other countries for the purpose of thesis research and thesis-related study. In both cases financial need may be taken into consideration. In the case of undergraduates the bursaries will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of graduates they will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases the bursaries will be awarded on the basis of a recommendation from the Dean, Faculty of Arts.

The Dr. Jorge Segovia Scholarship in Health Services Research

This scholarship has been established in honour of Dr. Jorge Segovia (former Associate Dean of Community Health and Professor Emeritus of Social Medicine). It is valued at $500.00 annually and will be awarded to any full-time graduate student doing Health Service Research at Memorial University of Newfoundland. The recipient of this scholarship will be selected on scholarship standing through such accomplishments as best paper, best thesis, or best research project. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Medicine, in consultation with the Associate Dean Community Health.

Dr. Alfred K. Snelgrove Graduate Scholarship in Earth Sciences

A bequest from Dr. Alfred K. Snelgrove makes possible up to two scholarships, valued at $5,000.00 per annum, for students applying for or enrolled in a graduate program in the Department of Earth Sciences. These scholarships are intended primarily for Canadian citizens or permanent residents, and are awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Earth Sciences. The scholarships are tenable for one year, and may be renewed. They may be held in addition to other scholarships and fellowships, and will be awarded only to applicants whose academic excellence and research potential can be clearly demonstrated.
Special Scholarships for Students to Pursue Graduate Studies Related to Resource Development

The "Special Scholarships for Studies in the Sciences Related to Resource Development" will be in the amount of $7500.00 annually for students registered in full-time post-graduate studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland, in programs leading to the Master's and/or Doctorate degrees in the Sciences related to Resource Development. A scholarship may be renewed and awarded for one additional year only.

The scholarships are to be tenable at Memorial University of Newfoundland, but under special circumstances may include approved studies abroad. Eligible candidates normally should be residents of the province, or should have been resident in the province for at least three years prior to entering the program, excluding time spent at post-secondary institutions.

Candidates will normally have a First-Class Undergraduate Degree, or a Second-Class Degree with First-Class standing in courses in their major field of study. Candidates should apply for the scholarships to the Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies, Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The Dr. Anna C. Templeton Memorial Graduate Scholarship

This fund was established from a bequest to the University by Dr. Anna C. Templeton. Awarded annually and valued at approximately 75% of the earned interest, the scholarship is open to full-time graduate students in any year of their program who are residents of Newfoundland and Labrador. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated leadership in teaching, promotion or development of craft or home economics in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador. Normally the award will be made to a student in the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science, the School of Nursing, the School of Social Work or at St. Wilfred Grenfell College, or the Fisheries and Marine Institute. The scholarship will be awarded by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies upon recommendation from the head of appropriate academic units in the above-noted areas. The award is not renewable, but reapplications will be considered.

The J. Beryl Truscott Graduate Scholarship

This fund is established in memorial to J. Beryl Truscott, a long-time employee of the Marine Sciences Research Laboratory, and is administered by the School of Graduate Studies. It is valued at $2000.00 and is normally awarded annually to a full-time student pursuing a graduate program in either Chemistry or Biochemistry. Awards will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies based upon recommendations from the Head, Department of Biochemistry and the Head, Department of Chemistry.

The Leslie Tuck-Avian Ecology Award

This endowed scholarship is named in honour of the late Dr. Leslie Mills Tuck, the first Dominion Wildlife Officer and Canadian Wildlife Service Officer in Newfoundland and Labrador. Author of two definitive and award-winning books on Newfoundland birds, The Murres (1951) and The Snipes (1972), Leslie Tuck was a J.L. Paton Research Chair in the Department of Psychology following his retirement from the Canadian Wildlife Service, and a member of the Natural History Society of Newfoundland and Labrador which he was instrumental in sustaining.

The award, valued at $1,000 annually, will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Dean of Science. A committee appointed by the Dean of Science shall select a nominee on the basis of a 500 word essay on the student's research and its relevance to the avian ecology and ecosystem preservation in Newfoundland and Labrador. Eligible candidates must be full-time graduate students in biopsychology, biology or psychology. The winning essay will be published in The Osprey, the quarterly publication of the Natural History Society of Newfoundland and Labrador.

University Support

A limited amount of University Support may be awarded to full-time students working toward graduate degrees at this University. Awards will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the recommendations of Departments. These awards may be supplemented by remuneration for extra duties performed in the Departments at the discretion of Department Heads.

The George Weston Graduate Scholarships

Two scholarships valued at a minimum of $2,000.00 each, will be awarded annually to full-time graduate students, one in the field of Marine Biology and one in the field of Marine Engineering. These students must have been born in one of the Atlantic Provinces. Tenable at Memorial University of Newfoundland, these scholarships will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon recommendation from the Deans of Science and Engineering.

The Wood Gundy Scholarship for Graduate Business Students

The Wood Gundy Scholarship for Graduate Business Students will be awarded annually to an MBA student of scholarship standing who has demonstrated leadership ability through participation in student, faculty or University activities and/or contribution to the larger community. Preference will be given to students with a demonstrated career interest in the area of finance. The value of this scholarship will be determined by the annual income derived from the initial endowment. It will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies upon the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Business Administration.

Women’s Association of Memorial University of Newfoundland Graduate Student Scholarship

Two Master’s level and two Ph.D. level scholarships valued at $1,200.00 each are awarded annually to full-time students entering a program in the School of Graduate Studies. Of the Master’s level awards, one shall be for a thesis program, and one for a non-thesis program. Financial need as well as scholarship standing will be taken into consideration. The awards will be made upon the recommendation of the Dean of Graduate Studies.
